Chapter 1541

Tang Unknown glared at the young man and warned, "Whatever their relationship is, don't mess with your tongue, besides, so what if they have that kind of relationship, Omi is Tang Jingdi's adopted son, do you hear me."

"Yes, yes, Brother Unknown, I'm just talking casually." The fifteen year old boy quickly shut up, not daring to discuss this matter.

Inside the room, Tang Huan was a bit shy, "Brother, in front of the dozen or so Tang sons outside, we're just closing the door like this, this?"

"Sister, what are you afraid of, we should still do what we should do, or else after the Light Cloud Alliance's headquarters is done, everyone won't be wondering the same thing."

The next day, Tang Ming took a dozen or so Tang family members and went out to find a suitable place to build the Light Cloud Alliance's headquarters.

And when Omi opened the door of the single room, at this moment, a large group of people were still lining up outside.

"It's on sale."

"Quick, Omi's talisman is on sale."

Seeing Omi open the door, the people in the queue all perked up, it was painful for them to have to grab it every day, but if they didn't, they wouldn't be able to buy such good quality talismans. One had to know that good quality talismans undoubtedly had a lot more chances of winning when encountering magical beasts, and could even pick up a few more lives.

Those other stores in the periphery of the Flying Cloud Sect also had talismans that dealt with Red Grade 8, but almost every one of them sold talismans that lasted only a second, or even less than a second. Omi's talisman, on the other hand, lasted as long as ten seconds (Note: saying 'one minute' before was a bit too exaggerated, so I'll start revising it to 'ten seconds' here). So, people would rather queue here to get such a good amulet. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

At this moment, not too far away, two men of the ninth stage of Body Tempering were standing there, looking at the group of people who kept pushing forward in front of Omi's house.

One of the men at the ninth stage of body refining asked a peripheral disciple, "Hello, there are six or seven stores selling spiritual talismans on the periphery of the Flying Cloud Sect, and their reputation and quality are guaranteed, why don't you go there to buy them and come here to line up for them?"

The peripheral disciple who was asked grunted, "How many other talismans? I pooh, to hell with it, after using Omi's talisman, who's going to use some other talisman."

The man at the ninth stage of body refining was a bit angry, then asked with a strong anger, "What's better about Omi's talisman?"

"That's needless to say, no better, who would line up here all night. Omi's immobilization talisman, although the price isn't cheap, but the duration can last up to ten seconds, in the True Beast Forest, this is an unknown number of lives that can be exchanged back, whoever uses it knows. Alright, don't disturb me, Omi's talisman is about to go on sale, so I have to grab one today no matter what." After saying that, that teenager squeezed forward as hard as he could.

The two men at the ninth stage of Body Tempering were very upset, they were the same people from several other talisman stores, they were ordered by their boss to find out why Omi's talisman was so sought after, and, get one of Omi's talisman back.

At that moment, Omi shouted, "Everyone, it's starting to sell, so don't crowd."

However, the more he said don't crowd, the happier everyone crowded.

This scene was just like snatching train tickets during the spring festival.

The two men at the back, at the ninth stage of body refining, were very depressed when they saw Omi's talisman selling like this.

One of them, a man at the ninth stage of Body Tempering, said, "Let's go, I'm

We squeeze up there too, the boss wants us to bring him one of Omi's talismans to verify if it's really that magical." After saying that, those two men squeezed forward as well.

Finally, squeezing and squeezing, those two men at the ninth stage of Body Refining squeezed up as well.

"Omi, give me a talisman." One of the men said.

"Sorry, today's talisman is sold out, please come back tomorrow." Omi said.

The two men at the ninth stage of Body Refining raged, "Omi, I don't care if you still have a talisman, please give me one right now."

Omi yowled, but it was two Body Tempering Ninth Step, Flying Cloud Sect's peripheral disciples, the strongest Zhen Wuxiang was only Body Tempering Eighth Step, which meant that these people were not peripheral disciples at all. In eight or ten cases, they were inner peripheral disciples of the Flying Cloud Sect.

Omi smiled, "I never thought that my Tang's talisman would be so famous that even the inner circle disciples would come out to line up for it. Unfortunately, I'm a man of principle, and although you are inner circle disciples, you still have to follow the rules and line up to buy it."

The two men at the ninth stage of Body Tempering snorted in disdain, Omi treated them as if they were coming out from the inner circle to snare the purchase.

"I pooh, with this rotten talisman of yours, you're also worthy of letting me come out to snare it?" One of the men of the ninth stage of body refining said.

Omi was stunned, so he wasn't out to snare it.

"Oh, you actually said that my talisman is a rotten talisman, then you still shamelessly ask me for it, isn't that like hitting yourself in the face."

“Omi, don’t be arrogant, I’m not afraid to tell you that we are the stewards of the Flying Cloud Sect’s periphery, the Blazing Sun Alliance Boutique.”

“Uh, so it’s those Feiyun Sect’s stores that sell talismans, what, you guys aren’t selling talismans in your stores, what are you doing here in my place, giving me support ah.” Omi said with a heated smile.

“Omi, you better be honest, where did you get your talismans from?”

“Why should I have to answer to you, who are you.”

“Omi, don’t think you can be arrogant in front of us just because you became the top three disciples of a term, don’t forget that we are from the Blazing Sun Alliance, what is the existence of the Blazing Sun Alliance in the inner surroundings of the Feiyun Sect, you, a peripheral disciple, don’t even have the qualification to know.” One of the men of the ninth stage of Body Refining said.

Omi snorted, “What Blazing Sun Alliance, what existence you are, it has nothing to do with me, I’m warning you, don’t make trouble in my place.”

“Omi, you’ve cut off the fortunes of so many boutiques, do you know, you’re looking for death.”

“Yeah? Whoever dares to touch me, I’ll wait for him.” Omi said.

The two men at the ninth stage of Body Tempering saw Omi being so arrogant and were a bit uncertain, they both came today mainly to figure out a few things, first, where did Omi’s talisman come from; second, what was Omi’s backstage. Especially the backstage, if they didn’t figure it out, the boss behind them wouldn’t know how to make a move.

At this moment, seeing Omi so arrogant, the two men at the ninth stage of Body Tempering were helpless, Omi must have a backstage, otherwise how could a one-term peripheral disciple at the fourth stage of Body Tempering dare to be so arrogant, and the source of his talisman was also suspicious. Of course, they didn’t believe that the talisman was concocted by Omi himself. To be able to refine a talisman that lasted for ten seconds, this talisman refining skill must not be low, maybe it was a source brought in by one of the talisman refining elders of the Flying Cloud Sect. In that case, then Omi would definitely have a backstage.
