

Chapter 61 Just a Joke

Galilea calmly met Micah's slightly complicated gaze and explained to Mr. Oppe, "I do have some entanglement with these two people. He is my ex-husband, and this woman is his fiancée."

The relationship was a little complicated, and Mr. Oppe's gaze swept over the three of them. Micah's face sank. What he said was useless, and the contract with Oppe Group had to be put on hold again!

Watching her smiling and talking to Mr. Oppe, Micah pulled Dayana and took her out. "Micah, they have known each other for a long time. Why is that person so friendly to Galilea?..." Dayana muttered.

"Go back to the hotel now. If you say one more word, you will disappear from my eyes forever." Dayana's eyes were overflowing with tears. This was the first time she had seen Micah look so disgusted.

She did not understand what she had done wrong.

She had just hated Galilea and came to see her.

Micah directly ordered the driver to send her back and then turned back. He wanted to redeem the cooperation with Mr. Oppe, but the other party had already left. Galilea looked at his angry look and smiled. Today's play was really beautiful. "Stop." Micah turned his wrist and pushed her onto the cold wall. Galilea was exceptionally calm. The corner of her mouth even flashed a smile. "What? Mr. Lorenzo doesn't like this play? I think the female lead acted well."

"You... schemed against me?"

Right now, he wished he could strangle this woman to death, and he was also upset that he should not have been soft-hearted and given her a chance to fight back.

Galilea blinked her eyes, and there was no fear on her face at all.

"I was just joking with you. Do you know that your fiancée almost pushed me into the sea and drowned me?" She blinked.

Micah was indeed aware of this matter.

"She doesn't have the guts. Maybe she just said it casually and was heard by someone with ulterior motives." Galilea couldn't help but laugh. "Anyway, Mr. Oppe won't cooperate with your company anymore. I won."

After saying that, Galilea took advantage of the time when Micah was distracted and shook off his hand. She walked to another table and took a cake.

"Actually, I have another purpose today, which is to thank you. Thank you for letting me enter MON."

Galilea smiled, placed the cake in front of Micah, and then left.

She would not tell Micah that today was a special day, the wedding anniversary of the two of them.

She was afraid that he would never remember.

Galilea walked out of the main entrance, facing the cool sea breeze outside. She took a deep breath. She had officially declared war with Micah.

Chapter 61 Just a Joke From this moment on, she had to be alert every minute.

She didn't know when she would die in the hands of that man.

As soon as Galilea returned to the hotel, she met Xu Ya in the lobby.

Xu Ya was wearing a beige dress and a ponytail. She looked particularly youthful and beautiful. When she saw Galilea, she ran over. "Sister Galilea, the company asked us to go and get the decorations for the Fashion Week. Are we going now?"

"You and me?"

"Yes, I've already arranged a car." Xu Ya nodded with a smile.

Did they need a car to get some decorations?

It seemed that the place was far away.

"Let's go." Galilea narrowed her eyes.

Xu Ya smiled brightly and even took the initiative to open the car door for her. "I am car-sick. I'll sit outside."

This kind of local taxi was open on one side.

Galilea only glanced at her indifferently. While no one was paying attention, she took something out of her bag and held it in her hand.

"Driver, let's go." At this time, Chen Xiaorou had already been called into the room by Dayana and was scolded. "You are really a fool. You couldn't even do such a small thing!" Dayana raised her hand and was about to throw the glass cup in her hand.

"Miss Quincy, it's all my fault. Don't get angry. Be careful not to hurt the baby." Xiaorou urged in a low voice.

Baby? Dayana suddenly woke up and muttered, "Yes, I am with a baby."

Micah must have been angry at her for only a moment or put on an act to show Mr. Opple.

As long as she followed his instructions, Mrs. Lorenzo's position would definitely still be hers. With this in mind, Dayana's mood was not so bad. She glared at Xiaorou, "In the future, keep an eye on Galilea for me. If she makes any movements, you have to tell me."

Especially this Fashion Week, after the scandal between her and Micah's wedding, it was her first public appearance. She absolutely could not allow it to be destroyed by Galilea again. "Okay, I got it." Xiaorou quickly said.

She quietly left the room, closed the door, and secretly muttered, "Even if ten of you joined forces, you still wouldn't be able to defeat Galilea." After Galilea's torment, the cooperation between the Lorenzo group and the Opple Group was completely destroyed.

Micah returned to the hotel and asked Keith to contact Mr. Opple, but it was rejected.

“Think of a way. I must see him in person this week.)’ Micah loosened his tie. The table was full of the reports from his meetings these days.

For this S-level project, he had put in all his effort, and as long as there was a chance to talk face to face, he was absolutely confident in convincing the other. Everything had been well prepared, but it was ruined by Dayana.

Chapter 61 Just a Joke When he thought of how she had made a scene in the restaurant just now, Micah felt even more anxious. This was his future wife?

After some investigation, Keith came to a conclusion. “Mr. Lorenzo, this Fashion Week has also invited the old madam of the Opple family. Perhaps Mr. Opple will also participate.” “If you, as Miss Quincy’s male partner, participate in Fashion Week, you should be able to meet him.” Keith adjusted his glasses. After a short silence, Micah waved his hand. “Go and arrange it.”

He only wanted the result.

“By the way, Mr. Lorenzo, you asked me to pay attention to Miss Frankie. She seems to be in some trouble today.”

The man raised his eyebrows and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

“Speak.”

Chapter 62 Die Together

Galilea sat in the car, not saying a word. She lowered her head and played with her phone for a while, then looked out the window.

“Haven’t we arrived yet?” She asked as if nothing had happened.

“Not yet. I’m not too familiar with this place. Check in the map. Oh, I forgot to bring my phone,” Xu Ya quickly replied. “Oh,” Galilea replied. “Use my phone to check.”

“Can I? Can you tell me how to unlock the password?” Xu Ya acted innocent and harmless.

“No password.” Galilea tilted her head and looked out of the window. “Go ahead and check it out. Tell me when you get there.”

“Okay, you rest. I’ll handle it.” Xu Ya smiled as she said this. When she saw Galilea close her eyes, she immediately turned on Galilea’s phone.

About ten minutes later.

“Are we there yet?” Galilea murmured and then opened her eyes.

Only the local driver and she were left in the car. As for Xu Ya, she had disappeared without a trace with – her mobile phone. At the same time, Galilea’s backpack was gone.

Galilea clicked her tongue.

"I don't know how the Xu family taught their daughter. What's the use of having such a high education? Her brain is so bad."

She turned her head and saw that it was already dark outside. It was close to evening, and there was a kind of fog outside. It was very easy for strangers to get lost.

Xu Ya must have thought that she could not speak the local language here. So she had taken her mobile phone away and colluded with the driver in advance.

Unfortunately, she was Galilea, not a fool like Dayana.

"Hey, send me back," Galilea spoke in the local language. In order to study abroad, she had learned the language before, but she did not expect it to be useful today.

When the driver heard her, he was obviously stunned.

However, he cursed and stepped on the accelerator.

As long as they reached his territory, what could a weak woman like Galilea do?

Thinking about the agreed price, coupled with Galilea's beautiful face and figure, the driver became even more excited.

However, a second later.

A cold and sharp blade gripped his throat. Galilea wasn't trying to scare him. She used force and the blade cut through his skin.

The driver immediately shouted, "Are you crazy?"

"Send me back to the hotel. You can still get the reward she promised you."

"Otherwise, we will die together."

The driver looked at the rearview mirror. Galilea's eyes were empty and cold. He swallowed a mouthful of saliva and had to turn the car around first.

As she spoke, she wiped the blood off her hands on the dress that Xu Ya had just put on. “I’ll spare you for the sake of Nore, only this once.” With that, Galilea stepped into the hotel. Although her clothes were a little wrinkled, she had already wiped the blood off her hands. However, Xu Ya was stunned outside the door. Her skirt was covered in blood and she was holding a bloody blade in her hand. She looked like she had seen a ghost. Not long after Galilea returned to her room, Anna knocked on her door. “What is it?”

“Xu Ya said she couldn’t contact you, so I came over to take a look.” Anna looked at her in surprise.

*Oh, I lost my phone. What do you need me to do?” Galilea naturally smiled.

*Our company is responsible for the videos of a few female celebrities. They all live in this hotel. Go and confirm the style and number of jewelry. This is the list.”

If not for the lack of manpower, Galilea wouldn’t have been involved in such a big job.

Galilea held the name list and her gaze fell on the name on the last page.

“I will do my best. Thank you, Sister Anna,” she replied with a smile.

Anna watched as Galilea entered the lift with the name list. He frowned in confusion. “Why do I feel like something is wrong?” she asked.

Chapter

63 I Am Not Afraid of Anything

Ten minutes later, when Anna heard that something had happened to Xu Ya, she immediately rushed over.

A few of MON’s employees were present, and there was also Liu Yuanyuan. They were all comforting Xu Ya.

However, Xu Ya held the box tightly, and would not let go. “I want to go home. I have already booked the ticket. None of you can stop me!”

Knowing Xu Ya’s family background, Anna quickly gave them a look.

“I’ll take care of it.”

“How about I stay too? I think she’s in a bad state. If anything happens, I may be of help.”

“Alright.” Anna nodded.

Xu Ya shouted as soon as she walked over. “Don’t stop me, I have to go home! I can’t stay here for even a second.”

“Okay, okay, of course, you can go back. I will help you explain it to the company, but you have to tell me the reason, right? Did you get into a conflict with someone?” Anna asked patiently.

She had heard about what happened on the plane.

if Xu Ya really disliked Galilea, she could just use a little trick to transfer Galilea away.

Xu Ya bit her lips, and her mind flooded with Galilea's expression.

For a moment, she trembled in fear.

"No!"

"I just want to go back. Let me go," she shouted.

Xu Ya was on the verge of crying and begging Anna!

Just as they were making a ruckus, someone knocked on the door.

The waiter stood outside with Nore.

Liu Yuanyuan opened the door and glanced at Xu Ya. "Your friend?"

Xu Ya had tears on her face. When she saw Nore, she covered her head with a blanket. "Brother Nore, don't come over. I'm too ugly now. Wait for me to clean up. I'll go see you."

Nore replied in a daze. He grabbed his phone and walked to the room he had just booked.

In order to give Galilea a surprise, he had asked for the address of the hotel. Xu Ya had dressed up like that just to pick him up at the airport.

However, after that incident, Xu Ya was so scared that she didn't even dare to leave the door.

The door closed again, and Xu Ya's mood eased a little.

Because Nore really came.

If he knew Galilea's true face, would he still pursue her? Xu Ya clenched the sheets tightly. Even if Nore was still obsessed with Galilea, it was impossible for the Lubi family to want a daughter-in-law with a criminal record.

With this in mind, Xu Ya recovered a little confidence.

"Sister Anna, I'm not going back to the country, but I want to participate in the Fashion Week. Can you help me buy a ticket?" she asked in a low voice.

She wanted to let Galilea understand that she was the high and mighty miss and the only woman who could match Nore.

Chapter 63 I Am Not Afraid of Anything This kind of Fashion Week had VIP tickets, and the price was clearly set.

Some business socialites would occasionally get the red carpet treatment in branded dresses out of novelty.

Xu Ya's request was not too excessive.

Anna could also get 10% for the processing fee, which was a win-win situation. Anna smiled and said, "You are like my sister. If you ask, I will get you a ticket whatever it takes! And it is definitely a good place."

With Anna's guarantee, Xu Ya felt much better.

Tomorrow was the first day of Fashion Week. Anna immediately took her mobile phone to contact about the ticket.

Liu Yuanyuan was still standing in the room, watching Xu Ya put on her makeup in the mirror with her own eyes. She then changed into another expensive dress.

When she was ready, she was no longer as crazy as before.

"If my friend asks what happened to me just now, just say that I was not feeling well. Don't talk too much about other things, understood?" Xu Ya looked at Liu Yuanyuan with a commanding tone.

"Since you are fine, I will go first. I still have work to do."

"Wait!"

Xu Ya looked at Liu Yuanyuan and asked, "Where is Galilea?"

Liu Yuanyuan frowned. Didn't she always call Galilea sister in front of others?

"Say it!"

"Sister Anna arranged a job for her just now. She should be busy." After Liu Yuanyuan finished speaking, she ignored Xu Ya and left directly.

She had stayed just now because they were all interns. If Xu Ya insisted on returning to the country, it would probably implicate her.

Xu Ya sat in the room. The mirror reflected her beautiful face. She slowly raised the corners of her mouth. "How can a resentful woman who was abandoned compare to me!"

At this time, Galilea was indeed busy. According to the order on the list, she knocked on the door one by one and communicated with the female stars.

Her attitude was gentle and polite, and very professional.

"Sister Min?" The assistant asked in a low voice.

The female star, Zhang Min, who was leaning on the recliner, slowly opened her eyes. She glanced at Galilea and revealed a smile.

"You are very professional. I will leave this matter to you."

"Thank you, Miss Zhang Min. At the latest, I will give you a final answer at eight o'clock tonight." Galilea made a note on the paper.

She turned around and walked towards the door. Zhang Min suddenly called out to her, "Your name is Galilea, right?"

Galilea had a vague premonition in her heart.

“Correct.” She smiled and turned around.

Zhang Min stood up with a chair in her hand. Her tall figure was very elegant. She wore a hollow cape and walked towards Galilea. “Aren’t you angry that you became a handywoman for a design company from a rich lady?”

Chapter 63 Am Not Afraid of Anything “I don’t understand what Miss Zhang Min means.” Galilea frowned. “It’s nothing. I think we will meet again in the future,” Zhang Min said. She immediately turned around, took the red wine on the table, and went to the balcony. Galilea pondered over her words and left. A breeze blew past Zhang Min’s hair, and she gulped down the wine in her glass. “Galilea, the Lorenzo group...” The last person on the list was Dayana’s agent, Elisa. Galilea stood at the door of her room, wrote down the door number, and directly made a note at the back. “No one in the room.”

Then she left.

As soon as she got out of the lift, she saw Liu Yuanyuan standing at the door of her room. “What’s the matter?” Liu Yuanyuan wanted to say something but stopped. She looked at Galilea for a while. “If you have something to say, say it. Otherwise, I will close the door.” Galilea was a little tired. “Let me go in first.” Liu Yuanyuan saw that Galilea still looked like she didn’t know anything and felt a little sympathetic for her. Galilea didn’t understand what she meant. She frowned and closed the door. “Galilea, you helped me in the company before, so I also want to help you once. Consider it as returning your favor.” Liu Yuanyuan thought about it and said what she had heard in the coffee shop just now. A few minutes later, Galilea asked very calmly, “So, Xu Ya means that I will be sued by the local police soon?” Liu Yuanyuan was shocked for a few seconds. “Aren’t you worried at all?” “There’s nothing to worry about,” Galilea said as she poured a glass of water. Liu Yuanyuan bit the corner of her lips. “You have no background here, unlike Xu Ya. She said that her father has a lot of partners here. If she is the witness, you will probably be sued by the lawyer here, and it will be difficult for you to return to the country.” “You will have a criminal record even if you are extradited back to the country.” “I already have a criminal record, what am I afraid of?” Galilea drank the glass of white water and said lightly.

Chapter 64 Name a Price

Liu Yuanyuan still wanted to say something, but she suddenly saw Galilea take off her coat. The shirt — inside was obviously stained with blood.

Her throat seemed to be choked by someone, and she blurted out in shock, “What Xu Ya said is true?”

Liu Yuanyuan staggered back, so scared that she was about to pass out.

She thought that Xu Ya had slandered Galilea and wanted to do her a favor.

Galilea went to the bathroom to wash her hands as if nothing had happened. When Liu Yuanyuan calmed down, she wiped her hands and said, “How much strength do I have to use to pull the corpse of an adult man from the van and destroy the evidence?”

“Then, what’s with the blood on your body?” Liu Yuanyuan tried to regain some reason.

"I accidentally touched it, and that person will never sue me." Galilea smiled and thanked Liu Yuanyuan, "In the future, don't be so silly to be an informant. It will easily get yourself involved."

Liu Yuanyuan met Galilea's eyes and nodded slowly.

Then there was a knock on the door, and Galilea asked her to go to the bathroom first, in case people thought that they had a good relationship.

For if someone wanted to take revenge on her, it might implicate Liu Yuanyuan. When the door opened, Galilea looked at Nore who appeared outside, and was stunned.

"Why did you..."

"I called you, and why didn't you answer my phone?" There was a small flame flickering in Nore's eyes, He looked at Galilea up and down. After making sure that she was fine, he heaved a sigh of relief. However, his gaze was fixed on the blood on her sleeve. "What happened?"

He grabbed her wrist and burst into the room.

After taking a closer look, he found that it was not Galilea's blood. He breathed a sigh of relief.

"It's just a small matter. I can handle it." Galilea said and called out Liu Yuanyuan.

"Aren't you Xu Ya's boyfriend?" Liu Yuanyuan blurted out. Then, she realized something and immediately covered her mouth and ran out.

Looking at her fleeing back, Galilea closed the door with a wry smile.

"I don't have that kind of relationship with Xu Ya. It's just that my family arranged a meeting." Nore stood up.

He explained seriously. Afraid that Galilea wouldn't believe him, he directly handed the phone over. There were also his chat records with Sean and his chat records with Xu Ya.

"These things have nothing to do with me," Galilea pushed his phone away.

She said lightly, and Nore's eyes dimmed.

There were too many words stuck in his throat, and he suddenly lost the courage to say them. "Then, do you have anything to say to me?" Nore was still holding onto his last bit of hope.

"No," Galilea shook her head.

"Then I won't disturb you any longer." Nore dragged his heavy footsteps out of the room.

Thump.

The door closed.

Galilea slowly breathed a sigh of relief, and her eyes gradually became sharp.

Chapter 64 Name a Price She still had a lot of things to do and had no time to deal with Xu Ya, but Xu Ya provoked her again and again, so Xu Ya couldn't blame her.

Outside the door, Nore took out his phone and dialed Sean's number. "Help me investigate something." Before he finished speaking, he saw Micah walk over with Keith and headed straight to Galilea's room. "Mr. Lorenzo?" Nore was on his guard. He had just heard MON's employees whisper a few words. Galilea seemed to have been targeted by someone recently.

Now that he saw Micah, Nore thought of the grudge between them and directly blocked the door.

MOV

"Mr. Lubi is really free. Please move aside." Micah frowned. In order to see Galilea, he had chased after her for thousands of miles?

Micah sneered and stepped forward to break in.

"You already have a new lover, don't disturb her anymore."

"I'm not the only one with a new lover. Don't stand in my way. I don't care about a mere Lubi family," Micah warned. "What did you say?"

Nore was furious. He waved his fist and was about to rush forward.

Micah didn't show any weakness, indicating for Keith to back off.

"If you want to fight, go somewhere else." Galilea opened the door and shouted with a frown, "This is a public place. Don't you know how to respect others?"

The two men slowly stopped their actions.

"Don't be afraid. If he dares to do anything to you, I will fight him to the death." Nore stepped over to her.

Micah's eyes darkened, and he seemed a little unhappy.

"I know he's coming to find me. Go back and rest first. I'll call you if there's anything."

Nore still wanted to say something, but Galilea had already returned to the room.

Micah looked at him coldly, indicating that Keith should stay at the door.

Then, the door closed. Nore clenched his fists and left with anger. He believed that Galilea hated Micah to the bone, but he didn't believe Micah! He didn't want such a good woman like Galilea, but liked Dayana?

What if Micah regretted it?

What if he wanted to chase Galilea back?

Nore couldn't sit still in the room, so he still wanted to go to Galilea's door to keep watch.

But as soon as he opened the door, he saw Xu Ya, who was looking for him. She was full of tears and called out to him like a little bird, "Brother Nore, something happened."

In Galilea's room.

The two of them sat face to face, and neither of them spoke first.

Galilea vaguely remembered that they had never been alone in a room like this.

The terrible marriage in the past surfaced in her mind again. She smiled in disgust and poured a glass of water for Micah.

The ice touched the glass wall, just like the relationship between them being frozen.

"I want to see Mr. Oppe alone during the Fashion Week. Can you help me?" Micah asked.

Chapter 64 Name a Price Galilea couldn't hold it in and laughed. "Although I guessed that you would come to me for this, I still find it funny to hear it with my own ears. I just want to make the Lorenzo group lose this project," she said with a smile. "Name your price." Micah turned the watch on his wrist and leaned back. Galilea raised her eyebrows. She had seen him like this before. When he was confident about something, he would inadvertently reveal this kind of expression. Galilea blinked. Very good, the fish had taken the bait. "You boasted at the Lorenzo group's press conference that you must win this S-level project. If the project goes to waste, those old men will lose everything. They won't let you go easily, will they?" Galilea smiled confidently and proudly. Her appearance was deeply engraved in Micah's heart. He fell into an inexplicably complicated struggle until Galilea's soft voice came. "Mr. Lorenzo, how much do you think your face is worth?"

Chapter 65 He Went to See Miss Frankie! The man's eyes swayed slightly. He slowly got up and put down a blank check on the table. "Fill in a number that you are satisfied with. You only have fifteen hours to think about it." Micah took a step forward and at the same time threw down a sentence, "There is no need to sacrifice the rest of your life for revenge against me, right? It is ridiculous to hit a rock with an egg."

Bang.

The door closed, and Galilea's hand slowly tightened. She clearly had the upper hand, but he pushed her into the abyss with a casual sentence.

She didn't know how long she was in a daze until someone knocked on the door. It was the hotel manager and the local police officers.

"Galilea, please cooperate with their investigation. A taxi driver has gone missing."

The people in the other rooms heard the noise and looked out.

"Let's go." Galilea naturally closed the door.

Liu Yuanyuan watched Galilea being taken away from the other side of the corridor. Then she saw Xu Ya and Nore coming out of the lift.

She gritted her teeth and walked over. "Galilea was taken away by the police."

A hint of pride flashed past Xu Ya's eyes, but she concealed it very well and did not let Nore find out.

She even pretended to be alarmed and tugged at his sleeve. "Brother Nore, what should we do?"

"I'll think of a way. If Galilea comes back, tell me immediately." Nore's expression was cold, and he naturally connected this matter to Micah.

After that, he strode away, thinking of finding a few friends to try and get Galilea out.

"Don't worry!" Xu Ya shouted.

She would definitely stay here.

As long as it was more than two days, all of them would fly back home.

At that time, Galilea would be left here alone. She would be penniless and have no mobile phone or passport. How could she go back?

Liu Yuanyuan watched as Xu Ya negotiated with the hotel manager and openly entered Galilea's room.

"What are you going to do?"

As soon as Xu Ya entered, she began to rummage around, throwing all of Galilea's things into the bag. "Of course, I am to help her pack her things. If she goes to jail here, the hotel won't help her keep her personal belongings." "How do you know that she must go to jail? What if the matter has nothing to do with her?"

Liu Yuanyuan always felt that something was wrong.

Xu Ya turned her back to her and muttered, "You don't have to worry about it."

After Galilea was taken away, there was a lot of gossip in the hotel. When these words reached Dayana's ears, she was overjoyed. "This is really satisfying. It's best if she sits in the prison." Dayana smiled sinisterly. The more she thought about it, the happier she felt.

Since tomorrow was Fashion Week, she decided to celebrate.

Chapter 65 He Went to See Miss Frankie! She immediately changed into a floral dress and knocked on Micah's door.

The door quickly opened, and Dayana smiled sweetly. "Micah, I heard that the midnight snack in the restaurant downstairs is good. Do you want to have a taste?"

Micah was having a headache because of the meeting with Mr. Opple, but he needed to enter with the identity of Dayana's male companion... "Okay, let's go." Dayana was overjoyed. She knew that as long as she was obedient, Micah would not ignore her. The two of them walked into the restaurant together.

Not long after they ordered the dishes, they heard people talking about Galilea at the next table.

"People don't change. She has an evil mind."

"I heard that people in her company don't like her very much. I really don't know why MON admits someone like her!"

"Keep your voice down. You will be heard."

"What are you afraid of? She is going to jail."

Micah picked up the coffee and took a sip. His expression was normal.

On the other hand, Dayana could no longer contain the joy in her heart.

“Micah, you heard about it too, right? Galilea was caught again. I really don’t know what she was thinking.” Dayana deliberately made a look of pity.

She was obviously gloating.

Galilea’s face inexplicably appeared in Micah’s mind.

If the person sitting opposite him at the moment was Galilea, what kind of expression would she have? No matter what she said, she should not be as unscrupulous as Dayana, which was repulsive.

The man pressed his eyebrows.

When the food was served, Dayana finally calmed down a little.

“Tomorrow, I will attend Fashion Week with you,” Micah said in a timely manner.

“That’s great!” Dayana was pleasantly surprised.

Her smile reached the corner of her mouth.

Keith rushed in from outside the door and came to Micah’s side. He whispered a few words

Dayana did not hear it clearly, but she clearly saw that Micah’s expression had changed.

Then, he immediately got up. “I still have something to deal with. You eat first.”

“But...” Dayana had no time to stop him. He had already left.

She bit her lips angrily. She had been that close!

If he could stay a little longer, and she had the chance to pour him a few glasses of wine, maybe they could spend the night together tonight.

She was angry and glanced at Keith. “What is it?”

“It’s about the company,” Keith replied and was about to leave.

“I’m going to be Mrs. Lorenzo soon. I have the right to know! If you don’t tell me, I’ll get Micah to fire you.”

Keith paused.

The eyes under his frame glasses surged, but in an instant, they returned to their usual gentleness,

Chapter 65 He Went to See Miss Frankie! “Miss Frankie called Mr. Lorenzo from the police station. Mr. Lorenzo went to see her,” he said lightly.

After that, he ignored the shocked look on Dayana’s face and walked away.

This was what she wanted to know.

“Galilea!”

Ignoring the fact that there were others present, Dayana ran out in anger, wanting to chase after Micah. However, she accidentally stumbled onto the sofa and sprained her ankle.

“It hurts... It hurts so much.” “Dayana!” Elisa happened to come over to eat. She held her and said anxiously, “Tomorrow is Fashion Week. Do you have to sprain your ankle at this time?”

Dayana was angry and annoyed.

Chapter 66 Confrontation

Half an hour later.

In the visiting room at the local police station.

Galilea had counted tens of thousands of numbers in her heart before she heard footsteps coming from the corridor.

The door creaked open from outside.

Micah walked in. Behind him was the light from outside, enveloping him.

“You only have ten minutes.” After the policeman finished speaking, he closed the door.

The room was very dark. There was only one lamp that reflected Galilea’s face. Micah looked over and only felt that her quiet appearance was very dazzling. It was very likely that she would be detained by the local police, or even detained for a long time.

Why was she not afraid? Was she sure that he would save her?

In just an instant, his eyes were filled with coldness again. He pulled out a chair and sat in front of her.

“Have you thought it through?”

“No one will go against money,” Galilea said with a smile.

- Micah narrowed his eyes. Her tone made him very uncomfortable. He pursed his lips and said, “Now you are no longer qualified to negotiate with me.”

Galilea lowered her head and rubbed the cold handcuffs on her wrists under the table.

After a long time, she said, “If you lose this S-level project, your position in the Lorenzo group will be threatened. As far as I know, your partner, Terry, has been dissatisfied with you for a long time.”

Micah’s expression turned ugly.

Galilea looked up and chuckled. “You will earn a lot by fishing an insignificant person like me out of this place in exchange for an opportunity to cooperate with the Opple Family.”

“Other than that, I have another request.”

“Galilea, you should be the one begging me now!”

Micah felt that he was being controlled by her everywhere and was very unhappy.

"I have already been ruined by you. It doesn't matter even if I die here now. If you don't agree, you can leave." Galilea blinked indifferently.

"Tell me, what conditions?" Micah suppressed his anger.

"You hold a wedding with Dayana."

"Is this your condition? If you play tricks with me again, I will make you unable to get out for the rest of your life. Do you believe me?"

"Yes, I do."

"The Lorenzo group has a branch company here. I know it very well. I sincerely feel that you are very compatible with Dayana. I want to wish you two to be together forever."

Separated by the long table, Micah stared at her face. After an unknown period of time, his gaze finally moved away from her.

"Or is it that Mr. Lorenzo is afraid that I will ruin your wedding again? If your love is as strong as gold, how can you be affected by me?" Galilea muttered. Without saying anything, Micah opened the door and left.

Chapter 66 Confrontation Galilea sat there and took a deep breath.

Her palms were already covered in sweat.

Would she win this game? Even if Micah missed the chance to meet Mr. Opplé, the Lorenzo group would still have other S-level projects. Galilea was gambling.

After he revived the Lorenzo group, there was nothing he couldn't do.

He had never lost.

Time passed by. Galilea looked at the closed door and her heart beat faster.

If she lost the gamble...

With a squeak, the door was pushed open again, and Micah was nowhere to be seen. Two local police officers came, "You can go now."

When Galilea returned to the hotel, the news had already spread.

The missing driver had returned to the police station, saying that this matter had nothing to do with Galilea. He had accidentally cut himself, so he had temporarily abandoned the car and been to the hospital for treatment.

With the confession of the person involved, Galilea was naturally acquitted.

However, when one thought about it carefully, there were too many strange things. In addition, Galilea had already had a criminal record. As soon as she entered the hotel, everyone walked around her and avoided her.

Except for Liu Yuanyuan.

She stood at the lift door trembling, waiting for Galilea to go over.

“Are you okay? They didn’t do anything to you, did they?”

“If you are afraid, just stay away from me.” Galilea pressed the floor button.

Liu Yuanyuan’s throat froze. She thought about it carefully and shook her head. “I’m not afraid. I know you were wronged.”

The lift door closed and slowly rose.

Galilea rubbed her fingertips. “It’s because I was wronged that you should stay away. Do you understand?”

Liu Yuanyuan was stunned. Seeing her go out, she hurriedly chased after her. “Xu Ya took all your things to her room. Sister Anna also turned a blind eye. Also, Xu Ya’s man... is that Nore. He said that he wanted to find a way to save you, but he never returned to the hotel.”

Galilea took out the room card she had always carried with her and swiped the door.

There was no reaction.

“There should be someone living in this room now. Why don’t you squeeze with me first?”

Galilea suddenly turned her head, looked at Liu Yuanyuan’s careful appearance, and frowned, “You are obviously very afraid of me, why do you insist on sticking to me?”

She still had many things to do, and it was really inconvenient to have such a small tail behind. Liu Yuanyuan gritted her teeth, “I have also been schemed against like this before.”

She knew how lonely Galilea was now, and she also knew that she needed help.

“I can’t do much. If you need help, you can...”

Chapter 66 Confrontation Galilea rubbed her eyebrows. If she didn’t let Liu Yuanyuan help, she might follow her all the time. “I need a very eye-catching dress. Can you help me get it?” “I will give it a try!” Liu Yuanyuan stuffed the spare room card into Galilea’s hands, turned around, and ran away. Galilea looked at the room card, put it in her pocket, looked around, and entered the lift. When Nore received Galilea’s call, he did not know that she had come out. He had already asked his friends to find the best lawyer to save her. Galilea stood in the hotel lobby, listening to Nore’s voice from the telephone receiver, “Stay where you are. I will go over immediately.” Then, he hung up. Galilea smiled and thanked him. She thought about going to Xu Ya’s place to get her phone back. Otherwise, it would be very inconvenient.

“Galilea!”

“You are out?” she heard a cry of surprise from behind her.

Dayana, who was supported by Elisa, widened her eyes. Her face, which had just been a little red, turned white again from anger. Galilea did not move. She saw Dayana shake off Elisa and take a few steps to the front desk. "How do you do things here? Can this kind of person with a criminal record stay in a hotel? Tell her to get out of here immediately!" "This guest, don't be agitated. Miss Galilea is no longer staying in our hotel. Her room has been given to the other guests," The staff at the front desk explained.

Dayana was still angry. Whenever she saw Galilea, she felt very unlucky. Fortunately, her baby was fine, otherwise... "Since she doesn't live here, why did you let her in? Let her go!" Dayana took a few deep breaths. "I'm here for Micah. Do you want to ask him if he wants to let me go?" Galilea glanced at her.

Chapter 67 Cooperation

"You are talking nonsense."

Dayana gritted her teeth and felt that the people around her were laughing at her.

At this moment, a cold figure walked out of the lift, followed by Keith. "He is here. You can ask him yourself." Galilea calmly raised her chin, looking as if she was staying out of it.

"Micah, what exactly is going on? The relationship between you and her has already completely ended, hasn't it?" Dayana pulled him back.

From the moment Galilea went to jail a year ago, their relationship had ended.

Galilea grabbed the melon seeds on the table. She hadn't eaten since that evening and was a little hungry now.

"I will tell you in the future. Tomorrow is the Fashion Week. You go back to your room and rest early." Micah comforted Dayana.

"But..."

She still wanted to say something, but Micah had already pulled her hand down.

Dayana looked up and met his cold gaze. She had no choice but to reply, "Alright, I understand."

She suppressed the strange feeling in her heart. Before she went into the lift, she glanced at Galilea.

There was a very complicated emotion hidden in her eyes.

Galilea did not take it seriously and continued to eat the melon seeds in her hand.

"I asked Keith to arrange a room for you." Micah walked directly to her.

"Thank you."

"I will do my best for tomorrow."

"That's for the best." Micah's gaze was fixed on her face. Keith walked forward and placed the room card in front of Galilea. "This is in the name of Mr. Lorenzo."

Galilea narrowed her eyes and kept the room card.

Micah really wanted to ask her why she didn't choose to ask for the money. Before he could say anything, he saw Nore rush in from outside.

He grabbed Galilea's shoulder and looked at her carefully as if no one else was there. "Are you alright? Are you hurt anywhere?"

His anxiety and nervousness were all written on his face.

In order to protect Galilea, he had tossed and turned for the whole night. At this time, his face was haggard. Seeing that she was unharmed, he finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"In the future, don't do such risky things, okay?" he said in a low voice.

No one knew how he survived the year when Galilea was imprisoned.

He practiced crazily in the racing field every day. Only in this way could he ensure that he had no time to think about her

"Don't worry, I won't go to jail again," Galilea said, patting his back.

"How did you..."

Halfway through his words, he noticed Micah, who was standing next to her, and frowned. "Did he do it?"

Chapter 67 Cooperation "Yes."

"Mr. Lorenzo and I are now partners, although it will be very short." Galilea naturally admitted.

"I warned you to stay away from her," Nore said, turning to look at Micah with hostility.

"Remember your promise," said Micah, his expression unchanged.

Then, he turned and went upstairs. "What did you promise him? Did he threaten you?" Nore frowned, worried that Galilea would fall into Micah's hands again.

"It's just a small matter."

As soon as she finished speaking, she saw Xu Ya walk in from outside the door.

"Sister Galilea, welcome back. I've put away all your things. Which room are you staying in now? I'll send them to you!" Xu Ya almost couldn't smile anymore.

"Outsiders will think that I have a good relationship with Miss Xu." Galilea tsked.

"Sister Galilea, you must have misunderstood me. I didn't say it!" Xu Ya panicked and explained. She even hid behind Nore. "Brother Nore knows it. I have been asking my father to help and save you."

"Indeed. If not for the Xu family, we wouldn't have found a lawyer." Nore nodded.

"Then I have to thank you." Galilea raised her eyebrows and took out the room card that Micah had given her just now. "1505, get all my things back right now. I won't let you off easily if there's one less."

Around them, MON's employees saw Galilea's attitude towards Xu Ya.

They started discussing again.

“This Galilea is really an ingrate. Xu Ya is busy helping her. What is her attitude?”

“Is that man Lubi family’s young master? He seems to be Xu Ya’s blind date. Why is his relationship with Galilea so good? A love triangle?” Xu Ya was so angry that her face turned red. “Okay, I’ll get them right away.”

vassa

Then, she ran into the lift with tears in her eyes.

“I’ve already let her off because of you.” Galilea looked at Nore coldly.

Nore didn’t know what to say.

“You don’t have to think about me.” He trusted Galilea.

Originally, he did not intend to be related to Xu Ya.

She ordered some food at the front desk and put it all on Micah’s account.

Ten minutes later.

Micah learned that he had been brutally ‘slaughtered’ by Galilea.

“What did she order?”

“Lobster fried noodles, abalone soup, crab, and fish. Everything that could be ordered was ordered.” Keith adjusted the frame glasses. This amount was enough for four or five people to eat.

“Forget it, it will only be two days at most. Let her eat her fill,” said Micah.

Presumably, since the Frankie family went bankrupt, she had not had a chance to eat these things.

Micah rolled up his sleeves and was about to start working when he heard that the next room was very lively. It was Galilea’s room. “What is she doing?”

Chapter 67 Cooperation “Miss Frankie is treating all of MON’s employees in the room, except Xu Ya,” Keith replied.

Micah’s face sank. She was using his money to establish connections? He arranged for Galilea to stay in the room next to his so that he could keep an eye on her at all times in order not to be fooled by her. Unexpectedly, he was the one who was drawing the fire upon himself. “Mr. Lorenzo, I’ll tell them to keep their voices down.”

“No need,” Micah said as he pulled off his tie. He walked out with his coat in hand. As soon as he opened the door, he heard the sound of Galilea drinking heartily in the next room. She seemed to be singing.

The door was opened by a crack.. He just happened to see Galilea jumping around on the sofa. He had never seen Galilea like that. If it were before, he would have contemptuously thought that she had gone crazy because the Frankie family had gone bankrupt.

Now, he had to admit that he had changed his opinion of her.

Micah narrowed his eyes. Although he had accidentally let Galilea take advantage of the loophole this time, every move she took was worthy of scrutiny. All the connections she could make use of were used by her and she finally achieved her goal. If it were someone else, would they still be able to laugh in Galilea's situation? Xu Ya carried Galilea's bag and walked out of the lift. She saw Micah standing at her door, still looking inside.

She suddenly thought of something.

"Hello, Mr. Lorenzo. My name is Xu Ya."

"What's the matter?" Micah retracted his gaze and glanced at her. His tone was cold.

His words made Xu Ya tremble in her heart.

As early as when she was on the plane, she had felt that the relationship between Micah and Galilea was very subtle.

Xu Ya felt that Dayana was no match for Galilea, so it was better to let Galilea and Micah rekindle their old relationship so that she could have a chance to get close to Nore. Thinking of this, she revealed a friendly smile.

"This is Sister Galilea's bag. Can I trouble Mr. Lorenzo to help me hand it over?"

Chapter 68 Remember to Give Me an Invitation

Chapter 68 Remember to Give Me an Invitation

"I don't have time."

Micah left without even looking. Xu Ya pursed her lips and muttered in a low voice, "I thought you two had a good relationship. It turns out that it was just Galilea's wishful thinking."

"What did you say?"

Micah had always had good hearing. He narrowed his eyes and stared at the woman in front of him who was not afraid of death.

He had dealt with that old fellow Zhenhai Williams. He looked gentle and refined, but in fact, he was extremely shrewd and even more ruthless than Onyx.

How kind could the daughter of the Williams family be?

Xu Ya had deliberately said it for him to hear.

"Sister Galilea once told me that she regretted divorcing you. She also said that she hoped to find a chance to have a good chat with you."

"Otherwise, she wouldn't have agreed to live in the room next to yours." Xu Ya smiled.

"She can say that?" Micah sneered.

"Of course, tomorrow is Fashion Week. Why don't get all our colleagues away later? So you two can have a good chat!" Xu Ya nodded quickly.

As she spoke, she stuffed Galilea's bag into Micah's hands and then quickly walked into Galilea's room. It was unknown what she said, but soon, everyone left.

Micah saw Galilea holding a wine bottle in one hand and holding the door with the other. "Such delicious crab meat. Aren't you going to try it before leaving?"

The man frowned. The woman in front of him really had no upbringing at all.

If Onyx knew that his daughter, who he had painstakingly cultivated, had become like this, he would probably not be at peace in the netherworld,

He walked over, threw Galilea's bag to her, and then went straight into her room.

Galilea was stunned for two seconds. "You..."

"Tomorrow's matter is very important to the Lorenzo group. You'd better tell me in advance how you plan to let me see Mr. Opple." Micah had already found a quiet sofa and sat down with his legs folded. His eyes were sharp.

If Galilea dared to play with him, he would definitely make her have nightmares every day.

"What's the rush?" Galilea said to herself. She sat back in her seat and grabbed another crab to eat.

The space between Micah's eyebrows gradually turned cold.

There was a table of delicious food in front of him, and Galilea was eating so casually that it made him feel a little hungry.

For some reason, he reached out and opened a seemingly untouched food box.

The next second, he was stopped by Galilea.

"Eat this. That is mutton."

The man's fingertips paused and he retracted his hand.

She actually remembered that he did not eat mutton?

Chapter 68 Remember to Give Me an Invitation He looked at Galilea. She still had an indifferent look.

He vaguely remembered that more than a year ago, the two of them were like fire and water, and the moment they met, they wanted to tear each other apart.

Now... Galilea definitely hated him as before, but she was more mature and knew how to protect herself.

Micah leaned against the seat, and there was a feeling in his heart that he couldn't even explain himself.

After eating and drinking to his heart's content, Galilea burped without any hesitation.

"I once helped Mr. Opple's old lady. He promised me that he would agree to one of my conditions."

"Then you can ask him to accept working with the Lorenzo group directly." Micah went straight to the point.

“How can that be?” Galilea frowned. “That’s too outrageous. I have already divorced you and you have another new lover. If I raise this condition, people will definitely question whether there is a problem with the Lorenzo group. At that time, things will be even more difficult.”

Moreover, she didn’t want Micah to be too happy.

“Then what are your plans?” Micah asked. “I haven’t decided yet. Let’s take it one step at a time. As for Mr. Lorenzo, it’s time to prepare for the wedding with Dayana. Moreover, you must remember to send me an invitation.”

Galilea smiled.

Micah felt that smile was extremely dazzling.

He got up and walked out.

As soon as he closed the door, he saw Elisa leaving Dayana’s room.

Elisa looked at Micah and then looked at the room. She was so nervous that she couldn’t speak.

It was over. Micah seemed to have really rekindled her old love with Galilea!

Elisa didn’t dare to look Micah in the eyes. She quickly lowered his head and quickly entered the lift.

The first day of Fashion Week was the opening ceremony.

At five o’clock in the local time, most of the people present were film stars and fashion experts. The higher the rank, the later they made their appearance.

Dayana got up early in the morning to make a pose. She looked at the ugly face in the mirror and was full of anger.

“It’s all that bitch’s fault. I couldn’t sleep well for several days. My dark circles are heavy.”

She frowned and ordered the makeup artist, “Give me a thicker makeup. I want that kind of gorgeous makeup!”

She felt that it was the only way to cover the flaws on her face, but the makeup artist was a little hesitant. “Dayana, your outfit and jewelry have already been ordered today. It might be a little abrupt to change your makeup temporarily. How about I change your style at the end of the red carpet ceremony?” Chen Xiaorou held the toolbox beside her and listened quietly.

“No way! Do you know how important it is for me today? It’s just a change of makeup. Do I have high requirements? If you can’t do it, someone else can do it!” Dayana was furious.

The makeup artist had been in the industry for many years. Now that she was scolded by a lukewarm star like Dayana, she was very unhappy.

When Dayana heard this, she rushed in front of Galilea and said, "I see. She must be the one behind it." The thick makeup on her face at this time, coupled with a crafty and arrogant appearance, was really repulsive.

Since she was a female star and Micah's fiancée, Anna was very respectful and urged Galilea to apologize. "This is your work mistake, and you are responsible for it."

"However, I am not an aggressive person. If she kneels down and apologizes to me, I can forgive her." Dayana raised her chin and rubbed her beautiful nails.

Kneel?

Anna and the few assistants did not expect Dayana to say this.

Even Xiaorou cast a sympathetic look at Galilea. No matter how powerful she was, she had to bow down to Dayana.

After all, Micah was now on Dayana's side.

"I wont apologize. I did it on purpose." Galilea calmly met the pitiful gazes of the others.

“What did you say?” Dayana widened her beautiful eyes and raised her hand to hit Galilea,

This was her room!

Moreover, Galilea had made a mistake in front of her, so she would not let Galilea run away again.

She had to give her two slaps to vent her anger.

She raised her hand, and Galilea caught a glimpse of the figure walking in from the door.

Originally, she could have dodged, but she only leaned slightly to the side and let Dayana’s finger slide down her cheek. It seemed that Dayana had hit her.

In fact, Galilea was not in pain. The force that fell on her face was almost negligible.

Dayana sensed that something was wrong. She raised her other hand and was about to hit again.

“Stop.”

Micah shouted coldly. The aura he emitted was extremely oppressive.

“Micah?” Dayana immediately stopped and ran over to complain, “Galilea caused me to have no jewelry to wear! She is deliberately targeting me. I am only teaching her a lesson.”

This time, she had seized Galilea’s shortcoming.

Dayana said while looking at Galilea provocatively

She wanted to see Galilea in a panic, but unexpectedly, Galilea smiled deeply.

That smile seemed to be mocking Dayana. Before she could react, Micah’s voice sounded in her ear, “Your makeup is like this, and you still need to wear jewelry?”

One of the important reasons why he had asked Dayana to quit the entertainment industry after marriage was that he was very disgusted with her, who had a good appearance but could not make people feel beautiful.

Galilea, who had been married to Micah for two years, was very clear about this.

But Dayana still did not understand.

Galilea looked at the two of them indifferently. Although it was somewhat different from her plan, it

Chapter 69 The Show Was About to Start was fun.

“I want it to match my clothes. Tonight, we will show up together. I have to match your...” The words that Dayana wanted to say were forcibly swallowed back by her.

Because at this time, Micah was wearing a very stylish gray suit with a striped shirt, which made his usual cold aura a lot softer.

Dayana’s complicated evening dress did not match Micah at all.

“There is still time. Change it.” Micah’s attention was not on her, and he did not want to get involved. He turned and left.

“Micah...”

Dayana retracted her gaze, her tears rolling in her eyes.

It turned out that what Galilea had done seemed unimportant.

Because no matter how she dressed up, Micah would not spare her another glance.

“All of you, get out of here! I want to change my clothes and redo my makeup!” Dayana bit the corner of her lips tightly Galilea and Anna walked out together.

As soon as she closed the door, Anna warned her, “I don’t care what kind of grudge you have with Dayana, nor do I care who is backing you up. But you are now an intern of MON and one of my subordinates. Be good and persevere until you return to Cloud Town. Don’t cause me any more trouble.”

“I will try my best.”

“Anyway, if anything happens to me, you and the company will not protect me,” Galilea said with a faint smile.

She knew this better than anyone else.

The first thing she had learned since the accident of the Frankie family was to never place her hopes on anyone else. “You are not afraid of anything, anyway. Take care of yourself.” Anna rushed to the main hall. There were still many things waiting for her to deal with there.

Galilea looked at the time and went back to her room. Liu Yuanyuan had already prepared the dress for her.

The moment she saw the one-shoulder evening dress, Galilea was stunned. It was a long dress of traditional Chinese style. All the highlights were at the waist, which could be very good to outline the figure, making it look tall and sexy.

Moreover, the main color of this evening dress was beige, which suited the skin color very well.

“Not bad, where did you get it?” Galilea stood in front of the dressing mirror and was very satisfied.

Sometimes, if you wanted to make an eye-catching effect, you didn’t have to have a gorgeous color. Like Dayana, pursuing a dress with heavy makeup will instead highlight all her shortcomings.

Liu Yuanyuan muttered in a low voice, “It seems that someone has given it to you. When I came, the box was at the door. The one I prepared was not comparable to this one at all.”

“Is that so? Then tonight, it will be even more interesting.” Galilea chuckled.

Liu Yuanyuan did not hear what she said. She took a set of pearl jewelry and watched Galilea put it on. She also put on a very high-level light makeup.

“You are so good-looking.”

As a girl, Liu Yuanyuan was stunned. “That Micah has a serious aesthetic problem...”

Chapter 70 Different Galilea

He was dressed in a traditional black suit. His dark blue pupils looked elegant and deep. He had already informed the organizers that he would attend tonight's opening ceremony.

The organizers also promised to arrange a female companion for him. But he did not expect to see Dayana when he got off the car.

Their last meeting was not pleasant. Mr. Opple looked at Dayana and did not move for a long time.

Dayana also frowned and did not understand what was going on.

At this time, there were already reporters who noticed the situation here. They picked up their cameras and took pictures of Mr. Opple.

In their eyes, the value of Mr. Opple's news was far more than that of Dayana, a female star who was not famous.

There was a flash of light that kept flashing.

"Hurry up and walk the red carpet!" Elisa kept winking at Dayana.

This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Even if Micah came, she would not be as eye-catching as Mr. Opple. Dayana pursed her lips. She wanted to walk the red carpet with Micah, but for the sake of fame and exposure, she still had to hold Mr. Opple's arm.

Mr. Opple frowned and shook his head, reluctantly walking in.

The two cars drove away, and the one behind was Micah's car.

Keith had already seen Dayana and Mr. Opple walk the red carpet together, and reported to his president truthfully, "Are you still going to get off?"

Micah's eyes were cold, and he was about to say no. Someone knocked on his door, and a beautiful figure stood outside. Just by looking at her waist, one could tell that she was a beauty that could topple sentient beings. Micah did not hesitate. He needed a chance to meet Mr. Opple

He waved his hand and pushed open the car door. Then, his eyes met the person in front of him. There was a touch of undisguised surprise in his eyes. "It's you?"

"It's you?" Galilea smiled. "I will naturally do what I promised, Mr. Lorenzo."

The reporters looked at the two of them and couldn't help but take a few pictures of them.

Although they were neither celebrities nor local business tycoons, their looks alone were enough to crush everyone.

"Is that a newcomer? From which company? She's so beautiful!"

"She doesn't look like a celebrity. She looks more like a socialite from a big family. The person beside her seems to be the president of the Lorenzo group in Cloud Town. Strange, isn't Micah Dayana's fiancé?"

For a moment, everyone became suspicious.

Galilea gently held Micah's arm and clearly felt the man's arm stiffen.

"Just put on a show," she whispered.

Micah shifted his gaze to her wrist and did not make a sound.

This should be the first time the two of them had attended such an official occasion so intimately since Chapter 70 Different Galilea their wedding and divorce.

Galilea felt that it was a little ridiculous, even sad.

She had a smile on her face, but her heart was as calm as water, From a distance, she looked at Dayana standing opposite her, whose face was about to explode with anger.

She deliberately slowed down her pace. After Micah noticed it, he also slowed down to accommodate her.

"Mr. Oppe is right in front. I will find an opportunity to talk to him later. When the time comes, you will wait for an opportunity to act." Galilea leaned close to his ear and whispered, "If you fail, it is because you are not capable enough. Don't blame me."

She glanced at Dayana and revealed a victorious smile.

Then, she released her hand and turned to leave at the end of the red carpet.

Micah felt a burst of warmth behind his ear as if something was tugging at his heartstrings. The man's Adam's apple rolled, and in the next second, what left him was Galilea's figure that did not have any reluctance to part with him.

"Micah, why were you walking the red carpet together? Do you know that Cloud Town's reporter will laugh at us like this? You are my fiancé." Dayana was already mad with anger by Galilea. She dragged Micah and complained.

The man withdrew his gaze from Galilea and his cold gaze fell on her.

"You asked me about this?"

Dayana froze. "...". She was the first to walk the red carpet with Mr. Oppe, giving Micah an opportunity.

"I didn't do it on purpose, Micah. I did it all for you! Isn't he your partner?" Dayana forced out a reason.

However, Micah only gave her a meaningful look. This time, Dayana also learned to be obedient. She endured the displeasure in her heart and tactfully let go of her hand, no longer nagging.

But she kept looking at Galilea, in case Galilea found an opportunity to get close to Micah again.

It was quiet around him. Micah's face finally became better. He stepped forward and wanted to take a glass of champagne. But just as his hand was about to touch the glass wall, he suddenly saw Galilea standing opposite him.

In a few seconds, a man in a suit appeared beside her.

They seemed to be chatting happily?

Micah slowly furrowed his brows and gulped down the champagne in his glass. However, for some reason, he seemed to have taken the wrong glass of wine, and his throat felt hot.

Galilea was still chatting with the other party when she suddenly saw Mr. Oppe coming down from the second floor. She smiled and apologized, heading straight for Mr. Oppe.

It was one thing for her to take revenge on Micah, but she had to do what she had promised. This was what her father had taught her since she was young.

"Mr. Oppe, I'm sorry. Can I disturb you for a few minutes?" Galilea asked politely.

Looking at her dress, Mr. Oppe could not help but praise, "Miss Frankie, you are really dazzling tonight." "Thank you." Galilea smiled and invited Mr. Oppe to walk to the quiet balcony.

Seeing this, Micah stepped forward.

"Micah, where are you going?" Dayana's heart skipped a beat. Could it be that he was going to see Chapter 70 Different Galilea Galilea?

After he saw Galilea's outfit tonight, he was tempted!

"I'm going to talk about something. You can walk around by yourself." As Micah spoke, he quickened his pace.

He didn't have much time and opportunity.

Dayana saw him walk towards Galilea with her own eyes. She bit the corner of her lips. Why?

Galilea apologized to Mr. Oppe and briefly told him about what happened at Intercontinental Hotel that day. "I'm really sorry for causing inconvenience to you." Galilea sincerely bowed to Mr. Oppe. "No, no, no, you didn't do anything wrong." Mr. Oppe helped Galilea up like a gentleman. He smiled and said, "I put off my cooperation with the Lorenzo group, not purely because of what happened that day." Micah was about to go over, but when he heard Mr. Oppe's words, he immediately stopped and hid behind the curtain.

Without full confidence, he could not rashly appear.

Galilea blinked. "Let me boldly guess. Are you worried that the power inside the Lorenzo group is uneven and might affect the progress of the project and the final results?" Mr. Oppe smiled and nodded. "That's right, the Lorenzo group's proposal is very outstanding, especially..." Mr. Oppe admired young people with foresight and had no interest in this kind of activity, so he chatted with Galilea for a long time.

Galilea echoed one by one and brought up her own opinion from time to time. In prison, she had been studying the Lorenzo group and studying the direction of his company. When she talked to Mr. Oppe, she did not lose out at all. Instead, she was generous and appropriate. Every point she said was accurate.

Behind the curtain, Micah raised his eyebrows.

He had never seen such a dazzling and eye-catching Galilea.
