

Immortal 109

Chapter 109: Shoujin Toshimoto

Koizumi Mountain.

Zhou Yi took out a bottle of Qingyang Dan and poured it all into his mouth.

The medicinal pills turned into surging spiritual energy, and under the refining of the Five Spiritual Scriptures, they turned into strands of mana.

Qingyang Dan belongs to the middle grade medicine pill, and the quality is slightly lower for the real people of the foundation, but swallowing the whole bottle like this makes Zhou Yi's mana steadily increase every day.

"Cultivation is the foundation of everything. As long as there is enough medicinal pills, you can be promoted to the middle stage of foundation building in thirty or fifty years."

Zhou Yi slowly retracted his energy, and his figure instantly sank into the ground more than 20 feet. He practiced the Five Elements Escaping Technique diligently, and he was able to send and receive from his heart, but there were some obstacles in the rotation of the Five Elements.

Xiaoquan Mountain is more than forty feet high, and Zhou Yi's location is about the middle of the mountain.

The number of small five-element arrays overlapped and covered, unless the top array masters could not break the ban in a short time.

In the formation, there are medicine fields more than two feet high and four or five feet in diameter, planted with various wood-type elixir.

Zhou Yi used the jade dew formula as usual to condense the jade dew of good fortune to accelerate the ripening. There are already many medicines in the medicine field that are over 200 years old. Whether they are eaten raw or alchemy, they can increase their mana.

"There is a real essence pill in the jade slip, which is suitable for use during the foundation building period, but the four arts of immortality are more precious than the exercises. If you don't turn over the foundation establishment pill, you don't have to think about it in a short time, but you can directly exchange it for the real essence pill."

Dan Dingzong calculates the merits and merits carefully, and it is difficult for a person like Zhou Yi to get any precious inheritance.

back to the ground.

Zhou Yi opened his mouth and spit out the mountain and river cauldron, and took the soul-fixing mirror out of it.

The original dull and dull bronze mirror has been cultivated for more than a hundred years with mana, and there are large patches of mottled silver and white, and its power has reached a mid-grade magic weapon. "To be completely turned into a silver mirror, the power is at least high-grade, and it is a special magic weapon for the soul, and it must be used in the future!"

Zhou Yi has been refining mountains and rivers for more than 30 years. I don't know how much hardware essence he has incorporated, but his promotion speed is not as fast as that of Baojing. Sure enough, as Lingbao Jue said, Lingbao grows for a long time, and it is not a day's work.

Jindan Zhenjun chose to refine magic weapons instead of sacrificing spiritual treasures, which is evident in the difficulty.

After sacrificing and refining two instruments, Zhou Yi comprehended the elixir for two hours, and it was already bright outside.

Cultivation, planting medicine, refining treasures, chanting scriptures, and so on every day, the immortal realm is boring and lonely, nothing more than that!

Think about the cliff.

Zhou Yi entered the Batu Caves on duty and thought it was another boring day.

As a result, in the evening, the Law Enforcement Hall sent people over, and it could not be said that they were prisoners. After all, they were still brothers and sisters from the same sect. The person who was punished was a real person named Zhuji, surnamed Jiang and Kang, with an old face and gray hair.

When a cultivator breaks through the foundation-building stage, his appearance is basically fixed. Only when he is about to die, he will quickly age. This is the case with Jiang Kang.

The breath is gray, and death is lingering, and it looks like a longevity.

In the face of such monks, Zhou Yi has always kept them at a distance. The longer people live, the more crazy they will act when they are dying, not to mention that Jiang Kang has already reached the late stage of foundation building.

"Junior brother, is there any spirit wine? The fire is so hot that the old man's mouth is dry."

When Jiang Kang was punished, the prohibition of the formation was weakened to the limit, and the fierce black wind and surging poisonous fire filled the cave, which continued to erode and burn. Zhou Yi could feel the power of wind and fire through a layer of formation restraint. In the early stage of foundation building, the cultivator estimated that he would be injured when he touched it. Hearing the words, he quickly took out the red rainbow wine.

"Senior brother's self-brewed spirit wine, please taste it."

The raw materials used by Chihong are general, Chiyan is mixed with 100-year-old ginseng, and Requiem can nourish the soul, and the latter two Zhou Yi dare not take it out.

It's hard to say how many restrictions are imposed on Jiang Kang by Dan Dingzong's rules!

Jiang Kang poured a jar, wiped his mouth and smiled: "Not bad, this wine is of average quality, but it is more than a hundred years old. If you can drink it before dying, it is considered good luck."

"If senior brother likes it, there are a few more altars here."

Zhou Yi took out a few more altars and put them into the formation restraint.

The earliest recipe of Chihong was obtained, and it has been 130 years since it was brewed. Several jars are kept for storage each time it is brewed. So far, there are many century-old wines.

"Junior brother doesn't need to be like this. To get a cheap altar is already an old-fashioned person." Jiang Kang said so, but the sliding Adam's apple obviously couldn't help it.

"Just a small amount of spirit wine, the senior brother drinks it, and then goes out to give the junior brother some spirit stones."

Zhou Yi said with a smile, "The price of three hundred spirit stones in an altar has increased tenfold. Senior brother, don't blame him for taking advantage of it."

Si Guoya was punished, and the disciples were not allowed to bring storage bags, except for the natal instruments, others were not allowed to bring in, to prevent people from relying on the instruments to resist the black wind poisonous fire.

"Junior brother is a wonderful person. If Lao Dao is ten years younger, he will definitely become friends with you."

Jiang Kang wasn't squeamish either, he drank again with a jar of wine, but this time he took a small sip.

Zhou Yi saw that Jiang Kang was stable and not violent, so he checked the jade slips left by the Law Enforcement Hall.

Jiang Kang, who had a private fight with Yang Huazhen, disregarded the friendship of the same family and killed him, causing the death of the same family.

"ten years!"

Zhou Yi was surprised by Jiang Kang's foul and the severity of the penalty.

The private fight mentioned in the jade slip is nothing more than that the two have a big hatred. The two sides must be ruthless against each other, but Yang Hua lost his skills and lost his life.

This kind of thing is not common in Dan Dingzong, but it is not uncommon, and according to the custom, it is imprisoned for two or three years.

For ten years, he has been subjected to the poisonous fire of the black wind day and night. Even if he casts spells to resist, it will inevitably be eroded, and the foundation will be damaged over time. "The Law Enforcement Hall is in the hands of Fuyao's ancestors, and the true monarch can't get involved, and the punishment is the most fair."

Jiang Kang seemed to have guessed what Zhou Yi was thinking, and explained: "Old Dao received this heavy punishment for two reasons. First, his lifespan is about to expire. There is no difference between three years and ten years.

Zhou Yi was stunned: "So it is."

"Secondly, the old way of fighting with others is not a deep hatred."

Jiang Kang said quietly: "Yang Hua's servant is a direct descendant of the sect, with a surly character, and most of all, he despises his fellow cultivators. Relying on some power, he deliberately assigns hard labor to the cultivators and delays their cultivation."

Zhou Yi is silent, it is difficult to evaluate the right and wrong.

The Law Enforcement Hall manages the sect law~www.mtlnovel.com~ Since Yang Hua was not punished, it means that what he did was disgusting, but he did not violate the rules of the sect

Just like the surnamed Zhang Sanxiu who bullied Lin Yushu, the Law Enforcement Hall conducted several investigations and did not convict him of any wrongdoing.

"Lao Dao was born as a loose cultivator. He struggled for decades in the market, and was lucky enough to join the Danding Sect. After the foundation was established, he worked hard for the sect and killed twenty demons in the foundation-building period. He has a clear conscience!"

Jiang Kang was either resentful or wanted to talk before he died.

"Yang Hua is as timid as a mouse, and he doesn't dare to leave Yunzhou for foreign affairs. He even asks for help from Hua Lingshi, and he has the face to advertise that the loose cultivator is not as good as a direct line!"

"The old man has long disliked him. He has little life expectancy, and there is no hope for condensing pills. Find an opportunity to have a fight with him."

"If Yang Hua really has 50% of Lao Dao's strength, he will spare his life for the sake of Zongmen's face. Who knows that it is an embroidered pillow, even Lao Dao's three rounds of Lei Fa will be wiped out!"

Zhou Yiting's mouth twitched, the old man in front of him was really a killer, but some of Jiang Kang's words aroused some interest.

Can Exorcist Foreign Affairs hire fellows?

Chapter 110: magic trick

"Senior Brother Jiang, has the factional dispute in the sect involved life and death?"

Zhou Yi pondered for a moment, but still asked this sentence.

"How can it be so serious, that is, the old man's life is about to end, and he can't stand Yang Hua's dance. It's not a day for that guy to treat the direct line loose cultivator differently. Before the old man hoped for a golden pill, it was just a few words of scolding."

Jiang Kang shook his head and said: "The ancestors of Yuan Ying in the door do not divide factions, that is, the struggle between the disciples below.

Zhou Yi nodded slightly, feeling a little relieved, and asked again.

"What are the conditions for getting on the Doufa stage, is it a unilateral invitation to fight, or can both parties agree?"

A unilateral invitation to fight will inevitably lead to bullying, and Zhou Yi must consider slipping away. Even if both parties are required to agree, it is not fair.

"Doufatai is a place for sects to compete, how can you easily allow disciples to make an appointment?"

Jiang Kang took a sip of wine and said, "Old Daoist invited Yang Hua to do a fight, and when he agreed, he spent 10,000 meritorious deeds to apply. The Law Enforcement Hall saw that the two of us had been grumbling for a long time, and our cultivation bases were similar, so they agreed."

The Hall of Law Enforcement probably didn't expect Jiang Kang to dare to kill, nor did Yang Hua Taicai, and the onlookers fighting the law would be able to rescue them in the future.

Only then did Zhou Yi feel completely relieved, with a full 10,000 meritorious deeds, and the application was rejected and still not refunded, so the cost of fighting the law is very high.

After all, Dan Dingzong is a famous and upright sect. If the disciples in the sect easily kill each other, what is the difference between them and the evil demons. Zhou Yi patted the horse and said, "Senior brother's technique is mysterious and powerful, and a real person of the same rank is not an enemy of unity!"

"Humph! You go to a few more devils, and you have the strength of an old man."

Jiang Kang said sadly: "It's a pity, after all, I couldn't form a pill, otherwise I would definitely look for an opportunity to kill an old demon with a golden pill!"

His voice was flat and indifferent, as if he was muttering to himself, in which the killing energy came to his face.

Zhou Yi secretly said that Yang Hua's death was not wrong, that the cultivation of the magic way is far more cruel than the right way, and Jiang Kangshang killed like a chicken, which is enough to see that his fighting skills have reached the peak.

"Senior brother, you often perform foreign affairs with the realm of the devil's way, so you can tell the monks of the devil's way. In the future, when you perform foreign affairs, you can still take precautions, so as not to be robbed the first time."

"When you receive foreign affairs, the sect will issue detailed jade slips, which include the experience summed up by the same sect in the past dynasties. It is not that difficult if you learn it and understand it thoroughly!"

Jiang Kang said: "As for the realm of the devil's way... The old man went to Jizhou eight times, and it took only a hundred years before and after, and the dynasties changed three times. How could those devils care about the difference between immortals and mortals, in order to practice magic arts, they sacrificed magic treasures. , I can't wait to sacrifice all living beings with blood!"

Zhou Yi wondered: "Mortal souls are weak, and the Qi refining period is still useful, but the foundation building period is not very useful."

"Junior brother has been in Yunzhou for a long time. At most, he saw a few small thieves in the shearing path. He thought that the evil cultivator was nothing more than this. How can you know that the real devil is acting viciously."

Jiang Kang sighed: "In order to make mortals useful, those demons specially created a magic art called the Refinement Art. They forced mortals to absorb all kinds of evil spirits, and made living people into half-dead spirits. Corpse, when you * enough yin, you can break into the first layer of qi refining!"

"It's so brutal and tyrannical to refine a batch of cultivation materials!"

Zhou Yi wondered: "If you consume it like this, how can there still be mortals in the world of Demon Dao, without the younger disciples, wouldn't it be the end of the sect inheritance?"

Jiang Kang said: "The art of military training hurts heaven and harmony, so the sect of Demon Dao has also established rules to prohibit large-scale sacrifice training under the rule." Zhou Yi accurately grasped the key information: "Under the rule? Large-scale?"

"The devil's way is the devil's way after all. If the slaughtering creatures are not allowed to rapidly increase their mana, haven't all the disciples turned to the righteous way?"

Jiang Kang said: "That sect rule is like shit. As long as the devil kills all the people and no one reports it, then there is no death. Moreover, the devil encourages the disciples, sets up sect rewards, and goes to other continents to take mortals to practice!"

"The devil shall be punished!"

Zhou Yi's words came from his heart, and he couldn't help but feel fortunate to live under the rule of Dan Dingzong, otherwise, no matter how careful he was, he would not be able to hold back a large number of demons who robbed mortals to refine treasures.

The premise of escaping is that the difference in strength is not large. In the face of the Demon Lord of Foundation Establishment, no matter how he resists, the innate master will only add some fun to others.

"It's natural to be punished, especially those old demons, the souls of the thunder and tribulation are scattered!"

Jiang Kang said: "Old Daoist knows an evil art called Yulu Jue, which was created by a certain Demon Venerable whose life essence is about to expire. The Yulu Jue can extract the cultivator's life essence and ripen the life-extending spiritual flame, but the age of the transforming medicine is too low. ."

"So that Demon Venerable used the military training formula to spawn monks in batches, and exhausted their vitality, and finally extended their lifespan for three or five years." "This kind of behavior is no longer hurtful and able to speak, it is really maddening!"

Zhou Yi was a little embarrassed to hear that, most of the life-extending elixir were of wood properties, which contained vitality and good fortune.

It's sinful to smoke other people's life yuan, and who stipulates that you can't smoke yourself?

"Senior brother, the devil is ferocious, I was terrified when I heard it, what should I do if I encounter it in the future?"

"Although the breath is pure, it is too weak, gentle, and has no suffocating energy, so it must be rare to experience battles.

Jiang Kang glanced at Zhou Yi, and for the sake of Breitling wine, he pointed out: "The only way to pass the foreign affairs of eliminating demons is to invite people from Hua Lingshi, three or four of the same family to besiege, few demons can hold it. ."

Zhou Yi said helplessly: "Isn't this despised by others?"

"Stay alive, not shabby!"

Jiang Kang said: "However, the price of hiring the same sect is high, and the merits obtained are exchanged for spiritual stones, and in the end, a lot of money has to be paid." "Thank you brother for your teaching."

Zhou Yi asked the disciples of the Foreign Affairs Hall, and the Zongmen promulgated the value ratio of spiritual stone merits, which was maintained at one to ten.

It can only be exchanged one-way, that is, meritorious deeds can be exchanged for spirit stones, but spirit stones cannot be exchanged for meritorious deeds.

For example, if the Foundation Establishment Pill turned in 1,000 meritorious deeds, that is, 10,000 spirit stones were sold. As for the exchange price of the Zongmen, the exchange price has increased five times, because the breakthrough pills are rare and indispensable, far from being comparable to the Peiyuan Pill and the Qingyang Pill.

Outside the square market auction of the foundation pill, the price is also around 10,000 spirit stones, it seems that the sect disciples seem to be at a loss.

In fact, it is not the case, and there are hidden costs to consider.

First of all, you have to wait for a foundation pill outside, one for more than ten years or even longer. The second is to fight. Every time the Foundation Establishment Dan will cause a * storm, you don't know how many people will die.

Secondly, the role of external foundation building Dan is not only foundation building Dan.

Moreover, Dan Dingzong forbids the real people under the sect to interfere in this matter, but it does not prohibit the disciples of the Qi refining stage to compete, as long as you dare to fight with the red-eyed loose cultivator.

Therefore, the word safety is five times less expensive!

Zhou Yi has inquired about the proportion of meritorious deeds of ordinary medicinal pills, and it is basically close to the market price, that is, merit exchange is similar to purchase of spirit stones~www.mtlnovel.com~Senior brother, why does the sect not open two-way exchange?"

"When the merit system was just promulgated, you could pay spiritual stones to increase merit. After all, there are many places where sects consume spirit stones."

Jiang Kang said: "Later, the ancestors in the sect found that this method would only be passed on cheaply, and indirectly suppressed the loose cultivators. Therefore, the exchange channel was banned. You must do things for the sect, slay demons and eliminate demons, in order to obtain the inheritance of the sect!"

"Ancestor has foresight!"

Only then did Zhou Yi completely believe that the ancestors of Yuan Ying had no factions.

After breaking up the exchange of spiritual stones for meritorious deeds, the foreign affairs of exorcism have received the most merits, ranging from thousands to over 10,000, and even better than the four arts of cultivating immortals.

The meaning of the ancestor of the sect is very clear. If you want to get the inheritance of the sect, you must go through more training, otherwise you will not be able to make enough merits if you die.

Although Dan Dingzong is the right way, and is famous for the technique of alchemy, but the ancestors in the sect are very sober, and the fist of the immortal world is the first. Otherwise, no amount of panacea is to make wedding dresses for others!
