

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 85

And Alina doesn't know that though Isabel is her attorney, she is also a messenger. Under that baby face, there are serious eyes, but also has a gossip heart.

Now she had relayed her request to Caleb.

Emma is looking for Caleb today, Caleb has been busy as an excuse not to see her.

Emma did not want go give up, unwilling to just leave.

At this moment, she stood in the office doorway, listening to the conversation inside. Otto said, "It seems she is really settling scores with you guys."

"Hmph." Caleb grunted coldly.

Before, he always thought she was lusting.

"Isabel said that in the part where she asked Emma to return her property, she was particularly serious in her request."

Seriously, that means it's not a temper tantrum?

This woman dare to do anything.

After hearing the conversation inside, Emma was shocked, not expecting what Alina had said to herself in the underground garage earlier was for real.

What qualifies her?

With that one marriage license between her and Caleb? Her heart was constantly heaving, it was clear that that marriage license was of great use.

How many women have wanted a marriage license with Caleb over the years and never got one, and that includes her.

She thought that with that incident, she would at least have an advantage over Caleb.

But what she didn't expect in any way was, Caleb, a man with a very clear head in his feelings, is not just anyone can calculate.

All these years, he gave her everything, even took her to attend less than a party.

The outside world, almost universally, believes that she will be the second wife of Master Caleb and is going to replace Alina.

And yet, even with all the outside pressure, there was no response from Caleb.

It's as if what everyone is talking about has nothing to do with him.

At that time, she thought, anyway, Alina is gone, she will just wait till she becomes his wife.

No one can replace her presence and position.

But Alina came back.

After these years of events, Emma clearly realized that no one can threaten Caleb, so how in the end he agreed to marry Alina? Or, in fact, he...

When she thought of this, Emma's face turned even whiter.

"The message to you is no problem, but Isabel treats her parry seriously." The conversation in the face continues.

Otto said in a gruff tone.

The implication is that Isabel is not going to let the relationship between Caleb and Otto get the better of her.

"Got it." Caleb was annoyed as hell.

Alina is serious.

With this realization to begin with, his heart is clogged with fear.

Otto was gone.

Emma went inside and Caleb saw her and felt more than annoyed, "Why aren't you back yet?"

Emma, "Do you not want to see me even now?"

Her tone was soft with indescribable aggravation.

Since she came back from Oklens, Caleb's attitude towards her has been so nonchalant that Emma was panicking.

She was really afraid that if this went on, she would really lose him completely, and it would be a very bad thing for her.

Caleb looked at her and said, "It's time for you to calm down."

"I..."

"I warned you, take what I give you. Don't presume what I don't give you." The man's every word was all danger.

In that case, as Caleb also said before, when exactly is it?

It was she first proposed marriage to him.

That's when Alina was gone.

She thought that it would work.

But what she didn't expect that was Caleb's answer, and at that time she hated Alina, hated that even though she was dead, she still held a place in this man's heart.

"I took what you gave me, but I lost it." Emma looked at Caleb with teary eyes .

That looked so aggravating.

Caleb frowned, "It's because you did not cherish it."

"Yeah, I don't cherish, because those don't matter to me at all." Emma said emotionally.

Tears fell.

"You know what I want, don't you?"

"You want it and I'm going to give it?" Caleb's tone cooled.

Emma panicked.

Looking at Caleb's completely cold face, she was actually scared inside.

The next moment, Emma bowed her head, which looked so pathetic.

When she softened her attitude, Caleb was actually uncomfortable.

After all, Alina is in turmoil, and if Emma is also in turmoil, he won't be able to cope with it.

Caleb, "Go back."

“Even if I cherish it, so what? Could I just go on now?” Emma looked at Caleb with red eyes .

Emma raised her right hand.

“The most critical finger is crushed and fractured, I don’t know if I’ll be able to exert myself by the time I recover.”

For now, that hand is still wrapped and the conservative treatment is still used at the moment.

Right hand is important to her career, however, this hand is now completely ruined.

Not to mention that Brooklyn will not give her surgery, even if Brooklyn agrees, it may not be normal.

Caleb’s eyes darkened.

Emma continued, “Caleb, I really don’t have anything but you right now.”

These words was said so sadly, no matter who just heard such words will certainly be moved by it.

Yet such sadness gave him a feeling of breathlessness.

This kind of sadness is like a shackle to hold him firmly in place, and such a feeling makes him feel very uncomfortable.

But, he can’t get rid of it.

“You say I don’t cherish it. I actually did cherish the opportunity, but that show...”

The latter words, which Emma did not continue, also let him know the meaning.

If she had succeeded in that show, then her reputation would have been completely earned.
