Chapter 231 Not Cooperative

Gallen looked at the words that Zongxing had typed on the phone and was stunned for a moment. Zongxing sighed viciously, "Why is it so coincidental that you can't hear me?"

"Uncle Priestley, thank you for your concern, but it's fine," Galilea said with a smile. Zongxing immediately frowned and typed another line of words, "But why did I hear that the boy named Lorenzo was coming to see you before Galea could speak, footsteps came from outside the door. The Director Chen came in with a group of doctors and nurses."

"Sorry, we are going to start the treatment phase. It is not suitable for Miss Frankie to be visited in the near future." "Is that no? How long will it take? I can be responsible for the medical expenses." Zongxing immediately stood up and said, "This depends on the specific situation, please go back first with a look from Director Chen, a nurse immediately went forward and pushed Zongxing out. Galea did not know what they were talking about, but she had a vague feeling that these people had probably been sent by Micah. She sneered and lay on the bed. Was the man eager for the whole world to give up on her? It was not easy for Zongxing to come, and he could help her, but it was also ruined by Micah. Thinking about what Zongxing had just said, a clean face appeared in Galilea's mind. She had known Jing Priestley since she was a child, but she had never regarded him as a younger brother. Although Jing was only two months younger than her, he had always been unconvinced and had always dared to be her older brother. To Galea, that was a childhood dream that she would never be able to return to. Not to mention that she had already divorced once, even if there was no such thing she could not imagine that she would be together with him."

The last time she saw his hair was more than ten years ago. How was that possible?

That night when Galilea was pushed back to the ward by the nurse, she saw a figure standing outside her window from afar. He was holding a bouquet of flowers in his hand, he turned around, and the light on the wall covered most of his face. But just by looking at his eyes, Galilea was stunned. "Jing?"

The story read out this name. Then she saw him come over. He looked completely different from when he was a child. He became calm and mature, and his eyebrows were full of heroic spirit. He was dressed in a suit and leather shoes. He was not as serious and indifferent as Nicholas. More genteel, Imbode. Seeing his lips move, Galilea smiled helplessly and pointed to her ear. "I can't hear you."

Galilea was stunned. He quietly looked at the book and handed it to Galilea. They had been written before he

Jing saw that she looked disappointed and quickly went over '1 didnt mean that." He spoke for a long time and realized that Galilea could not hear him He frowned and wrote on the paper 'I will take you abroad for treatment. If you cant cure it you won't have to come back My father will help you deal with the matter of the Frankie Group "No need to trouble Uncle Priestley Galilea pursed her lips. Micah would not allow her to leave If she left, who knew what the Frankie Group would become

*Dont be afraid, Im here. Tomorrow morning. Il pick you up.' Jing wrote again He stuffed the small notebook into Galilea's hands and left Galilea looked at the line of words, deep in thought Micah would not give her a chance to escape

Things seemed to have erceeded Galilea's expectations. Just as dawn broke, a nurse came over to help her change her clothes She did not see Micah and thought that Jing had a good relationship with the hospital and wanted to send her way Galilea sighed in her heart. If the Priestley family had been there, perhaps her father's matter would not have been so

Soon, she was taken into the car and headed straight to the airport

She walked through the VIP passage, and when she sat in the VIP room she did not see Jing. Galilea's gaze fixed on the door, and soon, a person walked in. Galilea's eyes flickered and she clenched her fingers. She knew that things would not have gone so smoothly.

This man was simply a devil

Are you disappointed that it is not your old lover? Micah sat down on the sofa in front of her and smiled contemptuously. He knew that Galilea couldn't hear him, but he continued to say, 'He can't steal someone from me.' What did you do? Jing Galilea clenched her fists and stared at Micah. She wasn't worried about her situation at all but was anxious about another man the moment she spoke? The coldness in Micah's eyes grew stronger and stronger. "No wonder you haven't promised Nore. You are still thinking about someone else."

In Galilea's eyes, only his lips were moving. She couldn't hear his voice and could only see his cold eyes.

Galilea became more and more panicked. "It is between you and me, and don't involve others. The more she spoke, the colder Micah's expression became. His palm was pinching her lower jaw. After saying something he pulled her up and dragged her onto the plane. Galilea was frightened by his expression. As soon as she got on the plane, she curled up in her seat. There were bruises on her neck and she felt a faint pain. Until the plane landed, she did not have any eye contact with Micah.

"Get up

Galilea was picked up by him and thrown onto the wheelchair. The cabin door opened, and a bone-piercing cold wind blew in. Before Galilea could see what was outside, a coat was covered on her head.

There was silence in her ears, and there was endless darkness in front of her. She could only hold the handle of the wheelchair tightly. Her heart was beating strongly, and tears flowed down uncontrollably.

When the coat was pulled down, Galilea looked cold in front of her was a private hospital, and there were foreigners coming and

There was no trace of Micah behind him

Galilea was brought to the chartination room and began a series of checks.

1.2 Lorenzo, the young lady you brought is not cooperative at all. She has already smashed two machines. You'd better talk to her and calm her down first." The attending physician, Meyer sighed

Otherwise, we won't be able to know her specific situation, and it will likely delay her illness

When Galilea wat pushed out by the nurse, she looked on usual

From her appearance to her expression, it seemed that she had not recovered yet

How is the situation?' Micah put down his phone and turned around Miss Frankie still han no reaction to the medical treatnent of the instrument As for the specific situation, it will only be confirmed after the reportin out My Meyer can only confirm it after he has looked of it 'Alright, thank you. After saying that Micah seemed to be entangled by something ond frowned Galilea glanced of tum and slowly closed screyes

Something was wrong

Could it be that Micah had already found out that she had recovered her hearing? Then why didn't he expose her lie?

"Keith put off the meetings, and I won't return to the country for the time being"

In front of Galilea, Micah made a phone call without any hesitation, 'Don't do anything to Terry, and continue to follow up on the cooperation with the Frankie Group As for Zonguing Priestley He took his phone and walked out of the room Galilea botiedly looked in the direction of the door Why did he leave at the most critical moment? She leapt out of bed and was just about to open the door to look outside A cold voice sounded from above her head, 'You have quite the guts, daring to lie to me?'"

Galilea's movements paused in an instant she thought of several ways to deal with it She gritted her teeth and looked up in confusion

Not only did Micah not move, he even reached out and grabbed her elbow

He pulled her into the room

*It hurt!

Galilea just shouted one word when her lips were kissed by the man The words she did not say were all sealed by Him "You bastard Galilea used both her hands and feet to kick and it, but Micah had no intention of stopping He continued to use force and forced Galilea to the wall

Her back was against the cold wall

'Is it fun to lie to me?' He lowered his eyes and stared at her face, the corners of his mouth curling into a cruel smile it was not easy for Galilea to catch her breath and her bright eyes glared back "You still want to continue lying to me?' Micah suddenly pinched her neck and said with a sinister tone, 'Do you think that Noru's methods are brilliant? If you still want to continue pretending to be nice to deceive me, the Lubinski family will be the second ankle Family Micah, you're a complete lunatic Galilea bit the corner of her lip Seeing that she finally breathed a sigh of relief, the coldness in Micah's eyes actually receded a little The hand he used to pinch her neck wasn't as hard anymore Fortunately, he didn't guess wrong As long as she could recover her hearing those stubborn old men in the Lorenta group wouldn't be a problem at all At that moment, he realized how false he was Compared to being afraid of losing her, he was more afraid that she would do irreparable harm Maybe this thought he could not tell anyone Even if he did none would believe! Galilea pushed him away forcefully and shouted angrily, 'I told you to do everything if you are not happy, come after me' Every word she said was to defend Nore, which she hated "What will you want the Lubinski family to go bankrupt and Nore to lose all her fruits?' He frowned deeply

That's because Dayana wants to find trouble with me. She even wants my life. Otherwise, I wouldn't make anything of a woman like her Is she worthy? Galilea sneered, "Okay, Galilea, you are very good Micoh met her gaze and suddenly said coldly. When you return home tomorrow, I will let you know the consequences of lying to me." She really did not know what to do. Not only did she lie to him, but she also dared to protect another man in front of him. ll Micah did not suppress the anger in his heart, she really did not know what he would do. He slammed the door and left, and the anger in his cold eyes gradually dissipated. At least, Galilea recovered her hearing, For the entire night, Galilea tossed and turned. She knew that she had indeed provoked Micah this time Not only had she wasted his painstaking ellons, but she had also stabbed the Lorenzo group in the back. She revealed the commercial news she had bought at a high price to Nore and secretly spread the news to let the Lorenzo group's people misunderstand Micah In addition, Micoh had indeed taken her abroad for treatment, which further confirmed the authenticity of those rumors. Those people, who only cared about profit, would, of course, not hesitate to shed all pretenses with Micah, ond even let Terry replace Micah Galilea had thought from the beginning that this little uick could not really shake Micah's position in the Lorenzo group, but she could wait. If she could not do it once, she would do it twice. One day, the Lorenzo group would fall apart because of mutual suspicion. That was the time for her to truly destroy the Lorenzo group It was too early to say this now. On the plane back, Galilea Saw Micah toke the medicine with her own cyes.

The man glanced at her coldly and womed in a low voice, 'Don't play tricks in front of me. If I catch you again, I won't forgive you" Gallea muttered something in a low voice. Micah only felt a headache. He frowned and turned his head away. His old illness flared up from time to time, and he could only endure it. Galilea looked at his side face in pain. Her eyelashes blinked. In this world, was there anyone more ruthless than Micah to himself? He clearly knew that he could not take a plone, but he still often ran around. For money? No, he was no longer short of money. Moreover, with the Lorenzo group's current status, there were many things that did not need Micoh to deal with personally Galilea wropped herself in o blonket. She really could not see through this man's thoughts The plane flew into a stoble jet stream. Galilea slowly closed her eyes and soon fell asleep. But soon, a violent jolt woke her up. The economy cabin behind was in a mess. Some people were shouting, and children were crying. The flight attendont was trying to persuade the passengers to calm their emotions. The couple on Galilea's left hugged tightly "It's okay. The Lord will bless us!" Bang!

The plane seemed to have hit something

Galilea subconsciously tightened her grip on her seatbelt. At this moment, the only person she knew was Micah. When she looked over, the man had also turned his head to look at her.

'Don't be afraid'

He simply spat out these few words 'What a pity' Galilea snorted expressionlessly, 'I hope this is an accident. I don't have to waste any more effort to find you for revenge.'

Micah's heart sank and his tone was filled with endless frustration "You, you want me to die so much?" Even if she had to sacrifice her own life, she would not hesitate? "What do you want me to do so that you won't hate me so much?"

Chapter 234 It Was Meaningless! Time could not be reversed, and the dead could not be revived. It was meaningless to talk about this now. The plane was still shaking and Micah frowned. His old illness was acting up again. Galilea kept looking at the other side. No matter what he did, he could not save the tragedy that had already happened. "Be careful! Please return to your seats," The flight attendant shouted, trying her best to control the situation. 'I want to see the captain. Someone shouted and then rushed forward from the back of the cabin. Two or three men pushed the flight attendant to the ground. "Get lost! The scene was extremely chaotic. The few people saw that there were only a few passengers in the business class, and they were sitting so steadily. They immediately spat on the ground, 'Rich people can enjoy it like this? Get up, if you want to die, we'll die together.' They looked around and their eyes were locked on Galilea. They reached out to pull her up. "Don't touch her. Micah's face darkened. He took the risk to unbuckle his seat belt and grabbed the man's wrist 'It's none of your business!" The man was not convinced. He swung his hand forcefully, turned around, and pounced towards Micah. Galilea's eyes widened 'Don't!' She shouted subconsciously.

Micah was momentarily dazed. He looked at her and in the next second, his side profile took a solid punch. Coupled with the turbulence of the plane, he fell onto the hatch of the plane. It was unknown where the spikes protruded from, but it scratched his forehead. "Blood"

The man who hit him panicked and staggered to the side. I didn't touch you. You fell down on your own. Because of the airflow, the plane was still shaking. Two security guards came over and pulled the noting passengers behind. All the noise gradually died down. "Sorry, Mr. Lorenzo, are you okay?" After the plane returned to normal, the flight attendant immediately rushed over to check on Micah. "Give him a glass of water. Galilea said lightly. Then she walked over and pulled him up. Micah stood up with the support of the seat. His face was pale and cold, but the first thing he did after he stood up was to grab Galilea's fingertips and touch the skin temperature of her hand. Only then did the man's gaze soften a little. It was good that she was fine. Galilea pulled her hand back. The man turned his head to look at her with a sense of loss between his eyebrows.

The entire crew was extremely sorry for this small accident. They had come over several times to apologize to Micah We have already communicated with the two passengers. When the plane lands, they will come over to apologize to you. We have already asked the medical vehicle to wait in the parking lot so that you can do a comprehensive examination

No need' Micah raised his hand,

He glanced over, and the vice captain could only nod. 'Alright, if you need anything, let me know. You can inform the flight attendants at any time.

The lights in the cabin lit up one after another.

Galilea pulled her coat and stopped looking at them.

When the plane landed, Keith will come in to pick you up. You go with him. What I say, go.

She was not Dayang, and she would be of his mercy.

Can you listen to me once? Micah's face darkened.

The traffic accident is still under investigation. Maybe two real murderers behind the scenes will attack you. In this case, do you have anything against me?

Chapter 234 1 Was Meaningless! She was not stupid. If things were really like what Micah said, it was safer for her to stay with the Lorenzo group's people.

"Can you find out the murderer?" Galilea asked in a very soft voice. The Lorenzo group was very powerful, but it had made many enemies at the same time. Even the police could not get any result, could he find it out? The thoughts in her mind were very chaotic, so chaotic that she could not think normally. "Before I figure out who is behind all this, don't joke about your personal safety, okay?" His eyes stared straight at her. 'Go!' Galilea nodded. After getting off the plane, she got into Keith's car and was sent directly to Micah's villa. As soon as she entered, Sister Zhang came over with a blanket in her arms,

I'm not cold. Thank you, Sister Zhang. Galilea squeezed out a smile. For some reason, at this moment she actually felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity. As soon as this thought emerged, Galilea frowned and shook her head, trying to shake off the thoughts that should not appear. "Miss Frenkie, please stay here for the time being. After Keith finished speaking, he nodded at Sister Zhang and left. Sister Zhang helped Galilea take off her coat. When she saw that her cuffs were stained with a few drops of blood, she was shocked. "Are you injured? NO. It's Micah's blood." Galilea thought of the scene on the plane and said lightly, "What?" Sister Zhang wanted to ask, but Galilea had already stepped into the kitchen. She had not eaten well in the hospital these days. She drank a big bowl of porridge in one go and fell asleep on the sofa. Sister Zhang covered her with a blanket and sighed silently.

As soon as the news of Micah's return spread, the Lorenzo group and the others could no longer sit still. One by one, they ran to Hualen Lorenzo's office. "Vice President Lorenzo, this matter really has nothing to do with us. It's all because of Vice President Xiao. Vice President Xiao ordered us to do this! Director Qin was the first to stand up and push all the blame onto Terry. Someone beside him echoed, "Yes, we have always supported Mr. Lorenzo, although Mr. Lorenzo has recently done wrong with me recently?" Micah pushed the door open and walked in. His eyes were filled with coldness. "Mr. Lorenzo!" Several directors stood there silently. Micah's back? How is Galilea? Hualen Lorenzo looked concerned. Then he glanced at the directors and waved his hand. "You guys go first. If there's anything, we'll talk about it tomorrow morning." *Anght. We will leave now." Director Qin and the others quickly had away. No one dared to look at Micah, because his eyes were too cold and scary. Hualen closed the door. "You are also responsible for this matter. Leaving the company at this critical moment will inevitably leave behind a precedent for others. But since it has already been done, there is no need to worry about the company. I have already sent someone to deal with it."

Thank you. Second Uncle

"What's wrong with your face? Your father has been gone for so many years, and I have always treated you as my own son. I have also supported what you want to do, but sometimes, you really went a little too far."

Micah lowered his head.

At this time, only Hualen's words could be heard. "In order to treat Galilea, not only did you hurt your relationship with the Lubi family, but you also embarrassed the Quincy family. Now that you are engaged to Dayana, how do you plan to deal with this?"

Chapter 235 The Reason to Break off the Engagement

Micah thought for a long time and spoke his thoughts. "If she still wants to give birth to this child, I will be responsible for the child to the end. As for this marriage, I don't want to continue! I already understand that I don't love her. From the beginning, he doesn't love Dayana. It was she who had used the pendant to decrivetem If this force continued, it would only hurt more people. Mucn Lorenzo pondered over this and slowly sighed. That's good. I wil personally go to the Quincy family. You rest at home for a few days You just come back from abroad and got injured too Sigh Hua en sad and got up to go out Micoh stood tooted to the ground, listening to the words he sald before closing the dood, "You must think about it carefully and not Purt others ogan That night Dayana cried and ran to the Lorenzo group Before Micah got off work, she blocked him Theard Uncle Lorenzo say that you want to break off the engagement with me, night? No way! I wont agree.Dayana wiped away her lears. She stood in Micah's office, throwing a tantrum, completely ignoring the mon's cold expression However, Micah was determined b break it off What he rernembered was another face. Wien he sent his lawyer to talk about doce with Galles, had she been so ercited and sad? No, Galtea would not make such a scene regardless of the situaton She would only sce blood with one knife. She would not stop unti sha nchieved her goal

In a sense she was more like him

"Micah i havent done anyting I should feel sorry for you If you are angy that I went to socialize with those directors, I can promise you tholl will never go agan. Is that okay? Micah frowned *It is not because of this What is that? Dryana stopped crying and rushed to Micah in a few steps Micah lted his eyes to look at her Just alls thin lips were about to open there was a sudden knock on the office door "Come in the sad, turning his head to the side Galdea pushed open the door carrying a lunch box and medicine in Nerlund When che saw that Dayana was standing in front of his desk, she was stunned for a moment before she explained. He stopped at the office door Through the blirds, ne vaguely saw that Galdea was no longer on the sola The man's eyebrows slowly fuowed "You also know in your heart that Goldcu approached you just for revenge. The Lorenzo group cant stand this kind of forment right now Your personal affairs shou'd be resolved as soon as possible Donit olect the future development of the company. af she really stole your safe, it means that there is no problem with her cars at all. Then at tomorrow's group meeting, we will have to talk about the issue of the terminason of the contract between the two companies *Alco, Mr. Lorenzo, please don't forget tha: I have worked with you unul now I want to take back the share I deserve *Tell all the employees on this floor to get off work: Micah had with a cold face and handed the phone to Keith "Yes, Mi Lorenzo Koth lowered his head and replied. Micah took a deep breath and pushed open the office door. Looking around, he could not see Galilea. His eyes became colder and colder, fixed on the door. In the suite 11 Galilea was really inside. He held the metal door handle in his palm, and the last trace of hesitation in his heart disappeared. She believed Terry's words lightly, and she forced him "You're back?" Galilea asked from behind. He turned around and looked at Galilea with a complicated and deep gaze. What's wrong? I accidentally spilled it. I went to the bathroom. Galilea blinked and looked down at the coffee stains on her body. "Are you hungry? I take you to dinner," the man said with a faint smile.

7 am. Before Galilea could finish her sentence, he had already walked out. Looking at that figure, her red lips pursed in silence. Almost just a little more if she moved a little later, she would have been able to open the sale. In the end, between the Frinklo family and Micah, she would not choose the latter nor could we choose the latter. She no longer had a chance to turn back. The places that Micah went to were places that only high-class people could enter. As soon as he opened, he was cut off. Galilea looked at the thin manager of the restaurant who had trotted out to greet him. "Mr. Lorenzo, are you still in your old position?" Decca nodded imperceptibly. Galilea followed behind then and walked in silence. "Mr. Lorenzo, there are a few new dishes in our store. You must try them." "Mr. Lorenzo, please come in the manager's room with a smile. No one cared about Galilea as she was following behind Micah. She was like an ant and was thrown to the back of everyone's mind. "Well, Lorem. After the manager pushed open the door, Micah did not move. Instead, he turned around and looked behind him. His gaze fell on Galilea. It was cold and retrieved. Hermed has kind and gelued for her to Conte Oret. All of a sudden, everyone's eyes were on her. Galilea was no longer used to the feeling of being looked at. She lowered her head and wandered. She felt that Macario Gattas sull on her and the framed.

Chapter 236 A Declaration of War This man was getting harder and harder to deal with. Immediately send Mr. Lorenzo a glass of red wine! Miss Frankre, this way, please," the manager said with a meaningful look. Micah had personally brought his girlfriend to a high class restaurant to have a meal. In order to please her, he did not hesitate to put down his face and spend a lot of money in front of everyone. The news quickly spread throughout the city. Just as Galilea put down her chopsticks and wiped her mouth, she heard a commotion behind her. Then, Lachlan strode over from outside the door, followed by Wendy, who was wearing a gray windbreaker. "You pair of dog couple!" Lachlan had already shed all pretenses with Micah. He did not care about his face and directly scolded him, pointing at Micah's face, "My daughter did everything for you but you you heartless man!" Galilea chewed the last piece of chicken in her mouth until there was no taste left before she swallowed it. Did the Quincy family finally recognize Micah's in loco? No, they had already known. Although they shouted, they still did not dare to touch Micah. In fact, only Lochan dared to shout at Micah. Then, all the gazes of criticism fell on Galilea. She calmly looked up and swept past Lochan's domineering face. She looked at Wendy and narrowed her eyes slightly. Wendy was so frightened that she hid behind Lachlan. Lachlan pushed her aside, "I have already investigated the trial matter between you and the Frankie family. You are now Dayana's stepmother. If she became the Quincy family's people, would she have to face the outside world together with them?" Galilea glanced at Wendy's face and pursed her lips. Wendy had already lowered her head and did not dare to look at her. Just as Galilea was about to speak, her phone rang. A message from an unknown number jumped out, seeing the content between the lines, Galilea widened her eyes. On the other side, Wendy understood what Lachlan meant. He was a grown man and an elder. He also knew Galilea's dead father. He couldn't do anything to Calles in person. He would become a laughing stock and be laughed at

But she was different

She could stand up for Dayana, or she could even like a shrer, light with Galilea while grabbing her her Lachlan did not care whether she would get hurt or not In order to stay with the Quincy family and continue to enjoy wealth and glory, Wendy could only grit her teeth and endure! She directly went forward to hold down Galilea and whispered. 'For the sake of your father, help me perform the play' As soon as she finished speaking, she was pushed away by Galilea before she could speak Galilea found sound and stated to Lachlan. Her eyes were red While Wendy was in a daze, Galilea had already bypassed her and went straight to Lochan "Before any dad passed away you want to see him and went to see a lower with him? This was the first time she knew about this! She did not even know that Lachlan had a relationship with her dad, Even Micah frowned. He did not know about this matter "Say something!" Countless possibilities appeared in Galilea's mind she stared at Lochan's face, afraid to miss any clues What nonsense are you talking about? I am not familiar with your father Don't talk about your family what are you talking about non is about you seducing my son in that'

'seduced him? Galilea bit the corner of her lips and her eyes turned red. They were all Quincy family's people. They were all here to stand up for Dayana. In their eyes, she was a real bitch She had no bottom line and no shame! However, back then, at her father's funeral, it was Dayana who was wearing a beautiful dress and nestled in Micah's arms. At that time, they had just divorced Because her family had fallen, she had to suffer this kind of grievance? It was not her fault but they had to blame it on her Galilea's heart ached so much that she almost lost consciousness. Her red lips slowly curved up No wonder Dayana was pregnant before marriage It turned out that she had such an upbringing. "You!"

Lachlan was about to speak "If anything happens, come at me" Micah took a step forward and stood in front of Galilea. The coldness in his eyes spread. The moment he brought Galilea out of the Lorenzo group, he had already mentally prepared himself Lochan widened his eyes. "You must stop my face in public to protect this woman? You have to think it through clearly My daughter is pregnant with your child.

he had already told Dayana about this matter. You can go back and ask her Micah moved his thin lips, turned around, and pulled Galilea out His actions had already explained everything This time, he wanted to stand on Galilea's side.

Unfortunately

*Mr Lorenzo, please let me go." "What did you say? Micah turned around and stood at Galilea's face. His eyebrows were knitted together I don't need you to protect me, and I don't want to be involved with you and Dayana anymore. I will entrust the Frankie Group's business to Uncle Priestley's company I hope we don't meet again in the future The aura around Micah suddenly turned cold "Galilea, I will pretend you don't say anything just now. Now, come with me "Where to go?" Galilea suddenly smiled The faint smile in her eyes was like her miserable fate at this time. She obviously wanted revenge but everyone thought that she was the third party who had seduced Micah Even if he had changed his mind and abandoned his reputation to protect her, so what? "Micah I hope I will never see your face again. She smiled with tears in her eyes Galilea raised her hand and pushed the door open Snowflakes fell from the outside. A gust of cold wind onlled into her clothes, but she did not hesitate at all She stepped down the stairs and walked out As for how deep the eyes of the man behind her were, she did not want to care anymore No matter how dark and cold the night outside was, she would not turn back She had only taken a few steps when someone called out to her from behind. "Galilea

As soon as she turned around, Jing turried over 'Are are you ainght?' Galilea immediately lowered her eyes She knew how miserable she was without looking in the mirror. Her fears were rolling in het

Wat? Galilea, you bitch I won't let you go!" Dayana shouted angrily and was forcibly taken away. The narrow comdor outside finally queiod downAfter Galileatidied up, she looked at the formiliar face in the mirror with a strange expression ihsvend gone to find you yet but you took the initiative to send yourself to me. Don't blame me for being impolite She had been reading the information that Zongong Priestley had given her lost night I was basically consistent with the results of her investigation dunnig this penod of time Micah was indeed the initiator for the Frankie family's bankruptcy However, there were still some people who took advantage of her father's serious illness to take tway the last hope of the Frankie family, such as Wendy who had ned with the money, and Lochlan who had never sald that he had contact with her lother There were also a few people that Galilea had met once or twice. She adjusted her mood. opened the door and walked out. She would lear off the masks worn by those people one by one. They should also have a taste of the pain of their family being destroyed At this time, downstairs of the apartment Jing's car had already stopped there. When he saw Galles coming downstairs, he pushed open the door and wored, "Why are you here?" Galilea was slightly surprised and walked over

Jing didn't say anything. He just handed her the car keys. "You live a little out of the way here. If you have a car, it will be much more convenient Galilea looked at the car behind him. It was just an ordinary car with a black body and a low-key license plate.

Then help me thank Uncle Priestley. In a few days, I will return the car.” Jing nodded his head. ‘Can you take me to the subway then?’ ‘Of course’ Galilea was amused by his appearance. Jing did not mention anything about what was in the box last night. Along the way, he only chatted with Galilea. The only thing he said was that his mother would invite a lot of friends to his house in a few days. If Galilea had time, she would also invite her,

To the Armstrong family? ‘Yes’ Jing looked at the road ahead with a gentle expression, Galilea gripped the steering wheel and stepped on the brakes at the traffic light intersection. When the time comes, I’ll wait and see Galilea knew that Micah would probably be invited. After all, his relationship with the Armstrong Family was not shallow.

Jing turned to look at Galilea and suddenly said with a smile, ‘I think you are very different from when you were young.’ ‘Do you think so, or does Uncle Priestley think so?’ Galilea joked with a smile. From the time they met Jing had always mentioned Uncle Priestley. From the bottom of her heart, Galilea was envious of him.

her father was still alive, she would be an obedient child and be filial to him too. It was a pity.

There was a truck passing by. If not for Jing turning the steering wheel in time, they would have been in danger. ‘Are you alright?’ He unbuckled his seat belt immediately and checked Galilea’s condition to make sure that she was fine. Galilea shook her head in shock. ‘Sorry, I haven’t been driving for too long. My hand is not working.’ Ling only looked at her with a frown. That kind of gaze seemed to be looking straight into Galilea’s heart. In the end, he did not ask any more questions. He only told Galilea to be careful when driving in the future. After Galilea agreed, he got out of the subway. She got up and then slowly walked down the steps until he disappeared into the crowd. Comp 19. Now, Ling was an obedient child. From a young age, he had grown up according to Zongur’s expectations. His school and friends were all recognized by the Priestley.

Galilea grasped the steering wheel and took a deep breath.

She stepped on the gas pedal and walked in the crowd. However, she was not going to look for Micah today.

What lost another first? So she walked into the business.

Chapter 233 A New Beginning

Just a floor? The staff glanced at other people like there were the best at reading people’s expressions. With just a glance, they could tell the customer’s approximate spending level. After the other party sized up Galilea, he was not in a high mood. It was obvious that Galilea was not in line with his judgment of potential customers. From head to toe, there was not a single branded item. Even the bag she took was cheap. ‘Three floors is the minimum. You can go to another house to take a look.’ He spoke politely. But Galilea did not move.

Everyone in this industry had their own business scope. This agency was closest to the Lorenzo group, and Galilea had no better choice. She took out the card that Wendy had given her back, plus the card she had saved up during this period of time, and directly slammed them on the table. ‘I want a noor that can oversee the Lorenzo Group Building. One floor. If I like it I will sign the contract today.’ Her action stunned the staff. ‘Okay, I will take you to have a look. However, the rent nearby is not low. You have to get prepared in advance. Are you going to open a company?’ The staff asked as he looked for the access card. Galilea looked at the building that looked down on the entire city and lightly nodded. She wanted to put the Frankic Group, which no one thought Highly of, in the most dazzling position! After completing the formalities in the afternoon and leaving the agency, Galilea became a poor person again She had been hungry for a few hours, but she could only buy a bottle of mineral water to satisfy her hunger. At this time, her phone rang. It was Jimmy 'The design draft from last time passed. The boss is very satisfied. Give me a card number and I'll transfer the money to you.' Galilea repeatedly agreed. Jimmy smiled and asked, "Why don't you come to work here? The time is flexible, and the reward is negotiable Galileas design had explosive power. As a newcomer, she only lacked some work experience. In the future, she would definitely make a name for herself *Con 1? I'm going to your shop now. Let's talk face to face. Galilea Immediately stood up. She had to take hold of any hope. After leaving MON, she would occasionally receive messages from Liu Xiaonao. She and Kal Forrest had signed employment contracts. She had been promoted to a junior designer, and Kal Forrest had renewed contracts The two of them had been together and lived happily every day it was just that by the internal assessment mechanism of MON, only the real top works could shine in a short time. Although the two of them could get some design work, it was still too little. However, Jimmy was a high-end custom made private store, and he served some high class people, celebrities, or rich people When the order was large, it was very short of people. As long as the buyer was satisfied, the pay for the custom-made style was attractive, and there were many opportunities to stand out. It was also thanks to Zhang Min and Susan that she could get such a great opportunity "Your strength is not bad, but you need time to train I happen to have a suitable list to practice on.' Jimmy put away the contract and then took out a photo. The bracelet in the photo was noble and luxurious Wearing it on someone's fair wrist gave people a noble feeling Galilea saw the style clearly and could not help but frown. The buyer is the same person on the previous one, right?

Chapter 239 Cooperation Postponed

This time, it was Jimmy's turn to be surprised, 'You know him? The boss had clearly said that he wanted to keep his identity a secret from Galilea "Actually, I have seen this bracelet before. It was my mother's relic and was later auctioned' Galilea shook her head and put the photo on the table Galilea said calmly When her mother died, she was still young These things used to be placed on the dressing table at home every day. The servants cleaned it day after day, and she would occasionally pick it up to take a look Although she lived a carefree life every day she never thought that the Frankle family would be forced to a dead-end one day, nor did she think that these things would be auctioned and flow into the market Jimmy suddenly did not react. After thinking for a while, he shook his head and said, 'The buyer must have seen the photos and liked the style, so he let us make a similar style, right? In the upper-class circle, this kind of thing was rare "Maybe" Galilea lowered her head and suppressed the sadness in her eyes, *Then, do you still want to take this order?*' Jimmy asked softly

Galilea looked up and answered firmly Right now, she had no right to hesitate 'But I have a request. If my design can satisfy the buyer, I want to see him Galileo clenched her fingers. She was a little nervous, but she had to know who this person was and whether he had anything to do with the Frankie family's bankruptcy *Let me help you communicate with the buyer first You also know the rules. It is the most basic thing to keep secrets for the customer

I understand, thank you

Galilea breathed a sigh of relief. At least for now, everything was developing in a good direction. The next step was to wait.

After Dayana was taken away by the police, she stayed in the police station for an entire day. In the end, it was Ilicoh who took the lawyer to bring her out. Micah: 'It's so dark inside I was scared to death.' Dayana was still in shock and kept pulling his arm. The man frowned and looked at her: 'If you were taking care of you turnmy at home, there wouldn't have been such trouble.' Sensing his impatience, Dayana felt even more wronged. 'It's all Galilea's fault. I just went to ask her about how she contradicted my father yesterday. She actually dared to call the police.' Dayana's words were full of annoyance. 'Don't you understand me?' Micah looked at her chattering and said in a low voice: 'I didn't mean that. "But I can't let her contradict my dad like that. If she really does make the Frankie Group up in the future, where will we Quincy family, put our face?" Dayana explained: "My dad is so old." Dayana squeezed out a few drops of tears. Micah was getting more and more agitated as he stepped into the car, "Galilea's company shouldn't be able to grow, right? Dayana also squeezed in. She was trying to see if Micah still cared about that worry! "Due to the company. When Dayana asked this question, it was like a stone being thrown into the sea, unable to make a single splash.

She could not bear to give up and continued to mutter: 'Ever since he was released from prison her life became a mess. Think people like her should be locked up for a lifetime.' Micah's eyes became cold and he turned his head to look at Dayana.

The coldness in his gaze became stronger and stronger. How could a woman who was going to be a mother, say such words? Micah frowned and turned to look out of the window. Not long after Dayana grabbed his sleeve. "Micah, what do you think that is? I'm not blind, right? The Frankie Group?" Micah followed the direction of her finger. A few workers were hanging the sign on the building. Keith also looked over at the copilot's position. Without Micah's instructions, he began to investigate and soon had a result.

Chapter 239 Cooperation Postponed 'Mr Lorenzo, it is indeed the Frankie Group's new office address. The company has already received a notice from Ms Frankie. She said that she will be actively engaged with the cooperation of the two companies in the future.' Is she worthy? Micah, it's fine if you didn't give this project to my dad. Do you really want to meet Galilea every day in the future?' Dayana was even angrier.

Micah's tone became a bit colder.

'Alright, then I will see how capable Galilea is. She is in so many debts and she can still make the Frankie group rise again? How is that possible?' Dayana snorted. When Micah heard this, his eyes were full of meaning. The car drove into the Lorenzo group's underground parking lot. When Micah got off, Dayana still wanted to follow. "Go back to Quincy family, the man said, casting a glance at her. Micah, let me accompany you. I promise I won't talk nonsense or walk around.' Dayana refused to give up. However, her trust index in Micah was basically zero. The man gestured, and a bodyguard stepped forward to stop.

Dayana. "Miss Quincy, please get in the car" As his figure walked further and further away. Dayana was so angry that she stomped her feet. 'It's all that bitch' She called her father's company and told him about the Frankie Group Lachlan was receiving guests. When he heard this news, he was also shocked, "What? Arat shit has su ned o pol of porridget The person sitting opposite N'm was Zongxing Priestley's ossistant, Wu Zheng. Lachlan blurted out these words. He realized that Wu Zheng was present so he quickly coughed a few times. "Alright, let's talk about it when I get back He put down his phone and personally poured tea for Wu Zheng. Im sorry, Mt Wu. It's a call from my daughter. its a small matter." "I heard that your doughter is the future Mrs. Lorenzo?" Wu Zheng slowly raised his eyes and said with a faint smile. *That's right! Lachlan's smile deepened and he answered with certainty "But it seems that Mr. Lorenzo and his exwife..."

That is a crazy woman Sooner or later she will be locked up again.' In order to brog about his relationship with Micah and facilitate cooperation with Zongung, Lachlan said a lot of nonsense Half an hour later, Wu Zheng worked out of the Quincy Group

Mr Priestley, Lachlan said that the daughter of Old Frankie is a crazy woman* With one sentence, the other side was furious *Does the person surnamed Quincy really think of himself as someone Important? "Then Mr. Priestley, what about the cooperation with the Quincy Group.

*Postpone it!

Zongung hung up the phone in a horsh voice. He had never seen such a thick-skinned person as Lachan Back then, Onyx had brought him to this circle and introduced him lo many people. it had been a matter from many years ago, and many juniors were not clear about it. He could stand by and do nothing about the Frankde farnsly, but how could he be so ungrateful? *Cooperating with this kind of person will dirty the company's reputation. Zongring snorted angniy Looking at the chessboard tri front of ham, he lost interest Just as Jasper went up the stous, he heard o voice coming from the study My uncle is here?" he asked the butler.

Yes, he's playing chess with Old Master in the study. The butler replied respectfully 'Oh no Jasper slepped his forchead, turned around, and was about 10 tun. Unfortunately, he was still too slow Adgnified voice came from betund ham, 'Ne you going to leave without entering the room?"

Chapter 240 With Her?

Jasper turned around with a smile on his face 'Uncle, I forgot something in the car and wanted to get il Knoing that he was playing tricks, Zongning Priestley frowned coldly 'Come find me after you are done. I have something to ask you to do." Jasper could only nod Ten minutes later He sat in front of Zongxing After knowing what he wanted him to do, his eyes lit up. This is easy Uncle, you don't know. Recently, Micoh has also cooperated with the Frankie family If he can:

Wiry did you mention that kid? Let me tell you, your cousin is responsible for the cooperation with the Frankie Group "Ah?"

Jasper gasped He could almost see the angry expression on Micah's face. "Although he doesn't have enough experience in management, he has also advanced three or four major projects abroad. If you help him a little more, there should be no problem. Zongong was a strict father, and he had always been very strict with Jasper. In addition, his business was big, and he always kept his word, Jasper had always been respectful to him. But thinking about Micah, Jasper hesitated and said, 'Uncle, you have been abroad all this time. You may not know much about the situation here in fact, Galdea and Micah. At this time, Jing pushed the door and came in 'Dad, I gave the car to Galilea' Did he give a car?

Josper's ears stood up

They had only been back for a few days, and not only had they planned to cooperate with the Frankia Group, but they had also even made a more personally!

The more Jasper thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong. The first thing he did when he left the study was to call Micah "Micah, it's not that I don't want to help you. If you continue to dandle, I'm afraid that Galilea will become my sister-in-law "Impossible, she doesn't like that kind of person. After listening to the news, the other side frowned coldly 'She doesn't like a gentle and considerate man, but she likes her exhusband? You are handsome and can make money, but do you understand women?' Jasper couldn't help but complain. Apart from Galilea, there was only Dayana. To put it bluntly, it was always Dayana sticking to him. Other than that the Lorenzo family's mosquitoes were all male. In Jorper's opinion, Micah did not know how to get along with a woman. Micah put down his phone and frowned even more. Just as Keith came in to deliver the documents, Micah lifted his eyes and looked over. His cold game mode Keith shiver "Mr. Lorenzo, what's the matter?' Keith put down the documents and stood there, not daring to move. Have you had a girlfriend?" "Mr Lorenzo, my girlfriend and I are already engaged. Keith was stunned. "Then if you quarrel with her, how do you usually deal with it?"

Did you quoddel with Miss Quincy? Keith asked subconsciously, but as soon as the words left his mouth, he regretted it. If it were for Dayana, Micah would not ask him at all "Under normal circumstances, sending flowers or jewelry is a good choice. Keith gave a serious suggestion * Jeuary Micah murmured. As he was speaking, there was a knock on the office door. Mr Lorenzo, Vice President Xiao and the directors have arrived at the meeting room." Micah thought about something and walked to the office. The project with the Frankie Group was coming to an end and the directors in the conference room were in a heated argument because of the profit problem. It was clearly a mad at cooperation with the Frankie Group. In fact, it was the several sectors who supported Terry who formed a gang wanting to dampen Micah, opit. After a dispute, there was mai no result. All of you are so noisy that your faces are red. His simply a joke. Huawen Lorenzo frowned and snorted rudely, 'There has already been a contract with the France Group. Moreover, I have received new at Galilea has already fulfilled the contents of the contract and it recruiting employeenHer company is just oppo.ste the road

Chapter 240 With Her? Huaien pointed out the window. The directors turned their heads one by one and some were unconvinced. Then there is no one under her that can take over the project. She is simply messing around" All of a sudden, the focus of conflict fell on Galilea again "What do you mean? Micah looked around the crowd

There should be a business manager assigned by the company to work at the head of the Frankie Group
“Yes, I think this person has to come from the Project Department who has both experience and strength.’ The most important thing was that the Project Department was directly in the charge of Terry. After going around, it was still the same goal. Micah suddenly sneered and asked, ‘It seems that everyone’s information is not so well-informed. Haven’t you heard that Zongxing is going to cooperate with the Frankie Group?’ “What?

Zongxing has been abroad for a few years and only came back to develop at the beginning of the year. I heard that his current industry is no longer the same as before. If he moves his fingers, the entire Yehsi region will tremble.’ ‘Is Galilea so capable? Can she get Zongxing’s resources? Suddenly, the atmosphere in the conference room changed. The few directors who had just been talking with certainty were now lowering their heads one by one. *This matter ends here. After saying that, Micah stood up and strode away. Terry sat in the seat of the vice president, his eyes filled with endless coldness. It seemed that he had really underestimated Galilea. Terry then stood up and left with his secretary. Huo en Lorenzo looked at the directors present and shook his head with a smile. ‘All of you think too highly of your interests. You have to have a long-term vision and see who makes the decisions for the Lorenzo group. The directors looked at each other, not quite understanding what he meant. “Forget it, I won’t interfere in your business: Just as he stood up, the assistant behind him stepped forward and said something. Hualen Loreo was slightly stunned, ‘Let him

‘Sir, this is the latest design. You can take a look.’ The shop assistant recommended it to Micah. The man narrowed his eyes and did not make a sound. He only felt that this jewelry was a little familiar. Where had he seen it before? “There are also a few pieces here. They were also designed by the same designer. As soon as the clerk finished speaking, someone came out from inside. The voice was very familiar. “Have you delivered the pearls I asked for?’ Galilea was wearing a work uniform. Her hair was simply hooked behind her ears, revealing her delicate forehead and two beautiful and delicate moon earrings on her earlobes. She had been working for more than an hour, and her neck was a little sore. She walked out while massaging herself. She looked up and saw the man standing in front of the counter. At that moment, Galilea frowned, “Sister Luna, you came at the right time. This gentleman is interested in the bracelet you designed. Please introduce it.’ The shop assistant smiled and walked over. She held Galilea’s arm and whispered, “He is a black card client of our mall. Although she was kind, Galilea was not happy at all. She was helplessly pushed in front of Micah and whispered awkwardly, ‘Sit, what do you want to know? For her business was business and she did not want to mix it with private problems.

It was obvious that she did not want to reveal her relationship with him.

“Try it on, Micah said as he picked up the bracelet with his fingers.
