

Chapter 191 Compensate

"You don't know what's good for you." If he hadn't come out in time, what would have happened to her now? These upper-class ladies could drown her to death with their saliva. "Is this first day that Mr. Lorenzo met me?" Galilea chuckled. As soon as she finished speaking, she turned around and left. However, just as she took a step, she found that the zipper on her clothes had hooked onto Micah's suit material. The two of them were caught off guard and staggered at the same time, their bodies sticking to each other.

This was really a coincidence. Galilea frowned and pulled hard. 'This suit of mine is handmade. The man reminded her coldly. Galilea lowered her head and tugged even harder. 'I can't help it. This is not my fault. I have to separate it. Otherwise.. I don't know what people will say when they see us. When Micah saw how anxious she was, the coldness in his eyes deepened.

She couldn't wait to separate from him? "You move a bit too!

Galilea pulled for a long time, but it was still very tight. From her angle, it was probably very difficult to untie.

She was even considering whether she should cut her clothes. Anyway, it was just a cheap one, but if she broke Micah's clothes, she could not afford it. The man's gaze fell on the top of her head, and he said indifferently. "How do I move? Like this?" As he spoke, his body suddenly leaned forward. He was closer to Galilea, and their shadows were overlapping on the wall...

"No!"

Galilea directly pushed him to the side. She did not untie the zipper, but she clearly smelled the scent on Micah. Just like him, aggressive. "Then how? His tone of asking a question that he already knew the answer to made Galilea extremely agitated. "You just stand there and don't move!" she said. A smile flashed across the man's eyes. Just as he was about to say something, he saw Galilea take out a key from her pocket and pull it along the side of her clothes. He furrowed his brows. It was already too late to stop her. Using the force of tearing, Galilea tore open her own clothes. She took the opportunity to pull back. Her clothes zipper was still hanging on Micah's suit. However, she was already a few steps away from him. "Alright, that's it. Galilea looked down at her torn clothes and felt a little distressed. She liked this quite a lot, but she didn't expect to bid it farewell in this way. But at this moment, the eyes of the man in front of her were as dark as the night. She really didn't want to be involved with him at all. She actually did it to this extent. Micah frowned and didn't say a word. When Galilea's relieved look fell into his eyes, it made him particularly angry. What made him even more frustrated was that he seemed to be unable to explain this inexplicable anger at this time. "Mr. Lorenzo only needs to find someone to pry open the zipper. Then I won't disturb Mr. Lorenzo anymore.' Galilea said, glancing behind Micah 'Stop' Galilea frowned, turned around, and muttered reluctantly, 'I broke my own clothes, so.. Before she could finish her sentence, she saw a big crack in Micah's suit. "I was very careful just now. It was impossible for me to tear your clothes," Galilea said in a cold voice. "Compensate," he said slowly. "How, how can I afford it? How about you just add it to the debt I owe you?" Galilea gritted her teeth in anger. The man raised his eyebrows slightly. "Isn't that letting you off easy? You might not be able to repay that money for the rest of your life.'

Chapter 191 Compensate These words were the truth 'Then what do you want? Galilea pursed her lips tightly. "Go to my villa and help Sister Zhang.' Micah leaned forward.

"What?"

"When I'm satisfied, you can leave." His face was dark, and he had no intention of joking at all.

“Micah, you are really sick’ Galilea’s face was pale.

‘If you don’t want to. I will send you a lawyer’s letter tomorrow.” When Jasper came over, he saw Galilea walking angrily to the main hall of the banquet. He turned his head again and saw that the corner of Micah’s mouth actually flashed a faint smile. At that moment, he only felt that his eyes were blurred. Looking carefully again, he found the smile disappeared without a trace.” He must have seen wrong! Yes, yes, why would Micah smile like that? It was too strange. “My grandma said she wanted to see you. If you don’t want to go, I will tell them now that you don’t have time.’ Jasper said. “I’ll go over now.’ Micah actually agreed. Jasper was shocked for another two seconds. ‘Then let’s go upstairs.’ Jasper, help me put this suit away.’ Micah took off his suit jacket and handed it to him. “What’s going on?” Jasper looked at the opening on the suit. ‘I accidentally scraped it.” Jasper frowned even more. If he remembered correctly, this suit was a limited edition. The auction price had already exceeded seven digits. How careless must one be to be able to make such expensive clothes like this? Moreover, the most important thing was that even though the suit was like this, Micah did not seem to be angry at all. Could it be that he had done this on purpose? The Armstrong Family villa was very large. Galilea circled around the corridor on the other side before returning to the banquet hall. She planned to leave first. If Nore asked her later, she would just find an excuse. However, before she could leave, she was blocked by Hanyu, who had rushed over. “How did my sister offend you? Why do you have to humiliate her in public? You are courting death!” Hanyu had always been impulsive and doted on his sister the most. As soon as he heard that Xu Ya was crying at the Armstrong Family’s birthday banquet, he immediately rushed over. Without a second word, he scolded Galilea first. ‘Is a woman like you qualified to enter the Armstrong family’s banquet? Get out of here quickly. As Hanyu spoke, he raised his hand, and a bodyguard came up behind him to drag Galilea out.

Galilea sneered

This brother and sister were both horrible people. And it just so happened that she met both of them. How unlucky. ‘This is the Armstrong family’s place, and tonight is also Old Lady Armstrong’s birthday banquet. What are you doing now? Are you publicly slapping the Armstrong family’s face?’ Galilea raised her voice, deliberately letting the surrounding people hear it. Anyway, she was alone, there was nothing to be afraid of. “What nonsense are you talking about? I am going to settle it with you alone. Come out!” “I am also here to celebrate Old Lady Armstrong’s birthday. Why should I go out?’ Galilea blinked. Since Hanyu also cared about the status of the Armstrong family, she knew she could use this. “You came to celebrate Old Lady Armstrong’s birthday? Are you worthy?’ Hanyu did not notice that something was wrong. He just couldn’t stop scolding her. ‘Whether I’m worthy or not is not up to the Williams family.” Galilea smiled lightly.

Chapter 192 Accident

Hanyu choked on his words. There were also many guests around who felt that this place was too noisy, and they all looked over. *Well, you are so sharp-tongued. That’s how you made my sister cry in anger?’ Hanyu gritted his teeth in anger. Galilea would not leave the Armstrong Family. What could he do?

Galilea looked at him indifferently and said, ‘What you are thinking now is that I’ll have to leave sooner or later. When I leave this door, you will deal with me, right?’

Hanyu’s face froze and he did not say a word, Galilea turned around and said in a relaxed tone, “Then I will have fun before leaving.’ “Young Master, let’s go back.’ The person behind Hanyu advised in a low voice. Just based on what Galilea said just now, the impulsive Hanyu was not her match at all. What’s more, everyone had been spreading rumors recently that Galilea was not only close with Lubi family, but she was also with Micah... “What are you afraid of!? She is a used shoe that no one wants. How dare she do anything to me! I will fight with her today. Let's settle the old and new grudges together. If this woman disappears, the Lorenzo group's project will be re-auctioned. I'm killing two birds with one stone." He stepped forward and chased inside. As soon as he entered, he began to look for Galilea, but Galilea was either exchanging business cards with others or wandering around not far from Old Lady Armstrong. She had a leisurely expression, as if she was completely enjoying this banquet. Hanyu felt itchy all over, but he couldn't do anything to her. With a gloomy face, he picked up the red wine glass and drank it all in one gulp. At this time, Micah and Jasper came down from upstairs with Old Lady Armstrong. "Hanyu really doesn't put our Armstrong family in his eyes." Jasper frowned with dissatisfaction. He was always kind and rarely got into conflict with others. However, it was difficult for him to swallow this anger when the Williams siblings came to make trouble one after another. The man standing on his right did not say anything. He only watched Galilea who was dealing with the guests and exchanging business cards. A deep smile flashed through his eyes. She was indeed good at taking advantage of opportunities. The next second, when Micah saw that Lubi family had come over to talk to Old Lady Armstrong together, his face sank instantly. Because when Nore was walking this way, he had even brought Galilea along! Just now, when Xu Ya slandered Galilea and said that she had stepped into their relationship, the Lubi family had kept their mouths shut.

Micah knew what they were thinking at a glance and sneered. On the other side, Nore apologized to Galilea in a low voice, "Just now..." Galilea was sorting out the business card that she had just exchanged. This was very important for the development of the Frankie Group in the future. She answered without raising her head, "It's fine. When the birthday banquet ends, I will apologize to you properly." Nore looked very guilty. He reached out to pull Galilea, but she avoided him. Nore's hand missed and he panicked, "I think you are going to celebrate Old Lady Armstrong's birthday. I won't go with you, I have gained a lot today. Thank you." Galilea said with an unknown smile in his eyes.

But it was that face that pierced Nore's heart. Was she angry?

"Galilea, I can explain." "I know that your parents don't want to have a bad relationship with the Williams family, and you don't want to continue with Xu Ya, but that is your business." Galilea had wanted to say these words a long time ago. She just did not want to hurt Nore. Nore furrowed his brows and did not move for a long time. On the other side, Hanming had already been chatting with Old Lady Armstrong. Lucy quickly came over to pull them over. "What are you still standing there for? Quickly go greet them and say a few simple words. "I'm going to the bathroom, Galilea naturally tank a sten hark Chapter 192 Accident She turned around and walked quickly between the guests. She walked quchiy end urgendy "Golilea! Nore couldn't stop her, and his frown deepened How could Lucy not understand her son's thoughts? She quickly said, 'It's fine Galilea is the most sensible duld. She didn't give up on you even when you were in your most difficult time in a few days, you will buy some gifts and say some nice words to her She wait definitely forget about this matter. Let's go, Let's go first When Nore heard this, his expression became even gloomier He was very clear in his heart that Galilea was not that kind of woman. 'Let's go. Let's go over first' wcy still pulled him over. Having a good relationship with the Armstrong family would be very helpful for fore because he was going to uke over the company in the future,

Nore lowered his head and moved his feet.

In front of them, Micah stood on the same side as the Armstrong family. Even Old Lady Armstrong, an elder, was somewhat polite to Micah

Nore looked at Micalis calm and composed appearance, and the emotions in his heart became thicker, At this moment, he finally realized the gap between him and Micah At the same time, Micah also looked over coldly 'Mr. Lorenzo... Hanming also wanted to take the opportunity to greet Micah, Micah had been paying attention to the movements not too far away, Suddenly, his brows furrowed. He put down his wine glass and quickly walked behind, Jasper realized that something was wrong and followed, Hanyu drank a few glasses of red wine. He was drunk and actually grabbed Galilea regardless of anything in his other hand, he was still holding a bottle of red wine. The surrounding people all dodged, afraid of hurting themselves, What are you doing!" Galilea's elbow was pulled by him. "I drank. I am drunk and unconscious.' Hanyu laughed contemptuously. This way, he would not have to take any responsibility, Even if someone criticized him for his poor drunken behavior.

So what?

It was only Galilea Frankie after all... He raised his hand and was going to smash the bottle on Galilea's head. At that distance, Galilea could not avoid it at all. Whoosh!

The wine mixed with glass fragments flowed down the man's shirt to the ground. "Galilea, you have to compensate for this shirt as well now. He furrowed his brows and stared at her in his arms, Galilea's beautiful eyes widened as she watched a trace of blood flow out from his forehead.

Micah!"

She subconsciously supported the man who had fainted and the two of them fell down together. 'I didn't do it on purpose!' Hanyu was durnbfounded. He explained in a panic He just wanted to teach Galileo a lesson How could he dare to touch Micah? Just now, he was also drunk. He did not know when Micah rushed over and blocked in front of Galilea "Send Mr. Lorenzo to the hospital immediately! Jasper scolded with a cold face In addition, he glanced at Hanyu, "Young Master Williams, you should go back first. Hanyu swallowed a mouthful of saliva. He thought that he did not need to care about this matter anymore. He quickly thanked Jasper, "Young Master Armstrong, you are so wise. This matter is really an accident. Young Master Lorenzo is a good person and the heavens are watching He will definitely be fine. 'Heh, Young Master Williams, you have misunderstood me' Jasper's face instantly changed. His usual modest appearance had disappeared without a trace. Replacing it was a pair of eyes as cold as ice One word at a time, he declared Hanyu's death sentence. "You better pray sincerely and hope that Micah will take a long time to recover. Because the day he is discharged will be the day of your death

Chapter 193 Didn't Let Go

It was a birthday banquet, but because someone was injured, they had to stop. The Armstrong family, including Old Lady Armstrong, all went to the hospital. There was no other reason. The person who was injured was Micah! Galilea sat on a bench in the corridor. Her palm was still stained with Micah's blood. She lowered her eyes and did not speak. Her expression was dim. It was not until the doctor came out that Galilea got up and looked over. 'The wound on the head of the patient has been bandaged. When you go back, you have to observe carefully. You have to change the medicine and disinfect it every day. Don't let him touch water. Come back in a week to remove the medicine and check it again.'" "Has he woken up?" Jasper frowned. This was the first time she had seen Micah so irrational. "No, not yet." The doctor replied. Everyone's hearts still hadn't completely settled. "Grandma, I'll send someone to send him back. You can go home first." Jasper said and asked the servants of the Armstrong family to send the old lady back. "Well, you young people are too impulsive and disregard the consequences." The people of the Williams family who rushed over were all glared at by the old lady. "Old lady. I am really sorry. We... "Humph!" The old lady held her walking stick and left with a cold face. The person in power of the Williams family was not Xu Ya's father, but her uncle, Wencheng Williams. He was nearly sixty years old and was still in charge of all the affairs of the Williams Group. It was not that he did not want to hand over the power, but the children in the family were all unreliable. When he heard the news that Hanyu had injured Micah, he was so anxious that he almost had a heart attack. He hurriedly grabbed Hanyu by the ear and came over to apologize. "Young Master Armstrong, how is Mr. Lorenzo now?" Wencheng had a humble attitude. "Didn't you hear what the doctor said? He hasn't woken up yet. That good-for-nothing nephew of yours can live a few more days.

Jasper glanced at him. If Micah recovered, then that brat could just wait for death. "Yes, yes, yes. I will teach that good-for-nothing brat a lesson when I get back. These are all for Mr. Lorenzo to nourish his body." Wencheng immediately got someone to bring several gift boxes, "There's no need. Do the Lorenzo family need your help?" Jasper stopped looking at him and walked straight to Galilea. "I'll send him back to Lorenzo family. You...

"I'll go too."

Galilea said in a low voice and looked up again. It was impossible to see what she was thinking in her eyes.

"Okay, let's go."

For some reason, Jasper had a hunch that Micah wanted Galilea to be by his side. When Galilea walked out of the hospital, the sky was completely dark. She saw that Micah was still in a coma and was helped into the car by the Armstrong family, Galilea quickly sat on the co-pilot's seat, but was called to the back by Jasper. "Someone needs to watch him. It's not convenient for my servant to do it. I have to drive, so I have to trouble you." Galilea wanted to refuse, but after all, Micah was injured because of her. "Alright" She was on the left and Micah was on the right. The car hadn't driven for when Micah's head leaned over after a turn "You.. Galileo subconsciously wanted to push him away, but he was unconscious. He looked so cold but so lonely as well. Galileo's outstretched hand stopped in mid-air. They arrived at Lorenzo family's villa "I'm going upstairs to make some arrangements, Jasper said and got out of the car. Bolero Galilea could say anything, he had already gone for away

14:23 Ay

Chapter 193 Dodralet Go She looked down at the unconscious Micah and frowned. "Not your servant. I don't ask you to block that." She muttered in a low voice and saw that Micah's eyelids seemed to move a bit. Galilea frowned and carefully ran in the direction of the car door. However, just as she moved, her wrist was grabbed by someone. She turned around and saw Micah open his eyes and look at her. The deep coldness in his eyes was bottomless.

"You're awake?" As soon as Galilea finished speaking, Micah closed his eyes and slid down again. However, his hand was still holding her wrist, refusing to let go. Galilea dragged him for a long time, but in the end, she could only help him up the stairs. "Then I'll leave Micah to you." Jasper did not say anything when he saw the strange posture of the two. What?

Before Galilea could react, Jasper quickly went downstairs and left the villa. He sat in the car and breathed a sigh of relief. "Micah, I can only help you so much! Galilea had no choice but to call Ms. Zhang upstairs, but Micah's hand had been tightly holding her, and she could not break it. "Miss Frankie, how about I get you a blanket? You should rest first." Ms. Zhang was also in a difficult position. Rest? Galilea looked at her side. Other than a double bed, where else could she rest? Could it be that she wanted her to share a bed with him? What kind of joke was this?

Sister Zhang, there's no need. Go rest. I'm not tired. Galilea forced a smile. Now that things had come to this, what else could she do? Previously, when the zipper was accidentally hooked together, she could still tear off her clothes. Now that he was grabbing onto her and not letting go, should she cut off her arm? She shouldn't have had a sudden sense of responsibility. Why would she care about him? There were so many people in Lorenzo family, would they let anything happen to him? But in fact other than Sister Zhang and the servants, Lorenzo family did not have any family members of Micah. When he married her, he was alone. It was the same now. He was so lonely that no one dared to approach him. Perhaps it was because he had lived alone for too long, but when Galilea looked at his face under the moonlight, she felt that although he was unconscious, he still sent out an unfriendly vibe. 'I'm really crazy.' Galilea frowned and retracted her gaze. She struggled a few more times with her wrist. She was still tightly gripped by him, she gritted her teeth and cursed in her heart. She had no choice but to sit on the carpet. She leaned her head against the bed and could test a little. God knew when he would wake up and let go of her. Galilea fell into a deep sleep. The moonlight grew stronger and the man on the bed opened his eyes. His dark bottomless eyes glanced at Galilea. His left hand slowly tightened again. Seeing Galilea frown uncomfortably, a hint of warmth appeared on his face. His hand loosened, but he had no intention of letting go. He tilted his body and stared at Galilea for a long time. The phone screen lit up. It was a message from Jasper: "How should we deal with that kid from the Williams family?" Micah's eyes turned cold. He put down his phone and slowly closed his eyes.

In the dead of the night

Sister Zhang was in the downstairs room. When she heard that there was no movement upstairs, she was still worried. She hugged the blanket and went upstairs. She slowly pushed open the door and saw Galilea lying on the other side of Micah. Although their movements were not very intimate, the atmosphere was quite good.

Chapter 193 Didn't Let Go Sister Zhang smiled gently. How good is this? Why do they have to go against each other? She gently closed the door and looked down at the door lock. It was normal for the house to be damaged. For example, this lock, sometimes, would inexplicably break!

Chapter 194 It was the Same As Going to Jail

Early morning. The moment Galilea opened her eyes, she felt that she had slept better than she had imagined. She did not feel uncomfortable at all.

On the contrary, there was a rare sense of security. When she opened her eyes and saw the handsome face in front of her, her beautiful eyes widened! Why was she lying on Micah's bed? Was it because she was too tired last night and was in a daze from sleeping? She looked down and saw that it was not her wrist that was being held by him. Instead, she was tightly holding onto his shirt.

All of a sudden, Galilea trembled. She loosened her hands in a panic. As long as she did not say anything, no one would know! Galilea frowned and looked at the man on the bed. She reached out and pushed him, but there was no reaction. "Still not awake? Should I ask Jasper.. 'She multered and entered the bathroom wearing slippers. The originally closed eyes on his handsome face slowly opened. He stared at the closed door of the bathroom and listened to the sound of water coming from inside. He did not hide his relaxed mood at this moment. However, before Galilea came out, he closed his eyes again. Galilea did not care about him as a patient. She walked directly to the door and planned to open the door and go out. However, the strange thing was that no matter how hard she tried, the door did not budge, "It can't be, it's broken!" Galilea tried a few more times, but there was still no response.

She glanced at the man who was still asleep on the bed, slammed the door and shouted, 'Sister Zhang, are you there? Why can't this door open!' After a long while, Sister Zhang's footsteps came from outside. 'What's wrong, Miss Frankie?' 'Is this door broken? Why can't it be opened?' Galilea secretly cursed a few times and muttered, "He is so rich, why is his door of such low quality?" "Miss Frankie, don't worry. This happens occasionally at home. I'll find someone to fix it now." Sister Zhang sounded anxious. 'When will it be fixed?' 'This... I can't say for sure. I'll go now.' As Sister Zhang spoke, her voice gradually faded away, Galilea stood rooted to the ground and sighed, When she turned around again, she saw the unconscious Micah on the bed. For a moment, her eyebrows furrowed. In other words, before the lock was fixed, she had to stay in this room alone with Micah? She would rather be hit by the bottle. After another ten minutes, there was still no movement outside. 'Sister Zhang, are you back?' Galilea patted the door again. But Sister Zhang went somewhere and did not answer. However, when she shouted, there was a noise on the bed. "You're so loud." He glanced at her coldly, his Adam's apple rolling.

I'm not your servant Galilea said indifferently Micah narrowed his eyes 'Who am I lying here for?' Galilea's heart skipped a beat She felt that she was going to be blackmailed. She made up her mind and said, 'I didn't ask you to save me. The one who beat you was Hanyu If you are unhappy you should find him.'

Although these words sounded a little heartless, it was the truth. She could not change her opinion and attitude towards him just because Micah saved her once. As soon as he finished speaking, the coldness in the man's eyes became even stronger. He knew that this woman had always been ungrateful "Okay, then what about my suit and shirt?" He raised his eyebrows slightly, vaguely showing some anger.

Galilea pursed her lips, "The suit must be solid and sound, and the shirt, the shirt should be." Just as she was racking her brain for a reason

Chapter 1941: Was the Same As Going to Jail Micah used his arm to prop up the bed, but because of the wound, his movements were very slow.

*Come here

Galilea pursed her lips and looked in the direction of the door. This damn door. Why did it have to break at the wrong time! Micah lifted his eyes to look at her with a gaze deep and unreadable. Galilea had no choice but to walk over and half-squat in front of him. 'Hold my arm.' She only thought of herself as an emotionless wood, and it was fine for her to be a walking stick once. Unexpectedly, his uninjured arm directly went around Galilea's shoulder and pulled her into his arms. "You"

She gritted her teeth and was about to curse. When she looked up, she saw the wound on his forehead and a faint laborious expression.

*Forget it

She did not want to owe him anything. "I need to go to the bathroom," said Micah coldly. "You don't have to be so specific Galilea supported him with great difficulty. For the first time, she realized that she was so weak Little did she know that the man deliberately shifted his weight to her side until he reached the bathroom door. Then he used his other hand to support himself "Wait for me at the door

Galilea waited for the door to close and immediately ran to the side of the door, knocking loudly and shouting, 'Sister Zhang, Sister Zhang!' After shouting a lot, Sister Zhang did not answer the door. Galilea began to feel that something was wrong and shouted at the top of her lungs. 'Sister Zhang, Micah said that he was hungry. A few minutes later, Sister Zhang came over, 'I was cleaning up the garden outside just now, and I heard that you are hungry?' 'Oh right, he's hungry. He's so hungry that he's dizzy. His face is pale. Hurry up and find someone to open the door. However, Sister Zhang's words ruined Galilea's expectations. 'Well, I'll use a rope to send some food for you from the window upstairs. The handyman has gone far away. He won't be able to come for a while. Don't worry. I've made soup for you. You and Sir should drink some. I'll get it now.' Galilea pounded the door weakly She didn't want to drink soup right now, she just wanted to get out of here When she turned around, she heard footsteps behind her. She turned around to look, only to see his gloomy eyes staring straight at her.

That kind of gaze made people feel very uncomfortable. "What are you looking at?" Galilea was not to be outdone, and directly glared back, 'Thanks to you, I can't get out now.' Even food had to be sent in through the window, what was the difference between this and going to jail? "I'm also trapped here." Micah said indifferently as he leaned against the wall. Galilea could only frown and turn her anger into appetite. After taking the food from the window, she ignored Micah and started eating 'Is it delicious?' The man stared at her coldly. "Well, Sister Zhang has always been good at cooking.' Galilea ate a braised chicken leg, smacked her lips, and looked at the meat dish on the other plate. 'In your current state, you can't digest too much food. It's not good to waste food. So, help you.'" As she spoke, she picked up a pair of chopsticks. Soon, there was nothing left on the table "How many days have you not eaten?" Micah touched his forehead. Galilea did not answer him. In the end, Micah only drank some soup because the other delicious food was eaten by Galilea. He thought that she probably wanted to force him out in this way.

Chapter 195 Change Medicine However, ever since Micah woke up, he did not mention anything about leaving this room, He slowly said, 'Should we change the medicine?' Change the medicine? Galilea frowned Under these conditions, it should be impossible for him to change the medicine himself Taking the medicine and gauze from the drawer, Galilea just stood there quietly, not saying a word Micah turned to look at her 'Do it.'" He looked like he was ready to do it. He'll help you hold the mirror. You? Galilea spread out her hands. However, before she could finish speaking, she felt his gaze turn even colder.

When you were nursing Nore in the hospital, weren't you proficient in everything? When it came to him, she couldn't? Micah looked up, his eyes filled with jealousy and coldness, "Then don't move. Also, my hand is strong. If you feel pain, don't shout." Galilea muttered. Micah did not say anything and let her do it. Although Galilea said that her hands were still very gentle. Especially when she saw the wound under Micah's gauze, her fingertips stopped for a few seconds. If he had not protected her at that time, she would have been the one who had been injured in the forehead. Moreover, she would stay alone in the apartment and change medicine in front of the mirror. No matter how she thought about it, that scene was very pitiful. In a flash, she wrapped up the wound. "It's done," She released her hand and was about to leave when she touched the coffee cup of the table.

Crash It sprinkled all over the ground.

Galilea jumped away in time, so she was not affected, but the man opposite her was sprinkled all over.

- The rich smell of coffee spread in the room.

"This coffee of yours is pretty good," Galilea said with a smile. 'Is that so?' The man's gaze remained indifferent. He reached out and grabbed the woman in front of him who was about to run away 'I can't change my clothes like this.' "You only hurt your head and elbows. It's not like you can't take care of yourself!" Galilea was a little angry. She had been in this room with him for more than ten hours, and she really didn't want to be called around by him as a maid. Micah's almost perfect face showed some helplessness. He frowned and moved his arm, but his movements were very slow as if he would tear the wound if he moved, Seeing his dilly-dallying, Galilea gritted her teeth and stepped forward. All right, don't move. She swore to herself that she only felt that Micah was troublesome and did not want to owe him a favor. So she took the initiative to help. Otherwise, even if this man died on the road, what did it have to do with her? The wheat-colored skin was very textured. It was completely exposed in front of Galilea. She was focused on changing his clothes as soon as possible. She did not think about anything else. However, when she was buttoning up, the distance between the two of them suddenly closed. Galilea tilted her head and touched the stubble. Further up was his nose and deep eyes. She suddenly felt that something was wrong Why was her heart beating so fast? The other party was Micah “You can do the rest yourself! She directly waved her hand, turned around and ran into the bathroom This room was only so big, and there was no other place for her to hide The man sitting next to the bed glowly curled his lips. He raised his arm and quickly buttoned it up. His wound would indeed hurt, and it would also tear because of the excessive movement However, he didn’t care about this at all 11 the person who was alone with him in this room wasn’t Galilea, 14 probably wouldn’t have done this

Chapter 197 See Through

As soon as she finished speaking, the Lorenzo group’s several managers also looked over They hoped that Micah could retract his order, or else if the board of directors found out about this change, it would cause a huge commotion again Under their expectant gazes, Micah slowly said, ‘You are right Doing this will indeed affect the final benefits The eyes of the managers lit up. There was a chance! ‘Director Frankie is really wise’ ‘Yes, yes, yes However, no matter how much they tried to flatter her, Galilea did not react at all. She just looked at Micah and said calmly, ‘You know that it will affect the profits, but you still insist on doing this, right?’ The man’s lips curled into an arc. Unexpectedly, among those people, the one who understood his thoughts the most was actually Galilea. ‘Yes,’ Micah said lightly The hopes that the managers had burned with great difficulty were extinguished in that instant They did not have the confidence to make Micah change his mind, and Micah’s thoughts were not easy to guess. Galilea turned her head and met his gaze. There was still some uncertainty in her eyes. “Can I know the reason? Since Micah allowed her to appear in this meeting, it meant that he had tacitly agreed that she could intervene. She waited for a long time, but he did not respond. When Galilea was about to give up, the man said, ‘Look at the cooperation case between the Lorenzo group and Cosmos Group two years ago. You will understand! Galilea did not hesitate and directly wrote it down.

Continue Micah did not waste any more time here. ‘The next report is related...’ Several managers hurriedly adjusted their states. The meeting continued for nearly half an hour. Galilea had been writing and drawing on her little notebook. ‘Let’s stop here today Her wrist was already a little sore from writing. “Then Mr. Lorenzo, you have a good rest. We will leave first’ Several managers got up and left. As soon as they went out, they directly gathered together and kept gossiping “What’s going on? Mr. Lorenzo and his ex-wife seem to have a tacit understanding! ‘And she actually lives in Mr Lorenzo’s house! “Be quiet. This matter must not be revealed to the company. Do you understand?’ “Yes, yes, yes Manager Liu, of course, we will keep a secret.’ As soon as they walked out of the villa, Jasper’s car drove in. He turned his head to look at the managers of the Lorenzo group and frowned, “Why are they smiling so strangely?’ Then, he carried the medicine and fruits into Micah’s villa and saw a very special scene, Galilea held something in her hand and argued with Micah with a red face, Micah had a smile in his eyes as he let her shout at him.

Jasper raised his hand and rubbed his eyes. He must have seen wrongly! Was this person Micah? Micah, you lied to me. You are a hypocrite who goes back on your word! Micah did not say a word Jasper gasped He could now confirm that it was not him who had an illusion, but Micah who had gone crazy Normally, how could he be questioned in this way? He would make the person who questioned him disappear without a trace. “Micah, are you feeling better? Jasper coughed and walked over Galilea snorted and angrily went upstairs to the room. She had already been a servant for him for a day, but he still refused to let her go! This was oppression, a threat. Galilea sul on the cola, thinking about how to get away In the living room, after she left, Micah's cold face revealed an extremely threatening chill. "What did the Williams family say?" Jasper shook his head. After putting down the things, he sat down on the other side. Wencheng's attitude is not bad. He has always said that he will take responsibility for your injury, but Hanyu Jasper paused for a moment, then continued, 'This morning, he just came home from the bar. It seems that he didn't take this matter

Chapter 197 See Through to heart at all "Who did he drink with last night? Micah narrowed his eyes and looked up at the closed door upstairs

It seems to be a few rich second generations in their circle. I don't know much about them' After saying that, Jasper realized that Micah's expression was not right 'Are you saying that someone is behind this?' Micah did not speak

When I sent you out of the hospital, I seemed to see a car from your company parked nearby. Whose car was it?" Jasper asked The more he thought about it, the more he could not figure it out. 'If it was someone from inside the Lorenzo group, it would make sense,' Micah said in a deep voice. "Do you suspect that there is a mole in your company?" "I'm not sure yet. I need to check again. This matter should be temporarily hidden from Galilea.' Micah put the laptop on the table No matter how slow Jasper was, he reacted at this time. 'You used the Frankie Group as bait?' If it was always calm and peaceful, it would be very difficult for people with ulterior motives to reveal themselves. It would be very difficult to investigate. Micah simply threw out a bait that no one could refuse. It must be known that this project was very important to the Lorenzo group. The person behind the scenes would definitely take the initiative to attack because of greed. By the time he got hold of the evidence, it would be the time for Micah to reel in the net. 'That's why you are so bold and decisive, acting out of character!' Jasper slapped his thigh. However, the next second, he hesitated. *If she finds out that you used her like this, the consequences will be... Galilea already hated him very much. It would definitely make things worse. 'She won't. Because I really want to cooperate with the Frankle family. Micah smiled confidently He admitted that he would use Galilea during this process, but the final result would satisfy her Jasper leaned back on the sofa and took a deep breath. "You are really... Before he finished speaking, he saw Micah's phone ring. It was a call from the lawyer Micah originally didn't want to pick up, but when he saw Galilea come out of the room upstairs, he picked up his phone and went into the study with a cold face. When he was about to close the door, he even used his eyes to signal Jasper not to speak carelessly Jasper nodded repeatedly to show that he understood. But as soon as Galilea went downstairs, he immediately went over Micah and asked, 'Are you recovering well, right?' "I don't know. I'm not a doctor." Galilea was hungry. Not only did she take care of Micah today, but she also had to attend a meeting with him Since he was tormenting her like this, she had to eat more things from his refrigerator, Jasper watched her go to the kitchen and slowly followed her. "Galileo, can I ask you something?" "I don't think I know the answer to Young Master Armstrong's question. Galilea opened the refrigerator door, scanned it from top to bottom, and directly took out the most expensive strawberry gift box She washed a large basin of strawberries in front of Jasper, Jasper scratched his head. Why did he feel that Galilea was even more difficult to understand than Micah? "However, Young Master Armstrong should be able to answer a question of mine first.' Galilea took the initiative to hand over the washed strawberries. She looked at Jasper and asked word by word, 'Has something happened to the Lorenzo group recently?" Thump.

Jasper almost swallowed the entire strawberry. The smile on Galilea's lips deepened. 'I guessed right, right?"

Cold sweat dripped down Jasper's forehead, Why did the two of them want to divorce?

They were clearly a match made in heaven! Galilea stared at him and slowly said, "From the moment Micah announced that he wanted to cooperate with the Frankie Group, there were already many objections from within the Lorenzo group, but he still insisted on working with the Frankie family."

*What does he want to do?

Chapter 198 To Cover It Up *Thus. I really Hans know you have to ask him anpa lagled dryly A rendere unto the picked up a berry and stuffed it into in mouth Gant only locked at tum ad twitched the corners of leelipa 'I thought that with the relationship between the two of you you talk about mything Cough, cough Jaspe punched his chest and coughed "Young Master Armstrong, slow down' The smile on Galileak tips became even wider Although Jasper did not say anything, she was very sure that Micah dehotely had another purpose Moreover, Jasper also know about

Otherwise she wouldnt have reacted like this At the doot, Micah sosidenly appeared. He stared at the coughing Jasper and frowned 'Whats wrong? *Ishoudd go now I still have something to dol' Jasper shook his head repeatedly and walked out of the door as if he was escaping "What did you do la lum' Micah's eyes darkened. "Nothing men just chatting Mas a grown man, what can I do to him? I can't even talk?" Micah's temples throbbed "Are you saying that I restricted your freedom?' Gallea gave him a look of understanding. Belund lum Sister Zhang lowered her head and held back her laughter 'Sir, it's time for me to prepare lunch You and Miss Frankie con go to the garden for a walk The weather is good today." "Forget it Micah stared at Galilea for a while. She would not be willing to take a walk with him He also knew that Gahlea was constantly thinking of leaving this house,

He did not want her to leave

Micah tumed around and entered the study. He slammed the door ahut Galilea was stunned. He didn't order her? Just as she was pondering, Sister Zhang had already started to prepare the ingredients "Sister Zhang, can you teach me how to cook a few dishes?' Galilea smiled and rubbed her face "You want to leam?' Ms. Zhang was a little surprised. She knew that Galilea used to be a daughter of a rich family She never had lo cook *As a person you have to have the ability to feel yourself 'Galilea siniled. When you cant rely on anyone anymore, you have to leam everything. She was already used to il Ms. Zhangy eyes showed some distress. But soon, she restrained her emotions, "Then wash the cucumber and white radish, cut it into thin strips "Alright Galilea happily went to the other side Sister Zhang looked at her as Galilea was humming a song and washing vegetables. Her heart was full of sadness. If that had not happened in the past she would not have.. Galdea turned all the anger into the motivation to learn how to cook! But she was still a newbie Therefore, the dinner didn't look so beautiful

Sister Zhang, whats going on?' Micah looked at the salad and siglied deeply asked her to teach me how to cook. Don't blame her Micah just frowned He glanced at Galilea's bandaged fingertips and said in a low voice; "What a waste of time Galilea snorted unconvinced How due he say she was wasting time! It was a waste of time for her to stay in this villa night now! It was late at night, and Galilea had intended to sleep But she heard a burst of crying outside, which made her panie. She gently opened a ctack in the door and looked downstairs Chapter 198 To Cover It Up 'Micah I was temporarily transferred to another place by the company to participate in an event Only then did I know that you were injured As soon as I got off the plane I came to see you Dont be angry with me."

Micah only responded indifferently

*It must be very painlul, right? Dayana reached out and gently touched the wound on his forehead "Hanyu is really a madman Galileas cyebrows tightened It seemed that she already know the whole story. Sure enough after saying a few words, Dayana leaned weakly against Micah's chest. Her soft fingertips drew circles on his chest. 'I'm really worried about you. I've already canceled all my work. I'll stay here to take care of you for the next few days Before Micah could finish his words, Dayana had already taken the initiative to move closer to his lips. Because his elbow was injured, it was inconvenient for him to move.

Dayana held the hand tightly, catching him off guard. Using the dim light, Galilea clearly saw this scene. She closed the door. After another night, she would be free. Since Micah had someone to take care of her, there was no need for her to stay.

Galilea lay on the bed, closed her eyes. She should hurry to sleep. However, those noisy and chaotic thoughts kept drilling into her head. What Galilea could not accept the most was why she was so upset because of Micah and Dayana's intimate actions. As dawn approached, Dayana's laughter rang out from outside the door, waking up Galilea who had just fallen asleep. "Micah, I will make breakfast for you, okay?" Galilea opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling. Her hatred for Dayana had only increased. It had nothing to do with Micah. It was only because Dayana had ruined her beautiful dream. Galilea glanced at the time on the phone screen and stepped out of bed. As soon as she opened the door, she smelled the burning smell coming from the kitchen downstairs. Then she saw Dayana frowning coquettishly and complaining that Sister Zhang did not help her well. "Micah, your maid is stupid. Look at what she has done to my hand! Micah was silent. Sister Zhang was at a loss and could only apologize, 'Miss Quincy. I'm really sorry, I' As soon as she heard the way Sister Zhang addressed her, Dayana became angry. She acted like a spoiled child and grabbed Micah's arm. "Micah, I'll get my maid to serve you in the afternoon. I really don't like this person. As Dayana spoke, she heard the noise upstairs again. Only then did she stop targeting Sister Zhang. Looking at Galilea who was walking down the steps, she was full of hatred and envy. Galilea lifted her eyelids and happened to meet Dayana's gaze. Her eyes turned cold. She did not mind giving Dayana another good lesson and also vented the anger she had suffered from Micah these two days. However, Dayana's reaction was beyond everyone's expectations. Seeing Galilea go downstairs, she actually suppressed her jealousy.

"Thank you for taking care of Micah. Thank you?" "Oh, night, I heard that you have gotten the right to cooperate with the Lorenzo group today. I don't know much about business, but if you need any help, you can contact this person. He is my father's secretary." Dayana raised her red lips, her beautiful eyes full of pride. So what if Galilea stayed by Micah's side? Only a woman who could help Micah in his career would be the mistress of the house!

Chapter 200 Betting Wrong Wendy quickly entered the hospital. When she reached the door of the ward, she met Micah. "Micah, how is our Dayang?" "She is still unconscious." Micah glanced back of the window of the ward and walked towards the director's office. Keith followed. Wendy shook her head and sighed. She pushed the door open and entered. "Dayana? She shouted. The person on the bed still had her eyes closed and did not react. Wendy carefully closed the door and locked it. "They went to the director's office. If you are awake, then..." Before she could finish speaking, Dayana had already opened her eyes. She waved her hand. "Quick, bring me something to eat. I'm starving." Just now, Micah and Keith had been there. She did not dare to move, afraid that she would be exposed. Acting was so hard, Wendy quickly poured her some water and brought her a banana. "Is Micah very worried about me?" Dayana asked while eating. Wendy nodded slightly. "I knew it. As long as I am willing to risk it, Micah would be worried. Now he must have started to suspect Galilea. It won't be long before I can get her out of Micah's world." As she spoke, she became even more pleased with herself. Seeing her like this, Wendy thought about what Galilea had just said and understood everything, Galilea indeed did not do anything. It was Dayana who had wronged her. "Dayana, aren't you afraid that he will find out that you are acting? Dayana frowned and threw the banana peel in front of Wendy. What are you talking about? Who is acting? She had already thought about it. As long as she did not admit it, no one would be able to find out. Even if Micah really saw something, so what? It was a fact that she had to lie in bed to keep the fetus because of this fall. As long as he still cared about this child, she would have a chance. Wendy sighed silently and wanted to say a few words of advice, but she was interrupted by a knock on the door, Dayana immediately lay back in the quilt, pretending that she had just woken up and was still very uncomfortable. Wendy went over to open the door. "This is what Mr. Lorenzo asked me to prepare for Miss Quincy," Keith stood at the door and handed over some daily necessities.

"Where is Micah?"

Dayana leaned over and asked. "Mr. Lorenzo has something to deal with at the last minute. He should be back soon." Keith said so, looking straight ahead. Dayana lay on the bed, her eyes rolling around. "Alright then, I won't disturb him. She was out of character and did not cry or make a fuss. She covered herself with a blanket and fell asleep with her back to them. "Dayana still feels very uncomfortable. Let the doctor come over to take a look later. This time, the fall was not light. You have to pay attention. Wendy took the opportunity to go forward, 'Yes' Keith nodded and looked in Dayana's direction before closing the door and leaving. "Your dad will come after the meeting. You should sleep first." Wendy closed the door and moved to the bedside. The corners of Dayana's lips twitched, and she smiled proudly. However, Wendy looked out of the window at this time. Galilea might not have left yet, but Micah was most likely going to look for Galilea. Could it be that Dayana and the child in her belly added up was not as important as Galilea? Wendy muttered in her heart. Looking at Dayana on the bed, she wondered if she had bet on the wrong side. But if Galilea was really that important to Micah, then the Frankie family wouldn't have been in trouble back then. What was Micah thinking? At this time, outside the hospital hall.

Micah raised his cold eyes and saw Galilea playing with a wild cat at the entrance of the hospital, Chapter 200 Betting Wrong The smile on her face was so bright and natural. He rarely saw her like that. Galilea's slender wrist reached out and gently touched the hair on the kitten's head. That gentle movement was enough to show her patience and kindness. How could a person like her attack the pregnant Dayana? No matter how much she hated him, the person she should be targeting should be him. It was precisely because he understood this that Micah abruptly stopped walking forward. Perhaps, he really shouldn't have trapped Galilea by his side. It wasn't that he couldn't, but that he no longer had the right to do so. He looked over again. Galilea picked up the phone and then left in a hurry. The last trace of warmth in the man's eyes disappeared. When he looked up again, there was a deep coldness. They were indeed strangers.

The phone call that Galilea picked up was from Sonny. He said a lot on the phone. The more Galilea listened, the more confused she became. She was anxious to take a taxi and rushed to the team. Only then did she know that today was the official day of the team disbanding. There were also a few reporters outside, waiting to interview Nore. "The news has already been released. It was originally a gathering of people from the team. I didn't expect it to be so complicated. But I don't know why these reporters came over.

I guess it has something to do with Lubi family's recent business. Sonny sighed and said apologetically to Galilea, 'I'm really sorry to have called you here again because of the team. But Nore has a stubborn temper. He won't listen to other people's words.' Sonny scratched his head. "If he gets angry because of those reporters later, I have to trouble you to help me stop him. It's not easy for the team to get to where it is today. Although Black Horse is over, the rest of us may still have to stay in this business."

Galilea lowered her eyes and thought about it

She also understood what Sonny meant. Thinking about what Dayana said today, Galilea also thought about meeting Nore and making things clear. "Okay, I understand I will try my best." Then I am relieved. Sonny heaved a sigh of relief and let the others clean up the room. When Nore arrived, he would let the reporters come in to take a few photos. No: long after, Nore arrived. However, he did not come alone, and Sean was following behind him.

*Galilea "I heard that Dayana went to the hospital again. Are you okay?" Nore asked. He was the first one to care about her. "What could she do to me?" Galilea asked with a smile.

That's true "Alright, everyone get ready. Let the reporters in." Sonny wanted to hurry up and let the reporters leave. As soon as he opened the door, the reporters all rushed in. At first, all the cameras were aimed at Nore, but they soon found Galilea next to him. Suddenly, a reporter rushed up "Miss Frankie, your performance in the competition on behalf of Black Horse was really amazing. You also created a new record of the competition. Do you have any thoughts of signing with other teams in the future?" "What?" Galilea was surprised. All of a sudden, the other cameras also caught up. "Miss Frankie, please talk about your opinion of other female racers!" "Miss Frankie, when did you start to get involved in racing? The direction of the wind had changed, and they all surrounded Galilea. Galilea could not withstand it alone, and she repeatedly signaled to Nore with her eyes.

"Oh Nore said. Just as he was about to go over he was stopped by Sean "Young Master, if you go over now those reporters will definitely ask about your relationship. Master has just been discharged from the hospital, so it's best if you don't stick your head out"
