

Kiss Me 71

Chapter 71: Fleeing In Dread

As Zuo Weiyi heard the sound of fabric being torn apart, her face was drained of color.

Snapping out of her shock, she quickly whipped her head back, just to see her gorgeous light yellow georgette blouse was ripped into two.

Damn it!

She was furious, but unease and fear overwhelmed her anger.

She refused to believe that fate was this cruel to her.

Unwilling to give in to her fate, Zuo Weiyi turned her head and saw a bright yellow crystal lamp standing on the bedside table.

Stretching out her hand with all her might, Zuo Weiyi was determined to grab the lamp. There was only an inch left until she could touch it!

Just a little bit left!

Yet, at this moment, someone—probably a guardian angel sent by God—knocked on the door.

Distracted by the sudden interference, Jin Qianba paused for a second. That one second was enough for Zuo Weiyi to grab the lamp and slam it against his forehead.

“Ack!”

Jin Qianba was still in a daze, the pain on his head was the only thing he felt. Soon a trail of blood poured from the wound and dripped onto Zuo Weiyi’s horror-stricken face.

“You b*! How dare you hit me?!” Jin Qianba snapped. His beady eyes were filled with rage.

Jin Qianba wiped the blood on him. Although he was in pain, his fury overpowered his pain.

A layer of coldness was painted in his eyes as he lifted his hand and slapped Zuo Weiyi across her face.

In that instant, Zuo Weiyi’s head spun until she smelled a metallic scent, followed by a color of red that spilled from the corner of her lips.

Rip—

With another forceful tug, the only piece of fabric covering Zuo Weiyi’s body was mercilessly stripped away.

“Resisting me? Let’s see how long you can last!” Jin Qianba bellowed while sticking his face in the crook of Zuo Weiyi’s neck, biting and gnawing at her rosy skin.

The instant Zuo Weiyi dipped her head down, the knocking started again.

The voice of his bodyguard chimed in, “Boss, Miss Kaimi is here. She is waiting downstairs.”

The bodyguards would not have disturbed their boss’s fun if it were not for Kaimi’s arrival.

She was the boss's most important client, so much so that he made an appointment for her. They certainly did not want to take a risk in making Kaimi wait.

After hearing that, Jin Qianba was forced to remove himself from his current position, leading him to cuss in dissatisfaction. "Damn it!"

Even though he was unwilling to, Jin Qianba still got up to meet "Miss Kaimi" that his bodyguard had mentioned.

"Keep an eye on this woman!" Jin Qianba paused at the exit and ordered. With that, the bodyguards all guarded the door, not even a mosquito was able to escape.

When Zuo Weiyi felt the weight on her move away, she sat up in a panic. Tears began to flow down her cheeks uncontrollably, and with the crimson of blood mixed in, she was even more horrified.

Staring at the tightly shut door, she got off the bed and quickly picked up pieces of fabric that once was her blouse. She would never wait here obediently.

However, there were bodyguards outside. How could she escape?

She thought, if her life ended here she would die with thousands of regrets.

She had not sought vengeance for her mother. She had not seen the mother-daughter pair Qiuyun plunge into despair. She had not seen Jiang Huai come begging for her. How could she die without doing all these! Definitely not!

After running through her bucket list mentally, Zuo Weiyi caught a glimpse of a window at the corner of her eye.

She quickly ran to the window and peeked out of it.

Even though they were on the second floor, it would be impossible to not get injured from jumping off a five to six-meter height.

She glanced back at the closed door.

Her fate was now in her hands. Would she choose to die here or take a risk by jumping from the second floor?

There was only one answer. Jump!

Chapter 72: Find That Woman!

Even if she became a cripple from the fall, it would be much better than being murdered and raped by Jin Qianba.

After she was done contemplating, Zuo Weiyi climbed through the window and jumped out without any hesitation.

As soon as she landed, pain struck her leg. Her body slowly lost balance and she fell down the slope that was under the window.

She obtained more wounds when the wild vine and grass pricked her, but she did not make any noise as she forced herself to hold back from yelping in pain so as to not alert the bodyguards of her escape.

It was fortunate for her that the slope was not too long, she immediately got up after the fall, her only thought in mind was to escape this dangerous place.

Yet when she stood up, her right leg was stricken with pain. "Ah!"

Unable to stop herself, she cried out. Zuo Weiyi looked down and saw that a big gash on her right leg. The rain that was pouring down her drenched her clothes, making its way to the wound, causing the injury to be more painful than ever.

She tilted her head up and gazed at the window. She had to leave here!

So, she slowly dragged her feet toward a nearby woods in the rainstorm.

It was night and the woods were dark as it was raining dogs and cats.

She did not dare to step deeper into the woods, but she did not know the path to the exit as well.

The ache in her leg seemed to be numb by now, and her consciousness was fading away...

On another hand.

Shi Yuting was this close to flipping over the entire Xiaoyao Residence.

"Find that woman!"

His roar echoed through the building, filling the owner of Xiaoyao Residence with fear and unease.

Shi Yuting was uncertain about the root of his anxiety.

As he traced Zuo Weiyi's journey, he could not find anything but her horse, not even her.

Maybe she had dismounted from the horse to hide from the rain, but when he realized that the only shelter in the vicinity was Xiaoyao Residence, his anxiety grew stronger.

There was no one clearer than him in what kind of place Xiaoyao Residence was.

"I am asking you, did a young lady come here?"

Seeing the fury on Shi Yuting's face, the owner of Xiaoyao Residence did not dare to raise his voice at him but only complied in obedience. He turned to ask the two bodyguards that stood at the door.

The two bodyguards looked at each other, and the slight change in their expression did not escape the owner's eyes.

"You've seen her?"

"There was a young girl who came here earlier this evening, she was wearing a light yellow blouse..."

As he heard that, anxiety crawled upon Shi Yuting's slit pupils.

"Where is she?!"

The two bodyguards did not wish to upset the owner, they exchanged a look before replying. "She went inside, but we do not know where she went exactly."

The owner of Xiaoyao Residence immediately turned to Shi Yuting after hearing the answer.

"Mr. Shi, please do not worry, I will call upon my man and search this place thoroughly!"

When he finished reassuring Shi Yuting, he quickly turned around to gather all his employees to find Zuo Weiyi.

As long as he was sure that Zuo Weiyi was in this building, she would certainly be found.

Yet he was scared that if this Miss Zuo was...

Would his Xiaoyao Residence be able to continue services?

Mr. Shi never had any female companions around him, so what was behind Miss Zuo's existence?

Looking at Mr. Shi, he obviously cared for her, what should he do now?

"Quick, find a girl who is wearing a light yellow blouse! Take her to me at once when you see her!"

In the lobby, it was the first time that Zhong Chenghao ever witnessed such distraught in Shi Yuting.

Chapter 73: Let Me Meet Your Boss!

After knowing him for a few decades, he had never seen him being this uneasy.

That Zuo Weiyi, what kind of person was she?

Looking at Shi Yuting's enraged expression, Zhong Chenghao could not help but wonder.

On the other hand, Jing Xinlei was in complete disbelief.

Even though they had a history of romance, she had never encountered this frantic side of him.

One person, Zuo Weiyi, had the capability to bring him down to this?

It was not until a few moments later that the bodyguards of Xiaoyao Residence came with news.

"Boss, someone saw Boss Jin bringing a girl into his room, she was wearing a light yellow shirt."

As soon as he reported, Shi Yuting turned his face toward him. His handsome face instantly turned demonic, his eyes were burning with flames of fury.

The owner of Xiaoyao Residence was even more horrified by this report.

Boss Jin?

Everyone knew that eight or nine out of ten ladies that he got his hands on was...

As he thought of the possibility of the outcome, cold sweat formed on Boss Xiao's back. He slowly turned his head, hoping to see Shi Yuting's reaction.

Yet, when he did, he was met with a stone-cold glare.

Visit our comic site Webnovel.live

“What are you waiting for? Find her!” Boss Xiao whipped his head back and commanded.

A few bodyguards hesitated, but finally got into action and rushed to the second floor.

Minutes later, a clamor was raised from the lift.

“What are you doing? Don’t you know who I am?!” Jin Qianba was forcefully dragged over so he was so angry he could punch someone.

He was a VIP in Xiaoyao Residence, no one could do this to him!

Yet the bodyguards could not care less about his threats, only subduing him all the way to the lobby.

“You! Let me meet your boss!” Seeing that the bodyguards did not comply, his rage grew stronger.

“Boss, he is here, but we could not find the girl.” The bodyguard pushed Jin Qianba in front of Boss Xiao and reported the truth.

Jin Qianba tilted his head upward, the anger in his expression was even more apparent once he saw the owner of the residence. “Xiao Yao! How dare you treat me like this?!”

Boss Xiao did not want to aggravate Jin Qianba, but once he considered the thought of angering Shi Yuting instead, he was not concerned about Jin Qianba’s outburst.

He glanced toward Shi Yuting. “Mr. Shi, Jin Qianba is here now, but the lady you are searching for is not in his room.”

After hearing that, Jin Qianba slowly moved his head and saw Shi Yuting with an icy expression.

As he met his frozen glare, Jin Qianba shivered, as though he was doused in ice.

The memory of that woman saying Shi Yuting’s name flashed in his mind. This Mr. Shi, was looking for her?

That woman really had a connection with Mr. Shi?

With him coming to a conclusion and meeting that cold deadly gaze again, Jin Qianba timidly looked at Shi Yuting with cold sweat sticking to his body. “Mr.... Mr. Shi...”

Shi Yuting took a step toward him. His glare could easily penetrate a person’s heart if it was a blade.

“Where is she?”

Jin Qianba was startled.

He was really looking for her?

He had taken away Shi Yuting’s lady, did he still have a chance to live?

Jin Qianba refused to admit his crimes, instead, he feigned innocence. “Who... Who?”

The temperature in Shi Yuting's eyes dropped a few degrees, there was only one consequence if someone lied to him!

He turned around and grabbed the gun from Xiang Yiyao's waist before pointing it at Jin Qianba's knees...

Chapter 74: Here, Mr. Shi!

"Bang!"

A harsh sound of a gun firing echoed, followed by a thud. Jin Qianba was kneeling on the ground, wailing in agony.

"I am asking you again, where is she?!"

As he stared into his cold glare, Jin Qianba did not have the guts to lie again. He finally surrendered and spilled the beans. "I will tell you! She... That woman escaped through the window!"

He answered while observing Shi Yuting's expression.

Yet after listening to his reply, his eyes became frenzied. He then moved the gun to point it at Jin Qianba's left leg.

Seeing the gun's direction, Jin Qianba shuddered in fear and quickly added, "It is the truth! I am not lying! She has escaped through the window... I would not lie to you, Mr. Shi...."

After admitting the truth for the second time, Shi Yuting finally put down the gun and turned to Boss Xiao. "Where does the window lead to?"

Boss Xiao was surprised to hear the truth.

Jin Qianba's room was on the east side of the second floor. If the lady escaped through there, she would definitely be in the back of the mountain.

But the woods were thick, the paths were steep, and it would not surprise him if there were venomous snakes. Did Miss Zuo really escape to that place?

"It leads to the mountain, but..." Gazing at Shi Yuting, Boss Xiao was hesitant of his words.

He only wished Miss Zuo to be safe and well. Judging by Mr. Shi's feelings now, he would definitely be the one to blame for everything!

As though Shi Yuting had seen through Boss Xiao's hesitance, he went silent for a second before leaving Xiaoyao Residence and giving a command.

Visit our comic site Webnovel.live

"Go to the mountain and bring back that woman to me safely!"

As he finished ordering, Shi Yuting marched toward the back of the mountain, without a care for the rain that was battering his body.

Behind him, Jing Xinlei stared at the man who threw away his image to rush into the rainstorm with an aching heart.

He would throw away his reputation for Zuo Weiyi?

How could this happen...

In the back of the mountain.

In the night, gale and storm raged through the sky.

There was no sign of exit among the thick woods.

A torchlight in hand, dozens of men in black made their way through tall weeds in the heavy rain, searching for Zuo Weiyi.

After searching for almost half an hour, there was still no sign of Zuo Weiyi. Shi Yuting's heart could not help but become more irritable.

Yet most of it was just anxiety.

He felt this once, five years ago, when his parents were in a car accident and were lying in the hospital's emergency room...

"Zuo Weiyi!!!" Minutes and seconds passed by, and Shi Yuting became visibly more upset, to the point where he was roaring at the dark jungle.

Xiang Yi, who was not far away, could not help but think of the car accident that had happened five years ago when he saw such a distressed Shi Yuting.

When the chairman was discharged from the emergency room with a piece of white cloth covering him, the frustration and helplessness on Mr. Shi's face were still imprinted in Xiang Yi's mind.

At this moment, although there was no helplessness and frustration, the anxiety in his eyes was exactly the same as the one from five years ago.

Suddenly, Xiang Yi seemed to have stepped on something.

He frowned subconsciously and immediately lowered his head, pointing the flashlight he held in his hand at the thing under his feet.

What was in sight was a pale arm. As the light moved along the arm, Zuo Weiyi's disheveled form revealed itself under the glaring light from the flashlight.

A look of surprise crossed Xiang Yi's face, he quickly lifted his head up toward Shi Yuting who was nearby. "Here, Mr. Shi!"

Chapter 75: A Slight Heartache

Upon hearing the call, Shi Yuting turned his head and walked toward Xiang Yi.

As she heard someone calling her name, Zuo Weiyi, who fainted, slowly opened her eyes. Lights poured into her eyes before a tall figure made its way in front of her eyes.

It seemed like that was Shi Yuting. Was she seeing things?

Or was she in heaven?

“Shi Yuting...” His name spilled from her lips, her voice was as weak and as soft as a mosquito’s buzz.

But Shi Yuting still caught it as he was crouching down to pick her up. His heart tightened, he even stopped breathing for a moment.

Not even a second after, Zuo Weiyi passed out again.

Gazing at her disheveled figure, Shi Yuting frowned in rage. Blood vessels were popping out from his temple, a cold murderous fury was burning behind his eyes.

In the luxurious presidential suite.

Zuo Weiyi was lying in bed, she was still unconscious.

It was a little over ten minutes when the doctor realized that her body was burning up.

At this moment, Jin Qianba was kneeling in the living room, begging the man in front of him with a pathetically desperate expression.

“Mr. Shi, I really didn’t touch Miss Zuo... I swear, I really didn’t touch Miss Zuo!”

If he were to know that woman belonged to Shi Yuting, he would not have dared to grab her to his room.

Though he was blaming everything and everyone else, the one he had to blame was really himself. Miss Zuo did already mentioned Mr. Shi’s name, yet he did not take it seriously.

Shi Yuting looked down at Jin Qianba from the sofa, his dark and narrow eyes were terribly cold.

“Oh? You mean, she tore the clothes on her body herself?”

When he found her and saw the wounds that were covering her body, he thought that the clothes on her body were torn by nature. But when he returned, he found that the clothes were obviously ripped apart!

The only culprit he could think of was Jin Qianba.

Upon hearing that, Jin Qianba paused.

The clothes on her were indeed ripped by him, but he did not have the time to lay a hand on her before she made her escape.

Looking at the man who seemed like a dark lord, Jin Qianba was full of fear.

He timidly glanced at the man, and finally, he obediently opened his mouth to speak after a few moments. "It was me, I... I ripped her clothes apart."

After hearing that, Shi Yuting's eyes grew colder, the murderous glare was even more deadlier.

Meeting that glare, Jin Chengba immediately explained. "But! I really did not touch Miss Zuo!"

"So why did you tear her clothes?" There was no warmth in his voice, giving Jin Chengba goosebumps.

"I..." Jin Chengba paused again, he could not find an answer to that question.

"Mr. Shi, I really did not know that she belongs to you... If I had known, I would not have touched her even if I was granted courage by the gods. Please Mr. Shi, be merciful, spare my pathetic life..."

As Jin Qianba begged, he was one moment short from wetting his pants.

"Sure," Shi Yuting said.

Jin Qianba was not the only one surprised by that, Xiang Yi who was standing nearby was shocked as well.

Was Mr. Shi going to let go of him so easily?

In the next second, Shi Yuting uncrossed his legs and put both of them on the ground. He leaned his body slightly toward the begging figure and asked, "Tell me, which hand did you use to tear her blouse?"

The overjoyed Jin Qianba stopped smiling when he heard him, the realization of the man's intention behind this question dawning upon him.

Chapter 76: I Like An Honest Person

"Are you not going to say anything?" Shi Yuting raised his eyebrows, the corner of his lips lifted ever so slightly that it was almost unnoticeable.

That cold eyes of his screamed nothing but danger.

Upon meeting his sharp glare, Jin Qianba did not hesitate again or even more so feign innocence.

He slowly raised his right hand in fear. "This... This one..."

Shi Yuting grinned. "Good, I like an honest person."

Seeing his smile, Jin Qianba thought his truthful confession had already made up his crimes, and could not help but feel overjoyed.

However, in the very next moment, Shi Yuting took out an exquisite pen from his chest pocket. Jin Qianba only caught sight of the pen when it changed into a small dagger.

Suddenly, with a quick motion, Shi Yuting stabbed at Jin Qianba's raised arm on the coffee table. He then felt a tinge of pain slowly coursing through his whole body after a moment of numbness.

"Ahh!!" When the pain was registered in his brain, Jin Qianba fell to the ground and screamed in pain. Blood gradually splattered from his sliced fingers, staining the pearl white floor in a gruesome crimson.

“Get out!”

Shi Yuting yelled, leading Jin Qianba to tumble out from the room in disarray.

Before he exited, he managed to pick up that three fingers of his that were cut off. It could still be rejoined in the next twelve hours!

Yet, just as he was about to touch his severed fingers, a fancy blade glided through the air and landed on his middle finger.

Jin Qianba suppressed his pain and stopped what he was doing. He turned around and quickly escaped that hellhole.

Even though he had lost his fingers, he did not want to lose his life too!

Where there is life, there is hope. He would take this life and seek vengeance one day.

After Jin Qianba left, someone came to clean up the mess.

Shi Yuting walked into the bedroom as the doctor had just finished examining Zuo Weiyi. Her wounds had already been treated.

Shi Yuting glanced at the unconscious figure on the bed and turned to the doctor. “How is she?”

“The wounds on her knee and arms are light grazings, but the most serious injury is the one on her leg. It was sliced open by something, but I had stitched them up. It is no big deal now.” The doctor looked at Zuo Weiyi before continuing, “She is having a fever now, and will probably stay unconscious for awhile. She will be alright when her fever comes down.”

“You can go out now.”

The doctor nodded and headed out of the room.

Shi Yuting stood in the silent room and gazed at the body on the bed.

He did not know what had gotten into him. When he saw that she was hanging on her life by a thread, his heart was aching slightly.

He turned his head, wanting to ignore this unknown feeling in his chest.

Someone suddenly knocked on the door.

He heard it and headed to the living room, opening up the door just to see Zhong Chenghao and Jing Xinlei standing outside.

“Is she awake?”

Shi Yuting’s face darkened as he sat on the sofa. “Not yet.”

Zhong Chenghao sat in front of him. Looking at his calm expression, everything seemed to have returned to normal.

The unease and anxiety on Shi Yuting’s face had evaporated.

“Ting, you have not eaten dinner, have you? Do you want me to buy some food for you?” Jing Xinlei asked while standing up.

Ever since Zuo Weiyi’s disappearance, he was looking for her and had not had anything to eat.

“No need.” Shi Yuting stopped her and glanced at her injured leg. “Has your leg healed?”

Chapter 77: Do You Have A Pig’s Brain?

Jing Xinlei paused, glanced at her feet, and then smiled a little. “The doctor gave me some medicine, it is alright now.”

Shi Yuting threw her a look but said nothing more.

It was not until the morning of the second day that Zuo Weiyi’s fever finally came down.

At nine o’clock in the morning, she woke up in a daze.

As soon as she opened her eyes, there was no one in the empty room.

Memories from last night flashed across her mind, she frowned slightly and looked around the familiar room.

When she passed out, she remembered that she vaguely saw Shi Yuting, so had she been... saved?

After the fever, she realized that her lips were chapped and her throat was dry.

She got up and got out of bed, trying to quench her thirst with some water.

Yet as soon as she lifted the blanket, she noticed that her whole body was sore.

Glancing down, she saw wounds on her arms and knees, and the most noticeable pain was on the side of her right leg.

She remembered that when she was escaping, her leg was cut deeply.

She frowned when she slowly walked to the door.

At this moment, the doorknob of the bedroom turned.

She paused and looked upward, meeting with a pair of clear eyes and Shi Yuting’s beautiful face.

Seeing that she was out of bed, Shi Yuting frowned slightly and mumbled, “So you are awake.”

Zuo Weiyi was silent for half a second before nodding. “Mhmm.”

“Why did you get up? Lie down! Stay in bed!” He scolded with a domineering tone, a tone that made his commands difficult to ignore. He picked her up and walked toward the bed.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned but still struggled in his arms, “I am thirsty, I need water...”

“I will get it!”

After placing her on the bed, Shi Yuting turned and left the bedroom.

He returned with a glass of lukewarm water in his hand.

He sat by the bed and handed her the glass.

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyebrows, staring at his narrow eyes, stunned.

How did he find her last night?

Zuo Weiyi took the glass, lowered her head, and drank silently. Her heart was filled with mixed feelings.

She thought about last night, for a moment, she really thought she would have died there.

“Do you have a pig’s brain?!”

While she was drinking her water, Shi Yuting who was sitting opposite her suddenly burst out.

Zuo Weiyi raised her head and stared at him blankly. “What?”

“The road signs were so obvious, how could you still get lost?!” He frowned. If he could, he would open up her brain just to see what she was stuffing her brain with.

Upon hearing his words, Zuo Weiyi paused.

Road signs?

Speaking of which, she clearly followed the signs yesterday, so how did she get to Xiaoyao Residence?

She raised her gaze and looked at the man in front of her, “I followed the signs yesterday, but I didn’t know why I headed down the mountain...”

She figured it was strange too. Her English was not that good, but she could still understand what the signs meant.

Her words made Shi Yuting frown harder.

“Are you sure you followed the signs?” This woman could be stupid sometimes, she might have read the wrong sign.

Zuo Weiyi looked at him again. What was with that doubt in his eyes?

“Of course! I’m not a fool!” She glared at him angrily.

“Really? Some things can be uncertain.”

“...”

Zuo Weiyi looked upward, she was speechless from anger.

She got up, refusing to argue with him.

“What are you doing?”

"I am still thirsty, I need water!" After she was done talking, she pretended to get out of the bed.

Shi Yuting held her down and then took the glass from her hand. "Be obedient and lie down, I will get it."

Chapter 78: Why? Don't You Like To Be Spoiled By Me?

After taking the glass from her hand, Shi Yuting got up and left the room.

Looking at his dependable figure, Zuo Weiyi was shocked.

This man, he was inhumanely cruel when he insulted others. Yet when he was gentle, he could touch anyone's heart.

Did he ever treat Jin Xinlei this way in the past?

Lifting her head, she saw Shi Yuting walking in with the glass in his hand. Zuo Weiyi glanced at him, and then took a few sips of water in silence.

"Are you still thirsty?"

"Not anymore."

"Are you hungry?"

Zuo Weiyi paused. Now that he had mentioned that, she was, indeed, hungry.

She nodded hesitantly. "Mm."

Shi Yuting glanced at her before walking out of the room again. After dialing a number, a waiter pushed the dining cart into their room ten minutes later.

The whole cart was filled with different plates of meals with enticing fragrance.

Zuo Weiyi could even smell it from where she was.

After a while, Shi Yuting walked into the room, picked her up from the bed, and walked toward the dining table in the living room.

To be held in his arms like this and looking at his jawline, a strange emotion began to bubble in Zuo Weiyi's chest.

It was no wonder... Could any woman resist such a perfect man like him? And to be held in this way by him!

After she was lightly placed on the beautifully carved dining chair, Zuo Weiyi gazed at the fancy meal. This sight of the food only made her hungrier, she could hardly wait as she grabbed the cutlery on the table.

Yet, before she was able to touch the cutlery, the bowl and chopsticks placed in front of her were forcefully taken away.

She paused and stared at the man in front of her.

“I will do it!” It was that domineering tone again.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

Although she was injured, her leg was the one that was hurt, not the arm...

As she was still in a daze, Shi Yuting had already lifted up a piece of meat to her lips.

Seeing that she was in a stupor, he frowned. “Are you not eating?”

Zuo Weiyi snapped back to reality and looked at the meat for a moment before she opened her mouth awkwardly, “I... can do it myself.”

Upon finishing her sentence, she started to pick up the fork in his hand.

Shi Yuting avoided her hand. “What? Don’t you like me?”

She paused and narrowed her eyes at the man.

“No, I just...”

“Not eating? I’ll get the servants to take it away.” Shi Yuting put down the cutlery and headed for the phone.

Zuo Weiyi was frightened, “No! I’ll eat it!”

She had not eaten anything for almost twenty-four hours, her stomach was withering!

Shi Yuting threw her a look and sat down in satisfaction, feeding her himself.

Eating the meat he fed her, Shi Yuting chewed the meat slowly, sometimes glancing at the man in front of her.

“Can I ask you a question?” After swallowing her food, she asked.

“Yes.”

“Why are you feeding me?”

Upon hearing her question, Shi Yuting paused briefly.

“Why? Don’t you like to be spoiled by me?”

“...”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned, and she felt like it was better if she had not asked him the question.

Fine, it would be better if she just ate her meal in silence.

Looking at her fine-looking face, Shi Yuting frowned.

He actually did not know what was going on with himself.

Even though he knew that her arm was not injured, yet looking at the wounds that were all over her body, he simply felt the need to feed her.

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door.

Shi Yuting frowned and opened the door as he thought it was just Zhong Chenghao.

However, standing outside was the Jiang father-daughter pair!

Upon hearing that Jiang Huaiyuan was heading here, Jiang Tingmei wanted to come along no matter what.

Looking at the man in front of her, Jiang Tingmei could not help but exclaim, "Mr. Shi!"

Chapter 79: Are You Really Not Going To Eat?

Shi Yuting glanced at her coldly before his gaze rested on Jiang Huaiyuan's face.

When he came into contact with his cold eyes, Jiang Huaiyuan smiled. "Hehe, Mr. Shi, I heard that Weiyi was injured, so I came to see her."

Upon hearing that, Shi Yuting glared at him with dark eyes. "She is my woman, and you have no right to see her."

After he finished speaking, he closed the door.

Seeing that the door was closing, Jiang Huaiyuan could not help but feel anxious.

He blocked the door with his hand. "Mr. Shi!"

Looking at the hand that was against the door, Shi Yuting frowned slightly. There was a touch of annoyance between his eyebrows.

At the sight of Shi Yuting's annoyance, he quickly put his hand down.

He timidly opened his mouth again, "Mr. Shi, actually... Weiyi was the one who has asked me to come here."

Hearing this, Shi Yuting frowned slightly and turned his head to look at Zuo Weiyi who was sitting by the dining table.

Immediately, he turned and walked toward the dining table.

Behind him, Jiang Huaiyuan wiped the sweat on his forehead as he saw that Shi Yuting had no intention of closing the door on them, so he followed him into the presidential suite.

Looking at Jiang Huaiyuan and Jiang Tingmei who came in, Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

Then, something came to her mind.

She said that as long as he allowed Qiu Yun and Jiang Tingmei to leave the family safely, she promised to allow Shi Yuting to help Jiang Huaiyuan when he was in trouble.

She thought they would return to the city today, but she had gotten into an accident. Was that why Jiang Huaiyuan could not wait for them to return to the city and came here instead?

Upon entering and seeing Zuo Weiyi by the dining table, Jiang Huaiyuan smiled respectfully. "Haha, how are you, Weiyi? Are your injuries getting better?"

Zuoyi looked at him and before she could answer, the man opposite her prodded a piece of meat at her mouth. "Eat!"

Looking at her intimate actions, Jiang Huaiyuan and Jiang Tingmei who were standing nearby were shocked, their faces filled with surprise.

They were not imagining things, were they?

The president of Di Zun Corporation was feeding a woman dinner!?

Jiang Tingmei felt even more jealous and hateful. She never expected that an illegitimate girl like Zuo Weiyi would be treated this nicely by Shi Yuting. What on earth was happening?!

When there wasn't anyone around, Zuo Weiyi could get used to his intimate actions. However, now that there were guests, she did not feel uncomfortable at all.

So, looking at the food that was served to her, Zuo Weiyi had no intention to open her mouth.

Shi Yuting frowned slightly, his long and narrow eyes staring at her, unmoving.

That gaze seemed to say, 'Are you really not going to eat?'

Zuo Weiyi was startled for a few seconds before forcing herself to accept the meat.

Jiang Tingmei's jealousy was shooting over the roof, even opening her mouth to talk was not easy. "Mr. Shi, we..."

Shi Yuting's cold glare cut the rest of the sentence, terrifying Jiang Tingmei.

But she was still jealous. Zuo Weiyi was just an illegitimate child! She did not deserve to be treated like this!

She, Jiang Tingmei, had a status that was far more honorable than hers!

Jiang Tingmei who was standing nearby gritted her teeth as she witnessed the intimate exchange between Shi Yuting and Zuo Weiyi.

Jiang Huaiyuan did not even have the intention of opening his mouth. He only waited patiently until Zuo Weiyi finished her meal.

"I'm full."

She was actually still hungry, but she could not eat anything with the father and daughter pair staring at her.

"Are you sure?" Shi Yuting raised his eyebrows and gazed at her face.

"Mhmm." Zuo Weiyi nodded.

Shi Yuting did not say anything, instead, he stood up and called a servant to clean up.

Then he picked her up and sat down on the sofa.

Chapter 80: A Mindless Jiang Tingmei

“Mr. Shi... Can we have a seat?” Seeing that the two of them have sat down, Jiang Tingmei asked.

Zuo Weiyi had taken a little over a half an hour to finish her meal. Even though Jiang Tingmei was used to standing in high heels, for her to stand forty minutes in them... Jiang Tingmei could not stand anymore and would like to sit for a while.

Shi Yuting looked at her, a cold grin appeared on his face. “What do you think?”

Seeing that he had directed a smile toward her, Jiang Tingmei was overjoyed. She immediately headed over to a sofa, wanting to sit down.

Jiang Huaiyuan who was the only one who understood his meaning behind Shi Yuting’s words quickly yanked his daughter away from the sofa and scolded, “Tingmei!”

“What?! Didn’t Mr. Shi say we can sit down?!” To be scolded without any reason, Jiang Tingmei was upset.

Zuo Weiyi who was sitting down could not help but chuckle at the dumb Jiang Tingmei. She recalled the sentence that Shi Yuting had said to her this morning.

“You pig-brained woman, when did he say you could sit?”

This woman, she was absolutely mindless.

Jiang Tingmei turned around and was met with Zuo Weiyi’s gaze, only then she realized that she was insulting her. Her face turned red with anger!

“Zuo Weiyi! Who are you insulting?!”

“You.”

“You!” Jiang Tingmei pointed at Zuo Weiyi’s nose, but she was speechless.

At this very moment, looking at these two unreasonable women, Shi Yuting’s expression darkened, and a spark of rage showed in his brows.

Jiang Huaiyuan who was very adept at observing people’s body language saw Shi Yuting’s darkened face. He suddenly pulled Jiang Tingmei and walked toward the door.

“Father, what are you doing!”

“Get out!”

He opened the door and pushed his daughter out.

As he returned, he quickly bowed down and apologized, “Mr. Shi, I apologize terribly.”

Shi Yuting's face was calm once again. "You can leave too."

Jiang Huaiyuan was startled, his expression troubled. "I..."

He turned to Zuo Weiyi.

When she was about to open her mouth, the man next to her stood up and picked her up.

Looking at the woman in his arms, he smiled devilishly. "Recover properly."

Upon finishing that sentence, he took her to the room, leaving Jiang Huaiyuan in shock.

As they entered the room, Zuo Weiyi was shocked too.

Although he had told her before that he would settle everything, she did not know how he would settle it.

Looking at the closed door, Jiang Huaiyuan snapped out of his stupor. Knowing that it would be meaningless to stay now, he turned around dejectedly and left the presidential suite.

It seemed that he can only meet Zuowei in private, or wait for them to return to the city to talk about it.

Due to her injuries, Zuo Weiyi returned to the city on the fifth day.

Although the wound had recovered, there was a pale scar that was five centimeters long left on her right leg. She would definitely look ugly in shorts, wouldn't she?

Sitting in the office, Zuo Weiyi was upset.

A chime of ringtone echoed in the office. Zuo Weiyi lifted her head and saw Shi Yuting looking at his phone with a stunned expression at the office table nearby.

Looking at the familiar number on the screen, Shi Yuting had no intention to pick up his phone.

Zuo Weiyi just stared at him blankly. It was the first time she had ever seen him not picking up a call. Who was it from?

It was already five years since this number had appeared on his phone screen. He did not have to think any further. Zhong Chenghao had definitely given her his number.