

Kiss Me 801

Chapter 801: A Desolate Island

Shi Nuannuan could hardly hold back her tears as she wept in front of Weiyi.

She cried like a helpless child as she grabbed Zuo Weiyi's clothes tightly and leaned on her shoulder, sobbing in pain!

Zuo Weiyi hugged her as if she knew the pain that she had been suppressing and enduring these past few days.

"Sister-in-Law, Brother and Xiangyi... could they...could they have died..." She was so choked up that it was difficult for her to speak.

Zuo Weiyi pressed her lips together tightly. Although she did not cry out loud, her tears could not stop flowing out of her eyes either.

"They won't..." She mumbled. She felt as if her heart was being torn apart, throbbing in pain.

He would be fine. This was his promise to her.

He had always kept his word. How could he die?

Despite Weiyi's words, hi Nuannuan's heartache did not diminish in the slightest.

"But...it's been so many days, and there's still no news from Brother and Xiangyi..."

Previously, they had said that no news might be the best news, but after so many days of searching, she no longer knew whether the saying still held true.

In the end, Weiyi couldn't keep up her self-denial anymore. Was there any other possibility beside being buried at the bottom of the sea?

She heard that some of the surrounding islands had also been searched, but there was still no trace of them.

Zuo Weiyi subconsciously hugged Nuannuan even tighter. Though her nails dug deeper into Nuannuan's skin, the pain was nowhere as much as what they felt in their hearts.

— * * * * —

A few days ago, on a desolate island by the sea.

The gorgeous sunlight shone on a figure on the beach.

Xiangyi opened his eyes with a heavy heart, dazed. As soon as he regained consciousness, a piercing pain immediately came from the wound on his back, and he grimaced in pain!

He looked around and saw an unfamiliar and desolate island.

The moment when the plane exploded suddenly flashed in his mind!

His eyes turned cold as he struggled to support his body. He raised his head and looked around for Shi Yuting.

Midflight, the plane's safety system alarm suddenly rang. Fortunately, he and His Excellency had jumped off the plane together right before the explosion. But the impact of the explosion must have caused burns on his back.

Since it was his back, he could not see the wound and he did not know how many days he had drifted. All he knew was that his back was in pain.

He stood up and looked around for Shi Yuting.

This should be a desolate island. Besides the jungle, there were no signs of human habitation.

He dragged his feet heavily along the beach in search of Shi Yuting.

He should have drifted to the island with the waves, so surely His Excellency would have gone through the same.

Just as he was thinking, Xiangyi's line of sight suddenly caught a glimpse of a figure lying not far away. He straightened his dark face and quickened his pace, intending to sprint over.

"Your Excellency!"

He flew to Shi Yuting's side. The exquisite suits they wore had already dried under the sunlight. They must have been on this island for some time.

Shi Yuting must have heard Xiangyi's calls as he started to frown before he opened his eyes.

"Are you alright?" Xiangyi asked worriedly even though he didn't see any injuries on his body.

Chapter 802: Survival on a Deserted Island

Shi Yuting opened his eyes and looked at Xiangyi. He remained silent and looked around, observing his surroundings.

He stood up as Xiangyi helped him up.

The plane had been attacked and crashed in the early morning yesterday. At this moment, the Sun was setting in the west. It should be afternoon. However, they could not tell what day it was. How many days had it been since they drifted to this island?

Xiangyi exerted some force but the wound on his back started to hurt again. He frowned and his face instantly turned pale.

His lips were also dry and cracked. It was obvious that he was suffering a great deal of pain.

Shi Yuting looked away and asked Xiangyi in a voice deeper than usual.

"What's wrong with you?"

It was obvious from his oppressive tone that he was in a bad mood, but he tried his best to restrain himself.

Although he was a little frustrated, when he saw that Xiangyi seemed to be injured, he naturally could not ignore it.

“Nothing.” Xiangyi tried his best to hold back.

At that moment, they had to return to Z Country immediately. But they did not even know where this island was located.

Shi Yuting’s awe-inspiring eyes swept past Xiangyi’s shoulder. He noticed that the cloth on the latter’s back seemed to be tattered, so Yuting went around to Xiangyi’s side to get a better look. The wound on his back was starting to look ghastly and tragic!

Having undergone hellish training before, he knew that if this wound was not treated in time, half of his body would be crippled!

However, there was nothing on this desolate island that could treat a wound!

Nevertheless, Yuting would not give up. As long as there was food and water, they would survive!

His sharp eyes swept across the entire island before locking on to the jungle behind them.

Although it was deserted, there were still birds and beasts inside. There was also Xiangyi’s wound which needed to be treated as soon as possible! He did not want to see his only sister in agony.

“Let’s go,” said he in a low voice as he walked deeper into the jungle.

He may have photographic memory but he had not been on this island before.

As he walked, Shi Yuting reached into his pockets. He searched every pocket, but could not find his phone. The only thing left in his pocket was a lighter.

What day was it now? Had Weiyi heard of his accident? What kind of mood was she in now? Did she think he was dead? Had his children been born safely?

The more he thought about it, the more uneasy Shi Yuting felt, and his heart tightened.

As the sky gradually darkened, the two of them walked into the depths of the forest. Having undergone training in the wilderness, Shi Yuting naturally knew how to survive.

At night, the two of them lit a fire by the seaside and caught a hare and two snakes.

“Drink it.” said he as he slit the snake’s throat and handed it to Xiangyi.

Xiangyi was stunned. ‘He wants me to drink the snake’s blood?’

Without saying anything else, he took the snake and turned it on its head above his mouth. The bright red blood flowed into his mouth; it made him want to vomit, but he still swallowed it obediently.

Shi Yuting, on the other hand, picked up another snake and swallowed its bright red blood.

If they wanted to leave this deserted island safely, they had to maintain their physical strength and willpower.

“Sir, how should we leave this deserted island?”

At night, it was dark all around. It was so quiet that only the chirping of insects could be heard from the depths of the forest. The only light that could be seen was the shimmering light from the moon reflected off the sea.

At this moment, they were sitting beside a fire by the sea, using it to warm themselves.

Chapter 803: Imminent Danger

Xiangyi's wound was simply treated but the skin on the edge of his wound was already festering, most likely due to exposure to seawater. If it wasn't completely disinfected, it would cause inflammation, and the poisonous bacteria would invade his body and he might only be able to maintain the functions of half his body.

If this was really a deserted island, it meant that very few ships would pass by this place. and the only way they could leave this place was to wait.

"We will have to wait," said Shi Yuting softly.

He believed that his grandfather and the others must be searching for them at this moment.

However, he was worried about Weiyi.

His mind was filled with her crying in heartache. Did she think that he had died in the explosion?

The more he thought about it, the more he wanted to be cut into pieces one by one as the pain pierced his heart.

He suddenly caught a glimpse of the watch on his left wrist. His pupils constricted as he raised his hand to look at the watch that had been specially customized.

"September 26th..."

They had been attacked last night in the wee hours of the morning, which meant that it had already been a day.

This watch had a voice function, and just as he was about to press the sapphire button, he suddenly heard a sound. His eyes turned cold, and he looked up, his sharp gaze staring at the dense jungle behind him.

Xiangyi also sensed that something was wrong, so he turned around and stared in the direction of the jungle with a vigilant expression.

Shi Yuting narrowed his eyes, and an-almost inaudible sound traveled to the depths of his ears. In an instant, he could tell that it was not the sound of an animal moving, but the sound of some kind of weapon.

There was actually someone on this island?

Countless memory fragments were pieced together in his mind, and suddenly, a name appeared in his mind.

This island was not a deserted island, but the island of death located in the northern part of the Western Ocean!

This island had once been removed from the world because the scientists who had come here to explore had never returned. The only one who had escaped was an explorer from 50 years ago. However, not long after he returned, he fell ill and passed away.

After that, there were rumors that this island had a large number of treasures, causing many treasure hunters and explorers to flock to it.

But in the end, they never returned either. Gradually, this island was abandoned by the world, and no one dared to come to this island in the end.

Could it be that they had encountered someone?

That weak sound was getting closer and closer, making Shi Yuting feel a sense of danger.

He suddenly stretched out his leg and put out the fire in front of him. Then, he got up and whispered to Xiangyi. "Go!"

The two of them ran in the opposite direction, but in the next moment, the sound of gunfire came from behind them!

Shi Yuting and Xiangyi sped up and in a flash, they had hidden in the depths of the forest!

However, the enemies behind them did not seem to have any intention of giving up just like that. There was another burst of fierce gunfire in the direction they ran!

"Search! We want to see their bodies, dead or alive!"

Under the dark night sky, the man's face was cold and merciless as he indicated toward where Shi Yuting had disappeared.

"Yes!" The one who nodded was a blonde woman. She was wearing a tight-fitting nightgown and held a silver pistol in her hand. Under the moonlight, it emitted a cold and fierce light!

Deep in the forest.

After running fiercely, the wound on Xiangyi's back was bleeding again. He was in so much pain that he furrowed his brows tightly and his thin lips were chapped. However, he did not dare to slow down his footsteps at all.

Chapter 804: Who Else Could It Be Other Than Shi Tiannan

Sensing that his footsteps had slowed down a little, Shi Yuting looked back. In the dark, he could not see Xiangyi's face clearly, but he could hear his laborious breathing clearly.

The wound must have worsened.

He rejoiced that it was now dark. This way, it would be much easier to hide.

"Come here."

They found the most secluded place until they could no longer see the lights. Only then did their tensed nerves relax. However, at this moment, they were completely exhausted!

“Can you survive?” asked Shi Yuting after an unknown period of time, when the surroundings had died down as Xiangyi leaned against a tree.

They had to find some herbs to give him emergency treatment.

Xiangyi did not speak. He sensed that his wound had festered. On such a deserted island, treatment was as good as ascending to heaven!

In the end, he was only becoming a burden to His Excellency.

“Who are those people?”

“Who else could it be other than Shi Tiannan?” Shi Yuting’s cold voice rang out. In the dark night, his pitch-black eyes shone with a sharp light.

He did not expect that he, Shi Yuting, would be in such a predicament today!

“How does he know that we are not dead?”

“There is a saying, ‘If one’s alive, we will see them; if one’s dead, we will see their corpse.’ Since he did not see our corpses, he naturally believed that we are not dead and will definitely pursue us till the end. He will not let me return alive.”

Shi Tiannan knew very well that once he had restored all his forces, he would definitely use all his power to annihilate them in one fell swoop!

Shi Tiannan had always wanted Yuting dead, so this was the best time to exterminate him. Naturally, he would not let him return to Z Country alive!

He had been monitoring him from the very beginning when the plane exploded and crashed.

‘Shi Tiannan, you are really ruthless.’

Under the night sky, Shi Yuting’s cold eyes suddenly revealed a threatening cold light. His killing intent emitted in all directions. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly as he pulled out an extremely dangerous smile.

His life was not up for Shi Tiannan to decide!

Early in the morning, a ray of light came from the east, passing through the dense forest.

The moment the sun rose, it was their crisis.

Even though their eyes were closed, their nerves did not relax for a moment, and they had been tensed together the entire night.

Shi Yuting slowly opened his eyes, only to see Xiangyi standing up, as if he was about to leave.

“Where are you going?”

His deep and menacing voice rang out behind him, causing Xiangyi to stop in his tracks.

Xiangyi turned around and met Shi Yuting's unfathomable eyes.

He thought that Yuting was asleep.

"I...your subordinate just woke up."

Shi Yuting looked askance at him, his long and narrow eyes narrowing slightly, as if he was trying to detect something from Xiangyi's guilty gaze.

Then, he stood up and walked in another direction.

"Sir, where are you going?"

Last night, Shi Tiannan's people had discovered their existence, so this island was a threat to them!

Seeing him leave alone, Xiangyi couldn't help but be a little worried.

"I'm looked for a way to treat your wound." Shi Yuting stopped, but didn't turn around. Then continued walking.

It was too dark last night for them to find a proper shelter.

Therefore, they had to wait till morning to find such a place, as well as herbs to treat Xiangyi's wounds.

Chapter 805: Think About Nuannuan

As soon as the sun rose, he noticed that Yuting's mood was fowler than yesterday!

"Sir."

Just as Shi Yuting was about to take a step forward, Xiangyi suddenly called out to him from behind.

"If it's just you—"

"A man shouldn't say such useless words so easily." Before he could finish his sentence, Shi Yuting suddenly turned around and stared straight at Xiangyi with his dark eyes, "What you need to do now is to think about how to survive, not self-destruction."

His words made Xiangyi suddenly startled.

His Excellency had actually seen through his thoughts.

"But—"

"Think about Nuannuan." Shi Yuting interrupted him again before he continued to walk.

Xiangyi's heart tightened and he stood rooted to the ground.

Shi Nuannuan's innocent look appeared in his mind.

Did she think he was dead at this moment? Would she cry? Would she be heartbroken because of his death?

He had to go back alive!

He looked up at Shi Yuting's back and followed him closely.

Half an hour later, they found a relatively hidden cave and some herbs.

Xiangyi couldn't help but be stunned as he watched Shi Yuting chew up the herbs. His Excellency was so familiar with such methods.

"If you're lucky, these herbs will alleviate your pain, but they won't save your life," said Shi Yuting as he applied the medicine on him.

Then, he glanced at the white shirt under his coat.

"Take it off."

Xiangyi was stunned. He didn't understand what he meant.

"What...what are you doing?"

Shi Yuting continued indifferent, "Very good. You're still in the mood to let your imagination run wild. That means you're in good spirits."

"Don't tell me you want me to take off my jacket to bandage your wound?"

Xiangyi was stunned for half a second before he hurriedly took off his jacket and shirt.

After bandaging the wound and resting for a while, Xiangyi could clearly feel that the wound was not as painful as before.

"So now we wait?"

"Otherwise, do you still expect Shi Tiannan to send us back?"

They were unarmed now and were no match for Shi Tiannan. This cave was their only safe haven for now.

Since Shi Tiannan knew that they were on this island, he would definitely search for them in all directions.

And just as expected, they heard a commotion coming from outside soon after!

"Let's go!"

The other end of the cave was a dead end, so there was only one exit. If they were to wait for Shi Tiannan to find them, they would have no way out, so they had to leave before they were discovered.

However, just as the two of them escaped, Shi Tiannan's men heard movement and they would not let up, be it human or beast!

Suddenly, there was another burst of rapid gunshots behind them!

Just when they thought that they were going to escape from Shi Tiannan's pursuit, more than ten figures appeared in front of them. In an instant, they were in a dilemma, and danger lurked everywhere!

Looking at the gradually approaching figures, Shi Yuting conjured a plan in his mind.

“Your life is really big. Even if the plane exploded and crashed, it would not be able to kill you!” said a figure not far away, slowly walking over.

Shi Yuting recognized the voice in an instant. It was the former minister, Tengtang Li!

Seeing the person who came, Shi Yuting sneered, “Tsk, that’s because you guys aren’t good enough!”

Chapter 806: Is Death Imminent?

Yuting’s arrogant and unbothered demeanour made Tengtang Li clench the gun in his hand tightly.

He thought of his granddaughter’s death—she was his only family member, yet she died so miserably!

Although he hadn’t found out the truth, his granddaughter’s death was definitely caused by Shi Yuting. Today, he wanted to seek justice for his granddaughter and make Shi Yuting pay with his life!

“He’s about to die, yet he’s still smiling.”

Tengtang Li held the gun in his hand and took a few steps forward.

Despite facing the siege of more than a dozen men in special military uniforms, Shi Yuting and Xiangyi did not show the slightest fear on their faces. However, their entire bodies were tense, just in case the bullets start to fly over!

They were currently unarmed. If they were to fight like this, their chances of winning were too low. If they were not careful, they would be penetrated by the bullets and die here!

“Dying?” Shi Yuting let out a sneer. “That depends on whether you are capable or not.”

As he said this, his slender fingers moved the lighter in his hand, but his expression did not change. To catch a thief, one must first catch the leader. If one wanted to break through the encirclement, success or failure depended on this one move!

Hearing this, Tengtang Li could not help but let out a cold laugh. “Heh! It seems that you, Shi Yuting, only know how to talk big. Do you think that the two of you can easily escape from my grasp?”

Shi Yuting suddenly laughed coldly.

Tengtang Li’s expression turned serious, and he was a little displeased. “What are you laughing at?”

Shi Yuting raised his eyes. A cold light shot out from his sharp eyes, making people shudder. It was as if a cold air had penetrated his body, and they felt an unprecedented pressure!

He did not speak, and Tengtang Li became even angrier!

Yuting figured that Shi Tiannan was not there. Even now, he still did not dare to face him.

“Xiangyi.”

He suddenly spoke. His voice was so soft that only Xiangyi, who was beside him, could hear it.

When Xiangyi heard this, he turned to Yuting with a vigilant gaze. However, he did not speak again. He just stared straight at Tengtang Li in front of him.

Xiangyi was a little puzzled. He suddenly noticed that Yuting's hand was fidgeting with something.

It was the lighter. What was Yuting planning?

Looking at his stern and indifferent face, Xiangyi instantly understood.

He wanted to use that lighter to break through the encirclement? However, there were more than a dozen special forces soldiers in front of them. If they failed, they would be penetrated by countless bullets.

Would there be a chance of victory?

Xiangyi's muscles tensed up.

It was at least better than waiting for death.

With his personality, how could His Excellency be willing to fall into the hands of Tengtang Li and Shi Tiannan? His words just now were very obvious. They simply were not worthy to take his life!

Did His Excellency call him just now to prepare him to break out of the encirclement as soon as there was an opportunity?

"Shi Yuting, today, I will make you pay for everything you did to my granddaughter!"

Looking at the silent duo, Tengtang Li suddenly raised the gun in his hand, aimed it at Shi Yuting and pulled the trigger!

At the critical moment when the bullet was shot, Shi Yuting quickly raised his hand and flicked out the lighter in his hand to meet the bullet!

The reason he had angered Tengtang Li was to let him shoot first so that they had a chance of winning!

All of a sudden, there was a loud explosion in the air!

Chapter 807: Their Success or Failure Depended on this One Move!

Everyone's nerves tensed up, thinking that a big explosion was about to happen. They could not help but subconsciously cover their heads with their arms. Shi Yuting and Xiangyi took the opportunity to snatch a gun each from the men.

Before that group of people could react, they saw the bullets in their hands shoot randomly!

Though it seemed random, every shot fired hit the enemy's heart accurately. In a moment, half of the enemy had fallen!

"Damn it!"

Knowing that he had been tricked and that the gun in his hand had been snatched away by Shi Yuting, Tengtang Li could not help but curse in a low voice. He was about to reach out and pull out the other pistol at his waist!

However, just as he reached out his hand, a muzzle was suddenly pointed between his eyebrows.

His entire body was stunned and he did not dare to act rashly again!

Shi Yuting's lips curled into a sneer. "I've said before that you are not worthy of taking my life so simply."

Looking at the smile on the corner of his mouth, Tengtang Li was so angry that his entire body was trembling. His fists were clenched tightly, but he did not dare to act rashly.

He knew that with Shi Yuting's ruthlessness, as long as he moved, the bullet would pierce through the space between his brows in the next second!

He had been too careless, and had actually played right into his hands!

At this moment, Tengtang Li did not dare to move, but he wanted nothing more than to tear him into pieces!

However, Shi Yuting did not intend to kill him because if they had come to this island, it meant that they had the means to leave.

"Tell them to leave, or else I'll shoot you!" His voice was cold and merciless as he ordered Tengtang Li.

Tengtang Li naturally wasn't willing to die like this. He hadn't avenged his granddaughter yet!

Shi Yuting slowly turned around and looked at the remaining enemies in front of him. Xiangyi stood beside him, paying attention to the enemies who were waiting for an opportunity to ambush them.

"All of you, retreat," Tengtang Li instructed his people with lingering fear.

When he thought of Shi Yuting's decisive way of doing things, it would be a lie to say that he was not afraid. After all, none of the people who offended Shi Yuting had a good ending. His granddaughter and Shi Tiannan, who was supposed to be his big brother, knew that anyone who went against him would not be let off easily. And now, Yuting even seemed like he was going to kill him!

However, despite Tengtang Li's orders, the enemy in front of him had no intention of backing down.

Tengtang Li's eyes turned cold. "Didn't you hear me? I told you to retreat?!"

At this moment, the blonde woman in black tights suddenly smiled coldly, "Tengtang Li, we only listen to our master. You can die in peace!"

As soon as the blonde woman finished speaking, she quickly raised the gun in her hand and fired at Xiangyi and Tengtang Li!

As long as their true master gave the order and there was still a chance to kill Shi Yuting, they would do anything!

Tengtang Li was just a chess piece to them!

Amidst the rain of bullets, Tengtang Li did not have time to react or be angry. His body immediately became penetrated by countless bullets!

Never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that these people in special military uniforms, who were originally his subordinates, would now listen to Shi Tiannan's men and shoot at him. The anger made his eyes turn red, but he could only go to hell with this regret!

When the bullets flew over, Shi Yuting could only pull Tengtang Li as cover, and only Xiangyi was fighting with the enemy!

"Sir, I'll cover you!"

Seeing that they were at a disadvantage, Xiangyi's only thought was to let Shi Yuting leave this place safely. This was also part of his duty.

Chapter 808: Do You Want to Go Back?

"No, there's no need!" Shi Yuting's expression turned cold as he mercilessly pulled the trigger in his hand.

Just like that, the two sides fell into a fierce battle.

After a round of fighting, there were only two enemies left.

At this moment, Shi Yuting's pistol was already empty. Xiangyi looked at his gun and saw that there was only one bullet left, but the enemy had two more!

"Sir, I only have one bullet left."

"Do you want to go back?" asked Shi Yuting suddenly.

Xiangyi was startled and a little puzzled by Yuting's words.

Go back? Of course he wanted to.

"Yes."

"Then let's fight!" Shi Yuting's eyes suddenly turned cold. He fixed his gaze on the two figures who were approaching them with guns not far away!

There was only one bullet. Even if they shot one of the enemies right now, their position would definitely be rained upon by the machine gun in the next second. Therefore, the only way now was to move separately.

"Sir, you take this." Xiangyi tried to leave the remaining bullet for Shi Yuting, but was rejected by him.

"No."

As soon as he finished speaking, Shi Yuting had already stood up and quickly scuttled to another direction in the bushes, deliberately attracting the enemy's attention.

The blonde woman heard the movements and focused towards it.

"Bang!"

Just then, a gunshot came from behind her. The blonde woman turned her head and saw that her only remaining companion had been shot between her eyes!

She turned pale with fright and was about to shoot in the direction of the bullets. However, in the next second, a force suddenly came from behind and grabbed the gun from her hand.

If the gun was taken away, she would be the only one who would die. Thinking of this, the blonde woman could not help but quickly pull the trigger, and bullets flew out continuously!

However, because Shi Yuting controlled her, every bullet was aimed at the sky and did not hurt Xiangyi.

“Sir!”

Taking advantage of the opportunity, Xiangyi picked up a gun from the hand of the enemy who had just fallen. However, because the two of them were entangled and were swaying back and forth, it was difficult for him to shoot. If he missed and hit Yuting, then he would become a sinner for all eternity!

He had no choice but to call out.

However, who knew that the moment he opened his mouth, the blonde woman also took action. Her expression turned cold as she suddenly raised her leg and fiercely kicked at Shi Yuting’s lower body!

Fortunately, Shi Yuting was even more agile than her. He exerted force with both of his arms and pushed the golden-haired woman away. After avoiding her attack, he lifted the golden-haired woman up and threw her out with force!

The woman crashed into a big tree and just as she fell to the ground, Xiangyi mercilessly shot her with a bullet straight into her heart!

In an instant, the blonde woman died with her eyes wide open! She lay motionless under the big tree.

After taking care of all the enemies, Shi Yuting heaved a sigh of relief.

But he did not dare to stop for a moment.

Shi Tiannan did not come, which meant that it was not appropriate to stay here for long.

“Go out what they used to get to the island.”

As they spoke, the two of them walked to either ends of the island.

They had not seen any helicopters or ships where they were previously, which meant that these people did not arrive from there.

Xiangyi nodded and followed Shi Yuting’s footsteps.

Thinking of being able to leave this island, Shi Nuannuan’s innocent face flashed through Xiangyi’s mind unconsciously.

Just as he turned around, he heard another sound coming from behind him.

Chapter 809: Before the First Wave Had Subsided, Another Had Risen

He stopped in his tracks and frowned in slight confusion before turning around. Not far away, Tengtang Li suddenly pulled out a gun and aimed it at Shi Yuting’s back.

“Sir, be careful!”

As Xiangyi cried out in alarm, Shi Yuting turned around and saw Xiangyi suddenly pounce on him, followed by the sound of gunshot!

“Ugh!”

Xiangyi let out a muffled groan, but the moment he fell to the ground, he still raised the gun in his hand and aimed it between Tengtang Li’s eyes, blowing his head off!

Tengtang Li died on the spot!

“Xiangyi!”

Shi Yuting came back to his senses and saw Xiangyi’s arm bleeding non-stop. Cold sweat was breaking out on Xiangyi’s forehead, and his face was frighteningly pale!

The bullet hit where he was already injured. Under the intense pain, Xiangyi felt his vision blur before he lost consciousness and fell to the ground..

“Xiangyi!” Shi Yuting roared and clenched his fists!

He envisioned his sister Nuannuan’s heartbroken look as he looked at Xiangyi’s state.

He dragged the unconscious Xiangyi to the side and let him lie down. He had experienced this kind of injury before. The most important thing now was to stop the bleeding and take out the bullet!

He needed a knife and fire.

He raised his head and glanced at the corpses lying on the ground. They should have these things on them.

He walked over and searched the bodies of those people a few times. Sure enough, he found a lighter, a dagger, and even some medicine to heal wounds! This was simply a treasure to him now!

He lit the lighter and disinfected the sharp edge of the knife. Then, he took out the bullet.

At this moment, Shi Yuting was only glad that Xiangyi was now unconscious and could not feel any pain. Otherwise, without anesthetic, this kind of pain would be unbearable even for a real man like him!

He took out the bullet, applied the medicine, and tore some cloth from the enemies’ bodies. After bandaging Xiangyi, Shi Yuting felt exhausted!

He sat down and wanted to rest for a while before looking for Tengtang Li’s mode of transportation.

However, just as he closed his eyes, a voice suddenly traveled into the depths of his ears.

His nerves tensed up, and his eyes turned cold. He suddenly opened his eyes and saw that not far away, a huge monster had darted out from the depths of the jungle and was approaching him slowly.

Shi Yuting clearly saw the huge creature roar and open its mouth, revealing its sharp fangs.

It was a huge black bear, so big that even Shi Yuting was a little shocked!

Could it be that this black bear was the one that deterred others from this island?!

However, before he could think, the black bear let out another long roar. From the sound of it, it was not hard to tell that it was in a bad mood!

Bears were carnivores, so Shi Yuting did not believe that it would let him go.

However, if he wanted to deal with this big black bear, his chances of winning were almost... zero.

Damn it!

Shi Yuting clenched his fists.

He, Shi Yuting, did not want to die under the fangs of a beast!

From the corner of his eye, he glanced at the unconscious Xiangyi. He had to lure the bear away, otherwise Xiangyi might become its meal.

His sharp eyes stared straight at the bear. Shi Yuting found the right moment and clenched a medium-sized dagger in his hand!

Chapter 810: The Battle with the Bear

He then slowly moved, trying to draw it away in another direction.

However, just as he moved, the black bear suddenly stopped roaring. In the next second, it suddenly charged in Shi Yuting's direction!

Sensing the black bear's movements, Shi Yuting's entire body tensed up. This fierce beast was much bigger than when he had experienced the hell-like training previously. He had no chance of winning at all!

However, he was not a person who was willing to sit and wait for death!

With a flash, Shi Yuting dodged the sharp claws and teeth. He jumped up in joy, but before he could stabilize himself, the black bear seized the opportunity to pursue him and pounced on him again. This time, it revealed its sharp fangs!

Seeing that there was nowhere to hide, Shi Yuting quickly raised his hand and stabbed the dagger in his hand towards the black bear's chest!

However, this slash infuriated the black bear even more. It let out a loud growl, and the attacks that followed were simply too hard for Shi Yuting to defend against. Unable to dodge in time, the black bear raised its claws and teeth, and ruthlessly slapped Shi Yuting's right shoulder.

He fell to the ground with a pained expression, but the black bear did not seem to have any intention of letting him off just like that. It once again pounced forward, taking advantage of victory to once again reveal its sharp fangs towards Shi Yuting!

The black bear opened its savage mouth, as if it could tear a person to shreds with a single bite!

Shi Yuting could not guard against it, and instinctively stretched out his left hand to defend himself!

In less than a second, he clearly felt a sharp pain on his wrist!

Fortunately, he was wearing a specially tailored watch on his wrist, and the sharp fangs of the black bear fiercely bit the watch, reducing the amount of damage to his hand.

However, the watch was bitten to pieces, and Shi Yuting's hand was still injured. Yuting only let out a muffled groan, not letting his guard down in the slightest.

Finding the right time, he raised the dagger in his right hand and stabbed fiercely at the black bear's eye!

Since ordinary attacks had no effect on it, he could only stab its eye blind.

After being stabbed in the eye, the black bear once again let out an enraged roar. At this moment, it was even more furious!

Shi Yuting took advantage of the situation and continued to attack. He pulled out his dagger and ruthlessly stabbed towards the other eye of the black bear!

Both of its eyes were directly blinded. At this moment, the black bear could no longer see anything. It could only randomly bare its fangs and brandish its claws, letting out a roar.

Shi Yuting took the opportunity to take a few steps back. He covered his injured hand and quietly stayed by the side. He was already panting and exhausted!

Having lost both its eyes, the black bear seemed to have its fangs pulled out.

It lost control and rammed around wildly, as if it wanted to escape from here. However, it could not see anything. Its huge body rushed forward and crashed into a big tree, then fell to the ground.

However, the black bear did not give up. It got up again and rammed around wildly again.

There were already many trees in the dense forest. After a few collisions, the black bear's head was already bleeding. In addition to the serious injuries on its eyes, it had already fallen to the ground. It was exhausted and looked like it was on the verge of death.

It was not until this moment that Shi Yuting finally let out a sigh of relief. He felt that the crisis had been resolved.

However, at this moment, he was also riddled with injuries. His arms and palms were covered in wounds. His entire body collapsed on the ground and he felt his consciousness gradually fading. In the next moment, his vision turned black and he had already fainted.
