

Kiss Me 931

Chapter 931: Don't Make Things Difficult for Me

If her daughter cried like this, Zuo Weiyi's heart would definitely break too!

However, she was still holding her own child in her hands, so she couldn't just put hers down to comfort the little girl.

At this moment, the little girl's mother ran over.

"Baby, what's wrong?"

"Wah... mommy, there's a bad person... wah..."

Hearing this, the woman looked at Zuo Weiyi and the others. When she saw the fierce bodyguards behind her, she couldn't help but feel a little afraid.

However, the child was scared to tears. As a mother, how could she not care?

She protected her child in her arms and then stood up to look at Zuo Weiyi, "You rich people, you wouldn't have done this to your own child, would you? The hospital doesn't serve your family. If you're so rich to hire so many bodyguards, why don't you just build a hospital at home?!"

Zuo Weiyi and Shen Lanzhi were stunned and didn't know what to say for a moment.

They could understand the woman's feelings. After all, the child was crying too hard. What if she really got sick from being scared?

Thinking of this, Zuo Weiyi smiled at the woman. "I'm sorry for scaring your children. I'll send them off now."

With that, she turned around and looked at the bodyguards. "Why aren't you leaving?"

The bodyguards looked at each other. If anything happened to them, they wouldn't be able to bear the responsibility even if they had four heads.

"Young Madam, please don't make things difficult for us."

"Then don't make things difficult for me."

They were only at the entrance of the elevator, and there were almost all children there. If the entire floor became scared to the point of crying, wouldn't it be chaotic?

"But, if Mr. Shi blames us..."

"Don't worry, I'll call you if there's anything, or..." She looked at the eight bodyguards and pointed at the seemingly gentle-looking bodyguard. "Let him stay."

The leading bodyguard looked at the bodyguards behind him and finally agreed.

After all, they all had walkie-talkies. If something urgent happened, they would be the first to receive the news anyway.

“Alright then, Young Madam, remember to call us if there’s anything.”

“Got it, all of you can leave now.”

After the seven bodyguards left, Zuo Weiyi asked the remaining one to take off his sunglasses so that he would look more approachable.

As expected, by the time she turned around, the little girl who had been scared to tears had gradually stopped crying.

Zuo Weiyi’s lips curled into a faint smile as her heart calmed down as well. Finally, they were able to enter examination room.

After a series of physical examinations for the babies, it was time for their vaccinations.

The moment the needle was inserted, the two cute babies instantly burst into tears.

Zuo Weiyi’s heart was broken and her eyes turned slightly red.

She gently coaxed them. “Don’t cry, don’t cry... you’ll be fine soon.”

After the vaccination, they put on the babies’ clothes. The doctor had prescribed some supplements for the babies as they were found to be lacking calcium.

“Take this and collect the medication on the first floor.”

Since both of them were carrying a baby each, Shen Lanzhi handed the list to the bodyguard and asked him to get it instead.

The bodyguard took the list and looked at the two of them worriedly. He wanted to ask the other bodyguards to follow them, but they were still surrounded by children. They would probably be chased away by the young madam again.

Chapter 932: Ah! My Grandson!

After some thought, he decided to go get the medication himself.

A cell phone rang. Zuo Weiyi was holding her child when she realized that it was her cell phone. She took it out from her pocket and noticed that it was a call from Nuannuan.

“Were you able to send Xiangyi away?” Today was the 28th of December. The reason Nuannuan did not come with them was because she had gone to the airport to send Xiangyi away.

She should be on her way back now.

“Yes, I’m at the hospital entrance. Where are you?”

Nuannuan had just parked the car and got off.

Zuo Weiyi looked in the direction of the hospital entrance.

“We’re on the first floor—”

Suddenly, a figure suddenly appeared in front of Shen Lanzhi without any warning.

Shen Lanzhi had her head lowered as she played with the child in her arms, unaware of the figure that suddenly appeared in front of her.

At the very last moment, she finally subconsciously felt a shadow over her. She looked up and was shocked beyond disbelief!

Xiao Yayue took the opportunity to snatch away the baby in her arms and rushed towards the entrance of the hospital!

“Ah! My Grandson!” Shen Lanzhi quickly recovered from her shock and sprinted after Xiao Yayue.

“Xiao Yayue, return my grandson to me!” Shen Lanzhi shouted as she chased after her with a heart-wrenching pain in her chest!

Zuo Weiyi was still on the phone with Nuannuan when she suddenly heard the sudden commotion. Her voice came to an abrupt halt as her eyes widened due to the scene she immediately witnessed not far away!

“Child... my child!” She threw away her phone and rushed towards the hospital’s main entrance with Lian Lian in her arms!

The sudden exclamation also caught the attention of the bodyguard. As he turned around, he saw the young madam and madam rushing towards the hospital’s main entrance at the same time. But only Weiyi had a child in her arms. On the other hand, another woman was running towards the entrance with a child wrapped in her embrace.

The bodyguard returned to his senses and quickly pressed the walkie-talkie beside his ear. “There’s a sudden situation! A woman carrying the young master rushed out of the main entrance. Quickly stop her!”

The bodyguard dropped everything and immediately rushed towards the entrance!

After receiving the news, the other bodyguards who were waiting near the entrance also rushed into the hospital’s main entrance!

“My child... Mo Mo...” Zuo Weiyi cried like a weeping pear blossom, as if her heart had been torn apart.

That was her life!

At the main entrance of the hospital, Shi Nuannuan was on the phone with her sister-in-law when she suddenly heard a burst of noise from inside. It sounded like the cries of her mother and sister-in-law...

There was no further response from the phone either. Shi Nuannuan was dumbfounded.

She raised her head and saw that the door of the hospital building was in chaos.

Xiao Yayue carried the child and rushed to the door only to find that a group of bodyguards had rushed in. She had no choice but to turn around and rush to the side door with the child in her arms.

“My grandson...” It was unknown where Shen Lanzhi’s strength came from. But she was able to rush towards Xiao Yayue’s back in one go and grabbed her by her clothes!

“Give my grandson back to me!” She was about to snatch the child in Xiao Yayue’s hands.

However, Xiao Yayue did not let go as she desperately tried to break away from Shen Lanzhi’s grip on her clothes!

Chapter 933: The Child Who Was on the Ground

“Don’t even think about it!” Xiao yayue roared angrily back at Shen Lanzhi. “You destroyed me, and your son killed mine. Now, I’m going to use your grandson as a sacrifice!”

She twisted her body fiercely and broke free from Shen Lanzhi’s hold as the former attempted to continue her escape!

However, Shen Lanzhi grabbed her hair. “Give the child back to me!”

Mo Mo had been frightened by everything that was happening and ended up crying loudly.

Shen Lanzhi suddenly stopped reaching for her grandson. She was afraid that she would hurt him, so she could only grab Xiao Yayue’s clothes and hair with all her might!

“Child, my child...”

Zuo Weiyi managed to catch up with the chase. But the child in her arms started to cry too. Zuo Weiyi was almost unable to bear it, feeling as if her heart was truly about to break.

Because Shen Lanzhi was able to grab hold of Xiao Yayue, the bodyguards also managed to arrive in time.

The sight of the bodyguard made Xiao Yayue know that she had already failed to achieve her goal. Suddenly, she raised both her hands and lifted the Mo Mo in her hands!

Seeing her actions, Shen Lanzhi and Zuo Weiyi were completely scared out of their wits. They froze and their faces turned pale.

Xiao Yayue raised the child in her hand and was about to smash him onto the ground..

“No!!”

Seeing Xiao Yayue’s action, Zuo Weiyi, who was not far away, felt as if a sharp sword had pierced through her chest. Unable to withstand the stimulation, her legs went soft and her vision went black. She lost consciousness and fell down...

“Sister-in-law!”

Shi Nuannuan was not far behind when she witnessed her sister-in-law collapsing. She managed to rush forward in time to catch both the mother and child.

“Sister-in-law?!”

“My grandson!”

Shen Lanzhi snapped out of her stupor and reached out towards her grandson. But she was a step too late as the child slowly slipped out of the hands of Xiao Yayue.

Her almond-shaped eyes were wide open. She was so frightened that her face changed abruptly, and not a trace of blood could be seen!

“Mo Mo...”

In a split second, everyone expected the child to be on the ground, but things suddenly took a turn.

One of the bodyguards suddenly glided along the floor and slid to the front of Xiao Yayue at the critical moment. Just like that, he acted as a cushion for Mo Mo!

When the baby landed in his arms, the other bodyguards also heaved a huge sigh of relief, as if they were relieved of a heavy burden!

After all, the life of the young master was worth more than their lives combined!

The bodyguards rushed in front of Xiao Yayue without delay and overpowered her!

Xiao Yayue grew extremely dissatisfied by how her plans became thwarted by the bodyguard’s quick save. She still wanted to cause trouble, but she was already remanded by the bodyguards and could not struggle free!

“Mo Mo, my grandson...” Shen Lanzhi picked up the child in the bodyguard’s arms and embraced him with tears streaming down her face.

If her grandson was hurt, she might not be able to live on.

At this time, the bodyguard, who had contributed a lot, could finally stand up. He reached out to wipe the cold sweat on his forehead. It was such a close call...

Fortunately, the floor was slippery enough for him to slide over. If he was just a step late, the child might have truly been smashed onto the cold floor.

Chapter 934: You’ll Never See the Light of Day Again!

With Mo Mo caught in time, and Zuo Weiyi and Lian Lian leaning against her safely, Nuannuan was finally able to breathe out a sigh of relief.

She looked down at her unconscious sister-in-law and called out softly while gently patting her face.

“Sister-in-law?”

Zuo Weiyi slowly woke up.

The next second, she bounced up. “Mo Mo!”

As soon as she sat up, she saw Shen Lanzhi holding the child while crying. She got up and walked over to take the child. Then, she hugged the child tightly in her arms, feeling like she had regained what she had lost.

“My Mo Mo...” Despite Mo Mo safely in her arms, Weiyi still trembled with lingering fear.

Shen Lanzhi felt extremely guilty.

If she had held the child more tightly, such a thing wouldn’t have happened.

If the bodyguards hadn’t arrived in time, she really didn’t dare to think about the consequences. She didn’t dare to think about what would have happened...

“Weiyi, I’m sorry. It’s because I didn’t hold the child properly that such a thing happened...”

Zuo Weiyi looked at her mother-in-law. She knew that under such circumstances, it was inevitable that she would be distracted.

No one would have thought that Xiao Yayue would suddenly appear here. If it were her, she might have also been distracted for a moment, giving Xiao Yayue the same chance to snatch the child away.

“It’s good that the child is fine. You don’t have to blame yourself.”

Shen Lanzhi glanced at her. Despite her guilt, she was happy that the child was safe at least.

Shi Nuannuan also walked over with Lian Lian in her arms, glaring fiercely at the culprit, Xiao Yayue!

“You couldn’t kill my mommy previously so now you want to harm my nephew? Your heart is really full of snakes and scorpions!”

Xiao Yayue sneered, “Hah! Compared to that b*tch, your mother, I’m far superior!”

Shi Nuannuan raised her hand and slapped Xiao Yayue mercilessly!

“You and your son deserve to die!”

Xiao Yayue was not happy to be slapped. She wanted to return it, but her hands were tied up and she could not move at all. She could only glare fiercely at Shi Nuannuan!

At this moment, the leading bodyguard could not help but speak up. He looked at Shen Lanzhi and then at the young madam. Seeing that they still had lingering fear on their faces, his gaze finally landed on Shi Nuannuan’s face.

“Eldest Miss, what should we do with this woman now? Should we hand her over to the police or wait for Mr. Shi to come deal with her?”

Hearing this, Shi Nuannuan’s gaze shifted from Xiao Yayue’s face to the bodyguard’s and finally on Zuo Weiyi’s.

“Sister-in-law, how do you plan to execute her?”

Zuo Weiyi looked up and turned towards Xiao Yayue who still looked malevolent.

She recalled the scene of Xiao Yayue attempting to throw her son to the ground. Weiyi's eyes grew dark and her face turned cold.

"Arrest her and send her to the first prison. Never let her see the light of day again!"

It wasn't just Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi who were surprised, but even the bodyguards were too.

After all, the young madam had never used such ruthless words. To Shi Nuannuan, her sister-in-law had not seemed to be such a ruthless person.

However, there are always exceptions and people can change. Over time, the bodyguards noticed that her behaviour was becoming more and more like Shi Yuting's—ruthless and merciless.

She did not want the wicked person to die, but to suffer a fate worse than death instead!

Chapter 935: The Punishment, the Negotiation.

"Yes, ma'am!"

After receiving the order, two of the bodyguards escorted Xiao Yayue out of the hospital.

"Shen Lanzhi, you will definitely die a horrible death!" Xiao Yayue cursed stubbornly. Little did she know that in the first prison, there were endless torments that were worse than death waiting for her!

Despite the relentless curses sent her way, Shen Lanzhi remained calm.

She already had children and two beautiful grandchildren. How could she lose them all?

Shen Lanzhi, Zuo Weiyi, and the others did not take her curses to heart.

Zuo Weiyi also believed that she did not do anything wrong or evil. Her two children would definitely grow up healthily until she would be buried a hundred years later.

Later, when Shi Yuting found out what had transpired, he severely punished the bodyguards.

Zuo Weiyi could not help but feel a little guilty.

After all, it was also because she had insisted on not allowing the bodyguards to accompany them so closely that Xiao Yayue was able to find the chance to take advantage of the situation. The bodyguards were indeed somewhat wronged.

"Actually, I didn't let them follow because when they did, they had scared the children until they started crying..."

Zuo Weiyi could not help but speak up as she approached them in the courtyard.

"I don't care about the process. Their duty is to protect you. If they could not do it, then they had not performed their duty," said Shi Yuting coldly.

As expected of the king.

Zuo Weiyi sensed why and how his subordinates had been able to remain so loyal to him. Just the expression on his face alone made people not dare to raise their heads.

She looked at the few kneeling bodyguards. They all had calm expressions on their faces, as if Shi Yuting's punishment wasn't too much.

"But, they also saved Mo Mo in time. It can be considered as making up for their mistakes, right?" Zuo Weiyi still tried to persuade him.

When she made them leave, they had said that Shi Yuting would not let them go if he found out.

However, they were helpless in the face of her insistence as the 'Young Madam'. They had to leave, despite the huge dilemma they faced.

Therefore, she did share a certain amount of responsibility.

"It was their negligence that caused the consequences in the first place. How could they make up for their mistakes?" Shi Yuting frowned at her.

Zuo Weiyi paused. She wanted to plead on behalf of the bodyguard, but it did not seem to have any effect.

"I'm also partly responsible for this matter. Why don't... you punish me as well?" asked she carefully as she looked at him.

It wasn't that she pitied the bodyguards, but she didn't want others to accept the punishment for the consequences she had caused.

She felt a little guilty in her heart.

"Are you feeling sorry for them?"

Weiyi was taken aback.

"No, I just feel that this matter—"

"Add another 20 lashes!"

Before she could finish her sentence, Shi Yuting suddenly turned around and gave out the order coldly as he faced the bodyguards kneeling in front of him!

The sudden 20 lashes caught them unprepared.

The bodyguards raised their heads one after another, but when they saw Shi Yuting's cold face, they quickly lowered their heads.

Why was it that the more the young madam interceded, the heavier their punishment became?

The bodyguards were all confused. The twenty lashes were too inexplicable.

Chapter 936: Ke Zhengfeng Was Reported

Logically speaking, her husband doted on her to the bone and regarded her as his life. Shouldn't her plea be somewhat effective? Even if it wasn't effective, it still made sense. But why did he suddenly add another twenty lashes?

The leading bodyguard kept his head down and couldn't figure out the reason behind this.

Could it be related to his heart...?

The bodyguard suddenly came to a realization and finally understood the reason behind these twenty lashes!

Rather than persuade him, could it be that her pleas only made him jealous?

Oh my god! Then their twenty lashes were truly too unjust!

The bodyguards didn't know whether to laugh or cry. They didn't expect Young Madam to plea for mercy for them, only to end up giving them another twenty lashes!

Zuo Weiyi was also shocked by the unexpected outcome of her actions. She couldn't help but feel that Shi Yuting's twenty lashes were somewhat inexplicable!

"Shi Yuting, why did you suddenly add another twenty lashes to them?!"

"Thirty lashes!" Shi Yuting's face was very gloomy.

Zuo Weiyi was completely dumbfounded. She wanted to continue reasoning with him. "Shi Yu—"

"Young Madam!"

This time, the leading bodyguard dared to open his mouth and looked at Zuo Weiyi with great gratitude. He did not know whether to laugh or cry.

"Please...don't speak anymore."

Zuo Weiyi looked at the bodyguard in surprise.

Shi Yuting glared sharply at the bodyguard and the latter immediately lowered his head again.

Zuo Weiyi looked worriedly at the bodyguard before turning back to Shi Yuting. She seemed to have understood something in an instant and could not help but look at Shi Yuting suspiciously.

Could it be that he just jealous?

Forget it. If she opened her mouth again, the bodyguards would probably be punished more severely. If that happened, she would really be a great sinner!

After thinking for a while, she could not help but turn around silently and walk into the house.

It was indeed a little cold after being out for so long. And unfortunately, the bodyguards were still kneeling in the snow to receive their punishment.

The heater was turned on in the house. Zuo Weiyi poured a cup of hot tea and sat on the sofa. After taking a sip, she felt her core warming up.

She looked out the window and admired the fluttering snowflakes. Another year had passed in a blink of an eye.

Not only was she married, she had even given birth to a pair of twins. Who would have thought that the illegitimate daughter that everyone had been targeting all those years ago would suddenly turn out to be the young madam of a wealthy family, as well as the granddaughter of an ex-president.

Even Zuo Weiyi herself had never thought that her life would one day undergo such an earth-shattering change.

Tomorrow was New Year's Eve. It was time for her to visit her mother.

"What? The head of the Z Country's Finance Ministry has been demoted? Damn, he actually embezzled so much money...200 million?!"

Nuannuan's exclamation suddenly echoed through the living room as Zuo Weiyi was deep in thought.

With her cup of tea still in hand, she turned towards the TV Nuannuan was watching and saw the news.

As a citizen of Z Country, Zuo Weiyi recognized the man on the screen at a glance. Wasn't he the Finance Minister, Ke Zhengfeng?

He had been arrested?

Wasn't it rumored that he was an honest official? How could it be revealed that he had embezzled 200 million yuan?

Zuo Weiyi couldn't help but become a little interested in this piece of news.

In the past, he was an honest official. The recent election conference also said that he was very likely to be elected as a representative of the National People's Congress. Why was he suddenly arrested?

"Wow, the one who reported him was just a mayor..."

Everyone knew that in the officialdom, reporting one's immediate superior was as difficult as ascending to heaven. But Mayor Xia was actually brave enough to do it!

Shi Yuting had just finished punishing the bodyguards as he joined them in the living room. He took the cup of tea from Weiyi's hands and drank a sip.

Chapter 937: Reunion on New Year's Eve (1)

Then, his looked at the television screen.

His lips unintentionally curled into a smile, and it did not escape Zuo Weiyi's notice.

She looked back at Ke Zhengfeng on the television.

Could it be that they had interacted with each other before?

"Why are you smiling?" asked she.

He casually pulled her into his arms. "It's nothing. Tomorrow, let's go pay a visit to Mother-in-Law."

Her curiosity had been successfully diverted.

It seemed that he was thinking the same thing as her.

After the news broadcast, Shi Nuannuan took an apple. When she turned around and saw her brother and sister-in-law snuggling together, she could not help but stop biting the apple.

Tomorrow was New Year's Eve. She wondered what Xiangyi would do at home?

She fell into an endless reverie..

...

On New Year's Eve.

In the morning, Shi Yuting and Zuo Weiyi went to the cemetery. They even carried Mo Mo and Lian Lian.

Although the children were very young, Zuo Weiyi did not believe in superstition. She only wanted to carry the two cute babies and show them to her mother.

It was a little cold in the middle of winter.

After getting out of the car, Shi Yuting took the initiative to hold Lian Lian.

"Lian Lian, were you really my little lover in your past life?" Shi Yuting was initially a little awkward in figuring out how to interact with and hold the babies. However, after a few months, he was now a lot more comfortable with them.

Looking at his daughter in his arms, the coldness of the outside world seemingly faded, replaced by a father's love for his daughter.

Looking at his expression, Zuo Weiyi unconsciously smiled.

Though he had initially been favouring sons over daughters, he had been fawning a little too much over Lian Lian lately.

Out of curiosity, she could not help but ask, "Why do you seem to favor Lian Lian a little more?"

Although he would occasionally hug Mo Mo, the number of times he hugged his son was obviously less than Lian Lian.

"Because she was obviously my little lover in my previous life," said Shi Yuting so matter-of-factly.

"So you don't like your son?"

"I do, but..." He turned to face her. "There's a difference between loving a daughter and loving a son.

"I can give my daughter the best, and even raise her at home for the rest of her life. But my son is different. What he wants to do is what I'm doing now, and not live under the wings of his parents."

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised by his words.

What he meant was that he could dote and spoil his daughter with all the love in the world. On the other hand, he wanted his son to grow up independent and strong. Yuting had his own way of loving his children.

“Let’s go.” He smiled as he walked into the cemetery with his daughter in his arms.

Zuo Weiyi lightly pinched her children’s hands, worried that they might be cold. But based on how the color was restored on their skin after, they were as warm as they can be.

The two of them had just arrived at the cemetery when Zuo Yi arrived as well.

She had originally planned to inform her grandpa, but when she thought of the cold weather and her grandpa’s old age, Zuo Weiyi did not have the heart to tell him that she had come to visit her mother.

So she did not expect him to come anyway.

Her grandpa must still have a lot of regrets about her mother and grandmother.

Zuo Yi looked somber as he placed a bouquet of white chrysanthemums on the tombstone.

He knew very well that no matter how much he owed her, he could not make up for anything. And right now, his only responsibility was to let his granddaughter continue to be happy. That would be his last responsibility in this world.

It was already ten in the morning when they came out of the cemetery.

Chapter 938: Reunion on New Year’s Eve (2)

Weiyi did not want to stay too long. The weather was too cold and she was afraid her babies would start to freeze.

Back at the Shi mansion, Shen Lanzhi and Nuannuan had been busy the entire time to prepare for the New Year’s Eve dinner feast.

Uncle Yu also came to help. This year, Shen Lanzhi felt much more relaxed.

While the snowflakes fell outside the window and the winter white landscape really convinced one of the coldness of the weather outside, the interior of the house remained cozily warm.

Zuo Yi had always spent New Year alone. Occasionally, Gu Yansheng would accompany him, but ever since Shen Ruoxi left, he had never been so happy.

He was able to reconcile with his old friend of many years. He also had an obedient and sensible granddaughter, and now he had two more great-grandchildren.

Thinking of this, his eyes could not help but redden as he sat on the sofa.

Suddenly, a phone rang.

Shi Nuannuan heard the familiar ringtone as she decorated the living room. She hurried to the coffee table and recognized the caller ID immediately: it was Xiangyi.

She happily picked up her cell phone and walked to the second floor!

Shi Le, who was playing chess with Zuo Yi, was stunned when he saw his granddaughter's actions.

This child was being so sneaky just to answer a phone call. Could she really be in love?

Who was it? That child, Cheng Huan?

But he didn't seem to have seen that child recently. Could it be that the two of them had been in contact by phone?

With that in mind, he felt that it was time to call Old Man Cheng to wish him a happy new year.

He started to turn around to grab his phone but immediately noticed that Zuo Yi was looking a little dejected.

"What's wrong with you?"

"Nothing." Zuo Yi straightened himself out and stared at the chessboard, acting as if nothing had happened.

His absent-mindedness had led him to get check-mated

"Checkmate!"

Shi Le had a smug look on his face. He had finally won!

Zuo Yi glanced at him and didn't say anything more. After all, winning or losing didn't matter to him at all.

Shi Le stood up. "I'm going to make a phone call."

As he spoke, he walked to the side of the coffee table.

Before his hand touched the phone, the phone rang. He paused for a moment before picking it up.

Very soon, Old Man Cheng's voice sounded from the phone.

"That's great!"

No one knew what was said on the phone, but Shi Le was beaming with joy.

After hanging up the phone, Shi Le said to Zuo Weiyi and Shi Yuting who were sitting on the sofa, "Old Man Cheng will come to our house for the New Year's Eve feast as well."

As he said this, he seemed to have thought of something and looked in the direction of the second floor.

Could it be that the phone call was really from Cheng Huan?

Old Man Cheng called right after she had picked up her phone... Could it have been Cheng Huan after all?

As he thought about it, Shi Le could not help but feel that this matter was really developing.

If he could really become in-laws with the Cheng family, he would naturally be happy. He also really liked that child Cheng Huan.

Night gradually fell. As the snowflakes stopped falling outside the window, the colorful lights around the Shi mansion lit up one by one, lighting up the festive atmosphere of the night.

Shi Nuannuan had not come down from the second floor, even when it was time for the New Year's Eve dinner.

Shi Le could not help but walk up to the second floor and knock on the door. "Nuannuan, what are you doing? Come down for dinner."

Shi Nuannuan lay on the bed and chatted happily with Xiangyi. She seemed to have forgotten that the New Year's Eve dinner had already begun as night fell.

She only snapped back to reality when she heard the knock on the door. She turned around and saw that it was already dark outside the window.

When she heard her grandfather's voice, she hurriedly shouted at the door. "I know, I'll be right there!"

When he heard his granddaughter's voice from inside the door, Shi Le did not forget to press his face against the door as if he wanted to eavesdrop on whether that call was from Cheng Huan.

Chapter 939: Reunion on New Year's Eve (3)

However, Shi Nuannuan was not stupid. She did not hear the sound of her grandfather's footsteps leaving, so how could she possibly speak again.

He did not hear anything and thought that she had hung up the phone, so he did not say anything more and turned around to go downstairs.

Only when the footsteps gradually faded away did Shi Nuannuan put her phone to her ear and said to Xiangyi on the phone, "I'm going to eat. Happy New Year!"

"Happy New Year." Xiangyi's voice came from the phone.

The phone call put her in a good mood. She hummed a little tune as she went downstairs.

"It's so lively this year. Shall we get together every year for the New Year?"

"How is that possible? You'll get married sooner or later. If you get married, you'll have to spend the new year at someone else's house." Shen Lanzhi realized that her daughter had really grown up. In the blink of an eye, she had reached the age of marriage. She couldn't help but feel a little melancholic.

At this moment, Shi Le suddenly said, "That's not necessarily true. She can come with her in-laws. Why don't our three families spend the new year together?"

The reason Shi Le said that was because he felt that if Nuannuan married into the Cheng family, the friendly ties between the two families would definitely make it possible.

However, Shi Nuannuan smiled awkwardly. She lowered her head and silently picked up a piece of spinach from the hot pot to eat.

If grandfather knew that she was going to marry Xiangyi, would he still say that?

After the family reunion dinner, Zuo Yi took out a red packet and distributed it to everyone. Even Shen Lanzhi had one. In his eyes, she was also a junior.

Shi Nuannuan felt a little strange. Every year after the reunion dinner, grandfather would give out red packets. Why was there no red packet this year?

Sitting on the sofa, she looked at her grandfather suspiciously. "Grandfather, where are your red packets?"

"I'll send it later. There will be guests coming," said he with a smile. He had prepared a big red packet for Cheng Huan.

Shi Nuannuan could not help but pause.

Guests? Who were they?

They were in Z Country right now. Could it be that Brother Shenghao was coming?

No, when she called him in the afternoon to pay her new year's greetings, he said that he had gone on a trip abroad and was not in Z Country.

Then who could it be?

"Okay, Happy New Year."

Zuo Weiyi also received a new year's call from her best friend.

She really did not expect that her good friend would also be getting married. Time really passed in the blink of an eye.

At eight o'clock, the doorbell of Shi Mansion rang. Uncle Yu took the initiative to walk out to open the door. Not long after, he saw that Cheng Huan's family of three generations had arrived.

When she saw Cheng Huan, Shi Nuannuan, who was sitting on the sofa, could not help but be stunned. The smile on her face suddenly froze.

The guests that grandfather mentioned were those from the Cheng Family?

Both parties briefly introduced each other before sitting down on the sofa.

Cheng Huan's parents' gaze fell on Shi Nuannuan's face. The more they looked at her, the more they liked her.

Shi Nuannuan felt a little uncomfortable being looked at, so she stood up and planned to leave the group of the elders alone.

Her brother and sister-in-law were setting up Kong Ming lanterns in the courtyard. She was going to make a wish too!

“Cheng Huan, you should go too. Young people have more things to talk about when they are together. It’s better to not feel bored sitting together with us, the older generation.” Shi Le encouraged Cheng Huan when he saw Shi Nuannuan leave the table.

Cheng Huan liked Shi Nuannuan, but because of her frank rejection last time, he did not know if he should continue pursuing her or just take a step back.

However, just when he decided he should give up on her, she appeared in front of him again. His heart seemed to be deeply attracted to her, and his mind was filled with her.

With Shi Le’s encouragement, Cheng Huan turned towards the direction Nuannuan left before getting up and heading off in the same direction.

In the courtyard, Shi Yuting taught Zuo Weiyi to release a Kong Ming Lantern before releasing one for himself. The lanterns carried their wishes and prayers.

With his arms around her shoulder and their faces filled with happy smiles, their gazes followed the gradually floating lanterns.

All of this was so beautiful, warm, romantic...

However, Shi Nuannuan, who had suddenly appeared, separated them. She directly inserted herself between the two of them, pushing them away from each other.

Then, she picked up a lamp as if nothing had happened and asked, “Brother, Sister-in-Law, how do I set up this lamp?”

The romantic atmosphere was suddenly disrupted, and Shi Yuting’s face darkened. He waved her away. “Go away.”

Shi Nuannuan was pushed away as if she was being nuisance. She staggered and almost fell as she tried to stand.

Just when she thought she was going to fall like a dog eating sh*t, she suddenly bumped into something behind her.

A hand caught her in time.

“Are you okay?” Cheng Huan smiled as he looked at her.

Upon coming into contact with his touch, Shi Nuannuan felt a little uncomfortable. Then, she quickly pulled her hand away from his.

“I’m fine!”

Cheng Huan was aware of her retreat, but he did not appear to be disappointed either. Instead, he continued to smile.

“Why don’t you let him teach you?” Shi Yuting looked at Shi Nuannuan and gestured at Cheng Huan.

Shi Nuannuan could not help but pause.

What did he mean? Her brother clearly knew that she liked Xiangyi!

“It’s so cold. Let’s go inside.” Shi Yuting had already wrapped his arm around Zuo Weiyi and was about to enter the house.

Zuo Weiyi glanced over her shoulders as she was forced into the house, worried for Nuannuan.

It seemed that her grandfather was sincere in trying to set her up with this Cheng Huan. Xiangyi was not around either. Would there really be any sparks on such a romantic night?

Well, based on how much Nuannuan liked Xiangyi, it didn’t seem like it.

Thinking of this, she felt relieved again as she followed Shi Yuting to the second floor.

The two of them walked over to the balcony and looked at the city lights not far away. The sky was filled with fireworks, lighting up the entire night sky. Leaning in his arms, Zuo Weiyi’s lips curled up into a blissful smile.

She glanced down and saw that Shi Nuannuan was still lighting lanterns. She had lit a few but none were flying off.

She could not help but feel a little annoyed.

“Forget it, I’m not going to light anymore!”

She threw down the lights and turned around to enter the living room!

“Do you think Nuannuan and Xiangyi will be together?”

“I think so.”

“How are you so sure?”

However, Shi Yuting narrowed his eyes and met her pitch-black eyes. “If I said no, would you ask the same question?”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned. Probably so?

No matter what his answer was, she would always be curious. How could he be so sure?

“Intuition,” said he simply as he looked up.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

Intuition?

“Madam, you seem to be quite free.” He suddenly changed the topic.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned again. "What?"

Then, her body suddenly rose up and left the ground.

"What are you doing?" When she came back to her senses, she was already on top of him.

"It's rare for the moonlight to be so beautiful tonight. Let's not waste this beautiful night. Let's do something meaningful..."

She panicked! After so many times, how could she not know what he meant by 'something meaningful'!

Are you kidding me? The Cheng family was still downstairs, and he actually wanted to do that kind of thing with her in the room?

"Shi Yuting, there are guests here!" She struggled and beat him, trying to jump off his body!

"What are you afraid of? It's not like they will come to our room to 'appreciate' it."

Just like that, she was forcibly carried into the bedroom and thrown onto the bed..
