

Journey to Happy Ending Chapter 66

Rain was utterly speechless. Why was he appointed when Belinda actually designated no one? For God's sake, he was already busy and occupied. But he couldn't refuse. He had to obey Edward unconditionally.

"I see. Please tell them that I'll go there in the afternoon." Massaging the acupuncture point between his eyebrows, Rain tried to calm himself down.

"Okay. Mr. Rain, is it really difficult to deal with Belinda?" Anna asked in curiosity. It seemed like everyone was trying to avoid that woman.

"Ha! Ha! Anna, you are also unexpectedly gossipy." Rain smirked. As far as he knew, Anna was always meticulous and would never ask anything other than work. He was very surprised at her sudden question.

"Forget it." Rain's laughter made Anna angry. She turned and strode away, but Rain laughed even more heartily.

Anna was embarrassed. She shouldn't have asked him about it. Instead of getting the answer, she made a shameful show of herself. She had forgotten that this guy was as mean and shameless as Mr. Mu.

Edward sneezed as if he knew what Anna was thinking. Why did he always get into trouble?

Daisy moved her sore body to pick up her ringing phone on the bed. At the sight of the caller's name, she threw the phone back and covered herself with the quilt, ignoring the call.

Edward took the phone down to check the number and was sure that it was Daisy's. This woman was playing hard-to-get again. 'She is still sleeping? Or she has been out without taking her phone?' At this thought, he called another number.

was

She answered in a cold, lazy voice.

is a call from Mr. Mu." Mrs. Wu walked in with the phone, wondering why Edward didn't call Daisy directly.

Thanks." Daisy took the phone, nodded to Mrs. Wu and could find her even if she didn't answer the phone. She was just like a trapped lamb, and Edward was the wolf. Recalling what Edward did be tired." Edward said gently with a beautiful grin. He knew that Daisy ignored his call casual tone. At first, she was happy that nothing happened last night. However, Edward forcibly had sex with her this morning and urged her to accept many unequal terms bad-tempered. Her tone had irritation written all over it. However, it was not his fault. She was so sexy that he couldn't he hungered for sex, but complained that Daisy was turned over in the bed, still a was becoming impatient. He had never tried so hard to flatter any woman, but she

How annoying

was becoming bored

report. Well, could you please add one more desk in the study?" She checked the study last night. She had to work in the study, but there was only couple of hours." Edward was overjoyed. They would work in the same study afterwards. Did it mean that they could also have sex