

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 92

Just after hanging up Brandon's phone, Caleb's call came in.

As for the news outside, Alina did not read it but she could guess what it is like online.

It's very scary.

"Hello."

"Say it, what's your next tactic?"

"You want to know?"

"Alina, you win."

On the other side of the phone, there was a hidden anger.

Alina is silent.

Does she win?

This is said as if she is a militant. She was the one who drove them to the brink of extinction?

Alina, "Do say as if I forces you, in Oklens, you tried to bring me down."

Before the competition, Caleb cost her a chance to go to Oklens for Emma.

In Oklens, things are even more constant.

If she didn't hit them back then, the really thought she was a sick cat.

Now they can't stand it now that she is fighting back?

"Divorce, right?" The man on the other side of the phone gritted his teeth.

Alina, "Not a penny less, remember to make her return it to me." Alina said word for word.

"Even by now..."

"She's not dead, and the debt must be paid." Caleb didn't finish his sentence before Alina icily interrupted him.

He wants to call her mean?

Emma was about to jump off a building, and she still wanted her to give it all back?

“Don’t think I’m mean, you’re no good either. Just inform my lawyer when you get it ready, no need to come to me.” After saying that, not waiting for the man to react, Alina hung up the phone.

Her words are really quite harsh.

And Caleb for a long, long time did not respond.

He kicked at the hospital chair, and scratched his hair in annoyance.

Tomas stood to one side.

Caleb has also seen what’s happening online.

Alina is more than a tough nut, under the pressure of public opinion, she did not even let go.

Now Isabel has even filed an application for custody of his accounts with the court, before his divorce from Alina, it has to accept public bills.

“Should we ask Mr. Sharp to come over?” Tomas looked at Caleb and said with some apprehension.

Caleb, “No need.”

After saying that, he refused without thinking.

In his opinion, it is useless even if Otto comes here now. Isabel has a baby face, looks like a pure angel, but in fact is also a woman with a very heavy heart. In the lawsuit, her mouth is unbeatable.

In the ward.

When Caleb came in, Emma looked at her with a pale face, the tear stains still on her face. Although the internet is now upside down, she still looks miserable in front of Caleb.

“Why do you have to do that?” Caleb said in a not so nice tone.

Emma just woke up.

At this moment when she heard Caleb’s words, her heart hurt even more.

She looked at Caleb and said, “Do I have to give all that back to you?”

Her tone was pitiful.

How will she pay it back?

Over the years, everything she got on Caleb had spent out.

Now she has to pay it back? What is she going to pay back with?

“Nonsense. Get some rest and stay out of this.” Caleb’s tone got worse and worse.

He has never given anything out that he has never allowed to be returned.

Alina really challenged him, in Ingford, never had any woman dare to make such a scene.

This is something they all didn’t expect, but Alina is more famous now, and yet even in this situation, she dares to mess with Caleb.

This is the problem that no one expected.

Even, Emma didn’t expect it.

After all, the higher a person stands, the more they think about their reputation, but Alina does not care about it.

Caleb was gone.

Emma was alone in the ward, with her eyes as if they were hardened with poison. Now she had nothing left.

Although most of the internet now says that she was retaliated by Joslan Hughes because of her relationship with Caleb.

But a large part of the population is saying that she deserved it. After all, an existence like hers is inherently dishonorable.

How could she have ever imagined that Kara would be the first person to see her, “Now, get a lesson?”

Kara looked at her and said.

Emma was silent, and now it seemed to her as if whoever it was could also look at her jokes, she didn’t want anyone to see this.

“You’re no better.”

“I’m no better here, because of who?” Kara paid the price too.

If it weren’t for her work experience and all those years in the company, Jay would not kept for though she begged for it.

She knows better than anyone that once she leaves ef, she will get nothing left.

She will even be blocked by the industry, so many years of hard work will be in vain.

But the price to pay is not small.

“Why are you visiting me?”

Emma’s tone isn’t nice.

Having worked with her for so many years, she has always known Kara to be a person who values profit.

She, on the other hand, had nothing left, and it was rare for Kara to visit her at this time, which was something Emma didn’t expect.

Kara, “Jay wants Alina to sign with his company.”

Hearing this, Emma subconsciously clenched her hands.

Although she had heard about the possibility before, she really knew it when she heard the inside scoop from Kara.

This is true.

Jay is in such a hurry to terminate her contract, for Alina.

“Alina is a very sensitive person and I think she will suspect me soon.”

After all, she was previously on Emma’s side, and if she really let Alina into ef, she would have a hard time staying.

Originally, after the incident in Oklens, she wanted to stop, however, now she would have a bad time.

After hearing that Alina might sign with ef, she has been living in fear.

“Then what do you mean by coming to me?”

“You are really willing to let her go ef and occupy your previous everything? You know that the company strongly promoted you, if she works there, those good resources originally belong to you will be in her hands.”
