

Kiss Me 331

Chapter 331: I Think I Forgot My Cell Phone

Finally, the lights turned green.

Zuo Weiyi had just fastened her seatbelt after getting into the maroon Porsche. Zuo Weiyi wanted to check the time on her cell phone only to realize that she did not bring her cell phone out.

When Gu Yansheng who was sitting in the driver's seat saw her constantly flipping through her bag, he could not help but ask, "What is wrong?"

"My cell phone. I seem to have forgotten to bring it out with me." After flipping through her bag a few times, she still could not find her cell phone. Zuo Weiyi quickly looked up at Gu Yansheng before she said, "Wait for me. I will go upstairs and grab my cell phone."

After she said that, Zuo Weiyi had already stepped out of the car to run up to her hotel room to grab her cell phone.

As soon as her feet touched the ground, and she was about to turn around and rush toward the hotel entrance, she suddenly heard a loud bang behind her!

Zuo Weiyi was mentally and physically shocked when she heard the sudden loud noise. She froze in place and turned her head in shock as though she was trying to figure out where the sudden noise had come from.

Gu Yansheng who was sitting inside the Porsche also heard the loud noise. It was obviously gunshots, and it was happening very near their location.

Suddenly, a second gunshot sounded!

In an instance, the already busy and noisy city center immediately fell into chaos. Gu Yansheng, who was sitting in the car, could only think about Zuo Weiyi who was standing not too far away from him.

He looked terrified and hurriedly opened his car door as he tried to rush toward Zuo Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi could not understand the chaos that was going on around her but when the second gunshot sounded, she suddenly realized that it was a gunshot!

Why were there gunshots here?

Boom!

Gunshots continued firing, one after the other and as it became more frequent, the streets became even more chaotic. The pedestrians started to flee and hide as they screamed in fear from time to time.

"What!"

Tengtang Xi who was seated in the black Bentley was also in shock at the sudden situation.

As she was panicking, the black Bentley suddenly collided with another car and lost its balance and momentum. After spinning on the spot for a short while, it finally came to a stop!

Tengtang Xi opened her eyes wide as she did not understand what was happening at the moment.

Compared to her, Shi Yuting seemed extraordinarily calm, as though all of this was already within his expectations! However, he had a particularly cold and harsh expression on his face, as though he was already out to kill someone!

In the next second, the car door was opened as Xiangyi ran through the rain of bullets to come to the black Bentley. "Mr. Shi!"

As soon as Shi Yuting saw Xiangyi, he rushed out of the car at a thunderous speed!

When Black Dragon saw Shi Yuting getting out of the car, he opened the car door as he aimed his pistol at Xiangyi and Shi Yuting.

"Mr. Shi, please do not let your subordinate..."

"Boom!"

Before Black Dragon could even finish his sentence, he suddenly saw a bullet flying toward him. He quickly dodged to the side to avoid getting hit by the bullet.

Shi Yuting and Xiangyi quickly took advantage of this opportunity to turn around and leave!

When he saw both of them fleeing, Black Dragon quickly aimed his pistol at Xiangyi's back.

Before they left the Shi family mansion, the Speaker had already emphasized that he was not allowed to fail his mission!

As he thought about Shi Le's words, Black Dragon's face turned cold as he clicked the gun with his index finger. In an instance, a bullet flew in the direction of Xiangyi's back.

Amidst the chaos, the sensitive Shi Yuting felt the icy cold bullet flying toward them at an incredibly high speed. He had a terrified expression on his face as he subconsciously pushed Xiangyi aside before he dodged Black Dragon's sudden attack!

Chapter 332: Who Was Trying to Kill Him?

Shi Yuting managed to escape the shot. However, Xiangyi did not have such good luck.

As soon as he stood up, a bullet quickly hit his sturdy arm. In an instance, blood was dripping from his arms as cold sweat filled his forehead!

He twisted his brows in pain as he rushed toward Shi Yuting's side in pain before he handed a silver pistol over to Shi Yuting.

Not too far away, Zuo Weiyi was standing at the entrance of the hotel. When she raised her head in panic, she unexpectedly found Shi Yuting standing amongst the crowd of people. She felt as though she was frozen in place!

Shi Yuting. It was really Shi Yuting...

Zuo Weiyi was not only surprised and happy when she saw the familiar figure hiding from the rain of bullets but she was even more shocked!

Those bullets made her heart jumped to the edge of her throat. She was really afraid that one of the bullets would hit Shi Yuting's body!

Zuo Weiyi clenched her fists tightly together. When she saw a man in black aiming a pistol at Shi Yuting and Xiangyi in the chaos, she was so shocked that her heart was beating frantically. Zuo Weiyi instinctively ran a few steps forward before she shouted, "Shi Yuting!"

Run! Zuo Weiyi shouted as loud as she could but her screams were buried amongst the sound of the gunfire.

Shi Yuting and Xiangyi who were far away could not hear her at all.

However, they reacted quickly, and they easily avoided the bullets that were coming at them.

Of course, Shi Le's men did not dare to actually aim their bullets at Shi Yuting. However, since he was also firing back at them, they had no choice but to fire back when confronted.

No matter what it was, they did not dare to aim their bullet directly at Shi Yuting. After all, he was the grandson of the Speaker and the future president of Country C!

Even if they had guts, they would not have the courage to do that!

In the chaos, after avoiding a bullet, Xiangyi quickly reported to Shi Yuting, "Mr. Shi, it seems as though Miss Zuo is also in Country C now!"

As they leaned against the back of a car, Shi Yuting was startled when he heard Xiangyi's words. He turned around and looked at him in surprise.

As he was about to speak, someone not too far away aimed their pistol at Xiangyi again.

Shi Yuting quickly grabbed Xiangyi's arm as the both of them dodged to the side.

"Are you sure?"

Xiangyi nodded. "Yes, I just got the news."

"Bang!" The bullet passed through the solid car door and if it was one centimeter closer, the other party would have shot directly through Shi Yuting's head!

With this shot, Xiangyi opened his eyes wide, revealing a shocked expression on his face.

If Shi Yuting did not dodge the last shot in time, he would have already been dead!

Did Black Dragon have a death wish? He had actually dared to aim a bullet at Shi Yuting?

Shi Yuting calmed down as he raised his brows slightly. After that, he observed the men in black who were all armed with pistols not too far away.

Were these men really his grandfather's people?

Why were they trying to kill him?

Shi Yuting narrowed his sharp eyes slightly as he stared at the man dressed in black who was not too far away.

The reason why his grandfather had sent the Black Dragon to follow him was that he was afraid that Shi Yuting would make his escape. However, right now, Shi Yuting was certain that there were some people among these men who wanted him dead!

He glanced at all the men in the field one by one. Who was the one who was trying to kill him?

In order to confirm the suspicion in his heart, Shi Yuting, who was hiding behind the car, quickly stood up.

He wanted to find out if someone really wanted him dead!

As soon as he stood up, Shi Yuting raised his hand and the other party immediately stopped their gunfire.

On the other side, Black Dragon also held back his fire, and the originally chaotic street turned peaceful once again.

Chapter 333: Tengtang Xi's Terrible Thoughts

The pedestrians who were all hiding slowly raised their heads to carefully observe the scene as they stood up after feeling that the gunfight had stopped.

However, just as everyone thought that this fierce battle had already stopped, a cold bullet flew toward Shi Yuting's forehead.

Boom!

As soon as the gunshot sounded, Shi Yuting fell to the ground immediately!

Zuo Weiyi who was standing at the entrance of the hotel not too far away simply stared at the scene in a daze...

Zuo Weiyi felt as though she was suffocating. She felt as though a sword was piercing through her heart!

"Shi Yuting!"

Zuo Weiyi felt as though her heart was completely torn apart as she stared at the figure that had fallen to the ground. Tears started flowing down her face like spring water...

She continued screaming, "Shi Yuting!"

She quickly ran toward the familiar figure as tears blurred her vision.

As she was walking down the steps of the entrance of the hotel, she missed a step and fell down, rolling forward immediately.

However, she ignored the faint pain in her lower abdomen and quickly stood up to run toward the person who was not too far away.

"Weiyi!"

Gu Yansheng reacted too late and could only feel tightness in his chest when he saw Zuo Weiyi falling down. He screamed out her name as he rushed toward her immediately!

After falling to the ground, Shi Yuting suddenly sat up when he heard the familiar voice calling out his name.

He stood up immediately, only to see a familiar figure rushing toward him!

As soon as he saw her, Shi Yuting's heart trembled tremendously.

It had been half a month since he last saw her but he missed her so much that he felt that a century had already passed!

When Zuo Weiyi who was running saw the man who had fallen to the ground, suddenly standing up, she was so startled that she immediately stopped in her tracks. She was shocked as she looked at the man.

As soon as Shi Yuting stood up, Xiangyi and Black Dragon also heaved a huge sigh of relief.

They did not know who had fired the shot just now. However, they were all glad that the bullet did not go through Shi Yuting's forehead.

They were all gasping for air now.

If Shi Yuting had met with any shortcomings, then they would never be able to pay for it even if they offered up their lives.

Zuo Weiyi could not help but raise her hand to cover her mouth in disbelief when she saw the man slowly getting up from the ground.

She thought that he had been shot...

Now that she could see that he was fine and that he could stand up, Zuo Weiyi suddenly had the urge to cry!

Fortunately, he was fine.

As the both of them stared at one another, Tengtang Xi who was sitting in the black Bentley not too far away suddenly regained her senses. She looked up and saw the figure of the woman who was standing not too far away.

She could not help but clench her fist in anger. She knew that with this woman's appearance, it would be completely impossible for Shi Yuting and her to take wedding pictures together. Besides that, the wedding that was already planned to happen in three days' time would never happen too.

All because of this woman. If she were to die and completely disappear from this world, then that would be the greatest thing!

This terrible thought flashed through Tengtang Xi's mind.

As she stared at Zuo Weiyi who was standing not too far away, she bit her lower lips in anger as she wished for her to disappear from this world!

Following her terrible thoughts, Tengtang Xi looked in front of her and suddenly saw the black pistol on the front passenger seat.

As she stared at the pistol, the thought in her heart, wanting Zuo Weiyi to disappear, became stronger and stronger...

In the next second, Tengtang Xi slowly picked up the pistol before she looked at Zuo Weiyi who was slowly walking toward Shi Yuting...

Chapter 334: I Dare Not Write the Title, Darling is the Sinner

As long as she was dead, then everything belonging to her would finally come back to her...

As she looked at the figure that was not too far away, Tengtang Xi who was sitting in the car slowly lowered her car window as she raised the black pistol in her hand before aiming it at Zuo Weiyi's back.

Zuo Weiyi did not sense the danger that was slowly approaching her!

Zuo Weiyi's gaze was fixed on the man who was standing in front of her. He was so close to her now!

"You... you are fine..."

As she stared at him, Zuo Weiyi felt that he was still as handsome and charming as ever. Zuo Weiyi could feel that the prickle in her nose. She really thought that he had been shot!

Shi Yuting felt as though a century had already passed by as he stared at the person standing in front of him.

He had not seen her for half a month but she was already skinnier than ever.

At this time, Shi Yuting could not help but reach out as he tried to pull her into his arms.

However, just as he raised his hand and before he could even touch her body, there was suddenly the sound of a gunshot firing!

"Boom!"

He did not know where the gunshot came from but Shi Yuting could see the person standing in front of him turning pale with a blank and horrified expression on her face. Her body started leaning backward...

Shi Yuting could only stare in a daze as he watched his most beloved fall in front of his eyes. For a moment, he felt as though his heart was being torn apart by a thousand swords!

His eyes widened and his voice trembled as he shouted, "Weiyi!"

In the next second, Shi Yuting stepped forward before he caught the person who was about to fall in his arms as he stared painfully at her face that was as pale as snow...

Shi Yuting felt as though he was suffocating. He could barely breathe and there was a furious and deadly look in his dark and jet black eyes!

He hugged her body tightly in his arms as his hands trembled uncontrollably.

Immediately afterward, he could feel a warm liquid gradually flowing through his fingers, out of her back.

When Shi Yuting looked at his hand, he was shocked to see the bright red blood that stained his palms.

His fury and heartache overwhelmed him as they pushed him into a bottomless abyss. He felt as though someone was repeatedly stabbing him with a knife as he stared at the person in his arms who was completely pale.

For the first time, he realized what it felt to feel like dying.

“Weiyi...” Shi Yuting’s voice trembled so much that his words were barely audible. No matter what the circumstances were, he had never once lost his cool and composure. However, he was flustered and completely lost. He did not even know where to place his blood-stained arms.

“Baby... my baby...”

As she lay in his arms, Zuo Weiyi could only use her last ounce of strength to move her hands toward her flat abdomen, where she could feel a sharp burst of pain. This was even more painful than the bullet wound in her back.

She could feel that she was slowly losing the young life that was growing in her...

Not too far away, Gu Yansheng who had witnessed everything was also in shock. He felt that his heart was torn apart when he saw Zuo Weiyi getting shot.

No one knew where that gunshot came from!

Zuo Weiyi could clearly feel the pain in her lower abdomen and could not help but tighten her palm as she grabbed her pink shirt, as though she was trying to say something. In the end, her grasp loosened and her hand gradually fell to the ground. Zuo Weiyi closed her eyes as she fell unconscious.

When Shi Yuting saw her suddenly closed eyes, he felt that he was really suffocating. He felt as though someone was digging his heart out with a sharp blade!

Chapter 335: A Heart-Piercing Roar!

As he held her in his arms, Shi Yuting felt as though he was consumed by the torn feeling in his chest!

Shi Yuting held the person in his arms because he desperately wanted her to live! He had to rush her to the hospital without any further delay!

Xiangyi, who was standing nearby, finally recovered from his shock. However, since his arm was already injured, he could not drive. Therefore, he could only turn around as he said to the man standing beside him, “Start the car and drive now!”

About five minutes later, the car finally arrived at the hospital.

Everyone was shocked when they saw Shi Yuting carrying Zuo Weiyi who was drenched in bright red blood. Her blood had already dyed her pink shirt and jacket red.

“Doctor... doctor!”

The cry of his heartache almost shattered the whole building but it was not as painful as the pain that he was feeling in his heart.

A nurse who was not too far away saw the both of them covered in blood. She quickly rushed over to them as she said, "Come here!"

The nurse quickly instructed Shi Yuting to carry the person in his arms into the emergency room!

Gu Yansheng who had followed closely behind him was also very anxious.

Shi Yuting wanted to follow the doctor and nurses when she was pushed into the operating theater but he was immediately stopped by the doctor.

"Mr. Shi, you cannot come in with us."

However, Shi Yuting did not intend to let Zuo Weiyi leave his sight at all. His heart was already torn apart as he stared at her pale and lifeless face.

"Mr. Shi, if you insist on coming in, you will only be distracting us!" the doctor insisted. He could see that Shi Yuting really cared about this woman.

Everyone could tell that he was like a ticking time bomb. If he followed them into the operating theater, he would only end up distracting them.

In the end, Shi Yuting could only wait outside the operating theater.

As soon as the operation lights turned on, Shi Yuting closed his eyes as he endured the piercing pain that he was feeling in his heart.

"Are you satisfied now?"

A cold voice suddenly sounded beside him.

When Shi Yuting opened his eyes, he turned around only to see Gu Yansheng's cold and hostile face next to him. His eyes were filled with rage and anger.

Shi Yuting did not say anything and simply stared at him in silence, as though he did not understand what he meant at all.

As he thought about Zuo Weiyi who was lying in the operating theater, Gu Yansheng felt even more hatred for Shi Yuting.

"You can't even protect your own woman and baby! So, how can you say that you love her?"

"Shut up!"

Gu Yansheng's words undoubtedly hit the weakest and most painful part of Shi Yuting's heart. Shi Yuting could not stop himself from grabbing Gu Yansheng's collar as he let out a heart-piercing roar!

Gu Yansheng grabbed his hand before he yelled, "Why are you asking me to shut up? Don't you agree that all the injuries that Zuo Weiyi had ever suffered are all because of you? You are such a powerful man but you cannot protect her at all! Shi Yuting, you claim that you love her but you could never protect her!"

As soon as Gu Yansheng's words fell, Shi Yuting punched him in the face in the next second. A smear of blood spilled out from the corner of Gu Yansheng's mouth.

“It is my business and this has nothing to do with you at all!”

Shi Yuting knew that every single word spoken by Gu Yansheng was a fact, and it deeply hurt his heart. He knew that all the injuries that Zuo Weiyi had suffered were all because of him. Even though he had tremendous power, he could not protect her at all.

But despite this, he could not bear to hear the truth, especially when it was coming from Gu Yansheng!

Gu Yansheng raised his hand to wipe the blood from the corners of his mouth with his finger.

At this moment, he was feeling tremendous hatred for Shi Yuting as he raised his hand to fight back without any hesitation at all.

The two men continued fighting and beating each other up in the corridor. It was only when Xiangyi and Black Dragon had arrived at the scene that the fight was broken apart.

Chapter 336: It's a Little Bloody, Darling Please Hold Tight!

After calming down, Shi Yuting noticed the injured Xiangyi before he instructed Black Dragon, “Take him for treatment.”

Black Dragon raised his eyes as he glanced at the both of them, fearing that they would begin fighting again as soon as they left.

“Can’t you hear me?” Shi Yuting asked coldly when he saw that Xiangyi and Black Dragon was not moving at all.

As soon as they met his angry eyes, Xiangyi and Black Dragon turned around and left immediately.

After getting Xiangyi’s wound bandaged, both of them quickly returned to the front of the operating theater again. At this time, they realized that Shi Yuting and Gu Yansheng had already calmed down, and both of them were standing at opposite ends in front of the operating theater door.

Even though two hours had already passed, the red light above the operating theater was still lit. As Shi Yuting stared at the red light, he felt that his heart was very heavy. He felt very anguished and was in a lot of pain.

After three hours, the door to the operating theater was finally opened.

The doctor had a heavy expression on his face as he approached Shi Yuting. “I am sorry, Mr. Shi but the baby... is gone.”

The doctor’s words made Shi Yuting feel as though he was suffocating!

However, he buried all the pain that he was feeling deep inside and asked hoarsely, “What about the mother?”

His voice was soft, as though he was afraid to ask the question because he did not want to hear the doctor’s answer.

The doctor was no stranger to Shi Yuting but this was the first time that he had ever seen him so flustered, helpless and in so much pain.

He did not know who the woman was but he could tell that Shi Yuting really cared about her.

As he faced Shi Yuting's calm but painful eyes, the doctor slowly explained, "We have taken the bullet out of her but she is not out of danger yet."

"If she dies, then none of you are going to leave this place alive!" Even though Shi Yuting spoke softly, there was a hint of threat in his tone that no one could ignore.

As soon as they heard his words, the two attending doctors trembled as they hurriedly replied, "Yes, Mr. Shi. We will definitely do our best to save her."

After that, the two doctors turned around as they returned to the operating theater in a hurry because they wanted to see if there was a way that they could make the woman who was in the operating theater wake up as soon as possible!

At this time, they could not help but wonder who this woman was. They had never seen Shi Yuting being so close to any other woman before!

The doctors were puzzled as they headed toward the conference room in a state of panic.

As soon as they pushed her out of the operating theater, Zuo Weiyi was transferred to the intensive care unit.

Shi Yuting kept his eyes on the woman who was wearing the oxygen mask over her face, and his eyes never left her at all.

He looked a little decadent and lifeless as he sat next to her.

At this time, Gu Yansheng was also very worried and flustered.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, the door of the intensive care unit was pushed open. Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan had rushed over to the hospital as soon as they heard the news.

Shen Lanzhi could not help but feel her heart trembling as she looked at the pale person who was lying on the hospital bed.

"How could this happen..." She muttered to herself. It had only been half a month but an innocent person was suddenly lying here unconscious.

Shen Lanzhi's eyes flashed with distress as she looked at her son who was sitting at the side of the hospital bed.

"Weiyi! How could... how could this happen to you..." Shi Nuannuan could not stop the tears from flowing down her face as she rushed toward the hospital bed to look at the person lying there.

Shi Nuannuan turned around and looked at her brother before she said, "Brother, what is going on? How did... how did Weiyi get shot?"

Chapter 337: Zuo Yi's Phone Call

Of course, Shi Yuting did not say anything and his eyes were simply fixed on the person who was lying in bed.

However, in the next second, he raised his eyes suddenly as though he had suddenly thought of something.

“Xiangyi.”

As soon as he heard his name, Xiangyi came over immediately. “Mr. Shi.”

“Find out who fired that shot.”

He wanted to know who wanted to kill him and whether that gunshot was aimed at her or himself.

“Yes!”

Xiangyi nodded immediately. At this time, Shi Nuannuan suddenly realized that Xiangyi was standing next to Zuo Weiyi’s hospital bed.

When she saw his bandaged arm, her heart clenched hard as she rushed toward Xiangyi and asked, “Xiangyi, are you hurt too?”

Xiangyi pursed her lips tightly together as he faced her dark eyes, which were filled with a touch of eagerness and concern. After that, he greeted her in a calm and respectful manner, “Miss.”

The disparity in their identity made him hide his worries and feelings for her.

Shi Nuannuan did not know when it had started but she did not like hearing Xiangyi calling her ‘miss’ anymore. In fact, she was looking forward to the day where he would finally be able to call her by name.

Xiangyi glanced at Shi Nuannuan before he nodded and headed out of the ward.

When Shi Nuannuan saw him heading out even though he was injured, she could not help but said, “Wait a minute!”

Shi Nuannuan looked at her brother before she asked, “Brother, Xiangyi is already injured. Why are you still sending him out to investigate...”

“Miss!”

Xiangyi suddenly stopped her before she could finish her sentence.

He knew that his injury was only one ten-thousandth of what Shi Yuting was feeling at the moment.

Xiangyi knew that Shi Nuannuan was worried about him but this injury was actually nothing to him at all.

Shi Yuting raised his eyes and glanced at his sister as though he had noticed the worried look in her eyes.

However, aside from Xiangyi, there was no one else he could trust at all.

Even his grandfather’s men were out to kill him. So, who else could he possibly trust at a time like this?

Shi Yuting did not say anything as he glanced at Xiangyi and Shi Nuannuan. Instead, he simply turned his eyes on the hospital bed again.

Xiangyi immediately turned around and left. Even though Shi Nuannuan was still very worried, in the end, she could only walk toward the bedside helplessly as she stared at Zuo Weiyi worriedly.

Time passed by, minute after minute.

In the evening, after Zuo Yi was done with the affairs of the country, he could not help but suddenly think of his granddaughter when it was time for dinner.

He could not help but wonder if she had already found Shi Yuting.

As he thought about it, he suddenly saw the news on television.

As soon as he heard the familiar name, Zuo Yi quickly stared at the television screen. It seemed as though a shooting incident had taken place in the city center earlier today!

[The next presidential candidate, Shi Yuting, was shot in the city center early this morning. At present, one death and two injuries had been reported at the scene of the shootout. According to witnesses, it seems as though Shi Yuting himself has also been shot...]

As soon as Zuo Yi saw the news, he could not stop himself from gradually tightening his hand around his cane.

Even though Shi Yuting was the grandson of his rival, he was still the next presidential candidate. This was a big deal!

Moreover, since this news was being broadcasted all over Country C, Zuo Yi could not help but wonder if Zuo Weiyi had seen the news. If she knew about this, she would definitely be worried.

As he thought about it, Zuo Yi raised his head and looked at Uncle Yu before he said, "Give me my cell phone."

Zuo Yi quickly dialed Zuo Weiyi's cell phone number. He had gotten her number from Gu Yansheng the last time.

However, no one answered the phone even after it rang for a long time.

Out of desperation, Zuo Yi hung up the phone before he dialed Gu Yansheng's number instead.

In the intensive care unit, Gu Yansheng took out his cell phone when he heard his cell phone ringing.

Chapter 338: Weiyi is... Injured

When he saw the name on the caller ID, Gu Yansheng hesitated for a few second before he walked out of the ward to answer the phone call.

"Yansheng, are you with Weiyi now?"

Gu Yansheng had a heavy feeling in his heart as soon as he heard Zuo Yi's voice.

Even though he did not know what the relationship between Zuo Yi and Zuo Weiyi was, he knew that Zuo Yi really cared about Zuo Weiyi.

He really did not know how Zuo Yi would react when he found out about this.

“Yes.”

As soon as Zuo Yi heard Gu Yansheng’s reply, he started to relax a little.

After that, he said sadly, “I just saw the news. It seems as though something had happened to Shi Yuting. Please look after Weiyi and make sure that she does not see the news. I do not want her to be worried.”

Gu Yansheng could not help but feel his heart getting a little heavier.

Grandpa Zuo was so worried even with these kinds of little details. How would he react if he found out that Zuo Weiyi was injured and lying in the hospital right now?

Would an ordinary person care so much about someone else?

Gu Yansheng could not comprehend the situation at all.

After that, Gu Yansheng replied with a heavy tone, “Grandpa Zuo.”

“Yes?”

“Weiyi is... injured. She is now in the hospital.”

As soon as he heard Gu Yansheng’s words, Zuo Yi felt his heart beating frantically as he got up from the sofa in shock. “What did you just say?”

“It’s the news that you saw on television. Weiyi was also at the scene and she... was hit by a bullet in her back.”

Zuo Yi could feel his chest tightening as soon as he heard Gu Yansheng’s words. He could not stand straight. His walking cane slipped out of his hand.

As soon as Uncle Yu saw the drastic change in Zuo Yi’s expression, he rushed over to him before he hurriedly held onto Zuo Yi who was about to collapse as he exclaimed, “President!”

Gu Yansheng seemed to have noticed Zuo Yi’s reaction over the phone, and this made him even more confused.

“Grandpa Zuo, are you okay?”

Zuo Yi, who was in the living room, quickly asked, “Which hospital are you at?”

After Gu Yansheng informed Zuo Yi of the name and location of the hospital, Zuo Yi hung up the phone immediately.

Gu Yansheng could not help but feel puzzled as he stared at his blank cell phone screen after the call was cut off.

He felt that Grandpa Zuo’s concern for Zuo Weiyi was a little too unusual.

Back in the intensive care unit, Zuo Weiyi’s eyes were still closed and it seemed as though she was in deep sleep. Everyone in the ward was very worried about her.

It was the first time that Shen Lanzhi had ever seen her son looking so lost and depressed. He was not even as devastated as this when his father, Shi Xiaotian, passed away. When she saw the look on his face, she could not help but feel very distressed.

He did not eat dinner either.

“Son, please have some dinner, okay?” Shen Lanzhi asked with eyes filled with worry and distress as she handed him the dinner that she had bought for him.

Shi Yuting simply raised his eyes to look at his mother when he heard her voice. However, this time, it seemed as though he was looking at a complete stranger.

However, Shi Yuting did not say anything to his mother.

Shen Lanzhi could tell that Shi Yuting was blaming her.

If she had not left Zuo Weiyi all alone in Country Z, if she had not secretly returned to Country C with Shi Nuannuan, then perhaps this would not have happened today.

She did not only hurt Zuo Weiyi, but she had also hurt her most beloved son.

As she thought about this, Shen Lanzhi could not help but feel pain in her heart.

“I am sorry. I have done you and Weiyi wrong.”

Even though Shi Yuting did not say anything, even Shi Nuannuan could see that he was looking at his mother with reproachful eyes. Shi Nuannuan quickly spoke up for her mother as she thought about her mother’s difficulties.

“Brother, Mommy had no choice but to do what she did. She was forced to do so by Grandpa. If Mommy refused to bring me back to Country C, then Grandpa will drive her out of the family again. Brother... I really do not want to be separated from Mommy...”

Chapter 339: Zuo Yi’s Wrath!

Shi Yuting could not help but tighten his fists. He had a pair of very dark and bloodthirsty eyes.

Later that night, everyone stayed in the intensive care unit and no one wanted to leave at all.

No one dared to say a single word, and the atmosphere was very sullen and depressing. Shi Yuting’s mood was very foul.

The door of the intensive care unit was suddenly pushed open.

Aside from Shi Yuting, everyone turned around as soon as they heard the sound of the door opening. Zuo Yi walked in with a solemn expression on his face. He had a cold expression on his face after seeing the Shi family.

When Zuo Yi suddenly appeared, everyone except for Gu Yansheng was very surprised!

“Grandpa Zuo.”

Gu Yansheng quickly greeted Zuo Yi as soon as he saw him walking into the intensive care unit. The expression on his face was very dark.

Seven hours had already passed by but Zuo Weiyi had not woke up at all.

Zuo Yi ignored Gu Yansheng and simply looked at Zuo Weiyi who was lying on the hospital bed. He suddenly felt an aching pain in his heart.

After hearing Gu Yansheng's words, Shi Yuting also raised his head and his gaze fell on Zuo Yi. However, he did not make any movements and did not say anything at all. Instead, he continued sitting beside Zuo Weiyi as he kept watch over her.

Shi Yuting was very calm compared to Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi who were utterly shocked at Zuo Yi's sudden appearance.

"Mr. President..." Shen Lanzhi cried out in surprise when she saw him.

However, Zuo Yi was furious!

"Get out! There is no need for any of the Shi family members here!"

Everyone could not help but feel a little shock when they heard Zuo Yi's words.

This was especially shocking to Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi who did not know why the president of Country C suddenly appeared at the intensive care unit. Moreover, they did not understand why he said those confusing words.

When he saw them frozen in place, Zuo Yi yelled again, "Send them all out now!"

Zuo Yi was burning in anger and blazing wrath when he saw the Shi family members.

If it weren't because of the Shi family, his precious granddaughter would not have been in this situation at all. All of this happened because of the Shi family!

He would never leave his granddaughter all alone again.

As soon as Zuo Yi gave his order, an entourage walked in behind him before they escorted Shen Lanzhi, Shi Nuannuan, Xiangyi, and everyone else out of the ward!

However, no one dared to touch Shi Yuting who was sitting by Zuo Weiyi's bedside.

After all, he was the future president of Country C, and no one dared to offend him.

Zuo Yi seemed to be familiar with Shi Yuting's character. He knew that if he did not plan to leave, even if he used brute force, he would never be able to get him to leave Zuo Weiyi's side at all.

Moreover, Zuo Yi could see the desperate and desolate expression on his face. Even though the president of the country was here, Shi Yuting did not even bother to greet him at all. This proved that he truly cared about his granddaughter.

However, no matter how deeply he loved her, his granddaughter was still injured so badly because of him. Zuo Yi swore that he would never hand his granddaughter over to Shi Yuting again.

In an instance, only Zuo Yi, Shi Yuting, Gu Yansheng, and one of Zuo Yi's men were still left in the intensive care unit.

"How is her condition?"

Zuo Yi asked the hospital's chairman as he looked at the person lying in bed.

The president was visiting in person and the chairman did not know whether he should feel honored or worried.

Yes, it was very glorious because the president of the country was here at his hospital. However, the chairman was also worried because he did not know what the relationship between the president and the woman lying on the hospital bed was. Why was the president here to personally ask about her condition?

As he thought about this, the chairman was a little apprehensive as he said, "The bullet brushed the edge of the young lady's heart. Even though the bullet did not hit her heart directly, her heart is still a little damaged. Therefore, we need to observe her condition throughout the night. It would be excellent if she could wake up."

Chapter 340: She has Only a Ten Percent Chance of Survival

"When will she wake up then?" Zuo Yi asked again.

The chairman was stunned for a moment because he did not know how to answer Zuo Yi's question.

The president obviously cared very much about this young lady.

"This..." the chairman hesitated for a moment. However, as a doctor, he naturally did not dare to be careless and lie in order to save himself. Therefore, he said frankly, "Mr. President, if this young lady does not wake up, then I am afraid that..."

The chairman paused for a moment as he stared at Zuo Yi's gloomy face. The expression on his face fell as he said, "Then, it will be difficult."

As soon as he said that, and before the chairman could even raise his head to see Zuo Yi's reaction, he suddenly felt a strong hand tugging at him!

Immediately afterward, he was confronted by Shi Yuting's dark eyes as he asked, "What do you mean difficult? Tell me clearly now!"

As he faced the murderous man in front of him, the chairman was shocked as he replied in a trembling voice, "Shi... Mr. Shi, please calm down and listen to me. This young lady... she has only a ten percent chance of survival because..."

"Ten percent? I already told you that none of you are leaving this hospital alive if she does not make it out alive!" Shi Yuting yelled like a crazy man as he grabbed the chairman by his collar.

The chairman was also terrified. This was the first time that anyone had pulled him by the collar, and it was also the first time that he had ever seen such a terrifying and dangerous side of Shi Yuting!

He did not know who the young lady was. What was her identity? Why would the president and the future presidential candidate be so worried and concerned about her?

As he faced Shi Yuting's anger, the chairman finally replied, "Mr. Shi, I will definitely try my best..."

After listening to the chairman's reply, Shi Yuting finally calmed down a little.

After that, he returned to the bedside as he stared at the person who was lying on the hospital pain. His heart was hurting desperately.

If it was possible, he would be more than willing to give up his own life in exchange for hers.

"Chairman, I do not care what you do, but you have to make sure that you save this girl!"

As the chairman finally heaved a huge sigh of relief, his heart suddenly tightened and became even more cramped as soon as he heard Zuo Yi's words. He was overwhelmed!

"Yes, yes. I will certainly do my best to save this young lady. I... I will go and discuss the next course of treatment with the other attending doctors now!"

After that, the chairman quickly left the intensive care unit in a state of panic.

Time passed quickly, and Zuo Yi did not leave the hospital even though it was already late at night.

Gu Yansheng could not help but feel a little worried.

Even though Zuo Yi was strong and healthy, Gu Yansheng was afraid that his body would not be able to endure the stress if he stayed up all night.

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan stayed guard outside the corridor as they did not intend to leave the hospital either. As they were a little sleepy in the middle of the night, they took turns to nap on the lounge chair along the corridor.

"Grandpa Zuo, why don't you go back and rest first?" Gu Yansheng could not help but try to persuade Zuo Yi when he saw that it was already two o'clock in the morning.

However, Zuo Yi simply raised his hand and dismissed Gu Yansheng without saying anything at all. As his eyes were fixed on Zuo Weiyi who was lying on the hospital bed, Shen Ruoxi suddenly flashed through his mind.

As the president of a country, he did not even dare to reunite with his own granddaughter. How would he be able to face Shen Ruoxi after his death?

Zuo Yi's heart throbbed as he thought about this.

When Zuo Yi insisted on staying at the hospital, Gu Yansheng could not help but feel a little helpless. Therefore, he chose not to say anything anymore. Instead, he simply sat down on the sofa next to Zuo Yi as he looked at Shi Yuting who was sitting next to the hospital bed.

If both of them had not registered their marriage, he would never give up on Zuo Weiyi!

At the same time, in Country Z.

It was cold at night.

A few tall figures stood in a dark alley but the men's faces could not be seen in the night.
