Chapter 271 Deal

Husin Lorenzo I words were reasonable

“Don’t worry. Second Uncle 11 think about it carefully and talk 10 Terry personally, I wont let things get worse.”

That’s good No matter what you are partners. Don’t make things too awkward Besides, there are still several projects in the company that are under his control. You have to think carefully about the stakes.’
“Okay I understand “Alco, I saw the news. Is Galilea really with that kid from the Priestley family?’
Huairen asked nosily “I dont know either, Micahs face darkened. Hun en pulled him and muttered a few more words before getting up and leaving. After sending him out Micah thought for a while and pressed the internal phone ‘Make an appointment with Vice President Xiao in the afternoon

“Okay. Mr Lorenzo When the secretary called Terry, he was already sitting in the president’s office of the Frankie Group Galilea was sitting opposite him Jing and Su Yusn stood at the door, and both of them perked up their ears to listen to the movements inside Manager Presley, do you think Ms. Frankie will be in danger? Should I call the security guards downstairs, just in case? “No need just listen quietly. Jing frowned with a vigilant look. in the office, Galilea sat calmly “Vice President Xiao is so free to come here to drink tea?”

The Frankie Group’s development prospects are so good now. Of course, I am here to talk business with you.’ Terry put down his phone and smiled

This is the evidence of corruption and bribery of the Lorenzo group’s higher-ups. I need you to give these things to Micah. He blatantly threw out a stack of money and a list. “What do you mean?” ‘This way you can threaten him and achieve the goal of making a comeback, and I can also benefit from it and achieve the best of both worlds

The atmosphere in the office became somewhat indescribable. *7 won't do it. Galilea's eyebrows tightened This answer was obviously something that Terry did not expect. "MS Frankie is really different from the others. The hatred in Terry's eyes suddenly become clear. He leaned forward a little, "This is not the first time you have rejected me. There is a limit to my patience' 'Not everyone is willing to be in cahoots with you. The Frankie Group does not welcome you. Please leave.' Galilea answered very firmly "Heh Do you want to take revenge on Micah just like this? You won't be able to do it in a few lifetimes!" Galleas expression became a little gloomy After a long time, she turned around. There was no need to waste breath with someone like Terry Whether I can succeed or not is my business. It has nothing to do with you. Su Yuan, see the guest out." Galilea clenched her fingers. Terry sneered and walked out Su Yuan was about to catch up when Jing stopped her. 'Ill go You Stay behind to accompany Ms. Frankie." Su Yuan felt very scared when she saw Terry just now She naturally nodded "Vice President Xiao wtry did you come for Ms. Frankie?' Jing quickly followed "It has nothing to do with you." Terry put a piece of gurn into his mouth and looked at Jing with a calculating look, 't heard that you are going after Galilea. How is it going?

"Tsk "What are you pretending for? Terry sneered. The lift door slowly closed At the last minute, Jing pressed the button and also walked in 7 have already heard the purpose of you looking for Galilea I can do this for you"

Terry had always been wary of those who took the initiative to deliver themselves to his doorstep Jing scratched his forehead, 'As long as you can achieve your goal, why bother about the process?" "I don't expect that Zongung's son would be so bold'

Chapter 271 De Upstairs in the office Sening the Gadea had not spoken Su Yuan quietly stood to the side to sccompany her. "Ms. Frankie, do you want to make a cup of coflee for you?

"No need

The repression on Terry's lace just now kept circling in Galilea's mind It was very strange, but she could not sell what was wrong. At this moment, he phone vibrated It was a news advertisement held the phone, her eyes flashing with coldness. It turned out that he was so generous to Dayana. Galileo took a deep breath and calmed her emotions. "Find me the collaboration project with the Lubi Group last time, and I'll take a look."

"President the Lorenzo group wishes his wife to give birth in advance and sends out a mansion Galilea

Galilea was busy in the company for a while and then drove to Jimmy's store. There was a design draft to be sent over. Unexpectedly, she met Zhang Min there. After the last meeting, Zhang Min had canceled several arrangements. When Galilea saw that she was here, she was still a little hesitant: should she go over? "Galilea, long time no see. Zhang Min took the initiative to wave at her and said with a smile, 'You won't distance yourself from me because of what happened last time, right?' "No, it's your night to choose what kind of life you live, Galilea shook her head. *7 just so happens that I met you here today. I have something to ask of you" After hearing Zhang Min's words, Galilea shook her head repeatedly "This favor, I really "I can only ask you now. The foreign side is pressing me too much. I have to go abroad tonight. Zhang Min took out an auction invitation from her bag and solemnly handed it to Galilea. 'That pearl necklace is really very important to me. Please After she finished speaking, she put on her sunglasses and quickly walked out. Galilea thought of her words and slowly sighed. Zhang Min wanted her to pretend to be a female star and go to the auction venue to buy a pearl necklace. It wasn't that she didn't want to help, but that she didn't want to meet someone. One of the organizers of this auction was the Lorenzo group. Jimmy smiled and said, 'I'll help you dress up.' *But "Zhang Min is also my old customer. I will definitely dress you up beautifully. I guarantee that no one will recognize you! Galilea had no choice but to nod and agree. At eight o'clock that night, she arrived at the dock and boarded the cruise ship. She was wearing a black waist-length dress with a bare shoulder design. It was particularly charming. The black lace hat covered half of her face. In addition to makeup and exaggerated jewelry, Galilea stood there like a completely different person. "Miss Zhang, this way please. Because there were names on the invitations, Galilea was quickly led to her seat. Not far away, a few men, upon seeing her, threw coquettish glances and whistled. Galilea frowned. The people around her were all celebrities of the upper society. The behavior of these people was really a little frivolous. She shifted her gaze away, thinking that she would leave after she finished helping. Unexpectedly, she heard the name of a certain person: "Mr. Lorenzo, I really didn't expect you to come personally. Please come in!" Micah came? Shouldn't he be accompanying Dayana in the hospital? Galilea subconsciously turned her face away. She only felt someone walk over like a gust of cold wind. She pressed down on the brim of her hat. The other party should not be able to see her face. "Miss, why don't we sit together?" "Tell me what you like later. I'll give it to you" Galilea looked at the men sitting around her and subconsciously frowned. But before she could speak, a hand pulled her up.

"Get lost"

Chapter 271 Deal Micah foon the men and said coldly Galilea's heart shipped a best and she lowered her head even more.

Then the man in front of her frowned and looked at her “What are you doing here? You even took the place of someone else’

Chapter 272 She Could Not Get Out of This Door

His voice was cold and steady, drilling into Galilea’s ears She lowered her head even more. Before coming, Jimmy had told her that this was a VIP membership system. If she was found out that she had come in place of Zhang Min, she would probably be chased out on the spot

She opened her mouth, not knowing how to explain The manager heard the news and came over. He nervously smiled at Micah. ‘I’m sorry, Mr. Lorenzo We didn’t treat you well. Is there anything I can do for you two?’ Then, Galilea felt a familiar gaze on her In a moment of desperation, she made up her mind and said in a low voice, ‘Mr Lorenzo, thank you’ Micah was slightly hesitant Seeing the atmosphere between the two of them, the manager did not dare to disturb them and immediately left with his men. Galilea breathed a sigh of relief. She had never spoken to Micah in that tone. At this time, the people around her had dispersed. She slowly raised her head. Her beautiful eyes were vaguely covered by a black veil, and her eyes were particularly charming. For a moment there was some emotion in the bottom of Micah’s eyes that she could not understand ‘I came for someone else. Please, do not expose me Since she had promised Zhang Min that she would help her bid for the necklace, Galilea did not want to break her promise. Looking at her like this, Micah looked down Although this skirt was not very revealing this kind of vague beauty could actually tug at the heartstrings of men. In addition, Galilea’s figure was indeed stunning In the past, she had never worn such clothes. Sensing his gaze Galilea frowned and subconsciously took half a step back. But just then, a waiter came over with wine. ‘Make way Micah pulled her waist with force. ‘Follow me up,” he said, wrapping her in his arms. ‘I want : Just as she was about to struggle, the man’s cold and threatening voice sounded by her ear, ‘Do you want me to tell them that you’re a replacement? Galilea bit the corner of her lips and had no choice but to listen obediently When the people sitting next to her saw this scene, they all gathered together ‘Who is the woman who was with Mr. Lorenzo? She has such a good figure. It’s just that she’s wearing a hat and I can’t see her face. “I think it’s that Zhang Min who became the third party Did she hook up with Micah this time? ‘Dayana is about to give birth. Tsk tsk, it’s not easy to be the wife of a rich and powerful family.” The seats of the auction were divided into the inner court and the outer court. According to the rules, the guests in the inner court had the advantage Galilea was brought into Micah’s private room. He loosened his hand and Galilea was thrown onto the sofa. Her delicate neck looked even more attractive under the light However, when she went upstairs just now she accidentally broke her stockings. Galileo looked down and then a suit with a man’s perfume covered her. *I don’t need it Galilea frowned and pushed the suit away in disgust.

'Up to you

Micah turned his head to the side and quietly turned on the cold air conditioner. After a while, Galilea sneezed coldly and could only grit her teeth and put on the coat. After the man caught a glimpse of it, the corners of his mouth curved into a faint smile. "Dear guests, our auction tonight has officially begun!" Through the glass, Galilea could see the situation below, but one could not see the situation in the private room from below. She had her back to Micah, her hands on the sofa, and her exquisite waistline was extremely beautiful. Micah could not focus at all. He furrowed his eyebrows and took a big sip of ice coffee. Was this how she had got on the ship? Who dressed her up like this? Galilea had just taken a few glances at the situation on the auction platform when she felt a cold and angry gaze. She frowned and turned her head, meeting the gaze of the man behind her without surprise. "It seems that Mr. Lorenzo is not in a good mood. Then I should go out."

Chapter 272 She could Not Get Out of This Door Galilea pulled down her hat and got up to sneak out

But just as she was about to return the suit to him, Micah reached out and grabbed her wrist. "Where are you going?"

"This is a VIP lounge I contentor it. Moreover, I don't want to have a scandal with a married man."

Galilea said and continued to walk out. She thought that the proud Micah would definitely not stop her. Unexpectedly, the anger on his body suddenly spread even more, 'Do you think it is interesting to have a scandal with someone like Jing?"

*That is my business, you have no right to interfere! Galilea's tone was also heavy

The man's cold eyes were suffused with a cold light. Staring at Galilea's face, the strength in his hands suddenly increased and he pinned her to the leather sofa.

“You won't be able to leave this door today. Galilea was forced to lie on the sofa and raise her neck to look at him. Her perfect jawline was fair and beautiful, and every frown she made caused people to fall into a reverie. Her waist was pinched painfully, but she could only forcefully endure it. ‘Micah do you want me, your ex-wife, to remind you that your fiancée is waiting for delivery in the hospital? I thought that at least in this aspect you would be a little different from other men. Now it seems that you are really a bastard!’ Her words made Micah's thoughts particularly clear at that moment.

His lowered gaze became colder and colder.

“Galilea, from beginning to end, the only woman I care about is you. Even if it is hate, there is only you.” These words sounded ambiguous, but he said it through gritted teeth. The next second, his lips fiercely covered her red lips, and the storm became heavier. Galilea only felt that her lips were about to be torn apart.

“You!

She struggled with all her might, but she was so frightened by his eyes that she did not dare to move again. It was not until he finished venting that he took another bite at her exposed collarbone, leaving a very glaring mark. Galilea's chest heaved up and down. As the man got up, her body could not help but tremble. On such a high-end cruise ship, there should be surveillance cameras. How many people would see the scene of her being insulted by him just now? This dress of hers just happened to reveal the part of her collarbone. How was she going to go out and meet people after being ruined by him like this? Her fingers slowly tightened, drawing a bloody mark in her palm. For this man, she was an object that he could vent on. Galilea lowered her head and did not move for a long time.

Micah looked at her with a frown, and the dry anger gradually turned into a little guilt. He walked over and was about to reach out his hand when there was a knock on the door.

“74r Lorenzo, the coffee you wanted,” Keith said in a reasonable voice.

Keith pushed the door open, and a waiter came in with coffee and tea. Galilea kept her head down the whole time. They did not dare to look at who was sitting inside. They put down the coffee and went out

But when the door closed again, Galilea incered

*Micah, do you dare to do it or not? Are you afraid that people will see your romantic affairs? Bullying me in a place where no one is around, what kind of man are you!

Chapter 273 The Worst One

She foally wanted to cry, and even her voice was full of trembling But she tried her best to hold back.

She wanted to protect her last bit of pride. At least, she did not want to walk out of the door with red eyes. The apology in Micah's eyes grew stronger and his suppressed emotions surged in his chest. "I want you to." "What do you want me to do?" Galilea lifted her eyes to look at him, and the self-mocking smile on her lips deepened. "You want me to maintain my last elegance?" He had already brought her in under the watchful eyes of everyone and forced her to stay for so long. Even if she walked out cleanly, who would believe that nothing had happened to them? Galilea sneered, "Then you better prepare a sum of hush money for me. Otherwise, the news of you publicly humiliating me tomorrow will definitely spread all over the city." The man's eyes darkened.

the Prestley family had power and influence, and because Jing could help me solve the trouble I encountered. "Galilea clenched his fists tightly. He was already on the verge of getting angry. But no matter how ugly his expression was, Galilea did not feel relieved at all. *Also, I think it is necessary to remind you that you are the worst man I have ever slept with. After Galilea finished speaking, she threw his branded suit to the ground. She even stomped on it with the heel of her high heels.

It's fine if you don't want to pay the hush money. You can wear this suit and go out later. She was not to be outdone, which was deeply imprinted in the eyes of the man. He smashed his fist on the glass coffee table, and the entire coffee table instantly shattered. The mottled fragments reflected the light and it was very similar to an indescribable relationship between them. She knew that he would lose his temper, but she did not expect that he would directly slam the door and leave, even locking her inside Only when the surroundings were quiet did Galilea's tears suddenly fall, Following her cheeks, they passed by her collarbone where there was a green and red mark She lowered her head and muttered to herself, 'Galilea, you did the right thing Otherwise, will you be trampled and bullied by him for the rest of your life? On the auction platform outside, the auction had already begun

Everyone, the next item is from a mysterious seller Please take a look! As the host said this, everyone's eyes fell on the display platform behind him

The LED light source shone on the jade bracelet. It was obvious that it was a top quality item, Galilea casually glanced at it and was shocked by the box that contained this bracelet.

This was her family's item! Just like the design drawings that Jimmy had asked her to make last time, they had all been used by her mother Moreover she remembered that on the inside of this bracelet, there was a small Galilea. just like the jade pendant Thinking of the puzzle left by her father in the secret compartment of the bookcase, Galilea did not think much and directly pressed the auction bell Distinguished guests, please don't worry I haven't said the starting price yet The starting price is two hundred thousand Five hundred thousand' Galilea pressed the speaker button on the microphone

The host on stage was stunned

That Micah's private room someone reminded him through the microphone The host immediately picked up the auction hammer, 'Everyone, 500 000 going once Three times, no one spoke Because no one dared to challenge Micah, soon, a staff member delivered the bracelet to Galilea "You have a good eye Although this bracelet looks ordinary, it is very valuable. The manager introduced it with a smile *Who sold this bracelet Galilea looked up and her eyes were sharp The manager was stunned "I'm not 100% sure about this The seller did not reveal her identity, but she did not offer a high price She should be in a hurry to use money I want to trade with her face to face if I can see her in person, I will give you 20% more commission

Chapter 273 The Worst One Galilea concluded that there was some secret in this

She couldn't let go of any possibility "This is against the rules. The manager looked troubled. At the door, Keith knocked on the open door Manager Zhang, Mr Lorenzo hopes that you can cooperate with him fully

As soon as Micah was mentioned, the manager immediately changed his tone, "Alright, alright, alright. Since it's Mr. Lorenzo's order, we will do our best to do it I will go and discuss it with the seller now. I will leave this bracelet behind for Miss Frankie to appraise Galilea's eyebrows jumped They knew that she was not Zhang Min? However, due to Micah's face, they did not look into her responsibility. Of course, they would not throw her into the sea. Galilea lowered her eyes in disappointment

In the end, she still took advantage of Micah. Realizing this, she bit the corner of her lips until she tasted the taste of blood

She picked up the bracelet and looked at the word 'Golilea' on it. She did not pay attention to the footsteps behind her Micah walked in from the outside and watched Galilea's back. He frowned slowly. When Galilea turned around, the look of tears happened to fall into his eyes.

"Get out of the way Don't expect me to thank you for this."

When the boat docked, the driver will send you back' Micah turned his head Whether it was out of selfishness or for her safety, he felt that it was necessary to do so. "Mr. Lorenzo, don't you think that it's faster to seal my mouth by giving money?" Galileo laughed disdainfully. She was obviously not that kind of woman, but in order to draw a clear line with him, she had to pretend to be scheming

"You have to be like this." Galilea took a deep breath, 'There is no need to hesitate with someone like you.

The last trace of patience in the man's heart disappeared. "Alright, then let me take a closer look at how much you are worth As he spoke, he lifted his wrist and held Galilea on the table. His hand happened to land on the switch of the microphone.

The entire hall heard an ear-piercing sound. Following that the man said in a suppressed voice. "Come on. Pa

A slap was heard. Everyone was stunned. All eyes were focused on the glass of Micah's private room. At the door, Keith did not know if he should go in and remind him. *Micah, you scum. Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air. They were even more curious about what was happening inside. However, at this time, the cruise ship shook, and all the lights went out in an instant. The deputy captain rushed into the hall and shouted, "There is a little mechanical problem. Please return to your rooms! What little problem? Will there be a power outage?" Someone shouted. Then, there was another violent shaking.

"Ah!

Countless screams, messy tussling... In the private room, Galilea was half-leaning in Micah's arms. When the cabin shook violently just now, the two of them fell off the table together.

Micah's hand did not let go of her. Her elbow hit hard, causing the man to frown in pain.

"Bastard, let go." Micah sighed slowly and said in a slightly helpless tone. "Wait a little longer." Galilea ignored him and struggled a few more times.

Just now, the captain told me that the cruise ship touched a reef. Micah's voice rang in her ears.

Chapter 274 Fight Head-On!

if not for the reason he wouldn't have come back to find her so quickly. The words that came out of his mouth carried a very reassuring feeling. Galilea suddenly forgot to struggle. "Is it serious?" "The crew went to check. Maybe it's not a big problem. Maybe we need to evacuate as soon as possible." He said. He stood up with Galilea.

Both of their arms had some wounds more or less. Micah frowned and took her out. However, after the blackout the electric circuit inside the cabin was unstable, causing the automatic control system of the room door to malfunction. The door was locked and could not be opened. The noise outside continued, but the two of them were trapped together. Galilea pulled hard a few more times but still could not open it

What should we do now? she frowned If Micah had not brought her here, she would not have been trapped here. "The room is full of smart locks. When the main program is restored, someone will naturally open the door." Micah slowly untied the cuffs of his shirt, his tone neither fast nor slow. His reaction made Galilea even angrier "Don't look at me like that. Even if something really happened, wouldn't it fulfill your wish?" Galilea couldn't help but sneer. She stared at the man in front of her. The cabin was still shaking from time to time. She was so angry that she gritted her teeth 'Yes, I really want you to die, but I don't want to die with you' The man pulled open the drawer and paused. He clearly saw a sparo electronic key card inside, but he acted as if he didn't see it. He calmly pushed the drawer back. "Is that so? Maybe today, you are destined to sink into the sea with me! Galilea's slender fingers clenched into fists. Staring at Micah's figure, she slowly took a deep breath. The noise outside continued. Galilea tried a few more times. No one outside noticed them, whether they knocked on the door or shouted After all, in order to give the distinguished guests a comfortable sense of experience, the sound insulation effect was very good. "What about Keith? You were trapped here, and he didn't come to find you?" Galilea frowned, feeling that something was wrong. The people on this cruise ship were worth enough to buy the whole city. How could there be such a big mistake? If the boat really sank, the consequences would be unimaginable. "Maybe, Keith also encountered some trouble." Micah took out a bottle of good red wine from the wine cabinet and opened it without hesitation, ready to taste it. "Sometimes, it is useless to be anxious" His words directly pulled Galileo's memory back to the day when her father was hospitalized. "It's useless to be anxious," Micah said lightly over the phone. Galilea's trembling hand stopped just like that. She clenched her palm tightly, 'In your eyes, nothing is important, right? You lied to me back then, and now you don't care about Dayana and your children. Micah, you are really cold blooded. Are you still a human? The man turned his back to her, poured two glasses of red wine, and laughed wantonly The moment he turned around, his calm and collected reaction was a strong contrast to the shaking of the cabin His deeply carved face was reflected in Galilea's eyes. The emotions on his face were complicated and difficult to understand. "If the heavens really let me die with you, it would resolve the grudge between us, right? In that instant, something changed in Galilea's heart. Once again, it shook violently, as if the shouts outside had grown louder. Galilea only felt her hands start to feel cold, breaking out in a cold sweat "Here" He handed over the red wine glass, his cold game unexpectedly becoming gentle, 'if it is destined, it is useless to be afraid" What he said seemed to make a bit of sense Galileo bit the corner of her lips She felt that there was a deeper meaning in his words. She slowly closed her eyes and drank the glass of wine in one gulp

“Ah!”

Chapter 274 Fight Head-On! The cabin shook violently again

Golea was suddenly absentminded and fell backward. Micah did not have time to hold her, and she bumped her head.

My head

*Don't touch it! I'll think of a way to bring you out. You have to stay sober and look at me, Galilea. Look at me!' The red wine that she had just drunk was rich and mellow as if it was still lingering in her mouth. Seeing the flustered look on the man in front of her, Galilea's red lips suddenly rose. In her impression, Micah would never be so nervous about someone, but he was so afraid that something would happen to her?

Not sure if it were because of the influence of the alcohol, Galilea unexpectedly said, 'Are you afraid that I will die?

The man's eyebrows were tightly locked

“Shut up

Galilea chuckled and was carried by him.

She looked down and saw that the lights outside were starting to light up, but for some reason, her vision was becoming more and more blurry

“Micah, I won’t die, because I haven’t seen you die with my own eyes’

She only said this and her consciousness began to dissipate, gradually fainting. “Galileal

Micah growled and hugged her all the time. After an unknown period of time, when Galilea woke up, she was in the emergency center of the dock. She was surrounded by a messy blanket and water stains.

But other than her, there were only two or three staff members “Miss, are you awake? Can you hear me?

Yes, Galilea responded, but her voice was almost inaudible. “Your wound has been temporarily treated, but just in case, you should go to the hospital to have a comprehensive examination. The others have already left. You should also ask your family to pick you up.

Galilea lowered her eyes and sighed

She sat up on the bed and touched the wound on her head. She got up and walked out alone.

The only person she could rely on now was herself. “Miss, let’s call a car to send you off. There is still a distance from the cityThe staff chased after her “No need, thank you’ Galileu waved her hand,

She dragged her feet forward. The early morning sea breeze was so cold that it almost blew her away.

But she was particularly glad. Fortunately, she had not died on that ship with Micah. Otherwise, how could she face her father!

In the distance

The man sat in the car and slowly opened his cold eyes. He instructed the driver, "Take a detour." "Yes, Mr. Lorenzo."

His right arm was wrapped in bandages. When he carried Galilea to the lifeboat, he had been hit by the hull.

In order to protect her, he could only use his body to block it.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Lorenzo. It was my negligence." Keith sat on the cockpit seat and apologized in a low voice.

Micah's thin lips curled into an arc. "No, I brought this upon myself," Keith then thought of something and immediately said, "The accident of the cruise ship hitting the reefs is suspected to be man-made. The two colors on the ship have disappeared. Behind this accident, maybe there is a secret."

Chapter 275 It Surfaced

"But because the guests onboard tonight are very special, maybe it will take some time to find out the result. In addition, Zhang Min did not go abroad. After meeting Galilea, she had stayed in her apartment. In other words, she had to board the ship for her for some special reason." Moreover, Zhang Min is also related to the dispute between Miss Quincy and her company. Things gradually became clear, but the man's face became colder and colder. This was not the result he wanted. "How many years has Second Uncle's son been gone?" "Five years." Keith quickly calculated. "Let's go to the company." Micah pinched his forehead. "Yes, Mr. Lorenzo."

Ni wasn't that he didn't know about the dispute between Zhang Min and the Lorenzo family. It was precisely for this reason that his second uncle had always stayed in the branch company overseas. Although he had come back this time to settle down, they both knew in their hearts that there were still some unknown secrets. For example, the real cause of Yanyu Lorenzo's death back then.

Galilea walked a long distance before taking a taxi home. As soon as she entered the door, Chanel greeted her, "Galilea, are you alright? You're injured!" Chanel was so worried that she kept holding her hand and talking about something. However, Galilea felt dizzy and couldn't hear anything. "Chanel, I want to sleep for a while." Her stomach was in a mess and her head hurt. As soon as she laid down, she fell into a deep sleep. Chanel wanted to call Micah, but seeing that it was still early, she temporarily put this matter aside. Not long after, someone knocked on the Frankie family's door. The person who came was Zhang Min, and she also brought a doctor.

"Who are you?" "Mr. Lorenzo asked us to come. He said that Galilea was injured and asked the doctor to check her." Zhang Min took off her sunglasses and looked around the villa in front of her. "Please come in. Miss is resting on the second floor." Chanel nodded. Zhang Min gave the doctor beside her a look. "Where do we go upstairs?" the doctor asked. "Here." Chanel brought her upstairs. Zhang Min stood in the living room, the smile between her red lips growing wider and wider. "The show is about to start." Chanel was looking at the doctor from the side, but her phone suddenly rang, and it was from Micah. She had to answer the phone first. "Mr. Lorenzo, don't worry. Miss is in good condition. The doctor you sent is checking her." "The doctor I sent? Micah directly stood up and walked out."

Only then did Chanel realize that something was wrong, and she hurriedly went to the room to stop the doctor but it was already too

Only Galilea was left unconscious on the bed, and there was an empty needle on the ground. Chanel was so worried that she cried. "Un! Micah came over, she still kept apologizing, 'I'm sorry, I really didn't know that they were bad people. It's all my fault. I harmed Miss.' 'Don't cry' "Let's go to the hospital

Micah furrowed her brows. However, just as he was about to make a move, the person on the bed opened her eyes. The first thing she saw was Chanel kneeling on the ground, begging Micah to forgive her. "Micah, you are really crazy. Are you bullying people at my home?" Galileo frowned. "Miss, you are awake!" Chanel rushed over in surprise. Galilea still felt her head hurt a little, but she had already recovered more than half of her consciousness. "Don't be afraid of him. I'm here." She raised her hand to pull Chanel.

Chapter 27511 Suraced "But just now

Since you're awake, I'll send the breach of contract documents to your office. Micah pressed down on Chanel's shoulder and said coldly.

After he finished speaking, he turned around and walked out. Galilea was confused.

She shouted loudly and shouted downstairs, "The cooperation between the Frankie Group and the Lorenzo group has ended. How did it breach the contract?"

The man had just come down to the first floor when he heard her vigorous shout, and his heart fell to the ground. At least it could prove that what Zhang Min injected into her was not poison. His hand reached into the inside of his trench coat and dialed Jasper's number. "Help me find a safe examination agency. Be quick." Galilea rubbed her temples, not daring to touch the wound on the back of her head. She asked Chanel to change her medicine. "Miss, do you feel uncomfortable anywhere? Do you have any strange feelings?" Chanel asked nervously, her hands trembling. "It's just that my head hurts a little. I'm a little tired. What's wrong, Chanel? Is the wound horrible?" Galilea asked, tilting her head. "It's just a small wound. It should be cured soon. It's you..." Chanel shook her head.

She opened her mouth, but did not know what to say. She understood what Micah meant just now. She should not tell Galilea for the time being. Chanel was a person who could not hide things in her heart. When she looked at Galilea, her face was full of worry. "Are you worried that Micah will find trouble with me? Don't be. I'm looking for a chance to go against him!" Galilea guessed. Chanel wanted to say something but stopped. "Miss, is it possible for you to get back together with Mr. Lorenzo?" she couldn't help but ask. All the servants had seen what Micah had done to the Frankie family. If not for him, the things in the Frankie family's house would have been returned to her. Moreover, Chanel also felt that Micah still had feelings for Galilea. Their relationship was not as simple as the news report.

*Impossible Galilea's face suddenly sank "Miss, don't be angry. I just feel that Mr Lorenzo is really good to you. In this world, it is really not easy to find a person who treats you sincerely." Chanel said slowly. Galilea chuckled. Yes, she used to think like this, so she didn't care about anything and listened to her father's words to entrust her life to Micah

What was the result?

She had fallen to the point where her family had been destroyed. Even now, her reputation and dignity had been ruthlessly trampled by that man. This was the result of trusting him. "Chanel, I don't want to mention that person's name again in the future." Galilea said resolutely and got out of bed. "Alright, alright. I won't mention it again in the future." Chanel nodded. She stayed with Galilea until night. When she found an opportunity, she would secretly send a message to Micah to report on Galilea's situation. After all, Micah was the only person who could help Galilea at the moment. Chanel felt guilty and self-blame in her heart. She followed Galilea closely. "Chanel, I'm really fine. You should go and rest. I'll go to sleep after sitting for a while, Galilea persuaded, not knowing whether to laugh or cry "I'm not sleepy. I'll accompany you." Chanel shook her head

Then let's talk about the past and kill time. Galilea laughed. What do you want to talk about?' Chanel hesitated and nodded. "Did my dad, other than Wendy, have other women?"
