

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 91

The smile in Vanessa's eyes was thicker, and the moment Alina looked at her, there was always tenderness.

Such tenderness, instead of making Alina feel relaxed, gave a creepy feelings.

She does not look like someone who would be gentle.

"Ma'am, what do you mean?"

"The marriage of the gentry dare not say half a word even if it is destroyed by a third party. You made precedent, but Max will be rest in peace."

Not to mention what Vanessa said, she also saw quite a lot.

But even if that is the case, these years Ingford is very calm.

And yet, as Caleb's mother, doesn't she blame Alina at all?

"Alina, it's good for you to be sober." Vanessa stood up, as if in that instant, she felt relieved.

Alina was even more incomprehensible.

Vanessa looked at her and said, "I'll go back first."

"Ma'am."

She didn't understand.

Vanessa, however, has no intention of continuing.

Lucy appeared behind Alina, "What does Mrs. Collins mean anyway?"

Lucy is also considered an old man, but even if she can't understand the meaning of Vanessa this time.

"Whatever she means, as long as she's not after me." Alina said.

It's the truth.

As long as Vanessa wasn't looking for trouble with her, that was fine.

Lucy nodded, "Well, that's true."

Vanessa returned to Collins Castle, and Julia came back after the exhibition and saw that Vanessa was in a good mood.

“Where did my mother just go?” She looked at the driver and asked.

Driver, “Mulherd Manor, went to see Lady Alina.”

Julia has also seen the intense news from AIG and has to say Caleb is unlucky these days.

One thing is worse than the other.

But what is the meaning of her mother going to see Alina but feeling better?

She followed inside.

“Mom.” Her curiosity grows.

Vanessa is in a really good mood, the moment she picks up her cup of tea, her body seems to be a lot lighter.

Julia cautiously approached, “What did Alina say to you that made you so happy?”

“What are you talking about?”

“Don’t you dislike Alina?”

“Who told you I didn’t like her?” Vanessa’s tone was instantly serious.

Julia pouted.

She always posed that she dislike Alina, didn’t she?

Julia was baffled by this. Alina is obviously so nice, but why doesn’t her mother like her?

“It’s not that I don’t like her, I just don’t have confidence between her and Caleb, as you saw three years ago.”

When it comes to three years ago, Vanessa is angry.

Not to mention the old Collins has to lose his temper, even if she heard that her son had done that thing, she could stand it.

Besides, Alina was still pregnant at the time.

“Caleb made a mistake three years ago, but look what Emma’s become.”

Speaking of Emma, Julia was angry too.

Now it's still such a fuss, they all suspect that the illness three years ago was faked.

Now not only one person doubted with Emma's disease, but all of them are doubting the authenticity of the disease.

"Whether it's true or not, Alina will give her a lesson." Vanessa said in a light-hearted tone.

Emma has been giving them a hard time over the years.

Now she is forced by Alina to jump off a building, it can be seen that Alina's tactics are so good.

Looking at Alina's momentum, even if she continues to make trouble, Emma will not be able to take advantage of it.

Julia is worried, "Emma is a shameless person, will Alina be able to beat her?"

Vanessa, "Since Alina can force her to jump off a building, she has nothing to take advantage of it. Let them make trouble, Caleb should also have a headache."

In Vanessa's opinion, Previously, Alina was too good, so that he did not worry at all, so that he dared to spend his time on Emma with impunity.

It's good to make a scene now.

They would like Alina to be more ruthless, so that Caleb can have more heartache.

"Then if this goes on, they'll probably get a real divorce."

"He's going to regret the divorce." Vanessa said.

The drama is better if they get real divorce.

Julia, "Will Caleb regret it?"

"Alina is a smart kid, and she's probably doing more than just falling out by suddenly being so hard on Emma."

"What do you mean?"

"Maybe there's something else going on in the shadows that we don't know about, so let's wait for her to turn up bit by bit and let Caleb get a good look at Emma's face."

When all the masks are taken off, what will be waiting for him at that time besides regret?

Julia got it instantly.

After hearing Vanessa say so, she also noticed that Alina's recent tactics were a bit fierce, as if she had been touched by the bottom line.

If that's the case, then both Emma and her brother will be turned upside down by her.

Vanessa is disappointed.

She can see at a glance what a kind of person Emma is, but her son can not see it.

It is time for him to taste the bitterness of the evil he has sown.

Ingford has turned over.

Emma was forced to jump.

Those who attacked her before now began to wonder who the malicious competition is in the end, many people felt sympathy for her.

Some people on the Internet even started abusing Alina.

In Mulherd Manor.

After Alina spoke with Isabel and Stella on the phone, she went straight to her study and started talking to Brandon about their studio collaboration.

She has no problem with her brand, and now there are many partners who have taken on her work, but she has all refused to do so according to Andre's wishes.

On the other side of the phone, "The factory site has been chosen, and the relevant personnel and equipment are already entering."

"Got it."

She has her own brand and her own processing plant.

That's the position Andre has given her.

"You have to be more of a gatekeeper on the finished product that comes out." Alina said to Brandon on the other side of the phone.

Brandon, "Don't worry."

Alina can rest assured that Brandon will take care of everything.
