

Chapter 181 Couldn't Leave The rain was getting heavier and heavier, and the speed of many cars in front of them began to slow down. "Why don't you park the car at the temporary parking spot? I'll drive." Galilea turned to look at Micah who was still struggling. She was not worried about his life but was mainly worried about her own safety. "No need," the man said stubbornly, Galilea sighed and looked at the car in front of them. "Maintain the distance!" Micah did not seem to hear her. The car did not slow down at all and directly rushed out. Galilea tightened her seat belt and watched with her own eyes as Micah sped all the way. Finally, he endured the heavy rain and returned to the villa. As soon as they reached the door, Galilea could not keep quiet anymore. "Do you know how dangerous it was just now? You can't drive in this kind of weather. What were you trying to do?" A nameless fire surged in her heart. She didn't even look at Micah. She slammed the car door and walked inside. "The weather is so bad. I was afraid that something would happen to you guys on the road." Sister Zhang saw them come back and heaved a sigh of relief. Galilea forced a smile. However, after the food was served for a while, Micah did not come in. Galilea muttered and looked out. The car lights were still on, and she realized that something was wrong. "Sister Zhang, help me!" Micah had already lost consciousness in the car. His eyebrows were tightly knitted, and his palms and forehead were covered with sweat.

When the family doctor arrived, Micah was lying there, asleep. "How long has Mr. Lorenzo been like this?" "About half an hour, Sister Zhang answered carefully and asked nervously. "Is it serious?" "Well... The doctor shook his head. "It's hard to say. We have to go to the hospital for a comprehensive examination before we can make a conclusion." Galilea stood by the side with a cold face the entire time. After the family doctor prescribed the medicine and left, she also planned to leave. "Miss Frankie, are you leaving now?" Sister Zhang called out to her. "It's useless for me to stay here. Besides, he should be fine." Galilea said as she put on her coat. "But..." Sister Zhang hesitated, racked her brains, thought of a reason, and asked Galilea to stay, "If there is any special situation at night, I'm afraid I can't take care of him alone." "Then call Dayana to serve him. I don't have this obligation." If Sister Zhang hadn't been discharged today, she wouldn't have come at all. After Galilea finished speaking, she saw that Sister Zhang was a little disappointed and wondered if she had spoken too heavily. As she spoke, there was movement outside. "It's so late. Who could it be? Miss Frankie, I'll go take a look first. Please take care of Sir first." Sister Zhang went downstairs to open the door, so Galilea had to stay upstairs first. Her cold eyes stared at the man on the bed, wondering if she would have to bear the crime of murder if he suddenly died in the room. The night was full of light, and the atmosphere in the room was so quiet and soft. Galilea could no longer remember when she and Micah looked at each other like this last time. "Mr Lorenzo is not here? Then we will wait for him." Sister Zhang tried to stop them. *This is not appropriate. If Mr comes back, he will be unhappy." "Then there is no way How can he decide to send the Cosmos Corporation out alone!" Galilea looked at the living room through the gap between the door and the door. Several directors of the Lorenzo group visited late at night. They were all angry and sat on the sofa. "If we can't see Mr Lorenzo today, we won't leave." "Thats strango We clearly sow his car just now in the blink of an eye, he can disappear into thin air?" Someone said. Galilea frowned Did he take the risk to drive back just now because these people were chasing after him? She carefully closed the door

Chapter 181 Couldn't Leave In the next second, a figure appeared behind her. Micah lowered his head to look at her, one hand supporting the door as he warned in a low voice, "Don't go out yet." "The directors of your company are not monsters. I have nothing to be afraid of." Galilea snorted. "I am afraid, okay?" There was a hint of compromise in his voice. His hands fell on Galilea's shoulders, heavy and hot. She couldn't stand his weight and leaned back. She slammed into the wall, the pain causing her to take a deep breath. Just as she was about to raise her head to scold him, she saw Micah's face turn pale, weak and struggling to endure the pain. Galilea gritted her teeth and cursed in a low voice, using all her strength to drag him onto the bed. However, he seemed to be stuck to her body. She was unable to put him down no matter what. The only way was for the two of them to fall down together. "Micah, you better not play dumb with me. Otherwise... I will kill you." Galilea closed her eyes and leaned over to the side of the bed. The two of them fell onto the double bed with luxurious sheets. "You have the strength to get out of bed, but you don't have the strength to crawl back?" The more Galilea thought about it, the more she felt that he had done it on purpose. But he really had no reason to do so.

So what if she appeared in front of the directors? At most, she would argue with them that the Cosmos Corporation was the Frankie Family's company, to begin with.

Why were they occupying it? But then, it would be difficult for Galilea to revive the Cosmos Corporation. If the interests of the directors were damaged, they would definitely try to stop her. Was he thinking about this? Galilea struggled to get out of his arms. Her body was covered in sweat. She frowned again and stared at Micah on the bed. She turned and entered the bathroom. When the man on the bed heard the sound of the door closing, he slowly opened his eyes. The bottom of his eyes was bloodshot, revealing a terrifying coldness. He glanced in the direction of the bathroom, and his face eased a little. Only a few people knew that he transferred the Cosmos Corporation to Galilea. Who could it be, trying to sow discord between the directors and him? When Galilea came out of the bathroom, Micah was still lying on the bed in a coma. The people downstairs still had not left. She sighed helplessly. She probably wouldn't be able to leave tonight. She shifted her gaze back to the bed. If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have had to exert so much effort to move him onto the bed and throw him directly onto the ground. She would be able to sleep on the bed now. Galilea sat down on the sofa in the back, curled her neck, and felt a little uncomfortable.

But she was too tired, and soon fell asleep. When she opened her eyes again, the sky was bright. Galilea rubbed her sore neck and got up. There was no one on the bed. She was covered with a blanket, and there was the smell of the room on it.

As soon as Galilea opened the door, she heard a voice coming from downstairs. The directors had already left. Standing in the living room was a woman. Dayana?

She stood on the stairs and looked down. Dayana was wearing a plain dress and her hair was tied up. Her appearance was completely different from the usual Dayana.

On the contrary..

It was very similar to her in the past.

Galilea narrowed her eyes and simply stood there to watch for a while. Dayana's face, which was not too stunning, was not so delicate without makeup. However, her skin was white. She smiled with curved eyebrows and put the bowl of soup on the table. "My dad said that you have been working very hard recently and have a lot of things to do. He told me to take good care of you." "Didn't your dad disagree with our marriage?" Micah glanced at her with a blank expression,

Chapter 182 Don't Blame Her

"He was just too angry that day. That wasn't what he meant. He also felt that our matter had dragged on for too long. As a father, he naturally felt sorry for me." Dayana hurriedly explained. "You can understand him, right?" Dayana reached out and carefully tugged at Micah's sleeve. Micah shot her a glance. He pulled out his hand without a trace and said something random. "Who told you to dress like this? Go change it." Dayana bit the corner of her lips. "But I didn't bring any clothes." The last time she imitated Galilea's dressing, Micah was still very gentle to her.

But now...

"Then go back to Quincy family." He said this and got up to leave. "Micah, if you really don't like me, then let's end it. I'll go and abort the child in the afternoon." Dayana had no choice but to use her last move. "Although this child hasn't seen this world yet, I think it's destined that he won't be happy if we give birth to him like this."

She cried as she wiped her tears and pressured Micah. "I don't want him to be born in such a family." These words were not wrong at all.

Any man would feel sorry for her tears and apologize. However, Micah was an exception. "Okay, I will find the best doctor for you."

This was not what she wanted. All of a sudden, Dayana was stunned. Just as she was about to continue speaking, she saw a figure upstairs looking over. "Why is she here?" Dayana looked up. Micah also glanced upstairs. His eyes were deep and dark, and it was impossible to tell what he was thinking.

"Galilea, you are shameless!" Galilea ignored Dayana and walked down the stairs step by step. She walked straight to the two people and saw the bowl of soup on the table. "I made this for Micah with my own hands. You are not allowed to touch it." Dayana was so angry that she wanted to kill Galilea, However, with Micah here, she had to be a little careful. She could not really lose face. Before she came, her father had already said it. In the past few days, because of the matter with the Frankie family's company, Micah had been very unhappy with several directors. Perhaps Galilea stayed here because she kept pestering Micah to achieve her goal, and even offered herself? With this in mind, Dayana had a plan in mind. "Will he drink it? Besides, I don't care." Galilea chuckled. On the other side, Sister Zhang had already brought out the porridge that had been cooked. "Miss Frankie, have breakfast." "Thank you, Ms. Zhang." Galilea ate slowly in front of Dayana. "Micah, why is she living here again? She caused the conflict between you and the directors. If this goes on, your reputation will be ruined by her." With these words, Micah's eyes turned cold. He had never mentioned the matter of the directors knocking on his door last night to Dayana. She actually knew so clearly? The coldness between the man's eyebrows gradually deepened, and the atmosphere in the restaurant quietly changed. The only one who was not affected was Galilea. Dayana was so angry that she gritted her teeth. She clearly came to see Micah early in the morning to reconcile with him, but now it turned out to be like this.

It was all Galilea's fault! She was like a ghost that refused to die, which led to her relationship with Micah becoming worse. Galilea was full and had no time to listen to their quarrel. After saying goodbye to Sister Zhang, she naturally walked out of the villa door.

As soon as she stepped out of the door, she saw the familiar black commercial car in the distance. The corners of her mouth curved into a faint smile.

Chapter 182 Don't Blame Her Micah was truly a cuckold.

However, she had not thought of how to use this card for the time being. If Micah knew about it too early, it would be boring. With this in mind, she walked along the slope towards the city.

In the villa

"Micah, what I said just now was just words of anger. I have been under a lot of pressure during this period of time." Dayana was still crying.

"So?"

"I was under 100 much pressure, so I went to socialize with the directors."

"I was just going to eat. I didn't do anything else! I saw that Galilea was very close to Director Forrest."

She must have said something behind my back. Otherwise, Director Forrest wouldn't have invited me several times." Dayana looked at him and suddenly thought of something She couldn't find other excuses. So she threw the blame on others. "Dayana, what you said just now makes sense." Micah was already tired of listening to her quibbling. Dayana thought that she had persuaded him. "Micah, I knew that you still have me in your heart." "No, what I mean is, you should really think about it carefully. Do you want to keep this child? If you are going to give birth, I will obviously fulfill my duty. However, that family is not happy." His eyes turned cold. He didn't love Dayana, It was only because of this responsibility that he had given her a chance again and again.

But she had already exhausted all of his patience. "Micah, how can you..." Dayana cried out anxiously. Micah got up, picked up his coat, and strode out. Seeing that Dayana was pregnant, Ms. Zhang was afraid that she would cry badly, so she went forward to help her. Unexpectedly, she was pushed away by Dayana. "You bastard, how dare you touch me!" Dayana cursed. She stood up and chased after Micah. Unexpectedly, the moment she went out, she saw Micah turn around and stare at her coldly. Dayana trembled all over. She suddenly realized, "I, I didn't push her on purpose. ..." How could she have imagined that this servant had such a high status in Micah's eyes? This time, Micah was too lazy to say anything. He walked around Dayana with a cold face and helped Sister Zhang up Then, he closed the door directly. Dayana stood on the steps, her tears falling.

At the Lorenzo group's door. Galilea was wearing a cap and holding the morning newspaper in her hand, "The Lorenzo group has a serious internal disagreement. The stock price has dropped a bit." "The development case in the western part of the city might be temporarily suspended." She looked up at the cloudless sky. Nice weather, and nice mood. Soon, the cars of the directors drove into the parking lot. Galilea locked onto a few of them. Last night, it was them who forced her to not go home. Since they cared so much about the Frankie family, then she had to deal with them Galilea looked left and right, passed through the underground street and went straight to the Lorenzo group building. "Which department are you from?" The patrolling security guard called out to her. Galilea immediately raised her head and revealed a pure and harmless smile. "The Publicity Department, my name is Lyla." She said it naturally and even knew that it was a small path that only employees who were late would take. After a few turns, she went around the building The security guard only took her as one of his own. He walked over and patted the face recognition machine. He took out his walkie-talkie and shouted, "B2's machine is broken again."

Chapter 183 Not Accepting His Kindness

Galilea wore a cap and walked into the cargo ladder, openly entering the Lorenzo group No one stopped her.

Galilea glanced around and saw a short and stout man who was bald in the distance. It was him Yesterday in Micah's villa, she saw very clearly that the man's head was reflecting light She had investigated the Lorenzo group's layout. The meeting room was on this floor. In other words, there might be a board meeting today These old guys would probably gather together against Micah. Galilea lowered her head and walked over. She just happened to see the door of the tea room open, and the comers of her lips rose 1 have no choice My luck is just so good."

"Mr Lorenzo, someone sneaked into the company. When Keith received the report, he immediately went to the office. "Speak

The man saw that he wanted to say something but hesitated, and his eyebrows furrowed. "Director Li and Director Bai were sent to the hospital because of food poisoning. They checked the surveillance video and found that before the meeting, someone had sneaked into the tea room and changed their tea leaves. This was the negligence of the security department. Keith had already sent people to investigate in time. The Lorenzo group's investigation speed had always been very fast, but he could not make the decision because of the intruder's identity. A cold light flashed between Micah's eyes, and a name came out from his lips. "Galilea Frankie?" "Yes." Keith lowered his head. "Send someone to the hospital to check on them. For the time being... Before he could finish, Director Bai's assistant knocked on the door in a hurry. "Mr. Lorenzo, Director Bai has woken up. He said that he saw a suspect when the incident happened. It was your ex-wife, Galilea. After the assistant finished speaking, he did not dare to look at Micah's gloomy face. He was still holding a mobile phone in his hand, talking on the phone. Micah didn't need to ask to know who the person was. He put down the pen and raised his hand. Before the assistant could react, Keith had already turned around and handed the phone to Micah. "Keith, you must tell Mr. Lorenzo. I saw it very clearly. It was that woman. She must have taken revenge on me because of the Cosmos Corporation! I will definitely not let this matter go. I will pursue this matter to the end." On the other side, Chairman Bai did not know that he was talking to someone else already and was still cursing in exasperation. "That slut, she still thinks that she can make a comeback? I will definitely not let her continue to stay in Cloud Town." "Chairman Bai, are you done?" Micah opened his mouth, his voice full of coldness. "Mr. Lorenzo?" Chairman Bai was suddenly stunned. "Mr. Lorenzo, you have to help us. Old Li and I are already so old, we can't stand such a torment. Food poisoning is not a small matter. The doctor said that our situation is very dangerous." These words were obviously to force him to investigate the matter. Micah turned around and looked at the city scenery outside the window. "Chairman Bai is full of energy. He doesn't seem to be in any trouble at all." "Laher, I was angry." "Rest well in the hospital. You don't have to worry about other things for the time being. The man's eyes were as cold as ice. "Anything else?" Before Chairman Bai could react, the phone had already been hung up. Micah threw the phone over and walked straight out of the office. Assistant Xiao Zhang was confused. He followed behind Keith and asked in a low voice. "Keith, what does Mr. Lorenzo mean? Keith glanced at his ignorant face and said lightly. What he means is, let Chairman Bai stay in the hospital for a few more days and recuperate. Don't worry about anything else." "Anything else? Xiao Zhang blinked. "It means he shouldn't do any business. For example, if a reporter went to interview him, he would not talk about it. For example, whether Cosmos Corporation would return it to Galilea or not had nothing to do with him. All in all, it was to make him and Director Li shut up and take care of themselves. "Has she left now?" Micah entered the elevator and asked when he saw Keith follow him in. "Partly not yet with topline without any confidence. Heater did not intend to do this kind of thing and did not quickly slip out. Would the solution in the Lorenzo group the surveillance cameras were also turned off Galilea immediately frowned Micah already know? And he even let her go so arrogantly Bellunod to accept Micolis good intentions She turned around and wanted to take the elevator upstairs, She went out of the first floor of the Lorenzo group However, just as she was about to move, a car stopped beside her The car window rolled down, and a cold male profile appeared, 'Get in Galilea did not move 'They might have already called the police. Why aren't you leaving? Are you planning to go in and drink tea?' He glanced over, his eyes cold "There's no need for you to pretend to be kind.' Galilea frowned awkwardly and lowered the brim of her hat She walked out on foot Micolis Cor was following her from behind. It was as if he had predicted that she would go back on her word The moment Galilea opened the car door, she clearly saw a smile flash across the man's lips, "I want to hide from the reporters. Delore the oven left the parking lot, she could already see the reporters surrounding the Lorenzo group's door Galilea closed the car door and said with a cold face, 'I really don't know what big news is there."

"You should be very clear about this matter.'

The man turned the steering wheel and drove out of the Lorenzo group from the side door while the reporters were not paying attention

She was clear?

Galilea thought for a moment. Perhaps it was because of the money of the Frankie Corporation if Micah gave the company back to her those greedy directors would definitely try their best to pressure him. Galilea looked out the window and asked slowly. "You can tell them that the company was given in exchange of Terry's reputation not for the fact that Terry was in cahoots with Director Forrest, I wouldn't have won so easily Micolis looked at the road ahead and did not make a sound, Seeing that he did not probe anything, Galilea stopped smoking With Micolis temper he should not know the relationship between Terry and Dayana, Galilea tilted her head and began to look forward to that day Soon, Micolis parked the car downstairs of the apartment this More's house? He asked directly on the spot and opened the door to leave

"No Galilea denied subconsciously She did not want to affect Nore again because of her She did not know if Micah believed her. His eyes looked deeply at her, then he closed the window and drove away Galilea stood where she was and slowly moved up the stairs

There was only one thing in her mind. Micah knew that she was making trouble, so why didn't he stop her? After thinking for a whole night, Galilea figured it out. She was impulsive and went to teach the two directors a lesson, but she also helped Micolis to clear the obstacles. "Profiteer The Lorenzo group Building, "Mr Lorenzo, the company's security system has been upgraded and replaced with the original loopholes. Now even a mosquito can't fly in' Only after Keith had investigated thoroughly did he have the confidence to say this. Micah raised his eyebrows and said nothing, On the sofa sat Chairman Bai and Chairman Li. They had just been discharged from the hospital when they were called to the company "Mr Lorenzo, we are both victims in this matter. You have to help us " The two of them sat on the sofa nervously Hearing this, Micah looked up and said, 'I told you don't interfere in this matter anymore "But that Galilea is doing this to provoke the Lorenzo group' Director Li choked out this sentence after a long time. They finally saw it clearly Micah was really just like the rumors, still thinking about his ex-wife, so he absolutely could not make decisions for them. For a moment, the atmosphere in the office was very awkward. From the moment they entered, Micah had a cold expression on his face, *If you hadn't insisted on returning the Cosmos Corporation to her, things wouldn't have turned out this way. If not for the public relations department's quick actions, the news of the Lorenzo group having an intruder would have spread like wildfire in the city. Do you understand? The light in his eyes suddenly became sharp, and the invisible deterrent force he emitted was enough to crush one's soul. *I warned you all long ago not to touch this matter." The two old directors lowered their heads in guilt. They really wanted to use the connections they had accumulated in the business field over the years to pressure Cosmos Corporation, borrow the power of the media to make Micah withdraw his order. It turned out that Micah had already seen through it. Even if Galilea did not make such a scene, they would be severely punished. If they were to be punished by either Galilea or Micah, they would rather be poisoned by food! If Micah made a move, they would not be able to survive. 'Mr Lorenzo, we will never mention this again. We will never pursue this matter in the future. The two of them promised each other and dragged each other out the door. They fled, "Mr. Lorenzo, are we still going to send people to keep an eye on them?" Keith asked. "No need, Micah said indifferently He did not have the leisure to do so. When Jasper heard that Galilea had caused a scene in the Lorenzo group's office, he immediately came over to watch the show. Only he dared to tease Micah in his office. "Your ex-wife is quite a character." "Have you said enough? Micah narrowed his eyes, somewhat unhappy "I have something important to discuss with you. Do you want to give up the land in the western city district of your company? Jasper asked.

'No'

Micah did not even think about it. Jasper was not in a hurry, as if he had expected this response, but he directly took out a stack of materials, 'What if Galilea wants it? Will you give it to her?' he asked, This time, Micah did not make a sound. He just took the materials to look at them, His fingers rubbed the paper, and his eyes showed a little coldness. The next second, he called Keith Chapter 184 No Impenetrable Wall No matter how tightly the news was blocked, there was no impenetrable wall Galilea watched from afar as the Lorenzo group strengthened the security. She smiled with satisfaction Even if she inadvertently helped Micah, it did not affect her to make the Lorenzo group suffer Just as she was about to turn around and leave, someone blocked her way 'Miss Frankie, our boss wants to see you." "I don't know your boss' Galilea frowned. Was she was targeted by someone? She subconsciously stepped back a little However, the other party seemed to have expected her thoughts. He stepped forward and surrounded her 'Miss Frankie, please Helplessly, Galilea was brought to a tea room near the Lorenzo group Before entering, Galilea had a premonition in her heart. She saw the other person's face clearly and frowned. She glanced to the side, trying to find someone. "Miss Frankie, you don't have to be so nervous Sit down first' Huairen smiled slightly, his eyes showing goodwill.

But he was after all the Lorenzo group's man, Micah's second uncle. Galilea didn't show it on her face, but she became more vigilant in her heart. "No matter what, we used to be a family. I know you better than them. You just want to teach them a lesson, and you won't really do anything bad" Huairen said and poured a cup of tea for Galilea. For a moment, the fragrance of the tea overflowed, and with the classical music in the store, Galilea's heart gradually calmed down Huairen tasted the tea in his cup, took out an invitation card, and handed it to Galilea. "Actually, I support returning the company to you. After all, it is your father's work. This invitation card, you accept it. It can be considered a late gift Galilea glanced at the invitation card of the Lolin Summit. The business meeting held once every five years would be held. The business elites of the four cities around would be present. With the current debt of the Frankie family, they were not qualified to participate. Galilea was not a greedy person. Instead of taking it, she looked up and asked, "Why are you helping me?" Helping her was equivalent to opposing Micah. That was his nephew. Moreover, she was basically standing on the opposite side of the Lorenzo group now. Huaien should not help her. "I'm old, and my thoughts may be different from the thoughts of you young people. It's better to take a step back than to go against each other. If you and Micah can turn the hostility into friendship, I will be relieved. This tea is not bad. Try it again: Galilea watched him walk away and slowly looked at the invitation. Go?

It was not because she was hesitant about this opportunity, but because it was given by Lorenzo family. She was afraid that if she took it, she would be criticized. But if she went, she might be able to find a better opportunity to make the Frankie Group rise again. This was what Galilea needed the most. In the end, Galilea gritted her teeth and threw the invitation into her pocket. Anyway, she had nothing to lose now. Two days later, in the morning of the Lolin Summit. Just as Galilea got out of the taxi, she saw many luxury cars parked outside the venue. The people who attended the meeting were all high-class business people.

Galilea looked down at her clothes. Black jeans and a short trench coat, the style was really inconsistent with the style here.

It was no wonder that there would be people looking at her from time to time. She slowly sighed. Since she was here, she could not retreat. "Is that Micah's ex-wife? What right does she have to participate!?"

Chapter 185 Lubi Family's Daughter-In-Law?

There were even some more unbearable discussions that kept on going into Galilea's ears. "I heard that she even went to live with Lorenzo family for a few days I really don't know why she's so shameless! Then did Micah bring her here today?"

"How is that possible?"

"So she tried her best to suck to him? How ridiculous!"

Galilea came to the registration counter at the door. "What is the company name?" The staff asked.

"The Frankie Group" Galilea replied firmly. Her eyes were full of calm light she did not need to explain anything to these people. What she needed to do was to tell everyone that the Frankie Group was going to make a comeback! However, things were far more difficult than she had imagined. After registering, she took the number plate and walked into the venue. She was stopped by someone "The standard of the Lolin Summit is so low now? All the cats and dogs are allowed to enter, and even the Frankie Group? Ha, two years ago, the company collapsed and died. Now, it appeared out of thin air again? "Young Master Williams, don't say too much. Maybe she has a strong background. After all, she is Creek Club's person." *That's true. As the other party spoke, his gaze drifted over to Galilea with ill intentions. His gaze was humiliating. He was Yu Ya's older brother, Hanyu. He had long heard from his younger sister that the Williams Family and Lubi family's business marriage was ruined by Galilea.

Today, he had to teach Galilea a lesson. Unfortunately, Galilea was not the kind of rich young lady they thought she was. She was not as timid as they had expected, nor was she angry. She just stared coldly at him and said, "I also did not expect that people who are qualified to participate in the Lolin Summit would bark like dogs.

Who are you talking about? 'The one being talked about should know.' The surroundings were quiet and there was no hesitation in Galilea's voice. "Is this how a young lady talks?" Someone whispered.

However, they had to admit that Galilea's reaction made Young Master Williams and the others shut their mouths. In the distance, two figures were looking over. "Leave them be? Hanyu came today on behalf of the Williams Group. The people around him are all people who want to curry favor with the Williams family. They can't do anything good when they are together, Jasper said in a low voice. A bunch of playboys, plus, the Williams family did have some disputes with Galilea. That entanglement was related to Nore. What does it have to do with me? Micah said coldly "Well, that's what you say. But you will probably embarrass Hanyu in public and avenge Miss Frankie later” Jasper held back his laughter and elbowed him. Micah’s thoughts were exposed and he turned his head away. However, Jasper suddenly noticed that the few of them were closer to Galilea. “Young Master Lorenzo, I don’t think you should wait...” Before he finished speaking, the man beside him had already walked over quickly. However, he had only taken a few steps when he stopped. Because someone was one step ahead of him and protected Galilea behind him. Micah couldn’t help but frown. A step too late? His hands slowly tightened under his sleeves, and his handsome face concealed his indifferent disappointment. “Nore? Galilea looked at the man in front of her and finally reacted.

In her impression, Nore rarely wore a suit, and it was such a formal style. In addition, he had changed his hairstyle. He was no longer so unrestrained but had a hint of maturity and charm. ‘Let’s talk later. Nore ignored the surrounding gazes and held Galilea’s hand.

Chapter 185 Lubi Family’s Daughter-In-Law? “Hanyu, you dare to touch my person?” Nore spat out these words, his long and narrow eyes full of fierceness.

“Mr. Lubi...”

The few rich second generations behind Hanyu hesitated. After looking at each other, they all took half a step back. After all, compared to Lubi family’s strength, the few of them added up was not enough.

Moreover, they all knew Nore’s nickname in the circle.

He was the kind of man that would go all out when he was angry, so it was better to not provoke him.

Hanyu looked left and right, gritted his teeth, and rushed forward. “I touched her. What can you do?”

The corners of his mouth curled into a smile, “What relationship do you have with her? You are so protective of her. Besides, the Lolin Summit is about to begin. If you hit me, can you still get in?”

He did not believe that Nore would lose his mind for Galilea and make a move in public. “Come on, hit me. At most, we both won’t be allowed to enter” Hanyu smiled provocatively.

Galilea was also worried.

“Nore, forget it.” She lugged at him from behind. “Ignore this kind of person,” she said. “Scram to the side. You have no right to speak!” Hanyu roared at Galilea.

The next second, his collar was grabbed by Nore. “Mr. Lubi, so many people are looking at you. If you hit me, I will sue you...” “The Williams Group is also fighting for the joint development rights of the Lorenzo group’s land, right?” Nore lowered his voice and only let Hanyu hear it. He said a few more words, and Hanyu was immediately stunned. After Nore let go, he staggered a few steps back. “Let’s go.” Nore turned around and pulled Galilea. “What did you say to him just now?” Galilea nodded and followed. Nore deliberately raised his eyebrows, but did not tell Galilea. Instead, he said, “How was I? Cooler than ever?”

“Sure, you would be even cooler if you didn’t ask me the question.” Galilea listened to his joking tone and smiled. The two of them walked side by side into the venue. The people who had just been watching the show had also dispersed.

“I heard that Lubi family’s business has been handed over to Nore. Lubi family only has one son, and he is quite competitive.” Jasper muttered thoughtfully. “Competitive?”

Micah glanced at him coldly. “He’s young, has strength, and is quite handsome. Previously, Xu Ya spent so much effort trying to pounce on him. I just don’t know if Lubi family likes Galilea.” Jasper raised his eyebrows. Micah’s face immediately darkened and he quickened his pace to enter the venue. He exuded a cold aura. After entering, he was brought to the first row by the staff. As for Galilea, she was sitting very far behind, and Nore refused to go to the front, so he sat with her. “Don’t you need to go to the front?” Galilea whispered. “No need” Nore shook his head.

“Then...”

“Did you eat breakfast? Definitely not. I brought you snacks. Come, give me your hands. Nore turned his head. Galilea stretched out her hand, and a few pieces of dessert fell into her hand. “I’ve already prepared them for you,” he said, blinking mysteriously. Galilea was amused and thanked him softly, The two of them were talking and laughing, completely different from the people at the front, “Could it be that she is going to become Lubi family’s daughter-in-law?” someone muttered in a low voice.

Chapter 186 Trampled

Those words gripped Micah’s ears tightly. She deliberately wanted to show off her love in public to make him the focus of everyone’s discussion, or did she change her mind and really want to marry Nore! Micah fiercely pinched his palm, unable to restrain his surging anger. When Keith came forward to report, he did not dare to look at Micah’s expression. “Mr. Lorenzo, this is a document for later.” Micah slowly closed his eyes and calmed his emotions. When he opened his eyes again, there was a deep indifference. Who Galilea was with what did it have to do with him! *Do the Lubi family and the Williams family both want the development rights of this land? Micah asked casually ‘Yes, we can basically confirm it. Keith adjusted his frame glasses. “I won’t give it to either of them. With one sentence, he could decide the direction of the entire situation. “Then. Keith did not quite understand what his CEO meant. Micah raised his hand, and Keith immediately bent down. Although he was surprised to hear Micah’s instructions in a low voice, he still nodded, “I will do it now.”

Then, the Lolin Summit officially began. All the processes were arranged in order, and Galilea worked hard to learn. This kind of opportunity was not always available. But some people seemed to be much more relaxed. For example, the man sitting in the first row. People would come forward to talk to him from time to time. Galilea could not see his face, but from his back and posture, and the side profile that occasionally showed, she could feel the unruly and relaxed manner in his gestures, He could develop the Lorenzo group to the scale of today, and he was not comparable to ordinary people. The people present were already the newcomers of the business industry, but they still had to rely on him. The gap was not something that could be caught up in a day and a night. Galilea’s heart was twisted. Only at this moment did she truly realize the distance between her and Micah, “Galilea, it’s almost time for the auction.’ Nore saw that she was absent-minded and reminded her. *Oh, okay Galilea perked up and watched the president of the Chamber of Commerce walk straight to Micah. After asking a few questions, he said in a clear voice, This time, the auction project is the joint development rights of the West City District project. In order to not hurt the harmony, the Lorenzo group decided to choose a partner by drawing lots.’ Not hurt the harmony? Galilea frowned. Would Micah care about the feelings of others? *There is such a good thing? Then do we also have a chance?’ The person sitting in the back row said excitedly, ‘If I get selected, it will be the luck of my life.

What if I get selected but not qualified to take this project? After all, not everyone has the ability to cooperate with the Lorenzo group. Everyone knew Micah’s strength. If the cooperation was not smooth, it was likely that the small company would be directly flattened. “In fact, the Lorenzo group can finish the project alone. This is just to make people happy! Galilea listened to these words and looked at Nore beside him. ‘Is Lubi Enterprises also interested in this project?’ She had done her homework before coming here Lubi Enterprises had shown many hints to the Lorenzo group, but the Lorenzo group’s attitude had been wavering ‘There’s something fishy about this.” Nore nodded and his lips moved slightly. Why did the set process suddenly change? “Now, please go on stage, Mr. Lorenzo!” With this shout, Micah slowly got up and buttoned up his suit. His tall and straight figure was simply a natural clothing rack. He went on stage and turned around. His gaze was sharp and intimidating, and it gave off a chill as it swept across the entire arena. For a moment, all the discussions stopped. Galilea looked up and saw that their gazes met in the air. She actually saw a hint of a smile on his face.

It was an expression that looked down on everything and was filled with ridicule, causing one's heart to panic. In a flash, his eyes became cold. Under the guidance of the staff, his hand reached into the box.

"Mr Lorenzo, may I ask who your partner is?" The president of the Chamber of Commerce asked with a smile. This was a request that the Lorenzo group had made at the last minute. Although they had some doubts, they could only comply.

Chapter 186 Trampled The man looked at the note and moved his lips, "the Frankie Group

This sound shook Galilea's heart!

What was he saying? "Oh my god, isn't that his ex-wife's company?"

This is really false

What fate? No, it was all staged!

Director Frankie, please come on stage. A staff member came to invite Galilea. At this time, Galilea was very confused and did not know what to do. "Don't be afraid, I will accompany you from behind." Nore frowned and got up. Galilea nodded slowly and could only bite the bullet. In public, even if Micah had extraordinary abilities, he could not really do anything to her. But this was only Galilea's thought before she went on stage. When she really stood on the stage and stood beside the man, the feeling of oppression was completely different from what she imagined. She only felt her heart thumping. All the sounds in her ears became hozy.

It was not that she had not experienced such a big scene, but for some reason, everything today made her feel like she was on the clouds.

The staff handed over two contracts, "Mr Lorenzo, Director Frankie, after signing, the two sides will be the partners for the public construction project in the West City District. I wish the two of you smooth cooperation: 'Sign it and the Frankle Group will be able to come back to life,' said Micah, sizing her up from a distance of one meter.

Thump.

The string in Galilea's heart finally broke. She was still being played by him in the palm of his hand. He caused the bankruptcy and he caused the comeback. As for her, she was being pinned down everywhere and thought that she had won, but in the end, Galilea's hesitation was imprinted in the man's eyes. He said lightly. "Or are you going to give up this cooperation opportunity because of pride?"

. Galilea tightened her grip on the pen.

"This is not cooperation at all, it is charity!" Galilea stared at him fiercely, but no matter how angry she was, the man's face remained as cold as ice, invulnerable. "Galilea, you don't have your father's courage. Even if the Frankie family returns to you, you will not be able to make a difference." As he said this, he signed his name on the paper. The handwriting was smooth and elegant. The audience whispered. "What's going on? Why isn't she signing?" "She doesn't even want a pie falling from the sky. Is her brain broken?" Galilea felt countless mocking gazes on her. Below the stage, Nore only wanted to rush up to help her, However, he was stopped by Keith. "Mr. Lubl should also know how rare this opportunity is for the Frankle Group, In other words, this was a way for Galilea to live. The price was that she had to pay her dignity and pride. 'This choice should be made by her herself: Nore's raised hand finally dropped, On the stage, the signed contract in Micah's hand had already been sent to Galilea, but she still did not start writing.

Director Frankie, are you signing or not?

Chapter 187 There Was No Need for That

“Director Franke, please think about it quickly. We still have to continue the process. The staff member kindly reminded her that she could not make so many people want here Opposite Galilea, Micah’s face was very serious. “! you are aloud, go out From now on, there will be no place for the Frankie family Every word he said pieced into Galilea’s heart like a knife. She kept saying that she wanted to revive the Frankie family, but did she really have the ability? Even if Micah gave her a chance, she seemed to be unable to grasp it Galilea’s hand that held the pen trembled slightly “Galilea ‘Note wanted to rush up, but he was stopped. ” ‘Mt. Lubi, there are some things that you can’t help with There were more and more chaotic discussions below the stage Galilea clutched the pen and heard another sentence, ‘It was you who didn’t want this opportunity. In the future, dont kneel down and beg me *ill sign!

Galilea gritted her teeth and signed her name as fast as she could. Micah raised his eyebrows and chuckled, “You can’t go back on your word if you sign it’ He once again took the initiative in this revenge game. However, Galilea only panicked for a few seconds before she regained her senses. She handed the signed contract to the man and said, ‘I never regret what I do, unlike some people who would even treat marriage as a child’s play and turn it into a bargaining chip for revenge.”

The light in Micah’s eyes suddenly became sharp. “This time, I hope that Mr. Lorenzo will not regret it After signing the contract, Galilea got up and left the stage, leaving everyone with a determined back Only when she entered the bathroom and closed the door did she slowly sigh. Her palms were already sweaty. Micah’s move made her unable to understand his intentions. Why did he give the Frankie family a chance to make a comeback? In order to destroy her life again, or to make the Frankie family a thorn in the eyes of other companies, so that he could make the Frankie family disappear again without any effort? Either way, it did not seem to have any benefits for Galilea. However, if she did not accept it, it was equivalent to giving up on the opportunity for nothing. It would also make everyone laugh at her for being a coward It turned out that a single decision from that man could force her into a dilemma. Galilea tured on the top and used ice water to splash her face. “There’s nothing to be afraid of *As long as you persevere,” she bit her lips. Sooner or later, the situation would be overturned. She returned to the venue once again. There was a temporary break Everyone sat in their seats. When they saw Galilea walk in, they discussed animatedly. How dare she sign it? Does the Frankie family have the ability to take over the project? I heard that she is the only one in that company “Free ple for her. I don’t know what kind of luck she gou!” ‘She thought about it for so long on the stage just now. Was she scared silly?’ “Maybe she was thinking of how to use this opportunity to get close to Micah so that she can rekindle their relationship In their eyes, since Galileo got help from the Lorenzo group, she could revive the company casily. Galilea just listened, and there was no hesitation on her fair and beautiful face

“Are you okay? Nore immediately found Galilea, and his face was full of worry “You don’t have to worry about me.’ Galilea shook her head and smiled. “You should worry about yourself now. Lubi Enterprises didn’t get this cooperation case. Is it okay?” “My dad didn’t expect the Lorenzo group to suddenly change the rules,’ Nore said with a frown, Everyone present should have felt that Micah seemed to be doing this intentionally He wanted the Frankie family to be chosen

Chapter 187 There Was No Need for That Even if the crowd had some complaints in their hearts, they wouldnt dare to rush at Micah That would undoubtedly be courung death. Therefore, everyone would shit their jealousy and dissousfaction to Galilea. For a long time in the future, her days would not be easy. Moreover, if there were any problems in the project Galilea would be the scapegoal. If she was not careful, she would lose everything. "He did it on purpose

He just wants to see me lower my head and beg him for mercy, Galilea said lightly. Nore's heart froze, and he was even more worried about her. "Don't worry. Since I dared to sign, I have already thought of how to fight back." "You Nore wanted to ask again." "Director Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo is waiting for you in the conference room upstairs. There are some specific details of the cooperation that you need to talk to him face to face," said Keith. "Okay," said Galilea, who was already mentally prepared. She got up and followed Keith. When she opened the door, she saw that Micah was alone in the conference room. The smile in her eyes grew wider and wider. "Mr. Lorenzo has gone through so much trouble. Don't you feel tired?" "The game is just about to be fun, how can I be tired?" Micah turned around, the coldness in his eyes stronger than the wind outside the window. "The Frankie family is just an empty shell now, you can take this project. He said condescendingly, waiting for her to kneel and beg for mercy. Although Galilea's reaction just now was pretty strong, it could not change the fact that she didn't have the real strength. As long as the Lorenzo group made a complaint, she could be sent to court. Galilea looked up at him and slowly moved the corners of her lips. Mr. Lorenzo's words were too absolute. How do you know that the Frankie family have no ability to take this project? What's more, the election rules this time were proposed by the Lorenzo group. If I guessed correctly, all the cards in the box should be the Frankie Group. Galilea said with certainty, her eyes staring straight at the man. She reminded herself several times in her heart not to rush, to think clearly, there must be a loophole to exploit! Micah was also a human, he was not a god, even if his power was monstrous, there would always be something he was careless about. With this, Galilea straightened her back even more. As long as she didn't give up, she wouldn't lose. After a long time of confrontation, the two of them didn't speak again. A fierce look flashed through Micah's eyes. He had to admit that Galilea was more courageous than most people he had seen. He suddenly had the interest to continue the conversation, it was not to torture her but to listen to her response. The door of the conference room was closed. Keith stood guard outside the door. Not long after, someone rushed over, "Where is Micah?" Dayana frowned and was about to rush in. "Miss Quincy, Mr. Lorenzo is talking business right now. Please wait outside. Keith said dutifully. "You want me to wait? Get out of the way!"

Micah, come out, I know you are inside. I also know that Galilea is inside. Why did you close the door? What are you doing?" Dayana asked anxiously. In the conference room, Galilea smiled gently. She was the one who revealed the news to Dayana.

Although it was on an anonymous method, she did not expect her to come so quickly. "Is this what you called ability?" Micah said coldly, anger spreading in his eyes.

Chapter 188 Engagement?

"I don't quite understand what Mr. Lorenzo means, but it seems that we can't continue to talk. Mr. Lorenzo should think about how to explain this to your wife.

He could casually think of a way to push her to the forefront.

She could also borrow Quincy family's hand to make him uncomfortable. A good project was given to the Frankie family. Lachlan was not a fool. When he heard the news, he would naturally ask Dayana to come and find out. In the business world, she was much worse than Micah, but in terms of understanding women's thoughts, Galilea was better. "Micah, open the door. Dayana shouted persistently, almost jumping up and smashing the door. "Alright, be quiet. There are still so many people outside." Wendy, who was following behind, carefully pulled her. "So what? Who knows what tricks Galilea used to make Micah give such a big project to her? How shameless. I must. Before she could finish her words, the door opened from the inside Galilea looked up and glanced at Dayano, 'Miss Quincy should be more careful with her words. Slandering is a crime. Moreover the lawsuit against you has not been cleared yet. Take it easy, otherwise, the police will come to you at any time.' Dayana was so angry that her face turned green and white. However, she was not as smart as Galilea and her mouth was not good.

She could only watch Galilea leave. She turned around and rushed straight into the conference room. 'Micah, why did you do that? Not only did you return the stupid company to her, but you also gave her such a big project. Do you still have feelings for her? "Have you said enough?' The coldness in Micah's eyes became even stronger.

Quincy family's threat was not enough for him to pay attention to. However, Dayana was pregnant with his child after all. It was really a headache for him to deal with her. "Micah, I don't want to make a scene like this either, but if you get too close to Galilea, what will others think of me? Do you really not think about me at all?" Dayana lowered her head and shed a few tears.

She was so weak that Micah could not say anything harsh. "It's just business, nothing else.' He walked over, his tone still calm. Dayana sobbed a few times, raised her head, and looked at him shyly, 'Really? Micah did not speak again "That's good. On the way here, I heard that Galilea is about to get engaged to Nore. If there is any scandal between you and her, it will definitely affect you. How bad would that be?' Dayana threw herself into his arms. 'Engaged?' Micah's hand slowly tightened. Dayana leaned in his arms and murmured, "Yes, when I came, I happened to meet Mrs. Lubi. She said that she wanted to take Galilea to try on the dress.' There was no response for a long time. Dayana's sobbing gradually stopped. No man would pick up a used woman. Aman as proud and outstanding as Micah was even more so. That Galilea was no longer worthy! Outside the entrance of the venue

Galilea was pulled by Nore to Lucy *Alter Nore was discharged from the hospital, his father and I missed you very much. You always say that you are busy, but you never come and visit Galilea looked at Nore with a pleading look

She did decline several invitations, mainly because she did not know what to say after meeting them, After thinking about it she thought it was better to not see them Who would have thought that Lucy would come here today? 'When will you guys finish? I will wait for you here Tonight, we must have a meal together! The mare Lucy looked at Galilea now, the more she liked her In addition, since the car accident, Nore had been focused on taking care of his family business This was also what the couple wanted to see the most. And all of this was because of Galileo, so Lucy sincerely liked Galilea right now. She wished that they could get married right away

Chapter 103 Engagement? The gossip outside was not important. The most important thing was that her son worked hard. Moreover, she heard that Micah had never even gone home when he was married to Galilea That marriage was just an empty title Well Galles smiled and elbowed Nore from behind. Mom Galues got a big project today. She should be busy until late. Next time. Nore grinned. In the distance, Micah was seeing Dayana off. As soon as he came out, he saw them standing outside the door, chatting happily 'lock, I didn't say anything wrong, right? Micah, you better not get involved with her in the future.' Dayana raised her chin. She deliberately provoked him There was no warmth in Micah's eyes. After sending Dayana into the car, he directly turned around and walked over. Director Frankie, we still have things to talk about just now His face was as cold as an iceberg, and his tone was also very aggressive. Galilea knew that he was coming for her, so she frowned and asked, 'Mr. Lorenzo is a workaholic himself, so he won't let others rest either? She pushed it back bluntly. However, Micah directly reached out to pull her over. In his dictionary, there was no such word as invite'. "Mr. Lorenzo, you should have heard what she said. She doesn't want to talk right now.' Nore was one step ahead and blocked his hand. He took two steps forward, separating Micah and Galilea. Even if it was for business, he should give people time to rest. What's more, Micah was doing this for personal gain. 'It's none of your business.' Micah furrowed his brows, his tone filled with anger.

'7 am Galilea's... friend. Her business is my business.' Seeing that the atmosphere between the two of them was getting more and more strange, Galilea hurriedly said, "Alright, Auntie, let's meet later. Let's meet later.' Then, she patted Nore and said, "Forget it' Micah just couldn't stand seeing her happy with others, so he found all sorts of ways to torment her.

You can send Auntie away first' Galilea whispered and pushed him to the other side. When she turned to face Micah again, she also had a cold face. What does Mr. Lorenzo want to talk about? Let's go. You change your face so fast.' Micah gritted his teeth and said. She had two completely different attitudes towards Lubi family and him! Galilea muttered something in a low voice. She turned around and went into the venue. According to the meeting process, they were going to stay in the hotel across the street for four days and three nights. It was so that the companies could arrange their future schedule and improve their understandings of each other. This also meant that even if Galilea did not want to see Micah's face, she would at least have to bear it for the next few days. She would think of a way to find a few suitable employees later and see what to do next. Her mind was full of these matters, completely ignoring the cold pressure of the man beside her. "Why is Lubi family talking to you?" He said coldly as soon as he entered the elevator. "It has nothing to do with you." Galilea pressed the floor button and said in an unhappy tone. 'Are you really going to get together with Nore? His eyes were full of scrutiny as he looked straight at her. Galilea really didn't know what he was thinking. How did he even come up with that conclusion? However, she was too lazy to explain. She didn't say anything. Anyway, no matter what she said, this man wouldn't believe it. The more she was like this, the stronger the anger in Micah's eyes became. "Galilea Frankie!"

Chapter 189 He Did Not Have That Power

No matter how he lost his temper, Galilea's expression remained indifferent. "Mr. Lorenzo, you chose the Frankie family as your partner. Indeed, you can take up my work time, but you have no right to ask about my personal life." Micah stared at her confident and determined face and clenched his fists. "1... Before he could finish his words, Galilea had already walked out of the elevator and headed straight for the conference room. Keith stood at the door with a stack of materials in his arms. When he saw the cold faces of the two of them, he did not dare to make a sound.

"Give her all the materials. If she doesn't finish memorizing them, she is not allowed to leave this conference room.' Micah ordered fiercely and then turned to leave.

When he saw that Galilea was going against him, he could not suppress the anger in his heart. Especially when he saw her completely different attitude towards him and Lubi family... Micah pressed the space between his eyebrows and felt that he was really crazy. "You gave such a big piece of meat pie to Frankie Group. Those old men in the Lorenzo group will definitely not be able to sit still." Micah coldly raised his eyes. He naturally knew that the Lorenzo group had several internal conflicts. Some of them had received benefits from the Lubi clan and some of them were close to Williams Group. He could not let them have their wish. "Handing it to the Frankie Group will allow me to have full control of the project. This project will determine the Lorenzo group's position in the next three years. There can not be any mistakes." He was determined to get what he wanted. He would not allow anyone to interfere with the results he wanted. Jasper nodded, but he could not help but say, "I am afraid that you will be soft-hearted when you see Galilea. After the project is completed, the Frankie will get a lot of benefits."

Perhaps, Galilea would seize the opportunity to revive the Frankie Group. Then, wouldn't Micah's revenge plan a year ago be declared a failure? "Then consider it as me compensating her," Micah said slowly in a deep voice. Outside the door, Galilea, who had come over with materials to finalize the details, clearly heard these words. The joints on her fingers were white, and her fingertips almost pierced the paper. Compensation? What kind of compensation could make up for the damage she had once suffered! "Director Frankie?" Keith came over with a cup of coffee. When he saw Galilea standing at the door, his expression was unclear. "Tell Micah that there are too many materials. I definitely won't be able to finish them today. Moreover, he has no right to control my personal freedom. If he breaks the contract unilaterally, I will definitely sue him until he goes bankrupt." Galilea hid the emotions in her eyes. Galilea said this and stepped out of the venue. He didn't want her to be on good terms with Lubi family and couldn't bear to see her with Nore, right? Galilea took out her phone and was about to dial Nore's number. However, she hesitated. She did not want to use Nore. If she did that, what was the difference between her and the unscrupulous Micah?

"Galilea." Nore had been waiting for her outside for a long time. Seeing her figure from afar, he quickly walked over. He was afraid that Micah would bully her, so he looked at her carefully. "Yes, we're done." Galilea wanted to say something but stopped. "What did he do to you? I'll go and find him!" Nore frowned. Although his status and influence in the business world were far less than that of Micah, he would not cower and must fight for Galilea.

"Nore, ignore him. I'm hungry." Galilea tugged at him, a hint of exhaustion in her eyes. "Alright, let's go eat." Nore frowned. The two of them got into the car and left side by side. From the window upstairs, a pair of cold and dark eyes were staring at them. "You have already destroyed the Frankie family. Why do you need to control Galilea's every move? Even if she says she wants to take revenge on you, with her current strength, it is as difficult as moving a mountain."

Chapter 189 He Did Not Have That Power It was not that Jasper looked down on Galilea, but reality was cruel.

It was already good enough that she could repay the debt she owed in this life, In Jasper's view, Micah did not need to target Galilea. Galilea was not a threat to him.

Micah stood by the window with his hands folded, his eyes filled with a cold chill. After a long time, he said, "But I can't think of another way."

What? Jasper did not understand. He could clearly feel that Micah was giving off a very sad and regretful feeling. This was something that he had never seen before. "Forget it, let's go." Micah rubbed his eyebrows. Tonight was the birthday banquet of the old lady of the Armstrong family. He was going to attend it with Jasper. But halfway, he suddenly thought of something. "Did you invite Lubi family tonight?" "Probably. What's wrong?" Jasper asked as he took out his phone. "Just asking." Micah stepped on the gas pedal and said coldly. "You don't have to drive so fast!" Jasper clutched his seatbelt and gulped. If he had known earlier, he wouldn't have said anything.

If this guy went crazy, who could stop him? Galilea also walked halfway before she realized that she was going to celebrate the birthday of the Armstrong family's old lady. She thought about it and said, "If your family goes to celebrate her birthday, it would be inappropriate for me to go with you. I'd better leave."

However, Nore did not respond to her words, "We're almost there."

"Nore, I..." Galilea frowned, "I've already told my mom. If you don't go, she'll ask all sorts of questions. It's just a meal anyway. You've participated in this kind of dinner before," Nore said as he held the steering wheel. Although he said that, Galilea's eyelids twitched a few times, and she had a bad feeling.

She suddenly realized when she opened the car door. Tonight, Micah should be coming too! Galilea wanted to retreat, but Nore saw through her thoughts first. "You need to start a new life. Do you have to avoid him wherever you go?"

"You're right," Galilea said with a slight sigh.

A look of joy appeared on Nore's face, and he even took the initiative to offer his arm, Galilea thought for a moment, then reached out to hold it.

This was just a normal form of social etiquette. The two of them walked in side by side, still attracting the attention of many people. Lucy was sitting among a group of noble ladies, waving at them from afar.

"Mom, we are late. There is a bit of traffic on the road." Nore immediately held Galilea's hand and walked over. All of a sudden, the ladies who had just been chatting with each other became silent. One or two of them opened their eyes wide and wondered about the relationship between Galilea and Lubi family. They also heard some rumors. Lubi family seemed to have accepted Galilea and given up on the marriage with the Williams family. Lucy knew what these people were thinking. She smiled and held Galilea's hand. She kindly introduced Galilea to the people around, "This is Mrs. Li, this is Galilea, my son's..."

Galilea's eyebrows jumped and she quickly pulled back her hand. "Auntie, I'm going to the bathroom."

After she finished speaking, she turned around and left. Lucy only thought that she was concerned about Lubi family's face and gave Nore a look. Just as Nore was about to chase after her, someone called out to him. "Brother Nore, long time no see."

Xu Ya was wearing a British-style aristocratic dress. Her waist was outlined very slender, and her long curly hair draped over her shoulders. She looked quiet and cute.

As soon as she said that, everyone around looked over. "Who is Nore's girlfriend exactly?"

Chapter 190 Don't Misunderstand

"I heard that Lubi family has already refused the marriage with the Williams family." "But from the looks of it, Xu Ya seems to like Nore quite a bit. Lubi family should not give up such a good opportunity for that Galilea." No matter what, the Williams Group's financial resources could more or less help Lubi family. Only by joining forces with the two strong families could they have a better future. It was impossible for Lubi family to not understand this. Nore immediately frowned and avoided Xu Ya wanting to walk back. "I think there is some misunderstanding between us. Let's find a place to sit down and explain it clearly. What do you think?" Xu Ya slowly walked over and stopped him in front of everyone.

"Misunderstanding? There is no misunderstanding between you and me. But today, I will tell you clearly that I will not marry you, and I don't like you at all. If you are not an idiot, stay away from me." This...

"Nore, are you really going to treat me like this? How am I not better than Galilea?" Xu Ya's eyes immediately turned red. She was not afraid of losing face, so she might as well make it clear. "I was the one who wanted to date you. Aunt Lubi also approved of me. It was Galilea who interfered. She is the third party. In order to save face, Xu Ya dared to say anything. Abasin of dirty water was constantly splashing on Galilea. At the door, the man who had just walked in frowned. He glanced behind and saw Galilea standing at the door of the bathroom. No matter what, Xu Ya had the halo of being the daughter of the Williams family. In addition, she had never been married before. Everyone thought that Lubi family would choose her. Now, it seemed that Galilea really used some dirty tricks to pester Nore, which ruined the marriage between their two families. 'I heard that today Galilea also got the Lorenzo group's cooperation project. She is really amazing.' "Amazing how? It is nothing more than a face and the skills she learned at Creek Club: 'Shut your mouth! Don't think that I can't do anything to you just because I don't hit women. I've known Galilea for many years. It's not your turn to criticize her.' Nore stared at Xu Lucy also came over and comforted his son while saying to Xu Ya, 'I have already talked to your parents. You have no fate with Nore. so you don't have to pester him.'" Xu Ya bit her lips. Since even Lucy was won over by Galilea! A scheming look flashed past her eyes. 'Auntie, did you also misunderstand me? When Brother Nore had an accident, I was going to the hospital to take care of Brother Nore. But Galilea told me that she had already confirmed her relationship with Brother Nore, so I left temporarily.'" Nore was already very impatient. "Galilea would never say that kind of thing. "You're not a woman. You don't understand her. She won't give up on Micah Lorenzo. Otherwise, how did she get the project of the Lorenzo group? You've all been deceived by her. She's using you. My brother has already told me. She stayed alone with Micah in the conference room for a long time today!" Xu Ya said with certainty. *So what? A voice rang through the air before Nore. Xu Ya was shocked. She turned her head and saw Micah standing not far away. The person standing behind him was Galilea. 'Galilea. Nore immediately wanted to go over. "Alright, don't make a big deal out of it. After all, today is the Armstrong family's birthday banquet.' Hanming stopped Nore. "But...

Ya fiercely.

Nore frowned. He really wanted to go to Galilea and tell her that he didn't believe what Xu Ya said at all. "Galilea is a smart child. Even if you don't say it, she will understand. Now you should stop talking, lest the situation gets even worse." Hanming was also dissatisfied with Xu Ya's behavior. This was equivalent to slandering Lubi family's reputation in public. However, considering that he still had to cooperate with the Williams Group in the future, he didn't really want to get into conflict. Nore froze in place, unable to lower his head. At this time, Galilea followed behind Micah and had already arrived in front of them.

'Miss Williams, when did I say that to you?' Galilea raised her head and said in a cold voice.

Just... in the hospital." Xu Ya, relying on the Williams family's support, spoke without caring about the consequences. As long as she insisted, Galilea had no way to disprove it. At that time, she knew that it was possible for Nore to be amputated, so she took the initiative to withdraw.

Chapter 190 Dont Misunderstand Not only Galilea butlubi family was also very clear about this But at this moment they were concomed about the opportunity to cooperate with the Williams family and would not make it clear

This unknown cume could only be blamed on Galilea In any case, no one would care about her reputation

Galilea glanced at Nore, and the emotions in her eyes were somewhat complicated She also know that what the Lubi family did was reasonable, but it obviously forced Galilea to face the slandering alone "I am not interested in other things, but you just said that I was alone with Galilea in the conference room for a long time. What do you mean? Micah glanced at her with a threatening look

"L I am just telling the truth. It doesn't mean anything. Xu Ya avoided his gaze awkwardly *I& that co?Hall of Micahy body stood in front of Galilea.

The next second, his voice turned cold, 'Tomorrow moming, the Lorenzo groups lawyer will come. At that time, you can think about what is the truth

Xu Ya was stunned,

It was just a few words. There was no need to get to this point! 'Mr Lorenzo, I didn't say what happened between you two. You dont have to go so far, right?' Xu Ya bit the comer of her lips and pretended to be wronged. She even subconsciously hid in Nore'a direction However, Micah was not a person who would show mercy to the fallor sex The comers of his lips curled up as he said in disdain, 'You indeed did not say anything, but isn't that what you meant? I am not afraid of stirring up trouble, nor am I afraid that the Williams family. I take it very personally because this is my reputation."

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned around and left. Seeing that Galilea was still in a daze, he took two steps back and pulled her with a frown, "Are you still waiting for them to continue spreading the rumors?" Before Galilea could say anything, he had already brought her out of the circle 'I don't need your help' Galilea twisted her eyebrows awkwardly

'Who said I was helping you? She created such a rumor. It affects the reputation of me and the Lorenzo group' Micalih's eyes were colder than his voice. He stared at Galilea's face and said word by word, "Also, you saw the lubi family's attitude towards you clearly, and you still want to stick to them? Galilea's eyes darkened, She could not figure out the meaning of his words, She was indeed uncomfortable, but it was not his turn to say this

"I have always been blind and deaf. Otherwise, I wouldn't have married you back then, Mr. Lorenzo, don't do anything that will cause others to misunderstand. Otherwise, I would be as ignorant as I was back then and believe in the wrong person.
