

Kiss Me 811

Chapter 811: Hope of Leaving this Island

When he woke up again, the dense jungle was already pitch black. He could only see threads of moonlight shining through the trees.

The moment he opened his eyes, Shi Yuting slowly sat up and the first thing he thought of was Xiangyi.

He stood up and used his sense of direction to search for Xiangyi.

Shi Yuting's heart finally settled down when he saw Xiangyi's body lit under the moonlight.

It had been seven or eight years since Xiangyi had followed him. Although they weren't really brothers, they had gone through thick and thin together. The bond that had developed between them over the years would not allow Yuting to just abandon Xiangyi.

He caressed Xiangyi's forehead. There was no fever, which meant that his wound had not worsened.

Exhausted, he sat down next to Xiangyi and leaned against the big tree. But he couldn't relax, not even a little, due to the previous appearance of the black bear.

He did not know if there was a second or third black bear on this island, or if there were other ferocious beasts in the forest.

He glanced at the watch that had been bitten by the black bear on his wrist. This was his only hope of leaving this island, and it had already been destroyed.

Last night, he had tried calling Weiyi via her ruby, but it seemed that she had not brought the watch with her as no one had picked up the call.

Now that he thought about it, ever since she had returned to Z Country, she had not brought the watch that he had specially made for her with her. And based on how much time had passed, she should still be in the hospital.

Grandfather must have been looking for him everywhere, and Mother and Nuannuan must be taking care of Weiyi in the hospital. Other than the maids and the housekeeper, there should not be anyone else in Shi Mansion.

Thinking of Weiyi's heartbroken look once she found out that he might have died, Shi Yuting's heart felt a tight twist, and it was almost painful.

The night was gradually deepened. Even though he did not dare to relax, he was not physically strong. Plus, he had not eaten or drunk for a day, so he gradually became sleepy. Feeling tired, he slowly closed his eyes again.

...

In the early morning, a ray of bright sunshine shone on his tattered suit jacket.

When he opened his eyes, it was so quiet that only the sound of waves and birds could be heard.

Shi Yuting's lips were chapped and he struggled to get up. Fortunately, there were only some superficial wounds on his body and he was fine.

He turned around and found that Xiangyi was still unconscious.

He walked to the enemies who had been killed yesterday and searched them, but they had no water or food.

Although he could still tolerate not eating or drinking for a day, he needed physical strength to find a way out of the island.

His looked at the dead black bear, and he smiled sarcastically. Was this a sliver of God's favor for him?

Exhausted, he was in no condition to catch other food, so he walked over and used a dagger to cut off a piece of meat from the black bear. Then, he found some wood to burn and roasted the bear meat to eat. Only then did he manage to maintain his strength.

His body was extremely dehydrated, but at this moment, all he could see was seawater.

Xiangyi was still unconscious, but there was nothing Yuting could do except wait. He did not dare to leave Xiangyi alone to find Tengtang Li's transport. What if a few more beasts appeared? Wouldn't Xiangyi become their food?

And even if he tried to carry him out, he would only give up halfway through with his current physical state. If he gave into his exhaustion, they would truly be hopeless.

Chapter 812: The Watch's Existence

In the end, Yuting would just have to wait next to the unconscious Xiangyi.

Either he waited for his grandfather's people to come, or he waited for Xiangyi to wake up before the two of them went to find a way to leave.

Time passed and another day had passed, but Xiangyi still had not woken up.

The watch was already broken and Yuting had lost track of time.

It was not until evening that Xiangyi finally woke up.

...

A week later.

Zuo Weiyi's wound was recovering very well, and the babies' physical development was also progressing well.

In the morning, Zhong Shenghao told her that her blood test results revealed no abnormalities, and she could be discharged at noon.

In the ward, Shi Nuannuan helped her pack up her clothes. But in just a few days, she had already become much more haggard.

"Sister-in-Law, do you still want to bring these fruits back?" asked Shi Nuannuan to Zuo Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi turned around and looked at the fruit basket on the table. It was a gift from her best friend Xingchen.

Although Shi Mansion had a lot of fruits, she naturally would not throw away this gift.

“Yes, let’s bring it back.”

Zuo Weiyi watched Nuannuan pack up. Suddenly, she noticed something familiar on her!

It was the watch on Shi Nuannuan’s left hand!

She remembered that when she was in C Country, Shi Yuting was afraid that she would be in danger, so he specially made a watch for her that had a tracking device and voice function!

But after the misunderstanding and small fight she had with Yuting, she had not worn the watch upon her return to Z Country!

“Nuannuan!” Zuo Weiyi became excited at the thought of this glimmer of hope.

Shi Nuannuan was slightly startled by Weiyi’s sudden exclamation as she turned around in confusion.

“What’s wrong?”

“Can you do me favour? There’s a black box in the drawer of the dressing table in my room. There’s a watch in it. Can you help me bring it over?” asked Weiyi anxiously.

Even though she was going to be discharged from the hospital and return to Shi Mansion at noon, she could not wait for even a second!

She remembered that Shi Yuting always wore the watch on his hand. If he was safe and the watch had not been damaged, it would definitely be able to connect and locate him!

Her watch did not have a tracking function, but it could dial his number. As long as it could connect, she would be able to know where he was right now.

Seeing how anxious she was, Shi Nuannuan was a little confused. “A watch?”

Zuo Weiyi was so anxious that tears filled her eyes.

She nodded heavily. “Yes, your brother specially made that for me. I will be able to talk to him with it!”

Hearing this, Shi Nuannuan’s pupils dilated and she nodded. “Okay, I’ll go back and get it right away!”

She turned around and rushed to the door of the ward, her heart filled with excitement!

If Weiyi could connect with Yuting, that meant that she would also be able to know about Xiangyi.

Just as she rushed to the door, she bumped into Shen Lanzhi who was about to walk in!

Shen Lanzhi staggered a few steps and was about to fall. Fortunately, Zhong Shenghao had accompanied her and reached out to help her in time!

When she steadied herself, she realized that it was Nuannuan who had just bumped into her, albeit looking very anxious.

Chapter 813: The Last Glimmer of Hope Had also Been Destroyed

“Nuannuan, where are you going?” Shen Lanzhi knew that Nuannuan was not the kind of girl to just run off after bumping into someone, let alone her own mother.

But Shi Nuannuan did not even have the time to speak. She just rushed towards the elevator.

Shen Lanzhi was confused. She did not know what had happened to her all of a sudden.

Shen Lanzhi walked into the ward and saw that Weiyi was dressed and looked anxious as well.

“Weiyi, what happened to you?” asked Shen Lanzhi worriedly.

Zuo Weiyi looked at Shen Lanzhi. For a moment, she didn’t know what to say.

She had been so immersed in her own sorrow that she had forgotten about the watch. Though she knew about it now, could it be that she had already missed the opportunity to contact Shi Yuting?

The more she thought about it, the more uneasy her heart felt.

Shen Lanzhi was still confused.

Forty minutes later, Shi Nuannuan rushed into the hospital ward looking anxious while holding a watch with a pink gem embedded in it.

“Sister-in-Law!”

She rushed to the bedside and handed the watch to Zuo Weiyi because she did not know how to use the functions on it.

Zuo Weiyi’s hands were trembling when she took the watch. She immediately pressed the pink gemstone and held her breath, waiting for it to be connected.

However, she only heard a mechanical voice. “Sorry, the system you are calling has been terminated.”

Zuo Weiyi’s heart trembled.

How could it be terminated?

Shi Nuannuan also looked at Weiyi blankly. “Sister-in-Law, what... what does this mean?”

Her fingers seemed to have lost their strength as the watch slipped from her palm.

Although she did not know why this was happening, the absence of Shi Yuting’s voice meant that the call had failed. In other words... the watch on his wrist had already been damaged?

Shi Yuting once said that the watch was waterproof and wouldn’t break even if it fell into the sea.

But now, it had failed.

Her heart sank in an instant, suffocating her.

“Weiyi, what is this watch for?” Zhong Shenghao couldn’t help but ask when he saw her pained expression.

From her face, Shi Nuannuan also realized that their only hope had been destroyed.

Could it be that her brother and Xiangyi had really..

No, that was impossible.

A week had passed but their bodies hadn't been found, be it by her grandfather's or national forces. If there were no bodies, there was no guarantee that they are dead. It just couldn't be!

"It's okay." Zuo Weiyi forced back the tears in her eyes.

She didn't want to talk about the watch. She didn't want Shen Lanzhi to suffer the same after hearing about it.

She turned her head and looked at Shen Lanzhi and Zhong Shenghao.

"Can I be discharged?"

Zhong Shenghao looked at her. Although it was only for a moment, her expression told him that there was something amiss with the watch.

But since she didn't want to tell him, he didn't ask anymore.

Instead, he nodded. "Yes, I've already gone through the discharge procedures."

Zuo Weiyi took a deep breath and tried hard to hold back the tears in her eyes. "Then let's go."

She got up from the bed as Shi Nuannuan watched her. She knew that she hid the matter of the watch because she didn't want Mommy to suffer the pain of despair again.

Chapter 814: Leaving the Hospital

However, her tears could not stop flowing down.

Even though she did not mention anything, Shen Lanzhi still sensed something. She looked at the watch again but chose to remain silent about it in the end.

Weiyi carried the children and walked out of the hospital's main entrance. She sat in the limousine and looked at the faces in her arms that looked extremely similar to Shi Yuting's. But this only made Zuo Weiyi's heart feel like it was being pricked by a needle.

When she returned to Shi Mansion, Shen Lanzhi told her to lie on the bed and not get out unless it was necessary.

If it were any other day, the entire Shi mansion would definitely be filled with joyous laughter. But now, it was filled with a gloomy atmosphere.

At noon, Shen Lanzhi brought a bowl of pig's trotter soup over. Zuo Weiyi looked at it without appetite. But when she saw the kindness and sincerity on Shen Lanzhi's face, she drank up the soup by the spoonful.

However, after taking two mouthfuls, her stomach suddenly churned and she felt nauseous.

She put down the bowl and rushed to the bathroom.

Shen Lanzhi followed her in worry. "Weiyi..."

When she walked to the bathroom, she saw Weiyi lying beside the toilet and vomiting.

She knew that she was forcing herself to eat the food, but in the end, she still vomited it all out uncomfortably.

Tears filled her eyes. Shen Lanzhi bent over and gently patted her back.

The matter of her son had almost caused the originally warm family to collapse in despair.

After the ordeal, Zuo Weiyi sat on bed and still wanted to drink the bowl of soup. But after drinking a mouthful, her stomach reacted in the same way again.

She barely finished the entire bowl of soup, and within three minutes, she vomited it again.

After making sure Weiyi was feeling a little better, Shen Lanzhi left with the bowl.

Zuo Weiyi got up and walked to the crib only for her heart to ache again as she looked at the twins.

She heard the sound of car engine from the window and walked over, only to see Shi Le's private car parked in the courtyard.

She immediately turned around and went downstairs.

As soon as Shi Le returned, Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan also quickly went to greet him with an eager look.

"Grandpa, how is it? Are there any news about brother and Xiangyi?" asked Shi Nuannuan anxiously.

But Shi Le's expression was heavy. He also saw Zuo Weiyi who had also rushed down the stairs from the second floor.

He lowered his face in sadness and shook his head. "No."

Such a simple word had once again shattered their hopes.

Without saying a word, Weiyi turned around and returned to the second floor. Her back looked so sorrowful.

...

In the evening, after feeding the children, Zuo Weiyi went downstairs and received a call from C Country. It was from Zuo Yi.

Hearing her calm voice, Zuo Yi was relieved.

After hanging up the phone, it was dinner time.

"Weiyi, go upstairs and lie down. I'll bring the dinner up for you. You must take good care of yourself during your pregnancy. Otherwise, it won't be good if you fall ill." Shen Lanzhi reminded her with concern.

Zuo Weiyi looked at Shen Lanzhi and calmly said, "It's okay. I want to have dinner with you."

Staying in the room alone would only make her think more.

Since she insisted, Shen Lanzhi couldn't force her to do otherwise.

She walked into the dining room and sat down at the dining table.

The family ate dinner, but none of them had much appetite and they didn't have their usual lively conversation.

Shi Le ate a mouthful of rice but didn't want to eat anymore. Instead, he stood up.

"I'll go ask if there's any progress."

Chapter 815: Recent Traces of Movement

Shen Lanzhi looked back at Weiyi after watching Shi Le leave. She watched as Weiyi insisted on finishing her food despite struggling to down it. Seeing this only made Shen Lanzhi's heart ache again.

Weiyi ended up being the first to finish eating. She stood up and said to Shen Lanzhi, who was still eating, "I'm done."

Shen Lanzhi looked up at her but didn't say anything because she didn't know what to say.

Outside the window, the sun was setting.

The black sky revealed a few stars. She glanced at the door before turning to walk to the second floor.

Just as she reached the stairs, the phone on the coffee table rang.

"Master, it's for you. The maid picked up the phone and addressed Shi Le on the sofa before handing the phone to him.

Shi Le picked up the phone and answered in his usual dignified and deep voice. "Hello?"

"Speaker, we found traces of someone landing on an island in the north!"

Hearing this, Shi Le's heart shook and his pupils constricted. "Are you sure?!"

Based on Shi Le's reaction, Zuo Weiyi stopped midstep on her way and turned around.

"Yes, but..." Black Dragon hesitated for a moment. From his tone, there was a hint of embarrassment.

"But what?!" Shi Le roared into the phone.

"Based on what I know, the signal came from an isolated island in the north. It is the legendary island of death," said Black Dragon.

"No matter what island it is, go there immediately!" Shi Le ordered!

"Yes, sir!"

Shi Le hung up the phone in excitement.

Now that there was such news after days of searching, how could he not be excited?

But at the same time, he was a little worried.

Naturally, he had heard about the legend of that island.

Only one explorer had ever returned to the island of death. From then on, no one dared to go near.

If his grandson was really on that island, would he still be alive now?

Suddenly the small glimmer of hope Shi Le had dimmed slightly.

“Grandpa, is there news?!” asked Weiyi anxiously.

Shi Le did not know what to say to his granddaughter-in-law.

Would this glimmer of hope be destroyed?

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan had also heard the phone conversation from the dining room as they rushed out. Upon hearing Zuo Weiyi’s inquiry, they also anxiously looked at Shi Le, waiting for his answer.

Shi Le looked at the three of them and finally nodded.

However,, his expression was a little solemn. “There’s an island in the north from where Ting’s plane crashed. My people found that someone had landed there recently. It’s very likely related to Yuting.”

The three women immediately cried out in joy. Such a simple piece of news had made them so excited.

“It must be Brother!” Shi Nuannuan was so excited that her voice was trembling!

“Yes, it must be.” Shen Lanzhi’s eyes were also getting damp.

Zuo Weiyi clasped her hands together tightly. She was so excited that she did not know what to do!

“But...”

Just as the three of them were extremely excited, Shi Le suddenly spoke again.

Chapter 816: Crying Nonstop

The others’ immediately paused and looked at Shi Le.

“What is it?” asked Shi Nuannuan with a slight fear.

Shi Le stood up and walked towards the second floor with his cane. “Just don’t have too much hope.”

The greater the hope, the greater the disappointment. If their hopes were destroyed, it would be even more cruel to them.

As soon as he finished speaking, Shi Le had already walked to the second floor.

In the living room, the remaining three stood rooted to the ground.

Shi Nuannuan did not understand why her grandfather would say something like that. Was he worried that if there was still no news of her brother, they would not be able to bear it?

At this moment, the sound of a baby crying could be heard from the second floor.

Zuo Weiyi quickly walked up to the second floor.

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan quickly followed.

When they returned to the bedroom, they saw that the two children were crying nonstop. Even the nanny were helpless.

“Are you hungry?” asked Shen Lanzhi as someone who had experienced it before. Then, she took one of the children from the nanny.

She gently coaxed, “Oh, oh... don’t cry anymore...”

“I just gave the two young ones milk, but they don’t seem hungry.” The nanny was at a lost as she showed the untouched milk bottle.

Although newborns loved to cry, they usually had their reasons. Moreover, there had never been two of them crying together.

“Did they poop?” Shen Lanzhi quickly checked their diapers.

“Oh, my dear babies, please don’t cry...”

Zuo Weiyi was distressed as she watched her babies’ tears flow down their red faces. She tried to comfort them but they wouldn’t let up.

She didn’t know what to do, so she could only hold the babies’ faces close to hers. It seemed that this was the best way to comfort them

After crying for a while, the two babies finally stopped. Perhaps they were tired and fell asleep again.

It was very cold in the forest in the dark night.

Heavy rain had just fallen, making the whole forest damp. There was not a single dry place.

“Get up.” The two exhausted men had not drunk any water in the past few days. Fortunately, the rain came in time.

They searched countless places. Other than the dense forest around them, they could not figure out how Tengtang Li and his crew arrived at the island.

The island was very big. They also wanted to go through the forest to the other side of the island, thinking that there might be boats there.

However, they had not eaten for three days. After walking for a day, they were almost exhausted. Moreover, Xiangyi was still seriously injured, so they could not walk anymore.

They finally found a place to rest.

A sudden heavy rain had solved their hunger and thirst, but the night was cold in the forest. If they did not find a dry place and caught a cold, it would only aggravate their injuries. If that happened, they might really lose their lives here!

After helping Xiangyi up, Shi Yuting supported him with his arm and shoulder. Using his own strength, he moved them both slowly.

“Sir.” As a subordinate, Xiangyi had never thought that there would be a day when his master would care about his condition.

The harsh environment in the past few days had not make his injuries any better. On the contrary, they became even worse.

Chapter 817: Shut Your Mouth, Then

Without any change in clothes or food, they were so exhausted that they didn't even have the strength to walk anymore.

If it was just himself, he might have already climbed over the mountain and found the tools to leave from the other side of the island. However, because of Xiangyi, they were still trapped here.

Xiangyi could clearly feel that he did not have any strength left. Moreover, his head was very heavy and his body was cold.

“If you have the strength to speak, why don't you save it until you leave this damn place with me!” Shi Yuting scolded.

Xiang Yi's thin lips were chapped and Shi Yuting could not see his pale face in the dark.

“Sir, I... may not be able to leave this place with you.”

“Then shut your mouth and keep your strength!”

Since it was obviously impossible to return to the cave after walking for a day, Shi Yuting would have to find another place.

Their clothes were already soaked through. If this continued, even if they were strong and healthy, they would catch a cold.

“Sir, I really want to go back...” Shi Nuannuan's face, her smile, her emotions, and the scene of her lying in his arms while pretending to be airsick on the plane flashed through his mind.

He had never thought that the feelings he had been running away from were already ingrained in his heart and could never be dispelled.

He had been running away, but today, he desperately wanted to see that face. Was it too late?

If he could go back in time, he would have wanted to tell her that he had fallen in love with her.

“I really—” But before he could finish his sentence, Xiangyi's legs gave way and he fell!

“Xiangyi!”

Shi Yuting clenched his fists, feeling indignant!

Was his life really going to end here?

Yuting ended up carrying Xiangyi on his back as he moved with heavy steps before finally finding a cave to shelter from the cold.

His whole body was drenched, so he found some branches and tried to light them up no matter how wet they were.

He was so cold that he couldn't help but tremble and his thin lips turned purple from the cold.

He took a deep breath. He did not believe that his fate would end here. He had to go back to Weiyi, his children, and his family.

He repeatedly lit the wet firewood, but in the end, he could not.

"Ah!" He roared and kicked away some of the branches he had just picked up in frustration and anger as he raged like a wounded cheetah!

He did not dare to imagine the Weiyi's heartbroken and despaired look after his death.

He clenched his fists as the veins on his forehead bulged and his heart burned with anger!

Shi Tiannan!

He would definitely tear him into pieces!

The coldness swept through his entire body again. Shi Yuting calmed himself down and turned towards the lifeless Xiangyi.

He knew that he had to calm down and not give up!

He turned around and walked out of the cave again. Finally, he found some dry firewood.

After lighting the firewood, the pitch-black cave finally lit up. However, Xiangyi looked increasingly pale.

Shi Yuting took off all Xiangyi's clothes and moved him to the bonfire to warm his body, hoping that this would control his high fever.

The night gradually deepened.

Exhausted, Yuting finally closed his eyes.

Chapter 818: The Search and Rescue Has Arrived

He did not know how long he had slept but when he opened his eyes, he saw that the firewood had already been extinguished, though the cave was still slightly illuminated

He also heard a faint voice from afar...

"Mr. Shi..."

Although it was very faint, he still heard it. He just did not know if it was an hallucination.

In order to confirm the voice, he shook his head and tried to wake himself up. Then, he sat up.

Only then did he realize that the sky was already bright.

The search and rescue personnel had arrived and searched the entire night for them.

Because the forest was dense and it was dark, they could not find him under the night sky.

However, they found Tengtang Li's corpse.

Those corpses were a confirmation that Mr. Shi was very likely to be on this island. Moreover, none of the corpses was Mr. Shi himself.

However, Shi Yuting and Xiangyi were unconscious in the cave and had not heard their calls at all.

It was only after a night of searching that they gradually arrived at the cave and their calls became audible enough for the unconscious Shi Yuting to hear.

He turned his head and looked at Xiangyi. Shi Yuting was not sure if he was still alive or not.

He got up and walked out of the cave.

The rays of the morning sun shone on him. He raised his hand to block the blinding light. Under the light, he saw that the people in special military uniforms were gradually searching in his direction not far away.

It was not until he saw Black Dragon that he was sure that these were his grandfather, Shi Le's men!

"It's Mr. Shi!"

Seeing a cave in the distance, Black Dragon looked up and saw a figure standing there. After staring at it for a while, he confirmed that it was Shi Yuting and could not help but run over immediately!

Zuo Weiyi did not sleep the whole night. Her heart was quietly waiting for the rescue team to return.

Suddenly, the sound of crying came from the crib. She was startled from her thoughts and immediately stood up to walk over. She saw that Lian Lian was crying terribly.

She picked Lian Lian up and looked at her crying face with sadness

"Lian Lian, please don't cry anymore..."

At this moment, the nanny who heard the crying also walked in.

"The Little Miss must be hungry. I'll go make some milk!"

Perhaps it was because he heard her younger sister crying, but at this moment, Mo Mo was also startled awake and started crying loudly.

For a moment, Zuo Weiyi was so distressed that she did not know what to do but only carry them in her arms.

Fortunately, Shen Lanzhi and Nuannuan, who heard the crying, rushed over in time.

“Oh dear, what’s wrong with the babies? Why are they crying like this? Stop crying, stop crying...hush...”
Shen Lanzhi was also sad to see her grandchildren crying as she carried Mo Mo in her arms.

“Sister-in-Law, what’s wrong with you?”

Shi Nuannuan noticed that Zuo Weiyi was frowning and could not help but ask.

Zuo Weiyi shook her head gently but did not say anything.

When she heard the babies crying just now, she was a little anxious when she ran down from the bed and the wound on her stomach had directly hit the crib so it hurt!

“Is the wound hurting?” Shen Lanzhi was also concerned.

Although she had been discharged from the hospital, it had only been more than a week. It was impossible for her wound to completely heal so quickly.

“Here, pass me the baby quickly and go lie on the bed!” Shi Nuannuan insisted hurriedly.

Zuo Weiyi shook her head again. “I’m fine.”

Chapter 819: The Sound of an Engine from the Door

The nanny walked in with the prepared milk bottles in her hands.

“Here, I can take her.” The nanny took over Lian Lian and sat down to feed her milk.

Despite only giving birth to the twins recently, Weiyi had not been able to produce much breastmilk, most likely due to her weak physique.

Furthermore, a series of distressing events had occurred recently, so she had been physically and mentally exhausted. In the end, Shen Lanzhi could not bear to let her feed the babies any more milk. They were going to use the best milk powder anyway, so the babies would still grow healthily.

Shi Nuannuan supported Weiyi into bed.

“Is it very painful? Do you want brother Shenghao to come over and take a look?” asked Shi Nuannuan worriedly when she saw how much pain Weiyi was in.

Zuo Weiyi sat by the side of the bed and waved her hand. “No need. It doesn’t hurt that much anymore.”

Despite her words, Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan were still a little worried.

“I think I should call brother Shenghao over!”

Without waiting for Zuo Weiyi to speak, Shi Nuannuan had already run out of the room.

Just as she left, the sound of engines could be heard from outside. It sounded like there were quite a few vehicles outside.

On the bed, Zuo Weiyi’s expression turned serious. She seemed to have realized something. The suddenly threw aside the blanket that had just covered her. Without thinking, she got up from the bed and rushed out of the room!

“Weiyi!”

Seeing that she was running so quickly, Shen Lanzhi, who was still hugging Mo Mo, could not help but worry that she would hurt her wound again.

However, when she heard the sound of the engine, she was also a little curious. Hence, she walked over to the window.

At the main entrance of Shi Mansion, black cars drove in one after another and lined up in a row. When the first car stopped and she saw the figure walking out, Shen Lanzhi’s black eyes quickly turned red. Then, she turned around and rushed downstairs impatiently!

Zuo Weiyi practically ran all the way down. Even though her wounds were hurting from her movements, she had no intention of stopping. Instead, she rushed all the way downstairs.

In her anxiousness, she missed a step and fell.

Shi Nuannuan turned around and saw Weiyi on the ground. Horrified, she rushed over and tried to help her up.

“Sister-in-law!”

“Sister-in-law, how are you?” She was so anxious that she was panicking!

“Weiyi!” At this moment, Shen Lanzhi, who was carrying the child, also came down from upstairs.

When she reached the bottom, she saw Zuo Weiyi on the ground. She couldn’t help but feel a pang of heartache.

She helped her up. Although the wound was very painful, Zuo Weiyi’s mind was elsewhere. Instead, she anxiously looked back up and was about to rush to the main door!

But before she could do so, she saw a familiar figure standing there.

Their eyes met and Zuo Weiyi’s heart trembled.

Standing there was the man she had been longing for the past month. Tears could not help but surge down her face.

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan also turned around at the same time. When they saw the figure standing at the door, the mother and daughter were so shocked that they were almost speechless.

“Brother...”

Shi Yuting looked at the figure directly in front of him as he stood in the living room.

How could she look even more haggard now compared to when he first left?

A wave of heartache suddenly arose, as if it was going to tear his heart apart!

Chapter 820: Finally Reunited After a Long Period of Waiting

“Yuting...” Shen Lanzhi’s eyes were already filled with tears.

Shi Yuting's gaze remained fixed on the person not far away. At this moment, everything in his eyes was empty. It was as if he could only see the shadow of his heart.

Zuo Weiyi could no longer hold it in and rushed over like a gust of wind!

It wasn't until she grabbed the lapel of his shirt and felt his existence herself that Zuo Weiyi was able to convince herself she wasn't dreaming.

He was really back!

Tears flowed down like a spring. Her sobbing body trembled in his arms.

"Please... don't disappear again... don't disappear again...!" She begged as she choked between her sobs. Her voice was small but he heard every word of it, and each hurt his heart deeply.

He hugged her back tightly, unable to manage the feeling of having found what he thought he had lost.

He felt her trembling body. How scared had she been these days to be so haggard?

"Shi Yuting, don't... leave my side again..." She cried again she tightly held onto him.

Tears rolled down her eyes and dampened his dirty white shirt.

He felt a warm, moist sensation on his chest, and knew that it was her tears.

He hugged her even tighter, and his deep, hoarse voice was also choked with sobs. "I promise, I won't let you worry about me anymore."

Being able to finally hear the voice of the person she had missed so much, Zuo Weiyi's sobs only became even more intense, and her grip on his shirt became tighter. This made Shi Yuting's heart hurt even more.

She had more than a thousand words to say to him, but at this very moment, she couldn't utter a single one coherently to him.

She clung tightly to his muscular chest, as if only by feeling his slightly warm body temperature could she feel his real existence. Only then could her terrified and uneasy heart finally calm down.

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan approached the couple who continued to embrace each other.

In the past few days, the pain Weiyi had suffered was too much.

Shen Lanzhi wiped away the tears at the corner of her eyes. The worry and fear that she had been feeling for the past few days had finally disappeared the moment she saw her son return. She was so happy that she cried.

He gently released the person in his arms, wanting to take a good look at her face. However, Zuo Weiyi had no intention of letting go of his clothes—she continued to hold on tightly!

"It's okay," said he helplessly.

However, Zuo Weiyi still had no intention of looking up. It was as if she was afraid that if she let go, the person in front of her would vanish into thin air.

Helpless, he bent down slightly and reached out to carry her in his arms. Then, he walked towards the stairs.

Seeing her brother walking towards her, Shi Nuannuan was already crying her eyes out!

“Brother, you-you’re finally back...”

Looking at Nuannuan crying like a child, Shi Yuting’s eyes were also slightly red. If it wasn’t for the person in his arms, he would have raised his hand to stroke her head, but now he couldn’t move his hand away.

Looking at her crying face, he gave a faint smile, as if he was comforting her.

Turning his head, he saw his mother with tears in her eyes. He knew how worried the family had been for him these days.

Shen Lanzhi broke into a smile. After nodding at him, she quickly raised her hand to wipe her tears.
