"If the bitch doesn't die, there will be no justice."

The people of the Yi Clan roared in the sky of the Six Seas, rallying their arms and roaring.

Yi Dingkang looked at the group of clansmen with blood red eyes at the scene and said through clenched teeth, "Don't worry, I will never make it easy for anyone who provokes our Yi Clan, we'll head to Tang Ji Gate, find Omi and cut him into pieces."

In less than half a day, Yi Dingkang and his group of clansmen arrived at Tang Ji Gate.

Unfortunately, Omi was already gone.

Even the entire imperial city had run away for fear of implicating themselves, and everyone from the center of the palace to fifty circles away had disappeared.

"Escape, I'll see where he can escape to." Idincon roared.

At that moment, a clan member reported, "Old Ancestor, I just asked a man about it, Omi fled towards the Sea of Death after killing our clan leader."

"What? The Sea of Death."

"Old Ancestor, Tang Dog must have known that you wouldn't let him go and ran to the Sea of Death."

"Old Ancestor, what are we going to do now? Wouldn't that mean you can't kill Tang Dog." First published at m.kanshu8.net

Yi Ding Kang ordered on the spot, "All of you, guard the exit of the Sea of Death, I don't believe that he can hide forever."

With that, the Yi Clan secured the Sea of Death.

At the Sea of Death, Omi and Little Fire recuperated for a month and finally recovered to their peak.

"Little Fire, wait for me here, now that a month has passed, I don't know what's going on outside, I'll go out and take a look." Omi said.

"Brother Chen, don't ever go out, there's no doubt that the Y's ancestor will guard the Sea of Death, as soon as you leave the heartland after death, he'll exterminate you." Little Fire advised.

There was really all right, currently, the I Clan's ancestor, who patrolled the perimeter of the Sea of Death every day, would swoop in and kill Omi just as soon as he left the heart of the Sea of Death.

"Damn, it's making me so frustrated, I'm about to get sick from nesting here every day." Omi was depressed.

"That can't be helped."

Omi said, "Little Fire, now that you've trained into a virtual fire, is there a stronger virtual fire?"

"Of course there are, like, two flavors of Void Fire and three flavors of Void Fire. However, it's too far for me to train to become a three-flavored Void Fire, and right now I feel clueless even with a two-flavored Void Fire."

Omi said, "But we can't be stuck here forever, we have to go out and face the Y's ancestor and fight him. So, Little Fire, you must train into the Two Flavors of Void Fire to raise your realm, and I must raise my realm and train into the sixth or even seventh set of the Twelve Sword Formation, so that we can rush out and join forces to fight the Y Clan's Old Ancestor."

"Ah, a battle with the Yi Clan's ancestor, this, I've never thought about it ah, would this be too appalling." After all, in everyone's eyes, the I Clan Ancestor was the overlord of the Seven Seas ah.

If we could fight with the Y's ancestor, wouldn't it be, that we could become a hegemon of the Seven Seas.

"Little Flame, let's not keep being afraid of his reputation, although he is one of the Seven Seas Hegemons in everyone's eyes that can't be countered, we are not weak, I have the sword formation, you have the inherited memories, together we may not be inferior to a pseudo-immortal artifact. Little Fire, get moving, I want to move as fast as I can, step into the fourth stage of Tribulation, and you need to step into the third stage of Tribulation as well!

. "Omi said warily.

Omi was fed up with being trapped in the Sea of Death, it was a very lame life, Omi vowed to rush out and fight with the Yi's ancestor, to the death.

"Brother Chen, I've only recently stepped into the Second Stage of Tribulation, I'm afraid it's difficult, in fact, you've only recently stepped into the Third Stage of Tribulation, and it's impossible to break through within a few decades without any special opportunities."

Omi sighed.

At this moment, at the edge of the Sea of Death.

"Old Ancestor, Old Dog Tang has been hiding for more than a month and still hasn't moved, I think he's trying to hide for the rest of his life." A man of the sixth stage of the Tribulation flew up to the Y's ancestor.

"Hmph, continue patrolling, once you spot Omi's appearance, immediately jade note me."

"I'm afraid he'll keep hiding, that old dog Tang, he hid in the depths of the Sea of Status for fear that you'll kill him, he's not afraid of being killed by the sealed Behemoth."

"Hmph, he'll come out someday, unless he dies."

"Ancestor, our family's patriarch was killed, and now the whole Seven Seas has spread, those four families, they are secretly laughing at us."

"Let them laugh, ignore those people."

"Then I'm going to continue my patrol." The man who was at the sixth stage of the Tribulation immediately flew away.

That man was right, Omi was now famous in the Seven Seas, the other four families of the Seven Seas, the Fu Clan, the Nuo Clan, the Universal Clan, and the Yong Clan, all knew that there was a man named Omi in the Six Seas, and that Omi hadn't even been to the Seven Seas yet, yet he was one step ahead to become famous in the Seven Seas.

The other four families of the Seven Seas, while mocking the Yi Clan for their incompetence, were also paying attention to the Yi Clan's ancestor and when he would be able to kill Omi.

In the Four Heavy Seas, Mu Qianji and the others were filled with worry every day, wondering what the situation was now in the Six Heavy Seas.

"I can't hold it in any longer." Mu Qianji looked as if he was heading to the Six Seas.

Yan Xinyi advised, "Qianji, don't be impulsive."

"But I'm really worried about them, there's no news at all, and Omi hasn't sent us a single jade message, so I'm really going to be anxious."

"Maybe it's not convenient for him right now, let's wait a little longer, I believe Feng'er, he's not so easily defeated."

Mu Qianji and the others, the degrees were like years.

Omi was at the bottom of the Sea of Death, and it was also like a day to day.

Just as Omi was about to wait, Omi suddenly felt an attraction.

"Ah, attraction? Behemoth Beast." Omi was shocked, feeling the attraction, Omi thought of the Behemoth Beast, as Omi had experienced it once before.

In the next second, the two of them, Omi and Little Fire, appeared in a sealed space, above the space, two huge eyes, like two big light bulbs shot down, because it was too dark, only two huge eyes could be seen.

There was a cold snort in the air, "It's you again, you're looking for death, are you really forcing me to kill you?"

Omi was busy saying, "Wait, Senior Bimbo, I didn't mean to intrude on your territory."

"You called me senior Bimun, hahaha, that's ridiculous, I didn't expect, I didn't expect." The voice in the air sneered.

Omi had the feeling that this sealed Beamon Behemoth had a yin and yang voice.
