Omi asked, "I obviously cut you, so why are you fine at all."

"Hahaha, little brat, do you think I refined my body for nothing? With that little strength of yours, you still presume to cut my body of the 7th stage of Body Tempering and bleed? You are too naive, my body, refined to the seventh stage, anyone weaker than me, I stand and let him cut, he can't cut my flesh."

"Ah." Omi was shocked, refining the body to refine the body, so this was body refining.

So, Tang Go Bing stood there and let Omi cut, and Omi couldn't cut him, that's too perverted.

Of course, Tang Go Bing also exaggerated into the wind, he was only talking theoretically, if the other party possessed divine weapons or powerful magic treasures, it would be natural to slash him to death.

Omi snorted, "In short, you're dead today."

Inwardly, Omi said, "I was just the most ordinary slash, but if I cover my immortal energy with the knife, I'll see if you die."

Yes, Omi's Immortal Qi was invincible, just how could Tang Go Bing's body resist the attack of Immortal Qi.

"Go to hell." Tang Go Bing once again killed towards Omi, this time, Tang Go Bing's strength and fist took out the strongest.

"Boom boom." The air in front of Omi emitted a rumbling sound, and there was also an invisible ripple spreading around Tang Goibing's fist.

"Ah." Omi could clearly feel a huge resistance in front of him. One second to remember to read the book

"Oh no, now that Tang Go Bing has taken out a stronger strength, it's already hard for me to get close, and the ripples spreading around his fist are blocking me from advancing." Omi said under his breath, however, Omi wasn't in a hurry.

In the next moment, Omi suddenly covered his body's Immortal Qi over that blade.

In a moment, the knife in Omi's hand emitted a layer of faint golden light.

"Open Mountain One Knife." Omi leapt, then raised the machete in his hand high up.

"Swoosh." Omi struck down with a single slash, regardless.

Right at this moment, a miracle happened.

Tang Go Bing, who was two meters away from Omi, suddenly didn't move, and his wonderful fist technique just now disappeared.

"Eh?" Omi looked at the unmoving Tang Go Bing, a little confused.

"Hello? What am I trying to say? My knife is elbow-length. I didn't even touch you. What are you doing there? It won't be playing dead, right."

As soon as Omi finished speaking, Tang Go Bing's body, suddenly starting from his shoulders and slanting down to the other side of his waist, a slanting cut appeared, and then, with a clatter, Omi's upper body, collapsed with that slanting cut.

"Ah, this, how is this possible." Omi was shocked, he was just a few meters away from him, then jumped up and slashed with a slanting slice, and as a result, it killed Tang Go Bing.

"Oh my god, this is impossible, this is too incredible." Omi was shocked, his knife was just an ordinary wood chopping knife, but it turned out to be an incredibly sharp knife after covering it with his Immortal Qi.

"Haha." Omi smiled proudly, looked at Tang Go Bing's corpse, and said in a mouthful of water, "Trash, it's ridiculous that you're still trying to kill me. Don't worry, your big brother, Tang Go Liao, and your son of a bitch father, I will send him to accompany you."

After saying that, Omi searched Tang Go Bing's body and found a storage bag.

"Hehe, this is me.

The up." Omi poured out the contents of his storage bag.

There were more than ten first-grade spirit stones inside, as well as some spirit grasses.

Omi took the ten or so spirit stones in his hand and spent a minute or two refining them, only the spirit grasses needed to be taken, Omi didn't bother to take them and put them into his pouch.

Just as Omi was about to evacuate, Omi saw hundreds of magical beasts rushing around him.

“Ah, why are so many magical beasts rushing towards me? There’s no reason, I’m not more special.” Omi was secretly shocked, and then he looked at the corpse of Tang Go Bing underground and understood.

It must have been because the strong smell of blood emitted from Tang Go Bing’s corpse had attracted all the nearby magical beasts, and magical beasts had particularly clever noses.

After that, Omi had to be surrounded by hundreds of magical beasts, and Omi fought against hundreds of magical beasts.

“Bang bang.” Omi stomped those magical beasts to death with one foot.

It took Omi a lot of time to stomp on these hundreds of beasts.

After stomping all the demonic beasts to death, Omi continued to move forward.

Along the way, Omi encountered many more demonic beasts.

Omi even killed the seventh stage of Body Tempering, Tang Go Bing with a single slash, those weak beasts, Omi was simply like stepping on a mouse.

Every time Omi stepped on a beast and exploded it, he would see a green bean-shaped diamond that glowed red.

Omi put those diamonds away, Omi had learned that these were definitely not diamonds, every beast had them, they should be good things.

Soon, Omi had arrived at the exit of the Desolate Beast Forest.

However, unfortunately, Omi wasn’t the first to come out.

Omi was forced to delay for some time because of Tang Go Bing’s extermination, then he was surrounded by hundreds of beasts, Omi was forced to delay some more, and finally Omi made it all the way to the exit and encountered many more beasts, far more than the average person, because Omi’s smell of blood was very strong, so Omi almost stepped on hundreds of beasts’ corpses this way, while the others only encountered a dozen or so beasts in total. It certainly took very little time. If it were anyone else, surrounded by hundreds of beasts, they would have died out long ago.

Even though Omi wasn’t the first to come out, Omi’s ranking was still very high.

Yes, Omi happened to be the tenth to come out.

In other words, Omi was the tenth in this year’s freshman assessment.

“Wow, the tenth place came out, it’s not even twenty-five minutes yet.”

When Omi walked out of the exit of the Desolate Beast Forest, it attracted the attention of a group of people, after all, Omi was the tenth one to come out, and it was a great honor to be in the top ten of the assessment.

Only, Omi was now covered in blood, his hair was dyed red by the beast’s blood, and he couldn’t see the color of his clothes, so others couldn’t recognize him as Omi at the moment.

Omi gave the impression that he had gone through thousands of difficulties in the Demonic Beast Forest to come out, and compared to the other nine people in the top ten rankings, Omi appeared as if he was in a mess, because the other nine people had little blood on their bodies, and even less blood on their hair and faces.

The Vice Patriarch looked at Omi and said, “Looking at you in such a wretched state, you must have fought a terrible fight with the demonic beast and came out after nine lifetimes. However, you came out after nine fatalities and still managed to take tenth place, not bad. However, you hand over your Determining Talisman now, I have to make sure that you haven’t used it.”
