

King of kings

Omi and the others played on the grass for a while before entering the house.

"Originally, we came here to look for the Nine Dao Demon King's treasure, but it turned out to be Wang Shura's treasure, and it doesn't seem like we have any part in it." Mu Qianji said.

Omi was also a bit helpless.

Tang Huan said, "After opening the treasure, the Shura clan will definitely share some of it with us, right?"

"No matter how much it can be divided, how much can we share. This treasure of Wang Shura is considered to be nothing to hope for, and now I can only count on the Nine Daoist Demon King's spirit stone cave, which is what I'm most looking forward to."

Mu Qianji nodded, "I guess Wang Shura's treasure is not much in terms of spirit stones, it's mainly some pills, magic tools and the like. What we need most is not pills and magic tools, but spirit stones, so the Nine Daoist Demons' treasure is the most suitable for us."

"Alright, let's take a break and go to the banquet tonight."

Tang Huan Lu Yuxi and the others went back to their respective rooms.

Omi lay on his bed, breathing in the air, he hadn't breathed the air for a long time since he entered the Sea of Death.

Mu Qianji lay beside Omi.

"I should have known better, bring the little white dragon." Omi suddenly said. A second to remember to read the book

"Uh, why bring it, wouldn't it be better if you give it to Xia Xiaoxin to raise, you bring it, in case there is a mistake how good, the little white dragon is still so small, it could easily die."

"Haha, just a casual sentiment, it should be almost a year since I saw the little white dragon, I don't know when I will have the chance to return to the Four Seas again."

"Not so fast at the moment, we have to wait until the next year, when the Rainbow Bridge opens, and once we go down, it won't be so easy to come up."

Omi snorted, "I don't think so, that dog circle of mine has even killed the fourth stage of the Mahayana stage, and the eight major immortal cultivation families in the Five Seas, the strongest are only about the third stage of the Mahayana stage."

"That's true, but you're only at the Combination Stage after all, and your locking circle may not be able to trap a strong person at the Mahayana Stage. The purple-haired man you were able to lasso before, that was because in the Sea of Death, the other party couldn't drive a flying sword, while you could, and you were greatly inferior in terms of flexibility. If you were in a normal place, the Mahayana would have destroyed you in a single glance.”

“Haha, also.” Omi was promptly reminded by Mu Qianji that it wasn’t that Omi really had the ability to do this anymore that time, but that environmental factors accounted for a large part of it.

So, if it was in a normal place, the first stage of the Mahayana stage Omi might not even be able to trap it.

“Hopefully, this time when I open Wang Shura’s treasure, I’ll have a chance to improve some, preferably to the Separation Stage.” Omi said full of desire, he needed strength too much right now, otherwise, he couldn’t go back to the Four Seas if he wanted to, and none of the eight Great Immortal Families could deal with it.

“I hope so, by the way, in half a year, isn’t there a new relic that will be born in the Sea of Death, perhaps this new relic will be born, and we’ll be able to harvest something. Of course, the premise is to get the Shura Clan to help, they Shura Clan is in the Sea of Death all year round, and they are the undersea overlords of the Sea of Death, I think, the Shura Clan is very much in charge.” Mu Qianji said.

In the evening, Omi and the others were invited to that ancient palace, which was now prepared with countless delicacies.

“Wow.” Tang Huan couldn’t take her eyes off of it as soon as she walked into the main hall, she was a foodie, back when she was in the Flying Cloud Sect, Tang Huan had often gone down to eat

All kinds of food.

“Haha, Senior Wang, you’re too polite, you’ve prepared such a sumptuous meal, and it’s all unprecedented.” Omi gave a loud laugh, and Wang Pi greeted him with a respectful hand, “Brother Tang, please take a seat.”

Wang Pi was very polite, after all, he was asking for Omi.

“Not polite not polite.”

Omi and the others took their seats and began to enjoy the wine and food, they hadn’t eaten anything so delicious for a long time.

Only when the banquet reached its end did Omi say, “Senior Wang, I don’t know if you’ve heard a prophecy that in half a year, a new relic will be born in the Sea of Death.”

Wang Pi smiled, “Of course, we, the Shura clan, are the overlords of the Sea of Death, but this new relic that has been born is not so easy to obtain.”

“How so.”

“If I’m not mistaken, the location of this newly born relic is in the Jedi Sea Valley.”

“Uh, the Jedi Sea Valley? Is it a dangerous place?”

“Yes, the Jedi Sea Valley is a place that even our Shura clan wouldn’t dare to step into.”

“Why?”

“The Jedi Sea Valley, in the ancient times, was the cave residence of some formidable person, so think about it, entering this place is definitely a killing machine, with all kinds of formations trapped in it. Now that the main relics of the Jedi Sea Valley haven't even been released yet, that place is full of killing opportunities, and when they're all really released, the killing opportunities will be even greater. However, the risks and rewards go hand in hand. If the relics of the Jedi Sea Valley are really released, I think there are definitely quite a few treasures in there.”

Tang Huan asked, “Senior, which is better, the Jedi Sea Valley or your Shura King's Treasure?”

Wang Pi said without hesitation, “It must be the Jedi Sea Valley.”

“Uh, why?”

“Because, this Jedi Sea Valley already existed when our Old Ancestor King Shura was still in the Spirit World.”

“Impossible, millions of years ago, when your Old Ancestor King Shura was so powerful, why didn't he go to the Jedi Sea Valley to dig for treasures?” Mu Qianji was confused.

“You think our ancestor didn't want to back then ah, it was that Jedi Sea Valley that was too murderous, and our ancestor wasn't completely sure about it. After that, our ancestor also rose up and settled in the Seven Seas, so he didn't go into this Jedi Sea Valley anymore. Another reason is that the Jedi Sea Valley was once inhabited by a friend of our oldest ancestor of the Shura clan, and out of respect, our Wang Shura ancestor has never explored it.”

“But now, the treasure of the Jedi Sea Valley is going to be born.”

“Yes, if I'm not wrong, in half a year, the Sea of Death should be very crowded, and many big names from the Seven Seas will definitely send people here. I've heard that the ruins of the Jedi Sea Valley contain many heavenly-grade magic treasures, and there might even be pseudo-immortal artifacts.”

“Ah, pseudo-immortal artifacts.” Omi was shocked.

“Yes, but the probability is not high, after all, this level of magic artifacts are not something that can be sacrificed by immortal cultivators, they must be found in the space-time gap.”

“A space-time gap? What is it.”

“The gap in space-time is the gap that leads straight to the Immortal Realm after shattering the void. In order to enter the gap in space-time, you must enter the gap the moment the door to space-time opens when you ascend, then in that same moment, you happen to see the pseudo-immortal artifact in the gap, then you must also throw that pseudo-immortal artifact out in that same moment, so that there is a pseudo-immortal artifact here. So many coincidences with one moment, do you think it's easy?”
