

Immortal 50

Chapter 50: wait for the day

Days are back to normal.

Home, Heavenly Prison, Chunfenglou.

In a trance, a year has passed, and no one doubts Zhou Yi's origin. This fellow is as unrestrained as his master.

Indifferent to everything, do nothing.

Prisoners come and go, reincarnated or soared, but only prison No. 6 has remained the same.

It's been a long time.

Zhou Yi was quite familiar with him, and also knew the reason for Yu Su's imprisonment, so he wrote to Emperor Jinglong to rectify the administration of officials and implement the legal system.

The words were a little fierce, and some people said that they reflected the Zhang family and Jin Yiwei.

If Fengyang and the two of them don't get in the way, no matter how much Yu Su wins the emperor's heart, he will have to go to heaven. Jin Yiwei has been investigating for a long time, but he can't find any evidence of Yu Su's crime, and he has not embezzled a tael of money.

In desperation, the imperial court in the DPRK made a confession that he was guilty of being unfilial to his elders.

Zhou Yi knew the cause and effect. From the beginning, he gave more thick porridge, and later he brought meat, and now he carries a pot of wine every day.

"I heard that the price of wine and meat in Tianlao is higher than gold, but I don't have any money for you, and I won't have any money in the future." Yu Su ate and wiped himself up, but he spoke upright.

"No need to pay."

Zhou Yi said with a smile: "There have been many honest officials in prison, but I have never seen someone like you."

Yu Su raised his brows: "How is this old man?"

Yu Su was a 32-year-old Jinshi, ten years in the Hanlin Academy and the Imperial Censor, and one year in Tianjing. Now he is forty-three years old, he can indeed be called an old man in front of Zhou Yi.

Zhou Yi said: "Be upright, but not old-fashioned, otherwise you would not eat the wine and meat sent by the subordinate officials."

"Those are pedantic people."

Yu Su said, "Reading is for understanding, not for sticking to old rules. This old man still has important things to do. He must eat meat to maintain a healthy body before he can wait for an opportunity."

Sure enough, as he said, after eating and drinking enough, I started to strengthen my body.

Two sets of radio gymnastics sat down, Yu Su stretched his muscles and bones, and played a few sets of Tai Chi.

Yu Su praised: "Zhou Xiaozhi, the method you taught is good. This old man has been in prison for a year, but his body is stronger than when he was studying."

"Lao Yu, there are a lot of rumors out there, saying that you appear to be incorrupt on the surface, but in fact you are a corrupt official, and you even beat people to death in private. Back then, even Zhongsanyuan bribed the examiner..."

Zhou Yi talked about the rumors he heard on the street. Obviously, the Zhang family and Jin Yiwei didn't intend to take it too seriously.

After splashing dirty water, and then adding a false charge, he dragged him directly to Caishikou to beheaded.

Yu Su was not afraid but rejoiced when he heard the words: "This shows that they have nothing to do with the old man, they can only spread rumors and slander, otherwise, will there be few innocent officials who die in the prison?"

"It seems to make some sense."

Zhou Yi wondered: "However, if you are locked in the Heavenly Prison, you can't speak out and refute, how can you fight?"

Yu Su nodded slightly and said, "It's not worth fighting for a little reputation. Life is very short. You only need to grasp a few key points to decide the outcome."

"How to grasp the key points?"

"Wait!"

"Wait?"

"Those who want to achieve great things, wait for the sky!"

In the blink of an eye, another year has passed.

Zhou Yi's status in Tianjing is almost the same as it used to be, and some prison guards are also called "Zhou Ye".

Relying not only on torture methods, but also by revealing his martial arts cultivation in a timely manner, a bone forging master in his twenties will definitely be promoted to refining in the future.

After all, force is still convincing!

The prisoners changed one after another, but Yu Su was the only one who ate and drank deliciously, but instead gained a dozen pounds.

The court and Emperor Jinglong seemed to have forgotten him, neither sentenced him according to the law nor released him from the prison.

Zhou Yi couldn't help but ask, "Lao Yu, can we wait until the time of day?"

"Time can't be forced, and things can't be forced."

Yu Su said calmly: "The time has not come, don't act rashly, waste your energy, and torture yourself. Some things can't be rushed, manpower can't match the number of days, but you can wait for the heaven and the earth to join forces!"

Zhou Yi frowned slightly when he heard this.

This time, returning to the Heavenly Prison to be a jailer is not only safe and familiar, but also has some other plans.

Originally, after waiting for two years, he still couldn't find the right time. Zhou Yi began to wonder if he took the initiative to create the opportunity. Yu Su's words made him realize something.

The master layout is good at waiting for the weather, with the help of fortune, everything is allowed!

And idle chess is the hardest to break, and unintentional moves are the least noticeable.

Seeing him pondering, Yu Su thought Zhou Yi couldn't understand it, and said proudly, "This truth is too profound. When you are sixty years old, you will almost understand!"

"Don't you understand then?"

Zhou Yi is fifty-eight this year, and the year after that will be sixty-eighth.

Yu Su pouted: "That's because you are too stupid."

This fellow didn't even put up a flag!

Zhou Yi failed to stab back a city, and said curiously, "Lao Yu, I have always wondered, why did they falsely accuse you of being unfilial?"

"It's really not a false accusation..."

Yu Su recalled: "When the old man first became an adult, he met an old Taoist, and he made a divination, saying that the clansmen would be very harmful to me. At that time, I was addicted to the study of Taoism and had a strong temper. Walked past the grave of my father and grandfather."

To cut yourself off from the clan, if it is serious, it means disobedience and unfilial piety, which is a very serious sin in this era.

Zhou Yi mocked: "Lao Yu, you were coaxed by a Taoist priest, and Mianpi boasted that you were smart when you were young."

"It's not all wrong what the old man said. The old man is clumsy in his words, and he came from him."

Yu Su said: "Be humble and simple, and be sensitive to words and deeds. The old man said that I will commit the crime of speech in the future, and I must always remember to speak less."

"This old man seems to be well-versed in literature, how could he persuade you to split up and move graves?"

"Maybe it's a miscalculation!"

...

The fourteenth year of Jinglong.

The Jinyiwei became more and more rampant, and the commander Feng Zhongyin was known as the "internal minister".

Tiqi spy monitors the world, and many people are convicted because of their words, and they are either locked in Tian Prison to reflect, or they are ordered to go to prison for a while.

The common people's path is their eyes, and no one dares to discuss state affairs.

Emperor Jinglong was still benevolent, virtuous and compassionate. UU reading www.uukanshu.com Baiguan said that he had the style of a sage king, and that he did nothing to rule the world.

The surname of the current cabinet chief is Du Bu and Zhang, but he is a disciple of Zhang's blind date. Most of the six heavenly officials are implicated in the Zhang family.

The Zhang family's power is faintly higher than that of the Dragon Prime Minister of the year. The strange thing is that the Shenjing is calm and calm, as if no one noticed.

Zhou Yi was puzzled and asked Yu Su about this.

"There are experts behind the scenes in the Zhang family!"

Yu Su explained: "The Zhang family will not rebel now, nor will it in the future. Instead, the imperial court will take over his majesty and push the crown prince to succeed him. Because he will not rebel, he will be able to get the support of hundreds of officials, honorable people, and even the imperial family would mind."

"After the crown prince ascends the throne, the Zhang family will gradually return the power, and the disaster of the genocide will be passed smoothly!"

Yu Su said with admiration: "This kind of means of lifting a heavy weight is a must for Duke Wen Zhong. This old man will never be able to do it in this life."

Zhou Yi sneered: "No matter how clever Zhang Wenzhong is, he is also a big corrupt official and a traitor!"

"So I don't learn from him!"

Yu Suping also despised Zhang Xiang in his daily life, saying, "Emperor Wen Zhong's arrangement is very good, but with the power in hand, who is willing to hand it over? After all, Duke Zhen Guo has a precedent."

Li Wu voluntarily surrendered his military power, and even committed suicide by taking poison in prison, in exchange for the destruction of his family.

The reputation of the Zhao royal family has been destroyed!

Even though the Crown Prince had blood relatives with the Zhang family, when he sat in that position, there was no longer any word of kinship in his heart.

Zhou Yi wondered: "Lao Yu, you see it so clearly, why do you still fight against the Zhang family?"

Yu Su shook his head and sighed.

"Zhongzong deliberately indulged in his later years, and the time has come to have to change officials and military preparations. If it continues to be like this, it will cause great disasters!"
