

Kiss Me 191

Chapter 191: In Danger, Who Will Protect Her In Secret?

Looking at the two strangers in front of her, a wave of fear and unease spread through her chest.

“What are you... Mmph!”

She tried to shout but the two men covered her mouth. Then, they dragged her to a deserted area.

Zuo Weiyi’s eyes widened, her body was stricken with horror.

They were planning to... Violate her?!

“Mmph...” She attempted to open her mouth again, but no voice came out. She felt helpless when she was slowly dragged to her doom.

As she was paralyzed by fear, she caught sight of a few silhouettes that appeared behind the strangers. With a blink of an eye, the two of them instantly fell onto the floor, whining in pain.

Zuo Weiyi crawled on the ground anxiously and stood up. When she did, the silhouettes had disappeared into the dark, only two crying men were left on the scene.

She threw a few glances at them before running away in dread. She did not even care for her umbrella when she dashed toward the main street.

After running for a while, a taxi finally appeared.

“Taxi!”

She stopped the vehicle and quickly entered it.

Her heart was able to calm down only after leaving that place.

A question then appeared in her mind, who were the silhouettes just now?

There was no doubt that they saved her, but who were they?

Did Gu Yansheng assign a few men to protect her after he had left?

But if it was him, then there was no need for his men to act secretly, was there?

Zuo Weiyi had no answers to her questions. The two incidents in the cemetery made her scratch her head.

Was the umbrella given by the men in black too?

Who was it that was protecting her in secret?

After Zuo Weiyi left, the silhouettes returned to the two men.

In the next second, screams cut through the silent rainy sky.

The taxi drove into the luxurious residential area and stopped in front of Gu Residence.

When Zuo Weiyi's figure disappeared into the gate, the taxi left.

"Safely arrived."

The driver activated the walkie talkie and turned to talk into it.

Dizun Corporation, the office on the top floor.

Xiang Yi received the report and raised his gaze toward Shi Yuting, who was standing by the window.

"Miss Zuo has arrived safely in Gu Residence."

Hearing that, Shi Yuting only replied with a mere 'mhmm' without turning around and added, "You can go out now."

Xiang Yi nodded and exited the office.

As soon as she returned to Gu Residence, Zuo Weiyi walked to the bathroom and dried herself with a towel.

Her phone rang after a few moments.

She picked up her phone and realized it was a call from Gu Yansheng.

She tapped to answer and heard his charming voice coming from the other end.

"Have you eaten?"

Zuo Weiyi raised her head and looked outside the window, the sky had completely darkened.

"Not yet. Have you arrived in Country C?"

"Yes, I just get off the plane."

"Oh," was the only thing she answered, but she still wanted to ask him something.

So, she opened her mouth. "Yansheng."

"Yes?"

"You... Did you assign some people to follow me around?"

Gu Yansheng blinked a few times when he heard this, for a second, he did not know how to react to her question.

A moment passed and he answered with a frown, "No, why?"

Zuo Weiyi was stunned. "It's nothing, I'm just curious."

Chapter 192: The Old Man On The Bus (1)

Even if he thought the question was weird, Gu Yansheng did not ask her about it.

The call ended within minutes as they only exchanged a short conversation.

After dinner and a bath, Zuo Weiyi lay down on the bed.

As she was listening to the rain pitter-pattering, her mind wandered to the incident during the day.

A sudden umbrella and the men in black that came to save her. What on Earth was up with all of these?

Questions after questions floated in her mind but Zuo Weiyi sunk into sleep when the night stretched on.

The next day.

Because Gu Yansheng had gone to Country C, Zuo Weiyi could only take the bus to Zuoyue Corporation.

Looking at the crowds on the street from the bus, Zuo Weiyi realized that this common bus suited her best.

Every time she sat in luxurious cars, she always felt out of place.

A robotic voice in the bus sweetly reported each and every destination to come.

Due to the morning rush hour, the bus was especially crowded.

Fortunately, she boarded the bus at the second station, which granted her a seat and prevented her from being packed like sardines with the others.

The bus stopped again and an old man entered.

Zuo Weiyi was sitting directly in front of the entrance. When she saw the old man, she was hesitating to give up her seat for him.

Even though he looked old with his white hair, but his complexion was still as vibrant as a teen's, spirited even!

But then again, he was holding a staff, which perplexed her.

She looked around but no one was willing to stand up.

She decided to stay quiet and sat down silently until her destination.

However, the old man chose to stand beside her, making her uneasy.

Respecting the elderly, this was the most common etiquette, even a child knew about it. So, should she give up her seat?

After thinking for a long while, Zuo Weiyi finally stood up and looked at the old man with a gentle smile.

"Mister, please sit."

The elderly raised her gaze, he was visibly surprised at Zuo Weiyi's kindness.

So, taking the bus did have its fun after all.

He grinned. "Thank you, miss."

After he said his thanks, he sat down on the seat. As for Zuo Weiyi, she slightly backed away to a space behind him and held the handle, patiently waiting for the bus to arrive at Zuoyue Corporation.

There were only three stations left anyway.

Yet, when the bus arrived at the second last station, the old man stood up.

“Miss, thank you for your seat. I will alight here.”

He expressed his gratitude and turned around to leave.

As he stood up, Zuo Weiyi saw something fell from his clothes.

She glanced and saw that it was a wallet.

She was about to alert the old man about his wallet.

However, before she could do so, another man sat on the place and picked up the wallet, quietly tucking it away.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned by his action, but she quickly felt angry about it.

When she saw the old man was alighting the bus, she spoke up.

“Mister, please wait!”

The elderly stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at her in confusion.

Zuo Weiyi dropped her gaze onto the young man’s face.

She stretched out her hand. “Take it out!”

That man looked at her hand and feigned innocence. “What?”

Chapter 193: The Old Man On The Bus (2)

“The mister’s wallet!”

She despised these greedy pickpockets the most!

“What wallet? Stop speaking nonsense!”

That young man was annoyed at her accusation and glared at her, hoping to scare her away as a warning to not butt into people’s business.

Unfortunately for him, Zuo Weiyi always liked to butt into people’s business!

He had arms and legs yet he still wanted to take an old man’s wallet, how shameless!

What a failure in society, the nation’s disgrace!

“Stop pretending, I saw you took it and put in your pocket.”

As she said that, she bent her body and reached for his pocket for the evidence.

Yet, before she was able to touch his pocket, the young man stood up and wanted to get off the bus to escape.

However, Zuo Weiyi acted faster than him. She stretched her hand and yanked the back of his shirt's collar. Because he was caught off guard, plus the bus had started moving again, the young man violently fell to the ground.

Zuo Weiyi then took this chance and stepped on his chest. Without a moment of hesitation, she took out the wallet he had put in the left pocket of his shirt.

"Do you dare to claim that this is yours?"

The wallet seemed out of place when compared to how he dressed.

This commotion quickly attracted the attention of the other passengers. When all of them realized that there was a pickpocket, they stood up as well, pointing at him and calling him names.

There was even someone who was calling 110.

Seeing how the situation had turned against him, the young man immediately crawled up and ran with his tail between his legs

After he escaped, Zuo Weiyi handed the wallet back to the old man. "Your wallet, mister."

He glanced at his wallet and raised his gaze to study Zuo Weiyi.

He took his wallet and looked at her again. "What is your name?"

Zuo Weiyi blinked and smiled. "I'm only helping, I don't think you need to know that."

"Just tell me. Who knows, maybe we'll meet again?"

Zuo Weiyi was stunned by his words.

Meet again? That would be impossible.

Country Z was huge, plus she would only be using this bus for a few days. When Gu Yansheng returned, she would not have the chance to use it again.

Even so, Zuo Weiyi still told him her name.

"Zuo Weiyi."

"Weiyi? What a name." The old man smiled, his face was full of kindness.

Zuo Weiyi only grinned in return and returned to her seat after nodding at him.

The old man glanced at her one last time and exited the bus.

Looking at the bus that was driving away, he lowered his head with a smile.

Riding public transport was indeed interesting, it was only his first day yet he had met such a cute and polite lady, and a funny situation too.

The bus stopped, Zuo Weiyi took the lift and arrived at the Planning Department.

The workload on Wednesdays was not heavy.

Zuo Weiyi sat at her office desk, the weird scenarios flashed in her mind once again.

As she was zoning out, the manager of the department walked toward her.

“Zuo Weiyi, make two copies of this document and send it to my office.”

When she heard the order, she snapped out from her thoughts and took the document to the photocopy room.

When she stepped foot into the room, she instantly realized that there was a pool of water beside the photocopy machines.

With a frown, she looked upward. It seemed like the ceiling was leaking.

Chapter 194: News About The Engagement

After photocopying the documents, Zuo Weiyi sent them to the manager’s office. When doing so, she opened her mouth.

“Manager, the pipe upstairs probably has some problems. The water keeps leaking, the machines are almost soaked through.”

The manager lifted his head from his work and glanced at Zuo Weiyi before frowning slightly. “Is that so? I’ll call the handyman later to fix it.”

“Sure.”

After working for the whole day, Zuo Weiyi had almost missed the fact to get off work without Gu Yansheng’s reminder.

5:05 PM, she who was bored took out her phone and scrolled through Weibo.

As soon as she opened the application, her attention was caught by a headline.

“Country Z’s tycoon, the CEO of Dizun and the rich bachelor who is loved by all the single ladies, Shi Yuting, was rumored to have had his engagement party in Country Z!”

When she saw the eye-catching title, Zuo Weiyi was stunned. She felt that her heart was hollowed out.

Shi Yuting, engaged?

With Tangteng Xi?

She clicked into the link and unsurprisingly, saw a photo of Shi Yuting and Tangteng Xi. There was not a single thing that was out of place when the two of them were standing together, a perfect couple.

“Weiyi! We’re off work!”

5:31 PM, almost everyone had left the building.

The last office worker saw that Zuo Weiyi did not move and reminded her when they passed by her desk.

Yet, Zuo Weiyi's attention was all on the news about the engagement, her colleague's reminder was overheard by her.

All of a sudden, she was the only one in the whole department.

6:00 PM, the sky had darkened.

It was half an hour after her off-work time. The security guard came to patrol the building, locking the door after checking for unlocked doors and windows.

Of course, there were still some workers who were still working overtime.

When the security guard saw that the lights in the Planning Department were still on, they did not think much, only turning around and waited for her to leave so they could come back and lock the doors.

After closing Weibo, Zuo Weiyi raised her gaze and realized everyone had left.

Stars had appeared in the sky as well.

She turned her head and shut down her computer, packing up her stuff.

As she was about to leave the office, a bizarre noise echoed from a quiet place.

Zuo Weiyi stopped in her tracks and frowned.

Listening to the sound intently, she realized it was coming from the photocopy room.

She walked toward the room and saw the soaked machine and plugs, which were buzzing.

Zuo Weiyi entered the room and saw that the circuits were drowning in water. To make things worse, there were sparks flying.

Her eyes widened, the first thought that came to her mind was, 'Well, this isn't good.'

Looking at the circuits and machines that were spewing out deadly sparkles, Zuo Weiyi grew anxious. She quickly turned around, wanting to switch off the electricity.

Yet as she turned around, the well-lit office room became pitch black with a "pop!".

Zuo Weiyi's heart dropped as she stood in the dark.

Buzz—

Another buzzing sound. Zuo Weiyi turned her head and saw a sparkle spread over the circuits, forming a pattern that was similar to a bolt of lightning. The noise did not make the situation less frightening.

Zuo Weiyi's heart squeezed tightly, a wave of terror attacking her whole body.

Without a moment of hesitation, Zuo Weiyi ran toward the exit!

Chapter 195: The Explosion Incident

No matter how fast she was, it was too late. Before she reached the exit, a deafening explosion erupted behind her.

Because of the impact of the explosion, Zuo Weiyi flung onto the floor.

When the noises died down, Zuo Weiyi lifted up her head in dread. However, she felt a high heat approaching her.

She turned her head and saw the pitch-black office was illuminated by a blazing fire, smoke instantly filled the room.

Looking at the fire in front of her, Zuo Weiyi's eyes widened as she picked herself up from the ground.

She was planning to run toward the exit. Yet, when she got up, a part of the ceiling fell down and blocked her path.

The smoke grew thicker. She covered her nose and mouth with her sleeves while finding an exit.

In the meantime, the fire spread further, engulfing the whole floor.

Boom!

Another explosion occurred. Zuo Weiyi fell into dismay and immediately used both of her hands to cover her ears and ducked.

After a few seconds, she lifted her head up. With the scorching heat and the thick smoke, Zuo Weiyi felt as if the oxygens in her lung were being robbed away and she was suffocating.

Fear, helplessness, horror, and unease filled her mind in an instant. Looking at the fire that was all around her, she almost broke down.

When one was faced with death, their desire to survive would grow stronger.

She had nothing to live for anymore, yet when she thought about dying in an ocean of fire, a face flashed across her mind. It was none other than Shi Yuting's face.

The exit was engulfed by fire. As the deadly inferno spread, the amount of smoke produced increased. After ten minutes of inhaling those hazardous air, Zuo Weiyi felt her consciousness fading away.

Seeing that the fire was spreading to her feet, Zuo Weiyi lifted her head up. In desperation, she saw that the tearoom was still safe from flames.

With her mouth and nose covered, she dashed to the tearoom.

On the other hand, at Dizun Corporation.

When Shi Yuting walked out of the lift, he immediately received a call from Xiang Yi.

"What's up?"

His voice was as deep and irresistible as usual.

“Mr. Shi, an explosion suddenly happened in Zuoyue Corporation. According to the men we have assigned to follow Miss Zuo, she hasn’t left the place.”

After hearing his report, Shi Yuting immediately stopped in his tracks. The hand that was holding to his phone tightened.

“Are you sure?” He asked. His tone was visibly in disarray.

Xiang Yi fell silent for about two seconds.

Then, he slowly opened his mouth. “I’m afraid so. Our men are stationed at Zuoyue the entire time, Miss Zuo has not come out.”

As he listened to Xiang Yi’s words, Shi Yuting’s heart squeezed painfully. The grasp on his phone tightened again as if he wanted to crush it.

There was it again. The unease and anxiety he had never experienced before, except when it came to her.

He lifted his head and took off to the parking lot.

Sitting in his black Maybach, he drove it as quick as the wind toward Zuoyue Corporation.

In the tearoom, Zuo Weiyi found a towel. She quickly covered her nose and mouth after soaking it wet, not caring if the towel was dirty.

After doing so, it was easier to breathe.

But, she was aware that this method could only help her for a while.

Fortunately, her bag was with her all this time.

She took out her phone and was prepared to call 119.

However, she did not know that as soon as the explosion occurred, the security guard had already called them. The firefighters were on their way to Zuoyue Corporation.

Chapter 196: An Eager Roar, Where Are You?!

She took out her mobile phone and was just unlocking the screen when the phone suddenly vibrated.

She froze for a few seconds when she saw her name displayed on the screen. She thought her eyes were playing tricks on her.

To make sure that she was not dreaming, she pressed to answer the call and bring the phone to her ear.

She then heard the long-lost, familiar, and extremely attractive voice from the phone before she could even speak.

“Where are you?”

Shi Yuting’s voice was low on the phone. However, he could not hide his anxiety.

Zuo Weiyi was in disbelief listening to the familiar voice. "Shi Yuting..."

"Tell me. Where are you?!"

Shi Yuting's eager roar exploded from the phone!

He seemed to be overwhelmed by his eagerness!

Zuo Weiyi still thought that she was dreaming when she heard his eager roar.

Did he not forget about her? Why would he call her again at this time?

"I... I'm..." She looked up at the pantry that was almost set ablaze by the fire spreading. Would she be burnt to death by this fire?

"I am at the 28th-floor pantry in the Excellence Group..."

Shi Yuting felt bad listening to her helpless and fearful voice.

The 28th floor was indeed where the explosion had occurred.

"Stay there. I'll be there soon!"

Shi Yuting stepped on the accelerator and sped all the way after hanging up the phone!

Zuo Weiyi was still a little stunned looking at the cell phone.

Did he say that he would arrive soon?

"Ahem..."

Her breathing became more rapid. There was no clean air in the whole office. It was already filled up with fire and smoke.

Zuo Weiyi felt it difficult to breathe.

She looked up at the pantry's door. A large ceiling burnt through and fell off, blocking the exit of the pantry again!

Zuo Weiyi tried to move her body backward, looking at the suddenly collapsed ceiling.

But, there was no way out since the pantry was so small.

She sat down weakly against the wall that she was leaning in the corner.

She began drifting out of consciousness after inhaling too much smoke.

Shi Yuting's anxious voice kept echoing in her ear. "Stay right there, I will arrive immediately."

Would he really come here?

At the door of Excellence Group.

Firefighters, police, and ambulances had arrived at the door of the company. A loud explosion sounded throughout City Z. Many people had gathered on the street outside the company.

The fire truck could not be used due to the height of the floor. Hence, the firefighters planned to climb up the stairs to get to the 28th floor. They immediately acted without any delay!

On the 27th floor, the stairs leading to the 28th floor were cracked due to the impact of the explosion. The firefighters did not know how to enter, so they stopped there.

At this moment, the fire was getting bigger and bigger. It was impossible to stop the fire!

The firefighters wanted to climb up to the 28th floor using a rope judging by the raging fire in front of them. However, the fire was too big. There was no chance of going up!

Shi Yuting drove to the door of the Excellence Group. He wanted to rush through the cordon when he arrived at the scene.

“Sir, you can’t go in!”

“Get off me!”

Shi Yuting turned and shouted at the firefighter and policeman who stopped him. He then pushed the firefighter away and quickly rushed into the office building!

He rushed to the 27th floor without stopping for a moment. He was very worried and anxious when he thought of the woman who was still in the flames.

Chapter 197: A Crazy Shi Yuting

Shi Yuting stopped when he saw dozens of firefighters all stuck on the 27th-floor stairwell. However, his handsome face could not hide his anxiety.

He squeezed through the firefighters and found out that the staircase was already damaged due to the impact of the explosion. At this time, the fire had spread to the stairwell.

He frowned and became more anxious!

He glanced at the rope in the firefighter’s hand. He immediately grabbed it without thinking. Then, he threw it upward and tried to make the rope hang onto the handrail at the top of the stairs.

“Sir, what are you doing?!”

The leader of the firefighters was shocked seeing him move up the 28th floor along the ropes.

Where did this man come from? Did he want to die?

However, Shi Yuting ignored him and tried pulling the rope to test its strength. Then, he quickly grabbed the rope and swung himself upward. He did not care about the blazing fire!

The firefighters stuck in the stairwell were shocked and their eyes widened while looking at this thrilling scene!

They did not understand why an ordinary person like him would rush into this fire.

Was there something important to him among the fire?

The firefighters could not see Shi Yuting's face clearly due to the thick smoke. They were just worried about him.

One could die anytime in a fire like this!

On the 28th floor, the entire floor was burned beyond recognition due to the spread of the fire.

Shi Yuting who came here for the first time did not know where the pantry was. Moreover, he could not see anything clearly in the raging fire and the thick smoke.

Shi Yuting was very anxious looking at the mess in front of him. He shouted like an awakened beast.

"Zuo Weiyi!!!"

He could not see anything in the thick smoke. Thus, he could only shout to try to find Zuo Weiyi in the fire.

Zuo Weiyi was sitting against the wall feeling exhausted in the pantry at this moment.

She seemed to hear a familiar voice in the distance. She tried to lift her slightly heavy eyelids.

However, she only saw the raging fire, which had already spread to the door of the pantry.

Was she going to die here?

"Zuo Weiyi!"

He did not hear any response no matter how he shouted into the fire. He became even more anxious like a lunatic!

He clenched his fists tightly and felt like there was a large hole in his chest. That feeling of being hollowed out of him made him stifling.

"Zuo Weiyi! Answer me!"

'Answer me! Quickly answer me!'

He shouted in his heart. He kept looking around searching for Zuo Weiyi's figure in the fire.

Zuo Weiyi initially thought she was just hallucinating. Zuo Weiyi only opened her eyes when she heard the familiar voice shouting her name several times.

She then saw a familiar figure in the thick smoke not far away. She had been yearning for that figure all day and night!

"Shi Yuting!"

Zuo Weiyi was excited when she saw the tall figure in the fire. She tried to get up, but her body was so weak that she found it difficult to make a sound.

"Shi Yuting... I'm here"

However, Shi Yuting could not hear her weak voice at all.

Zuo Weiyi started to feel anxious when she saw that figure walking in the other direction. Although she tried her best, she still could not raise her voice.

If this continued, Shi Yuting would never find her.

She turned her head and glanced at the space next to her. She only saw a few cups on the coffee table.

Zuo Weiyi then picked up the cup and threw it at the door of the pantry!

Chapter 198: I Think I've Fallen in Love with You

'Smash'. Shi Yuting who was very anxious could not help but turn his head after hearing the sound. He tried to look for the source of the sound.

'Smash!'

Zuo Weiyi threw another cup at the door again.

This time, Shi Yuting seemed to know where the sound was coming from. He then moved slowly in that direction.

He immediately saw a person leaning against the corner of the wall when he walked to the door of the pantry. Shi Yuting's heart ached when he witnessed that scene.

He frowned and quickly rushed to her.

"Wei Yi..."

"Shi Yuting..."

Zuo Weiyi somehow thought it was a dream when she saw the man suddenly appearing in front of her. She was about to cry.

She really thought she would die here.

"It's alright now. I'm here."

He hugged her tightly in his arms. The feeling of getting her back turned his insides.

Zuo Weiyi raised her hand and clutched tightly onto his white shirt. She was trembling.

Shi Yuting could feel that she was shaking. He then hugged her tighter.

Nonetheless, he was aware that the fire was too big to put out. If they stayed there, they would both die!

He got up and carried her in his arms. He wanted to rush back toward where he came from.

Just when he got up, a burnt shelf suddenly fell in front of them, completely blocking the road where he had come from!

He could only move backward and stay there. He looked around. There seemed to be no other way out.

He kept on looking around with his sharp eyes. The only place on the entire floor that had not been reached by the fire was this pantry. But, there was only a window here.

He put down the person in his arms and let her lean on his chest. He then took out his mobile phone and dialed Xiangyi's number.

After hanging up the phone, he hugged Zuo Weiyi in his arms while brushing through her soft hair with his hand.

"Shi Yuting, will we die here?"

Zuo Weiyi spoke softly while leaning on his chest.

There seemed to be no way out looking at the fire in front of them.

"No."

This was not to comfort her, instead, it was an affirmative sentence.

He—Shi Yuting would never die easily in such a place!

Zuo Weiyi did know much about his power.

She raised her eyes and looked at the man's delicate chin. She wanted to express her feelings to him since they were so close to facing death now.

"Shi Yuting..."

"Yes?"

He answered, but he was staring straight out of the window as if he was waiting for something.

"I think... I've fallen in love with you..."

"Mr. Shi!"

The words 'love with you' was engulfed by a sudden and strange sound. Zuo Weiyi turned her head and saw a helicopter outside the 28th floor.

She then heard Xiangyi shouting!

Xiangyi threw the safety rope near the window.

Shi Yuting took the rope in and then buckled the seat belt on Zuo Weiyi and his waist.

After making sure that everything was ready, he raised his hand and made an OK gesture to Xiangyi who was on the helicopter. Then, the safety rope began to rise.

The pantry on the 28th floor immediately exploded after the two was being pulled into the cabin!

Xiangyi broke out into a cold sweat looking at the pantry below.

If he was just a second later, Mr. Shi and Miss Zuo would have...

He was afraid to think about what would have happened.

If Mr. Shi died, Country C would be in a mess!

Chapter 199: If the Speaker Knows

Shi Yuting was standing in the hatch of the cabin and looking at the fire and smoke below. Shi Yuting then turned and looked at Zuo Weiyi who was on the seat.

Perhaps she had inhaled too much smoke. Zuo Weiyi had lost her consciousness at this moment. She had already collapsed in the seat after leaving his arms.

Shi Yuting's heart tightened while looking at her lightly closed eyes.

He hugged her in his arms. "Go to the hospital."

Xiangyi glanced at Zuo Weiyi who was unconscious. He then turned to look at Shi Yuting's pale face.

"Mr. Shi, if the Speaker knows..."

Shi Yuting remained silent facing Xiangyi's concerns. He was constantly watching the person in his arms with his long and narrow eyes.

Xiangyi did not think about it anymore since he did not get any response from Shi Yuting. Then, the helicopter flew to the best hospital in City Z.

A few minutes later, the private helicopter reached the rooftop of the hospital.

Shi Yuting was ready to get off the helicopter while holding Zuo Weiyi in his arms.

But when he came into contact with the person in his arms, he suddenly discovered that something was not right with her.

Zuo Weiyi looked lifeless at this moment. She did not seem to be breathing at all.

He frowned and reached out his hand to her nose. He found out that she was indeed not breathing!

He felt his heart being stabbed at fiercely!

This was the first time that Xiangyi saw Shi Yuting fluster.

"Wei Yi?"

At first, he thought she was just weak and had fallen into a deep sleep. However, seeing her being unconscious, Shi Yuting could not help speaking with his slightly flustered voice.

He shouted, but the person in his arms did not react.

Shi Yuting started to feel anxious!

"Zuo Weiyi?!"

He snarled anxiously, but all that answered him was the pale and lifeless feeble face.

Shi Yuting felt as if his heart was squeezed! He quickly carried her to the rooftop exit!

Zhong Shenghao did an emergency check on Zuo Weiyi when they came to the emergency department. Shi Yuting had been standing in the emergency room!

“She has inhaled too much smoke into the lungs causing a sudden spasm in the throat. The organs contracted and stopped her from breathing,” Zhong Shenghao said to Shi Yuting who was on the side while checking Zuo Weiyi.

“You mean she’s alive?”

“No.”

Zhong Shenghao raised his eyes. This was the first time he saw Shi Yuting this flustered.

He did not hesitate to pretend to have amnesia to protect this woman. What position did this woman occupy in his heart?

It was only now, Zhong Shenghao finally knew the answer.

To Zhong Shenghao, he had initially thought that Xin Lei’s departure would be the largest pain in Shi Yuting’s life. But compared to Zuo Weiyi who was in front of him, that relationship might not hold much meaning anymore.

“If you encounter this situation again in the future, you can apply artificial respiration on her first.”

Shi Yuting was stunned hearing to his words.

Shi Yuting immediately stared at Zhong Shenghao who was in front of him sharply. How could he still joke at a time like this!

Zhong Shenghao acted innocent when he met with Shi Yuting’s sharp eyes.

“My dear president! What I said is true. If you encounter someone who has stopped breathing in the future, you should give her mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. If it wasn’t you who sent her in time today, she would have already died!”

Zhong Shenghao began to do emergency treatment for Zuo Weiyi after talking.

Shi Yuting felt terrified after listening to his words.

What if this woman really disappeared from his world forever?

On the way to Excellence Group, he felt that his anxiousness was eating him up from inside out. He had never been so flustered and overwhelmed since his father’s death.

Chapter 200: Didn’t You Forget About Me?

Zuo Weiyi finally started to breathe and her chest slowly undulated after a series of emergency treatments.

Shi Yuting finally relaxed.

The life in Zuo Weiyi’s complexion slowly recovered after she was moved to the VIP exclusive ward.

She woke up from the coma at two at the break of dawn.

There was only a dim light in the silent ward.

Zuo Weiyi opened her eyes and felt thirsty.

She turned her head and frowned.

“You’re awake.”

Zuo Weiyi immediately saw a pair of deep and clear eyes followed by a handsome face as soon as she turned her head.

“Shi Yuting...”

Shi Yuting smiled softly while looking at her slightly thin and pallid face.

Zuo Weiyi could feel his subtle tenderness.

He then switched on the light and the room immediately lit up.

Zuo Weiyi looked out the window. The sky was still dark. What was the time now? Why was he still here?

Zuo Weiyi had so many doubts looking at his black eyes.

He had lost his memory and could not remember her two days ago. But, why did he suddenly appear at the fire scene?

She even remembered clearly that he was holding her so tight when they were in the pantry as if she would disappear.

Was all this just her hallucination?

Shi Yuting got up and sat down beside the bed. He then reached out to move a strand of hair away from her forehead.

He then said, “From now on, you can ask me anything if you have any questions.”

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyes and stared at his delicate jaw.

She did have a lot of questions to ask him.

“Didn’t you forget about me?”

“I pretended to.”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

Pretended to?

What did he mean?

She looked up and stared blankly at him with her clear eyes.

He lowered his head and there was a trace of affection in his eyes.

“Any other questions?”

Zuo Weiyi was slightly startled when she met his deep eyes.

Other questions?

Well, she did have many questions, such as...

No. No. Why did he pretend not to remember her?

She frowned and was puzzled looking at him. “Why did you pretend not to know me?”

Shi Yuting lowered his eyes a little upon her question. He stared at her fair face with his deep eyes. He then spoke after a while.

“Because you have become my fatal weakness.”

Zuo Weiyi did not understand his words.

His weakness? What did he mean?

“Okay, the next question.” He hugged her and looked straight ahead.

Zuo Weiyi was a little dazed.

He did not know when it had started. This woman who had nothing to do with him had gradually charmed her way into his heart and become his fatal weakness.

She, who had no identity, would eventually become Grandfather’s target. And he only wanted to protect her.

If this incident did not happen, he might have to pretend to have amnesia for a long time to carry out his plans.

Right now, this news might have already been spread to Country C.

“Why? Is this all you have to say to me?”

Seeing her remaining silent, Shi Yuting lowered his eyes and glanced at the pensive person in his arms.

Zuo Weiyi who was immersed in her thoughts looked up at him after hearing the silence.

Of course, there were still many questions that she wanted to ask.

“And about you and Tengtang Xi...”

“By the way...” Shi Yuting suddenly thought of something. He lowered his head and looked at her. “Did you say something to me before we boarded the helicopter?”
