

Kiss Me 621

Chapter 621: Having a Chat with Xiangyi

In the office, Shi Yuting gave it a thought and said, "I'll get Xiangyi to pick you up."

"There's no need for that, I'll drive there myself." She realized that Shi Yuting had started to be extra careful with her.

But was there a need to be like this? She had only been pregnant for three months and it wasn't inconvenient for her to do things on her own yet.

"Just do as I say." His sonorous and powerful voice came from the phone before the line was cut off.

Zuo Weiyi pouted as she looked at the phone before going into the kitchen. She found a thermos container and put the dishes and rice into the separate compartments.

Ten minutes later, Xiangyi arrived at the seaside villa.

She became a little bored along the way so she decided to chat with Xiangyi.

"Have you been in contact with Nuannuan recently?" Zuo Weiyi was used to the fact that Nuannuan liked him.

The last time Nuannuan and Xiangyi came to Z Country alone. When they returned to C Country, Nuannuan's behaviour hinted that their relationship had progressed. So she couldn't help but ask about it.

However, Xiangyi was not expecting her to ask him such a question.

He went silent for a second before casually saying, "No."

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised and turned to look at him.

No?

After a long time, the car became quiet.

Xiangyi looked at Zuo Weiyi through the rearview mirror from the driver's seat. After a few seconds of silence, he said, "Young Madam."

"Hmm?" Zuo Weiyi looked back at him.

"Nuan—" Xiangyi caught himself and suddenly changed his words. "Miss has been in a bad mood recently. If you have time, can you call C Country and chat with her?"

Xiangyi's words surprised Zuo Weiyi.

Did something happen between the two of them?

"Since you care about her so much, why don't you call her yourself?"

Xiangyi was stunned for a moment, but he did not say anything else.

Zuo Weiyi glanced at him and did not continue asking.

She remembered that Nuannuan had left the house before New Year's Day. She should have gone to look for Xiangyi. Could it be that something had happened in those few days?

She looked up at the calm Xiangyi but did not say anything.

By then, the car had already arrived at the Di Zun parking lot.

When they reached the top floor, there was no one in the CEO's office. Even Feilin was not at her desk. They must still be in a meeting.

"His Excellency is still in the meeting room. You can sit here and rest for a while." Xiangyi walked in and poured her a cup of water.

Zuo Weiyi smiled. "Okay, you can get back to your work."

Xiangyi nodded slightly, then turned around and left the CEO's office.

Zuo Weiyi thought of Xiang Yi's words as she sat on the sofa. She could not help but take out her phone and call Nuannuan's number.

She also wanted to know how her mother was doing.

The phone rang a few times before she picked it up.

However, the voice sounded a little hesitant.

"Hello, sister-in-law..."

Zuo Weiyi smiled upon hearing her voice. "What are you doing?"

"Um... I'm accompanying Mommy at the hospital!"

"How's her condition?"

"She's doing pretty good!"

"Oh, that's good." Hearing this news, Zuo Weiyi was relieved, so she changed the topic. "Nuannuan, have you been in a bad mood recently?"

Shi Nuannuan paused. "No, I haven't."

"Then why did Xiangyi say that you were in a bad mood?"

"..." Shi Nuannuan fell silent.

"Did the two of you have a fight?"

"No, there was nothing between us to begin with, so why would we have a fight?"

Chapter 622: I Haven't 'Eaten Meat' for a Few Months

Judging from her tone, it was most likely a fight.

What happened in G City?

“Sister-in-law, I still have to take care of Mommy, so I won’t talk to you for now.” Shi Nuannuan quickly hung up the phone.

Zuo Weiyi was taken aback and did not understand.

At this moment, the office door opened and Shi Yuting walked in after a meeting.

He walked to the sofa and saw that she was holding her phone. “Who were you talking to?”

“Nuannuan.”

Zuo Weiyi opened the thermos container on the coffee table and laid out each layer. There were two dishes and a serving of white rice.

“Don’t you eat even during meetings?” Zuo Weiyi looked at the clock on the wall. It was almost one o’clock.

Although it was fine for people to eat later sometimes, if it went on for a long time, wouldn’t the hunger be unbearable?

Shi Yuting sat down and looked at the dishes in front of him. They were no different from the dishes he usually ate at home, but they were obviously lower-class compared to the dishes he ate at noon.

The dishes in front of him were very ordinary home-cooked dishes, but they still warmed his heart.

Was this the so-called taste of ‘home’?

He picked up his chopsticks and ate with relish leisurely.

Midway through his meal, Shi Yuting turned to Zuo Weiyi. “Why don’t you bring me food every day from now on?”

Zuo Weiyi was confused.

She had brought him food today because she knew that he hadn’t eaten yet, but why did he want her to bring him food every day?

“Why do you want me to bring you food every day?”

Although Xiao Cui would go to the market early in the morning every day to pick out the freshest ingredients, the quality of the ingredients was still slightly inferior to those from high-end restaurants. Moreover, in order to suit her taste, she hadn’t eaten any meat dishes recently. Moreover, the taste was relatively bland. At most, she would occasionally add some shredded meat. If he ate this every day, would he be able to bear it?

“Didn’t you say that Xiao Cui’s dishes are nutritious and healthy?” He leaned over and looked at her pair of bright and starry eyes. The corners of his lips curled up slightly.

Zuo Weiyi looked at him suspiciously. “But can you really go on without meat?”

“Yes. It’s indeed a little uncomfortable. But I haven’t eaten meat for a few months.” As he spoke, he took another bite of his food.

Zuo Weiyi felt that his words sounded a little strange.

What did he mean by that? Although he didn't have any meat for dinner, he must have still had steak or something for lunch when he ate out, right? He wouldn't go so far as to not eat meat for a few months.

As she thought about it, she couldn't help but look up. "Weren't you out at noon—"

Suddenly, her voice stopped abruptly as she realized what he meant.

She looked at him in disbelief as she saw the corners of his mouth slightly curled up!

"Shi Yuting!" She pushed him a little shyly but angrily at the same time.

How could he talk about such a matter even when they were having a meal?

Right before she did so, Shi Yuting had eaten a few mouthfuls of rice and felt that his throat was a little dry, so he picked up the water she had just drunk. Who knew that she would suddenly push him after taking a sip? In an instant, the water from the cup spilled and soaked him!

Zuo Weiyi looked in shock at his stained pure black handmade trousers. She was flustered as she felt a little guilty for her small mistake.

"I—I'm sorry!"

Chapter 623: Are You Testing My Self-Control?

She had only pushed him in jest and did not expect to take a sip at the same time.

She hurriedly picked up a tissue from the coffee table and wiped it for him.

At that moment, there was a knock on the door. Zuo Weiyi did not realize how evocative her behaviour was.

Shi Yuting watched her frantically wipe his legs and... the area below his lower abdomen.

It was Xiangyi who knocked on the door. He didn't think too much before pushing it open and entering.

As soon as he entered and saw the two people at the sofa, he paused.

He didn't know whether he should stay or leave.

From Xiangyi's angle, Zuo Weiyi's actions at that moment were simply too evocative.

In the end, Xiangyi decided to leave first.

Shi Yuting turned around and saw Xiangyi who was about to leave. He had no choice but to say something.

"Come back."

He knew very well that nothing was really going on. But Xiangyi usually wouldn't have entered without his response in the past.

Moreover, if she kept wiping as frantically as she did, she might really burn a hole into his pants.

Xiangyi turned back around and was a little surprised.

In the past, if he had barged in under such circumstances, it would be strange if he was not shot to death by Mr. Shi's gaze!

However, Zuo Weiyi still had not realized what she was doing, or how she appeared to be behaving.

Shi Yuting gently tapped her back. "Mrs. Shi, are you testing my self-control?"

Zuo Weiyi suddenly stopped and looked at him in confusion.

The corners of his lips curled up slightly.

She thought for a moment and looked back at what she had been doing. When she noticed the 'area' she had been wiping, she was horrified and she threw away the tissue in her hand at lightning speed!

Then, she glared at the man in front of her!

She was wiping out of guilt, but here he was enjoying this damn questionable situation. Moreover...

She turned around and saw Xiangyi who was just standing there. She really wished she could find a hole to hide in!

Just as she feeling embarrassed to death, the damn man pulled her into his embrace. Then, his voice whispered in her ear.

"Madam really knows how to play with 'fire' recently."

Her eyes widened. Before she could react, the man next to her had already stood up and walked towards the special lounge in the office.

She was so angry that she stomped her feet and kicked the coffee table fiercely!

Seeing her actions, Xiangyi could not help but speak.

"Young madam, please be careful with the baby in your stomach."

Zuo Weiyi looked up and was met with Xiangyi's cold and unruly face. In an instant, she wanted to find a hole to hide in.

She felt too ashamed to see anyone. She wanted to become air, to be invisible!

Five minutes later, Shi Yuting came out of the lounge again. He had already changed his clothes and walked over to sit beside her.

Zuo Weiyi was bent over, hiding her face in embarrassment. Shi Yuting narrowed his eyes at her.

"Madam?"

Zuo Weiyi raised her head and looked at him with hidden bitterness.

"Did money drop on the floor?"

What?

She was confused for a moment before realizing that she had been teased again!

“Shi Yuting, will you die if you don’t tease me?!”

“No, but I just recently realized that teasing my dear wife is a beautiful thing.”

“...”

Chapter 624: The Investigation Results

Xiangyi stood on the sidelines and felt attacked by 10,000 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Shi, did you forget that he was still here? How could you show off your love like this..

After coming back to his senses, Xiangyi handed over a document bag in his hand.

“Sir, this is the woman you asked me to investigate previously. It contains all her information, as well as... the few times she had close contact with Xiao Yayue.”

Zuo Weiyi instantly looked up at the document bag.

Xiangyi spoke again as Shi Yuting remove the file from the bag. “The car accident was really Xiao Yayue’s premeditated plan. But it seems that Shi Tiannan did not know about this.”

As Shi Yuting listened, he flipped open the file containing information regarding the close interactions between Xiao Yayue and that woman—it was always at night.

After reading through the information, Shi Yuting turned towards Zuo Weiyi. “You said that she accused you of hitting her daughter, so she didn’t let you go?”

Zuo Weiyi turned her gaze and nodded at him. “Yes.”

Shi Yuting’s eyes turned cold.

Zuo Weiyi glanced at the information in his hands and couldn’t help but ask, “Was that car accident Xiao Yayue’s conspiracy?”

“Yes.” he answered and handed the documents to her.

She looked at the documents and some photos, especially of that woman.

Name: Chen Li

Age: 22

Marital status: unmarried

Family members: None

Zuo Weiyi frowned when she looked at the documents.

“It says here that she doesn’t have any family members, so she doesn’t have any daughters?”

Shi Yuting glanced at her and said, “Yes, which means that Xiao Yayue was the one behind the car accident.”

Xiangyi added, "Sir, though we now know Xiao Yayue was the mastermind, there still aren't any hard and direct evidence that ties Xiao Yayue to the car accident. She has been very cautious about it. Except for the fact that she met Chen Li a few times recently, she didn't leave any traces."

He thought that even if he investigated further, Xiao Yayue would probably deny it outright.

Shi Yuting listened to Xiangyi's worries calmly.

He slightly pursed his lips, but it wasn't a smile. Instead, it hinted of something more sinister.

"Do you think I need any evidence to deal with a person?"

Xiangyi was startled when he met his cold eyes.

So, you intend to deal with Xiao Yayue just like that?

"Then, would you like me to go back to C Country and deal with Xiao Yayue?"

"No, there's no need for that." Shi Yuting raised his hand. "Don't alert the enemy for the time being. Some things should be dealt with and solved at the same time."

His gaze turned towards the view outside the floor-to-ceiling window. His eyes were deep and distant, unreadable. No one could tell what he was thinking at the moment.

The weather finally became warmer.

Zuo Weiyi had also gradually realized that there were some changes in her belly recently. It seemed that, as the doctor had said, she had already passed the crucial period of pregnancy and was no longer nauseous every day.

That day, she stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling mirror and repeatedly looked at her waist.

"It seems to be a little thicker than before..."

Ugh, did she gain weight?

Was it just her baby or did she gain weight too?

For some reason, she, who had never cared much about her appearance, was actually a little afraid that she would gain weight at this moment.

Chapter 625: Would You Like to Go with Me?

After repeatedly checking her own weight, Zuo Weiyi suddenly felt a movement in her abdomen, causing her to automatically make a sound.

Shi Yuting happened to be upstairs. When he heard her cry out, he was so frightened that his face changed.

He walked over and asked, "What's wrong?"

Zuo Weiyi raised her head and frowned slightly, but the corner of her mouth was filled with a blissful and sweet smile.

"The babies seem to be moving." Although it was just a little, she could clearly feel it and felt that they were more present than ever before.

"Could it be that two little guys are fighting in your stomach?" Shi Yuting slowly asked as he stared at her stomach.

Recently, her stomach had indeed bulged out, but it was not so obvious after she put on her clothes.

"I don't know," she replied with a smile.

During breakfast, Shi Yuting sat at the dining table and said, "I'm going back to C Country tomorrow. Do you want to go with me?"

Ever since he returned to Z Country, he realized that she was much happier than when she was in C Country, so if she did not want to go back, he would not force her.

Zuo Weiyi immediately fell into deep thought for a few seconds.

She did miss her grandpa a little, and she really wanted to visit Shen Lanzhi in the hospital. Plus, even though she called Nuannuan every week, she wanted to visit her in person.

However, compared to her life there, she liked it here more. It was peaceful, and there were no more conspiracies. There were no more disasters one after another.

But she also knew that Shi Yuting was now the president of C Country, and it was impossible for him to stay here with her forever. One day, she would have to return to the country that belonged to him.

"I—"

Just as she was about to speak, Xiao Cui walked in with Weiyi's phone in hand.

"Madam, it's for you."

Zuo Weiyi picked it up.

"Hello?"

"Weiyi, it's Grandpa." Zuo Yi's gentle and kind voice sounded from the other end of the phone.

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised.

"Why are you calling?"

"Grandpa misses you. Everything has been settled here and I plan to go to Z Country tomorrow to settle down there."

Zuo Weiyi was very surprised when she heard her grandpa's words.

"Tomorrow?"

"Yes, I'm packing my things as we speak," Zuo Yi replied.

Zuo Weiyi looked at Shi Yuting.

If it was tomorrow, she would not be able to go to Country C with him.

“Okay.”

After hanging up the phone, she looked at the man in front of her. “Grandpa is coming over tomorrow, you...can go back alone.”

Zuo Weiyi saw Shi Yuting put down the chopsticks in his hand, as if he didn’t even have the appetite to eat anymore.

They were obviously husband and wife, but they would have to live in two places. Wasn’t she a little selfish?

“How about I call Grandpa and ask him to not come over yet?” As she said that, she picked up her phone and prepared to dial Zuo Yi’s number.

If she went to C Country, Grandpa wouldn’t have to come over to settle down.

“No, it’s OK.”

He interrupted her just as she unlocked her phone.

Zuo Weiyi looked up at him in a daze.

“I’m just going over to take care of some things. I’ll be back in about a week.” He looked at her fair and delicate face.

When she met his calm black pupils, Zuo Weiyi knew that he just didn’t want to force her.

After that incident, she realized that regardless of whether it was her mood or her personal safety, he was being extra careful. He didn’t want her to be hurt or wronged in the slightest.

“I’m heading off to the company.” He got up. It was already 7:48 A.M.

Chapter 626: The Beginning of the Plot

“Okay.” She stood up and walked him to the door.

Zuo Weiyi didn’t turn around and enter the house until his car disappeared from the courtyard door.

She liked such ordinary and sweet days. However, she was destined to be extraordinary since she married a man like Shi Yuting.

As soon as she entered the living room, she saw Xiao Cui answer the phone and walk up to her with an anxious look on her face!

“Madam...”

Xiao Cui wanted to continue but she didn’t dare.

But it was clear from her facial expression that something urgent had happened.

“What’s wrong?” Zuo Weiyi looked at her.

Xiao Cui raised her head, and tears gathered in her bright eyes. "Madam... I... Can I take a leave of absence...?"

"What happened?" From her anxious expression, Zuo Weiyi guessed what had happened.

"Something happened to Xiao Song at the hotel. I... I want to go see him..." She was glad that Mr. Shi had left for the company, or else she would not have dared to apply for leave.

Although she had promised last time that she would not apply for leave so frequently, Xiao Song's matter seemed to be quite serious, so she had no choice but to request for another.

"Then you must go quickly!" Zuo Weiyi quickly said. After thinking for a while, she asked again, "Do you want me to go with you?"

She was worried that if the problem was too big for Xiao Cui to solve, she might be able to help her.

Xiao Cui was already very grateful that she could approve her leave. How could she ask for more?

Plus, Weiyi was pregnant now. If anything happened to her if she goes with her, having 100 lives would not be enough to stop Mr. Shi from killing her!

"No, no. I'll go alone. Thank you, Madam! I promise I'll be back before lunch!"

As she said that, Xiao Cui took off her apron and left the seaside villa in a hurry.

Zuo Weiyi was also a little worried.

What could have happened to Xiao Song for Xiao Cui to leave in such a hurry?

...

Xiao Cui drove to the four-star hotel where Xiao Song worked and was brought to a room. Besides Xiao Song, there were a few other people she didn't know.

Seeing Xiao Song, Xiao Cui was a little anxious. "Xiao Song, how are you?"

"I'm fine."

"Who... who are they?"

Xiao Song looked at the other three people in the room. In fact, he didn't know them either.

"I, I don't know them either..."

"You don't know us? My Patek Philippe is worth 3 million yuan. Do you really think you can get out of this just by saying that you don't know us?" A man said.

"I didn't steal your watch!" Xiao Song was nervous as he was accused of something he didn't do!

"You didn't steal it? Then why is it in your pocket? The surveillance camera also revealed that you were the only one who came into my room."

"I was just here to bring you breakfast."

"You don't have to explain so much to me. The police will decide."

The police? Could it be that these people wanted to send Xiao Song to the Public Security Bureau?!

How could this be...?

Xiao Cui was anxious. She looked at Xiao Song and felt a slight pain in her heart. "Xiao Song, you... you actually stole something?"

"I didn't! Xiao Cui, even you don't believe me?" Xiao Song looked extremely hurt.

Even if others did not believe him, surely at least Xiao Cui would?

"You must know that stealing a watch worth three million yuan can take you to jail for more than ten years, right? Or maybe for life..."

"No! I beg you, please don't send him to jail!" Xiao Cui almost broke down.

Xiao Song was only in his twenties, at the prime of his youth. How could he go to jail?

Chapter 627: Conspiracy (1)

The man looked at Xiao Cui and raised his eyebrows. "It's fine if you don't want to go to jail. But you will have to agree to one condition of mine."

Xiao Cui was slightly stunned and at a loss for a moment.

"Me?"

"That's right."

The atmosphere in the room suddenly felt strange. Xiao Cui gradually realized she was now part of the beginning of a conspiracy.

Then, Xiao Cui was taken to another room by two people. Xiao Song started to get a little worried.

Could it be that from the moment they slandered him for stealing the watch, it was already the beginning of their conspiracy?

But why him and Xiao Cui? What were these people trying to do?

Time passed slowly. And at Xiao Cui's request, she was released at 11 o'clock in the afternoon and left the hotel.

"Xiao Cui, are you alright?!" Xiao Song rushed towards her anxiously with a worried face the moment he saw her.

Xiao Cui looked at him but her expression was a little gloomy and colorless, and her eyes were empty.

"I'm fine," she said calmly. Her obviously troubled expression made Xiao Song worried.

"Xiao Song, I have to leave now."

She seemed to have lost her soul. She turned around and left in a daze.

Xiao Song wanted to chase after her, but he was stopped by a man in black from behind.

“What did you do to her?!” Xiao Song was very angry, knowing that something was amiss with Xiao Cui. He wanted to retaliate, but he couldn’t do anything to the other party.

Hearing the commotion behind her, Xiao Cui suddenly turned around. “You’re not allowed to touch him!

“You said that as long as made the promist, you won’t hurt him!”

Looking at her, the man smiled sinisterly. “Don’t worry. As long as you settle the matter, I promise that I won’t hurt your lover. I also promise that he won’t go to jail or lose his job.”

Xiao Cui clenched her fists, gritted her teeth, and left the hotel.

At the seaside villa.

In the living room, Zuo Weiyi looked at the clock on the wall as she sat on the sofa. It was already 11:16 A.M[1], but Xiao Cui hadn’t returned yet.

She couldn’t help but be a little worried. She didn’t know what had happened to Xiao Song.

Just as she was thinking, she heard the courtyard door open.

She got up and walked to the door. Only then did she realize that Xiao Cui had returned.

“Xiao Cui, you’re back!”

Xiao Cui seemed to be completely immersed in her own thoughts. She didn’t notice Zuo Weiyi who was walking towards her. After hearing her voice, she suddenly raised her head, and her expression showed a moment of panic.

Then, she lowered her head, trying to hide her emotions in her heart and calm herself down.

“Madam.”

She responded softly and did not say anything else.

It was rare for her to have such an absent-minded expression. Zuo Weiyi could not help but worry about her.

“What happened to Xiao Song?”

Her concern made Xiao Cui’s heart burn in pain.

“He’s fine.” Xiao Cui responded and lowered her head again, as if she did not dare to look into Zuo Weiyi’s eyes.

Zuo Weiyi quietly stared at her delicate face. Her expression told her that something was wrong.

Or did she and Xiao Song quarrel?

“Are you really fine? You don’t look well.”

Hearing this, Xiao Cui raised her eyes and tried to hide her panic.

“No, nothing. I was just... a little startled.”

Chapter 628: Conspiracy (2)

Upon hearing her words, Zuo Weiyi could not help but frown and stared at her face. “Scared?”

“Yes, it’s Xiao Song. He was accused for stealing something from a customer in the hotel, but the misunderstanding has been resolved,” Xiao Cui said. Afraid that Weiyi would continue to pursue the matter, she bypassed Zuo Weiyi. “I’ll go cook first!”

Zuo Weiyi furrowed her brows slightly as she watched Xiao Cui walk into the room. Although she was still a little worried, since Xiao Song’s matter had been resolved, then things should be fine now, right?

For the rest of the afternoon, Zuo Weiyi felt that Xiao Cui seemed a little abnormal.

She spoke to her several times, but she acted as if she didn’t hear anything.

“Xiao Cui?”

In the evening, Zuo Weiyi couldn’t help but call out to Xiao Cui, who was washing vegetables in the kitchen. She wanted Xiao Cui to cook some fish for dinner since her appetite had gradually recovered after the morning sickness.

Moreover, Yuting wanted to come back for dinner. Shi Yuting had suffered a lot these days.

However, Xiao Cui didn’t seem to hear her even though she had called out several times.

She couldn’t help but call out again. This time, she walked over to Xiao Cui. “Xiao Cui?!”

What was wrong with her today? She had been absent-minded the entire afternoon.

It was only at this moment that Xiao Cui snapped back to her senses. When she noticed Zuo Weiyi standing right next to her, she suddenly looked frightened.

“Ma—ma—ma—”

Zuo Weiyi noticed her abnormal reaction and the tap that was continuously running the water.

Xiao Cui looked over as well. Only then did she realize that she had been in a daze for a long time.

She quickly turned off the tap and lowered her head.

Zuo Weiyi stared at her and frowned. “What’s wrong with you?”

“Nothing, nothing. I’m just... thinking about something.” Xiao Cui looked up at Zuo Weiyi. “I’m sorry, Madam. I’ll make dinner right away.”

Xiao Cui started to prepare the dinner wholeheartedly, completely ignoring Zuo Weiyi who was still standing beside her.

Zuo Weiyi could not help but wonder if Xiao Song’s matter had not been resolved yet. Did she not dare to ask for her help because of her status?

But Xiao Cui refused to tell her, so she did not ask further.

At six o'clock, Shi Yuting returned to the seaside villa.

Xiao Cui stood quietly by the side during dinner. However, when she saw Shi Yuting's cold and emotionless face, she chose to return to the kitchen and act busy with other things.

Zuo Weiyi was a little confused by her reaction.

In the past, she would always stay during dinner, just in case she was needed. But today, she chose to hide in the kitchen. What was going on?

After dinner, Xiao Cui cleaned up the bowls and chopsticks. After tidying up the entire kitchen, she walked to the living room and said to Zuo Weiyi, who was watching TV on the sofa. "Madam, I'm getting off work now."

Zuo Weiyi turned around and looked at her. Then, she suddenly stood up and walked to her side. She held her hand and said, "Come, sit."

Zuo Weiyi sat Xiao Cui down. Zuo Weiyi stared at her and said, "Tell me, is Xiao Song's problem not solved?"

Xiao Cui suddenly looked up and met Zuo Weiyi's concerned gaze.

Her concern made Xiao Cui feel ashamed.

"No, Xiao Song's problem has really been solved. Thank you for your concern, Madam."

Chapter 629: Conspiracy (3)

"Then why have you been so absent-minded all day?" asked Zuo Weiyi.

Knowing that she couldn't hide it from her, Xiao Cui couldn't help but feel a little nervous.

If she told the truth to Madam, then Xiao Song would have to work for the rest of his life...

Thinking of this, Xiao Cui's eyes started to turn red.

She lowered her head, and a teardrop fell out of her eyes.

Zuo Weiyi instantly knew that Xiao Song's matter had definitely not been resolved!

"If you won't tell me, then I'll get Shi Yuting to investigate," Zuo Weiyi switched to goading her.

This move was indeed effective.

Xiao Cui looked at her anxiously. "Don't! I, I..."

Panicked and helpless, Xiao Cui finally opened her mouth, but she still averted her gaze.

"It's just that... Xiao Song's matter has caused the trouble to the client. The hotel manager he works for wants him to compensate some damages, so..."

"How much?"

Xiao Cui raised her head. She had never met such a kind-hearted master.

“10,000 yuan.” She casually said a number so that Zuo Weiyi would believe her.

Because if she said too little, she would obviously not believe her.

After all, with her and Xiao Song’s jobs, even though their salaries were not very high, they could still afford a few hundred or a few thousand yuan.

Of course, 10,000 yuan was not that difficult.

“Because some time ago, Xiao Song bought a house in the suburbs. Every month, he has to pay the mortgage. And last year, I bought a car, so this 10,000 yuan—”

“Wait here.” Before she could finish her sentence, Zuo Weiyi had already gone upstairs.

Even though she had quite a few cards, she didn’t actually know how much each of them contained or what their limits were. So, she could not directly hand them over to Xiao Cui.

She went to the study room and gently opened the door a crack.

Through the crack, she saw Shi Yuting working at his desk. Since he was going to fly to C Country tomorrow, he had been handling some important documents and merger cases for the Supreme Emperor.

She hesitated whether she should interrupt him. As she was thinking, she saw Shi Yuting looking up and staring straight at her.

She paused and remained silent for a few seconds before she opened the door completely and walked into the study room.

Seeing her, Shi Yuting stretched out his hand and motioned for her to come over.

Zuo Weiyi walked over and placed her hand in his warm palm.

Shi Yuting took advantage of the situation and let her sit on his thigh. His eyes looked at her lovingly. “What’s wrong?”

His low, charming, and gentle voice rang in her ears, like the heavenly voice of the world—it was a pleasant pleasure to listen to.

Zuo Weiyi thought for a moment, then raised looked up to meet his deep eyes. “Um, do you have money?”

Shi Yuting raised his eyebrows slightly. “Do you think I have money?”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned for half a second before she reacted.

“No, in cash... 10,000 yuan. Do you have it?”

Shi Yuting frowned slightly. “Cash? What do you need this cash for?”

“Don’t worry about it for now. Just tell me if you have it or not.” She started acting coy. It was hard for Shi Yuting not to spoil her.

Zuo Weiyi was not worried about taking too much of his money, because every time he went out, he didn't seem to have any trouble or hesitation swiping his card.

Shi Yuting looked at her, then immediately took out his wallet from his suit jacket and handed her the money.

Chapter 630

: Conspiracy (4)

"It's all yours," he said dotingly

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised for half a second before she opened the wallet.

Other than a large number of cards of various colors, there was also his ID card.

As for the cash, there was only a little, but there were quite a few foreign currency notes.

She took out his ID card. Why was it that most people's ID photos were uglier than the real person, but his was still so handsome? The difference was too big.

"This belongs to me too?" She took out his ID card and waved it in front of his eyes.

Looking at her pink lips, Shi Yuting couldn't help but kiss her. "Of course."

Zuo Weiyi smiled, her heart felt happy and sweet.

Then, she put away her thoughts and returned to the main topic.

There didn't seem to be 10,000 yuan among the cash.

"This isn't enough..." She looked at him. All of the notes in the wallet only added up to a few dozen thin notes. It wasn't even enough for 10,000 yuan.

Shi Yuting pursed his thin lips slightly. He immediately took the wallet and pulled out twelve foreign currency notes from it.

"Here's the 10,000 you asked for."

Zuo Weiyi was surprised.

Just this little bit was ten thousand? Could he be fooling her?

However, Zuo Weiyi was not familiar with foreign currency. Perhaps there really was ten thousand here.

"Thank you!" Zuo Weiyi took the money from his hand and quickly got down from his leg before rushing out of the study room.

"Be careful!"

His slightly worried voice called after her. Although it had only been four months and her stomach was not very obvious, the way she walked made Shi Yuting's heart jump to the edge of his throat.

Zuo Weiyi, who had just rushed to the door, remembered that there were two little lives in her stomach. She had been too careless just now.

However, she was only impatient because she was afraid that he wouldn't let go of her. Plus, Xiao Cui was waiting anxiously downstairs.

She turned her head and glanced at Shi Yuting. Then, she waved the banknote in her hand. "Thank you, hubby!"

After saying that, she turned around and disappeared from the door of the study.

Shi Yuting was startled.

Immediately, the corners of his mouth curled up. He suddenly remembered that he had forgotten to ask the doctor a question last time.

He picked up his phone and dialed Zhong Shenghao's number.

The phone rang twice before someone picked it up.

"How many months after pregnancy can you have sex?"

At this moment, Zhong Shenghao had just finished his dinner and was sitting in the living room drinking tea.

When he received his call, he didn't have time to say 'Hello'. The tea that he had just sipped instantly spurted out!

Zhong Shenghao wiped his mouth with a tissue before responding. "President, are you trying to show off your love, or are you trying to murder me?"

"It's up to you. Whatever you think is the case."

Zhong Shenghao was speechless.

Well, he could never win against him verbally.

After thinking for a while, Zhong Shenghao said, "I'm not an obstetrician or gynecologist."

"Just tell me," he said in a low voice, obviously he didn't have much patience.

Zhong Shenghao felt that it was indeed an honorable thing to be Shi Yuting's life-and-death friend, but why did he feel like he was being abused and taken advantage of all the time?

"Alright, let me think about it..."

"Three seconds."

"..."

"Three."

"Hey!"

"Two."

"..."

“One.”
