

Kiss Me Goodnight, Mrs. CEO!

Chapter 7: The Wrong Blind Date Target

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyes slightly to try to peek at the man in front of her. She wanted to know how this man would react.

However, when her eyes met his sharp eyes, she quickly lowered her head and dared not look straight into his eyes.

The cold air emitted from this man sent shivers down people's spines.

How could she have raped such a man last night?

"Was it your father who asked you to plot against me last night?" He smirked but nobody could sense his smile or laughter—rather, there was a flash of menace.

Zuo Weiyi quickly raised her head and looked at the man. She was stunned.

Indeed, she wanted to hide but failed.

Last night, she was unconscious. How could it be a plot?

"Mr. Lin, with regards to what happened last night, it was all my fault and it has nothing to do with my father."

Shi Yuting frowned slightly.

Mr. Lin?

Did she address him as Mr. Lin?

"Mr. Lin?" He raised his brows and looked at her.

Zuo Weiyi was dumbfounded. She widened her eyes and asked, "Aren't you Mr. Lin, the one who is supposed to go on a blind date with me?"

Read more chapter on vipnovel.com

Wasn't it Room 999?

Zuo Weiyi was sure she was in the right room.

A blind date.

So, this woman came here for a blind date too and the blind date target was not him but the man who had offered him this room.

Shi Yuting couldn't remember the full name of the man but his surname did sound like Lin.

Did this woman have problems with her eyes?

"I've never expected your taste to be of a different kind. You like old uncles?" Shi Yuting sneered.

Zuo Weiyi was taken aback.

Old uncle? Was he referring to himself?

But he was so handsome and looked like a twenty-eight or twenty-nine-year-old, a superior product in the world.

She was sure he was one man whom many girls would go after.

"Are you very old?" Zuo Weiyi asked while looking at him. She was stupefied.

Shi Yuting regained his senses after half a second.

This damn stupid woman! How could she have taken him for that Lin?

Was he that old and ugly?

Shi Yuting felt irritable. Great unhappiness hid between his brows!

Just then, the room door was suddenly pushed open. A woman walked in.

She was excited at first but when she saw Zuo Weiyi, her smile froze and couldn't react.

She looked at Zuo Weiyi and then her gaze shifted to the man's exquisite face which was beyond comparison.

"Mr. Shi, she is..." The woman pointed at Zuo Weiyi who was sitting by the side.

She was the one Mr. Shi had dated—where did this woman come from?

Staring at Zuo Weiyi, the woman was filled with enmity.

The sudden enmity made Zuo Weiyi dumbfounded.

What did the woman just call him? Mr. Shi?

Wasn't he Lin Hao, the man who was supposed to go on a blind date with her?

Just then, the room door opened once again and in came a man named Lin Hao.

When he entered, he saw two women.

He could easily recognize Zuo Weiyi as he had seen her photograph when he agreed to the blind date.

"I'm sorry for interrupting your lunch, Mr. Shi," Lin Hao apologized while nodding and bowing to Shi Yuting, then looked at Zuo Weiyi.

"Excuse me, are you Miss Zuo?"

Zuo Weiyi was taken aback and nodded. "Yes."