

Kiss Me 541

Chapter 541: Pregnancy Symptoms

He walked over to the sofa and sat down immediately. His expression didn't look too good.

"Grandfather Zuo, I..." He paused, then raised his head and looked at Zuo Yi. "Can you bring Weiyi to Z Country?"

Zuo Yi was slightly taken aback by Gu Yansheng's words.

All of a sudden, he wanted to bring Weiyi back to Z Country? Could it be that the rascal Shi Yuting did something to Weiyi?

He looked at Gu Yansheng and asked, "Did Shi Yuting do something again?"

Gu Yansheng lowered his eyes. "I just feel that if Weiyi stays here any longer, she will only be get hurt even more"

Hearing this, Zuo Yi could not help but sigh.

"Previously, I wanted Weiyi to stay at the presidential villa but she did not agree. I would take her to Z Country, but she might not agree either. Ultimately, it's up to her."

His words made Gu Yansheng frown.

He didn't understand. Shi Yuting had already said those words, but she still refused to leave? Was she going to stay there and continue to be hurt by him?

Gu Yansheng looked up in the direction of the third floor and stood up. "I'll go up and see her."

When he reached the third floor, he looked at her room door.

Gu Yansheng knocked on the door, but there was no response.

"Weiyi, I'm coming in."

After waiting for a few seconds, there was still no response. Gu Yansheng pushed the door open and entered.

As he entered, he saw Zuo Weiyi lying on the bed.

Zuo Weiyi closed her eyes when she heard his voice.

Gu Yansheng walked to the bedside sighed when he saw that her eyes were closed.

Perhaps she really was tired.

He did not want to disturb her rest so he left.

Just as he was about to turn around and leave, Zuo Weiyi suddenly stood up. She lifted the blanket and got off the bed, rushing into the bathroom.

Gu Yansheng was shocked by her sudden change in actions.

He walked over to the opened bathroom door and saw Zuo Weiyi leaning over the sink, as if she was... vomiting?

He furrowed his brows, not knowing what was wrong with her.

Could it be that she was in a bad mood because of the recent events and wasn't eating properly so her stomach got sick?

All Zuo Weiyi vomited was just water as she leaned over the sink. Her stomach was empty, so there wouldn't be anything in it.

She only turned on the tap once the discomfort subsided. She used her hands to take some water to rinse her mouth. When she looked up again, she saw her pale face in the mirror.

In twenty days, she had become so haggard.

If this continued, she would be really worried about the baby in her stomach.

But recently, her nausea seemed to be particularly frequent. Every time she ate, it was only a little. Even if she wanted to eat more, she couldn't and would just throw up right after.

She stood there in a daze until she heard Gu Yanshang's voice.

"Weiyi, what... happened to you?"

She turned around at his voice and realized that Yansheng had not left yet.

Seeing the confusion on his face, she lowered her eyes and said, "I'm fine."

She walked past him and out of the bathroom.

Gu Yansheng was still a little worried. After she vomitted just now, she looked even worse. Was she really fine?

"You look terrible. Do you want to get Doctor Cheng to come over and take a look?"

"There's no need. I know my own body very well." She was not in bad health. It was just a symptom of pregnancy. Even if a doctor were to come over, it would not change anything.

Chapter 542: Won't You Follow Me Back to Z Country?

Rather, she was more worried about the baby—would the lack of nutrition negatively affect the baby's health?

With such a response, Gu Yansheng couldn't say any more.

Instead, he changed the topic, "Weiyi, won't you follow me back to Z Country?"

Zuo Weiyi was surprised by this. She turned around and looked at Gu Yansheng.

How could she not know how he felt about her?

However, there was no place in her heart for him—it had been completely occupied by another person.

She lowered her head. Besides her gratitude for Gu Yansheng's good intentions, there was nothing else she can give him.

"I'll go back when my mother wakes up." She really missed Z Country—she missed her mom and her only good sister, Xingchen, who were still in Z Country.

Speaking of which, they had not contacted each other for a long time.

Gu Yansheng was rather surprised by her answer.

"What if she doesn't wake up? Will you stay here forever?" He had a pretty rough idea about her situation. Even those in vegetative states would never wake up. If Shen Lanzhi did not wake up, did she plan to stay here forever and endure the torture and pain Shi Yuting caused?

Zuo Weiyi thought for awhile.

She did not know how long Shen Lanzhi would take to wake up. Perhaps she would never wake up, just like he said.

If that really was the case, then she would continue to live in guilt and self-blame.

"Weiyi, you shouldn't base you decision on whether to stay or not on Auntie Shen's condition." If she continued to stay here, he was afraid that she would even risk her own life.

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyes and looked at Gu Yansheng calmly.

It was indeed not something that she could control, but she wanted to wait.

Only when she woke up could she leave in peace.

"You don't have to say any more, she said calmly, then left the room and went downstairs.

Gu Yansheng stood there helplessly as she left before following after her.

After staying at the presidential villa for an entire afternoon, Zuo Weiyi decided to leave in the evening.

Zuo Yi was worried and did not want her to leave.

Although all the servants of the Shi family had returned, he was well aware of how cold the family had been to her these days.

Those servants would not care about her at all. He did not feel at ease with leaving his granddaughter in their care.

And that old man Shi actually took sides in this matter. How outrageous!

However, Zuo Weiyi insisted.

Even though no one in the Shi family would care about her, she was more willing to stay there.

At least, no one would disturb her when she wanted peace and quiet.

“Then I’ll send you off.” In the end, Zuo Yi and Gu Yansheng couldn’t do anything against her stubbornness.

She had the exact same personality as Shen Ruoxi—once she decided on something, there was nothing anyone else could do to change her mind.

Zuo Weiyi did not refuse Gu Yansheng.

“You can just drive me to the hospital. I’ll drive myself back from there.”

After all, her car was still in the hospital parking lot. If she did not drive it back today, it’ll be inconvenient for her to go to the hospital the next morning.

“I’ll drive you. I’m worried about you driving like this.”

“Forget it then. I’ll go by myself,” she said calmly before turning around to walk towards the door.

Gu Yansheng was anxious and couldn’t help but follow her.

After walking out of the door, Gu Yansheng quickly drove the car to her.

She looked up and saw the driver’s window slowly roll down, revealing Gu Yansheng’s handsome face.

Chapter 543: Mrs. Gu’s Conclusion

“I’ll send you to the hospital.”

As he spoke, he got out of the car and walked to the front passenger seat. He opened the car door and waited for her to get in.

Zuo Weiyi looked at him for awhile before getting in.

Gu Yansheng closed the door and got back in the driver’s seat.

At the hospital.

Gu Yansheng was still a little worried about her driving alone. But she was sexy and stubborn, so he did not insist further. Instead, he watched her car disappear before he drove off in the opposite direction.

When he got home, Gu Yansheng went straight upstairs and took down his laptop. He sat on the sofa as if he was looking up something.

When she saw her son return, Mrs. Gu held a cup of tea and sat down.

“Yansheng, what are you looking at?”

She realized that her son was always running out but he rarely came back. As a mother, she was rarely able to even have a good look at him.

“I’m looking for some information,” Gu Yansheng answered his mom simply as his dark eyes remained fixated at the screen.

Mrs. Gu was curious so she leaned over and looked at his computer screen as well.

She saw that he was looking up vomiting and nausea.

Was this child not feeling well?

Thinking about it, Mrs. Gu could not help but look nervous. "My son, are you not feeling well?"

"No."

"Then why are you looking at these things?" Mrs. Gu was puzzled.

"Weiyi's complexion hasn't been looking good these past few days. Today, I saw her vomiting terribly. But when I asked her, she didn't say anything and refused to see a doctor. So I want to know what's wrong with her." Gu Yansheng moved the mouse with one hand and supported his chin with the other as his sharp eyes scanned the words on the screen without missing a single thing.

Mrs. Gu naturally knew about Zuo Weiyi.

At first, she thought that her son would be able to get her a daughter-in-law.

She knew that their relationship was very good when her son was young. So she was quite happy when he said that he would go back to Z Country to find Weiyi.

However, she did not expect that the person Weiyi liked was Shi Yuting, and she was even the granddaughter of the previous president.

Thus, her wish to make Zuo Weiyi her daughter-in-law fell through just like that.

Vomit?

Mrs. Gu's expression suddenly turned serious as she looked at her son. "You said that Weiyi vomited?"

Gu Yansheng and was surprised to see his mom's equally surprised expression.

"Yes, do you know what happened?"

Mrs. Gu looked at her son, then started to think carefully.

In the end, she came to a conclusion, "There are two possibilities."

Gu Yansheng frowned, "Which two?"

"One, she has a bad stomach or ate something wrong. Two..." Mrs. Gu turned and looked at her son seriously. "She might be pregnant."

Gu Yansheng was stunned when he heard this.

Pregnant?

If it was really one of these two possibilities, then the probability of the latter was higher.

She had hardly been eating anything ever since the incident happened so it was unlikely that she ate the wrong things.

Could she be pregnant?

But if she was pregnant, why didn't she say it out loud?

Gu Yansheng looked at his mom suspiciously. "Mom, are you sure?"

Mrs. Gu looked at her son and asked, "I'm a mother, so what do you think?"

Gu Yansheng remained stunned.

Since she was pregnant, why didn't she say it out loud? Or did she not know that she was pregnant?

No, that's impossible.

She said that she knew her own body. This should mean that she knew that she was pregnant.

Chapter 544: The Figure Standing at the Window

Gu Yansheng let out a sigh and rested his chin on his hands as if he was thinking about something.

...

When she returned to the ancient mansion, the sky had already turned dark.

By this time, Nuannuan should have already gone to the hospital.

As she entered the house, there was no sign of Shi Le or anyone else in the living room besides the servants. He should be in the study on the second floor.

"Young Madam." The servant greeted her when she saw her.

Zuo Weiyi did not say anything but walked straight to the second floor.

She pushed open the bedroom door. It was pitch black inside.

She switched on the lights with familiarity. When she looked up, she saw a tall figure standing by the window.

She was stunned and stood frozen in place.

Shi Yuting was looking at the night sky outside for a while before slowly turning around. His pair of black jade eyes were fixed on the person standing by the door.

Zuo Weiyi did not expect him to come back because he didn't for almost half a month.

For a very, very long time, neither of them spoke.

Shi Yuting just stared at her with a cold expression, while Zuo Weiyi lowered her eyes.

When she was taken away by Gu Yansheng, he thought that she would never come back. The fear of not knowing what to do made him panic. He came back, curious as to whether she would come back that night or not.

The moment the lights turned on, his panicked heart finally calmed down.

The atmosphere in the room was eerily quiet. In the end, Zuo Weiyi took the first step and walked to the bed, placing the key on the bedside cabinet.

She then walked to the cloakroom and took out some clothes from the cabinet.

Shi Yuting heart panicked again when he saw her take her clothes. In the end, he couldn't stop himself from asking, "What are you doing?"

Zuo Weiyi searched for her clothes calmly. She answered indifferently, "Taking a shower. "

After picking out the clothes she would change into, she turned around and walked into the bathroom.

Shi Yuting's heart suddenly heaved a sigh of relief.

For a moment just now, he thought that she was... packing up her things and preparing to leave.

Shi Yuting didn't leave as he watched her walk into the bathroom and shut the door. Instead, he sat down on the sofa.

In the bathroom, Zuo Weiyi was sitting in the bathtub, staring at the ceiling. Her gaze was a little unfocused, and the image of the woman who had appeared beside him in the morning still flashed in her mind.

He had not returned in the past few days. Could it be that he had been with that woman?

Was that really the case..?

Zuo Weiyi felt a sharp pain in her heart. She closed her eyes and submerged her entire head into the water, as if trying to wash away some of the images that lingered in her mind.

However, she was not a good swimmer to begin with. She had only put her head under for a few seconds before she choked on a few mouthfuls of water!

"Cough, cough, cough..." she sat up suddenly and could not stop herself from coughing!

On the other side of the door, Shi Yuting got up from the sofa instinctively when he heard the noise coming from the bathroom. He rushed to the bathroom door like a gust of wind and pushed it open without thinking and entered.

At that moment, Zuo Weiyi's face was flushed red and tears were coming out of her eyes.

"What are you doing?!" He walked over and roared. The anxiety in his long and narrow eyes was clear.

Seeing that her face and head were full of water, she must have submerged her head underwater. But she was not a good swimmer to begin with. Did she want to die?

Zuo Weiyi was shocked by his sudden outburst and did not understand what he was angry about.

Chapter 545: The Young Madam Said She Doesn't Feel Like Eating

But as she thought about it, it made sense. The current him was not even willing to say a word to her. So there shouldn't be anything wrong with him being angry.

In that moment, she was completely naked and she could not help but feel a little uncomfortable.

Instinctively, she pulled the bath towel hanging beside her to cover her body.

She lowered her head and coughed a few more times before she managed to calm down.

“Nothing much.” She just wanted to clear her mind for awhile and forgot that she didn’t know how to swim at all.

“Before Mom wakes up, you’d better not harm yourself! ”

Thinking of the moment when she held her whole body in the water, his heart felt as if it was being pulled by something hard, almost suffocating him!

Zuo Weiyi’s eyes looked at him in confusion.

However, by then, the worry and anxiety in Shi Yuting’s eyes had been replaced by indifference.

He turned his gaze away and did not look at her again.

But she instantly understood.

What he meant was that she had better be fine before his mother woke up. For only then could she continue to atone for her sins.

Her heart felt as if it had been slashed by a sharp knife.

Tears slid down her cheeks, but they just blended in with the water water that splashed on her face earlier.

Shi Yuting was standing, so he did not see the tears that were welling up in his eyes. Instead, he turned around and left the bathroom.

It was not until the bathroom door was closed again that Zuo Weiyi closed her eyes and let the tears continue to fall.

After crying for a while, she put on her pajamas and came out. The spacious bedroom was already empty.

She knew that he had already left.

At seven o’clock, the maid came up and asked her to eat. She did not have much appetite, so she refused.

The maid returned downstairs and entered the dining room. She glanced at Shi Yuting, who was sitting at the dining table. “Young Madam said that she doesn’t feel like eating.”

Shi Yuting was stunned. Then, he picked up the chopsticks in his hand and took a plate in the other. He used the chopsticks to pick up some vegetables and placed them on the plate.

“Take them up.”

The maid paused for a moment, then took the tray, placed the plates of vegetables and rice, and turned to leave.

“Make sure she finishes.”

Just as the maid was about to leave, Shi Yuting spoke again.

The servant paused for a moment, then nodded. After saying ‘Yes’, she turned around and left.

When she reached the second floor, the maid knocked on the door and pushed it open.

Zuo Weiyi sat on the bed and flipped through some books about waking those in vegetative states. She looked up when she saw the maid walk in.

“Young Madam.”

Seeing the food in the maid’s hands, Zuo Weiyi frowned slightly. “Didn’t I say that I don’t feel like eating?”

The maid paused for a moment. “But, the Young Master instructed you to eat all of it.”

Zuo Weiyi was surprised.

He had already left, but he still didn’t forget to instruct the maid. Was he afraid that she would go on a hunger strike?

“I have no appetite,” she said coldly. Then, she turned around and continued reading the book in her hand.

After a few seconds, she saw that the maid was still standing in the same spot without any intention of leaving.

She looked at the maid only to see a troubled expression looking back at her.

Upon meeting her eyes, the maid slowly lowered her gaze, as if she wouldn’t know how to explain herself to him if Zuo Weiyi did not eat.

In the end, Zuo Weiyi put down her book and took the food from the servant’s hands. She walked to the coffee table on the other side of the room and began to eat.

She ate very big mouthfuls, as if she was not eating dinner but completing a mission.

After finishing all the food, she stood up and said to the waiting maid, “Now you can report back to him.”

Chapter 546: The Young Madam Doesn’t Seem to Be Feeling Well

She felt a little uncomfortable and was about to return to bed after saying that.

Suddenly, a wave of nausea suddenly came from her chest. She didn’t have the time to cover her mouth and quickly rushed to the bathroom. She leaned against the toilet and vomited everything she had just eaten!

The maid was about to pack up the dishes and leave. But when she saw what happened to Zuo Weiyi, she was stunned.

After all, the bathroom door was not closed. She was a little worried, so she walked over and saw that she was vomiting badly.

“Young Madam, are you... alright?”

After throwing up everything, Zuo Weiyi felt a little better in her chest, but her tears kept running.

After taking a breath, she walked to the sink, rinsed her mouth, and then walked out.

“I’m fine, you can go down.”

After saying those simple words, she returned to the bed.

The maid took a quick glance at her before finally packing up the dishes and leaving.

In the dining room, the food in front of Shi Yuting had not been touched at all. Instead, he sat there and quietly waited for the maid to come downstairs.

A moment later, the maid walked into the dining room. Shi Yuting looked up and saw that the rice bowl in her hand was already empty.

“Has she eaten?”

The maid nodded. “Yes.”

Shi Yuting was finally relieved. He picked up his chopsticks and was about to eat.

“But Young Madam doesn’t seem to be feeling well.” The maid couldn’t help but speak up as she looked at him.

The maid’s words stopped him midway. He looked up at the maid. “Not feeling well?”

“Yes.”

“What’s wrong with her?”

The servant pursed her lips. She became worried when she saw the young madam’s pale face earlier.

So she said, “The young madam did finish her food, but...”

“Speak!”

“But she just threw it all back up again.”

Shi Yuting’s heart tightened upon hearing this.

What did she mean by throwing it all up?

“What happened after that?”

“After that, Young Madam went to bed to rest, but she didn’t look well.”

Shi Yuting couldn’t hold it any longer. He put down the chopsticks in his hand, stood up, and walked to the second floor.

The door opened again. Zuo Weiyi wasn’t feeling well, so she was lying down. Thinking that it was another maid, she didn’t turn around, but turned sideways to take a nap.

“What’s happened?”

Zuo Weiyi only opened her eyes when she heard that deep and magnetic voice. She was a little surprised.

Hadn't he already left?

She opened her eyes, she did not turn around. Instead, she closed them again when she realized that there was a man standing behind her. She ignored his words.

As she did not say anything, Shi Yuting suddenly leaned over and picked her up from the bed.

She was shocked as her body was lifted into the air. "What are you doing?"

"We're going to the hospital." Although his voice was cold, his dark jade-like eyes hid imperceptible anxiety and worry.

"Put me down." She struggled. She knew her own body well. So, there was no need to go to the hospital at all.

However, Shi Yuting did not pay attention to her. Instead, he carried her straight downstairs.

Seeing that he had left the main entrance, Zuo Weiyi panicked and raised her voice. "Shi Yuting, put me down!"

He looked down straight at her with his sharp eyes. "I said that before Mom wakes up, you are not allowed to be in bad health!"

However, his words had a different meaning when they reached Zuo Weiyi's ears.

Her heart was hurt again.

Chapter 547: You Can Think However You Like!

"What? Are you afraid that I'll die and can't atone for my sins?!"

His palm tightened as he averted his gaze from her face. "You can think however you like!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he carried her and walked towards the main door!

"Shi Yuting, put me down!" She was still struggling violently.

However, Shi Yuting still carried her out of the main door and had no intention of letting her down.

"Let go of me! I hate you so much right now! I hate your touch!"

Weiyi's words stung Shi Yuting. He looked down at the woman in his arms. A hint of hostility flashed across his eyes. "You hate my touch?"

Meeting his cold gaze, the image of him talking and laughing with another woman flashed across Zuo Weiyi's mind.

"That's right!"

While he was distracted, Zuo Weiyi struggled and broke free from his arms. She turned around and walked into the house.

As he watched her back, the image of her buried in Gu Yansheng's shoulder in the hospital flashed across Shi Yuting's mind. He could not help but ask angrily, "What about Gu Yansheng's? His shoulder makes you feel very comfortable, doesn't it?!"

Hearing the furious voice behind her, Zuo Weiyi stopped in her tracks. However, in less than two seconds, she continued to walk into the living room and went straight up to the second floor.

As he stood at the door, Shi Yuting didn't have any way of venting the jealousy and anger in his heart. In the end, he punched the wall hard.

Walking up the stairs, Zuo Weiyi could clearly hear a 'bang' coming from behind her. She did not know what that sound was, but she knew that it was definitely Shi Yuting's doing. So, she did not turn around. Instead, she paused for half a second, she continued walking towards the second floor.

Blood dripped down the white wall, but Shi Yuting did not feel any pain at all.

The few maids who witnessed it from the sidelines were simply scared out of their wits. They had never seen him so angry.

They only knew that Young Madam had already been in trouble when she returned after the new year, but they did not know why the president and young madam had become like this.

The maids just stood as they watched the bright red blood flow from his fist, not knowing if they should bring the medical kit over. They were afraid that he would not stop bleeding, but they were also afraid of his anger.

Just when the maids were contemplating on what to do, Shi Le came back.

When he came to the door and saw his grandson's bleeding hand, he was shocked!

"What are you doing?!"

He dragged him into the house and immediately ordered the maid, "Go and get the medical kit!"

Hearing this, a maid quickly went to get the medical kit.

Just as the maid crouched down and was about to treat his injured hand, Shi Yuting suddenly pulled his hand away and stood up, striding out the door!

Not long after, Shi Le heard the sound of an engine in the courtyard and it whistled away!

Shi Le looked at the door in confusion.

These days, he also knew that Shi Yuting was very depressed. Could it be that he could not bear it and exploded?

He looked up in the direction of the second floor. At this time, Weiyi should be in the room. 'Could it be that they had an argument?' Shi Le wondered.

Shi Le could not understand no matter how much he thought about it, so he got up and walked towards the second floor.

Shi Yuting drove the Blue Spyker as if the gas pedal was his tool to vent his anger. He drove crazily and didn't have any intention of stopping.

After driving around the city, he finally stopped in front of a high-end bar.

As soon as he got off the car and entered the bar, he immediately attracted the attention of many members of the opposite sex.

Chapter 548: Concern for the President

Someone with sharp eyes said, "Look, isn't that the president? He's so handsome..."

"I don't think so. Why would the president come to such a place...?"

"But, it really does look like him..."

How could they be wrong about the new youngest president of C Country?

However, it was indeed surprising that a country's president would come to a bar to relax.

It was not difficult to see Shi Yuting's face as he walked into the bar despite the dim lighting. He appeared fascinating but unapproachable to strangers.

He walked slowly towards the bar counter.

A high-end bar was always elegant and pleasant regardless. As soon as one entered, one would feel all the fatigue in one's body eliminated.

However, it was not the case for Shi Yuting.

"Get me a drink."

He ordered in a heavy voice.

When the bartender saw him, he was stunned for a moment. Then he immediately turned around and brought out a bottle of top-quality whiskey.

"Is our president in a bad mood?"

The two girls looked like they were at a tender age, but their clothes were very attractive and alluring.

When they saw Shi Yuting sitting at the bar counter, the two girls also followed him but sat a little further away.

"Judging from his expression, he seems to be..."

"Could it be that he's upset because of the disaster area?"

"I don't know. Look, the president's hand seems to be injured!" One of the girls had sharp eyes. Under the dim light, she immediately noticed that Shi Yuting's blood-stained hand was still bleeding bright red blood.

The two girls felt restless when they noticed that he was injured.

If they went over and take care of the president's injury, they would be able to successfully talk to the president. The president might even notice them because of their concern!

The more they thought about it, the more eager they became to take their chances.

"Do you think we should go over and take care of the president?"

The girls looked at each other and smiled. "Okay."

At the bar, Shi Yuting's glass of strong liquor was refilled with one glass after another. It was hard to tell if he was drunk or not.

"President, your hand... is injured."

He was drunk until he suddenly heard a woman's voice next to him.

He did not react and continued to drink the liquor in his glass. But, his expression did become colder.

However, the two girls did not seem to notice his mood. Instead, they were holding a handkerchief as if they were going to bandage his wound.

Seeing that he did not react or ask them to leave, the two girls were delighted. One of them continued, "Why don't we bandage your wound?"

Shi Yuting still ignored them. However, the girls understood it as acquiescence. So they proceeded towards him to tend to his wound.

Shi yuting suddenly turned towards the girl closest to him with cold sharp eyes, disgusted by her touch.

"Get lost!"

His voice was as cold as ice; people trembled when they heard it. The girl made eye contact with his scarlet eyes which hinted a threat. She stopped immediately as fear crept into her heart.

"But your hand..." The girl still wanted to express her concern.

However, Shi Yuting roared, "I said get lost!"

His deafening voice instantly reverberated throughout the classy and elegant bar, attracting astonished glances from other clients.

Chapter 549: The Way He Apologizes

The two girls were frightened by his roar and hurriedly turned around to leave in embarrassment!

Shi Yuting emptied his glass of whiskey in an instant but the worries in his heart did not lessen in the slightest.

Getting drunk to drown out my sorrows? What f*cking bullsh*t!

Smash!!

Shi Yuting immediately shattered the glass in his hand, scaring the bartender.

Who knew what kind of wind blew in the country's president here in such a foul mood!

Although this was a high-class bar with clients who were usually of high status, no one would have thought that the president of the country would come here.

By eleven o'clock that night, Shi Yuting had become drunk. This was the first time he had been so drunk.

But though he was drunk, his mind was still quite clear.

In his hazy drunken eyes, he caught a glimpse of the watch on his wrist. It was already past eleven o'clock.

He turned around as if he was about to leave, stumbling as he walked.

Just as he was about to walk out of the door, he bumped into a few men who looked like they had come from abroad. Judging by their clothes, they were probably some hedonistic sons who had come to C Country for some fun.

"Hey!"

A tanned man was obviously in a bad mood when he got bumped, so he turned around and stopped him.

Shi Yuting ignored him and continued to walk towards the bar door.

The man became angrier when he was ignored. He strode forward and pulled Shi Yuting back.

"You bumped into me!"

Shi Yuting looked back at him with dark and cold eyes.

'Great.' He was worried he wouldn't have had anywhere to vent his anger!

"Hey, hey, hey, that's our president, right? He must have bumped into a few foreign men." Not far away, someone witnessed this scene and became a little worried.

Not everyone from abroad might know the president. What if they got into a fight?

"He seems to have met some trouble..."

"Doesn't the president have any privileges? Why didn't he bring a bodyguard with him?"

"Are you stupid? He must be in a bad mood. Who would want to bring a bodyguard in such a mood? Besides, the president might not be at a disadvantage. Don't you name his name? Shi. Yu Ting!"

Shi Yuting was influential and cold-blooded. When his reputation spread throughout the business world and C Country, outsiders had long been afraid of him—they did not dare to provoke him.

Now, he had bumped into a few hooligans. But they might be the ones seeking death!

As he looked at the few dark-skinned foreigners in front of him, Shi Yuting's sexy lips curled into a cold sneer.

"Then, what do you want?"

"Simple, apologize to this young master!"

“Apologize?”

“That’s right.”

The corners of Shi Yuting’s mouth curled up, but his long and narrow eyes weren’t smiling. Instead, they shone with a bone-chilling glare.

“I’m afraid you won’t be able to accept my way of apologizing.”

“What a joke, there’s no way this young master won’t be able to accept it!”

“Then you better enjoy yourself!” As soon as he finished speaking, Shi Yuting had already raised his fist and fiercely punched the man in front of him. Without any mercy, he instantly sent the black-skinned man flying like a magnificent ‘otherworldly immortal’ into a table and chair in the bar. Instantly, a wave of miserable screams filled the room!

Seeing their boss getting beaten up, the other men also began to surround Shi Yuting.

His sharp eyes swept over the men who surrounded him. The corners of Shi Yuting’s mouth suddenly curled into a cold and ruthless smile!

Chapter 550: How the Two Girls Felt

Everyone in the bar watching the scene go down, waiting to see how their president was going to deal with those foreign hooligans!

After just five minutes, the few black-skinned men fell to the ground one after another. They whimpered and cried like injured wolves. Each and every one of them was rolling on the ground in pain, unable to get up.

Shi Yuting dusted the footprints from the occasional kicks he received off his clothes. Then, he looked down at the men, turned around, and walked out of the bar.

The wound on his hand had opened up more severely because of the fight just now. Blood dripped as he walked. It was a shocking sight!

...

In the bedroom on the second floor.

Zuo Weiyi was lying on the bed. It was midnight, but she was not sleepy at all.

Shi Yuting did not come back that night.

The next day.

Even though she had not slept the whole night, Zuo Weiyi still got up early.

She stood in front of the full length mirror looking at her red and swollen eyes. If she went out like this, she would probably scare people, right?

However, she was not used to wearing sunglasses, so she decided to just go out like this. She’d just grab a pair at the mall.

She picked up her coat and car keys and went downstairs.

She knew that Nuannuan should be on her way back. However, she did not expect to see her getting out of the car as soon as she reached the door.

The two girls were like sisters but this was the first time they encountered each other after more than half a month, as if they were strangers. Both of them felt painfully terrible.

Shi Nuannuan had just gotten out of the car when she saw her walk out of the house and stand at the door. Nuannuan just stared at her.

A few seconds later, Shi Nuannuan walked over. When she passed Zuo Weiyi, she could not help but look up at her.

But Zuo Weiyi looked away, conscious of how unsightly she might have looked with her red and swollen eyes. Shi Nuannuan did not notice them. She only noticed her pale face and her heart trembled slightly.

She had not seen her for the past few days. Why did she look so haggard? Had she not been eating properly? Or had she not been sleeping well at night?

Shi Nuannuan wanted to ask. But when she thought of her mom lying on the bed, she changed her mind!

Only when her figure brushed past her did Zuo Weiyi take a step forward and walk towards the garage.

On the balcony of the second floor, Shi Nuannuan watched the car drive out from the garage with a dejected look on her face. She turned around and returned to her room.

...

After reaching the shopping mall, Zuo Weiyi walked in. She bought a pair of women's sunglasses and put them on her face. Then, she went to the hospital.

Just as she finished wiping Shen Lanzhi's hands and feet, Zuo Weiyi started massaging her again as usual, stimulating her senses and nervous system.

At this moment, the door opened. Gu Yansheng saw that she was indeed here as soon as he entered.

Just as Grandfather Zuo had said, she would come to the hospital every morning without a day's break.

Hearing the sound of the opening door, Zuo Weiyi turned around and saw Gu Yansheng walking in.

Dressed in a suit and tie, the words Shi Yuting said to her last night suddenly flashed across Zuo Weiyi's mind. "What about Gu Yansheng? His shoulders must make you feel very comfortable, huh?!"

She turned back and lowered her face a little sadly, continuing to give Shen Lanzhi a massage.

Gu Yansheng was surprised to see her wearing sunglasses.

"Weiyi, why are you wearing sunglasses?" He walked over and asked when he saw her frown in surprise.
