"This."The few men who rushed in from behind were also stupid.

Omi was packing up Quan De when Quan De rushed in.

Omi raised his head to look at Quan De and said, "It's speedy to want to wake up so quickly."

"Omi, this, this is impossible."Quan De incredibly looked at the ground unable to move his brother straight shook his head.

Quan De, who was stepped on the ground, let out a roar, "Let go of me, do you hear me, let go of me."

Quan De saw his brother, who couldn't even get up from being stepped on the ground, and shouted at him to let go of him, his heart didn't know what to feel.

Omi was too ungodly, his brother had made a move, but he still couldn't deal with him.

Omi stomped down again, and Quan Zhi's head was submerged in the ground.

Omi spat a mouthful of water on Quan Zhi's face and said, "You damn it, weren't you just killing him?How come there's no killing now.Didn't I just say that you were rude to me when I came out a minute ago, but now you're showing me your rudeness."

"Ahhhh."Quan Chi was in a lot of pain.

At this moment, Quan Chi felt as if a mountain was pressing down on his head, and no matter how hard he exerted himself, he was never able to get up, he simply couldn't understand why Omi was able to step on him and couldn't even lift his head up. The first website m.kanshu8.net

"Brother."Quanta shouted, seeing his brother being trampled on the ground, he was in pain.

"Ahhhh."Quan Zhi let out a shriek of displeasure, instead of being able to avenge his brother's death, he was trampled on the ground in front of his brother, the pain was not only physical, but also spiritual.

"Omi, you still won't let go of me."Quan Zhi shouted, he was incapable of struggling up himself, so he could only yell at Omi to let go, and was really helpless.

"A person who wants to ruin me, I, Omi, am able to release you just by stepping on you a few times?If the price is so low, then wouldn't the world be able to come and cripple me by anyone, and the consequence would only be a few stomps by me anyway."

"What do you want, I, Quan Zhi, am at least a mentor of the Flying Cloud Sect, you, a disciple who has just entered the inner circle, dare to bully your mentor."

"I pooh, still bullying the mentor, why don't you say that you are incompetent, you can't even beat a student."

"Ahhhh." Quan Zhi yelled in anger.

At that moment, Omi stomped again, and Quan Zhi's head was already plunged into the slate halfway up his face.

Quan De shouted, "Omi, let my brother go, or else."

Omi raised his head and said, "Quan De, it's already this time, and you're still threatening me with 'or else', if I were you, kneel down right now and submit to me, maybe I can even release your brother from this."

Quan De only felt the rage in his heart, a man with such a big background, he himself was bullied not to mention, now even his brother was trampled like this, Omi even asked him to kneel down and submit to him, how outrageous.

"Omi, I swear, it's not over with you, you'll regret what you've done at this moment."

"Really? Then I'd like to see how you're going to make me regret it."

"Omi, if my mother finds out about this, if she doesn't kill you, I'll take your surname." Quan De said through clenched teeth.

"Your mother? Is that the one who was slept with by a certain mid-level elder?"

"Omi, how dare you insult my mother? You really don't know who you've messed with, do you?" Quan De shouted in anger.

Omi snorted, "Quan De, you probably don't even know how you smell like urine. But yeah, you're unconscious, so naturally you wouldn't know if you were dunked in urine by one of my men."

"What." Quan De.

The face was white.

Quan Zhi, who was stepped on under Omi's feet, also raged, "Omi, how dare you treat my brother like this."

"You are all in trouble yourselves, and you still have such a tone towards me, you are really dead pigs not afraid of boiling water, I am thoroughly tired of this, I would have let you go as long as you submit to me, but unfortunately, you, you are really dead pigs not afraid of boiling water, you are making me so tired. Since you're so stubborn, I'll completely beat you two brothers, you can't turn over a new leaf." Omi said ruthlessly.

"Someone come."

"In." Dozens of little brothers shouted.

Omi's gaze chilled and said, "Let Mentor Quan Zhi, have a taste too." After saying that, Omi fiercely kicked Quan Zhi's heart.

"Bang."

"Ah." Quan Chi's heart was suddenly kicked, and I'm afraid that he wouldn't be able to recover for a few months, while at the same time, he had completely lost his fighting strength.

"Yes." Dozens of juniors shouted.

"Brother." Quan De shouted, not really expecting to be made so miserable by Omi. At this moment, when Quan De saw Omi's unforgiving face, it seemed that he was a bit afraid of Omi, a person inside. Once fear of someone was created, then it was forever subjugated from within.

Quan Zhi shouted, "Quan De, go find Mother."

"Okay, I'll go to mother right away." Quan De immediately ran, he was afraid that Omi would stop him.

Unfortunately, Omi didn't stop him at all, allowing Quan De to go find his junior elder's mother.

Of course, Omi also called Tang Unknown over.

"Brother, what is it."

"Tang Miao, go to Elder She Jun's house and tell him that the opportunity to make a merit has arrived."

"Yes, Boss."

Tang Unknown immediately went.

Quan De went to look for his mother, then Omi called She Jun, they were both junior elders anyway, let them both do it, and also test Elder She Jun by the way, give him a chance to make merit.

Soon, Tang Ming arrived at Elder Shejun's residence.

These days, Elder Shejun hadn't left his residence for half a step, probably because he hadn't recovered from Omi's last incident.

"She Monarch." Tang Ming shouted.

At this time, Yang Qian came out in great anger and said, "Who the hell dares to directly call my master's name?"

Tang Ming was shocked and busy, "I, I was sent by Omi, looking for Elder Shejun."

"Tang, Omi." At once, Yang Qian lost his temper.

Shejun came out from the front door and asked, "What is it that young minister is looking for me?"

Tang unidentified said, "Our boss said that he wants you to go there immediately, your chance to make merit has arrived."

"What? Make a merit."

"Yes, make merit, congratulations on being able to make merit, alright, my words have been delivered, it's up to you if you want this chance to make merit." After saying that, Tang unknown walked away.

Inside She Jun, cursed, "Omi, I'll make a merit of you, who wants to make a merit with you."

All his life, She Jun didn't want to deal with Omi, but, Omi told him to go merit, and if he didn't go, he didn't know what would happen.

So, Shejun could only bite his teeth and very reluctantly went.

At this moment, somewhere in the Flying Cloud Sect.

Yang Ziyun had already washed and scrubbed and had changed her clothes.
