

A Quick Update

It's been weeks in the basement, we've all been getting high and drunk. "Live young while you can!" you get told, but hanging out with my people. You wanna be young forever.

Fez's grandma kept a whole room full of weed. And when your in a room full of drug attic's, that's haven right there.

"who's getting high tonight!" Faye said dancing with bags of weed in her hand. I looked at Ash and looked back at Faye and smiled.

"We are!" i said standing up.

I kept getting the flashback when i was sleeping, I woke up scratching around my eyes. I found myself on top of ash, i looked around and Faye was on top of the kitchen counter and fez was on the couch. Faye was just started to get up, "i need more to drink" Faye mumbled. "damn Faye" i rubbed my nose. Ash woke up realizing i was on top of him. "where am i" he said looking at me in the eyes. "we've been living in heaven" Faye said getting o the counter to crack her back.

Ever since i started to live with Ash and Fez I really have forgotten about my family. I looked to find my phone and once i did there was a text message. multiple.
