Chapter 1811

"Then you won't have the chance to travel to the Seven Seas. By the way, Omi, do you know why my father, at all costs, is helping Yuyan refine her spirit stones and rapidly improve her realm?"

"Don't tell me it has something to do with the initiation."

"Haha, you're right, my father will do whatever it takes to raise the realm of Yan Yan, the purpose is, to make Yan Yan look talented, the younger she is, the higher the realm, the more talented others naturally think she is. In that case, it's very likely that she'll be chosen to join the Association."

Omi frowned and said speechlessly, "So your father, he was going to send Yuyan to the Seven Seas from the very beginning."

"Yes, only by sending her to the Seven Seas will she have a better future. Moreover, with my daughter's posture, once she obtains the token of the Club Martial again, she can definitely do well in the Seven Heavy Seas, and be looked upon by a certain strong person in the Seven Heavy Seas, or a certain strong second generation, in the future, the future is bright."

Omi depressedly said, "Fortunately I appeared just in time, if I were two years late, wouldn't it be that Yuyan would have joined the Five Great Powers of the Seven Heavy Seas. By virtue of Mo Yuyan being in her forties and reaching the Combination Stage, it's very likely that she would have obtained the Club Martial Token."

Mo Qing laughed bitterly, "Because of this, when I issued an imperial decree that whoever could save Yuyan would recruit him as a son-in-law, this matter was reduced to a joke."

"Then, now that Mo Yuyan has become my daoist partner, do you regret it?" Omi asked.

Mo Qing said, "I said that whoever can save her will be recruited as a son-in-law, and although I was laughed at, I will never break my promise. Moreover, you have such a strong talent and opportunity, as soon as Yuyan met you, she went from the combined stage to the Mahayana stage against all odds, isn't that enough? I think the benefits of him becoming your daoist partner are in no way worse than being inducted into the Seven Seas."

"Thank you for being so optimistic about me."

"Seriously, will you participate in the Entrance Meeting in two years or not? You won't have a chance to travel to the Seven Heavy Seas without participating. Because there is no way to get to the Seven Seas, you must pass through a teleportation formation, and the starting key for this formation is in the hands of the five strongest people in the Seven Seas. Therefore, no matter how strong you are, you won't be able to get up there without the key." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"How can I, Omi, join the family?"

"You don't have to join the family either, you can join first and gain a year's worth of cultivation, if you don't choose to join the family, you'll be thrown down after a year."

"We'll talk about it then, it's too early to tell."

"Alright, let's not talk about it."

Omi closed his eyes.

Time passed slowly, and soon, about a week had passed.

The Sea of Death was really starting to get crowded.

More ships came from all directions, and although everyone knew that the new relics were born for the big men of the Seven Seas, people would still come, just in case they picked up on it.

"Uncle Qing, in the next few days, the new relics might come out at any time, so we should be ready."

"Good, then let's leave and go to the sea."

Omi and the two of them flew out of the water bubble.

The two of them had been living in this blister for a week, and most of that week had been spent talking about some sort of initiation meeting. Mo Qing wanted Omi to attend, and inside, Omi refused, Omi didn't like being played with his fate, but yet, Omi needed this opportunity.

Flying out of the water bubble, he met Wang Ting head-on.

"Fellow Daoist Tang, I'm sorry for the poor hospitality these days." Wang Ting said apologetically.

"It's fine, it's us who have disturbed you more."

Wang Ting sighed, "My family's patriarch, still hasn't returned, this week, I ordered all the guards of the Shura Clan to go through the entire Sea of Death, and even further, but they haven't found Wang Pi's whereabouts, I'm really anxious." Wang Ting was very anxious.

Omi said in his heart, Wang Pi's first seven days are over, what else is he looking for.

"Fellow Daoist Tang, tell me, where exactly did our family head go? This new relic is about to be born, why isn't he back yet, will something happen to him?"

"Uh, I don't think so, Senior Wang Pi is at least at the fourth stage of the tribulation, under normal circumstances, who could kill him so easily. Even if he encounters the Fifth Order of Tribulation, as long as Senior Wang Pi doesn't deliberately seek death, he won't die if he escapes in time. Although the fifth stage of Tribulation is much stronger, in terms of flying sword speed, it's not as big as the difference in strength ah."

"I'm also wondering ah, where the hell did he go, if he didn't die, it's impossible that he hasn't come back even at this time." Wang Ting was in a hurry to cry, their Shura family, there was currently only one half-immortal sitting in town ah.

"Senior Wang Ting, don't worry, he should be delayed by something."

"What else is bigger than the new relic. If our clan leader really dies, then we, the Shura clan, won't have it so easy."

"Fellow Daoist Wang Ting, your Shura clan survives under the sea and has no competition with the world, unlike on our land, where so many immortal dynasties and great immortal families are eyeing." Mo Qing said.

Wang Ting said, "Fellow Daoist Mo Qing, you are wrong, although we don't have so many humans eyeing us at the bottom of the sea, it's no less dangerous than on land. In the Sea of Death, although our Shura clan is now the undersea hegemon, there are many powerful sea cultivators in the Sea of Death besides us, those sea cultivators are not humans, they are all cultivated by powerful undersea monsters, some of them are really very powerful. If there is no half-immortal sitting in the sea, those demonic beasts, will definitely come to invade us, and then, we, the Shura clan, will have no peace forever." Wang Ting wept.

Omi smiled, "Senior Wang Ting, if that's the case, then you should hurry up and step into the first step of the tribulation, I heard that you've already stepped into Half Immortal with one foot."

"It's been almost a hundred years since I stepped into Half Immortal with one foot, who knows when I'll be able to step into Half Immortal, besides, stepping into Half Immortal may not be able to stop some demonic beasts. At least the one from the Sea of Death, the Nine-Armed Tongued Beast, I'm no match for it, and that Nine-Armed Tongued Beast is difficult for even our clan leader to deal with."

"Uh, it does seem to be quite a crisis." Omi sighed, killing off Wang Pi and harming the Shura clan.

But Omi also had no choice, who let that Wang Pi not be a human.

"Alright, Senior Wang Ting, look for it again, we're going to the sea."

"Okay, you guys go ahead." Wang Ting arched his hands.

Omi and Mo Qing rushed straight out of the sea surface.

Once they rushed out to the sea, Omi saw even more ships on the surface of the sea, there were large ships with family flags standing everywhere.

Omi said in shock, "Are there so many families in the Six Seas?"

Mo Qing said, "The strongest families in the Six Seas are the Nine Great Immortal Dynasties, and under the Nine Great Immortal Dynasties, there are thousands of immortal families, large and small. This time when the new relics were born, compared to these thousands of large and small immortal cultivation families, they all went out, right?"

"I didn't expect that the calm Six Seas would still have such strong hidden forces."

Mo Qing said, "Omi, find out where the ships of my Mo Dynasty are, my Mo Dynasty, which sent several ships here three months ago, should be here at the moment, let's go to the ships, we don't have to fly away from mid-air all the time."

"Good."
