

Kiss Me 911

Chapter 911: The Roar of Heartache!

She had just suffered a huge blow to her heart and felt extremely wronged. Anger built up inside of her as she flung open the car door and ran out.

Xiangyi anxiously opened his car door and hurried after her.

“Nuannuan!”

They were at a junction—cars were coming and going, as the sound of horns continued blaring.

He did not blame her for jumping to conclusions. She must have really thought that he used her as a cover up.

As she ran, Nuannuan did not notice that the traffic light had just turned green. All she wanted was to cross the road.

It was not until that was a rapid honk followed by an ear-piercing brake that she suddenly realized a sports car speeding over from not far away!

Xiangyi saw the car approaching her and he quickly made a move!

Nuannuan’s face turned pale but she was frozen in place. She knew what to do but she could not dodge the car in time!

As death approached, familiar faces flashed through her mind. Her grandfather, Mommy, Brother, Sister-in-Law, and her favorite Xiangyi..

She thought she was going to meet God!

Right at the last moment, she felt something come over her and she felt herself pushed to the ground. She looked up and realized that she was enveloped in Xiangyi’s arms.

Though he tried to protect her as much as he could, the fall still grazed her arm and started to bleed slightly.

Traumatized by the car accident previously, her face turned even paler than ever.

Then, she heard a whole roar.

“What are you doing! Do you want to die?!”

Stunned, she slowly looked up with a blank face and saw Xiangyi’s angry face. She was so taken aback that she did notice how worried he was.

She had initially felt so wrong. But now all she felt was the shock from everything earlier and his yell that bean-sized tears flowed out of her eyes uncontrollably as she stared at the man holding her.

When he saw her tears, he knew that she had been really scared. His heart ached, and it spread to his chest as he felt the squeeze with each breath.

He pulled her into his arms and locked her in tightly. The tremble in his voice betrayed his worry towards her, "Don't be so reckless next time."

Shi Nuannuan remained silent, still slightly shocked.

"F*ck, are you looking for death?!"

The sports car whizzed over. Fortunately, the owner of the car had stopped the car in time. Otherwise, the consequences would have been unimaginable!

However, the driver could not help himself from winding down his window to yell at them as he passed.

Immediately after, more rapid honking came from the other side of the street.

The light had turned green for the left-turn lane Xiangyi's car was in, blocking the cars behind. They could not help but press the horn a little irritably.

Xiangyi let go of her before helping her up as they walked in the direction of the car.

He put her in the front passenger seat before getting into the driver's seat. Then, he started the car, took a detour, and drove in the direction of his apartment.

He had originally planned to send her home, but with her current condition and her injured arm, she definitely could not go back just like that.

Shi Nuannuan remained terrified the entire journey. He carried her upstairs and placed her on the sofa in the living room.

Chapter 912: Her Guilt

"Wait here," said he softly after putting her down. He then turned around and found the first aid kit from the cabinet.

Fortunately, there was only a light abrasion on her arm. It only needed to be disinfected and cleaned before applying the medicine.

He sat down beside her and carefully cleaned her wound.

Shi Nuannuan slowly came back to her senses as her gaze fell on his arm. His clothes were torn, and the edges were stained with blood.

"You're injured."

She knew that she had really messed up just now. Not only had she almost been hit by a car, but she had also caused him to be injured.

She was always like this, acting without thinking. Last time, she had also caused his wound to rupture and he almost lost his life. This time, it was the same.

The guilt she felt might help her grow, even just a little.

One day in the future, she might not be so reckless anymore.

Xiangyi dressed her injury and did not seem to care about his injured arm. Instead, he asked, "Do you feel any pain or discomfort?"

Although they had avoided the car just now, he had still fallen to the ground with her. He basically got injured while protecting her.

She shook her head, still looking sad with lingering traces of the shock from earlier.

"No."

Hearing her answer, Xiangyi's heart finally calmed down. Thinking about how he had yelled at her because he was anxious, he could not help but feel even bad.

However, he could not bring himself to apologize out loud. Instead, he just pulled her into his embrace.

"I was so anxious just now that I lost my temper at you."

Nuannuan knew that he had yelled at her because he was anxious as she leaned into him.

"I know."

In fact, she had only blamed herself for her own recklessness, not him for yelling.

A moment later, she pushed him away and her gaze fell on his injured arm.

"You're injured."

Her usual lively and carefree self had momentarily disappeared, replaced by a more concerned and guilty persona as she looked at his wound.

Xiangyi followed her line of sight and noticed his injured hand before getting up.

"I'm going to change."

Fortunately, no blood dripped on the floor. Instead, it had all seeped into the clothes. However, judging from the degree of pain from the wound, Xiangyi knew very well that it was not light.

He did not want her to see it, so he got up and took the medical kit and entered the bedroom.

Shi Nuannuan watched as he walked away silently. She still looked guilty and concerned.

After about five minutes, he still had not come out. So she got up and walked towards the bedroom.

She placed her hand on the door handle and gently pushed the door open. She saw Xiangyi taking off his clothes and cleaning the wound.

The dirt and particles from the road must have gotten into the wound due to the friction of the fall so the injury felt quite painful.

When she saw the state of his injury, her heart only felt like breaking even more.

However, she did not show it on her face. Instead, she walked over calmly and knelt down in front of him.

"I'll help you."

Xiangyi had already washed and disinfected his wound, and was in the midst of applying medical cream over it when she offered to help.

She had never done such a thing before, but she was extremely careful. Even though the medicine hurt him a lot, he did not say a word and only stared at her thick and curly eyelashes.

The wound somehow became increasingly worse to look at, mainly due to the appearance of the medicine.

Chapter 913: I've Always Been So Reckless

She wrapped the gauze around his injury carefully. It wasn't that difficult.

As she did so, a few bean-sized tears fell onto the gauze.

He became a little flustered, not knowing what to do.

Just as he was about to speak, she spoke first.

"I'm sorry. I've always been so reckless. You've gotten hurt so many times because of me." She tried to remain calm, but the more she spoke, the more uncontrollably her tears flowed.

Her tears fell onto the bandage on his arm, causing his heart to tighten.

Shi Nuannuan wiped her tears away, as if trying to stop them from falling. But the more she wiped, the more they flowed!

So she was blaming herself for what happened just now.

Realizing why she was crying, he pulled her up to sit next to him.

Then, he gently wiped away the tears on her face.

Her sobs only made him more flustered.

"It's not your fault. I should have worded it better."

Shi Nuannuan did not raise her head. It was as if every time she did something wrong, she did not dare to face him.

"It's just that you shouldn't do such dangerous things in the future."

Although she was sometimes reckless, she could clearly distinguish right and wrong.

She still did not speak as she kept her head low.

In order to put this unpleasant matter behind him, Xiangyi put on his clothes and stood up.

"I'll throw these clothes away and send you home."

The clothes were already tattered and covered in blood, so there was nothing much he could do about them anyway.

She nodded and walked out of the bedroom with him as he left with the tattered clothes to dump them at the dumpsite a few floors below.

When he returned to the apartment, the living room was empty. Shi Nuannuan was nowhere to be seen.

He was stunned for a moment. He walked to the bathroom and then the bedroom. When he did not see her, he rushed outside again.

When he reached the elevator, he realized that another elevator that was originally on the tenth floor had stopped on the first floor.

Then, his phone rang.

He took out his phone and saw a message from Shi Nuannuan: "I'm going home first."

It felt like every time she felt that she had done something wrong, she wanted to hide herself and disappear in front of him. It was the same with the last time she was in the hospital.

After leaving Xiangyi's apartment, Shi Nuannuan hailed a taxi and arrived at the bar where she was previously to get her car that she parked there previously.

Shi Mansion.

Just as they were about to have lunch, Shen Lanzhi walked to the phone and was about to call her daughter when she heard the sound of an engine coming from the door. She stopped in her tracks as she turned to look in the direction of the door.

Not long after, she saw her daughter walk through the door.

She smiled as she walked towards her daughter who had just returned. "Nuannuan, you're back?"

Shen Lanzhi did not ask where her daughter had gone because she knew that she was not a bad child and never worried about her.

However, just as she walked over with a smile on her face, her daughter only glanced at her and called out, "Mommy."

She looked a little unhappy and did not look too good either.

What's wrong?

She happened to run into Shi Yuting and Zuo Weiyi, who were on their way down to eat.

"Nuannuan, you're back. It's time to eat."

Zuo Weiyi smiled as she saw her coming back. However, she became a little concerned over Nuannuan's expression and body language when the latter walked past them.

Chapter 914: I Had Already Eaten Out

It was quite rare for Nuannuan to look so down. What happened to her?

Shi Yuting also frowned as he watched her.

“Nuannuan, aren’t you going to eat?” Shen Lanzhi started to get a little worried.

She looked like the last time Xiangyi had been in the hospital.

Could it be...

Did she go to see Xiangyi just now? Did she do something wrong again?

At the corner of the stairs, Nuannuan’s slightly lonely voice came, “I already ate out just now.”

Shen Lanzhi sighed, then turned around and walked into the dining room.

Zuo Weiyi turned to look at the man in front of her. As her older brother, she wondered if he knew what was wrong with his younger sister.

Shi Yuting’s gaze also met her bright black pupils. “Let’s go, let’s eat!”

He held her in his arms and walked downstairs.

After a morning’s rest, Zuo Weiyi had recovered very well. Her fever had also subsided, but her body was still a little sore.

Shen Lanzhi stood at the dining table and prepared some dishes. Then, she carried them out to the dining room on a tray and arrived at the door of her daughter’s room on the second floor.

Shi Yuting had just sat down and had a mouthful of rice when his cell phone rang.

After swallowing the rice, he took out his cell phone and glanced at the caller ID. Then, he got up and walked to the window of the living room to answer the call.

The call was from Xiangyi, reporting the results of the investigation on Ke Zhengfeng to him.

“Other than going to some entertainment venues secretly, there doesn’t seem to be anything special going with him recently.”

“Continue the investigation.”

“Yes,” answered Xiang Yi. Then, he suddenly remembered something. “Oh right, there’s one more thing.”

Shi Yuting frowned and waited for him to continue.

“It was this morning. Ke Zhengfeng suddenly changed his bodyguards except for his personal assistant.”

Shi Yuting frowned slightly. Why would a finance minister change his bodyguards when nothing happened?

“Why?”

“They said that these people are more capable. I heard that there was an assassination attempt on him and he almost lost his life, so he changed his bodyguards.”

“Is that true?”

“Half a year ago, he was indeed beaten up, but the other party didn’t seem to have any intention of killing him. They probably just wanted to teach him a lesson.” Politics was complicated, and it was inevitable to make enemies. These were quite natural.

“What about those bodyguards? Did you check their identities?”

“I did, but there was nothing suspicious on them. One of them was hired from abroad. I heard that he’s very capable.”

“If there’s no problem, don’t bother about it. Continue to keep an eye on Ke Zhengfeng.”

“Yes.”

After Shi Yuting finished his instructions, he was about to hang up the phone.

But Xiangyi quickly called out again.

“Mr. Shi!”

Shi Yuting frowned upon hearing Xiangyi’s anxious voice through the phone. “What’s the matter?”

On the phone, Xiangyi was silent for two seconds before he finally spoke.

“Has Nuannuan arrived home?”

Because Shi Yuting knew about them, there was no need for Xiangyi to deliberately hide anything from him. He could call her Nuannuan directly instead of the usual respectful ‘Miss’.

Shi Yuting was slightly startled. He turned his head and glanced in the direction of the second floor before replying softly, “Yes, she’s already home.”

Although Nuannuan was in a bad mood after returning and did not even eat lunch, Shi Yuting could not bring himself to say such emotional words. There was no need for him to tell Xiangyi either.

Chapter 915: What Was Wrong? She Looked Unhappy

Xiangyi was relieved to hear that she had arrived home safely.

“Okay.”

He answered and Shi Yuting hung up the phone.

On the second floor.

Shen Lanzhi was about to bring some food to her daughter. When she reached the door, she realized that the door had been locked by her daughter.

She stood at the door in a daze and knocked.

“Nuannuan?”

Her daughter would not eat out alone. As a mother, how could she not know this?

In the room, Shi Nuannuan sat on the bed with a pillow in her arms, looking depressed.

When she heard the knock on the door, she raised her black eyes and said softly, "Mommy, I'm a little tired. I want to rest."

As she said this, she put the pillow down and buried herself in the blanket.

Shen Lanzhi knocked on the door again, but no one answered.

Helpless, she could only carry the food back downstairs.

...

In the afternoon, Zuo Weiyi sensed that something was wrong with Shi Nuannuan, so she went to her door and knocked on it.

"Nuannuan, let's go shopping!"

Hearing her sister-in-law's voice, Shi Nuannuan stuck her head out of the blanket, thought for a moment, and got up.

After calming down for a few hours, her mood seemed to have improved a little.

She walked to the door, opened it and saw Zuo Weiyi standing at the door.

"What's wrong? You look unhappy."

Shi Nuannuan looked up at her, then turned around and walked into the room. Zuo Weiyi followed her in and closed the door behind her.

"I don't want to go."

Zuo Weiyi had no intention of going shopping. She only said that because she wanted to find a reason for her to open the door.

"Why?" asked Zuo Weiyi, noticing her dejected expression as the two of them sat cross-legged on the soft princess bed.

"I went to see Xiangyi today."

"Huh?"

"I did something that caused him to get hurt again." At this point, Shi Nuannuan suddenly raised her head and looked at Zuo Weiyi. It seemed like the only person she could confide in was her sister-in-law.

"Sister-in-Law, I'm really reckless, aren't I? I knew that we were on the road, at a junction, but I still ran out of the car suddenly and almost got hit by another car."

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi's eyes could not help but widen in shock. She quickly checked Nuannuan's body up, down, left, and right before asking, "Where were you? Are you injured?"

Shi Nuannuan shook her head. "I'm fine. Xiangyi was injured again to save me."

As she was wearing long sleeves, Zuo Weiyi did not see the injury below her elbow.

Shi Nuannuan did not want to say anything. After all, it was only a superficial injury and she had already applied some medicine.

Zuo Weiyi could tell what was going on. "Did something happen that made you get out of the car in a fit of anger?"

Shi Nuannuan was not a reckless person. Zuo Weiyi knew her personality very well.

Even though she did not consider the consequences of her actions, she was straightforward. This was the most honest side of her. In fact, Weiyi liked her personality.

Shi Nuannuan raised her head and nodded. "Yes."

"Then it's fine. Xiangyi must know about it, so he won't blame you."

"But, tell me, what if we really get together and get married in the future? What if I keep hurting him like this?" She had thought about it a lot the entire afternoon while she was cooped up in her room.

What if her future with Xiangyi was going to always be like this? Wouldn't that mean that Xiangyi was risking his life to be with her? Wouldn't he die sooner than later?

She didn't want that, she definitely didn't want that!

Chapter 916: Confiding About Her Feelings

She also wanted to change, but wouldn't that be easier said than done? If she couldn't change, Xiangyi might often get hurt because of something she did impulsively and recklessly. She didn't want to be like this, but she was also afraid of continuing to be like this.

She didn't dare to imagine what would happen if the car hit them today and Xiangyi had died?

The moment the car was about to hit them, she could clearly feel that him holding her tightly in his arms. If the car really hit them, Xiangyi would definitely have been the one who to get hurt.

"It won't happen. Don't think too much about it." Zuo Weiyi comforted her. "At most, next time, you can ask try to talk it out before you lose your temper."

Growing was always a process. Nuannuan had been pampered since she was young, so it was not surprising that she was a little reckless.

She had grown up under the wings of her family. Perhaps now was the time for her to grow.

Shi Nuannuan nodded in understanding.

However, she immediately raised her head and looked at Zuo Weiyi worriedly. "Then, if I can't change it, will Xiangyi think that I'm too reckless? I've always been like this. What if he finds it very tiring to be with me one day and dislikes me?"

Zuo Weiyi could not help but laugh. "How can that be? Xiangyi has known you for so many years, yet he still doesn't know what kind of personality you have? If he dislikes you, he would have done so long ago.

"Perhaps, he likes this side of you?"

Shi Nuannuan pouted. "No way, he even yelled at me back then."

Although he was concerned about her, or perhaps he was also frightened, he definitely would not like this kind of her. It was obvious that he was angry that she was always reckless and did not think about the danger.

"If I suddenly ran into the road and was almost hit by a car, what do you think your brother would do?"

Shi Nuannuan raised her head and looked at her as she pondered for a few seconds. "He would definitely get angry!"

"That's right. This is how men care about you. They are different from us women. Any concern is expressed directly on their faces. As men, they always have their ways."

After hearing what she said, Shi Nuannuan felt a lot more relieved.

"Okay, I got it."

Zuo Weiyi smiled. "Are you hungry?"

She looked up. She was indeed hungry, so she nodded honestly. "I'm hungry."

"I'll go get some big wantons for you!"

It was already three o'clock in the afternoon, and the chef had not arrived yet. Fortunately, there was still the wantons wrapped in the fridge from the morning.

Shi Nuannuan immediately beamed with joy. "Alright!"

The two of them were about to get out of bed when Shi Nuannuan's phone rang.

She glanced at the caller ID and saw that it was Xiangyi.

Zuo Weiyi also caught a glimpse of the familiar name and smiled. "I'll go down first."

Shi Nuannuan hesitated for a second before picking up the call.

She pressed the phone to her ear and did not make a sound, but Xiangyi knew that she was listening. "Are you feeling better?"

Because she had suddenly left, he knew very well that she was in a bad mood.

Shi Nuannuan pursed her lips and nodded. Compared to before, she was indeed in a much better mood.

"Yes."

"Tomorrow, Sir and I are going to A City together. We might not be back for two days."

Hearing that he was going on a business trip with her brother again, Shi Nuannuan was naturally a little disappointed.

However, she also knew one thing. As her brother's personal assistant, he definitely did not have the time to stay by her side all the time. Moreover, their current situation was a secret love affair. Even if they did not go on a business trip, she could not meet him as she pleased.

Chapter 917: A Call from Xiangyi

"Why are you going to A City?"

"Regarding the development project of the new company, there are some things that can only be settled by Mr. Shi himself."

Shi Nuannuan suddenly remembered.

After her brother retired from the presidency, his mind was only on two things: to work and constantly earn money! Of course, besides earning money, he was also spending time with his wife and children.

Last time, he did mention that he was going to open a subsidiary company in A City.

"Oh, then be careful."

"Okay."

"Is your injury still serious?"

Shi Nuannuan still felt very worried.

"It's okay, it doesn't hurt anymore." The injury may have been shocking to others. But to him, who had been through hundreds of battles, it was insignificant.

Of course, there was still some pain. It was just that he didn't want to say it out loud.

"Okay." She nodded. She also knew that it was impossible for such an injury to not hurt.

But since he didn't want to say it, she naturally understood what he was thinking. He just didn't want her to worry, and she also didn't want her to blame herself for this matter.

"I'm going to book a plane ticket. I'll hang up first."

"Okay."

After hanging up the phone, Shi Nuannuan's gloomy mood seemed to have brightened up all of a sudden. She got up and out of bed!

When she arrived downstairs and entered the dining room, she smelled a fragrant aroma.

Zuo Weiyi had already cooked a big bowl of wantons for her. The aroma was overflowing, and just by smelling it, she knew they were going to be very delicious!

Shi Nuannuan sat down, picked up a piece with her chopsticks, and took a bite. Just like that, half of a big wonton was gone!

She had eaten the hot meal a little too hastily, so she opened her mouth slightly and breathed out the heat.

“Ha... Delicious!” said she in enjoyment with closed eyes as the delicious food entered her throat.

Zuo Weiyi looked at her and smiled. “Then finish it all!”

Shi Nuannuan raised her head and smiled mischievously. “Sister-in-law, you’re so nice! And the wantons cooked by you are especially delicious!”

“The wantons were made by the chef, and the fillings were also made by him. I don’t dare to take credit for it.” She just put the wrapped wantons into the pot and added some seasoning.

“But I still think that your cooking is delicious! It’s even better than the chef’s!” Shi Nuannuan insisted.

In the study room, Shi Yuting had finished his work and smelled a fragrance the moment he went downstairs.

He came over after smelling the fragrance. When he walked to the dining room, he saw his little sister eating at the dining table.

Shi Nuannuan looked up at her brother as she continued chewing the food in her mouth. She pointed at the food and said, “Sister-in-Law made me food!”

They were supposedly ordinary words, but Shi Yuting could hear a hint of provocation in them.

So, he walked over to sit across from Shi Nuannuan and said, “I want to eat too!”

Zuo Weiyi was surprised because he was pretty disciplined with his three meals. Other than meal time, he usually wouldn’t eat, unless he didn’t have time to eat dinner and occasionally ate supper.

“Didn’t you eat lunch already?” Zuo Weiyi looked at him with some confusion. Naturally, she didn’t notice Shi Nuannuan showing off to Shi Yuting just now.

“I’m hungry!” Yuting started to act a little spoiled.

Zuo Weiyi paused again, looking at him and then at Nuannuan.

What happened all of a sudden?

“How many do you want to eat then?”

“Same as her.” Shi Yuting glanced at the wantons in Nuannuan’s bowl.

When Shi Nuannuan heard this, she could not help but want to spit out the food in her mouth. Thankfully she managed to stop in time.

“Brother, you’re jealous. Men and women aren’t that different after all!”

“Who’s jealous?” Shi Yuting glared at his sister opposite him, his face extremely dark.

Chapter 918: A Sudden Change in Location

Shi Nuannuan smiled and remained silent. It was fine as long as she knew!

Zuo Weiyi walked to the kitchen and made eight wantons. She then came out and brought them to Shi Yuting.

Shi Yuting continued glaring at Shi Nuannuan as he picked up his chopsticks.

Shi Nuannuan gave him a thumbs up, as if to say: You win!

* * * * *

The next day.

Early in the morning, Shi Yuting and Xiangyi flew directly to A City.

Ke Zhengfeng had supposedly already helped them negotiate that piece of land, but some details still needed Shi Yuting to personally discuss in detail. If the negotiations went well, they could sign the contract immediately.

It was not very far as the flight only took an hour before arrived.

The appointment with the client was at nine o'clock in the morning, and they arrived in A City at 8:10 am.

After checking in at the designated hotel, Shi Yuting and Xiangyi went directly to the agreed location with the client—a farm.

“Why did it suddenly change to a farm?”

Before leaving, Shi Yuting couldn't help but ask Xiangyi.

It was because the earlier location—a high-class clubhouse—that was supposed to be in the downtown area had suddenly changed.

“They said that this project was suddenly transferred to the mayor. The other party heard that you wanted to discuss business and wanted to contact you, so they changed the location at the last minute.”

Xiangyi thought about it and was afraid that there was something fishy going on, so he couldn't help but ask, “Why don't I reject it?”

Although it was difficult to negotiate, if Mr. Shi wasn't willing, Di Zun Group wouldn't need this piece of land at all.

“No need.” Shi Yuting raised his hand, and a cold light flashed across his dark eyes.

Then, he sat in the black Bentley.

He took out his cell phone and dialed a number.

“How have you been recently?” The call was picked up, and he asked the person on the other side with a faint smile.

The person on the phone was obviously surprised to hear his voice.

“Boss?! Did I hear wrong? Is it really you?” A male voice came from the receiver. After hearing Shi Yuting’s voice, he was obviously in disbelief.

“How have you been recently?”

“Very good! As the saying goes, if you survive a great disaster, you will have good fortune in the future! If boss didn’t save me from the lion’s mouth back then, I would have long gone to hell!”

“I heard that you are now a major general.”

“Thanks to boss! Oh right, why did you think of calling me?”

Back then, because of Shi Le, he was once thrown into the jungle and received hellish training. He almost lost his life in the lion’s mouth. It was Shi Yuting who saved his life. After that, although the opportunities for them to meet each other gradually decreased, he still saved that person. Every year, during the spring festival, he would still make a phone call to greet Shi Yuting and send him some gifts.

Because he was in C Country at that time, it became even more difficult to meet him.

“I’m in A City now,” said Shi Yuting.

That person was stunned.

“A City? Z Country?”

“Yes.”

“Wow, boss is planning to look for me?” That person was secretly delighted. It had been eight or nine years since they last met. Besides that, he had only seen him occasionally in some reports.

“Sort of, but I’m not looking for you specifically. I’m looking for you to help me recruit some people.”

The man was stunned. “People?”

“Yes.”

“How many?”

“A team.”

“No problem! When are you coming to pick them up?” The man was quite straightforward.

“So, here’s what’s going to happen...”

The black Bentley slowly drove to its destination.

It arrived at the farm at nine o’clock sharp.

But the farm turned out to be... a golf course?

“Are you sure he won’t notice anything?” asked Ke Zhengfeng to a bodyguard of his standing next to him as the former looked at the mayor and Bureau Chief from the Ministry of Land and Resources playing golf not far away.

Chapter 919: Don't Buy Things You're Not Sure of

"He won't."

"Then when will you give me what I want if this matter is successful?"

At this moment, only Ke Zhengfeng and the bodyguard were present. They didn't hold anything back during their conversation.

"Minister Ke, that's not a small sum. Why are you so anxious?"

"Hmph, I won't buy things that I'm not sure of." Ke Zhengfeng snorted.

"Don't worry, after the matter is done, I will definitely give you what you want," said the bodyguard.

Ke Zhengfeng nodded in satisfaction.

What he wanted now was a large sum of money. With money, everything would be easy to do. Whether it was to be an elected member or the next president, he was determined to get it!

In this world, there was nothing that money cannot buy!

However, he suddenly became a little worried and turned to look at the bodyguard.

"You won't implicate me by doing this, will you?" Although he had never directly confronted Shi Yuting, he had heard that he was famous for being cold-blooded and bloodthirsty. No one who provoked him had a good ending. He was worried that he would set himself on fire.

Hearing this, the bodyguard could not help but looked back at Ke Zhengfeng with a strange smile on his face.

"If he's already dead, what trouble can you get into? Besides, don't you also want to kill him? In this way, no one will know what you did back then, and it won't affect your election."

Hearing this, Ke Zhengfeng's face stiffened, he was still a little worried.

"Although you say so, you should know better than me that Shi Yuting has a grandfather, and the Shi family's power is not to be underestimated."

"Then it depends on whether you do this cleanly or not."

Ke Zhengfeng glanced at him again but did not say anything else.

Then, his personal assistant walked over.

"Minister, Shi Yuting is here."

Hearing this, Ke Zhengfeng and the bodyguard exchanged a glance, then stood up and looked towards the entrance of the golf course, only to see Shi Yuting and his personal assistant walking over.

The corners of Ke Zhengfeng's and the bodyguard's lips curled up at the same time. Seeing that he only had Xiangyi by his side, it meant that they were not suspicious of them.

Ke Zhengfeng stood up to welcome them.

“Ah, Mr. Shi is finally here!”

As Ke Zhengfeng said this, he stretched out his hand to welcome them, as if he wanted to shake Shi Yuting’s hand.

However, Shi Yuting only shot a cold glance at the hand that he stretched out, having no intention of shaking it.

Instead, his thin lips curled up slightly as he said with a smile, “Minister Ke, sorry for the wait.”

According to the agreed time, he was considered five minutes late.

It was already 9:05 am.

The extended hand was directly ignored by him. Ke Zhengfeng’s expression froze for a second, as if he was a little embarrassed.

However, as a minister, he still had to have an image to maintain. He smiled and brushed off that moment of awkwardness.

“We changed the location at the last minute. So please forgive us, Mr. Shi. Don’t take it to heart.” He might have been trying to please Shi Yuting, but he never lowered his head to Shi Yuting.

Shi Yuting curled his lips into a smile, but it never reached his dark eyes.

“That’s hard to say.”

Shi Yuting left behind a puzzling sentence and walked toward the rest area not far away. He then sat down on a gray single-seater sofa and looked at the two people playing golf in the distance.

“Go invite the mayor and Bureau Chief Chen over. Tell them that Mr. Shi is here,” said Ke Zhengfeng to his personal assistant as the former also sat down.

Chapter 920: I Need to Take a Call

The assistant nodded and walked into the field to invite the mayor and Bureau Chen over.

Then, the two people walked to the resting area.

The middle-aged man who was the mayor walked over after handing the club to the person beside him.

Although this was the first time he had seen Shi Yuting, he had seen Shi Yuting’s appearance through the media reports.

This man was not simple. If he established himself in A City, he would definitely bring them prosperity in the future. Naturally, he wanted to come and meet him personally.

He walked over and nodded slightly at Minister Ke. His attitude was very humble. After all, his official position was higher than his.

“Take a seat.” Ke Zhengfeng pointed at the seat opposite Shi Yuting.

The mayor sat down and then looked at Shi Yuting. "Hello, Mr. Shi."

His attitude was very neutral. He did not speak or smile. He neither bowed nor acted arrogantly because of his status.

Shi Yuting saw this and could not help but think deeply.

This Mayor Xia did not seem to be in the same boat as Ke Zhengfeng.

"Mayor Xia." He replied calmly. He didn't say much, and his attitude was the same as Mayor Xia's, calm and unhurried.

"I want to hear about your plans to develop our city." Mayor Xia faced Shi Yuting seriously.

Hearing this, Shi Yuting tilted his head slightly. Then, Xiangyi placed a proposal in front of Mayor Xia.

"It's all here," said Xiangyi, then retreated to the side and stood there quietly.

Mayor Xia took a glance at Shi Yuting, then picked up the proposal and read it.

Ke Zhengfeng's eyes darted back and forth between Shi Yuting and Mayor Xia's faces, feeling that it was about time.

When he turned to Shi Yuting's face again, Shi Yuting happened to be looking at him as well.

For some reason, when he met Shi Yuting's eyes, which were as deep as the night, Ke Zhengfeng suddenly felt a little guilty and quickly lowered his gaze.

Shi Yuting was more experienced and intuitive than an average person's, so Ke Zhengfeng could not sense what Shi Yuting was thinking.

At this time, a cell phone rang.

Ke Zhengfeng came back to his senses and saw that it was his cell phone that rang. He looked at the crowd and then stood up.

"Please excuse me, I'm going to take a call."

He looked at Shi Yuting and smiled. Then, he walked not far away and picked up the phone.

Mayor Xia was puzzled by his respectful attitude towards Shi Yuting.

After all, he was the finance minister. How could he show such a flattering attitude towards a businessman? Perhaps he had a good understanding of Shi Yuting's character before this.

However, today, Yuting was the one who came to discuss business with them. Was there a need to curry favor with him?

The mayor was an upright person, so he did not understand Ke Zhengfeng's attitude.

He continued to read the proposal in his hand.

If the branch of Di Zun Group was set up here, it might really bring a lot of benefits in A City.

At the back of the proposal, there was also a description of the greater benefits that Di Zun Group brought to each city after setting up its branch in those places.

All the cities that had the Di Zun Group in them seemed to have flourished in the past few years. It was obvious that it was because of the group's branch offices' presence.

After reading all the information, Mayor Xia looked up at Shi Yuting and was about to speak.

At this moment, Ke Zhengfeng returned from the phone call.

"Sorry, I still have something to deal with in the city, so I'll take my leave first."
