

Introduction

Raja Mann sikh Rathod is king of simhalghar Which is very vast and beautiful area near Rajasthan and Gujarat boarder. Nature gave them a vast forest good water source best fertile lands and of course beautiful landscapes. It's borders are very secured and safe. One side is mountain, other side a large water source of sea next is thar desert and one is been constructed with huge walls of their boundaries.

No rival king's can eye on their kingdom, Mann sikh is known for his smart brain and kutneethi means getting fruits from disasters. He can mould things into his favours. He smart handsome and very attractive in physic same way kind hearted. People worship him as god in his kingdom.

He has three wives, eight daughters and only son. He is very fond of kids he plays with them daily, he is very close to them being a king most of time he may busy but he try to take time for kids. Now he already made all daughters get married and even le to their respective kingdoms, even son Manik sikh Rathod is also married four times. All four are for political reasons he even got some girls from his wars a er conquering he never accepted them but they are also married him. All together he had twelve wives.

Manik is very discipline very sensitive and calm person but when it comes to war or any enemy he becomes evil. Till now in his 20years he never failed in any war always conquered he is even called unbeatable Yuvaraj. His anger is very dangerous but he never display in public nor infront of any elders. He never ever disobey any elders. Even his other mothers are also treated equal to his own mother by him. Public praises him as lord Shri Ram, in character only near ones his wives knows how much anger he carry in something's which are against his rules to be performed.

Mann sikh is now worried about the heir of the crown a er Manik. As Manik till now had four daughters, pandits said that his any of the wife can't give him a boy, he is tensed when he heard this. Manik too worried. As he too want a prince. He never blamed his wives for this same way he is not so fond of any of his wives.

His first wife Hema, is cunning smart and manipulative, he hates her character so spends less time with her, only when as his first wife needed for rituals he goes with her and to her, they had two daughters both are now around 8and 6 Manik is even planning his elder daughter marriage.

Second wife Sudha is beauty conscious, she is but still wants to be called beautiful women in kingdom, she cares nothing other than herself they had one daughter she 7years

Third wife Latha is stupid brainless and useless, always goes with some or the others words no self esteem nor self thinking she had a daughter she is also 7years old, Manik want to make all three daughters marriage in serial he is searching a best kingdom for them

Fourth wife Padmini recently got married I mean two years back Manik really not interested in her too as she is most cunning she and Hema always go on fighting which makes Manik get irritated. He hates those cat fights

Basically he is unhappy with all his marriages and even wives. His daughter always spends time with Raja ji so basically Manik always make himself busy in politics wars and exploring his area so that he can see people and learn more things from them even manage their problems. He is very close to common people

Now having no son is making tough for Manik as all kings wanted a girl from the family where females produce boys as heir from last two decades female production is going on now pandit declared that his wives cannot give him any boy so he is worried about his daughters marriage and even his heir.

Mann sikh elder wife is wise person she suggested a best way to him for legal heir for crown. Mann felt as it is best one he called Manik and his wives into his room as he want that to be a big secret.

"The one which I am saying now should be between us if it goes out of room I will kill them no matter who it is even it is Manik too" Raja ji threatens

All of sudden temperatures of room raised

He continues "You all know what pandit said, how many time Manik may get married he cannot get his crown heir from his wives, so I decided to heir a dasi for that work who can give birth to only male child and that child will be given to royals then she will leave the palace. Who where when how all will be taken care by rani ji no one I repeat no one will see her know about her nor try to enquire about her. It will be top secret only Manik will go to her for two months when she gets pregnant he will take care of her when she delivers she will handover son to Manik and leaves raniji will send her to some unknown place we will later declare as your son, mother will be decided by Manik to whom he gives his son, so you all will co operate and maintain this secret" he completed

Manik clutched his fist his knuckles went white he already started feeling disgusting

Guys it's my new story please give me your valuable comments weather to continue or not

Continue reading next part □