Chapter 891: Shi Le's Worries

Old Man Cheng smiled at the polite Shen Lanzhi and looked back at Shi Le's face.

What happened to Shi Le all of a sudden?

Shouldn't he be happy now that his grandson is back? Why did he look so depressed?

With Shi Le's silence, the atmosphere in the dining room became a little too depressing. Other than Shi Yuting who was still showing off his love for Zuo Weiyi, everyone else continued eating in silence.

"Here, have more of these. They're your favourite after all."

After knowing that Weiyi liked wantons, Shen Lanzhi had specifically requested the chef to cook some in chicken soup. So the dish tasted particularly delicious.

Shi Yuting scooped a few spoonfuls into her bowl, all the while completely unaffected by Shi Le's mood. It was as if at this moment, Zuo Weiyi was all he saw and all that mattered.

Zuo Weiyi naturally noticed his grandfather's slightly downcast expression. She then looked at the few large wantons that Shi Yuting had scooped for her and could not help but feel a little awkward for a moment.

Could it be that Shi Yuting did not notice that the atmosphere was not right?

But what exactly was wrong with his grandfather? Ever since Shi Yuting returned, he had been in a bad mood.

How could a grandparent be upset upon a grandchild's return?

Zuo Weiyi felt disturbed as she looked at the two big pieces of wantons in her bowl.

"Ah, Little Shi's affections towards his wife really make people like us from the older generation feel envious." Old Man Cheng could not help but make a comment as he watched how Shi Yuting and Zuo Weiyi behaved with one another.

Shen Lanzhi also smiled and nodded gently.

The relationship between her son and Weiyi had indeed always been very good.

Old Man Cheng looked at Shi Le once again and noticed that the latter's expression had not changed.

Zuo Weiyi stopped eating when she heard Old Man Cheng's words.

Little Shi?

Was this 'Little Shi' really Shi Yuting?

Why did she suddenly find it so funny?

A man who was high and mighty like him would also be called in such a way by others.

She turned to look at her husband. Shi Yuting's gaze darkened slightly, as if he was a little surprised by this sudden address.

Although Old Man Cheng was an old comrade of his grandfather, Shi Yuting had never seen him before. But, Old Man Cheng knew about them because he had attended their full moon celebration.

And with that, dinner ended solemnly.

Shi Le and Old Man Cheng had planned to give Cheng Huan and Nuannuan more time to spend together after the dinner. However, looking at the situation, the Chengs had no choice but to go back first.

After Old Man Cheng left, Shi Le walked to a window in the living room and looked at the night sky outside. His gaze was a little misty.

Shi Yuting could guess the reason his grandfather was being so down. After sending Zuo Weiyi upstairs, he returned to the living room.

Shi Le turned to look at his grandson. Then, he walked to the sofa with his cane and sat down.

"Has everything been settled over there?"

He spoke without looking at Yuting. His gaze fell on somewhere unknown.

"Yes, except for Shi Tiannan."

Yuting's words finally caught Shi Le's attention as the latter looked at the former in surprise.

He had not taken care of Tiannan?

"Are you worried about him?" asked Shi Yuting directly.

Shi Le turned away and sighed.

Chapter 892: What Do You Want Me to Do?

He then said earnestly, "I still remember when he was first brought to the Shi family, he was just like you. He didn't like to talk and it was Xiao Yayue who managed to open him up. I just don't understand why he would want to kill you. Technially, you are his younger brother."

"He has never treated me as his younger brother. From the moment I entered the Shi family," said Shi Yuting expressionlessly.

Yes, from the moment he was brought back to the Shi family, it had been destined that Shi Tiannan and he would not get along.

But Shi Le still did not understand. "Why? You are brothers and I have treated him well."

"Because of the incident when we were young. Plus, there can only be one heir."

Shi Le frowned, not understanding his grandson's words.

"You mean, when you fought with Tiannan and rolled down the stairs?"

"Yes."

Shi Le was shocked as he looked at Shi Yuting.

That was when the two of them were six years old. For some unknown reason, they started fighting, and it was very vicious. It was also the first day of the new year, and all the servants were on holiday. No one knew how they started fighting.

When Shi Xiaotian rushed home, he only saw Shi Yuting falling down the stairs. He did not see Shi Tiannan, who was injured at the top of the stairs. He only found Shi Tiannan at night, but by that time, Tiannan was already in a coma.

“Didn’t we already talk about that matter?”

“But he did not think so. He thought that if I was the one injured on the second floor, father would be so anxious that he would have found me anyway.”

Hearing his words, Shi Le also fell silent.

In fact, he also knew that even if he saw that they were both injured at the same time, his son would definitely save his own flesh and blood first.

Tiannan did treat Yuting coldly when the latter was first brought home, especially when Shen Lanzhi hadn’t been allowed back yet.

With Yuting being his flesh and blood, and lacking real affection for Shi Tiannan, it was clear who Shi Xiaotian would have really favored.

Little did he realize that because of this, Shi Tiannan’s heart was left with jealousy and hatred to the point that he even wanted to kill his own brother.

Although Shi Tiannan was adopted, Shi Le treated him quite well. After all these years, it was inevitable that he had some feelings for him.

He would never be able to abandon Shi Tiannan.

Therefore, these days, even if he knew that the plane crash was caused by Shi Tiannan, he did not want to interfere in this matter. He could not bear to personally get rid of his grandson he had raised for more than twenty years.

However, he also knew very well that leaving a person who was scheming to kill his other grandson was a dangerous. If he did not resolve it, his family might die.

Previously, Shen Lanzhi almost lost her life in the hands of the mother and son.

“What do you want me to do?” asked Shi Yuting as he looked at Shi Le, as if Yuting could see that he could not bear it.

Shi Le looked at him and earnestly said, “Do what you want to do. If you don’t want me to feel bad, just don’t let me know what happened.”

Even if he didn’t want Shi Tiannan to die, he knew very well that even if he let Shi Yuting keep him alive, one day in the future, if he gained power again, Yuting would be the one to die instead, and he simply could not allow that to happen.

After saying that, Shi Le stood up and walked to the second floor.

Shi Yuting fell into deep thought.

Shi Tiannan must die!

Chapter 893: Something Called Family Time

If Shi Tiannan didn't die, he would continue to be a threat to Shi Yuting and Weiyi!

Shi Yuting's eyes turned cold and murderous as he walked up to the second floor.

Back in the bedroom, Zuo Weiyi had already showered and was lying on the bed reading a romance novel.

She heard the door opened and suddenly felt the urge to tease her husband.

"Little Shi, you're back?"

Shi Yuting closed the door and paused after hearing her words.

Then, his dark eyes narrowed slightly and with a hint of danger, he slowly walked to the bedside and bent down, trapping her in his arms. His obsidian-like eyes glanced at her. "What did Madam call me just now?"

"Little Shi."

His handsome eyes narrowed. "It's been a few days, but Madam actually knows how to provoke me? Or is there some other purpose?"

Noticing the 'danger' in his eyes, Zuo Weiyi hurriedly blocked him with the book, pressing it against his incomparably handsome face. "I was wrong!"

"It's already too late."

"Then what do you want?" She suddenly took the book away and looked into his dark eyes. It was as if she had suddenly found some protective amulet and was no longer afraid of him.

"What do you think?" His big hand had already begun to misbehave.

But she did not dodge. "Is President Shi sure he wants to do this? It hasn't been three months yet."

She glanced at him, and a hint of craftiness suddenly flashed across her bright black eyes.

Shi Yuting's unruly hand paused, and he noticed the evil smile on her face.

His wife had levelled up!

He jerked his hand back and said, "I'm going to take a shower!"

He quickly made his way to the bathroom.

The three-months period was not up yet, which meant that no matter what he wanted to do to punish her, it would all back fire on him anyway!

Really, why must they wait until three months later?!

— * * * —

The babies and their growth brought laughter to the family every day.

Winter eventually arrived as the weather turned cold and snowflakes fell onto Z City.

In the office on the top floor of Di Zun Group.

Shi Yuting sat in front of the huge desk and looked up at Xiangyi who was standing quietly in front of him with a solemn expression. “You haven’t found him yet?”

Xiangyi nodded and said, “Yes. After arriving in Z Country, he disappeared without a trace. His whereabouts could not be found.”

“We must find his hiding place as soon as possible!”

“Yes, I will continue investigating!” Xiangyi nodded and left as ordered.

Shi Yuting’s slender fingers lightly tapped on the desk. His slightly sunken face seemed to be deep in thought.

Where exactly was Shi Tiannan hiding? And what was his purpose in coming to Z Country?

His murderous eyes narrowed as he tried to figure it all out in his head.

It was 5:30 pm. It was snowing, and the night arrived quickly.

The night in Z City was already lit up by the city lights as he walked out of Di Zun Group.

The blue Spyker drove down the bustling streets of Z City. Shi Yuting dialed Zuo Weiyi’s cell phone number through the central control screen from the driver’s seat

After giving up the presidency, Shi Yuting still did not rest. However, he did not have to run around the world anymore. Moreover, he could definitely be at home on weekends. That was the only time he could spend with his wife and children.

He enjoyed the family time very much.

The phone rang twice before it was picked up.

“Hello?”

Zuo Weiyi picked up the phone in the living time. At this time, he should be on his way home from work. He was calling to tell her that he had an engagement tonight.

Chapter 894: Please Wait for Five Minutes

“I’ll be home late tonight.”

“Okay, remember to have your meals.”

It was a simple sentence, but it warmed Shi Yuting's heart.

"Okay," replied he. Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something and said, "Don't go to bed too early tonight."

Zuo Weiyi paused.

Did she hear wrong? Shouldn't she be going to bed earlier?

"What?" asked she again in order to confirm whether she had heard wrong.

"Wait for me before you go to bed."

She was a little puzzled. Usually, if he had a social engagement, he would let her go to bed earlier. Why did he want her to go to bed later today?

Although she was a little confused, Zuo Weiyi still agreed. "Oh, okay."

He curled his lips into a satisfied smile and then hung up the phone.

The blue Spyker sped through the snow towards the the night club, 'Charm'.

In the dimly lit elegantly luxurious room, Shi Yuting sat on the sofa and took a sip of the high-end red wine in his glass, as if he was waiting for someone to arrive.

"Mr. Shi, there's a bit of traffic on the west side of the city. Please wait for five minutes."

In the private room, another man in a suit next to Xiangyi informed Shi Yuting respectfully.

6:05 pm.

In other words, he could leave exactly at 6:10 pm if the man didn't come.

His eyes moved away from the high-end watch and took another sip of red wine. Then, he played with the goblet lazily and sat in silence.

The man retreated to the side and looked at his phone anxiously. He did not forget to glance at the door of the private room.

It was said that Mr. Shi had never liked people who were late, but their master was already five minutes late!

Hopefully his master's identity was enough to make Mr. Shi wait a little longer.

The man's gaze once again glanced at the man sitting casually on the sofa. He looked relaxed, but the cold aura on his face seemed to have frozen the atmosphere of the entire private room. No one dared to make a sound.

The man waited anxiously while secretly taking note of the time on his watch. It was already 6:08 pm.

He glanced at Shi Yuting on the sofa again. He was still playing with the red wine leisurely but never took another sip.

The man could feel the tension in the room build higher and higher.

At 6:10 pm sharp, Shi Yuting put down the glass of high-end red wine and stood up. His gloomy face had the usual cold aura as he stood up and walked straight to the door.

Seeing that he was about to leave, the man immediately stepped forward. "Mr. Shi!"

However, Shi Yuting turned a deaf ear to the man's call.

Xiangyi quickly stepped forward and opened the door of the private room for him.

The man still wanted to persuade him to stay. "Mr. Shi, please wait a moment—"

Xiangyi opened the door of the private room, and as soon as Shi Yuting stepped out, he met three middle-aged men. The man in the middle had a strong aura, and it was obvious that he was the person who was going to meet Shi Yuting tonight!

However, the man's aura obviously dimmed a little when he saw Shi Yuting.

The middle-aged man looked to be around fifty years old, and white hair had already appeared on his temples.

Shi Yuting frowned slightly as he stared at the middle-aged man in front of him.

Chapter 895: Sorry to Have Kept You Waiting

Ke Zhengfeng? The Minister of CZ?

"Mr. Shi." The middle-aged man smiled when he saw Shi Yuting. Unlike the others, he did not appear to be afraid the moment he saw Shi Yuting.

Ke Zhengfeng's face was calm as usual. Perhaps it was because he was the minister of CZ.

Seeing that Shi Yuting was about to leave, Ke Zhengfeng could not help but smile. "Mr. Shi, I'm very sorry to have kept you waiting."

Shi Yuting looked coldly at him before returning to the private room and resuming his seat.

This was the first time he had to wait an extra 10 minutes for someone.

If it were not for the fact that Xiangyi had checked earlier and confirmed that a traffic accident had occurred at 5:40 pm on West City Road, he might have already left.

Firstly, he was certain that Ke Zhengfeng was stuck on the road. Secondly, he wanted to see who the mysterious man who had arranged to meet him tonight was. As expected, he had not wasted ten minutes of his time.

Ke Zhengfeng, minister of CZ, was a pure and honest official in the eyes of the people. However, in the eyes of Shi Yuting, there was no official in the world who was not greedy. Moreover, his fat body was emitting the stench of money. No matter how one looked at it, he did not look like an honest official.

Regardless, Shi Yuting was now a businessman. There was no reason for him not to do something that benefitted himself.

However, what surprised him was why Minister Ke would take the initiative to look for him?

From what he could remember, when the national tax increased by a few decimals due to a change in policy 2 years ago, Di Zun Group had paid an additional 1.2%.

Thus, he had asked his finance department to write to the relevant agencies to request an appeal, not expecting to be rejected.

In fact, the other party, the very Minister Ke himself, wanted Shi Yuting to make the request personally!

After he went, he realized that Di Zun Group was the only one singled out, just because they were a foreign company. They were still a new company back then, and they struggled against those who wanted to take advantage of them. But in the end, Shi Yuting was able to take care of it as usual, and immediately grew to dislike them, those corrupted officials!

From then on, no one dared to mess with him, Shi Yuting and Di Zun Group!

And because of that encounter, Minister Ke had always regarded Shi Yuting as a thorn in his side. And here he was actually taking the initiative to look for him? It was really strange!

Minister Ke walked over and sat down on the sofa beside Shi Yuting. Then, he looked at Shi Yuting.

“There was a traffic jam on the road. Sorry to have kept you waiting.”

“Cut the small chat. Minister Ke, why are you looking for me?” He looked demandingly at Ke Zhengfeng.

Ke Zhengfeng smiled. “There’s nothing else. I’m just here to apologize for what happened previously.”

Shi Yuting’s dark eyes narrowed slightly. Then, he smiled. “Apologize? Minister Ke, you’re taking things too seriously.”

A smile may have appeared on his lips, but it did not reach Shi Yuting’s eyes.

Ke Zhengfeng smiled faintly. As a minister, this was the first time he apologized to a businessman.

He had indeed underestimated Shi Yuting back then. He never expected that his Di Zun Group would have such glorious achievements today in just five years, allowing Shi Yuting to monopolize the country’s financial sector.

At this moment, he could no longer ignore this king-like existence.

“Mr. Shi, I heard that you recently want to open a subsidiary company in A City?”

“Yes.” Shi Yuting picked up his glass and poured him another glass of wine. He behaved and emitted an aura as if he had no care for the reputation or identity of Minister Ke.

Chapter 896: Ke Zhengfeng’s Intentions (1)

“Then, has everything been settled?” asked Ke Zhengfeng again.

Shi Yuting’s sinister eyes glanced at him and landed on his face. The goblet in his hand swayed back and forth leisurely as if he was toying with it, but it was more like he was in control of the fate of the goblet!

This Ke Zhengfeng had obviously investigated him and knew that the issue with the land in A City had not been settled yet, so he took the opportunity to look for him. Or was it that he was playing tricks and wanted to obtain illegal benefits from him again?

He suddenly smiled.

“Since Director Ke has already investigated, why ask when you already know the answer?”

He was straightforward and did not like to beat around the bush. Ordinary people might not be able to accept it and would feel a little awkward, but this was Shi Yuting.

Ke Zhengfeng was stunned for a second before he smiled. He did not expect Shi Yuting to see through his intentions so easily.

Indeed, it was because he had investigated that matter of the A City land that he dared to approach him.

If Minister Ke did not help him a little, why would Shi Yuting cooperate with him?

“Mr. Shi is indeed smart. If Mr. Shi needs help with that matter, I can indeed help you a little.”

“Your purpose.” Shi Yuting looked at him. This Ke Zhengfeng might be an honest official in the eyes of the people, but in Shi Yuting’s eyes, he was a sly old fox!

Would he help without any conditions and no benefits?

Perhaps he was also the one who played tricks and then pretended to be a good person in front of him.

The minister chuckled again. “Mr. Shi, you’re worrying too much. I don’t have any hidden intentions. I just want to apologize for what happened last time.”

Shi Yuting narrowed his eyes, as if he wanted to see through his calm face, but he couldn’t find anything.

Was this Ke Zhengfeng really here to apologize for what happened last time?

“Forgive me for being blunt, but even I won’t do anything that doesn’t benefit me.” He obviously didn’t believe Ke Zhengfeng’s words.

Ke Zhengfeng smiled again calmly. “Mr. Shi, you’re indeed smart. I do have a personal matter that needs your help.”

“Speak.” He took another sip of the wine in his glass.

“Well, it’s the same thing that happened last time. I hope Mr. Shi can forget about it this time too.” As he spoke, a note appeared in Ke Zhengfeng’s hand from nowhere. He then pushed it across the coffee table to Shi Yuting.

Shi Yuting’s long and narrow eyes looked at the note and realized that it was a check.

He scoffed at it. He was the only one who wrote checks to others, no one had ever bribed him with one before.

However, although he did not mention anything about the previous incident, it was also because he did not want to care about such trivial matters. What was Ke Zhengfeng's motive for suddenly making an issue out of an adult's past?

His dark eyes looked back at Ke Zhengfeng and saw him smiling obsequiously.

His mind quickly thought of the changes in Z Country in the past few years, and a piece of recent news suddenly appeared in his mind.

Recently, Z Country was running an election for the National People's Congress, and it seemed that Ke Zhengfeng's name was also in it.

Therefore, he was now planning to use this check to silence him. No matter how small the matter, he would not allow it to surface as long as it could hinder him from being elected as a representative in the National People's Congress.

It was all starting to make sense now.

Ke Zhengfeng was already expecting his check to be rejected when he saw that Shi Yuting had not budged and inch to touch it.

Chapter 897: Ke Zhengfeng's Intentions (2)

After all, how could Shi Yuting, who was worth hundreds of millions of dollars, be satisfied with a mere ten million?

However, other than money, he had nothing else to bribe with. At this most critical juncture, he naturally would not allow anything that was not beneficial to him to threaten his campaign.

"This may not be a big deal to Shi, but I present this to you with sincerity. Please accept it."

"Forget about the check. Such a small amount of money is really not worthy of my attention." Shi Yuting curled his lips into a smile and stood up abruptly. "Thank you for the land in A City, Minister Ke."

As soon as he finished speaking, he walked towards the direction of the door of the private room with Xiangyi following closely behind.

Ke Zhengfeng watched as Shi Yuting left before looking back at the check. The initial smile of flattery immediately stiffened as he adjusted his tie while his facial expression returned to its naturally arrogance.

"This Shi Yuting really thinks that he's the king of this place!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the door of the private room suddenly opened. Ke Zhengfeng was so frightened that he turned around and stared at Xiangyi, who had reappeared at the doorway.

"Mr. Shi said that if Minister Ke can really help, it would be best to settle the matter by the end of the year. This way, your chances of being elected as the National People's Congress representative next year will be even higher."

Ke Zhengfeng did not expect Xiangyi to suddenly come back and thus did not know if he had heard the last sentence right.

For a moment, Ke Zhengfeng was still at a loss. He smiled unnaturally and said, "It will definitely be settled by the end of the year."

Xiangyi smiled before leaving the private room.

"As you expected, that Minister Ke is indeed just putting on a show," said Xiangyi to Shi Yuting as they exited the private room and entered the elevator.

The corners of Shi Yuting's handsome lips curled up into an imperceptible smile.

In the private room, Ke Zhengfeng rubbed his nose. This Shi Yuting was really not to be underestimated. His power might be even greater than he had imagined.

"Minister, this subordinate doesn't understand. You are the Finance Minister, and he is just a foreign investor from C Country who came to our Z Country. Why do you have to compromise with him like this?"

Ke Zhengfeng raised his head and glanced at his assistant. "What do you know? He's a businessman now, but he was once the president of C Country, and he stepped down on his own! Who do you think he is to be able to become the president?"

Of course, he was a ruthless character!

However, there were all kinds of strange things in this world. There was actually someone who was willing to give up the presidency? One had to know that this position was far beyond the reach of many people. Shi Yuting actually gave it up to willingly be a businessman. He really could not understand what Shi Yuting was thinking.

The door of the private room opened again. Under the dim light, the man who just entered and lowered his head. He only lifted his head when the door of the private room closed again.

Ke Zhengfeng signaled to the man. "Sit down."

"He agreed?"

The man's deep voice had a hint of coldness in it. It was mysterious, but one could not ignore it.

"You can say that. You won't go back on your word about what you promised me, right?"

"Of course not. As long as you do as I say, next year's National People's Congress representative – the next president of Z Country – will be you!"

Hearing the man's words, a smug smile appeared on Ke Zhengfeng's face.

After leaving Charm Club, Xiangyi was a little confused. "Why does Mr. Shi have to bother about that Minister Ke? He doesn't seem to have such a simple goal."

"I'm a businessman. If he's willing to help us take that piece of land in A City without any conditions, why not?"

Chapter 898: Investigate that Minister Ke

“It’s because of his unconditional agreement that this subordinate feels that something is wrong. He doesn’t seem like a person who is willing to help others so easily.” Xiangyi was still a little worried. A person who had never interacted with others before suddenly looked for them? Could it be that he had other motives?

Or it could be like last time with Tengtang Xi. No one would have thought that Tengtang Xi would impersonate Li Chengcheng to take revenge on Mr. Shi and destroy Young Madam. If such a person still existed, then Mr. Shi would really be in danger now.

Especially when the enemy was in the dark and Shi Yuting was in the wide open

But if the situation really happened like last time, could it be... Shi Tiannan?

Xiangyi frowned, becoming increasingly convinced that this could be a possibility.

“Then go and check if this Minister Ke has had any unusual activities recently.” Shi Yuting instructed Xiangyi before the former got into the car.

Xiangyi nodded in acknowledgment. “Yes!”

It was not late when they returned to Shi Mansion. Zuo Weiyi and the others had just finished their dinner.

After coaxing the two babies to sleep, Shen Lanzhi returned to her room.

Shi Nuannuan sat in the quiet living room. Though the TV was switched on, she was not watching it.

She was curled up on the sofa and busy sending messages to Xiangyi, but he had not been replying her at all!

The main door opened with a click and she immediately turned around to look.

She stood up abruptly and rushed to him, peeking behind him. “Brother, didn’t Xiangyi come with you?”

Shi Yuting looked at her. “No.”

“Why?”

He paused. “And why would he come back with me this time?”

Shi Nuannuan paused. He wasn’t wrong.

Xiangyi’s duty was to protect her brother’s safety and deal with all sorts of matters. But since her brother had already returned home, shouldn’t he be quite free? So why didn’t he reply to her messages?

“So he’s also back home now?” Shi Nuannuan asked as Shi Yuting walked up the stairs.

Because he seemed to be very busy recently, he wasn’t at home every time she went to his apartment.

Even when she went at night, he was not at home either.

“No, I left some instructions for him to handle.”

Hearing this, Shi Nuannuan could not help but chase after him. “Brother!”

Shi Yuting looked at the white-as-jade hand that grabbed his. Then, he saw her face that had “lovesick” written all over it, waiting for her to speak.

“Brother, can you not give Xiangyi so many things to do in the future?” She pouted, as if she was dissatisfied with the way Shi Yuting was handling his own employee.

“Give me a reason.” He looked at her.

Shi Nuannuan paused.

Although Xiangyi’s duty was to handle things for her brother, did he have to be busy at night too?

“Uh, the weather is too cold.”

“Huh?”

“That’s right, the weather is cold, Xiangyi will definitely be cold too.”

“So? What does that have to do with me? That’s his duty. Don’t tell me that in the future, I have to look at the weather before deciding whether to let him do it or not?”

Shi Nuannuan turned speechless again.

But still, she still felt sorry for him.

“I didn’t say that. I just... I just didn’t want him to work so late at night!”

“Why?”

“I haven’t seen him for a few days. Every time I go to his office—” As the words were about to come out of her mouth, Shi Nuannuan suddenly stopped.

Although her brother doted on her very much, if he knew that his sister was going over to Xiangyi’s and waiting for him to come back till so late at night, he would still get furious!

Chapter 899: Do You Prefer Her to Be Active or Passive?

“I-I mean, I went to his apartment to look for him these few days, but he didn’t seem to be at home.”

Shi Yuting’s handsome brows furrowed slightly as he looked at her, as if he was trying to find a clue from her flustered expression.

Because he was rarely at home during the day, he would only socialize with his family at night. Even if Nuannuan had gone out for an entire day, he would never know about it. And the only person who had not mentioned this to him was Zuo Weiyi.

“As a girl and the eldest daughter of the Shi family, can’t you be a little more reserved?” Shi Yuting was very perceptive after all, and quickly knew what she meant.

Shi Nuannuan pursed her lips and couldn’t say any more.

But the tenet of love that she liked was: go forward bravely! Love boldly! When you can not be reserved, try your best... don't hold back! Keep getting up even after you've fallen! If you like a man, even if you can't catch his heart, you have to sleep with his body first. If you have his heart, you wouldn't be afraid to catch his body!

But of course, she didn't dare to say these words in front of her brother.

"If you like a person, why should you be reserved? Being reserved won't get me a boyfriend!"

Shi Yuting was about to go upstairs when he heard her muttering in a low voice. He couldn't help but stop in his tracks and frown.

Why didn't he realize that his sister had such a rich view of relationships?

"It's not good for a woman to be too proactive." Shi Yuting tried to convince his sister.

However, Nuannuan suddenly asked, "Why? Didn't you and sister-in-law sleep together before you got married?"

As soon as she said this, Shi Nuannuan hurriedly covered her mouth with her hands. It was really like plucking the hair from a tiger's head, being foolishly fearless!

Shi Yuting turned to her. "So, you can't wait to sleep with Xiangyi now?"

Shi Nuannuan's big, bright eyes widened in shock. Although she wanted to deny it, why did she feel like she was betraying her heart?

Could it be that her heart was like what her brother had said, and she actually wanted to sleep with Xiangyi now?

She cleared her throat and calmly faced her brother. In an instant, her face seemed to be filled with the word 'reserved'. "No."

Shi Yuting glanced at her. "It's best if you don't."

He was about to turn around again when Shi Nuannuan spoke once more.

"Brother, can I ask you a question?"

"If you have something to say, say it all at once!" Shi Yuting started to get impatient.

Shi Nuannuan was stunned by his outburst and did not know whether to ask the question that was on the tip of her tongue.

However, it seemed that every time her brother was angry, it would quickly subside if Zuo Weiyi's name was mentioned.

Thinking of this, she mustered up her courage and asked very carefully, "Do you prefer Sister-in-Law to be more proactive or more passive?"

"Of course..." Shi Yuting suddenly shut his mouth realized what he was about to reveal to his little sister!

He walked down towards Nuannuan and without another word, he directly dragged her downstairs.

She was a little confused as she followed him. “Brother, what are you doing?”

“Looking for a hammer.”

What for?

” To crack open your head to see what’s inside.”

His casual words suddenly made Shi Nuannuan’s eyes widen. She stopped abruptly and then forcefully pulled her arm away!

“Brother, I was wrong. I will never ask if Sister-in-Law is active or passive again!” She immediately fled in a panic and rushed to the second floor!

Shi Yuting sneered and watched her back as she went upstairs. Then, he walked towards the same direction too.

Chapter 900: I’m Going to Take a Shower

Would he prefer Weiyi to be passive or active?

Of course, she would be passive. She could be moved by him freely on the bed, using all kinds of positions!

‘Hmm... but it would also be nice for her to be active sometimes too...’

Shi Yuting returned to the bedroom on the second floor cheerfully.

At that moment, Zuo Weiyi had just come out of the shower.

Just now, she seemed to have heard the sound of the siblings in the living room.

The heater was turned on in the room, and now that she had finished showering, she was only wrapped in a towel.

She was a little surprised that he had come back so early, so she couldn’t help but smile and ask, “You’re back so early today?”

The moment Shi Yuting entered, he saw her dressed like this. For someone like him who had been in abstinence with her for almost a year, this sight was a fatal temptation!

The moment he saw her, his throat began to dry up, and his voice was hoarse. “Yes.”

However, Zuo Weiyi did not feel that there was anything wrong with it. This was because every time she took a shower, it was the same.

However, she did not realize that the three-month time limit was almost up—it was tomorrow!

Obviously, the way she was dressed was undoubtedly seducing him. She was testing his authority in advance!

“I’m going to take a shower.” His voice was still hoarse, as he walked towards the bathroom seemingly impatiently.

Zuo Weiyi watched as he did, feeling a little puzzled.

She seemed to have sensed that something was wrong with him, but she couldn't put her finger on it at the moment.

She turned around and went to bed. She really liked the winter quilt.

Recently, she had been very interested in a novel and was getting to the most exciting part!

According to Shi Yuting's usual routine, he would definitely go to the study room to deal with some matters after he came out of the shower. Therefore, Zuo Weiyi became completely immersed in it.

As she read, a blush suddenly flashed across her fair face. Her originally engrossed look suddenly turned a little uncomfortable at this moment.

Were there such x-rated scenes in novels?

Zuo Weiyi covered her mouth as she read the scenes. How could there be such explicit scenes in this novel?

Did Nuannuan read these parts too?

The more she read, the more uncomfortable she felt. She had no choice but to turn the page, but the explicit part seemed to be very long. She turned the page again before finally skipping over it.

Just as she turned the page and was about to continue reading, she suddenly thought of the explicit scenes again! Why couldn't she get them out of her mind?!

Could it be that she had gone mad?

Completely immersed in her own thoughts, she did not seem to notice that the bathroom door had opened.

As she sat in a daze, the book in her hand was taken away.

She looked up and was immediately shocked by what greeted her eyes.

Shi Yuting actually came out naked?!

He had never been like this. Could it be that he forgot to take his clothes in when he was showering just now?

But that didn't make sense. Even if he didn't bring his clothes or bathrobe in, the men's bath towel inside had always been prepared on the shelf beside the bath. How could he forget to put that on before coming out?

However, before she could figure out what was going on, the man in front of her suddenly got into bed with her and instantly pressed her under him.

"You... mmph!"

She was about to speak, but her lips were suddenly sealed. The familiar tenderness quickly made her eyes widen.

Could he be thinking of...

But she could not have sex yet!

Thinking of this, she quickly pulled back her thoughts and hurriedly rejected him. "Shi Yuting, you can't—"
