Chapter 2961: Black-eyed Poisonous Spiders

“Black-eyed Poisonous Spiders!” Ancestor Xuan screamed in a trembling voice, with an ashen face.

The other Eye Frost Race’s experts seemed to have thought of something when they heard the name, and their faces turned deathly pale in an instant, including Bing Jun’s. The Holy Staff in Bing Jun’s hand was shaking due to his quivering hand. His eyes were fixed on the colony of pitch-black spiders. God, it’s actually those freakish creatures!

He had heard of a story, circulating in the race that his grandfather, the Eye Frost Race’s old ancestor, had once obtained a colony of the most terrifying poisonous creatures between heaven and earth, and reared them in a pool of genesis poison water in the forbidden land.

These poisonous creatures were called black-eyed poisonous spiders. These poisonous spiders were immune to attacks yet their toxins were so overbearing that even a Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable’s dao physique had no resistance to it.

When Bing Jun had heard the story in the past, he had felt that it was too exaggerated. How could such poisonous creatures exist in the world? Immune to all attacks? How is that even possible? But witnessing with his own eyes now, he realized that there wasn’t an exaggeration. Not only it wasn’t an exaggeration, but these spiders were more terrifying than what he had heard!

Ancestor Xuan was one of the three most powerful experts of their Eye Frost Race, Bing Jun understood how powerful Ancestor Xuan was, and it was because he knew how terrifying these black-eyed poisonous spiders were. Even Ancestor Xuan’s palm strikes couldn’t kill these black-eyed poisonous spiders, and was there anything in this world that could?!

In a split second, the black-eyed poisonous spiders once again closed in on Ancestor Xuan.

Forced to a bad spot, world-shaking ice rays burst out from his body as he attacked the black-eyed poisonous spiders again with his palms.

“All-being Suppressive Freezing Palms!”

Tyrannical absolute frost power roared out from his palms with the might to suppress thousands of living beings. Everything in the space surrendered under the power of his palms, it was as if these palms could kill everything, or freeze everything as he wished. The attack this time was more than ten times stronger than the last.

Ancestor Xuan had not known earlier that these were the black-eyed poisonous spiders, now that he knew what these spiders were, he was going all out with his attacks.

How terrifying were the full force palm attacks from a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable? They were definitely enough to shatter several hundred sacred lands strung together into pieces!

At the same time, the black-eyed poisonous spiders’ bodies emitted a blinding black light akin to exploding black suns, and the power of absolute poison spread.

Rumble!

The power of absolute poison exploding from the black-eyed poisonous spiders collided with Ancestor Xuan's palm attacks.

Violent fluctuating space cracks appeared everywhere, stimulated by the freezing energy and corrosive poison at the same time.

Huang Xiaolong had seized the time to take away Feng Yue's group and retreated away from the battlefield. One of Eye Frost Race's experts swept away shrieking in excruciating pain when he got hit by the black-eyed poisonous spiders' power of absolute poison. There was a large, gaping black hole through the expert's dao physique where he had got hit, and it was expanding to other parts of his body rapidly. No matter how desperately the Eye Frost Race's expert circulated cosmos energy from his small world to protect himself, he couldn't stop the poison from eating up his body.

Watching this sight, Bing Jun and the others sucked in a breath of cold air.

The poisoned Eye Frost Race's expert was an early Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable!

The dao physique of a Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable Realm expert was corroded in the blink of an eye, and even his cosmos energy could not expel the poison!

Bing Jun felt a hair-raising chill spread from his heart and never had there been a time he had felt so terrified.

With his current strength, and boost from the Eye Frost Race's Holy Staff, he would not feel such fear if he had to face a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

Under the force of Ancestor Xuan's palm attacks, the colony of black-eyed poisonous spiders was successfully sent flying, but before he could breathe in relief, black spots appeared on the horizon. The black-eyed poisonous spiders were flying back to him!

Judging from the spirited momentum coming off these black-eyed poisonous spiders, they seemed even more spirited, and not a hair on these spiders was ruffled. In fact, they exuded a murderous aura that was absent before, as if Ancestor Xuan's attacks had finally pissed them off!

A chill ran down Ancestor Xuan's spine.

He had used his full force and most powerful attack, yet he still failed to kill these black-eyed poisonous spiders!

They were immune to all attacks and completely unbreakable.

He truly realized the meaning of being immune to all attacks, and unbreakable!

Out of ideas, he turned to Huang Xiaolong and berated, "Huang Xiaolong, you actually ran into Eye Frost Race's forbidden land!"

Clearly, pointing this out was superfluous, how could have Huang Xiaolong tamed these black-eyed poisonous spiders if he had not entered the forbidden land?

However, Ancestor Xuan couldn't understand how Huang Xiaolong had come out unscathed from the forbidden land's ice lightning domain. That place could stop many Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts in their tracks.

More importantly, what method had Huang Xiaolong used to tame these black-eyed poisonous spiders? Their old ancestor had resorted to a special method to lure these black-eyed poisonous spiders into the ice lightning domain and reared them back there, and there wasn't any way to tame these spiders at all.

It was something even their old ancestor couldn't do, so how did a First Esteem Dao Venerable do it?

Because Huang Xiaolong had concealed his current cultivation realm, Ancestor Xuan, and the other Eye Frost Race's experts assumed that Huang Xiaolong's cultivation was at First Esteem Dao Venerable Realm.

Ancestor Xuan was in a hurry to stop the black-eyed poisonous spiders from getting close to him, so he slapped out again with his palms and shouted at Huang Xiaolong, "Huang Xiaolong, stop, we can discuss cooperation!"

Discuss cooperation? Huang Xiaolong sneered inwardly and did not order the black-eyed poisonous spiders to stop. At the same time, he swung his fist out at Bing Jun from across space. Vigorous fist force and absolute blaze power turned into a brilliant streak of red across the air, enlarging in Bing Jun's pupils.

Although Bing Jun had managed to swing out with his fist in defense despite his panic, he was still sent flying. His body burned unrecognizable by the power of absolute blaze, just like charcoal collected from mines.

Ancestor Xuan was enraged, "Huang Xiaolong, I know for certain that you must have gotten the Tree of Beginning in the forbidden land. If you dare to attack us one more time, I will spread this news outside, and then you can wait for the world's crazy pursuit!"

"What? The Tree of Beginning!" Feng Yue, Elder Tong, and the others gasped in shock.

The Tree of Beginning ah, one of the most valuable and precious trees between heaven and earth. Merely the temptation of the beginning qi could make experts fight head and claws for it, and if the news about the Tree of Beginning leaked out, it would definitely alarmed many old monsters to make a move on Huang Xiaolong. It wouldn't matter to them that Huang Xiaolong was the Son of Creation for the Tree of Beginning was too attractive of a temptation.

Huang Xiaolong sneered at his threat, "I'll be waiting then!"

If Huang Xiaolong was still a First Esteem Dao Venerable, he would have worried a little bit, but after advancing to Third Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, he really didn't care about some pursuits! The more they come, the better it would be! He was in need of a thousand high-level Dao Venerables to power the Sun Moon Furnace to assist his cultivation!

A cold light flashed in Ancestor Xuan's eyes at Huang Xiaolong's reply, "Very good, Huang Xiaolong. In that case, just you wait for those old monsters' frenzied pursuit for your life!"

He waved away the black-eyed poisonous spiders and activated the Eye of Frost in his hand. When the icy blue hole appeared, he appeared beside Bing Jun in a flicker and flew out.

Chapter 2962: Alarming Many Old Monsters

Though the black-eyed poisonous spiders had amazing speed, it was still slightly slower compared to the speed of a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert fleeing. Huang Xiaolong could only watch Ancestor Xuan grab Bing Jun and flee.

However, when the other Frost Eye Race's experts wanted to escape through the entrance, Huang Xiaolong knocked them with one absolute frost power punch, sealing all of them under a thick layer of icefrost.

Huang Xiaolong did away the restraints placed on Feng Yue and her group. Feng Yue stared worriedly at the closing entrance and urged anxiously, "Xiaolong, we should leave this place quickly, my Eye of Frost was taken away by that Bing Jun!"

If the entrance were to close and disappear without the Eye of Frost to open it again, they would be stuck there.

Hearing that, Huang Xiaolong acted swiftly. He recalled all the black-eyed poisonous spiders, and with a wave of his hands, Feng Yue, Elder Tong, and the rest were brought out through the shrinking icy blue hole. But in the last moments, Huang Xiaolong paused briefly in the air, and grabbed the remaining Frost Eye Race's experts as well.

These Frost Eye Race's experts were useful to Huang Xiaolong. He could learn where the Frost Eye Race currently lived, and at the same time, he needed high-level Dao Venerable Realm experts to supply the Sun Moon Furnace with cosmos energy for his cultivation, it was a good thing that amongst these Frost Eye Race's experts, there were four Seventh Esteem Dao Venerables.

Feng Yue watched the entrance disappear with relief in her eyes, and her back was dampened with cold sweat.

Huang Xiaolong sealed the several Frost Eye Race's experts' strength and threw them into the dragon pearl, then flew off with Feng Yue's group.

Half a day later, Huang Xiaolong, Feng Yue, and the others stopped above an uninhabited land.

"Xiaolong, Bing Jun and Ancestor Xuan escaped, so the news that you've gotten the Tree of Beginning would spread quickly. Numerous experts would rush to the Immortal Creed, so we'd better leave here as soon as possible," Feng Yue said, worrying for Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong smiled, shaking his head. "It'll be fine, we'll deal with your injuries here and leave when everyone's okay." He could see that Feng Yue, Elder Tong, and the others had quite a few injuries on them. It would be best to deal with these wounds soon.

His words warmed Feng Yue's heart.

"Don't worry because except for some old monsters, others are not my opponents," Huang Xiaolong said reassuringly.

Feng Yue froze and nodded her head stiffly. With Huang Xiaolong's current strength and those scary black-eyed poisonous spiders, there weren't many people that could deter Huang Xiaolong, and thinking of this, Feng Yue no longer insisted.

When Feng Yue was going to take out healing pellets, Huang Xiaolong took out some blue lotus nectar and said, "Take this, for you guys."

"Blue lotus nectar!" Feng Yue was surprised by Huang Xiaolong's generosity, and she waved her hands adamantly. "No, it's too precious, we..."

"Listen to me, I still have a lot," Huang Xiaolong chuckled, "Moreover, this blue lotus nectar isn't very useful to me."

Feng Yue was flabbergasted, a wry smile tugged at the corners of her lips. There was actually someone that disdained the blue lotus nectar's efficacy.

In the end, Feng Yue accepted Huang Xiaolong's blue lotus nectar, and her gaze on Huang Xiaolong was much softer than before.

Huang Xiaolong gave Elder Tong and the others a drop of blue lotus nectar each, but they dared not accept it. They looked at Feng Yue. Only after Feng Yue nodded her head did they thank Huang Xiaolong and accept Huang Xiaolong's blue lotus nectar.

With the blue lotus nectar and Huang Xiaolong's assistance, their injuries healed faster than usual, and they almost returned to their peak conditions in several days.

When Feng Yue's group had recovered, they no longer lingered around and hurried away from the Immortal Creed nonstop.

Not long after Huang Xiaolong's group left the Immortal Creed, the news began to circulate.

"The Tree of Beginning has appeared! It's in the Son of Creation Huang Xiaolong's hands!"

"For real, the Tree of Beginning? It won't be a fake rumor, right?!"

"It's one hundred percent true! Straight from the horse's mouth, Huang Xiaolong and Feng Yue entered the Frost Eye Race's treasury, and Huang Xiaolong got the Tree of Beginning there! Ancestor Xuan said that Huang Xiaolong admitted it!"

The news hit the Divine Tuo Holy World like a bomb.

Not long after, many hidden Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts began to surface, and some very ancient peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable old monsters.

Even events like the Creation Ceremony held by ten top-tier creeds like the Dragon Fish Creed couldn't pique their interests, but with the Tree of Beginning thrown into the equation, these old monsters were more than eager to come out from their nests.

Another storm was brewing in the Divine Tuo Holy World.

At the Dragon Fish Creed headquarters, the Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng was dazed for a long time after hearing the news. A bitter smile gradually formed on his face as he muttered, "His Highness' luck is a bit too good, as he even got a treasure like the Tree of Beginning."

The Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingye, Divination Creed Patriarch Wu Kun, and the others also had complicated expressions on their faces.

It would be a lie to say they were not tempted by the Tree of Beginning.

"I've heard the Poison Bodach is preparing to make a move!" Wu Kun stated, and at the mention of Poison Bodach, these peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables involuntarily revealed a trace of trepidation.

"Not only the Poison Bodach, but the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and Sword Venerable are also coming out!" Hu Qingye's thin brows were tightly locked together, "It's too dangerous for His Highness to be out there alone!"

Bi Cheng let out a heavy sigh. "Yes ah, I've already released the word, persuading His Highness to come back, but with His Highness' temper, it's unlikely that he'll accept the protection from our ten creeds. If something happens to His Highness, I won't be able to face Lord Huang Long, and at that point, I can only use my life to atone for my sins."

He was one of the vassals under the God of Creation, and what he was today was built on the God of Creation's grace. If a mishap were to fall on Huang Xiaolong, he would really use his life for atonement.

In truth, the God of Creation also had grace for the other nine creeds' patriarchs.

"It is imperative that we find His Highness as soon as possible." Wu Kun said utmost solemnly, "Even if His Highness is unwilling to accept our protection, we as vassals have an obligation to ensure that His Highness is safe!"

Bi Cheng and the others nodded, agreeing to Wu Kun's words.

Xuanyuan Potian, who had been abolished from his Xuanyuan Creed young patriarch's position and was currently imprisoned in the Xuanyuan Creed's forbidden land, laughed hysterically when he heard the news. "Huang Xiaolong, death's coming for you! When those old monsters come for you, you will end up worse than me. Those old monsters don't give a d*mn about your Son of Creation identity!"

Huang Xiaolong had no idea of the furor going on outside.

At this time, Huang Xiaolong was somewhere in an uninhabited land within the Dragon Fish Heavenly Cave.

After leaving the Immortal Creed, Huang Xiaolong had separated from Feng Yue's group. Feng Yue's group had headed back to the Traversing Wind Creed, and Huang Xiaolong had given Feng Yue a Fruit of Beginning and a big pond of Frost Jade Cold Water before she left.

Feng Yue had the Wind Awn Dao Physique, and the Frost Jade Cold Water would be extremely beneficial to her. Moreover, with her talent of ten high-order Saint Fates, who knew, maybe she would have the ability to wield the power of absolute frost in the future. The benefit of the Fruit of Beginning needed no explanation.

However, after accepting the Fruit of Beginning and Frost Jade Cold Water from Huang Xiaolong, Feng Yue gave him a quick peck on his face, sending Huang Xiaolong's heart topsy-turvy.

He had no other meaning in giving the two items to Feng Yue. Feng Yue had invited him to open the Frost Eye Race's treasury, and because of that he had gained the Tree of Beginning and Frost Jade Cold Water to her. Whereas, Feng Yue and her group's harvest was robbed clean by Ancestor Xuan, so Huang Xiaolong thought of giving her some compensation.

Before leaving, Feng Yue also said a sentence, "I'll wait for you at the Traversing Wind Creed! Forever!"

Huang Xiaolong's little liver quivered in fright at this sentence.

Huang Xiaolong had come to this uninhabited land after separating from Feng Yue. This is the place he had chosen for his seclusion to refine the two hundred plus Fruits of Beginning. It was enough for him to advance to Fourth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, maybe even to Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

Chapter 2963: Getting Increasingly Frightening

But, before he began refining the Fruit of Beginning, Huang Xiaolong spent a little time to control the several Frost Eye Race's Dao Venerable experts with the creation mark. He learned from these people's memories that he had gotten the current location of the Frost Eye Race.

"Ancestor Xuan, Bing Jun." Huang Xiaolong sneered as he was certainly going to make a trip to the Frost Eye Race and burst their bodies on the spot! And it wasn't long until that day came!

If the Frost Eye Race refused to submit at that time, he would annihilate the entire Frost Eye Race!

It would be considered as giving the creeds in the Divine Tuo Holy World a warning and also a reminder call, and letting those old monsters know that he, the Son of Creation, could destroy them all without borrowing others' strength!

In this uninhabited land, Huang Xiaolong opened an independent space with cosmos energy. Inside the space, he took out the Sun Moon Furnace and entered the furnace's inner space and went to the center region where he had replanted the Tree of Beginning.

Looking at the glistening and scrumptious looking Fruits of Beginning hanging on the Tree of Beginning, Huang Xiaolong was filled with joy.

Anyone, seeing the Tree of Beginning couldn't help but feel euphoric, no matter how many times one looked at it.

A while later, Huang Xiaolong sat cross-legged under the Tree of Beginning. He raised his hand and picked one of the Fruits of Beginning. He swallowed the fruit whole and quickly circulated the Grandmist Parasitic Medium to refine the fruit's energy.

The moment the Fruit of Beginning entered his mouth, it turned into a rich beginning energy, potent and seemingly endless energy like a great sea, much more vigorous than the thirty sources of beginning qi he had refined previously.

When Huang Xiaolong was refining the Fruit of Beginning, the several Frost Eye Race's experts sat in a circle around the Sun Moon Furnace, continuously sending cosmos energy from their small worlds into the Sun Moon Furnace. The Sun Moon Furnace's grand array came to life, while the sun and moon rose into the air, piercing through layers of space, into Huang Xiaolong's body.

Time flowed by, and decades passed by in the blink of an eye.

In these decades, Huang Xiaolong put all his time and effort in cultivating inside the Sun Moon Furnace while refining Fruits of Beginning, comprehending the beginning laws contained inside the Fruit of Beginning and the power of beginning.

The law of beginning was the one of the most powerful laws when heaven and earth came to be.

Huang Xiaolong finally broke through to peak late-Third Esteem Dao Venerable realm after refining more than a dozen Fruits of Beginning, and touched the threshold to enter the Fourth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm.

Huang Xiaolong was enshrouded by various manifestations due to the cosmos energy of his three small worlds, from scenes of world creation, sometimes it was a kingdom of dragons, to bursting rays of auspicious lights, to projection of Dao Venerables formed from various grand dao laws, to a fleeing flicker of the God of Creation's image.

The immediate space around Huang Xiaolong gradually became warped and disconcerted due to the pressure from his body.

This was Sun Moon Furnace's inner space. A cosmos artifact's inner space that almost reached peak-level Dao Venerable Cosmos Artifact like the Sun Moon Furnace, was extremely stable, and unshakeable even when facing full force attacks from Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables, but now, the inner space was now wrinkled and distorted.

Another several years went by.

On this day, high above the Sun Moon Furnace, something seemed to be brewing as bolts of lightning flashed, thunder rumbled, and suddenly there was a sea of burning flames, rising and falling, lighting up the 'sky.'

Huang Xiaolong's fourth tribulation was here!

White Incineration Lightning dominated the sky, as the sea of Origin Flame threatened to burn everything, and the Light of Creation reached every corner of space.

Compared to the third tribulation, the destructive force of this fourth tribulation had risen by several fold.

Regardless of cultivation realm, the fourth order was an important ceiling to break in order to go higher. Once he successfully stepped into the fourth esteem, his strength would soar to another level; his dao souls, inextinguishable dao heart, to his dao physique, and the small worlds inside his body would have heaven-shaking changes.

Although several decades had passed, the old monsters outside were still fervently searching for Huang Xiaolong. None of them thought of giving up. In fact, their actions had grown increasingly frenzied over the years, and more than a few were exerting force on the Traversing Wind Creed, wanting Feng Yue to spill out Huang Xiaolong's whereabouts.

The Traversing Wind was one of Divine Tuo Holy World's top-tier creeds, and coupled with Feng Yue's influence that could gather many experts in a single summon, these old monsters were quite powerless as long as she did not take a step out of the Traversing Wind Creed.

As Huang Xiaolong was about to face his fourth tribulation, news from an unknown source was spreading across the Divine Tuo Holy World that Huang Xiaolong came from the Saint Devil Heavenly Land under the Blue Heaven Heavenly Creed.

More importantly, the latter part of the news mentioned that the Cangqiong Sacred Land's patriarch, Cangqiong Old Man was Huang Xiaolong's master.

The news sent a tsunami through the Divine Tuo Holy World, and in an instant, numerous forces and even more experts rushed towards the Saint Devil Heavenly Cave.

But the Dragon Fish Creed, Divination Creed, Red Fox Creed, and other seven creeds' experts arrived in time and rescued Cangqiong Old Man and Fei Yanzi.

Although Cangqiong Old Man and Fei Yanzi were saved, countless Cangqiong Sacred Land's experts and disciples were killed, many of them were reduced to meals in old monsters' mouths, including the Otherworldly Mansion Master Mo Zhi, Deputy Mansion Master Long Shengtian, as well as the Purple Spider Race's Patriarch Zi Dongping. All of them fell in the battle.

Naturally, Huang Xiaolong who was cultivating inside the Sun Moon Furnace did not know any of these things.

Huang Xiaolong was facing his fourth tribulation's White Incineration Lightning, Origin Flame, and Light of Creation.

It didn't take long for the Divine Tuo Holy World's top experts to notice that the entire world's grand daos were stimulated, just like a hundred years ago.

An ominous feeling shrouded many people's hearts.

This couldn't be captured by Primal Ancestors, but clearly felt by all Dao Venerable experts.

The Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng's face looked very solemn, "Is there a world-shocking treasure undergoing transformation that causes these changes to heaven and earth?!"

"What is it exactly!" The Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingye seemed agitated, "Moreover, this is not the first time, in the last several hundred years, a similar phenomenon has occurred several times! Moreover, it grows increasingly terrifying each time, and if this thing continues to grow, who could suppress it when it runs out to cause havoc?"

Similar to Bi Cheng and Hu Qingye, other Dao Venerables were also guessing, feeling apprehensive.

This phenomenon lasted several years long, and finally calmed down thereafter.

But this calm did not last long. A few decades later, there were changes to heaven and earth again, and the inexplicable pressure pressing down on various experts' chest also grew stronger, and even high-level Dao Venerables felt uncomfortable, filled with a sense of foreboding.

While the experts outside felt strongly apprehensive, inside the Sun Moon Furnace, lightning streaks were raging, destroying everything, and everything transformed to origin energy, then restored back to their original state and form.

On this day, an uninhabited land somewhere in the Dragon Fish Heavenly Creed suddenly shook. Cracks and deep fissures opened and ran across the land as an overwhelming energy rushed out to the surface from deep underground like an invincible beast was breaking out.

DONG—!

The entire land shook for a moment, and a thunderous explosion blew the land into the air. Moments later, a figure slowly emerged from deep underground, and who could it be but Huang Xiaolong who had been in seclusion for several decades, refining the Fruits of Beginning.

Chapter 2964: Sh*t of a Son of Creation

His seclusion this time lasted almost two hundred years. Hence, it had been two hundred years since Huang Xiaolong had seen true sunlight.

A Dao Venerable expert's seclusion could easily go on for tens of thousands of years, even several hundred thousand years. For Huang Xiaolong, this was the longest he had ever been in seclusion since he had started on this path, almost two hundred and twenty years.

Inside the Sun Moon Furnace, not only Huang Xiaolong had refined all the two hundred plus Fruits of Beginning, but had also absorbed an entire sea of Frost Jade Cold Water by submerging himself in it as he cultivated!

Huang Xiaolong's absolute frost power had reached major completion, and it was infinitely close to achieving perfection!

As long as Huang Xiaolong's absolute frost power reached perfection, he could seal a great area of space in icefrost with a single thought!

Icy rays of light suddenly burst out from his body, and wherever the rays swept passed, everything fell into the ice world's embrace. In a short breath and the entire uninhabited land, the continents, mountain ranges, rivers and oceans, forests of various sizes, as well as vast grasslands were all covered by a layer of ice.

This was not simply covering them under a thick layer of ice but truly sealed by ice!

A peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert would be hard-pressed to shatter the sealing power of his perfection state absolute frost power with a punch!

Huang Xiaolong observed the world of ice around him, feeling quite satisfied. Almost perfection state absolute frost power was truly unparalleled.

Just now, he had not utilized any cosmos energy. It was purely the power of absolute frost. Had he added cosmos energy into the equation, the result would be much more overbearing.

Huang Xiaolong took a grand dao pill with brimming grand dao energy and grand dao laws around it, this was one of the grand dao pills he had refined inside the Sun Moon Furnace, called the Source Essence Pill.

After he finished refining the two hundred plus Fruits of Beginning, and Frost Jade Cold Water, he had spent some time studying the Sun Moon Creed's pill refining techniques and used the medicinal plants he had found in the Frost Eye Race's treasury and refined this top-level dao great Source Essence Pill.

There were a total of four batches of it.

Huang Xiaolong popped the Source Essence Pill into his mouth, and chewed on it, enjoying its intoxicating taste.

Top dao grade Source Essence Pill was an extremely precious resource to many Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts, but to Huang Xiaolong, it was a snack when his mouth was feeling bland.

The Source Essence Pill's medicinal energy was soon absorbed by his Huang Long Bloodline, without the need for Huang Xiaolong to do anything.

"Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Sword Venerable!" Huang Xiaolong's pupils gleamed with a frosty light as he listed out his targets.

During the time he was in seclusion, the Mystical Pavilion Branch Master of Dragon Fish Creed, Zeng Lei, and the Boundary Emperor Creed's Patriarch Di Bai, Long Jianfei, Duan Feng, and the others had continuously sent messages to him. He had learned of the one-sided slaughter in the Saint Devil Heavenly Cave, and he knew that Mo Zhi, Long Shengtian, and Zi Dongping had died at the hands of Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and Sword Venerable's disciples.

Although these three had not taken action personally, it was their intention.

"It's about time to kill a few Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts!" Huang Xiaolong mumbled to himself.

Although he was unable to kill peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm old monsters like Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and Sword Venerable at this point, killing their disciples of early and even mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm was only a matter of waving his hand!

After two hundred plus years of seclusion, Huang Xiaolong's cultivation realm had entered the peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm! While inside the Sun Moon Furnace, he had sorted out the grand dao laws and absolute powers he could wield, and began experimenting with combining two or more laws and powers.

For example, the power of absolute frost and absolute poison. He could already combine the two kinds of powers to a certain degree, and he could punch out with these two absolute powers in his fist force, and the combined forces resulted in a shocking destructive power!

Both his absolute frost and absolute poison powers had reached the limit of major completion. Each power was scary enough on its own, but when combined, the effect took one's breath away.

Huang Xiaolong contacted the Mystical Pavilion's branch pavilion master Zeng Lei, and ordered him to investigate the whereabouts of Poison Bodach, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and Sword Venerable's disciples.

Zeng Lei's reply came moments later saying that there would be a big auction going on at the Dragon Fish Creed's Mystical Pavilion Branch a few days later. The Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Sword Venerable, and the others would be arriving at the Dragon Fish City.

Not only their disciples, but many experts and genesis races who had taken part in the Cangqiong Sacred Land's slaughter were also going to attend the auction.

"All will be there," Huang Xiaolong sneered, "All the better."

It would save him the hassle of searching for them one by one.

Let the slaughter begin!

Then he would settle the score with each one of them that participated in the Cangqiong Sacred Land's destruction!

Huang Xiaolong sped away, turning into a streak of light and disappearing from the location.

Not long after Huang Xiaolong had left, a group of people flew across the uninhabited frozen land. As they looked at the frozen grasslands and everything in between, they sucked in a breath of cold air in astonishment.

"Absolute frost power! On top of that, it could very well be perfection absolute frost power!"

"Did a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable old monster happen to pass by here some time ago?!"

At the thought of this possibility, the hair on their backs stood on end.

They flew over out of curiosity because they sensed the shocking frost energy's fluctuations.

"Let's go quickly!" The several of them left the place in haste, afraid if they were a split second slower, the old monster would turn around and return.

Huang Xiaolong who was accelerating towards the Dragon Fish City exuded an icy aura all over. Despite knowing that he was the Son of Creation, the Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Demon Tree, Sword Venerable, and others had laid their hands on those closest to him just for the Tree of Beginning, this was not merely challenging him, the Son of Creation, but like challenging his father, Huang Long!

Ever since the Huang Long World had come into being, his father had rarely made his appearance, and since he had not appeared in public for many, many years, these old monsters had forgotten about his father's existence!

There were rumors going around in the Divine Tuo Holy World that his father Huang Long was no longer in the Huang Long World, and would never come back.

Huang Xiaolong did not know how these rumors came about, but it was definitely filled with ill intentions.

As Huang Xiaolong got closer to the Dragon Fish City, inside a certain luxurious mansion in the Dragon Fish City, a group of young men was having a jolly time.

“Fart of a Son of Creation, I say that Huang Xiaolong is a cowardly turtle. Cangqiong Sacred Land and the Cangqiong Alliance have been destroyed for so many years, but not even his shadow could be seen.” A young man clad in a green brocade robe laughed heartlessly. He was called Liu Ran, the Poison Bodach’s personal disciple, a late-Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

“My thoughts exactly,” the Sword Venerable’s personal disciple, Yan Bubi, beside him agreed with contempt. “Originally, I wanted to show him my invincible sword dao, to see if his Huang Long Bloodline is as powerful as it is rumored to be. But who would have known that he wouldn’t even show up.” He’s a mid-Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable.

“Brother Yan Bubi’s Invincible Sword Dao has truly inherited the Sword Venerable’s essence. If Huang Xiaolong encounters Brother Yan Bubi, he definitely can’t get past ten moves.” Qiu Ruopeng, the Nine-headed Demon Tree’s personal disciple, chimed in.

Other old monsters’ personal disciples agreed merrily.

Chapter 2965: In My Eyes, You’re A W*ssy

The Sword Venerable’s personal disciple, Yan Bubi, smiled humbly when he heard voices of agreement around him, “Although I have inherited master’s skills, Huang Xiaolong is someone with Huang Long Bloodline, and he can still take ten moves from me. But, I am confident that I can defeat him within twenty moves. I will make him beg for his life on his knees!”

The Poison Bodach’s personal disciple, Liu Ran, chuckled knowingly, “Brother Yan Bubi is too modest, once your invincible sword dao makes its appearance, not many people can last twenty moves against you!”

Everyone agreed loudly.

Although Ancestor Xuan had leaked out that Huang Xiaolong had obtained the Tree of Beginning, he had also deliberately hidden the fact that Huang Xiaolong had a colony of black-eyed poisonous spiders. He also had not mentioned Huang Xiaolong’s battle prowess. Therefore, outsiders were not aware that Huang Xiaolong had a colony of black-eyed poisonous spiders, and did not know Huang Xiaolong could easily defeat the Frost Eye Race’s Young Patriarch Bing Jun who held the race’s Holy Staff.

Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others were even more ignorant of Huang Xiaolong’s current cultivation realm and battle prowess. Hence, these people estimated that Huang Xiaolong couldn’t last twenty moves against Yan Bubi.

Their perception of Huang Xiaolong remained at the time of the Creation Ceremony.

When Huang Xiaolong defeated Huang Shuai, many concluded that Huang Xiaolong’s battle strength was at par with an average Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable expert, at most.

Yan Bubi was a mid-Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable, but he was definitely not included amongst the average experts as he was someone that could leapfrog challenge an Eighth Esteem Dao Venerable realm, and was a genius of an era.

"It is said that Young Lady Yu Yue and Yin Yue would be attending the upcoming auction," a handsome young man clad in a bright crimson battle robe, seated further down from Liu Ran, said suddenly.

This young man's name was Peng Xuan, and although his strength was slightly lower than Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, and Qiu Ruopeng, his master was also a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm old monster.

More than half of this group of thirty-plus people, either had a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm master or patriarch.

In the Dragon Fish Heavenly Cave, only the Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng was a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert, however, the Divine Tuo Holy World was a vast world, and there were countless top-tier creeds, and also genesis races that were comparable to top-tier creeds.

Though Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and Nine-headed Tree Demon were neither patriarchs of top-tier creeds nor patriarchs of genesis races, they were an early generation of powerful experts, and had lived for a long time. Legend had it that before the Divine Tuo Holy World's Dragon Fish Creed, Divination Creed, and other creeds were formed, old monsters like Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and Nine-headed Tree Demon already had a certain degree of reputation.

When Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and others heard Yu Yue, and Yin Yue would be attending the auction, their eyes lit up.

But then came Peng Xuan's sigh, "Unfortunately, the three moons had sworn to only wed a person with eleven high-order Saint Fates, Huang Xiaolong that b*stard got lucky."

Yan Bubi was immediately displeased upon hearing that. "Young Lady Yu Yue, Yin Yue, and Feng Yue merely said that in jest. How could they marry the same person."

Liu Ran chimed in, "That's right, with the three moons beauty and talent, Huang Xiaolong alone cannot handle the three of them."

Qiu Ruopeng sneered, "Even if Huang Xiaolong has the guts to marry the three moons, he would have to see if our fists agree or not."

At this time, outside the Dragon Fish City's gates, a person descended to the ground. This was Huang Xiaolong who had rushed over.

Huang Xiaolong's expression was tepid, watching the flow of experts, and he joined the current into the city.

Although Huang Xiaolong had not appeared in public for two hundred years, he was still recognized immediately upon entering Dragon Fish City.

"It's, it's His Highness Huang Xiaolong! His Highness Huang Xiaolong is here in the Dragon Fish City!"

"It's really His Highness Huang Xiaolong! I saw him battling Huang Shuai outside the city from afar!"

In an instant, a wave of excitement swept the streets.

"What's Huang Xiaolong doing here? For the auction? The Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable and Nine-headed Tree Demon's personal disciples are all here in the city, but he dares to show up in such an upright manner when the whole world knows he has the Tree of Beginning! Without the Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch and the others by his side, Huang Xiaolong is looking to get abused here!”

While everyone was shocked and confused to see Huang Xiaolong appear, a top-tier creed’s expert in the crowd mocked Huang Xiaolong.

He called Huang Xiaolong by his name with a contemptuous tone. There were many creeds and sacred lands’ experts who revered Huang Xiaolong, but clearly, not all of them shared the similar views and sentiments.

Despite the sea of people in the noisy streets, Huang Xiaolong still captured the mocking words, as he looked straight at that expert, and an overwhelming heavenly might rushed from Huang Xiaolong’s body and slammed onto him.

“Kneel!” Huang Xiaolong ordered indifferently but his voice thundered in that expert’s mind, jarring his dao soul senseless.

That person was a Fourth Esteem Dao Venerable expert, but was he capable of resisting Huang Xiaolong’s aura?!

The space above his head crumbled upon him as a terrifying force slammed onto his body, and forced him to fall on his knees.

“It’s the Royal Peacock Creed’s vice hall master, Guo Borong!” Some of the experts nearby recognized who the Fourth Esteem Dao Venerable expert was.

The Royal Peacock Creed was a top-tier creed located in the far south of Divine Tuo Holy World. In terms of strength, the Royal Peacock Creed stood at the same height at the Divination Creed and Dragon Fish Creed.

Guo Borong was forced to kneel under the pressure of Huang Xiaolong’s heavenly might, and his face was beet red from resistance, anger, and humiliation. He glared ferociously at Huang Xiaolong and shouted, “Huang Xiaolong, you’ve only got enough guts to bully someone weak like me. More than a hundred years have passed since Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Sword Venerable, and the others razed Cangqiong Sacred land to the ground, but you didn’t even dare to lift your head out of the hole you’ve been hiding!”

“What Son of Creation?! You’re just a w*ssy in my eyes!”

“Is that so?” Huang Xiaolong’s face turned a little colder as he raised a finger and sent a streak of absolute blaze power onto Guo Borong’s body. Instead of incinerating Guo Borong to ashes immediately, he controlled the power of absolute blaze to burn through Guo Borong’s flesh and bones part by part. For a moment, the scent of barbecue permeated the streets.

Guo Borong shrieked miserably and struggled violently, wanting to get up to fight desperately with Huang Xiaolong, but he was pinned where he was, while the power of absolute blaze devoured his life.

Other experts amongst the crowd that were similarly dissatisfied with Huang Xiaolong paled, and those who wanted to ambush Huang Xiaolong secretly and grab the Tree of Beginning had to withdraw their hands.

Yes, they could force Huang Xiaolong to take out the Tree of Beginning relying on the forces behind them, but Huang Xiaolong was no pushover and definitely not someone the average Dao Venerable experts could offend.

As the power of Huang Xiaolong's absolute blaze burned Guo Borong's body, a berth opened through the crowd as the Sword Venerable's other two personal disciples sent several Boundary Emperor Creed's core disciples flying with a palm strike.

"You guys from the Boundary Emperor Creed don't think you're so great for holding onto Huang Xiaolong's big thigh! Huang Xiaolong won't dare to let out a fart even if we kill all of you now. Didn't you see that a hundred years after we destroyed the Cangqiong Sacred Land, did Huang Xiaolong say anything to the Sword Venerable?"

"Get over here now!"

The Sword Venerable's two personal disciples mocked and ridiculed the several Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples.

Chapter 2966: Huang Xiaolong, How Dare You?!

Though the Sword Venerable had not created a creed, he had created the Supreme Sword Palace!

In the ranks within the Supreme, Sword Palace were numerous talented sword cultivators since the genesis era, and more than half of them had a resounding reputation in the Divine Tuo Holy World. On top of that, the Sword Venerable had accepted ten outstanding personal disciples. Each of these ten great personal disciples was rare geniuses. They were known for practicing the sword dao. One possessed the Unparalleled Sword Physique, while another was born with a divine sword in his hand, and a few of them had triggered heavenly manifestations when they were born.

These two Sword Venerable's personal disciples weren't as strong as Yan Bubi, but they were still mid-level Dao Venerable experts, with one at the peak late-Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable, and another at early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable, respectively.

The several Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples that were knocked to the ground got up with furious faces. They neither offended nor collided with the other side. The Supreme Sword Palace's disciples attacked them just because they didn't like Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples. More accurately, it was because the Boundary Emperor Creed was in Huang Xiaolong's camp the Supreme Sword Palace's disciples found them displeasing.

"His Highness Huang Xiaolong is the Son of Creation, you disrespected His Highness Huang Xiaolong and blasphemed him, you will suffer retribution for it!" One of the Boundary Creed Emperor's disciples yelled.

"Retribution?" The Sword Venerable's peak late-Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable disciple, Chen Lixing, snorted loudly in disdain, "Our Sword Venerable has allied with the Poison Valley and World Tree, moreover, the Stonemen Race, Inferno Race, Darkness Demon Creed, and Devouring Sun Creed have all joined our alliance. At this point, even the Dragon Fish Creed's ten creeds' alliance cannot overpower us, what can Huang Xiaolong do to us?!"

The Supreme Sword Palace was built by the Sword Venerable, the Poison Valley was the force formed by the Poison Bodach, and World Tree was a force belonging to the Nine-headed Tree Demon. Both Stonemen Race and Inferno Race were genesis races that ranked quite high amongst the rest of the genesis races, second only to the Holy Dragon Race and Heavenly Phoenix Race. The Darkness Demon Creed and Devouring Sun Creed were top-tier creeds just like the Dragon Fish Creed and Divination Creed.

The Sword Venerable's other disciple, the early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable, Kong Ling, grinned menacingly. "In the future, more top-tier creeds, genesis races, and hidden families would join our alliance, so what if Huang Xiaolong has twelve high-order Saint Fates and that he's the Son of Creation? It would be better if he surfaces, we're quite troubled having to search for him!"

Right at this time, an icy cold voice sounded, "Is that so?"

No one could pinpoint which direction the ethereal cold voice came from, but anyone could detect the strong killing intent within.

Chen Lixing and Kong Ling were startled for a split second, they looked around and saw a wide berth open through the crowd, and at the end of it stood a young man approaching with his hands clasped behind him, long hair fluttering without any wind blowing. The young man's stride was unhurried yet the young man reached them in a single step.

Just as the two of them were inwardly guessing who Huang Xiaolong might be, the crowd around them stirred.

Their ears repeatedly captured three words-Huang Xiaolong. Chen Lixing and Kong Ling were stunned, Huang Xiaolong?

Kong Ling's eyes narrowed as he observed Huang Xiaolong from head to toe like a curious cat, "So, you're Huang Xiaolong. Huang Xiaolong, it's a surprise that you still dare to come to Dragon Fish City!"

Huang Xiaolong responded without any expression, "In the entire Huang Long World, there's not a place I can't go."

Chen Lixing and Kong Ling exchanged a glance, then erupted in roaring laughter.

"Huang Xiaolong, we know that you're the Son of Creation, however, this identity of yours is useless in front of us," Kong Ling sneered, "Do you think because this place is within the Dragon Fish Heavenly Creed, and you have the protection of Dragon Fish Creed, we won't dare to do anything to you? You'd better hand out the Tree of Beginning before suffering!"

Huang Xiaolong remained indifferent, "If I refuse?"

"Refuse?" Chen Lixing chuckled maliciously, "We might not be your opponents, but our Senior Brother Yan Bubi is also in the city, he's a mid-Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable expert that has inherited our master's invincible sword dao. He could abuse half to death before Bi Cheng and the others arrive to save you!"

"Therefore, you better hand it out now!" Chen Lixing chuckled, "Moreover, apart from our Supreme Sword Palace, the Poison Valley, and World Tree's experts are also in the Dragon Fish City, a few of them are early Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts, you won't be able to run if they want to snatch the Tree of Beginning!"

Huang Xiaolong did not speak, instead, he took a glance at the several Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples.

In the short time Huang Xiaolong exchanged sentences with the other side, these Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples endured the pain in their bodies and knelt towards Huang Xiaolong in salute.

Seeing this, Chen Lixing laughed even louder, "Huang Xiaolong, you want to save these few Boundary Emperor Creed's disciples? You can't even save yourself, so you better think how you're going to escape later."

"Pity you didn't see me in action when I was slaughtering through those Cangqiong Sacred Land's disciples. Oh, they were screaming so miserably, so tragic, and before their death, they were still hoping you would come to save them. Well, pity you didn't come, we didn't even see a strand of your hair." Chen Lixing guffawed.

Kong Ling was laughing too loudly.

Other experts that were gloating inwardly also laughed out loud.

Looking at the laughing Chen Lixing, Huang Xiaolong punched out with the force of shattering the earth. Chen Lixing's laughter came to an abrupt stop the moment his head exploded into pieces, intelligible pieces of flesh and bones, and golden blood splattered from high air.

The world fell into silence.

All shocked widened eyes were staring at the headless Chen Lixing!

Earlier, Huang Xiaolong used the power of absolute blaze to devour the Royal Peacock Creed's Guo Borong bit by bit, many in the crowd had witnessed that. However, Guo Borong was merely a mid-Fourth Esteem Dao Venerable, whereas Chen Lixing was a peak late-Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable expert ah!

Yet his head exploded from one punch!

This!

Everyone was flabbergasted.

Kong Ling's face turned deathly pale in an instant and dared not make any abrupt movement for the time being. He was genuinely frightened. Although it was long-rumored that Huang Xiaolong's battle prowess was amazing, he did not believe it for one second. In his opinion, Huang Xiaolong was merely a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable, how strong could he be?

But now, that one punch!

"You!" Kong Ling finally managed to spit out one word with quivering lips.

"Don't worry, I won't burst you with one punch, I will slowly crush you bit by bit, from your inextinguishable dao heart, your dao veins, and your head, crush them one by one!"

Huang Xiaolong was cold and indifferent, and at this time, Chen Lixing's dao soul was going to make a run for it. The suction force from Huang Xiaolong's palm pulled it back, then he wrapped Chen Lixing's dao soul in a layer of absolute blaze, just like how he had burned Liu Xinxin's dao soul in the past, he was burning Chen Lixing's dao soul.

Chen Lixing's dao soul wailed tragically.

Kong Ling ashen, but put up a brave front, "Huang Xiaolong, how dare you!"

"How dare I?" Huang Xiaolong sneered, "Just see if I dare?!" With that said, his palm reached across space and grabbed onto Kong Ling, and dragged Kong Ling up to himself.

To Kong Ling's horror, he, an early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable, was powerless to resist Huang Xiaolong.

A sudden heart-piercing pain came from his right arm, Huang Xiaolong had crushed his arm into pieces, scaring the daylights out of the spectating experts. Kong Ling was an early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable expert, how strong was his dao physique? Yet it was crushed under Huang Xiaolong's fingers like toasted bread!

While Huang Xiaolong was crushing parts of Kong Ling's body, Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others who had been discussing merely finally got news of Huang Xiaolong's emergence in the Dragon Fish City.

"Huang Xiaolong, you sure got a lot of guts to destroy my junior brother's dao physique!" Yan Bubi furiously jumped to his feet, exuding an overwhelming killing intent from head to toe, "Even if Bi Cheng old man comes, he can't save you!"

He turned into a streak of metallic sword light that shot out of the mansion, disappearing from others' sight.

Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others followed up quickly. There was the Tree of Beginning on Huang Xiaolong, naturally, they can't allow others to snatch it away for nothing.

Chapter 2967: Making An Enemy Out of the World

As a mid-Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable expert, how fast was Yan Bubi's speed? He could traverse ten thousand planets in a single step if he wanted to. He arrived on the streets in a split second, and when he did, he saw Huang Xiaolong crushing the last piece of Kong Ling's skull bones!

Kong Ling's shrieks of pain and Chen Lixing's anguished screams from being roasted by absolute blaze power sent Yan Bubi amok. "Huang Xiaolong, you're dead!"

In the next second, he slashed at Huang Xiaolong, regardless of the consequences.

His sword shattered the void as sword light bloomed in ten million rays of metallic light. It felt as if everything in the world would be split into two by this sword, and at this moment, the experts in Dragon Fish City had the vague feeling that they were about to be separated into two halves. Experts closest to Huang Xiaolong felt like they were on the verge of hell!

It was like judging life and death with one sword, cutting off all vitality around Huang Xiaolong!

This was the essence of Sword Venerable's life and death sword dao!

Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others' looked solemn upon arriving on the scene at this sight.

But looking at the world-splitting momentum that seemingly could split the world and everything in it into two, Huang Xiaolong merely raised his hand and casually flicked his finger at the air. The mighty sword slashes with overwhelming momentum shattered into smithereens in a split second, and Yan Bubi himself reeled backward in a sorry manner for several hundred steps.

"What?!!" Li Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and experts on the scene were beyond shocked.

Yan Bubi, who had mastered the essence of Sword Venerable's invincible sword dao, slashed out the momentum of overpowering all-beings sword attack, deterring even the likes of Liu Ran and Qiu Ruopeng, and he actually crumbled in an instant from the flick of Huang Xiaolong's finger. He even sent Yan Bubi reeling backward uncontrollably?!

Huang Xiaolong completed his work on King Long's last piece of skull bone and dragged out Kong Ling's dao soul. With another flick of his finger, the power of absolute blaze wrapped around Kong Ling's dao soul.

As Huang Xiaolong was about to start roasting Kong Ling's dao soul, Yan Bubi pointed the tip of his azure, long sword at Huang Xiaolong and threatened, "Huang Xiaolong, if you dare to injure my junior brothers again, I will cut you down!"

Huang Xiaolong merely raised his eyelids slightly as his power of absolute blaze finished enveloping Kong Ling's dao soul, and immediately, Kong Ling's miserable shrieks reverberated in the air.

Yan Bubi's face darkened, looking ugly to the extreme.

Then, Huang Xiaolong sent out a wisp of nirvana flame onto Kong Ling and Chen Lixing's dao souls.

Huang Xiaolong's nirvana flame had reached major completion, and it was definitely more lethal in comparison to his absolute blaze power. Thus, when the nirvana flame was added around Kong Ling and Chen Lixing's dao souls, the screaming intensified, raising goosebumps down Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and other experts' necks.

Monstrous killing intent exploded in Yan Bubi's eyes after seeing this. He took large strides towards Huang Xiaolong, and with every step he took, the sword qi surging from his body rose higher. It was like a violent geyser that rose higher and higher, and condensed into a life and death world boundary. The life and death world boundary spun, where half was the world of life, and the other was the world of death.

In this life and death world boundary, Yan Bubi was god, the ruler of life, but in the next second, he was the ruler of death.

"Huang Xiaolong, no one can save you today!" Yan Bubi's words came through gritted teeth, as his gaze turned frosty and malevolent, "That was merely the first move in the Life and Death Sword Dao, and the weakest attack. Next, I will use the tenth move, the strongest attack in the Life and Death Sword Dao to destroy your body. Then, I will imprison your dao soul, and let you taste pain ten thousand times worse!"

Huang Xiaolong's gaze remained tepid looking at the surging life and death sword qi around Yan Bubi, and he turned his attention towards the thirty-plus people who had arrived not long ago, "You all are disciples of Poison Bodach, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race, Inferno Race, Darkness Demon Creed, and Devouring Sun Creed? Make you move together, and save me the trouble to deal with all of you one by one!"

The Stonemen Race, Inferno Race, Darkness Demon Creed, and Devouring Sun Creed had exerted great effort in Cangqiong Land's destruction.

Yan Bubi's expression was ugly to the extreme.

Huang Xiaolong didn't give him a direct look since he had arrived. Moreover, the words Huang Xiaolong had just spoken meant that he, Yan Bubi, was no match against Huang Xiaolong, and that he would need to cooperate with Poison Bodach's disciple Liu Ran, and the others to capture Huang Xiaolong.

Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, Peng Xuan, and the rest of the thirty-plus disciples didn't look happy either.

"Huang Xiaolong, you're overestimating yourself too much." A peak late-Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable beside Qiu Ruopeng retorted in anger, "Brother Yan Bubi alone is more than enough to deal with you, and it's not necessary for him to join hands with us!"

"Is that so?" Then Huang Xiaolong's swift punch sent the peak late-Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable flying, and his flesh turned black, emitting a nauseating, foul stench when he crashed onto the street.

Faces went pallid at the sight.

"Absolute poison power!" Liu Ran exclaimed in a shaking voice.

As Poison Bodach's personal disciple, who practiced the art of poisons, how could Liu Ran not recognize the power of absolute poison? He had long heard that Huang Xiaolong wielded the power of absolute poison, but he had never believed in that, until he witnessed it with his own eyes now.

He really couldn't understand how the h*ll Huang Xiaolong had cultivated the power of absolute poison? His master, Poison Bodach, was born during the genesis era, and in all these years, he had refined numerous items of poison attributes, cultivating inside poison pools, suffering inhumane tortures to comprehend the power of absolute poison. But it was said that Huang Xiaolong's cultivation journey did not exceed ten thousand years!

Yan Bubi's heart palpitated looking at the rotting body of the peak late-Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable expert. This person was called Chen Hao, and he had a dao physique in the top twenty ranks. Chen Hao was someone who focused on tempering his dao physique, yet he failed to resist the power of Huang Xiaolong's absolute poison!

On top of that, Chen Hao's body was corroded almost instantly!

Qiu Ruopeng pressed down the great waves of shock in his heart, and looked at Huang Xiaolong icily. "Huang Xiaolong, do you know that he's the Stonemen Race Patriarch's personal disciple? Are you going to make an enemy out of the world?"

"Making an enemy out of the world?" Huang Xiaolong laughed like he was hearing a funny joke. He, the Son of Creation, was being labeled as making an enemy out of the world?

While Qiu Ruopeng's face turned uglier, Huang Xiaolong snorted, "You've overestimated yourselves. In my eyes, all of you are ants. Can mere ants represent the world? Then again, even if I make an enemy out of the world, so what?"

Huang Xiaolong's reply reverberated throughout the Dragon Fish City, and his words made the high-level Dao Venerable experts who coveted the Tree of Beginning frown.

"Huang Xiaolong, you're arrogant and impertinent!" Qiu Ruopeng was enraged. He turned to Liu Ran, Yan Bubi, and the others, "Brothers, we will join hands today to eradicate Huang Xiaolong. If such a scourge is not killed, he would bring endless calamities to the world!"

His tone and words were righteous, as if they were obliged to eliminate a sinner of the Huang Long World for the benefits of all-living beings.

Liu Ran and the others exchanged a glance and nodded their heads. Yan Bubi also nodded in agreement in the end. Huang Xiaolong's power of absolute poison had truly given him a fright.

"KILL!" Liu Ran bellowed, and thirty-plus people attacked simultaneously.

The weakest one among them was still a Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable. Not to mention that there were several Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable experts within their ranks. Though Liu Ran, and Qiu Ruopeng were not Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable experts, their battle prowess was more than comparable to Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable Realm experts. The sky above Dragon Fish City, and the entire sacred land, darkened. Monstrous power of poison, Life and Death Sword Dao, tree vines, and other energies rose like great pillars propping up the sky, a sea of blade intent surged below, and mountain-sized fist imprints, all bombarded onto Huang Xiaolong.

Chapter 2968: Heart Devourer Twin Devils

Not a trace of panic could be seen on Huang Xiaolong's face as he looked at the monstrous poison qi that covered the sky along with the life and death sword qi that could cut all beings, vines that could shatter everything, and the boundless blade qi, fist imprints, and palm forces bombarding down on him.

B-O-O-M!!

One punch and a burst of blood mists covered the opposite side's momentums. Huang Xiaolong didn't even need to employ any cosmos energy from his three small worlds, not the power of his three dao souls, Saint Fates, and inextinguishable dao heart, much less the five absolute powers he can wield. That counter-attack was merely the power of his Dao Body of Heaven and Earth!

Huang Xiaolong's Dao Body of Heaven and Earth had been tempered by five tribulations, breaking the limits by increasingly stronger White Incineration Lightning, Origin Flame, and Light of Creation. Not forgetting, he had refined more than two hundred Fruits of Beginning in the last two hundred years. Based on the current strength of Huang Xiaolong's peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm's Dao Body of Heaven and Earth, an Eighth Esteem Dao Venerable expert wouldn't be able to take one punch from Huang Xiaolong head-on, then what was more to these Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Esteem Dao Venerables?!

When Huang Xiaolong burst the body of the first person with a punch, the sky-covering poison qi, vigorous life and death sword qi, overpowering vines, and all other attacks landed on Huang Xiaolong.

The crowd all around saw these overwhelming attacks hit Huang Xiaolong akin to a breeze passing the mountain—Huang Xiaolong didn't even move an inch!

"How is that possible!" After seeing this result, Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruosheng, and others shouted almost in unison.

Unbelievable!

A Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert couldn't remain unscathed after taking a combined hit from Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruosheng, and thirty others, and it was definitely impossible to stand still as a mountain.

Didn't they say Huang Xiaolong was merely a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable?!

Because Huang Xiaolong had not employed any cosmos energy, his current cultivation realm was not exposed yet. Therefore, everyone was still stuck thinking Huang Xiaolong was merely a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable.

Before many unbelieving eyes, Huang Xiaolong blurred into a flicker, arriving in front of his second target. He then sent out another punch. After a thunderous explosion, there was golden blood mist above the Dragon Fish City.

The blood of Dao Venerable experts contained grand dao energy, and these fine mists of golden blood glistened beautifully when the sunlight hit them as if the sky was raining golden raindrops. This sight was both beautiful and chilling at the same time.

Huang Xiaolong flickered away again.

The third punch!

The third person exploded! Then the fourth punch! The fifth punch, the sixth punch!

These experts who came from either genesis races or top-tier creeds didn't even have a chance to grunt before exploding to their deaths under Huang Xiaolong's fist.

Whether they were Fifth, Sixth, or Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, or regardless of whether they were wearing Dao Venerable Cosmos Armor, the results were the same. All of them exploded to their deaths. More importantly, Huang Xiaolong's speed was too fast for them to capture, much less dodging Huang Xiaolong's fist. They couldn't dodge even if they wanted to.

After a dozen breaths later, no more than ten people were left from the initial thirty-plus people!

When another ten breaths passed, Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, and the others finally felt fear and panic set in their hearts. Looking at the amount of golden blood mist that had been increasing above them, it seemed like the death god was closing in on them.

"Listen up everyone. As long as someone successfully captures Huang Xiaolong, the Poison Valley will grant him one condition, and he can ask whatever he wants!" Liu Ran suddenly shouted to the surrounding experts.

“Capture Huang Xiaolong, and our Supreme Sword Palace will pass him the Life and Death Sword Dao, and help him comprehend the Life and Death Sword Dao!” Yan Bubi reacted and quickly added the chips.

“Our World Tree will reward the person with one hundred drops of water of life!” Qiu Rupeng also shouted out urgently.

The few surviving ones also quickly made a promise of rewards on behalf of the forces behind them.

The streets were in a furor.

Whether it was the Poison Valley’s promise, the Supreme Sword Palace’s Life and Death Sword Dao, or the World Tree’s water of life, any single of these was enough to tempt those experts watching from the dark.

The Life and Death Sword Dao hailed as the number one sword technique in the world, which was why it was also nicknamed the Invincible Sword Dao. It was said that when one fully mastered the technique to the limit, they would also comprehend the dao of life and death.

The World Tree’s water of life was a panacea that could heal all injuries and cure all sickness, and it was so magical that it was called the immortal medicine. As long as one had enough water of life, even if a Dao Venerable Realm’s dao physique was destroyed, it could recover with the water of life. Moreover, they could recover to the same state as before destruction, and maybe even become a little stronger!

The Poison Valley’s promise was no less valuable than the Life and Death Sword Dao or the water of life.

However, despite Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and others’ tempting rewards, the strength Huang Xiaolong had shown so far was a much stronger demotivator, and the fact remained that Huang Xiaolong was the Son of Creation. Therefore, no one took action.

Yan Bubi and the others turned when another explosion rang, watching another one of them burst into pieces.

“Whoever captures Huang Xiaolong, the World Tree will reward him with two hundred drops of water of life!” Qiu Ruopeng shouted as he grew increasingly afraid.

If the present experts could maintain their reason earlier, when Qiu Ruopeng upped the chips to two hundred drops of water of life, someone tore space and two people stepped out from the void.

There was no overwhelming aura from their bodies, but when those in the crowd recognized them, faces went pale with horror.

“It’s the Heart Devourer Twin Devils!”

The words Heart Devourer Twin Devils sounded like a curse. The streets immediately fell into horrified silence.

“They, they are the Heart Devourer Twin Devils?!” a creed’s young patriarch asked in stutters.

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils were notorious since ancient times, causing a storm of blood every time they appeared. Not to mention, both of them shared the same peculiar hobby of devouring their enemies' hearts! No one knew for sure how many experts' inextinguishable dao heart these two had dug out and eaten!

Both of them were Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts, skilled in escaping and concealment. Hence, they were able to escape despite being besieged several times by many top-tier creeds that nothing could be done about them.

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils were made up of one tall man and one rounded man. The rounded man's eyes were mere slits as he smiled slyly at Qiu Ruopeng, Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, and the others, "Does what you've said stand?"

The tall man that was as pale and stiff as a vampire squeezed out a smile, "I am sure you know the consequences of lying to us!"

His gaze swept over Yan Bubi and the others as he spoke, and a cold invisible hand seemed to clutch at their hearts as that gaze swept past them.

"Of course, Senior Devil Twins can rest assured, we wouldn't dare to jest in this matter with you." Yan Bubi hurriedly answered.

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils nodded and shifted their attention onto Huang Xiaolong. The rounded man chuckled sinisterly. "Huang Xiaolong, handover the Tree of Beginning, hand it over and be captured obediently. We won't make things difficult for you, or else!" His eyes stared at Huang Xiaolong's chest where his heart was located.

"Actually, I want to taste his inextinguishable dao heart, and see if it tastes any different from the others." The vampiric tall man sneered.

Huang Xiaolong looked at the two with a placid expression, "Mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables, not bad. You qualify to be a minion under me. I'm lacking a batch of Dao Venerable minions."

All around were flabbergasted faces, including Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and Yan Bubi. But soon, these people were overjoyed by Huang Xiaolong's words as they were worried that Huang Xiaolong would give the Heart Devourer Twin Devils a better deal and have the Heart Devourer Twin Devils kill them instead. Who could have thought that Huang Xiaolong would openly insult the Heart Devourer Twin Devils and fantasize about having them be his minions!

Huang Xiaolong's literally speeding down the road to hell!

As expected, the moment Huang Xiaolong said those words, the Heart Devourer Twin Devils' eyes emitted chilling devilish lights, and the devilish auras from their bodies threatened to drown the world.

Chapter 2969: Eternal Devil Heart

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils' devilish aura enveloped spread through the streets, and the crowd felt as if there was a great force suffocating them, and even Yan Bubi, Qiu Ruopeng, Liu Ran, the rest of the group had to back away several times to feel better.

At this moment, the Twin Devils stopped converging, and both men's mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm momentum was fully released, and merely this momentum had pulverized the buildings in their immediate surroundings into dust.

A mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable's aura was boundless when released, and it was like ten thousand roaring galaxial rivers that could drown everything, break everything, and wash away everything in their path.

Not only the Dragon Fish City, but even the Levitating Sacred Land where the city was located swayed uncontrollably like a boat in the sea storm. Cracks and fissures opened through the lands, cities broke from the ground, despite the efforts of Dragon Fish Creed's experts at these locations to strengthen the protective array formations.

The rounded Twin Devils stared at Huang Xiaolong through his narrow eyes, "Huang Xiaolong, you don't know the horror of a Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable until you reach that realm! At Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, those Seventh, and Eighth Esteem Dao Venerables are rubbish, and you are also rubbish in my eyes!"

"Don't assume that you're capable of resisting Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables because you defeated the Poison Bodach's, Nine-headed Tree Demon's, and Sword Venerable's insignificant disciples!" The tall Twin Devil looked at Huang Xiaolong like he was looking at a dead man. "Looking at the sake that you're the Son of Creation, I will give you a chance. Kneel and offer up the Tree of Beginning, then beg for your life, or the ends of those disciples will be your ending!"

"Is that so?" Huang Xiaolong was unperturbed. Before anyone reacted, his figure disappeared from the spot, and he was in front of the Heart Devourer Twin Devils in a split second with his twelve high-order Saint Fates, three dao souls, Huang Long Bloodline, three small worlds' cosmos energy, and Dao Body of Heaven and Earth activated to the limit. He punched out with his fists simultaneously.

BOOM!

Two overwhelming waves of fist force roiling forth were akin two ancient rivers that had arrived after traversing through time and eras, lighting up the world. The sight of two shining rivers of fist force were forever imprinted in the minds of all experts present.

Dong!

The rivers of fist force landed on the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, and their bodies stiffened momentarily before they were knocked flying all the way out of the city's perimeter. They were still being pushed away by Huang Xiaolong's fist force, flying further away, passing by city after city, one grassland after another...

In the end, the rivers of fist force slammed the Heart Devourer Twin Devils until the edge of Levitating Sacred Land! It left the Heart Devourer Twin Devils plummeting down the mountain range at the edge of Levitating Sacred Land when its energy was exhausted.

The world was silent!

Witnessing this sight, there was shock and terror and there were nothing but shock and terror in the crowd's mind and soul!

"...This, this!" Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, and Qiu Ruopeng repeated, tongue-tied, pointing with trembling fingers in the direction the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were sent flying. In truth, they were shaking from head to toe, looking pale as a corpse and were wide-eyed in disbelief.

The two men were the mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm Heart Devourer Twin Devils who had been notorious since ancient times, and they were the same Heart Devourer Twin Devils who had devoured countless experts' inextinguishable dao hearts, the big devils that could send experts scurrying for their lives at the mere mention of their names. But they were actually sent flying by Huang Xiaolong!

"That, that's only because the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were careless for a moment." Qiu Ruopeng came up with an excuse.

Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, and the others were too speechless to speak.

Careless for a moment?

Even if the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were careless for a moment, how many experts could actually injure them? Much less reducing them to the current state...

Those hidden in the dark coveting Huang Xiaolong's Tree of Beginning who had not made a move were looking at Huang Xiaolong with horror.

"Fifth, peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!" someone blurted out.

When Huang Xiaolong attacked at full force, his cultivation realm was immediately exposed. Many experts were shocked to find that Huang Xiaolong had advanced to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

"At the time of the Creation Ceremony, I saw it clearly. He was a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable!" someone exclaimed in disbelief.

"That's right, I was present too, and at that time, the Son of Creation was only a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable. There's no mistake about it!"

"Were you guys mistaken that he was a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable at that time because now, he's already a peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable? You're saying that the Son of Creation merely used three hundred years to advance to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm?!"

While everyone was discussing the matter of Huang Xiaolong's cultivation, in a single step, Huang Xiaolong was standing in the air above the Heart Devourer Twin Devils who were struggling to get up, covered in soil and dust all over them. The armors on them were broken in various places, revealing the enormous fist imprints on their chests, and at this moment, both of them were glaring at Huang Xiaolong in fury, astonishment, and denial.

"If I'm rubbish in your eyes, what are you two then?" Huang Xiaolong provided the answer, "Can't even compare to rubbish!"

Can't even compare to rubbish!

Everyone on the Levitating Sacred Land heard Huang Xiaolong's words.

Sharp devilish aura burst out from the Heart Devourer Twin Devils' eyes, a sinister bloodthirsty aura roiled around them, and merged together. A world boundary of blood formed behind them and expanded rapidly, and everywhere were blood souls and devilish lights. Gradually, an enormous bloody heart as big as a sacred land appeared in the world boundary's sky. The bloody heart was covered densely with grand dao laws, and devil runes, one look and one couldn't help but feel dread.

"It's the Eternal Devil Heart!" A voice cut across the silence.

The Eternal Devil Heart had a rumor surrounding its existence. It was said that when the world was created, a devil's heart of nefarious nature was also born, specially by absorbing all kinds of nefarious energy and devil energy between heaven and earth. The Heart Devourer Twin Devils had happened to find this Eternal Devil Heart, and they had refined it. Because of obtaining the Eternal Devil Heart, their strength rose exponentially, and began devouring the inextinguishable dao heart of people they killed.

Some people claimed the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were controlled by the Eternal Devil Heart, and they were devoured experts' inextinguishable dao hearts to supplement the Eternal Devil Heart.

When the Eternal Devil Heart appeared, the entire Levitating Sacred Land seemed to have been dragged into a prison of blood with no way out. Without warning, nefarious and evil thoughts emerged in everyone's heart.

"Huang Xiaolong, you will soon be turned into a supplement to the Eternal Devil Heart!" the Heart Devourer Twin Devils shouted at the same time, and their tones and mannerism were slightly different from before, as if their minds were taken over by the Eternal Devil Heart.

"Die!" the Heart Devourer Twin Devils shouted and their hands formed claws, targeting Huang Xiaolong's chest. The moment they attacked, two enormous devil's claws as big as a continent came at Huang Xiaolong.

The sea of devil qi roiled, bloodthirsty aura soared to the sky, and vengeful souls were everywhere. This was no ordinary devil qi, nor was it the usual bloodthirsty aura, but this was the Eternal Devil Heart's devil qi and bloodthirsty aura that was capable of demonizing and devouring everything.

As the devil's claws came at him, brilliant radiance emerged from Huang Xiaolong's body and bloomed in the sky. The dragon of creation reared its head as Huang Xiaolong leaped into the sky and punched out with absolute frost power that was infinitely close to perfection.

Chapter 2970: The Heart Devourer Twin Devils Were Defeated!

When absolute frost power was infinitely close to perfection, it exploded out from Huang Xiaolong's fist. Icy blue rays lit up the sky. The sinister darkness and blood-thirsty environment that seemed to have swallowed up the Levitating Sacred Land saw light again.

The icy blue light was extremely radiant blue, and it contained coldness that reached the extreme. It was so captivating and astounding.

Zizzi-la! A piercing, sharp noise thundered.

The icy rays of blue light shot forward and penetrated through the two enormous devil claws.

The two enormous devil's claws were instantly frozen into ice, turning icy blue, and fixed to the air, while continuing forward. Every strand of devil qi and bloodthirsty aura it passed were all frozen in the air.

Rumble!

The absolute power of frost hit the Heart Devourer Twin Devils and then Eternal Devil Heart's blood world boundary, shattering the world boundary's barrier, and it hit the Eternal Devil Heart despite its vigorous devil qi and roiling murderous aura that continuously spewed out from the Eternal Devil Heart.

This was the terror of peak major completion absolute frost power!

Even a late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable had no courage to face the Heart Devourer Twin Devils' full force attack that was enhanced by the Eternal Devil Heart, yet Huang Xiaolong's absolute frost power successfully froze and sealed the Eternal Devil Heart's energy entirely!

Bang!

The moment the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were blasted off their feet, the Eternal Devil Heart was also blasted away by Huang Xiaolong's absolute frost power! And with them, there were the pieces of shattered blood world boundary.

From the Eternal Devil Heart came ten thousand different hair-raising shrieks, as if there were ten thousand experts' inextinguishable dao hearts screaming in pain.

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils crashed to the ground, and their bodies got half-buried in the land. At the same time, the Eternal Devil Heart turned into a streak of blood light and escaped into the vast starry sky.

Huang Xiaolong watched the Eternal Devil Heart flee without any intention of chasing after it. In his attack just now, he had already marked the Eternal Devil Heart with a trace of his aura, and he had ample time in the future to locate the Eternal Devil Heart, and devour it!

To others, the Eternal Devil Heart was a nefarious existence, but to Huang Xiaolong who possessed absolute powers and Huang Long Bloodline, the Eternal Devil Heart was a rare supplement that was as potent as the Fruit of Beginning.

Huang Xiaolong's palms reached out and grabbed the Heart Devourer Twin Devils from across the air. The surface of their bodies was covered with layers of absolute frost power, yet Huang Xiaolong could sense that both of them were still struggling and it was only a matter of time before they broke out from the ice.

Huang Xiaolong sneered. Without the Eternal Devil Heart, the Heart Devourer Twin Devils still dream of escaping?

Huang Xiaolong struck his palms against their chests all of a sudden, and the terrifying power of nirvana passed through the layer of absolute frost and hit the Heart Devourer Twin Devils. Muffled screams came from under the ice.

Amongst the legendary thirteen kinds of absolute powers, the power of nirvana ranked above the power of absolute frost, therefore, even though Huang Xiaolong has merely reached major completion with his power of nirvana, its lethality was not worse than the power of absolute frost.

Huang Xiaolong struck the Heart Devourer Twin Devils several times with the power of nirvana, then completely sealed their cultivation before throwing them into the dragon pearl.

From the time Huang Xiaolong defeated the Heart Devourer Twin Devils and the Eternal Devil Heart made a run for it until Huang Xiaolong sealed the Twin Devils, only a dozen breaths had passed. Everything happened too fast, and the result was too mind-blowing that it broke many experts' fragile spirits, shaking their souls to the core.

Huang Xiaolong turned around and walked towards Yan Bubi's group.

Seeing Huang Xiaolong return, Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the rest were jolted out from their shock, and the consequences of coming to their senses were uncontrollable trembling as if they were being bitten by super big fleas.

"Your Highness Huang Xiaolong, we were wrong!" Liu Ran suddenly fell to his knees to everyone's astonishment.

Seeing Liu Ran fall to his knees, Yan Bubi, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others immediately caught on and emulated Liu Ran, falling to their knees and admitting their mistakes.

In a single step, Huang Xiaolong was already back in the Dragon Fish City, standing in front of them. He shook his head without any emotion, "No, you're not wrong, the fault is mine!"

His palms struck down before Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and the others' baffled and bewildered eyes, squashing their bodies to the ground, leaving splatters of flesh and blood.

Huang Xiaolong familiarly threw these people's dao souls into the dragon pearl, as well as the hiding dao souls of those he had destroyed earlier. All around was eerily quiet as Huang Xiaolong did all these.

Huang Xiaolong narrowed his eyes and saw the many experts who coveted the Tree of Beginning, watching in hiding. When these experts felt Huang Xiaolong's gaze, it was as if Huang Xiaolong had seen through them.

"Who else wants the Tree of Beginning, step out!" Huang Xiaolong spoke in a tepid tone that was neither loud nor soft, yet everyone's hearts tightened nervously and no one dared to take a step forward or back.

Huang Xiaolong must be joking, even the mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Heart Devourer Twin Devils backed by the Eternal Devil Heart were no match against Huang Xiaolong, much less them?

Even those late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables watching in hiding dared not show their faces at this moment. In truth, nine out of ten of them were so nervous that they dared not move a finger, praying incessantly in their hearts for Huang Xiaolong not to target them.

"I know many amongst you were involved with Cangqiong Sacred Land's incident, whoever of you that has attacked Cangqiong Holy Land, or killed a Cangqiong Holy Land's disciple, step out now," Huang Xiaolong went on icily, "If you step out now, I will only kill you, otherwise, I will destroy the creed you're in and your families!"

Everyone held their breaths.

Those who had participated in the destruction of Cangqiong Sacred Land were shaking, a few of them even fainted from extreme nervousness and fear.

Seconds passed, and finally, a middle-aged man clad in the robe of a creed patriarch walked out and knelt before Huang Xiaolong, "I am Crimson Frost Creed's patriarch, please forgive me, Your Highness, I was confused for a moment, and taken in by Poison Bodach, and Sword Venerable's temptation. Your Highness, please have mercy!"

Just as the middle-aged man finished, Huang Xiaolong burst his body with a swift palm strike, then threw his dao soul into the dragon pearl.

"Who else?" Huang Xiaolong's icy gaze swept over the crowd...

This time, no one walked out for a long time.

Huang Xiaolong ran out of patience, "Very good, I will have people check everyone that participated, and I will personally come knocking at your doors!"

Fleeting panic left some experts hiding amongst the crowds drained of blood.

In a flicker, Huang Xiaolong disappeared from the street. He headed to the Blue Lotus Creed's Blue Lotus Pond. When he chose the Dragon Fish Heavenly Cave as the location of his seclusion, he had planned to enter the Blue Lotus Pond again. The last time, there was only a single stalk of seven-seeded blue lotus among the eighteen stalks he had found!

His goal this time was finding eight-seeded and nine-seeded blue lotuses!

But his ultimate goal was the supreme ten-seeded blue lotus!

While Huang Xiaolong made his way to the Blue Lotus Pond, his feat in the Dragon Fish City, having destroyed Yan Bubi, Liu Ran, Qiu Ruopeng, and thirty-plus others, including the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, sent the world reeling in terror!

When Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and others got the news, they were just as shocked as everyone else.

"Even the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were defeated?!"

Chapter 2971: Besieged at the Blue Lotus Pond

"This, this news, can it be fake?!" The Nine-headed Tree Demon blurted out.

This was his first thought when he heard the news.

He couldn't believe that Huang Xiaolong was capable of defeating the Heart Devourer Twin Devils!!

Poison Bodach glanced at him, and his obsidian black eyes resembled two abyss of darkness, "The news has spread, and many experts were on scene and they witnessed everything with their own eyes how the Heart Devourer Twin Devils were defeated. On top of that, my son's and your disciples' bodies were destroyed by Huang Xiaolong, and their dao souls are still in Huang Xiaolong's hands!"

Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race's patriarch, Darkness Demon Creed Patriarch, Devouring Sun Creed Patriarch, and others listened with unsightly expressions on their faces.

Although Huang Xiaolong had defeated Huang Shuai and had shown battle strength comparable to a Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable at the time of the Creation Ceremony, none of them were concerned by that, and they didn't think there was anything to worry about. They could easily capture or torture Huang Xiaolong half to death with a wave of a palm!

It never occurred to any of them that Huang Xiaolong would grow and reach this stage so fast!

Even the Heart Devourer Twin Devils with the Eternal Devil Heart were no match against Huang Xiaolong!

In that sense, didn't that mean that Huang Xiaolong's current combat power could compare with any one of them there?

Sword Venerable's eyes flickered as if there were sword lights in his eyes. "At the time of the Creation Ceremony, Huang Xiaolong's cultivation was merely at the late of First Esteem Dao Venerable Realm. Merely three hundred years have passed. How did he take such a big leap and advance to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm?"

He advanced from late-First Esteem Dao Venerable to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable in a short three hundred years!

This was unheard of! Furthermore, Huang Xiaolong's battle strength was comparable to any one of them now!

Which one of them wasn't an existence that had been cultivating for several billion of years? Which of them hadn't gone through various experiences, and life and death ordeals to obtain resources for their cultivation to reach where they were today? What about Huang Xiaolong?!

The Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan spoke solemnly, "Huang Xiaolong must have gotten resources for his big leap in cultivation. I think it's likely to be related to the Tree of Beginning!"

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others' eyes lit up.

"Patriarch Shi Dan is saying that Huang Xiaolong was able to raise his cultivation so fast because of the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning?" The Inferno Race Patriarch Yan Tianyang responded, his brows wrinkled slightly as he went on, "Although the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning have amazing effects, it won't be to this extent, right?"

There was a strong doubt in his voice.

As he had said, he highly doubted that Huang Xiaolong's big leap in cultivation was related to the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning, and there wasn't anything in this world that possessed that kind of heaven-defying effect.

But Poison Bodach disagreed, "Patriarch Shi Dan's guess might not be unreasonable. Perhaps, the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning have other amazing effects that we don't know about. Legend has it that one could gain the Beginning Dao Physique if cultivating under the Tree of Beginning for a prolonged period. Moreover, it could improve one's bloodline to the highest extent!"

"As unbelievable as this sounds, but it is a fact that Huang Xiaolong has broken through to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, and many experts attested to this. During the time Huang Xiaolong disappeared after obtaining the Tree of Beginning, he most likely entered seclusion to refine the Fruits of Beginning!”

Others exchanged glances amongst themselves, hearing this.

If the source was really the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning, then...!

A burning desire roused in the Sword Venerable’s, Nine-headed Tree Demon’s, and others’ chests.

They had to get the Tree of Beginning no matter what!

“Have we found where Huang Xiaolong is now?” Sword Venerable asked.

“It is said that he entered the Blue Lotus Pond after leaving Mystical Pavilion’s Dragon Fish Branch!” One of the creeds’ patriarch replied.

Poison Bodach let out a cold sneer, “It looks like that brat wants to look for blue lotuses. Huang Xiaolong ah Huang Xiaolong. Since you went inside the Blue Lotus Pond, there’s no need to come out!” With that said, he rose from his seat and disappeared with the sounds of whistling winds in the next second.

“Go, to the Blue Lotus Pond!”

The blood feud with Huang Xiaolong had been formed. Naturally, they couldn’t let Huang Xiaolong leave again this time. They would not give Huang Xiaolong more time to grow stronger!

Huang Xiaolong was only a peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable, and he already possessed battle strength that made them nervous. If Huang Xiaolong entered Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, the ones losing their lives would be them!

Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race Patriarch, and the rest also rushed to Blue Lotus Pond.

“That old man Bi Cheng, and those people are probably rushing to the Blue Lotus Pond as well. With them on Huang Xiaolong’s side, it won’t be easy for us to capture Huang Xiaolong!” On the way, the Sword Venerable said to Poison Bodach.

Although the alliance on their side was slightly stronger than Bi Cheng’s ten creeds’ alliance, it was only slightly stronger.

“You forgot. All who participated in the Cangqiong Sacred Land’s slaughter are going to face extermination.” Poison Bodach snickered, “Send a message to those creeds and genesis races that took part, and if they continue to sit back and watch the tigers battle by refusing to join our alliance, then they can wait for Huang Xiaolong to destroy them. Remind them that besieging Huang Xiaolong this time at the Blue Lotus Pond is their only chance, and also their last chance!”

The Nine-headed Tree Demon chuckled, “Brother Poison Bodach’s idea is wonderful! Those creeds and genesis races that participated will certainly agree to join our alliance this time. There are about forty-plus forces that took part. Old Monster Flame and Black Shadow Devil were also there. After counting them all, the Dragon Fish Creed’s ten creed alliance is nothing but fart! Let’s see how they are going to protect Huang Xiaolong!”

But Sword Venerable was frowning, “But if all of them take action this time? How are we going to split the Fruit of Beginning?”

Poison Bodach scoffed, “The priority is getting them on our side and capturing Huang Xiaolong.”

Half a day later, there was news circulating around.

“Have you heard, a large number of experts from the Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, World Tree, Stonemen Race, Inferno Race, Darkness Demon Creed, and Devouring Sun Creed are rushing to the Blue Lotus Creed to besiege Huang Xiaolong! The Blue Lotus Pond would be Huang Xiaolong’s burial place!”

“Not only that, all the forces who were involved in the Cangqiong Sacred Land’s destruction have sent their experts to the Blue Lotus Pond, and even Old Monster Flame and Black Shadow Devil are here. There’s no way Huang Xiaolong can escape this time! The Blue Lotus Pond is basically a dead end for Huang Xiaolong. It’s easy to enter, but difficult to come out. Why the heck did he choose to enter the Blue Lotus Pond?! Is he dreaming he could find a blue lotus? Even if he did find a blue lotus, would he still be alive to refine it?!”

“Huang Xiaolong’s cultivation went to peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm from late-First Esteem Dao Venerable Realm in a short three hundred years relying on the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning!”

Consecutive shocking news circulated within a day.

Experts from numerous creeds, genesis races, and sacred lands all rushed to the Blue Lotus Pond as if their lives depended on it, including some hidden old monsters that did not participate in the Cangqiong Sacred Land’s slaughter. Who won’t be tempted by the tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning with such heaven-defying effects?

While Poison Bodach and the rest were hurrying to the Blue Lotus Pond, Huang Xiaolong was flying deep into the Blue Lotus Pond’s inner region. Although there were multiple dangerous restrictions within the Blue Lotus Pond’s space, it was no different than walking on flat land at his current strength.

Huang Xiaolong’s dao souls were actively scanning the surroundings, disregarding the water pressure coming at him from all directions. At the same time, Huang Xiaolong spurred the power of his Huang Long Bloodline to the limit.

Chapter 2972: Black Shadow Devil

When Huang Xiaolong pushed the power of his Huang Long Bloodline to the limit, the aura of Huang Long Bloodline spread from his body. The last time he was here, his Huang Long Bloodline could only envelop a small area around him, but now, it could envelop more than a ten thousand miles radius!

At that time, Huang Xiaolong was merely an early Fifth Resurrection Primal Ancestor! Now, Huang Xiaolong was a peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable. He was many, many, many times stronger than before!

As for how many times stronger he had become, even Huang Xiaolong himself did not know. But at this time, inside the Blue Lotus Pond’s space, he felt nary any pressure at all. The first time he had come here, he had needed to circulate his small worlds’ cosmos energy to resist the water energy in the surroundings to keep himself from being squished to death. Whereas now, he could walk freely without having to employ his cosmos energy or grand dao energy to resist any pressure!

This was mainly due to his Dao Body of Heaven and Earth which was close to entering major completion! His body could disregard the water-attributed pressure within the Blue Lotus Pond.

Therefore, he wouldn't need to exhaust any cosmos energy or grand dao energy inside the Blue Lotus Pond, and he could stay here as long as he wanted!

Under the coverage of Huang Xiaolong's Huang Long Bloodline aura, drops of blue lotus nectar flew towards Huang Xiaolong from various directions, like moths to fire. These blue lotus nectar drops hovered around Huang Xiaolong, glistening in charming halos.

Huang Xiaolong took out the jade bottle he had prepared and collected these drops of blue lotus nectar into the jade bottle. This didn't take much of his time, and soon he was on his way again, venturing further in.

A couple of days later.

The amount of blue lotus nectar in Huang Xiaolong's jade bottle had exceeded two thousand drops! Huang Xiaolong had gotten this result after staying inside the Blue Lotus Pond for two to three months the last time, but now, it had only been a couple of days.

On the fourth day.

As Huang Xiaolong continued to fly further in, suddenly, something golden and shiny, as big as his fist, glistened as it flew towards Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong took a careful look, and he was shocked. This is...?! Blue lotus nectar?!

Such a big drop of blue lotus nectar? This was unheard of, yet Huang Xiaolong was certain 'it' was indeed blue lotus nectar, and it was only several hundred times bigger than the ones he had normally collected. Moreover, the amount and quality of energy of this fist-sized blue lotus nectar were many times higher!

There is this form of blue lotus nectar? Super-sized version?

He had not discovered this when he was there the last time.

Despite his bafflement, Huang Xiaolong familiarly caught the fist-sized blue lotus nectar and put it into the jade bottle.

A few more days went by.

Huang Xiaolong's little jade bottle had accumulated close to five thousand drops of blue lotus nectar!

If the world outside knew about this, it would draw even more experts to the Blue Lotus Pond.

Unfortunately, Huang Xiaolong had only come across three of those fist-sized blue lotus nectars, and the rest were all commonly seen ones.

Other than close to five thousand drops of blue lotus nectar, Huang Xiaolong also obtained more than a few stalks of blue lotuses. When he had left the last time, he had taken away eighteen stalks of blue lotuses. This time around, in less than ten days, he had already picked almost forty stalks of blue lotuses.

More importantly, two of them were seven-seeded blue lotuses!

It was a pity that he had not come across any eight-seeded or more.

But Huang Xiaolong wasn't dismayed, since there were eight-seeded, nine-seeded, and ten-seeded blue lotuses in there, and he was bound to find them sooner or later. Others couldn't, but he had the Huang Long Bloodline.

Huang Xiaolong continued to go further in. On the surface, the Blue Lotus Pond wasn't very big, but once one stepped across the water-attributed barrier, there were numerous restrictions and folded spaces. Hence, it took Huang Xiaolong some effort and time to reach the deepest part.

While Huang Xiaolong strove with persistence for his eight-seeded, nine-seeded, and ten-seeded blue lotuses, group after group of experts arrived at the Blue Lotus Pond consecutively. The usually lively Blue Lotus Pond was exceptionally crowded. As time passed, the outer area of Blue Lotus Pond became even more packed with the arrival of various creeds and genesis races' experts. It was people everywhere one looked.

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race Patriarch, and the rest also arrived at the Blue Lotus Pond.

Seeing Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and other big shots arriving, the noisy crowd quieted down considerably. The air seemed to solidify with their arrivals, and the crowd of experts separated to the sides, opening a wide berth for them. Poison Bodach was a walking poison bomb, and all things withered and died wherever he went. Who would dare to come close to him in that case?

One time, because a top creed's disciple had offended Poison Bodach, the entire creed was reduced to a dead land not long after that. Until now, poisonous qi still dominated that area, and even Dao Venerable Realm experts didn't dare venture inside easily.

Not long after Poison Bodach's group arrived, the crowd stirred as a sea of burning flames appeared on the horizon, moving towards them at rapid speed. Riding on the waves of flames was an old man who was entirely crimson, from the robe on him to his eyebrows, and hair, as if he was made of blazing flames.

The old man's build was slightly smaller than the average man, but the suppressive aura coming from his body was not weaker than Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, or the Nine-headed Tree Demon.

"Old Monster Flame!" The Nine-headed Tree Demon's eyes narrowed.

Old Monster Flame's reputation rose after them, but it was undeniable that his strength was comparable to theirs because not only Old Monster Flame was a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable like them, but Old Monster Flame had also cultivated the power of absolute blaze!

In the blink of an eye, Old Monster Flame arrived in front of them on roiling sea waves of flames.

Poison Bodach looked at him, smiling whilst not smiling. "It is our honor that Brother Old Monster Flame is willing to come!"

Old Monster Flame raised his eyelids slightly, and fiery light shone from his eyes as he spoke, "Poison Bodach, I'll tell you in advance that after Huang Xiaolong is captured, his Huang Long Armor belongs to me!"

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others were stunned by his declaration.

"What a big tone you've got, Old Monster Flame. Don't think that because you've got absolute blaze power, we'll be afraid of you." Sword Venerable sneered.

Old Monster Flame responded with a scoff of his own, and suddenly, the burning sea under his feet condensed and shrunk until it was a pillow of bright crimson cloud. This crimson cloud emitted glaring rays of light that probably could incinerate the dao soul of the person looking at it.

Seeing this, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others were astounded.

Then Poison Bodach's exclamation thundered, "Peak major completion!"

Peak major completion absolute blaze power!

With a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable with peak major completion absolute blaze power, even Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon felt immense pressure facing such an opponent.

Poison Bodach's own absolute poison power had only reached major completion!

Although both were absolute powers, there was a huge gap between major completion and peak major completion. Not to mention, fire was poison's bane.

"Old Monster Flame's talent is truly outstanding, he has cultivated the power of absolute power to peak major completion!"

An unexpected high-pitched voice sounded.

When heads turned to look, there was a black shadow in the distance!

That's right, it was a black human-shaped shadow, only a shadow. No one saw the actual person but the shadow was enshrouded by vigorous devil flames.

"Black Shadow Devil!" someone shrieked.

The Black Shadow Devil's reputation was no less resounding as Poison Bodach, or Old Monster Flame. No one had ever seen his true face, only a black shadow!

Upon seeing the black human-shaped shadow, even the confident Old Monster Flame turned solemn, as he knew this person had cultivated the power of absolute space! In the entire Divine Tuo Holy World, this was the only person with the power of absolute space!

Amongst the thirteen kinds of absolute powers, the power of absolute space ranked second!

Chapter 2973: Ten-Seeded Blue Lotus

When Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon saw the Black Shadow Devil, their vigilance was raised to the highest as if they were facing a great enemy.

In their eyes, the Black Shadow Devil was a bigger 'headache' than Old Monster Flame.

Though there was a 'Black Shadow Devil' in front of them, who knew which space dimension the real Black Shadow Devil was hiding in. The black shadow in front of them was merely a reflection projected through different layers of space.

This was the power of absolute space, capable of hiding the main body in another space. Yet, it could reflect the shadow of the main body into this space, and the real body could control the shadow's movements to even attack without a lapse in time as if the shadow was a real person. The problem was that the shadow was a formless entity which made it hard to destroy!

Unless one could drag the person's real body out was harder than rising to the heavens in a single stride in order to do so. Who could tell the main body's exact location?

This was why Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon were warier of the Black Shadow Devil.

When all the big shot's attention was on the black shadow, the black shadow spoke, "The ownership of the Huang Long Armor, Tree of Beginning, and everything else, depends on each person's capability!"

No one spoke in objection to the Black Shadow Devil's statement.

More top-tier creeds' patriarchs arrived after the Black Shadow Devil. Their arrivals also caused a stir in the crowd. A few days later, the Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng, Divination Creed Patriarch Wu Kun, Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingyue, and seven other patriarchs also arrived with a large group of experts from their own creeds. The difference was that Poison Bodach's group had ill-intent towards Huang Xiaolong, whereas, Bi Cheng's group was there to protect Huang Xiaolong.

The ten top-tier creeds' patriarchs faced Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Black Shadow Devil, and the rest.

Poison Bodach sneered loudly at their stance, "Bi Cheng, I advise you not to get involved in Huang Xiaolong's matter, or it won't be long before the ten creeds are razed to the ground."

Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng harrumphed coldly, "Huang Xiaolong is the Son of Creation, the son of heaven and earth, and you disrespected His Highness, the Son of Creation, and that is a crime of clan annihilation. Poison Bodach, it's best you beg for mercy on your knees when you see His Highness later. Maybe he might consider sparing your lives!"

Before Poison Bodach could respond, a snort sounded from the Black Shadow Devil, "What's the Son of Creation? He is no different than a fart to me! In my eyes, there is no such thing as the Son of Creation, much less the God of Creation. Once my absolute space power reaches perfection, I will be the world's sovereign!"

“Black Shadow Devil, enough with your impudence!”

“Insolent, how dare you blaspheme the God of Creation!”

Wu Kun and Hu Qingyue both indignantly rebuked Black Shadow Devil. A powerful pressure with crushing momentum swept out from Wu Kun like a storm, frightening the surrounding experts. The weaker cultivators retreated far away in a panic.

Yet, the Black Shadow Devil wasn't the slightest bit affected, and he went on sarcastically, “Blaspheme the God of Creation? Wu Kun, do you think Huang Long would be able to return to Huang Long World? He can't save himself right now!”

“Can't save himself?!”

Others exchanged baffled looks with their companions hearing that, unable to decipher the meaning of Black Shadow Devil's words.

Bi Cheng's face was extremely gloomy, “Black Shadow Devil, what do your words mean?”

The only response Bi Cheng got was sinister chuckles.

A sharp light flashed across Bi Cheng's eyes, and surging dragon qi from his body condensed into numerous sky dragons that attacked the Black Shadow Devil like an archenemy. The space around the Black Shadow Devil shredded into pieces, but to everyone's astonishment, the black shadow remains intact, unaffected by Bi Cheng's attack at all.

The black shadow ridiculed, “The vassal of the God of Creation doesn't seem to be all that powerful. Bi Cheng, as Huang Long's hound, all ten of you are excellent hounds, but unfortunately, your strength isn't very good!”

Bi Cheng's three pupils gleamed sharply. Just as he was about to launch another powerful attack, Wu Kun said to him, “Brother Bi Cheng, we don't need to argue with people who hide and sneak all year round now. Wait till His Highness is safely out,” he reminded Bi Cheng to prioritize Huang Xiaolong's matter.

Bi Cheng nodded and agreed after a long pause, “You're right! Dealing with this kind of person lowers my status.”

Black Shadow Devil merely chuckled coldly, but his chuckles sent goosebumps down people's neck. Still, he did not attack. He was clearly reserving his energy to fight when Huang Xiaolong came out.

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon couldn't help feeling disappointed that a fight didn't break out between the Black Shadow Devil and ten creeds.

.....

Within the Blue Lotus Pond, Huang Xiaolong was ecstatic looking at the blue lotus in front of him. This blue lotus had eight bright and shiny golden lotus seeds on it! Eight-seeded blue lotus!

Eight-seeded

Huang Xiaolong reached out and held the eight-seeded blue lotus, and immediately sensed vigorous heaven and earth energy, grand dao energy, and a unique water energy.

Despite knowing that an eight-seeded blue lotus greatly exceeded a seven-seeded blue lotus, the moment Huang Xiaolong held the eight-seeded blue lotus he knew how vastly different the heaven and earth energy, grand dao energy, and water energy were between the two.

This amount is comparable to a Fruit of Beginning, Huang Xiaolong thought to himself.

An eight-seeded blue lotus was comparable to one Fruit of Beginning! What about a nine-seeded blue lotus? Will it be comparable to more Fruits of Beginning? What about ten-seeded then?! Huang Xiaolong could barely suppress his excitement as his imagination ran off like a wild horse.

With his first eight-seeded blue lotus in hand, Huang Xiaolong continued further in.

A month later.

Huang Xiaolong came to a space brightly illuminated by silvery golden light, and the space inside was filled with blue lotus nectar!

It was a sky full of suspended drops of blue lotus nectar, like a great chandelier of yellow and white diamonds!

Huang Xiaolong was genuinely bedazzled at this moment, and even someone who was usually steadfast like him dazed for a moment looking around him. How many drops of blue lotus nectar are inside here?! Several hundred thousand? More than a million?!

In the last month, Huang Xiaolong had found more than twenty thousand drops of blue lotus nectar, but his harvest was nothing compared to the amount of blue lotus nectar inside this space.

How much wealth would that all be when considering the blue lotus nectar in this space after calculating based on the market price of one drop at one hundred thousand Tuoshen dao coins?

Probably no one could remain calm looking at the amount of blue lotus nectar in this space. Huang Xiaolong actually spotted several hundred fist-sized golden blue lotus nectar!

And these several hundred drops of fist-sized blue lotus nectar were gathered in one place! These were gathered around a dozen stalks of blue lotuses!

Nine-seeded blue lotuses!

And the blue lotus at the center was a ten-seeded blue lotus!

In a single step, Huang Xiaolong had reached where the dozen of blue lotuses were. Huang Xiaolong couldn't tear his eyes away from the ten-seeded blue lotus, and the blue lotus gave him an indescribable feeling, as if it was the most gorgeous and magnificent being in the world. More importantly, Huang Xiaolong felt a familiar power from the ten-seeded blue lotus!

Absolute frost power!

That's right, absolute frost power!

Absolute frost power as vast as an ocean!

This!

Huang Xiaolong inhaled deeply as this ten-seeded blue lotus actually has the power of absolute frost!

This was beyond his wildest imagination.

Huang Xiaolong finally looked away a while later. Initially, he had planned to find a place to refine all the blue lotuses he had found, but there was no such need now. He decided to enter seclusion in this space, and directly refined the dozen of nine-seeded blue lotuses and that ten-seeded blue lotus.

Chapter 2974: Swarming Into the Blue Lotus Pond

Huang Xiaolong planned to refine the ten-seeded blue lotus!

Currently, his absolute frost power was at peak major completion, but after refining this ten-seeded blue lotus, his absolute frost power could very well enter perfection!

Absolute frost power at peak major completion was already terrifying, then what about perfection absolute frost power?

It was perfection absolute frost power that really had the ability to seal thousands of worlds in ice!

Probably, even a top-grade Dao Venerable Cosmos Artifact won't be able to defend against the force of perfection absolute frost power!

But before Huang Xiaolong started refining the ten-seeded blue lotus, he released the Heart Devourer Twin Devils. It consumed some time to brand the two of them with the creation mark and subjugate them.

After Huang Xiaolong subjugated the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, a thought came to his mind when he saw the many drops of blue lotus nectar. Is the blue lotus nectar useful for the black-eyed poisonous spiders?

Though the black-eyed poisonous spiders were terrifying enough as they were, if they could become even more terrifying, and evolve further, then that would be naturally better.

With this idea in mind, Huang Xiaolong released the one hundred plus black-eyed poisonous spiders, and ordered them to swallow the surroundings blue lotus nectar. In the blink of an eye, each black-eyed poisonous spider swallowed a hundred drops!

However, there didn't seem to be any changes to the black-eyed poisonous spiders after absorbing a hundred drops of blue lotus nectar. Huang Xiaolong then set his sight on the shiny golden super version fist-sized blue lotus nectar, and grabbed one of them and fed it to one of the black-eyed poisonous spiders.

When the black-eyed poisonous spider finished absorbing the upgraded version of blue lotus nectar, a layer of golden light rippled over the black-eyed poisonous spider that went on for several minutes before disappearing. Huang Xiaolong found out that the spider's surface looked a bit glossier.

Huang Xiaolong was excited after seeing this, and it seemed like the upgraded version of blue lotus nectar was useful to the black-eyed poisonous spider!

Although the black-eyed poisonous spider's changes were minuscule, Huang Xiaolong still detected the difference.

Huang Xiaolong subsequently fed the other black-eyed poisonous spiders with the remaining upgraded version of blue lotus nectar, each spider averagely consumed about four fist-sized drops.

Then, Huang Xiaolong took out one-seeded and two-seeded blue lotuses and gave them to the black-eyed poisonous spiders.

There weren't any changes from one-seeded blue lotuses, but the effects of two-seeded blue lotuses were not less than the upgraded version of blue lotus nectar, but three-seeded blue lotuses were even better.

If someone were to see Huang Xiaolong feeding these one-seeded, two-seeded, and three-seeded blue lotuses to some fierce creatures, they would probably die from anger. How many experts were there in the Divine Tuo Holy World, who couldn't get even one stalk of one-seeded blue lotus?

In the end, Huang Xiaolong gritted his teeth as if making a big decision and took out four-seeded, five-seeded, and even six-seeded blue lotuses, and fed them to these black-eyed poisonous spiders.

Though six-seeded blue lotuses were precious, they weren't of much use to Huang Xiaolong at this point. Moreover, he had many seven-seeded, eight-seeded, and ten-seeded blue lotuses and those were sufficient for him!

After the hundred plus black-eyed poisonous spiders had absorbed the four-seeded, five-seeded, and six-seeded blue lotuses, Huang Xiaolong took out the Sun Moon Furnace and entered the furnace's space to cultivate.

Huang Xiaolong sat cross-legged under the Tree of Beginning at the grand formation's center, and then grabbed the ten-seeded blue lotus up towards him. He inhaled deeply to calm himself down and circulated the Grandmist Parasitic Medium. Immediately, the heaven and earth energy and absolute frost energy inside the blue lotus rushed into his body.

The Heart Devourer Twin Devils, the several Eye Frost Race's Dao Venerable experts, and a few fierce beasts Huang Xiaolong had tamed previously sat in a circle around the Sun Moon Furnace, sending their cosmos energy into the furnace. The Heart Devourer Twin Devils were both mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts and their cosmos energies were robust and boundless. It was not an exaggeration to say that their cosmos energy was several times more robust than the several Eye Frost Race's experts' cosmos energy combined!

With the addition of the Heart Devourer Twin Devils' cosmos energy, the rate at which Huang Xiaolong refined the ten-seeded blue lotus was faster than ever.

While Huang Xiaolong refined the ten-seeded blue lotus, strands of beginning qi from the Tree of Beginning floated down and enshrouded Huang Xiaolong.

In the blink of an eye, a dozen years had passed.

In the beginning, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Old Monster Flame were all waiting outside. However, by the time a decade had passed, their patience had started waning off rapidly when there was still no sign of Huang Xiaolong.

“Master, why hasn’t Xiaolong come out yet? Could an accident have happened?” Yin Yue couldn’t resist asking her master, the Silver Shadow Creed Patriarch, Zeng Lin.

The Silver Shadow Creed Patriarch Zeng Lin shook his head. “Based on His Highness’ strength, the restrictions within are not a threat to him. Since he hasn’t come out for so long, he might be refining blue lotus nectar or blue lotus inside!”

Yin Yue, Zeng Lin, and a group of Silver Shadow Creed’s experts had arrived at the Blue Lotus Pond a little over a decade ago. The Traversing Wind Creed’s Feng Yue had also arrived.

Of course, the Misty Rain Creed’s Yu Yue, and experts were at the Blue Lotus Pond as well. However, Yin Yue, Feng Yue, and the creeds behind them chose to stand on the Dragon Fish Creed’s side where the Misty Rain Creed where Yu Yue was, chose to remain neutral, and they watched from the sides.

“We should go in and kill him!” The Nine-headed Tree Demon grumbled angrily, seeing there was still no sign of Huang Xiaolong.

“I agree. That brat should be refining blue lotus inside!” Sword Venerable growled, “If his strength goes up further, it would be troublesome!”

Poison Bodach glanced at the Old Monster Flame and Black Shadow Devil, who were some distance away from them, and said, “Others aren’t in a hurry, and we’re in no hurry too. Let’s wait a bit longer because even if Huang Xiaolong got a seven-seeded blue lotus, at most, he would advance to mid-Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable. As long as he doesn’t enter Seventh Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, he is no threat to us!”

But as they waited, another dozen years went by.

And there was still no sign of Huang Xiaolong coming out.

“I don’t care anymore, we’ll go in and kill him!” The Inferno Race’s patriarch, Yang Tianyang, shouted, and rushed into the Blue Lotus Pond.

Poison Bodach frowned seeing this, but he relented in the end, “Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables enter with me while others wait outside!” With that said, he entered the Blue Lotus Pond after Yan Tianyang. Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan, and all of the alliance’s Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables all swarm into the Blue Lotus Pond!”

There were a lot of forces that took part in the Cangqiong Sacred Land’s slaughter, and literally all of them had joined the Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and Nine-headed Tree Demon’s alliance. The Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, World Tree, and others in the alliance, combined, had around twenty Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables, and with the additions of forces that joined in later, there were more than a hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables in their alliance!

More than a hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts!

This strength was sufficient to conquer the Divine Tuo Holy World.

After seeing Poison Bodach and Sword Venerable leading over a hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables into the Blue Lotus Pond, Bi Cheng and the others' expressions turned bad.

“Should we go in too?” Wu Kun asked anxiously.

However, Bi Cheng shook his head, “No need. There are numerous spaces inside the Blue Lotus Pond, and there are restrictions. They can't possibly find His Highness. Not to mention that our manpower is too thin in comparison. So, it's better to wait for His Highness to come out!”

Not long after Poison Bodach's group rushed into the Blue Lotus Pond, the Black Shadow Devil, and Old Monster Flame also couldn't wait anymore, and both disappeared into the Blue Lotus Pond in a flicker. Seeing this, other Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables and hidden old monsters also swarmed in.

Chapter 2975: Perfection State Absolute Frost Power

Just as Old Monster Flame, Black Shadow Devil, and others entered the Blue Lotus Pond, the entire Divine Tuo Holy World's grand daos became agitated, like bubbling boiling water. It was especially so for grand daos within and around the Blue Lotus Pond as the space trembled violently for a split second.

Everyone within the Blue Lotus Pond felt these movements.

Faces tightened tensely.

“This is?!” Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng was aghast. This phenomenon had happened a few times in the last several hundred years, so they were too familiar with it. During the past several times, they had predicted that there was a terrifying monster gestating in the Divine Tuo Holy World, which had caused the Divine Tuo Holy World's grand daos to react violently.

“It's the Blue Lotus Pond?!” Wu Kun's head turned towards the Blue Lotus Pond as he exclaimed. In all previous times, they were unable to sense the source of the disturbance, but this time, they felt it clearly, and the source was within the Blue Lotus Pond area!

There's a terrifying creature gestating inside the Blue Lotus Pond?!

The Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingye, and others also turned abruptly to look at the Blue Lotus Pond with solemn expressions.

The Divine Tuo Holy World's grand daos roared, and the Blue Lotus Pond's immediate space seemed to jerk forward as an indescribable aura enveloped the Divine Tuo Holy World. Everyone felt their breaths getting sucked out of them, and even peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables felt something pressing down on their chests, making them feel extremely uncomfortable.

“This overwhelming might?!” The Silver Shadow Creed Patriarch Zeng Lin looked extremely solemn.

“Master, this, could something have happened inside the Blue Lotus Pond?” Yin Yue was very worried, as she remembered that her master had once told her that the heavens were going to change.

An obscured silver light flashed in Patriarch Zeng Lin's eyes as if his gaze was trying to penetrate through the Blue Lotus Pond's barrier and numerous restrictions and see through everything, “There are changes inside the Blue Lotus Pond!”

Noticing her master's deeply furrowed brows, Yin Yue was immediately anxious. "Master, if there are changes inside the Blue Lotus Pond, won't Xiaolong be in danger?"

Zeng Lin was stumped by her question. A moment later, he shook his head, "I don't know, His Highness has Huang Long Bloodline and the Huang Long Armor, so he should be fine."

On the other hand, Poison Bodach and the others who had entered the Blue Lotus Pond were also alarmed by the sudden changes in the grand dao energy. The Blue Lotus Pond that had always been calm as a mirror surface was rippling, and the powerful water-attributed restrictions all-around became all the more scarier in the next moment. The usually serene surroundings were suddenly charged with a surging undercurrent, and a strong sense of unease of doom inexplicably rose in everyone's heart.

"What's going on?!" The Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan blurted out in alarm, "Is a monstrous creature going to break out from his Blue Lotus Pond?"

"Poison Bodach, perhaps, we should retreat and wait outside?" The Nine-headed Tree Demon suppressed the ominous feeling in his chest and suggested. The foreboding feeling inside the Blue Lotus Pond was greatly disturbing.

Poison Bodach frowned because truthfully, he had the same feeling, which was very uncomfortable.

"Yes, we should go out first," Sword Venerable agreed loudly, "We'll wait outside. Once this abnormal phenomenon stops, we'll come in again to search for Huang Xiaolong that brat. He won't be able to escape us anyways. Because of these abnormal changes, the surrounding restrictions have become stronger and the space is unstable, so this makes finding that brat more difficult."

"Alright." Poison Bodach nodded his head in agreement.

Upon reaching an agreement, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the rest exited the Blue Lotus Pond.

Seeing this, other experts quickly retreated out from the Blue Lotus Pond. In the end, even Old Monster Flame and Black Shadow Devil also chose to exit.

But several years went by, and this abnormal phenomenon continued. The ominous dooming feeling grew stronger, forcing the experts guarding around the Blue Lotus Pond's entrance to back away by several times to reduce the suffocation in their chests. Even Poison Bodach, Old Monster Flame, Black Shadow Devil, Sword Venerable, and other Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts had backed a far distance away.

This seemed to be the only way to ease the suffocation they felt.

Almost another ten years later, the abnormal phenomenon began to slow down. Grand dao energy and space were no longer churning and unsteady.

Everything fully returned to calmness about half a month later. Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others cautiously entered the Blue Lotus Pond again.

They found out that everything inside the Blue Lotus Pond had been restored to normal, and there was calm and quiet as it had always been.

At this time, inside the space filled with blue lotus nectar, the shining Sun Moon Furnace flickered unsteadily. The Heart Devourer Twin Devils, the Eye Frost Race's experts, and those fierce beasts Huang Xiaolong had subjugated, persistently sent cosmos energy into the Sun Moon Furnace.

And through the Sun Moon Furnace, their cosmos energies flowed vigorously into Huang Xiaolong's body.

Huang Xiaolong was enshrouded by crackling streaks of lightning, and the dragon of creation was like a pillar propping up the sky. Huang Long World's origin energy came pouring down, and the Tree of Beginning's beginning qi rolled down like a curtain of ethereal fog, wrapping around Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong's momentum rose like tides that never receded, and his strength had risen exponentially. He was much stronger than before, and he had entered late-Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm.

Another ten years came and went by.

The lightning streaks around Huang Xiaolong gradually dissipated, and the overwhelming aura from his body converged back into his body.

Space fluctuations stopped as Huang Xiaolong's opened his eyes. He has finally entered Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm after refining the eight-seeded, nine-seeded, and ten-seeded blue lotuses!

After absorbing the absolute frost power within the ten-seeded blue lotus, his absolute frost power had finally entered the perfection state.

This ten-seeded blue lotus was the first blue lotus growing in this Blue Lotus Pond. It was almost as old as the Blue Lotus Pond itself, and it had absorbed the Blue Lotus Pond's water energy over a long period of time that had evolved into the power of absolute frost. The absolute frost energy within the blue lotus had greatly exceeded Huang Xiaolong's imagination, and if it wasn't for that, Huang Xiaolong couldn't tell how many years it would have taken for his absolute frost power to reach perfection.

At the moment his absolute frost power reached completion did Huang Xiaolong realize how difficult it was to raise one's absolute power to perfection state. Though it was not as hard as ascending to the heavens, it was almost the same.

His dao souls' senses spread out, displaying the entire Blue Lotus Pond in his mind.

There were intricate layers of space within the Blue Lotus Pond that were further hindered by numerous restrictions, and not even late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables could see the entire Blue Lotus Pond situation like Huang Xiaolong!

Under Huang Xiaolong's dao souls, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, Old Monster Flame, and even the Black Shadow Devil's actions and words were all seen by Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong sneered. It's harvest time!

It must have been difficult for Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and others to have waited so long for him, so he naturally couldn't disappoint them.

Without much effort, Huang Xiaolong appeared outside the Sun Moon Furnace. He then collected the Sun Moon Furnace and all the remaining blue lotus nectar in the space. He sent the Twin Devourer Heart Devils, and the rest back into the dragon pearl before leaving the space.

In the next moment, Huang Xiaolong appeared behind a late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

“Who?!” The late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable reacted immediately, but just as he turned, icy blue absolute frost power dominated his sight. Wherever the extreme icy blue light passed, everything was sealed in ice.

Watching the late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable sealed in an instant, Huang Xiaolong also restrained his dao souls and small worlds’ cosmos energy, then threw the expert into the dragon pearl.

A late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert was resolved!

Chapter 2976: Ming Fu’s Conjecture

A late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert’s strength was only second to a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable! Yet, when facing Huang Xiaolong, even such an expert was sealed in ice in an instant without a chance to counter at all!

The late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert was a famous old monster, and his notorious reputation was as loud as the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, and he was called Old Man Di Ming. He had not appeared for many years, yet he ended up being sealed, captured, and thrown into the dragonpearl by Huang Xiaolong in their first confrontation. Everything happened so fast and smoothly that the incident did not alarm Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, Black Shadow Devil, or others at the Blue Lotus Pond.

After dealing with Old Man Di Ming, Huang Xiaolong’s figure disappeared in a blur. In the next moment, he reappeared in front of another late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

In similar swift actions, Huang Xiaolong sealed the expert with the perfection absolute frost power, and then he restrained the expert’s dao soul and small world before throwing him into the dragon pearl.

Huang Xiaolong wasn’t in a hurry to get to Poison Bodach and Sword Venerable’s group, but he chose to deal with these lone Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts, and deal with these loners first and leave the Poison Bodach’s group for last.

Currently, there were over six hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables gathered at the Blue Lotus Pond!

Almost all of the Divine Tuo Holy World’s Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables were here, even Huang Xiaolong who had achieved perfection with his absolute frost power wouldn’t gain an advantage being besieged by this many Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables.

One, two, three... more and more Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables were sealed and thrown into the dragon pearl by Huang Xiaolong. In a short one hour, Huang Xiaolong had dealt with more than a hundred of them!

The weakest ones amongst these experts were early Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables, and the strongest ones were late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables. Some acted alone, and a few moved in small groups of ten or so. However, all of them were sealed by Huang Xiaolong’s perfection absolute frost power in the first instance, and there wasn’t a chance to resist or escape at all.

It was a stroke of luck that Huang Xiaolong's absolute frost power had entered perfection state, enabling him to seal his opponents in a split second, or else, as long as one person retaliated, the energy fluctuations would surely alert Poison Bodach and other peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables.

Still, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the others discovered something was amiss when Huang Xiaolong captured more than two hundred experts.

"Yin Ming's thirteen disciples are missing!"

"Strange, Cang Jingren has lost contact too!"

"Sha Zhiyao is also missing!"

News of missing people came consecutively.

Everyone reacted before long.

"They wouldn't be caught in some restricted space, right?"

"Impossible! Even if they are trapped inside a restricted space, they can still be contacted!"

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon's group also heard about these missing people.

"How can these people go missing inexplicably?" The Nine-headed Tree Demon felt something fishy was going on, "Someone ambushed these people?"

The Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan's brows furrowed. "But we didn't feel any energy fluctuations from battles!"

If there were energy fluctuations from battles, with them within the Blue Lotus Pond, it was impossible for them not to sense anything.

Poison Bodach's eyes gleamed, "No energy fluctuations. Maybe they were subdued before they had a chance to fight!"

"What?!" Everyone was stunned by Poison Bodach's words.

But Sword Venerable shook his head in the next second. "Not possible! Yin Ming's thirteen disciples are all mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables or stronger! Moreover, Ying Ming's eldest disciple has entered late-Ninth Dao Esteem Dao Venerable Realm. Moreover, the thirteen of them never leave each other's side. Who in the world could subdue the thirteen of them in an instant? Even if Old Monster Flame and Black Shadow Devil join hands, it's still impossible!"

"That's right, unless there were thirteen peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables attacking them at the same time, that's the only way to subdue Yin Ming's thirteen disciples at the same time!" The Inferno Race Patriarch Yan Tianyang pointed out, "But now, only our alliance has thirteen peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts."

Poison Bodach did not retort as he really couldn't think of any other method that could subdue Yin Ming's thirteen disciples in one fell swoop silently.

Then, a thought occurred to him, and his expression stiffened. Could it be? But he snubbed the thought in the next second. Impossible!

Although Poison Bodach couldn't figure it out, he insisted solemnly, "From now on, everyone must not separate, and pay attention to the surroundings!"

The Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree's experts complied.

"Also, pass my word that if someone joins our alliance, we're more than welcome." Poison Bodach added.

Sword Venerable's eyes lit up, and he grinned. "Brother Poison Bodach is wise!"

Although many experts had joined their alliance, there were still those arrogant characters that refused their invitation. With Yin Ming's thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, Sha Zhiyao, and many other experts disappearing for no reason, it would cause some panic. Panic would drive people to seek safety in numbers, thus they would come to join their alliance on their own.

As expected, there were consecutive groups who came to join the Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree's alliance.

Several days later.

Somewhere in the Blue Lotus Pond, Huang Xiaolong's three dao souls covered the entire Blue Lotus Pond.

Ever since the news of Ying Ming's thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, Sha Zhiyao, and others' disappearance had spread, many experts began to form groups, and those that did not form groups all joined the three forces' alliance. Even those peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables did not wander alone, instead chose to move around in groups of three or four people.

This increased the difficulty for Huang Xiaolong to subdue more experts.

Under his three dao souls' survey, Huang Xiaolong finally set his sights on a group on the north side. There were forty-plus experts in this group, but there wasn't any peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable, and this made dealing with them a bit easier.

This group on the north side was led by a young man wearing an orange Buddhist robe, with Buddha luminance around him as if he had the blessings and protection of a myriad of Buddhas. This young man was an expert ordained as Ming Fu, and although he was only a late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert, his amazing battle prowess put him at the same level as a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

Rumor had it, that Ming Fu had evolved from a genesis Luminance Buddhist stone, and hence he possessed an innate Luminance Buddha Physique. He had never lost in a fight, and his strength was second to existences like Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon. It was said Ming Fu had a hundred million Buddhist kingdoms under him and over a trillion Buddhist disciples and Buddhist believers.

“Lord Ming Fu, do you think Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, and the others missing, are related to Old Monster Flame or Black Shadow Devil? one of the mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts asked the young man.

Ming Fu had a third eye on his forehead enshrouded in a soft golden halo. “Not likely! Neither Old Monster Flame, nor Black Shadow Devil have any reason to act against Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, and any of the missing people.”

“Then, what do you think, Lord Ming Fu?” a genesis race’s expert couldn’t help asking.

“Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, and all those missing people... Who is their common enemy?” Ming Fu suddenly asked in return.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Someone’s face aghast, “Lord Ming Fu, do you mean the Son of Creation?!”

Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples, Cang Jingren, and all those missing people’s common enemy could only be one person, and that was Huang Xiaolong!

Because everyone had entered the Blue Lotus Pond for one reason only, and it was to find Huang Xiaolong and snatch the Tree of Beginning, and the Fruit of Beginning!

Of course, there was also the Huang Long Armor!

Ming Fu nodded with a serious expression. “That’s right, I have a gut feeling that those people’s disappearance is related to Huang Xiaolong.”

Chapter 2977: No Need to Fear Huang Xiaolong

The rest of the group was taken aback.

Is it really related to Huang Xiaolong?

“But, Lord Ming Fu, even if Huang Xiaolong defeated the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, he couldn’t have possibly subdued Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples simultaneously, could he?” An expert voiced his doubt, “Huang Xiaolong’s battle prowess is at Lord Ming Fu’s level at most, even half a move worse than Lord Ming Fu.”

“I think so too,” another expert chimed in, “It cannot be Huang Xiaolong. Even the Holy Dragon Race’s old ancestor can’t subdue Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples in the blink of an eye, then how could Huang Xiaolong do it!”

The Holy Dragon Race was one of the most powerful genesis races, the Dark Lightning Holy Dragon Ancestor was recognized as the most powerful cultivator in the entire Divine Tuo Holy World beside the Mystical Pavilion Master!

It was said that the Dark Lightning Holy Dragon Ancestor had comprehended the absolute power of darkness, and absolute power of lightning. More importantly, he had achieved perfection in both absolute powers!

Ming Fu had just opened his mouth to speak when his third eye's pupils suddenly needed, looking opposite him where a figure walked out from the dense layers of white fog!

This person approached them at a leisurely pace.

Other experts also discovered this person's presence a second later.

"Huang Xiaolong!" someone in the group gasped.

A few experts in the group had witnessed Huang Xiaolong battling Huang Shuai.

"What, Huang Xiaolong!" Hearing that name, everyone was startled. Ever since Huang Xiaolong had defeated the Heart Devourer Twin Devils, even existences like Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon had to pay attention to Huang Xiaolong. Hence, everyone now faced Huang Xiaolong as if they were facing a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert.

Resplendent luminance from Ming Fu's third eye enveloped Huang Xiaolong, but Huang Xiaolong continued to approach as if he wasn't affected at all.

Ming Fu was inwardly astonished, his third eye was a Buddha's Eye he was born with. His most pure Buddhist light energy was gathered in his third eye, and no late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable could move at ease like Huang Xiaolong after being shined by his third eye's luminance.

His face turned serious, and the experts around him tensed up, circulating their cosmos energy and locking onto Huang Xiaolong like they were facing a deathly enemy.

In the blink of an eye, Huang Xiaolong had crossed the distance between them.

"You are Huang Xiaolong?" Ming Fu asked the obvious, and his sonorous voice sounded like ten thousand Buddhas were chanting at the same time, while the world vibrated with the frequency of his voice.

Ming Fu had cultivated his Buddhist energy to the realm of ten thousand Buddhas manifestations by his side at all times, and it wasn't an exaggeration to say that with one word, he could influence an entire sacred land's experts, infect them with his Buddhism, and make them feel a closeness and reliance towards him.

However, no one knew how strong-willed Huang Xiaolong was, and how steadfast his dao souls and inextinguishable dao heat was. Huang Xiaolong's gaze swept over Ming Fu's third eye, and he asked in return, "You're the one they hailed as the Ancestor of Buddhas, King of all-Buddhas, and the highest Buddha in the world, Ming Fu?"

Although Ming Fu had not entered peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, he had gained many titles and nicknames, from the Ancestor of Buddhas, King of all-Buddhas, and some even called him the highest Buddha in the world!

"That's right, it is me." Ming Fu nodded.

Then Huang Xiaolong's expression turned indifferent as he spoke, "Make your move, and if you can take one move from me, I'll let you leave."

The experts around Ming Fu were immediately outraged.

“Huang Xiaolong, you’re too presumptuous, do you think you’re the Dark Lightning Holy Dragon Old Ancestor? I bet you can’t survive one strike from Lord Ming Fu!” A mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert berated Huang Xiaolong.

“Hand out the Tree of Beginning!” Another peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable coldly demanded, “I don’t believe you can defeat all forty-plus of us here! If you don’t hand it over, hmph!”

Huang Xiaolong casually waved his hand, and two ink-black streaks of light flashed in the air. In the next second, the two experts who had spoken screamed at the top of their lungs.

Ming Fu and the others turned to look, and spotted the two black spiders full of eyes on their bodies. The two experts’ had already turned black and began to emit a rotting stench.

Everyone was taken aback, and their faces showed horror. “This, what the h*ll are these!”

Isn’t this poison a little too horrible? Even mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable, and peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable could not resist it! Not even the cosmos energy of a peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable could drive out the toxin?

Ming Fu looked at the black-eyed poisonous spiders, and a memory came to his mind. His face tightened, “Black-eyed poisonous spiders?!”

“What? Black-eyed poisonous spiders!”

Goosebumps ran down everyone’s neck hearing that, and they hastily retreated far away.

Those in Ming Fu’s group were all Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables, and they had lived for many years. Naturally, they had heard of terrifying creatures like the black-eyed poisonous spiders.

There were several terrifying existences in the world, and black-eyed poisonous spider was one of them.

Ming Fu spun around and looked at Huang Xiaolong with a gloomy face, “You used these black-eyed poisonous spiders against Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples?” He didn’t think Huang Xiaolong alone could subdue Yin Ming’s thirteen disciples, and these black-eyed poisonous spiders was the best explanation.

Huang Xiaolong was surprised that even Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables could not drive out the black-eyed poisonous spiders’ toxin. It seemed that the blue lotus nectar and blue lotuses he had fed them had significantly raised their lethality.

Huang Xiaolong did not reply to Ming Fu. Black rays glimmered from his body as a hundred-plus black-eyed poisonous spiders flew out, hovering around him.

Seeing this, Ming Fu and the others’ legs nearly gave out.

“More, more than a hundred of them!”

This!

Even Ming Fu was visibly frightened. As the world's highest Buddha, born with Luminance Buddha Physique, there were few things that could scare him, but these black-eyed poisonous spiders were definitely one of them.

If there were only a few black-eyed poisonous spiders, Ming Fu was confident he could deal with them, but more than a hundred black-eyed poisonous spiders?!

“Everyone, don’t be afraid. Although these black-eyed poisonous spiders are said to be extremely poisonous, and they are immune to all attacks, their speed is not fast. We just need to pay attention and these black-eyed poisonous spiders can’t harm us. We have no need to fear Huang Xiaolong!” A peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert suddenly shouted, and he glared at Huang Xiaolong, “Huang Xiaolong, you’re a waste. All you can do is frighten us with these poisonous creatures. Do you think we will submit to you relying on these black-eyed poisonous spiders? What a joke!”

“Waste?” Huang Xiaolong sneered and suddenly punched out. In an instant, major completion absolute poison power turned into dark clouds that covered the sky as if night had fallen in the Blue Lotus Pond. Even the clear Blue Lotus Pond’s clear waters that had not changed for several hundred million years turned ink-black.

Boom!

Huang Xiaolong’s fist sent the peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert flying, and when the expert plummeted into the waters, the armor on his chest had been pulverized to dust. Right under the armor’s shatter point was a fist-sized black hole through the expert’s chest. Overbearing absolute poison power was greedily devouring and corroding his flesh.

“Peak major completion absolute poison power!” Ming Fu was greatly shocked but his luminance Buddhist energy surged to the limit and wrapped around the expert like a river in an attempt to drive the absolute poison out from the expert’s body. But his Luminance Buddhist energy was useless. The moment his Luminance Buddhist energy came in contact with the absolute poison, sizzling noises sounded as his energy was corroded.

Those who did not take Huang Xiaolong seriously for his strength, now looked at Huang Xiaolong in horror.

Huang Xiaolong sneered, “Without these black-eyed poisonous spiders, any one of you that can take one blow from me can leave!”

Chapter 2978: Who’s Fighting With Ming Fu?

These people were outraged when they heard Huang Xiaolong say that he would allow them to leave if they took one blow from him. But now, it was apprehensive silence. No one dared to utter a word.

Peak major completion absolute poison power!

No one could take that kind of hit from Huang Xiaolong and come unscathed at the other end.

And everyone discovered that Huang Xiaolong had entered the Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

Ming Fu was just as shocked as everyone else upon finding that Huang Xiaolong had advanced to early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm. At the time of the Creation Ceremony, Huang Xiaolong was still only a late-First Esteem Dao Venerable, this was no secret in the entire Divine Tuo Holy World. But they had learned not long ago when Huang Xiaolong had defeated the Heart Devourer Twin Devils that he had already entered peak early Fifth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

And now, Huang Xiaolong's cultivation had risen to early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

This was literally a magic show, can Huang Xiaolong's cultivation rise whenever he wants it? He really couldn't figure out how in the world Huang Xiaolong cultivated and how Huang Xiaolong advanced...

Are these the benefits of the Tree of Beginning and Fruit of Beginning?! If it's real, then this is too mind-blowingly heaven-defying. Ming Fu was severely tempted as he thought about this.

"Huang Xiaolong, did you say that anyone who takes one hit from you can leave?" Ming Fu asked in all seriousness.

"Correct," Huang Xiaolong responded placidly.

Ming Fu went on seriously, "I want to add one condition. If I succeed, I want ten Fruits of Beginning!" In his opinion, asking for ten Fruits of Beginning was not too much.

Huang Xiaolong sneered, "Did I hear right? After taking one move from me, not only do I have to let you go, but also give you ten Fruits of Beginning?"

Even Ming Fu couldn't help blushing when Huang Xiaolong put it like that.

.....

Somewhere in the Blue Lotus Pond, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon suddenly stopped moving, and looked in one direction with astonishment. When Huang Xiaolong sent the peak mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert flying with one punch, despite his excellent control, it was enough for Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon were top experts to capture the energy fluctuations no matter how negligible they were.

"This energy... It's peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables fighting?!" The Nine-headed Tree Demon exclaimed in shock.

"This person's strength might very well be above us!" Sword Venerable pointed out with a solemn expression.

But Poison Bodach looked greatly astonished, "This is the peak major completion absolute poison power?!" His absolute poison power had reached major completion. Hence, he was very sensitive towards the power of absolute poison, and that person's power of absolute poison was above his!

"What? Peak major completion of absolute poison power?" Others were shocked when they heard Poison Bodach's words.

The power of absolute poison was fundamentally a terror, and Poison Bodach was able to deter many other peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables mainly because of his major completion absolute poison power, but now, there was someone who wielded peak major completion absolute poison power that was more horrifying than Poison Bodach's major completion absolute poison power?!

“That can’t possibly be true, right?” The Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan exclaimed in astonishment, “I’ve never heard of anyone reaching peak major completion with his absolute poison power, and even that toad’s absolute poison power is at the same level as Brother Poison Bodach.”

The toad he mentioned was the ancestor of poisons, a genesis era existence like them.

In truth, Poison Bodach himself was surprised as he too couldn’t think of anyone else in the Divine Tuo Holy World who could wield the power of absolute poison.

Right at this time, luminance Buddhist energy soared up, and then an icy blue light lit up the sky, followed by a resounding explosion in the next second.

Overwhelming aftershock waves swept out.

The entire Blue Lotus Pond swayed violently for a moment as if its barrier was about to crumble, and it was not only the Blue Lotus Pond, but also the several neighboring sacred lands. Enormous fissures opened through some sacred lands.

“What a powerful luminance Buddhist energy!”

“That is the absolute frost power?! Perfection absolute frost power?!” Even Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others couldn’t conceal the shock on their faces.

“It’s Ming Fu!” someone blurted out.

As far as they knew, only the King of All-Buddhas, the Ancestors of Buddhas, the highest Buddha Ming Fu possessed this degree of luminance Buddhist energy in the world, and despite the overlapping spaces and distance between them, they strangely felt a cleansing power over them.

“Who’s fighting with Ming Fu? The Ice Goddess?” some experts made a guess.

The Ice Goddess had also comprehended the power of absolute frost and had long reached perfection.

Poison Bodach shook his head, “It’s not the Ice Goddess. Although the Ice Goddess’ absolute frost power has reached perfection, her cultivation realm is still at late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm. Therefore, she could fight Ming Fu to a draw at most with her current strength, but that perfection absolute frost power just now clearly overpowered Ming Fu. That person is stronger than Ming Fu!”

Others might not see that Ming Fu’s luminance Buddhist energy was suppressed by the other person completely, but Poison Bodach could clearly see it.

“Let’s go over and take a look!” Sword Venerable turned into a streak of sword light and disappeared.

Poison Bodach, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and a large group of people also flew towards Ming Fu’s direction.

While they flew towards where Ming Fu was, Old Monster Flame, Black Shadow Devil, and other peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables were also headed towards the same destination.

When Poison Bodach and the others arrived, the experts who were in the same group with Ming Fu were astounded by what they had witnessed. Ming Fu had shot out like a meteor after one punch from Huang Xiaolong, and by the time Ming Fu had smashed into the waters, he had turned into a frozen ice statue. Not only that, but even the spot where Ming Fu fell into the waters was not frozen into ice.

One punch!

Ming Fu was sealed and defeated!

“Peak major completion I-level absolute fr-frost power?!” one of the mid-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts stuttered.

“No, it’s perfection absolute frost power!” a late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert corrected. Within this group, other than Ming Fu, this person was the strongest, and he was also a genesis era old monster. The difference was that Ming Fu was born with an innate Luminance Buddha Physique, whereas, he was merely a sea monster—a tortoise!

He was known for his unbreakable defense, hailed as the Ancestor of Tortoises.

“Perfection level absolute frost power!”

Hearing that, everyone sucked in a breath of cold air as they stared at Huang Xiaolong in astonishment—perfection absolute frost power!

Even the Divine Tuo Holy World’s current top ten experts did not necessarily wield perfection absolute power. Like Poison Bodach and Black Shadow Devil!

While everyone was in shock, Huang Xiaolong disappeared from their view in a flicker.

“Retreat!” The Tortoise Ancestor suddenly shouted as a vigorous green light burst out from his body, and a huge tortoise shell rose from his back. The shell protected his whole body, and the many profound runes on the tortoise shell’s surface formed layers of protective boundaries in an instant.

But in the same instant, these protective boundaries were tightly enshrouded by icy blue lights one after another, and not a gap could be seen.

Huang Xiaolong looked placidly at the Tortoise Ancestor and others who had been sealed frozen. The Tortoise Ancestor was indeed strong, and if he had not mastered absolute frost power, he really couldn’t have sealed all these people. Unfortunately for these people, the power of absolute frost perfection was not something a tortoise shell could block!

With a wave of his hand, Huang Xiaolong sent Ming Fu, the Tortoise Ancestor, and the rest into the dragon pearl.

“Huang Xiaolong!”

Huang Xiaolong had just thrown Ming Fu and the others into the dragon pearl when he heard a thunderous voice call out, and in the next second, a sharp sword light descended before him. Sword Venerable stood in front of him, followed by Poison Bodach, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the rest as they arrived consecutively.

Chapter 2979: The Misty Rain Creed Keeps Itself Safe Above All Else

Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, and the others had not expected to run into Huang Xiaolong here, and every one of them was delighted. The reason all of them had gathered at the Blue Lotus Pond for so many years was just to kill Huang Xiaolong and snatch the Tree of Beginning and Huang Long Armor.

Poison Bodach was the only one staring fixedly at Huang Xiaolong, and he asked, "Have you been here this whole time? Where's Ming Fu?"

His question sobered the others.

The Nine-headed Tree Demon laughed, "Brother Poison Bodach, how, how could that be?! How could it be him?!"

He subconsciously felt that it was impossible because the absolute frost power earlier had completely suppressed Ming Fu. How could that person possibly be Huang Xiaolong who had overpowered Ming Fu?!

Huang Xiaolong looked at Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and more than two hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm experts with them and admitted, "Yes."

The Nine-headed Tree Demon choked.

...Yes? Meaning?!

"Where's Ming Fu?" Poison Bodach's expression darkened, and his narrowed eyes concealed the waves of shock he felt. At the same time, the experts behind him spread out and encircled Huang Xiaolong.

"You will know very soon." Huang Xiaolong took out the Shaking Dragon Spear. He still hadn't used this spear since he had gotten it from the Mystical Pavilion's Dragon Fish Branch.

Dragon qi surged around Huang Xiaolong, and roars of dragons could be heard in the sky as Huang Long Armor emerged to the surface.

.....

Outside the Blue Lotus Pond.

"Wasn't someone battling with Ming Fu just now?" The Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingye doubted, "Why there's no movement anymore?" The soaring luminance Buddhist energy and absolute frost power that had collided was imprinted into their minds.

But the two world-shaking powers had disappeared as fast as they had appeared.

Bi Cheng, Wu Kun, and the others too showed astonishment.

"It wouldn't be His Highness, right?" The Black Desert Creed Patriarch hesitated.

The rest were stunned.

"No, it can't be," Wu Kun refuted it in one word. He shook his head and added, "That person's strength is above Ming Fu. We all know His Highness' strength, and even if he has been cultivating in seclusion inside the Blue Lotus Pond, he can't possibly have that level of combat power."

Just as Wu Kun finished speaking, heaven and earth swayed, accompanied by consecutive thunderous explosions coming from the depths of Blue Lotus Pond. World destroying aftershock waves swept out to the four corners,

Faces changed greatly at this sight.

“This is?!” The Silver Shadow Creed Patriarch Zeng Lin exclaimed.

“It’s Huang Xiaolong battling Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and other experts. Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon have found Huang Xiaolong, and they are besieging him right now!” Someone suddenly shrieked, “There are over two hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables. Even if Huang Xiaolong has the Huang Long Armor, he won’t be able to escape from this!”

“What?!” The numerous experts outside the Blue Lotus Pond erupted in a furor.

The Dragon Fish Creed Patriarch Bi Cheng, Divination Creed Patriarch Wu Kun, Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingyu, and the others tensed up immediately.

“His Highness is in danger. Let’s hurry into the Blue Lotus Pond!” Bi Cheng roared, and he was the first to rush into the Blue Lotus Pond.

“Hurry, enter the Blue Lotus Pond and rescue His Highness!” Wu Kun also shouted and then rushed through the barrier right after Bi Cheng.

Hu Qingyu and other creeds’ experts also swarmed in without hesitation.

“All experts of Silver Shadow Creed listen up, enter the Blue Lotus Pond and rescue His Highness Huang Xiaolong!” The Silver Shadow Creed Patriarch Zeng Lin bellowed an order, and led the Silver Shadow Creed’s experts into the Blue Lotus Pond.

The Traversing Wind Creed Patriarch issued the same order and led the Traversing Wind Creed’s experts, rushing into the Blue Lotus Pond to aid Huang Xiaolong.

Some of the remaining creeds exchanged a glance, and then decisively led their experts into the Blue Lotus Pond.

In a few short moments, several thousand Dao Venerables had swarmed into the Blue Lotus Pond.

Yu Yue hesitated and then cautiously looked at her master, the Misty Rain Creed Patriarch, and asked, “Master, aren’t we going inside to help His Highness Huang Xiaolong?”

The Misty Rain Creed Patriarch’s eyes flickered, but he finally shook his head, “The Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree have gathered more than two hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts to besiege Huang Xiaolong. Therefore, Huang Xiaolong’s death is written in stone! Even if he survives this, he would definitely be imprisoned by those three top forces, and even if Dragon Fish Creed, Divination Creed, and the rest arrive, it’s destined they won’t be able to rescue Huang Xiaolong. The Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree have more than two hundred Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables ah, and that is power to overwhelm everything. How can the ten creeds go against that?”

“To three forces’ alliance, the Silver Shadow Creed, Traversing Wind Creed, and similar forces could be totally annihilated with one palm. Hence, our Misty Rain Creed should not get involved in this matter!”

“It is a wise move for our Misty Rain Creed to prioritize our safety!” Yu Yue gritted her teeth and went on, “But Huang Xiaolong is the Son of Creation, and I don’t think he’s going to fall!”

The Misty Rain Creed Patriarch laughed softly, “Who says the Son of Creation can’t fall? The universe has its own rules. Even if the world was created by the God of Creation, certain matters are not within the God of Creation’s control. In the vast universe, even the God of Creation is not completely indestructible, then what’s more to Huang Xiaolong, who is only a Dao Venerable?!”

Yu Yue was astounded, “Master, you mean to say?”

“There are things you don’t need to know yet, as you will naturally know these things when you enter late-Ninth Esteem or peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm,” the Misty Rain Creed Patriarch replied.

In the meantime, inside the Blue Lotus Pond, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, the Nine-headed Tree Demon, Stonemen Race Patriarch Shi Dan, Inferno Race Patriarch Yan Tianyang, and many more experts looked at Huang Xiaolong with an incredulous expressions on their faces.

The Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree alliance had more than two hundred and sixty plus Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable experts. Just moments ago, Huang Xiaolong had sealed almost two hundred of them in ice in a few breaths!

“Perfection absolute frost power!”

Poison Bodach fixed a deathly stare on Huang Xiaolong, his face was extremely gloomy. Huang Xiaolong’s absolute frost power has actually reached perfection level!

On top of that, Huang Xiaolong has also broken through to an early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm!

Perfection absolute frost power, early Sixth Esteem Dao Venerable Realm, three small worlds’ cosmos energy, three dao souls, twelve high-order Saint Fates, the Dao Body of Heaven and Earth, and on top of everything, Huang Xiaolong also had the Huang Long Armor!

Didn’t that mean that Huang Xiaolong currently had...?!

Even though enjoyable, Huang Xiaolong ignored Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the others’ ugly faces, and he strode towards them with the Shaking Dragon Spear in his hand.. With each step he took, the pond’s surface under his foot turned an icy blue, and it only recovered after Huang Xiaolong had walked away. Perfection absolute frost power enabled Huang Xiaolong delicate control over any water element in the world as he liked.

“Black Shadow Devil, Old Monster Flame, Wind Wolf, if you don’t come out now, we will retreat. If we can’t get the Tree of Beginning, you all won’t get it too!” Poison Bodach suddenly shouted to the sky.

He knew the Black Shadow Devil, Old Monster Flame, and other old monsters had long arrived, and they were merely hidden nearby, planning to become the fisherman that reaps the final reward.

But he wouldn’t fulfill these people’s wishes!

As expected, the moment Poison Bodach threatened to leave, the sky darkened for a split second as the Black Shadow Devil and Old Monster Flame appeared. The Black Shadow Devil was merely a shadow, whereas Old Monster Flame was standing on a fiery red cloud, and there were rings of flames on his hands.

After the Black Shadow Devil and Old Monster Flame appeared, another dozen people also appeared. Each of them was a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable expert, and although some of their might wasn't as strong as Poison Bodach, the difference was almost negligible.

Chapter 2980: In A While, Don't Even Think of Escaping

After revealing himself, the Black Shadow Devil looked at Huang Xiaolong and said, "Huang Xiaolong, give me ten Fruits of Beginning, and I won't interfere in the matter between you and the Poison Valley, Supreme Sword Palace, and World Tree!"

This proposal clapped like a thunderbolt in the other's head.

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon looked like they were close to vomiting blood.

Before anyone could react, Old Monster Flame spoke, "I am on the same page with Black Shadow Devil. Give us ten Fruits of Beginning, and we'll leave right after that!"

Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, and the Nine-headed Tree Demon's faces looked even uglier.

"Black Shadow Devil, Old Monster Flame, what is the meaning of this?!" Poison Bodach glared fiercely at them, "Do you think Huang Xiaolong would spare you in the future if you leave now?"

Black Shadow Devil chuckled coldly, "I am different from you all as I have no grudge or feud with Huang Xiaolong. You guys are the ones who razed Cangqiong Sacred Land to the ground, and Huang Xiaolong's bound to annihilate all of you!"

"I only want the Fruit of Beginning, so, Huang Xiaolong, what's your answer?" he looked at Huang Xiaolong. "Although you have the Huang Long Armor, it consumes a lot of cosmos energy every time you use it. No matter how abundant your cosmos energy is, it's only a matter of time before it will get depleted."

Huang Xiaolong's tepid gaze swept over Old Monster Flame and those peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables who had appeared later. "In short, all of you want ten Fruits of Beginning?"

One of the old monsters flashed a big grin, "We are not so strict, and we're not that greedy. Just give each of us eight!"

Just eight!

These old monsters had already reached an agreement.

"According to the Eye Frost Race's Ancestor Xuan, the Tree of Beginning bore more than two hundred fruits each time. So, even if you give each of us ten fruits, you still have a hundred or so." the Black Shadow Devil negotiated, "Moreover, you still own the Tree of Beginning, so you practically didn't lose anything, and taking our suggestion is only good for you."

Old Monster Flame nodded in agreement, "Exactly what Brother Black Shadow Devil said. Huang Xiaolong, the Tree of Beginning isn't yours to begin with, and it's something that belonged to the Eye Frost Race. Now, not only you've got the Tree of Beginning, but also more than a hundred Fruits of Beginning, so you should be content with that. A person should know how to be content!"

Didn't lose anything? One should know how to be content? Listening to these two people's words from a moral high ground, Huang Xiaolong let out a mocking snicker, "Are you saying that you guys are not interested in the Huang Long Armor?!" He paused briefly before continuing, "Oh right, during this time in this Blue Lotus Pond, I found more than two hundred stalks of seven-seeded blue lotuses, do you want those as well?"

Brilliant azure rays flickered as more than two hundred stalks of seven-seeded blue lotuses suspended in the air around Huang Xiaolong.

Though Huang Xiaolong had refined the eight-seeded, nine-seeded, and the only ten-seeded blue lotuses, he had kept the seven-seeded blue lotuses. These seven-seeded blue lotuses didn't have much use for him anymore, hence, he had kept them for Long Jianfei, Duan Feng, his master Cangqiong Old Man, and Fei Yanzi to refine.

"What! More than two hundred seven-seeded blue lotuses!"

Whether it was Black Shadow Devil, Old Monster Flame, Poison Bodach, Sword Venerable, or the Nine-headed Tree Demon, their eyes bulged in disbelief staring at the two hundred-plus stalks of seven-seeded blue lotuses around Huang Xiaolong.

This!

Seven-seeded blue lotus! Over two hundred of them!

In the past, the Mystical Pavilion Master and Red Fox Creed Patriarch Hu Qingye had entered the Blue Lotus Pond twice, but each of them had once obtained a seven-seeded blue lotus, and that had shaken the Divine Tuo Holy World. The rarer something was, the more precious it was, and the seven-seeded blue lotus had become one of the Mystical Pavilion's ultimate treasures!

Now, there were over two hundred stalks of seven-seeded blue lotuses in front of them!

All of them were old monsters that had lived for a long time, and their frame of mind had long been stolid like stagnant water, but now, none of them could maintain a stolid composure.

Their hearts were racing, threatening to jump out from their chests.

Old Monster Flame smacked his lips, as crimson flames burned in his eyes, "Huang Xiaolong, it's no secret that you're very confident in your strength, but do you really think we are afraid to deal with you?"

The Black Shadow Devil kept silent this time, and no one knew what he was thinking.

Each of the present old monsters had their own selfish thoughts.

The two hundred-plus seven-seeded blue lotuses vanished from sight with a wave of Huang Xiaolong's hand, and he continued, "Whoever defeats me, these two hundred-plus seven-seeded blue lotuses are his, including the Tree of Beginning."

"WHAT?!" The present old monsters exclaimed with shining eyes.

"Huang Xiaolong, are your words for real?" The Black Shadow Devil asked.

"Of course," Huang Xiaolong nodded as if to emphasize his truthfulness, "Also, during battle, I won't use the Huang Long Armor." With that said, Huang Xiaolong recalled the Huang Long Armor back into his body.

Eyes burned brighter with desire, seeing this.

If Huang Xiaolong were to use the Huang Long Armor to protect himself, it was almost impossible to defeat him, but now that Huang Xiaolong had promised not to use the armor, it was a different game altogether. No matter how strong Huang Xiaolong's Dao Body of Heaven and Earth was, he wouldn't be able to take on a combined attack from them!

The moment the Huang Long Armor completely sunk back into Huang Xiaolong's body, Black Shadow Devil made his move. The black shadow disappeared from the spot and reappeared above Huang Xiaolong's head, with both palms striking down simultaneously.

Overwhelming force crushed down on Huang Xiaolong like ten thousand ancient chaos mountains.

This was space gravity!

With the power of absolute space, one could control space and spatial gravity, and crush an entire sacred land into dust by merely amplifying spatial gravity with ease.

The instant the spatial gravity targeted Huang Xiaolong, the others felt like the whole Blue Lotus Pond sank into the ground like an abyss, and it would cease to exist after that day!

The Black Shadow Devil was a peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable, and the absolute space power ranked second among the thirteen kinds of absolute powers, so one could not begin to imagine how powerful this attack was!

Almost in the same instant the Black Shadow Devil attacked, Old Monster Flame also moved. Blazing flames from his body soared sky high, and returned like a waterfall of fire, closing all paths of retreat around Huang Xiaolong.

Other old monsters wasted no time in attacking as well.

"Kill!" Seizing the chance, Poison Bodach bellowed, while feeling inwardly delighted. The terrifying peak major completion power of absolute poison turned into a boundless sea of poison, its waves roaring towards Huang Xiaolong. Poison Bodach had pushed his power of absolute poison to the limit when attacking. This sea of poison could corrode a whole sacred land, and wherever the waves of poison passed, even the sun and moon would turn black. Everything in its path would be corroded.

Ten thousand rays of sword light exploded from Sword Venerable's body, and every ray of sword light could pierce through a sacred land. At the same time, the Nine-headed Tree Demon's body turned into a behemoth tree in the air, and its trunk was miles and miles tall that those outside the Blue Lotus Pond could see it.

Boom!

The Nine-headed Tree Demon's millions of branches whipped towards Huang Xiaolong, and each branch was as big as a mountain.

Others also attacked with their most powerful attacks.

In a split second, Huang Xiaolong's surroundings space was shattered, as if he was thrown into a violent and chaotic space. Even a place like the Blue Lotus Pond that had existed since the creation era, its multitude spaces and countless restrictions were broken under so many peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerable's attacks, it was as if the Blue Lotus Pond was going to explode.

Huang Xiaolong wasn't the slightest bit flustered watching Black Shadow Devil, Old Monster Flame, and the others' world-destroying attacks. Instead, a cold sneer curved up the corners of his lips. This was what he wanted. All of these peak late-Ninth Esteem Dao Venerables attacking. If someone had held back and chosen to leave instead, he didn't have the means to chase after these people one by one, but even Black Shadow Devil and Old Monster Flame were attacking!

In a while, not one of these people would be able to run!
