

Always Keep Your Eyes Foward

I looked at Faye and Fez walking inside and looked back at Ash, Ash was looking at me holding my hands. Then Ash went for it.

He kissed me, it was a very long kiss. His eyes were tight shut while he was moving his hands to my waist. once he pulled away from the kiss he told me. "i'm so sorry y/n" At this point i was confused.

"why are you sorry" i said bringing my hand up to the side of his face.

"i can't leave you alone again" Ash said looking down.

If I said i wasn't in love with Ashtray, I'd be joking. I love this man more than anything. He makes me forget all my problems in life, Not to mention but that kiss totally made me forget about the thoughts of killing myself. I truly hated life because everyone sees me as the "perfect" body and i get used a lot. I thought Ash was gonna do the same thing in the beginning. It feels truly good to know someone loves you in this world, and their right next to you.

Ash held my hand while we walked inside.

"what was taking y'all so long" Fez said having a blanket wrapped around him.

"probably making babys" Faye said giggling in the corner.

"Shut up Faye" ash said walking me to the bedroom. a

It was a normal night, Ash and I were watching the security cameras while Faye walked with a garbage bag.

"just taking out the trash" Faye said slowly.

Then me and Ash's favorite song came on so we got up and started dancing completely forgetting about the cameras.

"psst" Faye heard a voice.

"Custer?" Faye said squinting her eyes.

"come here" Custer was hiding behind a corner talking quietly as possible.

"what are you doing here?" Faye got scared.

"the cops found mouses body" Custer paused.

"and i'm helping find Ash and Fez"

"so your working with the cops?" Faye said

"what!? no!?"

"that's literally what you said, your working with the cops" Faye said looking around.

"shh. that's doesn't matter. just be ready. i'm coming over tomorrow okay" Custer stepped away slowly, while Faye walked back inside.

Once Faye walked through the door me and ash drew our attention on her.

"it's raining outside. i'm going to shower" she said dripped with water leaving trail marks.

weird thing is she didn't blink.

I looked at ash suspiciously, and he gave me the same look.

"is there away to check the cameras when Faye was outside" i said looking at ash and back to the computer.

"no.." ash looked around.

so then me and ash went along with our night. a
