

King of kings

1886

With a contemptuous gaze, Omi swept a circle and said, "From today onwards, your history is finished, come on, do it."

After saying that, Omi instantly activated the sword formation, with Little Fire momentarily assisting behind Omi.

Together, Omi and Little Fire only had two mouthfuls of Bimbo Behemoth's Qi, so Omi and Little Fire meant that there were only two chances to kill the I Clan's Old Ancestor.

If they didn't hit the I Clan Ancestor twice, then it was a waste of such a good opportunity.

Not only had they lost such a good opportunity in vain, they would have lost their little lives as well.

Therefore, Omi and Little Fire didn't dare to take it lightly at all, two chances ah.

The E's ancestor also moved, he had no worries at all, he struck directly towards Omi with a palm strike.

Omi's sword formation spun at high speed, his nerves tense to the extreme.

"The heavens and earth are limitless, a sword from the ocean."

Omi's sword formation erupted with a light that was almost invisible to the naked eye, so fast that one sword became one point.

"Swoosh." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

The eyes of the Yi Clan's ancestor trembled, Omi's sword formation was truly powerful. If he didn't have a pseudo-immortal weapon in his hand, with this moment's move of Omi's, he would probably die, no wonder he dared to oppose their Yi Clan, unfortunately, it was all a pity.

The Yi Clan's ancestor wiped his hand on his chest, and a black screen appeared in front of him, which was instantly enlarged.

"Boom." This sword of Omi Heaven and Earth hit that black screen, and it seemed like a muddy ox entering the sea without a ripple.

Omi was shocked, that black screen was definitely a pseudo-immortal weapon, the Black Water Pearl.

As expected, Omi's current attack power was worthless in front of his pseudo-immortal weapon, thanks to Omi's previous thought that he could deal with the I Clan's ancestor by stepping into the fifth stage of Tribulation, what a naive thought.

At this moment, the I Clan Ancestor's palm rose and fell, and the black screen seemed to suddenly turn tooth and claw, overwhelmingly shooting down towards Omi.

"Ah, Little Fire." Omi shouted, right now Omi had to use up a chance to use up his Bimbo Breath, otherwise, he would surely die. However, Omi and Little Fire who's that breath was to be used first, Omi felt that he should use up Little Fire's first.

Little Fire heard Omi's shout and instantly understood.

"Buzz." When Little Fire saw that black water droplet killing, he didn't even want to think about it, a single breath struck out violently, it was in fact very rushed, and it felt more like he was trying to save his own life.

"Boom." The breath that Little Fire spewed out was like a substantial fist, and it collided with the Black Water Pearl's strike.

Issuing a shocking shaking of the ground, the ground of the entire Tang Ji Gate, popped and tumbled, showing how strong this one impact was.

The Y's ancestor's pupils constricted and he broke out in a cold sweat of fright, but in the next second, his pseudo-immortal weapon, the Black Water Pearl, seemed to be subjected to violent turbulence and instantly retracted back into his body.

"Puff." The Yi Clan's ancestor spurted out a mouthful of blood so violently that his entire body felt like the sky was spinning.

However, after all, the breath from the little fire just now didn't hit his body, it only collided with his black water beads against each other, so the I Clan's ancestor spat out a mouthful of blood and then

Steady as she goes, just, already out of breath.

Omi and Little Fire, for the time being, had picked up a life.

"Brother Chen, why isn't he dead." Little Fire was busy.

"Crap, didn't hit his body, damn it, didn't think it would be this difficult." Omi had fine sweat on his forehead, although they possessed two mouthfuls of Qi that could kill the Y's ancestor, it was difficult to hit his body.

"It was too hasty just now, and I didn't align."

"His pseudo-immortal weapon, the Black Water Pearl, is too strong, and if I hadn't let you hit that breath of Qi just now in time, we'd both be dead."

"Ah, so what now, there's only one breath left in you, if we don't hit his body, then we will."

"Don't talk, there's no turning back from a bow." Omi gritted his teeth.

The difficulty of killing the I Clan Old Ancestor had exceeded Omi's expectations.

The I Clan Old Ancestor looked at Omi with a pale face.

"You guys, how could you, what was that you just sent out?" Yi's ancestor's lips turned a little white as he asked, although it hadn't hit him physically just now, it had given him a serious injury.

Omi snorted, "Old Dog Yi, today you will die."

The Yi Clan's ancestor's face trembled, and in the next second, felt extremely angry that he, a man with a pseudo-immortal weapon, had suffered a little loss.

In the distant sky, the nine Half Immortals of the Yi Clan, seeing their ancestor's face turn a little pale, they couldn't help but feel confused as to how they could kill a Omi with so much effort.

Omi and Little Fire exchanged glances.

Little Fire immediately opened his mouth and sprayed a mouthful of flames towards the Y's ancestor.

"Roar."The entire sky, thousands of meters in all directions, was a raging fire.

Omi also sent out his strongest sword again at the same moment.

"The heavens and earth are limitless, a sword of the ocean."

The Y's ancestor panicked and braced his hands, the black water droplets were like a water bubble, firmly protecting his perimeter.

Little Fire's Two Flame Void Fire couldn't even get close to the I's ancestor, all of them were intercepted by his black water beads.

Omi's Heaven and Earth Peerless Canghai Sword shot at the black water bead with the speed of light.

"Wave."It seemed like a drop of water fell into the pool, but Omi's sword so strong only sent out a wave.

The old ancestor of the Y's braced his black water droplet mouth and gave a disdainful sneer.

However, this was not Omi's purpose.

Omi had already approached within tens of meters of the I Clan's ancestor by using the Heaven and Earth's Infinite Canghai Sword, and although his sword didn't have any effect of tapping through the black water beads, Omi's next second, fiercely hit the breath on his body.

This move was the ultimate goal of Omi's attack this time.

If he failed to kill the opponent this time, then the chance was completely lost.

"Ah."The Y's ancestor, who was holding on to the Black Water Pearl, was stunned when he found out that Omi had fiercely struck out that breath of air, thinking that the powerful breath he had just struck out was only Little Fire's, thinking that it was Little Fire's unique move.

&n

bsp; However, he never expected that even Omi would be able to let out such a powerful breath.

However, it was already too late.

The Yi Clan's ancestor could only hope that his Black Water Pearl would be able to firmly guard him at the moment, but he didn't have much confidence in his heart, because he had already learned the power of that breath just now, and rawly knocked the pseudo-immortal weapon back into his body.

"Boom."It was too late, and there was another incredibly violent collision.

The Qi of the Behemoth Beast and the Black Water Pearl collided together.

In almost a second, the black water bead of the I Clan's ancestor couldn't hold up to such a powerful force.

"Bang." The black water bead instantly broke open and contracted into the I Clan's ancestor's body.

Omi shouted at once, "Right now." After saying that, Omi's long-deliberate, end-everything sword was sent out.

"Heaven and earth are limitless, die." The moment Omi broke open the Black Water Pearl and hadn't had time to retract it into the body of the I Clan's Old Ancestor, Heaven and Earth's Infinite Sword broke straight through the I Clan's Old Ancestor's skull.

At the moment of cutting open the skull of the I Clan's ancestor, the heavens and earth seemed to reopen, and time seemed to suddenly stop.

The I Clan's ancestor, with his open hands but no longer able to hold them, looked at Omi with incredulous eyes.

"Tang, Tang, Tang." The I Clan's ancestor didn't know what he wanted to say, and Don didn't say it three times.

In the distant sky, the nine half-immortals of the I Clan hissed, "Old Ancestor."

"No."

"No, it can't be."

"Old Ancestor."

In the shrieks of those nine Half Immortals, and in the incredulous, braced eyes, the ancestor they were so proud of, the look on his face suddenly faltered, as if everything had ended, from a person, to a corpse floating in the air.

"Ahhhh." The nine half-immortals of the Yi Clan tore their hearts out and roared, a roar that was so frustrating and painful.

What the death of their ancestor meant, they didn't dare to think about it, right now, the only thing they could do was roar.

Omi was completely relieved.

"Whew, dead, finally killed the I's Old Ancestor." Omi felt himself being relieved, not that he was really relieved, but killing this I Clan Ancestor was really not easy, Omi and Little Fire had both pinned their lives to their pants belts. So at the moment it succeeded, feeling a sense of celebration and a relaxed body.

At that moment, Little Fire shouted, "Brother Chen, don't be relaxed yet, pseudo-immortal weapon."

Omi reacted at once.

Yes, at this moment, the Y's ancestor was dead, his pseudo-immortal artifact, the Black Water Pearl, had become a masterless object, Omi must take it away immediately and immediately.

Omi rushed up, a black bead, floating above the corpse of the I Clan Ancestor.

In between, Omi's hand grabbed the black bead.

"Hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a loud laugh, and from then on, Omi also had a pseudo-immortal weapon.

Omi's gaze shot to the distant sky, where nine half-immortals of the Yi Clan chattered and laughed, and his eyes seemed to say, "It's your turn."
