

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 97

Since when on earth did she have such a well thought out mind that could flip around no matter what kind of trapped energy she was under.

She hadn't used any of Zane's power up until now.

The thought of her facing the storm alone made Caleb even more upset. Soon he got a call from Emma.

Looking at the number made Caleb even more irritable, so he sat down on a small sofa and lit a cigarette and took a couple of puffs. The boredom in his heart was only slightly relieved.

But the phone was still vibrating.

It was obvious that Emma had seen the reports and that yesterday's predicament with Alina was now hanging over Emma's head.

There was more out there than just calling her a scheming woman! Even her birth was not in the light.

It has even been revealed that his affair with Emma was a real affair, otherwise he would not have left the family with nothing.

Caleb smashed his phone.

At the hospital, Emma was now going crazy, having watched Alina being called out all over the internet yesterday, she thought it was a complete turnaround.

She had, after all, been too careless!

Caleb hadn't been answering her phone, what was she going to do with?

If it wasn't for Caleb's people at the hospital entrance, even the ward would have been overturned by the press by now.

When Kara arrived, she looked sarcastically at the cold room, "I didn't expect Mr. Collins hasn't visited you even now."

Emma's face was already white, and when she looked at Kara, it was even colder!

"What are you still doing here? You've served your purpose." What did Kara want? All she wanted was to keep Alina out of eF!

It was been widely reported that Alina had her own brand.

Well, she was in an enviable position, having had everything since she was a child, and now she was in such a high position.

Kara, "Find a way to marry Caleb!"

Emma, "....."

At that, she raised her eyebrows!

The look in Kara's eyes changed.

Marry Caleb, that's for sure

Kara, being a shrewd person, looked at Emma and said, "She's got a lot of momentum right now and is going to turn everything over on you."

Now that even Emma's birth has been revealed, what's next!

From today's events, Kara has found out that Alina is a vindictive person.

And after what happened at Oklens, there's no way she's going to let it go.

Now things are happening one by one.

Maybe she's going to come out with the Oklens recording.

And Emma, too, had obviously thought of that! If Alina found evidence of that recording too, then both she and Kara would have been in troubles.

After all, Kara's presence in this place was due to her own fears, and she had been demoted.

It's a big price to pay at the eF, and if Alina keeps going through this, none of them will escape.

"But now..." it means that now she has to marry Caleb as soon as possible?

Although Alina was now divorced from Caleb, everyone around Caleb knew it.

Three years ago, even though Caleb made that decision between her and Alina, he didn't have Alina in his heart.

He wanted to save her!

But it was Alina he wanted.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so crazy to find Alina for three years.

She didn't know how Alina managed to force Caleb to divorce, but Caleb gave her almost everything.

"If they get back together, Alina will stay in Ingford!" said Kara to Emma in a very serious tone.

Emma knew what Caleb had in mind for Alina, so it was possible that what Kara said would come true.

They had just gotten divorced and they thought they might remarry! This was true for people who didn't know the situation, let alone Emma.

"I know."

Kara, "You're a very clever person, you just didn't know Alina had Andre behind her."

Andre!

Yes, what role did Andre play in Alina's world all this time?

It was the same man who had made them suffer, and whatever they did on their side was eventually broken.

And now, at the mention of Andre, Emma was instantly scheming.

Kara looked at the change in her eyes and said, "Be careful!"

With so many previous experiences, almost all of which had been dismantled, the next plan, whatever it was, had to be even more subtle.

And it had to work!

"Okay." Emma nodded.

The next one couldn't be as painless as the previous one.

Kara was gone!

Emma sat in the hospital room, deep in her thought.

Caleb's call, finally, came through, and Caleb on the other end was silent, not saying a word.

Emma took a deep breath and said, "Caleb, what should I do?"

Before, because she had panicked about Alina, she had pushed Caleb time and again.

And now it had come to this!

The more she tried push him, the more he was distant.

After all the drama yesterday, he hadn't even come to the hospital today, despite all the fuss.

Emma was also more cautious about Kara's words!

It was a mistake after all.

The absence of Alina over the last three years had given her the illusion that Caleb would be her own.

But it was wrong.

Caleb never belonged to anyone, and she was wrong to think that.

She thought she had an important place in Caleb's heart, but she didn't know that was only for that one night.

A life-saving gift that won't affect that shrewd man for the rest of his life.

It was only because of that saving grace that he didn't leave her behind! And she wanted a lot more from than that.

So from now on, she had to be more careful.

"I'll take care of it!" Caleb said coldly and hung up the phone.

Emma heard Caleb's detachment, tears fell from her eyes, and her body trembled.

Alina was sleeping well, but her peace was shattered by a phone call!

On the phone, the child stammered and said to her, "Mommy, come to pick me up."
