

Journey to Happy Ending Chapter 102

"Daisy, look, is this one OK? Ouch..."screamed Belinda. She was coming out of the fitting room in a hurry, and she accidentally bumped into a woman.

"Ouch... What the fuck! Are you blind?" cursed Mary. She took a few steps backward to regain balance and immediately blurted out offensive words without noticing who she was talking to.

Belinda didn't answer back because she knew it was her fault. However, when she recognized the woman, she couldn't suppress her rage anymore.

"Hey, look, who it is? It's Miss Ouyang! Thank you for your generous hospitality last time! I truly enjoyed the dinner. How about you pay the bills again today?" said Belinda in a defiant tone. She smiled and thought, 'I did have fun last time. I guess she must have maxed out her credit card!'

"Belinda, it's you. Are you fleeing from somewhere again?" asked Mary.

She frowned and her eyes sparked with anger. She wanted to settle the score with Belinda right away.

"You're wrong, Mary. You are the one who needs to flee. After all, you have tried to steal another woman's man." answered Belinda. She arrogantly looked at Mary and thought, 'Humph! You always act weak and innocent in Edward's presence. Now you are revealing your true character?'

tried to steal another woman's man? I don't know what you are talking about." denied Mary. Her face darkened when she heard the word 'steal' because that was in fact what she had been

gave Mary a hostile said Mary arrogantly. She thought, 'Belinda said that I have tried to steal another woman's man. Did I steal her boyfriend? If I did, who was he?' She thought for a long time after that day, but she couldn't recall who Belinda was referring

Your last name may be Ouyang, but looked at Mary and thought, 'I don't like her. She is just a stepdaughter. But she considers herself to be the

She thought, 'I hate that Daisy is born with a dignified identity. That is why I effort to blend in with the upper class all these years. When I finally believed I had blended in, Belinda gave me a whop on the saying these words. Anyway, my last name is Ouyang now." Said Mary. She had to clench her fists real tight to stop herself make you invincible, Mary." said Belinda. She sneered and squinted said Mary. She got so furious at that moment that she almost slapped Belinda on her face. Right then are still so rude." A cold and indifferent voice rose from here. 'I thought she had disappeared since her wedding day. Why is she here