1874

The patriarch rose from his sitting position and said in shock, "What's going on? Didn't I send him to the Six Seas to fully handle the establishment of the family branch, so why did he suddenly die?"

"I don't know, Eirin Jun's life light just went out, he must have just died in the Sixth Sea." That underling said.

"Outrageous, who dares to kill someone from my I Clan in the Six Seas." The I Clan's protector clan leader was furious.

"Someone, go and call for Yi Cousin Fang."

"Yes."

Not long after, a man of the fifth stage of Tribulation came, this man of the fifth stage of Tribulation was tall and big, his eyes naturally showed a fierce light, and without having to say any words, he made people feel very dignified.

"Patriarch, what are you looking for me for?"

"Yi Cousin Fang, Yi Lin Jun, who I sent to the Six Heavy Seas to establish a family branch, has just died."

"What? Which bastard calf in the Six Heavy Sea dared to kill my Yi Clan, do they not want to hang around?" Yibiao Fang yelled, seemingly unable to believe where in the Six Heavy Sea someone could dare to be so arrogant.

The patriarch of the clan snorted, "The person who killed Yirin Jun in the Six Heavy Sea must have thought that God didn't know about it, that's why he dared to attack Yirin Jun. Yi Cube Fang, you are the law enforcement chief of our Yi Clan, you have the right to uphold the dignity of anyone's life in the family. I now order you to immediately go to the Six Heavy Sea and investigate who killed Y Lin Jun and bring back the murderer, I would like to see which son of a bitch ate the bear's guts."

"Patriarch, don't worry, I'll immediately go to the Six Heavy Sea, and within a month, I'll definitely bring back the murderer." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

The Izumo side immediately went to the Six Heavy Seas to investigate the death of Ilin Jun.

The Seventh Heavy Sea went to the Sixth Heavy Sea and could go there at any time, but the Sixth Heavy Sea had to go back to the Seventh Heavy Sea, but the key was a must.

Omi and Little Fire, acted as if nothing had happened, after all, no one else had been present when they had just killed those people.

"Brother Chen, it's really as if we didn't do anything? Wouldn't that be sitting ducks?"

"If we run off with our families now, it's a fool's errand to know we did it."

"But what if they Y's family already knows we did it?"

"Not usually."

"Why?"

"Because if you come down from the seventh sea, you can just come straight down, but if you go back again from the sixth sea, you have to have the key, and the key is in the hands of the strongest person in their I Clan, and the strongest person in their clan can't just 'open the door' for someone at any moment, so I guess the I Clan who we just killed they definitely haven't returned to the Seven Seas in the past few months, and they'll definitely wait for the family branch to be established before they go back."

"The reasoning is somewhat reasonable."

"Alright, let's not talk about it so much, you should quickly go practice your One Flame of Void Fire."

"Okay Le."

Omi had been practicing at home for five days when a man from the Tang Chi Gate, claiming to be from the Bird Dynasty, came and wanted to see Omi about something.

Omi met the man in the main hall.

"What is it that you want to see me about?"

"Senior Tang, it's like this, our Bird Dynasty's eldest emperor, the Bird Peng Army, sent me here to ask you to go there."

"The Bird Pang Army asked me to go?"

"Yes, I expect Senior Tang to go there quickly."

"Have you asked your Long Emperor Bird, Peng Jun, what he is? He asked me to take a trip there?" Omi was furious.

"This, Tang Qian,

Senior, our eldest emperor also has a hard time, his life is being threatened, he didn't just send people to invite you, he also sent people to every other dynasty and invited all the people in charge of the dynasty." Bird's imperial servant said.

Omi said, "Who is threatening the life of your long emperor, Bird Peng Jun, by?"

"The man won't let me talk about it, he's afraid that if he does, you won't go."

"Say."

"It's someone who came down from the Seven Heavy Seas, from the Yi Clan of the Seven Heavy Seas, the name seems to be Yi Biao Fang, a strong man of the fifth stage of tribulation."

"The Yi Clan, Yi Cousin Fang?" Omi's brow furrowed lightly, Omi had figured out that nine times out of ten, it had something to do with Omi killing those people a few days ago.

"What is that Yi Cousin Fang doing here?" Omi asked probingly.

"Back to Senior Tang, Junior doesn't know either, as soon as he came to the Six Seas, he took control of our Bird Dynasty and asked our Elder Emperor, in his name, to send out an invitation to all of the Royal Dynasties in the Six Seas, to the Bird Dynasty."

"Alright, I understand, you go back first, I'll be right back."

"Thank you senior, I hope that you will definitely come if you go, the life of our long emperor is in your hands." The people of the Bird Dynasty thankfully left first.

Omi snorted with contempt.

Little Fire arrived with the news, and was busy asking, "Brother Chen, it's someone sent down from the I Clan, isn't it."

"Yes, a man named Yi Cousin Fang."

"Ah, he must have come to investigate that last incident. Brother Minister, how strong is this Yi Cousin Fang?"

Omi trailed off, "A tribulation fifth stage is just that."

Little Fire was relieved, "That's good, I'm really afraid of a Transmigration Eighth Order."

Omi said, "The Seven Seas only has a few Transmigration Eighth Steps, where are there so many Transmigration Eighth Steps, don't worry, this matter, before it reaches the most serious stage, a strong person of this level of Transmigration Eighth Step will not be able to come down. Perhaps, they feel that; sending someone of the fifth stage of the Tribulation to come down and investigate is enough. Because they think that no one in the Six Seas would dare to openly confront them."

"So now you're going to the Bird Dynasty?"

"Of course I'm going to, I'm going to pretend I don't know who killed them and cooperate with their investigation. And then after that, I'll quietly, take out that Ipekata again."

"Uh, Minister, you're going to take out the Ipefang again."

"That's for sure, quietly find an empty place to kill it, after that, the I Clan will definitely send even stronger ones down, at that time, I'll quietly kill it again, in short, I'll kill as many people as they send down until I can't do it anymore."

"Minister, if you need anything, feel free to tell me, I'll go practice a flavor of Void Fire first."

"Go ahead, I'll handle these matters myself."

Omi immediately left for the Bird Dynasty.

A day later, Omi arrived at the Bird's Dynasty, and when Omi arrived, so did everyone from the other major immortal cultivation dynasties, such as Li Chen Alone from the Li Chen Dynasty, You Changhu from the You Clan Dynasty, Sang Jinye from the Sang Clan Dynasty, and Gao Yang Sending Jun from the Gao Yang Dynasty.

"Hello, Fellow Daoist Tang."

“Hello, Fellow Daoist Tang.”

When the people from several major imperial dynasties arrived, they all greeted Omi warmly when they ran into him.

“You’re welcome.”

Omi said to himself, “It’s better not to be so polite to him at this time, let Omi keep a low profile.

There was also one person who ran into Omi and didn’t give him any face at all, and that was Gao Yang Sending King of the Gao Yang Dynasty.
