"Alright, although there are very few spirit stones, but since you have this heart, I'll reluctantly accept it." Omi took the piece of third-grade spirit stone and said.

"Thank you, Brother Tang, I'll go back if there's nothing else."

Omi waved his hand.

Nong Lingsheng left happily.

Tang Huan closed the door and said in surprise, "Brother, it's really a three quality spirit stone?"

"Haha, I can tell by the color that it's a third-grade spirit stone." Omi was also pleasantly surprised inside.

"A third-grade spirit stone, wouldn't it be equal to 1,000 second-grade spirit stones?"

"Well, it's equal to 1,000 second-grade spirit stones. Sister, let's refine it now, we don't know what realm it will allow us to upgrade to." Omi said.

"Ah, refine it right away?"

"Of course, try to refine this as much as you can and don't leave it on your body, moreover, the higher our strength is after refining, the stronger our ability to defend ourselves, there's no point in leaving it on our body, the purpose of earning spirit stones from selling talismans is to refine it, isn't it, now that we have 1,000 second grade spirit stones, why not refine it." Omi said excitedly.

"Mhmm, refine." First URL m.kanshu8.net

Omi took the piece of three grade spirit stone and split it evenly into two halves, giving half to Tang Huan and half to himself.

In just a minute, half of the three spirit stones were refined by Omi, about equal to 500 second-grade spirit stones ah. If it wasn't for Nong Xiaotian's gift, Omi would have had to rely on selling talismans for at least a year to earn 500 Second Grade Spirit Stones.

A few seconds later, Omi's realm began to soar.

Third stage of opening light.

Fourth Order of Enlightening Light.

Fifth Order of Enlightening Light.

Opening Light Sixth Order.

Seventh Order of Enlightenment.

Omi soared all the way from the second step of opening light to the seventh step of opening light.

"I'm going." Omi shouted out in pain, this time, it was the most he had ever soared, rising five realms.

"Wow, brother, how much are you now?" Tang Huan was busy asking.

"Seventh Order of Enlightenment."

"Wow, that's too fast, brother, you're really awesome, three more realms up and you'll be able to enter the heart illumination stage. My father is only at the first step of heart illumination ah, you are only a throw away from my father." Tang Huan was horrified.

"Uh, is Fifth Uncle only at the first stage of Heart Illumination?" Omi seemed to have forgotten.

"Well, my father cultivated for more than two hundred years before he reached the first stage of Heart Illumination, and you're now at the seventh stage of Enlightenment, only three steps away from that realm of my father."

"Huh." Omi was told by Tang Huan that he was somehow almost catching up to Tang Jingtian. Tang Jingtian had been cultivating for over two hundred years, while Omi had only been cultivating for a few months, so it seemed that the Immortal Qi given to Omi by the Nine Dao Demon King was indeed a bull's-eye.

"Sister, let's leave it at that, I'll help you refine your half."

"Good."

Tang Huan also began to refine it.

Ten minutes later, Tang Huan also finished refining all of it, and Tang Huan also began to soar.

Second stage of Opening Light.

Third Order of Opening Light.

Opening Light Fourth Order.

Fifth Order of Opening Light.

Sixth Order of Enlightenment.

Tang Huan soared directly from the First Order of Opening Light to the Sixth Order of Opening Light.

"Sister, congratulations on stepping into the Sixth Order of Opening Light."

"Wow, that's too fast." Tang Huan incredibly felt the momentum in his body.

"Hehe."

p; "Brother, thank you." Tang Huan said with a ghostly look in his eyes at Omi.

"Sister, why are you here again, every time I help you refine, you look at me like this."

“But, Sister really has nothing to repay.”

“It’s not like I want you to repay me for anything, alright, alright.”

“Well, brother, with our age, reaching the sixth or seventh stage of opening light, if this is known, I’m afraid the entire Flying Cloud Sect will turn over.”

“So, we must hide it well, and the peerless will not be sinned against.” Omi said.

Tang Huan nodded his head.

Omi continued to hide his realm at the fourth stage of Body Tempering, while Tang Huan also hid it at the fifth stage of Body Tempering.

Omi didn’t want to hide it so much, but there was really no other way, others had only been cultivating for a hundred and two hundred years to reach this realm, while Omi had less than half a year, everyone would be jealous, and if people knew, not to mention the YuanYing stage, I’m afraid that even more powerful immortal cultivators would come looking for Omi. Omi would turn out to be, the world is so big, but there’s no place to stay. Rather than that, it was better to keep a low profile and hide it first, and when the strength was really strong enough to not fear anyone anymore, then do whatever you want.

Next, after Omi’s realm improved, his talisman refining level also rose.

Omi’s talisman refining level rose directly from second-grade and fifth-grade to second-grade and ninth-grade.

It could be said that there shouldn’t be many people who were rivals to Omi under the Heart Illumination Stage.

It was unthinkable that someone so powerful could still be hidden among the outer disciples.

A few days later, Omi’s Light Cloud Alliance headquarters was also constructed, all using wood, and although it was built roughly, it was barely habitable.

Omi announced that over 600 people from the Light Cloud Alliance were all living in the headquarters.

Omi’s room, at the very core of the headquarters, was not allowed to enter Omi’s residence except for Omi and Tang Huan, and even if they wanted to go in, they had to get permission.

Although Omi had stepped into the Seventh Stage of Enlightenment, he wasn’t proud and complacent, continuing to refine and sell talismans.

After all, Omi had to continue to become stronger, so the business could not be left alone.

The spirit talisman business in the periphery of the Feiyun Sect, although the remaining seven specialty stores were still open, their sales had shrunk by ninety percent, and almost all of them had been taken care of by Omi.

Omi could sell about 900 talismans a day, and he could make 40,000 spirit stones in pure profit, or 40 second-class spirit stones every month.

Unfortunately, Omi’s consumption of spirit stones after advancing to the seventh stage of Enlightenment was no longer described by ‘blocks’, but by several hundred blocks. Therefore, earning 40 pieces of second-class spirit stones every month would hardly have a significant effect on Omi's continued advancement, and he could only rely on time to slowly accumulate them. The good news was that earning 40 pieces of second grade spirit stones every month was nearly 500 pieces of second grade spirit stones in a year, so a year's accumulation would be enough for Omi to continue to improve a bit more.

In the blink of an eye, another two months passed.

Two months was almost a negligible amount of time for immortal cultivators.

"Boss, someone is looking for you." One day after two months, a subordinate reported to Omi.

"Uh, who's looking for me?"

"Don went liao, he said he was your big brother."

"Uh, Tang Go Liao." Omi was stunned, but if he didn't mention it, Omi would have forgotten about the man.

"Let him in."

Not long after, a man of the second stage of Enlightenment walked in, it was Tang Go Liao, the eldest son of the Tang family's owner, Tang Hu Lai, and Tang Go Bing's younger brother, who had been killed by Omi during the outer disciple assessment.

"Tang Go Liao, long time no see, what are you doing here looking for me?" Omi asked indifferently.

Omi had no affection for either of the Tang Hu Lai family.
