

Journey to Happy Ending Chapter 101

"How does Edward truly feel about you? Is he with you because of Justin, or is it because he has fallen for you?" At that moment, Belinda vividly remembered the woman who made an intimate call to Edward. Could that be Daisy? Belinda recalled his affection for Daisy yesterday and figured that it was quite likely.

"I'm not sure. He said he would try to love me, and I just dropped all my defenses and jumped into his seductive trap without looking back." Daisy closed her eyes, thinking that at least Edward was sincere to her now. She decided to give him a chance despite the uncertainty. She decided to work for it no matter what the outcome. Perhaps by that time, she would finally lose all hope!

"I suppose he's serious! In the past few months, I haven't once read about any of his scandals. Is it possible that you are the woman who made the CEO of FX International reject all the other girls?"

Belinda paid attention to the papers. Stories about Edward's secret son had been quite the scoop, but nothing came of it because none of the involved parties gave a reaction to the rumor. Belinda didn't know it was Justin, so she always thought the stories involved another woman.

"I don't think they meant me! I've only been with him for the past few days. I sent Justin to his place and went straight to drills a while ago." Daisy was a bit concerned, worrying that he might have another woman he loved profoundly.

"Really? Then who else could it be?" The memory of the phone call again surfaced in Belinda's brain. She was doubtful, too.

"Nevermind, stop thinking about it. Let's go! Didn't you say we will go shopping? My time is in your hands today." Daisy didn't want to question the sincerity of Edward's claims. She would rather trust him than speculate infidelity.

"I'm nothing compared to the young girls out there." Although Belinda knew that she was still in her best marry." Daisy looked at her, amused that even Belinda could lose introduce me to a noble and handsome young man from the military base? I do want to get married! Otherwise, my father will set me up with some oddball." Belinda exclaimed with desperation because she was sure that Zachary would undoubtedly do such a thing. Her father was also got a girlfriend." Daisy thought about Kevin Gu, but she felt a girlfriend. There are only lazy mistresses, no unbreakable relation. Any mistress who's not lazy can successfully steal other girls' boyfriend." Belinda held Daisy's arm as they walked out was also a property of the FX International Group. It had a tremendous reputation, but Daisy didn't care about that too much. She came in only on one of the fancy dresses that Edward had bought for her. Instead, she chose a pair of fitted jeans and a long and loose blouse that she usually wear. She looked casual but was very excited because the latest trends and fashion easily swayed her. The Mall featured unique styles and products, so it was and calmly followed Belinda. She didn't care how others feel about her. All she wanted to Belinda pointed

and it also matches your complexion. Try it on if you like it!" Daisy was casually looking at the clothes. No one took notice of designed by L.N. this year. It brings out the feeling of European royalty. You must put it on; you'll look incredibly chic in it." The store clerk was giving a detailed description. She noticed the designer brands