

Messing Around

I hopped in my car searching for money, only finding a couple hundred bucks. "this should do" i said to myself.

I went to the best dress place in town to only see Maddy and Cassie there, I said hey to Maddy but ignored Cassie.

I found this perfect dress it was red with a black stripe on the waist i picked it up, and it was on a sale i was so happy! the price say is was $125 which i could a ord i went up to the cashier and paid. i went to Cassie a er "tell lexi i said hi" and i walked out.

I got home and fez was rolling a joint,
"yo ma, that didn't take you that long" fez said licking the joint.

"oh my gosh fez i was so lucky i found the perfect dress" i pulled it out of the bag and put it on my chest "isn't amazing"

"yo how much was that"

"only 125!"

"125!" ash said stepping out of the kitchen.

"it was on sale" i said, ash rolled his eyes.

"yo ma do you think you can pick me out a fit"

fez said smoking.

"yea of course!"

"stop calling her ma" ash said cutting me o .

"yo sorry man" fez said finishing his joint.

Fez and I walked into his room and i looked at all this clothes and then looked him. "so uh are we going casual or fancy" i said looking shocked because how horrible is closet is.

"uh, fancy because your fancy ma"

me and fez laughed so much we were in the ground hitting each other. Ashtray was standing in the doorway and i looked at him, and he walked away.

"quite a brother you got" i said pushing and laughing with fez.

a er and hour of laughter, i finally picked out an outfit for fez and i made him try it on. i made him wear a suite with roses in the pocket.

"you think i look handsome" fez said smiling.

"of course i do"

"you think maybe, other people will think i'm handsome" fez said fixing his tie.

"of course i do" i hugged him.

"y/n" ash said looking at us. so i pulled away me and fez's hug.

i walked out of the room to talk to ash.

"do you like my brother" ash said quietly.

i laughed. fez was like a best friend. see i knew fez since rue was a freshman, that's when her drug problem started.

"ash i don't like him like that"

"you love him"

"ash i love you, do you need me to pick an outfit out for you" i tried to side track because i hated hearing ash overthinking.

i went into fez's room and told him i was picking an outfit for him, we both started laughing.

i looked in ashtrays closet, i picked out a simple outfit for him.

"you look good" i said, which made him smile a little.

ash went in for a kiss, but fez walked in "yo were leaving y/n i started up the car and remembered no money business" fez said walking away.

"you always ruin my moments!" ash yelled at fez. I laughed and put both of my hands on the side of his face and pecked him on the face and walked to the car.

"who smells like mad cologne" i said rolling down the windows.

"yo sorry man" fez said laughing while rolling a joint.

15 minuets later we arrived, "holy rich" i said out loud.

"oh to be this rich" fez said

i had no idea what was gonna happen tonight . but me and fez got out of the car we hooked arms walking into the house laughing while ash was behind us. me and ash sat on this long white couch while fez went out somewhere. i snuggled up with ash till i felt something hard in his side, i li ed his shirt up to see a gun.

"ash why do you have that" i said looking at him in the eyes.

" hey that could of been my rock hard abz" he said dodging the question.

i looked out to the crown and i saw Rue I got up and ran to her.

"y/n!" she said loudly because of the music

"hey!" i hugged her tightly.

"you want some weed?" rue asked me holding a jar of weed.

fez's voice kept repeating in my head "no monkey business tonight y/n, i'm not play around" i stood there think. a little weed can't hurt anyone right?

"hell yes!" i got loud.

Rue started crushing up the weed to get smaller. we both licked our joints and i handed mine to her and she handed hers to mine.

I took a hit, "shit man, it's great to be back with you" i said smoking the joint.

i felt my phone going o and o but ignored it, me and Rue sat outside with our 5th joint and a bottle of vodka.

"y/n this is the happiest i have ever been"

"i think so too" i said rubbing my eyes

Meanwhile ash and fez were in the car leaving "yo y/n did you get that shit on video" fez said. "y/n?" fez looked back

"where the fuck is she!" fez yelled

"we can't go back" fez yelled again.

"listen you stay here and i'll find her" ash said running back to the house. "hey ash"

"ash you came back!" random girls were saying while bash was running through everyone.

"y/n!" ash scream.

"yo did someone yell your name" rue said.

i looked at rue not knowing what she said because how high and drunk i was.

"y/n there you are!" ash said picking me up.

"wait where are you taking my best friend stranger!" rue said looking the opposite direction of where ash and i were.

ash was running with me in his arms.

"damn it stop moving!" ash yelled trying to stay focused.

"maybe you should let me go back with my home girl" i said dropping the joint on the ground.

ash got be in to the car and put me in the back seat.

"yo y/n i said no monkey business!" fez yelled.

i'm so sorry this chapter was so long!

i don't know if i should keep writing or not. this is getting worse and worse.

should i add scenes from euphoria, or keep going like this?

i hope you liked the book so far
