Chapter 51 Such a Bitch

“Prosperity Financial Group is under your name, isn’t it?” Galilea raised her head and fearlessly disclosed.

When she heard Micah talking to that person in the hotel room, she thought of a certain possibility.

Why would a company be in full charge of the debt that the Frankie family owed?

How could she become an intern with MON...

Apart from Micah’s deliberate arrangements, she could not think of a second possibility.

Micah stared at the slightly pale face by the wall, neither admitting nor denying it.

“I don’t know what tricks you are playing, but don’t worry, I will definitely accompany you to the end!”

He clenched his fists and snorted coldly, “The interest for the debt has to be paid for as well. You will live in the darkness for the rest of your life. You will never be able to make a comeback.”

“I don’t believe in fate. Sooner or later, I will turn over and step on your head!” Galilea pursed her lips.

“Okay... then you can try.” The smell of gunpowder filled the air, but a few police officers in police uniform rushed out of the lift in the apartment building. At a glance, they saw a man holding a woman by the wall and immediately rushed forward. “We are police officers. Sir, please let go of this woman immediately!” – Micah’s breathing was unstable, but he still let go of his hands and let the police inspect his body. After confirming he was not armed, the police officer asked, “Who called the police just now?”

“It’s me. He barged into my residence without permission. Please arrest him immediately!” Galilea’s throat was hoarse.

After settling the bail at the police station, Keith was speechless. “Amazing, amazing. Mr. Lorenzo, this Miss Frankie is the first person to send you to the police station!”

A gust of wind swept past him, and the man directly brushed past him. He sat in the car outside the door with a cold face.

Galilea leaned against the wall and counted the time. She heard the sound of high heels. She immediately opened her eyes and looked at her watch. It was already morning.

“Why don’t you go wash your face first?” Susan chewed on her gum.

Galilea had no time to recall what happened last night. She yawned, turned on the tap, and splashed some water.

Walking out of the bathroom, Susan handed her a silk scarf.

After that, she began to draw the design and did not ask Galilea what had happened last night. Galilea breathed a sigh of relief and stood quietly to the side, not disturbing Susan.

After a long while, she heard her say.

“What are you standing there for? You don’t know how to draw?”

“Not really.”

Galilea majored in jewelry design, but she was not used to Susan’s work style.

Susan was half-kneeling on the ground, painting on the floor with paint.

Last night, Galilea had spent most of the night cleaning the ground, but now it was a mess.

12–28

Chapter 51 Such a Bitch When Galilea looked carefully, she was shocked by the scene in front of her. When the chain extended down from above, it converged into three lines and wrapped around the purple crystal, showing people a kind of charming beauty.

It turned out that the design could be so textured! Galilea’s eyes flashed with ecstasy. She had really followed the right person!

“This is the spare key. If you have time, you can come here to practice and prepare for the design competition next month.” Susan frowned and thought, “If you get first place, you should be able to stay in the company.”

There was an undisguised desire in Galilea’s eyes.

“I will do my best.”

“Yes, I can see that you will work hard.” Susan smiled Half an hour later, Susan left Galilea at the entrance of the company. She said, “Keep it up. Call me if you need anything.”

Then, she put on her sunglasses and left.

While Galilea turned around and entered MON Building, Susan pressed the call button on her Bluetooth headset. “Keith, please tell Mr. Lorenzo that his ex-wife has been working happily with MON. Please be at ease.”

Galilea found a seat by the window and sat down

Then, she heard a few interns gather together to show off how powerful the designers they were following were and how much they had learned

“Sister Galilea, what a coincidence! You’re here to be an intern too?’ Someone greeted her Galilea looked up and recognized the girl who had accompanied Nore that day Xu Ya Williams was pretty and fair, and her figure was good. She should be a good match for Nore. “Sister Galilea, are you following Ms. Lee?”

She suddenly opened her mouth to ask this question, and her voice seemed to be a little louder than before.

Galilea did not respond for a moment and replied with a faint “hmm“.

“Did she take you to that place?” Xu Ya blinked her big watery eyes, looking innocent

At the same time, the others also heard her words and instantly quieted down. They were all looking at Galilea

“What kind of place?” Galilea frowned.

“I heard that she often goes in and out of Brook Villa with those bosses. She will even go to the villa with them for the night. Otherwise, as young and beautiful as she is, how could she have become MON’S chief designer!” Xu Ya said, the corners of her eyes curved.

“However, I don’t think you are that kind of person.

Heh.

Galilea glanced at the others. What they were thinking in their hearts was almost written on their faces.

“Xu Ya, come here. Don’t sit with her. She will set a bad example for you!”

“That’s right. Come and sit with us.”

Chapter 52 The Quota

Galilea sat back in her seat. She propped up her chin with her fingers and glanced in the direction of the door.

From the moment they were arguing, there were people watching them from outside.

As she expected, Micah had indeed received the news. There was even an invitation letter from MON’S competitor company, Lemour.

They asked if Micah and Dayana were interested in endorsing a high-end series of jewelry for their company, which was mainly for couples.

To put it bluntly, they hoped to use Micah’s identity to enter the upper society market.

Under normal circumstances, this kind of invitation would be directly rejected.

Keith had already prepared a reply letter, but he did not expect that Micah would actually agree after thinking for a long time.

“Sure.”

Although Keith was surprised, he immediately replied, “Understood. Mr. Lorenzo, I will arrange it now.”

Micah casually clicked on the news on his phone, “Today, the two giants of the jewelry industry, MON and Lemour will continue to compete...”

Galilea wanted to stand up for MON.

But the price was that she would understand how cruel this world was.

In the afternoon, the news that Micah and Dayana were going to represent Lemour Jewelry was exposed.

Galilea looked at the hot news on her mobile phone, deep in thought.

In front of a group of interns, Anna said, "I called everyone over here today to arrange for next week's fashion week. Our company and several big jewelry brands are attending together, such as our old rival, Lemour."

Everyone was excited.

"Each of you come up to draw lots and prepare a set of designs according to the rules. The three with the highest scores can participate." Anna smiled and let the staff bring up a draw box.

Anna said this and left with the staff.

As soon as the door closed, everyone rushed up madly and almost tore the draw box.

For a moment, the room was noisy, and Galilea and Xu Ya were the last few to draw lots.

Xu Ya opened the paper and saw a poem written on it.

She was a little distressed. After pondering for a while, she moved closer to Galilea. "Sister Galilea, what is yours? Why don't we..."

She had yet to say the word SWAP.

Galilea had already generously handed over her note. There was only one word on it, 'Red'.

Xu Ya immediately put away her note.

"Sister Galilea, I'm going to drink some water."

Galilea ignored her thoughts and went upstairs to the office to get a pen and paper.

She walked around and was about to go in when she saw two interns twisting together and grabbing each other's hair. The scene was spectacular,

Chapter 52 The Quota "There are only fifty-five minutes left. Don't you need to complete your designs?" Galilea couldn't help but ask.

Seeing this, Xu Ya immediately ran over and helped up one of the interns who had been severely beaten. "Alright, everyone, calm down first. Let's draw the design first." Galilea retracted her gaze and immersed herself in her own thoughts.

She picked up the pen and drew according to her own thoughts.

At this moment, she temporarily let go of her hatred for Micah. Even if she did not take revenge, she would live and revive the Frankie Group!

Moreover, she would use her own hands to prove her strength. Because this would be the first step for her to succeed.

Just wait!

Micah, sooner or later... "Sister Galilea, you drew really well!" Xu Ya came over at some point. At the same time, a few interns also looked over and noticed Galilea's design draft. Their eyes were all a little stunned. Whoosh.

The person who was standing behind Galilea, for some reason, shook her hand and knocked over Galilea's cup of water.

The design draft was soaked in water. The traces of the oil pen instantly turned into a pool of black water.

Nothing was left..

"Oh, I'm really sorry!" The intern was Zhang Ying, who had just beaten up Liu Yuanyuan.

The others were also stunned. "There are only five minutes left before the deadline. What should we do?" Xu Ya muttered.

Chapter 53 She Had to Win

When the surrounding interns heard the commotion, they all cast sympathetic looks at Galilea.

"There are only five minutes left. It's too late to draw another one."

"This is the first opportunity to show our talents since the internship. I heard that several chief designers of the company will come to be judges. This Galilea is screwed this time." "Sister Galilea, why don't you use mine?"

Xu Ya blinked her beautiful big eyes and pushed her design drafts over sincerely. "Although it's not as good as yours, it is better than nothing."

"Are you sure?" Galilea glanced at her.

"Yes, I hope you can fulfill your wish. This way, Brother Nore will be happy too." She smiled very sincerely.

At that moment, Galilea understood.

She was not a rookie who had just graduated.

"No need,"

"I don't need it," Galilea refused.

"Are you worried that I will tell others? Don't worry, I won't." Xu Ya repeatedly guaranteed.

However, the corners of Galilea's mouth curled into a playful smile.

"There are so many people watching. If I were to be an imposter, would they be silent?"

Xu Ya froze. Her mind had been exposed and she could not continue.

Galilea leaned over and whispered in her ear, "Xu Ya, you are not a simple and innocent girl. I am not a fool. I heard what you said to Zhang Ying in the bathroom."

“Also, I must stay. Don’t block my way. Otherwise, I will make you suffer.” “Didn’t Nore tell you that I dare to touch anyone?”

After Galilea finished speaking, she sat back down in her seat. Her expression was calm as if nothing had happened.

Xu Ya’s beautiful eyes widened. She lowered her head and no longer spoke.

“Put your designs on the table. The chief designers will look over them one by one.” Anna pushed open the door. Behind her were two of MON’s four chief designers, Hansen and Susan.

As soon as Susan entered, she looked in Galilea’s direction. She had just talked to Keith on the phone. In today’s competition, Galilea had to win. Because Micah had specifically asked Galilea to go to Fashion Week. But if she had done a poor job, Susan could not do anything even if she wanted. Therefore, she blinked her eyes and wanted to exchange a look with Galilea.

However, Galilea did not look in her direction at all.

Galilea just sat there, and the drawing in front of her was still the one soaked in water.

Hansen, Susan, and the employees behind them looked at the works of the interns, shaking their heads while smiling.

Because these works were too young and inexperienced. Although there were a few of them that were somewhat creative, they were too idealistic and unpractical. 1/3

12:31

Chapter 53 She Had to Win They came to Xu Ya’s side,

Hansen immediately smiled at Xu Ya, “The design is not bad, it is kept to the point, and very practical.”

This was a rare compliment.

“Thank you, Mr. Hansen,” Xu Ya nodded gently.

Hansen looked towards Galilea again, only to see a blurry scratch, “Is this your design?”

Galilea nodded.

The other interns all gathered around, wanting to find out what was going on.

“How could this be...”

The design that had just been dirtied was now shining again!

There was a set of accessories on the design. The main accessory was a gemstone necklace. It was very noble and elegant. There were golden vines wrapped around the gemstone and a pair of star-like earrings. It made people feel that the person wearing this set of accessories must be a goddess.

The whole thing gave people a feeling of luxury, similar to the design philosophy of MON’s high-end products, but not completely the same.

“This is a ruby necklace? The design is good, but I think it is a little ordinary,” Hansen muttered.

“Take a closer look. It is clearly an obsidian necklace,” Susan said with a smile.

“But her theme was supposed to be RED!”

Most people would subconsciously use rubies or red agate as the main stone, and then use other decorations as auxiliary.

But Galilea did the opposite.

She used the black obsidian, which was the darkest and most opaque,

“If you keep it to the point, you will be eliminated.” Anna raised her eyebrows and said coldly.

Galilea raised her hand and pointed at the blueprint. The sharp paper cut her finger.

Then, she gently pointed.

A drop of bright red color appeared on the obsidian stone, and then it quickly merged with the original color of the obsidian.

The ordinary design, at that moment, gave off a strange sense of beauty.

“The enchanting Flower of Vengeance.” Galilea looked at the blueprint, “This is the name I gave this necklace. I intend to use the obsidian to sit at the bottom and insert a ruby on it, but it must be thin, revealing the black underneath. This way, it will not be so vulgar.”

“You even thought of how to cut and inlay it?” Hansen was a little surprised. He thought for a moment, “Then there is nothing to say. Galilea’s work is definitely qualified to participate in the next season’s new product supply!”

“What?”

Everyone was shocked.

“It can’t be. The company will use the design of an intern?”

“Her design concept is indeed interesting. If it were me, I would have probably carved a rose. That would be too vulgar.”

Almost everyone began to get excited, aiming for the next two places.

Only Galilea stared at the design, still immersed in her own thoughts.

Chapter 53 She Had to Win Soon, all three quotas were confirmed. Galilea, Xu Ya, and Liu Yuanyuan, who had been beaten to tears just now.

Susan looked back. Galilea was still not in line with the other personalities. She took out her phone and sent Keith a message. Things were getting more and more interesting.

54 Let Him Die After the quota was confirmed, Galilea picked up her bag and walked out. An intern felt curious, “Galilea, which office do you go to every day? I don’t think we’ve seen you in the company.”

Galilea paused and said seriously, “I’ll go wherever I am needed.”

Her work in the past few days could not be more complicated. Susan had even asked her to go to the underground shopping mall to buy her a shoe pad, but no matter what it was, Galilea would do it seriously and without any complaints.

“It would be great if we could follow Ms. Lee. Many people must be jealous of her and deliberately made up rumors about her.”

The corners of Galilea’s mouth twitched. She was not clear about other things, but it was a fact that Susan was an alcoholic! “Sister Galilea, wait a minute. I have something to tell you.” Xu Ya chased out from the inside and pulled Galilea’s backpack as if she was trying to please her. “You may have misunderstood. I said those words to Zhang Ying without any other meaning.”

The more Xu Ya spoke, the softer her voice became. When she raised her head again, her eyes were red, and she looked like she had been wronged.

“Move aside,” Galilea frowned, a little annoyed.

“Sister Galilea, don’t misunderstand me.” “I know you are afraid that I will say bad things about you to Nore. I don’t have time to play this childish game with you. In the future, stay away from me.”

She turned and left, leaving Xu Ya behind alone.

Zhang Ying followed from behind and said to Xu Ya, “I am sorry...”

Before she could finish her words, Xu Ya slapped her.

Xu Ya’s eyes suddenly became vicious, completely different from just now.

“Are you worthy of apologizing to me? If not for the fact that you are somewhat useful, you wouldn’t even be qualified to wipe my shoes for me. Get lost, I don’t want to see you.” Xu Ya pushed Zhang Ying away and went upstairs to the office of the higher-ups.

She did not expect Galilea to be so difficult to deal with.

If she had known earlier, she would not have bothered to come to MON, but now that everything was clear, she could not lose.

Xu Ya pushed open the door to Hansen’s office and said with a smile, “Brother Hansen, you were a good actor just now.”

She had known Hansen for a long time. Moreover, her family held some shares in this company. It was a matter of a few words for her to remain in the company. Originally, she had wanted to let Galilea owe her a favor so that she could keep a distance from Nore.

But now, this path could not be taken.

The only way was to completely drive Galilea away, making her unable to stay here any longer.

The next day, after Galilea got up, she simply packed up some things and headed straight to the airport.

Xu Ya and Liu Yuanyuan had already arrived, but the two of them did not seem to be on good terms

Chapter 54 Let Him Die with each other. They sat very far away. When they saw Galilea, Liu Yuanyuan was the first to greet her. Xu Ya was a little embarrassed by the side.

“Dear passengers, the flight to Sacaloway is about to take off. Please board the plane as soon as possible.”

Galilea dragged her suitcase and found her seat according to the plane ticket.

“Miss Frankie?” Someone called out to her.

When Galilea heard this, she saw Keith sitting on the other side of the aisle.

He was here, which meant...

Galilea frowned and glanced in the direction of the business class. Sure enough, he saw an arm through the gap, and a famous mechanical watch full of diamonds was on his wrist. It should be Micah.

Enemies were bound to meet on a narrow road.

Their seats were so close to the business cabin?

Galilea hesitated for a moment before walking over.

“Are you going to the fashion week?”

Galilea nodded. She felt that Keith was asking despite knowing the answer.

After she sat down, she put on the blindfold and ignored everyone.

She had been to Sacaloway before, with Micah. That was their honeymoon. However, because Micah had business to talk about, she insisted on setting the location for their honeymoon.

As a result, he only had a meal with her and ended it hastily.

At that time, she was even reflecting if she had not been considerate enough. He was clearly busy enough, yet she still insisted on dragging him here for a honeymoon.

Now that she thought about it, he was not busy, but was unwilling to spend time with her.

Wasn't he having enough time to accompany Dayana to the Fashion Week?

Galilea sneered. In the past, how ridiculous she would be in Micah's eyes!

This flight would last for seven hours, and it would only arrive at nine o'clock in the local time. Galilea decided to sleep on the plane for a day.

“Dear passengers, the plane is about to encounter a short-term jet stream, and it might be bumpy. Please fasten your seat belts.”

Galilea took off her blindfold to confirm if the seat belt was fastened.

Inadvertently, she found that on the seat next to hers, which should have belonged to Keith, was Micah! His eyes were tightly closed as if he was in great pain.

Oh right, he had airsickness.

Previously, Galilea had discovered that he would feel uncomfortable every time he took a plane, so she often brought medicine in her bag.

Over the years, she had formed a habit.

She took out the medicine from her pocket and held it in her hand.

But she looked at Micah again and hesitated.

The plane continued to jolt.

Chapter 54 Let Him Die Galilea saw that Micah had kept his eyes closed and his face was very pale. Her eyes jumped. She remembered that if Micah was in a serious situation, he would temporarily faint, or even be in shock. If he died just like that, it would be a good thing because she would have taken revenge for the Frankie family and her father.

Galilea looked at Micah, the light in her eyes dimming bit by bit.

“Please stay where you are. Do not move.” Keith should have gone to find medicine for Micah. Because the plane was bumpy, he could not come over.

Micah rested his head on the back of the chair, and the sweat on his face kept flowing down. He felt as if his heart was about to explode.

He furrowed his brows, and his body stiffened,

If this went on, he would definitely...

Suddenly, a cold feeling appeared on his forehead. That hand seemed to carry some kind of magic, suppressing the feeling of a splitting headache. There was a small pill between his lips.

Micah had already fainted from the pain and directly swallowed it.

“Who is it?”

His Adam’s apple bobbed and he tried to open his eyes to look ahead. He only saw a figure leaving in front of him.

It was very similar to Galilea.

He reached out to grab it, but he missed it.

Chapter 55 The Target of Public Criticism

The turbulence of the plane lasted for a few more minutes.

After taking the medicine, Micah felt that the pain in his chest was not as strong. He slowly opened his eyes and the passengers around him sat in their original seats.

His gaze fell on Galilea, but Galilea was wearing an eyepatch and seemed to have fallen asleep.

“Mr. Lorenzo, the medicine is here!”

Keith rushed back in a hurry. Seeing Micah’s state, he was a little surprised. “Are you okay?”

The kind of medicine that Micah took was not a prescription medicine, which could be bought in any ordinary pharmacy.

However, very few people would carry that kind of medicine with them.

Micah nodded indifferently. He looked at Galilea again, and there was a bit more exploration in his eyes.

“Micah!”

Dayana walked over from the business cabin in front and wrapped her arms around his. “Are you feeling unwell? Let me help you...” “Micah, why don’t we go to the front? It’s narrow and uncomfortable here.”

“I feel quite comfortable sitting here. You can go to the business cabin yourself.” Micah raised his eyebrows and said indifferently.

Dayana was embarrassed to be humiliated in public.

However, there was no extra seat for her to stay here. She bit the corner of her lips and said aggrievedly, “Then I will go to the front to rest. Otherwise, the baby will be uncomfortable.”

After she finished speaking, she looked at Micah expectantly, as if hoping that he could change his mind.

But what was waiting for her was only the man’s closed eyes.

Dayana frowned and turned to leave. “Mr. Lorenzo, what about me?” Keith was a little embarrassed. “Go sit in front. I’m a little tired and want to have a good rest.” There was indeed a bit of exhaustion in his voice, and he didn’t even want to deal with Dayana.

“Yes, Mr. Lorenzo.” Keith left a blanket for him and went to the front.

Micah still remembered that after his parents died, he had run around for business. What was the difference between economy class and business class? What was the difference between people?

He suddenly thought of a sentence that Galilea had said before.

“Micah, you have to pay attention to your health. Money can be earned at any time.”

His eyes suddenly opened, and his expression was cold.

If she had not been Onyx’s daughter, everything would not have turned out like this!

His chest inexplicably surged with anger, and when he looked at Galilea again, her seat was empty.

Micah furrowed his brows, and he heard a few voices of argument coming from the bathroom behind him.

Xu Ya was holding a cup of coffee in her hand, and when she brushed past her earlier, she sprinkled it on Galilea’s clothes.

“I’m sorry, Sister Galilea. I didn’t do it on purpose. It’s really too narrow here.”

1/3

Chapter 55 The Target of Public Criticism Galilea nodded and lowered her head to clean up the stain.

“Sister Galilea, I still have clothes in my suitcase. Why don’t you wear mine?” Xu Ya said sincerely.

However, her figure and style of dressing were different from Galilea’s.

If Galilea wore her clothes and went out, she would feel a little childish.

Galilea glanced at her indifferently. Her eyebrows were cold. Pa, she turned off the tap.

“Sister Galilea, why are you looking at me like that? I really didn’t do it on purpose!” Xu Ya pursed her lips.

“For the sake of Nore, I won’t argue with you. Do you really think that I have a good temper? This place is indeed quite narrow, but you just bumped into me, right?” Galilea twitched the corner of her mouth.

“I... I didn’t!”

At this time, a few other staff members of MON who followed them also came over.

“What’s going on?”

“Galilea, what’s the point of caring about such a small matter? It’s just a cup of coffee. You can just change your clothes.”

“Yes, you are here to help the designers, not to take the red carpet. Who do you think you are?”

Galilea’s eyes were filled with anger. When she glanced over, those people immediately felt a sense of oppression.

The aura on her body was too strong.

Someone went over and pulled Xu Ya. “Let’s go, ignore her.” They all knew that Galilea had been in prison. If she became angry from embarrassment, she would likely do something out of line.

At that moment, Galilea became the target of public criticism again.

“How can someone who has done something wrong be more wronged than me?” Galilea chuckled.

“Then what do you want? Xu Ya has already apologized to you. Do you want her to wash your clothes for you?”

UW

“What if I do?”

“Whenever something happens, you would hide behind others. Did your parents teach you that?” Galilea asked.

Someone started to ponder after hearing what Galilea said.

When they boarded the plane just now, Xu Ya had already occupied Galilea’s seat by the window.

And now...

Galilea’s words might make sense.

Xu Ya felt the surrounding atmosphere, and a touch of ruthlessness flashed through her eyes, but it disappeared in a flash.

She raised her head again, and there were some misty tears in her eyes. "Sister Galilea, I was really careless. Why do you think that I did it on purpose? Did anyone see it?"

"I saw it."

A very oppressive voice sounded, and Micah walked over from behind.

"Mr. Lorenzo!"

The staff members instantly became humble. The Lorenzo group and MON had cooperated, and the other party was Micah.

Chapter 56 The Favor

Since Micah had said so, the other staff members looked at each other. "Xu Ya, don't do this again. next time."

Then, they returned to their seats and no longer paid attention to this matter.

Xu Ya pursed her lips, muttered an apology, and returned to her seat.

Galilea stood rooted to the ground and looked at Micah. "Why?"

"I never owe anyone a favor." He was referring to how Galilea had fed him medicine when he was feeling unwell.

Although she had concealed it well, it couldn't have been anybody else in that situation.

Galilea frowned. Her words were extremely sarcastic.

She really regretted that she had been soft-hearted!

She should have let him die.

"I don't understand what you are talking about." As she said this, she planned to avoid Micah.

The plane suddenly trembled.

Her entire body fell backward, and the person closest to her was Micah.

Galilea could have grabbed him so that she would not fall.

However, she stubbornly frowned and did not reach out to ask for help. She just fell straight down.

At that moment, the man's face darkened.

He reached out and scooped her up. "Would you rather fall than let me help?" he asked.

"I don't dare to trouble Mr. Lorenzo." Galilea gritted her teeth.

She pushed Micah away and walked towards her seat. She put on the blindfold and fell asleep in a daze. When she woke up again, the plane was already sliding down.

She took off the blindfold and Keith had sat back in the economy class. As for that person, he should be in the front coaxing his fiancée.

Galilea shook off the messy thoughts in her mind, packed up her things, and prepared to get off the plane. The passengers left the plane one after another. When Galilea walked to the front, there was no one in the business cabin. The air was filled with a faint smell of perfume, which was indeed different from the economy cabin.

‘Galilea, one day, you will also return to your own world!

The summer of Sacaloway was very hot. Galilea simply took off her dirty coat and wore a beige vest and jeans.

Standing in the crowd, she looked like a female star

At this time, Dayana, who had gone to the bathroom, came out.

She was wearing a Bohemia–style dress. When she walked, she was coquettish, like a dancing butterfly.

She was beautiful but very tacky.

“Micah, I want to eat ice cream,” she said, throwing herself at Micah.

12:39

Chapter 56 The Favor “You are a pregnant woman,” the man said coldly.

Dayana was speechless. She lowered her head and did not say anything.

Then, they left the airport in a business car,

In comparison, Galilea and the others had to take the local taxis to go to the hotel. However, because the hotel had been arranged in a uniform manner, other than the different floors of the room, they all stayed in the Harvey Resort Hotel, which was the closest to the venue.

Behind the hotel was a golden private beach, and only the hotel guests could use it.

After settling the check–in procedures, Galilea took her door card and returned to her room.

According to the work arrangements, she could freely control her time from now till night, and she only wanted to sleep now!

At this time, in the hotel lobby.

Xu Ya had been watching Dayana playing on her phone not far away. Seeing that Micah was not by her side, she immediately leaned over. “Miss Quincy, can I say a few words to you?”

Her family was much nobler than the Quincy family, who was a nouveau riche.

Xu Ya had been educated in an international school since she was a child. On the surface, she looked dignified and generous. Their socialite circle was something that Dayana could not even dream about.

“Miss Xu Ya, please sit down. What is it?” Dayana deliberately sat up straight.

since you are pregnant.” Dayana furrowed her eyebrows and continued to listen to her.

“Just now, Sister Galilea deliberately fell on the plane and fell into Mr. Lorenzo’s arms. I think she seems to be interested in Mr. Lorenzo. Sister Galilea and I are friends, but I really don’t want her to become a third party who will interfere with others.” After she finished speaking, she rushed into the lift with her luggage.

Dayana was left alone on the sofa, gritting her teeth in hatred.

She knew that there must be a reason why Micah had not gone to the business cabin just now.

For Galilea!

Dayana’s beautiful eyes flashed with killing intent.

Wendy was right, all the people who could stop her wedding must be eliminated!

“Mr. Lorenzo, your room and Miss Quincy’s are on the 15th floor, and I’m on the 8th floor,” said Keith after he returned from the bathroom.

“Thank you for your hard work,” Micah said as he took the room card.

“Where’s Galilea? Which room does she live in?” Dayana asked.

“I’m not sure,” Keith said, shaking his head.

“Weren’t you there when she went through the procedures just now? How could you not know?” Dayana muttered.

“Let’s go.” Micah was too lazy to care about her unreasonable behavior. He strode into the lift with his long legs.

He did not like troublesome women.

However, Dayana was a woman who liked to act coquettishly.

She leaned on Micah’s shoulder, ignoring Keith who was present. “Micah, come to my room later and watch me try on the dress!”

Keith laced the lift door and looked down

“I still have a business to deal with. You can try it yourself.” Micah said lightly.

His patience was about to run out.

However, Dayana still insisted on pulling him into her room.

As soon as she entered the door, her body was close to Micah.

Before she left, Wendy had taught her, “In a man’s world there is nothing more than a career and a woman. Now that Micah has everything, he must be in need of sex. Even if you are pregnant now, you can try to get close to him as much as possible. You must not let anyone take advantage of the loophole.”

What did she rely on to tie up Micah? Wasn't it just the pendant and the baby in her belly!

Now that the path of the pendant was no longer possible, she could only use her body and beauty!

As Dayana thought this, a charming smile appeared on her face. Usually, after she showed this expression, Terry would rush to her impatiently.

As long as Micah was a normal person, he would definitely be tempted.

"Micah, I just felt a little uncomfortable in my stomach. Do you want to touch our baby?"

"You haven't accompanied me for a long time." Dayana tilted her body and rested her head on his chest. She had already used all her strength, but Micah only looked at her lower abdomen and did not say a word.

Chapter 57 Saving the Drowning Person "Micah, what's wrong?" Dayana reached out to pull him. His fingers were so cold that it scared her and she instinctively withdrew her hand.

"Nothing. You should rest. I still have something to do." Micah said and was about to leave. Behind him, Dayana mustered up her courage and asked, "Are you going to look for Galilea?" A long time ago, he had told Dayana that he had a grudge against the Frankie family and that marrying Galilea was just for revenge.

But why did she insist that he liked Galilea?

A woman's sixth sense was really ridiculous.

"I won't allow you to go." Dayana frowned, "That Galilea is already dirty. You may not know that she has entered Brook Villa again."

She muttered, "Moreover, she owes usury. It is said that she was almost thrown into the sea."

"How do you know all this?"

Micah's voice was thick and sharp. He turned to face her and walked over step by step. "I clearly told you to mind your own business. Do you take my words as nothing?"

Why did she always repeat the same mistake?

He had already given Dayana enough opportunities.

"No... no, Micah, I heard about it. You used to be husband and wife, and when my friends heard something, they told me about it." Dayana found a reason at the last minute. "They are all my friends in the entertainment industry. If you don't believe me, look at the chat record!"

She was sure that Micah would not read it. The man's eyes were like an abyss. After a long time, he said, "Next time, don't do this kind of thing again." For the sake of the baby in her belly, he gave her another chance.

For the last time.

Dayana thought that he believed her words and immediately put on an obedient smile, "I understand. Micah, let's have breakfast together tomorrow morning, okay?"

She was angry in her heart, but she also knew that she would not be able to keep him tonight.

Micah looked away, closed the door, and left.

Galilea slept for a few hours and opened her eyes. Her stomach was rumbling with hunger. She remembered that the hotel music restaurant provided free food tickets. She went downstairs and unexpectedly found that the night view of this hotel was particularly good, plus wonderful music.

Galilea was finally able to breathe a sigh of relief when facing the sea breeze.

“Miss, I’m sorry. May I ask how to go to this place?” A blond man with blue eyes asked politely in a foreign language.

Galilea leaned over and looked at the map in his hand. On the way here, she happened to see this building.

“From...”

From afar, Micah could only see her back and a foreign man standing side by side with her on the

Chapter 57 Saving the Drowning Person beach with a smile on his face, Perhaps Dayana’s words weren’t just a groundless guess.

He had indeed seen with his own eyes that Galilea had a close relationship with many men. She had only been here for a few hours, and she was already so impatient?

Micah frowned in annoyance.

Keith carried a tray over and continued to report to Micah about the work tomorrow,

However, Micah was unexpectedly somewhat absent-minded.

“Mr. Lorenzo, do you want to rest first?”

Micah watched as the man left. Galilea remained where he was and his furrowed brows relaxed a little. Keith followed Micah’s line of sight and did not disturb him again. He quietly retreated.

Galilea leaned against the edge of the fence and ate a little. She felt that someone was watching her from behind. When she turned around, there was no one.

“That’s strange.”

Just as she was pondering, someone shouted from afar. “Help! Can anyone swim? There’s someone in the sea over there...”

The voice was very loud, and almost everyone in the dining area went out. “Do you know how to swim?” the woman asked. Without waiting for Galilea to speak, she dragged her to the beach.

“Keith, let’s go take a look.” Micah tightened his grip on his coffee cup.

“Yes, Mr. Lorenzo.”

In the distance, there was indeed a person struggling.

However, when Galilea heard this person's tone, it was as if she wanted her to jump into the sea immediately.

She looked at the surrounding environment and shook her head. "I am not a good swimmer. You can go in and find a professional lifeguard."

"How can I make it in time?"

"Aren't you afraid of karma if you don't save a drowning person?"

Galilea frowned.

Karma?

If there really was such a thing in this world, some people would have already been retributed.

She shook her head, turned her head, and walked towards the dining table.

Unexpectedly, the woman grabbed her and refused to let go, "Hurry up and go..."

Plop.

The woman seemed to have lost her balance and entered the sea. Fortunately, this place was not deep. The woman was in a sorry state and her skirt was stuck to her body. She glared at Galilea and cursed.

"You are too ruthless. No wonder your husband doesn't want you!"

Galilea frowned. Why did she mention Micah all of a sudden? What bad luck.

At this time, there were more and more people surrounding them. Keith looked at the situation and his eyes stopped on the woman. Then he turned around and went to the dining table.

Chapter 57 Saving the Drowning Person Finally, a nearby lifeguard jumped down and saved the person in the sea.

The woman suddenly screamed and accused Galilea, "She obviously knows how to swim, but she didn't make a move and pushed me into the sea. She is really vicious!"

Galilea listened quietly and did not refute. Just now, they were far away from the crowd. Other than her, no one knew how this woman fell. She couldn't explain. "How could this be?" "Too heartless. Which company's employee is she?" "Let's take a photo and post it online."

Galilea chuckled and walked towards the woman.

"What are you doing? Do you want to kill me in front of so many people?" The woman was terrified. She didn't dare to look Galilea in the eye, because the look in Galilea's eyes was really like a bottomless hole.

It was not a look that a normal person would have.

The vast sea behind her became her backdrop.

"You know who I am. Just now, you deliberately ran over and asked me to jump into the sea, right?"

Chapter 58 The Plot

“What are you talking about? I don’t understand!” the woman said guiltily, avoiding Galilea’s gaze..

“It doesn’t matter. I won’t argue with you, but tell the person behind you that I, Galilea, am not someone to be trifled with. Tell her to wait.”

It was either Dayana or Xu Ya. Galilea shook her hand and glanced at the people who were watching the show. Under the astonished gazes of the crowd, she walked towards the hotel. The woman stood there for a long time before she came back to her senses and quickly ran to the other side of the beach.

However, she had only taken a few steps when she was blocked by the hotel staff. *Come with us.”

“What? Let me go!”

She thought that if she did not admit it, Galilea would have no evidence Unexpectedly, she was directly brought into a dark room.

She did not know how many people there were in front of her

“Who told you to do this?”

“What did you say? I don’t understand!” She shouted She only saw a blurry figure in front of the window.

The next second, the lights in the room turned on ‘Dont you understand?” Micah raised his eyes coldly The woman trembled. Of course, she knew Micah and Dayana, because she was Dayanas assistant makeup artist

When she met the man’s scrutinizing gaze, Chen Xiaorou fell to her knees

“Mr. ... Mr. Lorenzo.”

Xiaorou trembled as she knelt down. She had no choice but to reveal all of her plans

Dayana and Xu Ya gave her a sum of money and wanted her to plot against Galilea

Once Galilea fell into the sea, there would be absolutely no possibility of survival.

As foreigners, they had no one to rely on here. After Galilea’s accident if no relatives or friends stood up for her, the police and the embassy would not investigate much

This move could kill her without a trace.

“In a while, Galilea will find you. You have to confess everything to her, but you can say that you have seen me, understood?” Micah stood up “Understood!” Xiaorou hurriedly nodded.

As soon as Micah raised his hand, someone pulled Xiaorou out. He stared at the vast night How could his prey be killed by others?

After Galilea returned to the hotel, she went straight to the front desk. She found a simple reason to ask about the woman’s identity. She had experienced the Frankie family’s defeat and her family’s separation. She was more vigilant now when she encountered trouble.

Somehow, she felt that her father must be protecting her in the sky,

“Miss, your friend is in Room 309.”

“Okay, thank you.”

Chapter 58 The Plot Galilea looked away and quickly entered the lift.

At this time, Xiaorou was waiting in the room. When she heard the knock on the door, her heart skipped a beat. As expected by Micah, the person who came to find her was really Galilea.

The two of them combined could not compare to quite a few Xu Yas. After being questioned by Galilea a few times, Xiaorou followed Micah’s instructions and told her everything. “Miss Frankie, I was really blinded by a moment. Please forgive me, okay?” Xiaorou said in a low voice. To put it bluntly, she was just a chess piece in the hands of others. “Sure.” Galilea nodded generously.

“Thank you!”

“However, you have to help me with something. Otherwise, I will give the recording of what you just said to Dayana.” Galilea smiled gently with a harmless look on her face. Xiaorou was shocked.

This Galilea in front of her was even more intelligent than Dayana and Xu Ya!

“What do you want me to do?”

Galilea told her her plan. Xiaorou swallowed her saliva and felt sorry for Dayana in her heart.

“If I agree, can you delete the recording? If Dayana finds out that I betrayed her, I won’t be able to survive in this industry in the future.”

Dayana had always treated her badly and often ordered her around like a servant.

Otherwise, she would not have confessed it so easily.

“No problem. I will delete it after the matter is done.” After Galilea finished speaking, she slammed the door and left.

She didn’t have much time left. She had to prepare as soon as possible. She originally wanted to wait for MON to stabilize before slowly taking her revenge. However, Dayana had delivered herself to her door, so she couldn’t blame her.

Kill.

Galilea’s goal was very clear. It was to hit the target in one blow. Wasn’t Micah the person that Dayana cared about the most?

She went to the front desk of the hotel and ordered a bunch of flowers and cakes. Then she bought a red dress with the remaining money on the card.

The cheap but amazing sort of red.

Galilea put her hair down and put on the dress, revealing her delicate collarbone. The waistline of the dress outlined her sexy figure. Then, she changed into a pair of high heels.

She walked directly into the lift.

She wandered around the 15th floor where Dayana and Micah lived and then went to the 8th floor where Keith was. After three consecutive trips, she was a little tired.

But she finally met the target.

“Keith! Are you going to Mr. Lorenzo’s room?”

When Keith heard this, he was stunned. The lift door opened and he did not go in.

“Miss Frankie?” “Hurry up, I still have to go upstairs.” Galilea smiled.

Chapter 58 The Plot “Ah, okay.” Keith hurriedly stepped into the lift. “These are the flowers that our company’s designer ordered. Do they look good?” Galilea explained. Keith echoed. When the lift door opened, he naturally walked out. Galilea deliberately followed him from a distance that was neither too far nor too close. She thought to herself, ‘Dayana, you should be paying attention to the movements in Micah’s room at all times.’ Sure enough, when Keith knocked on Micah’s room, Dayana leaned out.

She wanted to say something, but when she saw Galilea, her eyes widened.

“Galilea? Why are you on this floor?” “I, I am passing by” Galilea said, pretending that she didn’t want to be discovered.

She hugged the flowers in front of her chest and smiled at Keith. “See you around.”

Keith nodded out of courtesy. As she watched Galilea walk away, Dayana’s fingernails dug into the crack of the door. The flowers Galilea’s hand couldn’t have been given to her by Micah, right? Thinking of this possibility, after Micah opened the door, Dayana rushed in first. “Micah, have you been working all along?”

The computer on the man’s desk was still in a video conference. When he saw Dayana rushing in, he reached out to stop her.

“Wait here for a moment,” he said in a low voice.

However, Dayana was so angry that she lost her mind and directly rushed in.

“Keith, pull her out.” :

Chapter 59 Aladdin’s Magic Lamp

Micah had been working for several hours. He rubbed the space between his eyebrows. “Tell me, what happened?” he asked.

“Maybe Miss Quincy saw Galilea on the floor and misunderstood,” Keith thought. “Galilea?”

“Yes, she went to send flowers to the designer of her company and happened to come out of the lift with me. Maybe Miss Quincy misunderstood.” Keith could only think of this possibility.

Micah sneered.

How could there be such a coincidence? He had just given Galilea a step, yet she had already given him a hard time?

She really was the Frankie family's good daughter.

Micah waved his hand. He wanted to organize his thoughts and look at the documents next to him again. This time, he had to win this S-level project. They had come up with two plans for it, either of which was not satisfactory to the other party.

The requirements of the Oppe Group were more difficult to satisfy than he had imagined.

In the next room.

Dayana took out her phone and dialed Chen Xiaorou's number. As soon as she opened her mouth, she shouted, "Where have you been? I haven't seen you since yesterday!" "I... I might have caught a cold from the sea breeze. Cough, cough." Xiaorou concealed her guilty conscience.

Dayana did not know that at this moment, Galilea was right in front of her!

Moreover, what Dayana said next had all been guessed by Galilea.

"Go find Galilea now and see if she has met a man recently, or if she has deliberately seduced someone!"

If she did not make it clear, Dayana would feel uncomfortable.

"I was scolded by her before. If I go to her now, she won't tell me." Xiaorou's heart sank.

"You are really stupid. Just say that you are going to apologize to her and send something to her. It is best to be friends with her, understand?"

"Okay, Miss Quincy, I know..." Before she finished speaking, Dayana had already hung up. Xiaorou sighed helplessly. Actually who was more stupid? After that, she looked at Galilea. That red dress was really beautiful on her. Even she, a woman, was infatuated with it. She really wondered if that Micah had seen too many exquisite things and wanted to try being mediocre. Why had he left Galilea for Dayana, that kind of scheming and vicious young lady? "Miss Frankie, you heard everything. What should I do next?" Galilea raised her eyebrows and smiled. The show was about to start.

She had to go and book a good seat. An hour later, Dayana received a call from Xiaorou, saying that Galilea had an appointment with a man. "Really? The address?" Dayana sat up all of a sudden. "The Intercontinental Hotel next door. Tomorrow noon." Chen Xiaorou had followed Galilea's

Chapter 59 Aladdin's Magic Lamp instructions.

Dayana believed her words and hung up the phone, pondering how to scheme against Galilea.

She planned to look for Xu Ya, but as soon as she went out, she heard Keith's voice from the next room.. "Mr. Lorenzo, the table has been booked for noon tomorrow. It's in the Intercontinental Hotel next door." Dayana was immediately stunned. Such a coincidence?

Or was it that the person Galilea was meeting was Micah?

Galilea had been isolated by MON's people for the past two days. If she had nothing to do by herself, she would go to the beach at the back to enjoy the wind and wait for the good show tomorrow.

Suddenly, she heard someone shouting in the distance, "Pluto!"

She looked back. A foreign old woman with a cane was looking for something everywhere.

Galilea was not a nosy person, but the Frankie family's education made it impossible for her to ignore an old man who needed help.

om

She got up and walked over. "Do you need help?" "My puppy is lost. Its name is Pluto. It is a poodle about this size." The old woman sighed, her eyes full of anxiety. "It's near here, right?" Galilea especially softened her voice and slowly pulled the old woman to sit down next to her, so that she could recover her strength.

From the old woman, she learned that this puppy had accompanied her for many years. It liked cow bones the most. When it heard the song, it could not help but dance with her. "You take a rest here, and I'll give it a try."

The old woman was full of gratitude. "Thank you!"

Ten minutes later.

On the beach, there was a figure singing with bones

"Is there something wrong with her brain?"

"She seems to be an intern with MON. Her name is Galilea. Is she mentally ill because she was dumped by her ex-husband?"

"Who knows! She is so young and pitiful."

Galilea ignored the gazes and discussions of these people and focused on searching. Finally, she found Pluto in the nearby grass.

However, its leg was injured.

It took Galilea a lot of effort to carry it out, but her face was covered with mud.

She hurriedly took Pluto back to find the old woman!

When she went over, there were a few more people around the old woman, all of them were middle-aged men in suits.

They were probably the old woman's family.

"Pluto! Thank you so much!" The old woman was so emotional that tears flowed down. When Pluto saw the old woman, it ran over excitedly and threw itself into her arms. ("There is a small wound on its leg, but it should not be a big problem. Bye." Galilea smiled.

“Wait.”

“You helped my mother, and I want to repay you. You can make any request!” one of the older men shouted.

Galilea turned back and was stunned for two seconds. What a bold promise. If she wanted hundreds of thousands of dollars, could he give it to her? “There are many things in this world that are priceless. If I name a price, it would be an insult to Pluto.” It was also an insult to the old woman’s feelings.

Galilea waved her hand and left handsomely. However, she regretted it when she entered the hotel lobby. Because she saw the hotel manager bringing all the employees to the beach and shouting, “Those people are from the Opple family. You must help the old lady find the dog!” The Opple family? Galilea wanted to give herself two big slaps on the spot.

Not to mention hundreds of thousands, even tens of millions is a small matter for the Opple family! She returned to her room in loneliness. When she received Nore’s call, she felt weak. “What’s wrong? What happened?” Nore sensed that something was wrong and was a little anxious. “I am a fool. I just threw away an Aladdin’s Magic Lamp.” Galilea gritted her teeth and pounded her chest.

Chapter 60 Take Care of Yourself

On the other side of the line, Nore was confused,

“Galilea, if you need my help, you must tell me. Also, the one we met on the road that day...” He had just heard his mother say that Xu Ya went to MON as an intern and went to Fashion Week as an assistant,

He was worried about Galilea, so he called.

“I’m not in the mood right now. I want to sleep first.” Galilea did not wait for him to finish speaking, She hung up the phone and buried her head into the quilt.

At the same time, she did not know that her dispute with Xiaorou on the beach had been sent back to the domestic media.

MON’s public relations manager also noticed this small piece of news. He was immediately dissatisfied with Galilea’s actions.

However, when he reported this matter to the higher ups, the reply he received was, “There is no need to interfere.”

Under normal circumstances, they would have dismissed the small intern who had brought bad influence to the company.

The public relations manager frowned. He really could not understand. A woman who had been abandoned by Micah, could a bankrupt socialite who had been looked down upon by people in Cloud Town, still have the ability to make a comeback?

Susan happened to walk past him. She tore the report and threw it back at him.

“She is now my assistant, and she is also one of the newcomers that the company will focus on training in the future. If you have the spare time, why don’t you go to the toilet and smoke a cigarette? Don’t target at my people.”

She said fiercely, anger flashing through her eyes.

“Yes, Ms. Lee. Don’t be angry. I will go now.” The public relations manager quickly trotted away.

Susan looked at the scraps of paper on the ground and left with a frown.

The moment Galilea woke up, she saw the message Susan sent her. There was only one sentence in the message.

“Someone in the company has set their eyes on you. Take care of yourself.”

Galilea suddenly became spirited.

She replied. ‘Please rest assured.’

After that, she changed into the red dress according to the plan and rushed to the Intercontinental Hotel,

Was she afraid of being targeted? She had been quite used to being secretly attacked.

Whoever touched her, she would pay it back tenfold.

Today, she would begin with Dayana.

Galilea did not take a taxi but walked all the way to the Intercontinental Hotel. She felt that someone had been following her.

She smiled and stepped up the stairs. At the same time, a car stopped at the entrance of the Intercontinental Hotel. It was Mr. Oppe, the eldest son of the old woman.

After he noticed Galilea, he waved his hand in a friendly manner. Galilea also nodded to him.

Out of courtesy, Galilea waited for the other person to come up and walked in together.

Chapter 60 Take Care of Yourself “I didn’t have the time to ask last time. What is your name, Miss?” Mr. Oppe was a mixed-blood. Although his Chinese was not fluent, he could communicate normally,

As far as Galilea knew, he was the current executive chairman of the Oppe Group.

“Galilea Frankie.”

From a distance, Dayana was standing vigilantly, wearing a hat and a veil. She saw that Galilea was wearing such a beautiful dress and was meeting a man who looked a little rich.

More importantly, this man was obviously quite old.

Dayana secretly took out her phone and took a picture of them. When she returned to China and sent these to the media, she could wait for Galilea to be scolded as a shameless vixen!

She was already beginning to look forward to that day.

However, she did not know that she was walking step by step into Galilea's trap.

"I came here for an appointment. See you next time, Mr. Orph." Galilea smiled. In her heart, she silently said sorry. Because she had unknowingly made use of the other party. Before she came, she had already inquired about the Lorenzo group's recent movements. Micah wanted to get the authorization of an S-level project from the Oppl Group.

She was his ex-wife, so of course, she had to help him.

"Okay, hopefully, we will meet again."

The two of them went their separate ways and sat on different sofas in the dining room. There was a table between them.

Dayana stood at the entrance and looked inside. A cold and solemn figure appeared at the entrance. Micah brought Keith along and walked over.

She hurriedly hid behind the decorations and watched as Micah walked into the dining room.

At that moment, she was about to collapse. They really made an appointment!

Because she was pregnant, Micah was lonely. After seeing Galilea, he rekindled his old feelings for her and went on a date with her now.

Dayana's mind was blank and she couldn't care about anything.

She couldn't lose to Galilea like this.

She rushed in rashly, forgetting Wendy's warning to her. She shouted in public, "Micah, why did you do this to me?"

At that time, Micah was preparing to sit down in front of Mr. Oppl.

Dayana's appearance interrupted his words and attracted everyone's attention.

Galilea sat in the back and smiled, "Showtime."

In this kind of high-end hotel, no one would be so unreasonable. For a moment, Dayana endured the annoying gazes of many people, but she was already mad with anger. She directly rushed over and grabbed Micah. "Micah, didn't you say that you were working? You lied to me!"

The man's face sank.

"Get out first," he immediately grabbed Dayana.

2/3

Chapter 60 Take Care of Yourself *I won't!" Dayana struggled with all her might. She used both her hands and feet and almost fell.

She suddenly pounced forward and knocked over the teacup on the table, causing both Mr. Oppl and Micah to be very unhappy.

“Miss Quincy, be careful. Aren’t you pregnant?” Galilea looked at her leisurely with one hand on her chin and said at the right time.

Hearing Galilea’s voice, Dayana suddenly looked over and suddenly felt that something was wrong. Why didn’t Galilea sit at the same table as them? Was she mistaken?

But now, it was too late.

“Get out immediately.” Micah couldn’t suppress his anger and wanted to push her away. “No, I... Micah, I was deceived by Galilea. She set me up!” Dayana’s chest heaved violently because of anger. Her face was red and she muttered, “I thought you two had an affair. I didn’t expect it to be like this. Who is he?”

She pointed at Opple’s face without any manners. “Mr. Lorenzo, who is this?” Mr. Opple looked unhappy as he tidied up the stains on his suit. Micah directly pulled Dayana behind him. “Mr. Opple, I am very sorry. She is my fiancée.” The last word was ground out from his teeth. A second ago, Dayana had already crossed the bottom line of his disappointment.

Galilea was eating melon seeds behind him.

“I don’t think it is necessary. There is no need to talk about the cooperation with your company.” Mr. Opple sighed regretfully. With such a fiancée, how could this president of the company be worthy of his expectation? Mr. Opple turned around and left. Micah left Dayana behind and chased after him. “Mr. Opple...” “Let me explain. “I was tricked by that woman!” Dayana quickly stepped forward and blocked Mr. Opple’s path. “Shut up.” Micah grabbed her wrist and said fiercely.
