Not long after, Mu Qianji seemed to feel something a burst of diaphragm, as if something was holding her up.

“What?” Mu Qianji let go of Omi and said.

“Oh, it’s nothing nothing.” Omi turned around in a panic so that Mu Qianji wouldn’t see.

“What’s wrong with you?” Mu Chien said, confused.

“Nope.”

“What was against me when you were just holding me?”

“No no, misunderstanding misunderstanding.” Omi was busy explaining.

Mu Qianji didn’t know that Omi was very embarrassed at the moment, and everything was just blamed on Mu Qianji’s body being too sexy.

Mu Qianji didn’t ask any more questions and said, “Did you come to find me in the middle of the night, is there something important?”

“Oh, that’s not true, it’s more dangerous during the day, that’s why I waited until night to come down, I’ve been in the sky for hours.”

“Well, it’s good to be cautious.” Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

Omi said, “But it’s true that I suddenly came to see you about a little something, and I’m not in a good mood today, so I came to talk to you.”

“Why aren’t you in a good mood? Is it about your flying machine?”

“Right.”

Mu Qianji said, “Actually, I had already guessed it, that day you used the flying device and made several of my Demon Sect’s clansmen realms helpless to do anything with you, this matter has already spread like crazy in the Demon Sect’s territory. Everyone said that that flying machine of yours was an ancient magic treasure, and I’m sure that if this news were to reach the Righteous Alliance, it would be just as certain that you had obtained an ancient magic treasure.”

“Right, the Martial Alliance wanted to invite me to his place for dinner, hehe, I guess he must have wanted to take the opportunity to ask me about the flying device. Also, after I told my big brother about the flying machine, big brother told me to quickly report to my division that this thing would cause a martial forest calamity. You say, speechless or not.”

“Oh, it’s indeed a joke, but unfortunately, people in this world don’t understand it, so it’s to be expected that people think it’s an ancient magic treasure.”

Omi said, “I’m precisely bothered about this matter, what do you think I should do, I’m not anyone to follow to grab it, I’m afraid of getting my division involved as a result. Now, the ally is the first person to seek me out, and there will only be more in the future.”

Mu Qianji said, “Then tell the Martial Alliance Master that your flying device isn’t an ancient magic treasure, it’s just a technological product that can be bought in another world with money. Or, you explain to the ally master that your flying machine requires energy, in short, explain it to him.”

Omi sneered, “Thousand Extremes, you think too well of our decent people. Explaining technological products to them? Who else in this world, besides you, knows what technology is? Besides, if I explain it, I’ll be exposing the other world, and sooner or later, the people who form the pairing will pass through the bottomless abyss and head to the other world. At that time, it would be a great calamity for the other world.”

Mu Qianji nodded, “That’s right, two worlds, one will always have to face a catastrophe, it’s indeed a problem.”

Omi said, “The reason why magic treasures are magic treasures is because, rare, if this world, is filled with flying machines, then it’s not that rare. How about I go to another world and wholesale a few hundred of them over?”

“What, a few hundred wholesale?” Mu Qianji was shocked.

“Yes, by then, this world will be filled with flying machines, so this martial world, if it wants to cause havoc, it won’t be able to attract it, because, embracing the

There are too many people with flying machines.”

Mu Qianji was speechless, “If you wholesale a few hundred over, you’ll lose your flying machine advantage, besides, you can’t just give one away when you see someone.”

“Hahaha, Qianji, you’re thinking me too silly, anyway, I have an idea now, I won’t tell you for now, you’ll know later.”

Omi suddenly sprouted an idea, in this world, it’s either the righteous alliance or the demonic sect, if Omi’s relationship with Mu Qianji spread out, he would not only be hunted down and killed by the demonic sect, but also by the righteous sect. In the past, Omi was just worried about the future of this day, afraid that he would become hunted by the righteous demons. However, Omi had just suddenly sprung an idea. Omi would go to another world, wholesale several hundred flying machines over, and then, whichever strong man was willing to follow Omi would send him a flying machine.

At that time, Omi would spread a message out on the rivers and lakes, "Come, come, ancient magic treasures will be given away, if you follow Omi and join the sect created by Omi, you can give away a magic treasure."

At that time, there would surely be many strong people who would follow Omi for the magic treasure, and at that time, who would dare to stop Omi from being with Mu Qianji from both the righteous and demonic factions? He can have one child if he wants to, and two if he wants to.

Omi laughed.

Before, flying machines were still a problem that plagued him, but now, making good use of them would be a powerful tool.

Of course, when Omi went to wholesale flying machines, he made a deal with the scientists from the other world that every flying machine must be set up with a master program control system, and every now and then, he had to find Omi and enter his fingerprint password before he could continue to use it, so that Omi wouldn't be afraid of those who received his flying machines and didn't listen to him.

"Yay, I'm too smart. I must make good use of the technological products of the other world to make a good life for myself, in this world. What decent sect, what demon cult, I, Omi, am partial to establishing a third force of a middle sect."

Omi's ambition was high.

"What are you thinking about?"

"Haha, Chichi, I'll leave you alone for now, alright, then I'll go first."

"Where are you going? It's so late."

Omi chuckled, "What, you want to keep me here, then please, am I sleeping in the same bed as you? If so, then I'll stay for the sake of avoiding the trouble."

Mu Qianji snorted, "You're thinking, just thinking before you even cross the door."

"Just thinking about what?"

"Gee, you know."

"Haha, alright, no more teasing, I'll leave now, I'm heading to the other world."

"Ah, you're really going to wholesale aircraft, huh?"

"Of course, there's no way out for me anyway, in the future when our love affair is exposed, we'll also be hunted by both the righteous and demons, and we'll also be expelled from the sect and so on, so it's better to plan ahead now rather than being so passive at that time. As long as I have a batch of flying machines in my hand, I don't believe that there aren't any strong people who wouldn't be willing to follow me, not every strong person is not on both sides of the positive and demonic."

"Omi, that's not the idea you just said, is it?"

"Hehe, yes."

"Wow, that's really quite good, when the time comes, if we're really being hunted by the righteous demons, then we'll start this plan."

"Just what I had in mind, I'm heading to the other world now to get that group of scientists to study and research and help me build a batch of flying machines."

"I'll go too." Mu Qianji said.

"Uh, are you sure?"

"Of course, my father won't let me leave the magician's headquarters, it's annoying."

"Well, then we'll travel to the other world together."

"But, you only have one flying machine."

"It's simple, we'll tie two stools together, then, I'll sit on the stool and you'll fly away with me, of course, the stool must be very sturdy, made of flying fine iron must not be."

Mu Qianji was busy: "This kind of stool we have here, in the Heavenly Prison, specially used to trap prisoners, I'll go get two over."

"Good."

Mu Qianji immediately went to the Heavenly Prison and fetched two halves of a refined steel, incomparably sturdy stool, it was just as well that when this stool was locked, there was no way to get out of it.

Just like that, Omi simply made a stool that was connected together, and then with the propulsion of the flying machine, it flew up into the sky in no time. One second to remember to read the book

"Yay." Mu Qianji sat in front, happily opening his hands as if he was a bird escaping from a bird cage.

Omi took control of the flying machine and flew towards the bottomless abyss.

Adding a stool was indeed quite good, you could sit and fly.

However, the speed of the flying machine slowed down a little, but not by much.

A few hours later, Omi and Mu Qianji arrived at the Bottomless Abyss.

Because it was night, they could only use the moonlight, but they were able to see the bottomless abyss clearly.

"Jumping straight down from the bottomless abyss?" Mu Chien asked.

"Yes, we'll hide the stool here and use it when we get back."

"Why don't we sit on the stool and go through it together?"

"The bench is too large to fit through, I'm afraid, but when we were all trapped in the mechanism locks, they disappeared, and when only one of us got out, I'm afraid we couldn't carry anything large. Besides, when we get to the other side of the world, I have someone to leave a flying ship there."

"Good."

Omi hid the stool, took Mu Qianji by the hand, and leapt into the bottomless abyss.

The details of crossing the spatial junction point would not be repeated.

Soon, they arrived at the other world, the Thousand Mountains Tomb.

Omi arrived at a residence near the Thousand Mountains Tomb, which was Gao Feng Shui's residence.

Mu Qianji said, "Two worlds, the time is even synchronized ah, when we crossed over, it was night, and when we arrived here, it was also night."

"Well, yeah, it's completely synchronized, the people on this side are sleeping, and the people on the other side are sleeping too."

"What an amazing world, what is the structure of this universe, by the way, when we crossed over, we saw many graves at the junction of space, are those real graves?"

"Come on, it's not something we can understand at all, we're nothing but ants before the world and the universe, how can ants know the thickness of the sky."

"Also."

Omi shouted, "Gao Fengshui, wake up."

A moment later, Gao Feng Shui flew out.

"Ah, it's Brother Tang." When Gao Feng Shui saw Mu Qianji again, he was shocked and said in fear, "Witch."

Mu Qianji deliberately made a fierce expression at Gao Feng Shui and said, "Gao Feng Shui, you even joined forces with Liu Qian, Nan Shan Yun, and Old Lord River to set up a machine lock trap to harm me, and today I'm here to seek revenge on you."

"Ah, Senior spare my life." Gao Feng Shui peed her pants in fright as she was taken from Mu

A very strong oppressive force was felt on Thousand Extremities, and it was clear that each other's strength was not at all a height.

"Hahaha."

Omi said, "Alright, Thousand Jedi, don't scare the family."

Mu Qianji threw out his tongue.

"Gao Fengshui, Mu Qianji is no longer a witch, she has recovered."

Gao Feng Shui wiped his cold sweat and asked, "You guys, where the hell did you guys come from?"

Omi was really afraid that Gao Fengshui would pass through the Thousand Mountains Tomb and travel to another world, so he lied, "We live on the mountain next to the Thousand Mountains Tomb, and have been healing Mu Qianji all these years, so don't tell anyone about this, and don't go over to the Thousand Mountains Tomb."

"Good."

"What if I am flying ship?"

"Over there."

Omi and Mu Qianji, took a flying ship and headed straight to the Yanhuang Empire.

About a week later, they arrived at the Yanhuang Empire Wangjing City.

"Brother Omi." As soon as they landed, Xiao Meng was the first one to see and flew up.

"Xiaomeng." Mu Qian absolutely smiled slightly at Xiao Meng.

"Uh, devil, Mu Qianji." Xiaomeng was a little scrupulous, after all, Mu Qianji gave everyone nightmares in the beginning.

Omi said, "Xiao Meng, don't be afraid, now Mu Qianji is a good person, also, she's my girlfriend now."

"Ugh."

Mu Qianji blushed and snorted, "Who told you that I'm your girlfriend."

Omi laughed, "Who said it was my wife at the Devil's Head Temple, why don't you admit it now."

"Hmph, I can't remember." Mu Qianji slyly argued like a spoiled child.

Xiaomeng looked at the two of them, only flirting and a little embarrassed.

"Brother Omi."

Omi was busy, "I'm sorry, Xiao Meng, haha, you go gather everyone."

"Mm."

Omi and Mu Qianji sat in the main hall, and soon, everyone came.

"Omi, why are you here so soon, I thought you'd be here for another year." Simran asked.

"Xuan'er, I'll come and stay for a few months from now on whenever I'm free." Omi gave Xuan'er a hug.

Mu Qianji's eyebrows locked, Omi, who was flirting with her just now, now cuddling with another woman, seemed a bit uncomfortable inside.

Mu Qianji comforted herself, "It's fine, I already knew he had another woman, I must relax, since I accepted him, I'll accept my fate."

Omi hugged Liona, Xu Mei Qian, Samira, and Qi Xue Yun respectively, one by one, taking turns kissing them.

Mu Qianji sat there, really, looking like she was enduring a lot of pain, and in the end, she simply closed her eyes.

In the end, Omi walked back to Mu Qianji, on Mu Qianji's face also kissed, Mu Qianji stared at Omi, a little depressed to sit beside her.

Omi was the one who said, "Qianji, haven't you noticed that they've all gotten younger? And, has the strength and realm increased a lot?"

Only then was Mu Qianji surprised and said, "It's actually true."

Liu Yue said, "Mu Qianji, finally seeing you again, seeing you and Brother Tang so lovingly, we are also very happy, I would like to send my blessings to you, also, I would like to thank you for giving me such a great chance, hehehe, thank you."

Wang Xing and the others also said, "Yeah, I want to thank you too."

Mu Qianji was busy saying, "No need to thank me, I didn't know my sword had this effect, since it's your chance, then it has nothing to do with me."
