Journey to Happy Ending Chapter 137

"Daddy, you smell good." Justin took a deep breath to prove he wasn't lying, but it seemed that he was flattering his daddy.

"Little champ, you must keep on learning something new. Otherwise, how will you take over FX International Group in the future?" Edward wasn't fooled. He had seen through Justin's flattery.

Daisy looked at Edward, wondering whether Edward had already considered Justin as his only heir.

"Honey, what's wrong? Is my face still dirty? Noticing Daisy's gaze, he asked and touched his face.

"Oh, no. You and Justin go downstairs first. I need to wash up too." There were many doubts in Daisy's mind. 'Is Justin his only son? Will I be his only wife?' But Daisy didn't speak her mind.

"OK, hurry up. We'll wait downstairs." At times Daisy's behavior confused him, like that little daze. He didn't know what had caused that sadness. Sometimes he thought they were intimate like lovers, but there were moments when he felt they were strangers who couldn't get into each other's heart.

"OK. Will do." Daisy smiled and went upstairs.

slender figure. Although she looked great in the army uniform, his heart ached when thinking of how hard she had worked she got into the room, she saw his clothes thrown on the floor. She was annoyed, something wrong and had run looked at the evil woman and wondered what the hell she was doing in his home. She had brought a lot of luggage with her. Was she moving in? That would give Justin a nervous

Edward joked. The pretty girl ran away every time she made a mistake, but not to home. On her way back from a fashion show, she felt really exhausted. Imagining by?" Justin was happy. He didn't want a troublemaker like her in his house.

a couple of days. Won't you like that?" Leena knew what Justin was thinking. She paused on purpose and gave a cunning smile. 'Little Champ. Do you really think I don't know her to

was amazed to see how

at the woman in course! Do I look strange?" Seeing how surprised Leena was, Daisy checked her