

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 94

When Caleb said this, Alina had to say that she admired Emma's courage!

"She is dead?" Alina asked.

As her words fell, the already icy atmosphere was now even colder.

Looking at Caleb's sunken face, Alina knew that it was a waste of words, how could it be!

Even if she did jump, Emma had her plan.

"At the time, the firefighters were there!"

"Oh." Alina trailed off.

Caleb looked at her with a colder look, obviously shocked by Alina's indifference as well.

How on earth could she be so indifferent nowadays?

Alina saw what was going through Caleb's mind and said with a smile, "Don't think I'm indifferent, after all, you didn't have any warm hearts three years ago!"

Her tone was calm.

It was as if she was talking about someone else's business, but this calmness also gave Caleb a torn feeling.

Her tone was too calm.

It was so calm that it felt like a storm was about to break out.

Caleb looked at her eyes with mixed feeling, "I agree!"

"What?"

"I'll agree to all your terms. Will you stop?"

"Can you take nothing away?" Alina looked Caleb with amusement, the smile on her lips intensifying.

Caleb nodded, "Okay!"

Alina, "Great."

The smile on her lips intensified.

But no one knew how sore she felt! Having gotten rid of Caleb, but watching him compromise on everything for Emma, she was jealous.

She was jealous not for herself, but for her daughter, knowing that he was such a man, and that she had got rid of him, which was the greatest salvation for her.

She had known three years ago that between the child and Emma were in his heart and that he would eventually favour Emma!

But at this moment, when the child was in the world, she still felt that Emma, in his heart, took over everything.

The message came.

Alina picked up her phone. It was a message from Andre, telling her to go and watch the news immediately.

There were already a number of tweets on her phone, Alina clicked on them and the first one was 'Malicious competition news, Joslan Hughes suspected to be entering eF!

eF? The company Emma used to work for.

Below was an accompanying article analysing the truth about Emma jumping from the building this time! Saying that it was about malicious competition.

Is it because she's going into the eF and is therefore taking revenge on Emma at the show?

And now they've even forced Emma to go to her desperation?

Public opinion, in an instant, went backwards! There's a lot of articles coming out about how she's not happy with Emma's meddling in her marriage and it's all her revenge on Emma.

Alina threw her phone right in front of Caleb's face.

And then she looked at Caleb with her arms around her chest, "What do you think I should do about all this online publicity?"

A difficult question was thrown at Caleb!

Caleb frowned.

It was just a deal.

Had something gone wrong again? Especially when Alina was looking at him with such an indifferent look.

He knew she had a plan.

And now the chance was left in his hands?

Caleb picked up her phone, and when he saw the impact of the articles, his face got pale.

His breath grew colder.

“So far, you still think I’m the only one making trouble?” Alina looked Caleb with amusement.

After all that had happened, Caleb think it was Alina was causing all the trouble.

So, ask him, now that this has happened, “If this is about you, will you tolerate or will you take it back?” She asked Caleb in a sharp voice.

Caleb slammed his phone and got up, walking back and forth around the sofa several times, not saying a word, clearly irritated to the max.

What is this? What the hell is this?

“68th floor is high!” Alina was still looking at Caleb with amusement, as if she was watching Caleb’s jokes.

Caleb, “.....”

Looking at Alina, he wanted to say something, but looking at the smile in Alina’s face, he couldn’t say anything.

Caleb was no fool, and he could guess what had happened.

If Alina was really going to the eF, Jay would need to work on him, and no doubt the person behind him was trying to use Emma to get Alina out of Ingford.

It was a really vicious tactic.

“Leaving Ingford is a small thing, but it’s going to hurt my reputation, isn’t it?”

When Caleb didn’t say anything, Alina continued, amused.

She couldn’t believe that Caleb could be that generous?

Caleb, “I’ll give you an explanation for this!”

The words slipped from his lips, but Caleb swallowed them.

“I don’t want an explanation, don’t bother, I’m good at protecting my reputation.”

“What are you going to do again?”

“Caleb!” Alina stopped her smine, her tone was heavier and her eyes were completely cold as she looked at him.

Did he really think that she was just looking for a joke?

His explanation? She didn’t care!

“If she is really innocent, these methods of mine can not hurt her at all, understand?” If she can, she must be in on it.

And it was obvious to Caleb that Emma was involved.

Looking at his silent, cold-eyed look, Alina’s mouth lifted in a sneer, “There must have been a lot of women who envied Emma that night, right?” It was a lifelong responsibility!

Alina didn’t think there was anything wrong with a responsible man before, but a man like Caleb was bad luck for anyone who got involved.

Caleb looked at her with a colder look in his eyes.

“If I were a man, I would have defied Grandpa Max and married her.”

“That’s enough!”

“Caleb, have you ever really thought about why your family doesn’t like her?”

“The Collins are all very responsible men.” Yes, it’s genetic.

But this is the same group of responsible men who are absolutely unacceptable to Emma, why?

Caleb had obviously never thought about it, but Alina had thought of something.
