

King of kings

1887

The nine I Clan Half Immortals in the distant sky shuddered when they saw Omi's gaze shooting towards them.

"Run." One of them shouted, so the nine Half Immortals suddenly ran.

Omi snorted, "Still running, your Yi Clan is officially extinct from today, I'll see where you can run to. Little Fire, one-stop service."

"Yes, Brother Chen."

Little Fire immediately chased after them, and of course, Omi chased after them together.

In the blink of an eye, Omi and Little Fire caught up.

Little Fire opened his bloody mouth wide and shouted, "One dragon service, baohua."

"Phew." The monstrous flames engulfed those nine Half Immortals.

After the flames passed, there were no scraps left.

"Hahaha." Omi laughed out loud.

"Congratulations, Brother Chen, for obtaining the pseudo-immortal artifact and about to become one of the overlords of the Seven Seas." Little Fire was busy congratulating. One second to remember to read the book

Omi said, "Little Fire, find a place first, I need to digest the pseudo-immortal artifact. Once I'm done digesting it, we'll head to the Seven Seas and exterminate the I Clan."

"Good." Little Fire nodded his head full of anticipation.

Omi immediately rushed to the ruins of Tang Ji Gate, found a random ruined hall, and sat down to refine the pseudo-immortal artifacts.

Pseudo Immortal Artifacts weren't so easy to refine, Omi needed to put in some effort, but it wasn't that difficult either.

After about half an hour, Omi was considered to have completely turned the Black Water Pearl into his artifact.

Omi's mind moved, and suddenly a black screen appeared in front of him, which changed into a water bead.

After Omi refined the black water bead, this thing was Omi's magic weapon, Omi could use the black water bead for all kinds of attacks, of course, the black water bead also had its own attribute, the attribute he brought with him, the most biased one would be defense.

"Alright, I have thoroughly refined the Black Water Bead and, learned how to utilize it, we can now head to the Seven Seas." Omi stood up.

"Brother Chen, heading to the Seven Heavy Seas, I heard that you need some kind of key."

Omi flipped his hand and flipped out a token that was very primitive.

"I think this is the so called key, I found it from the Yi's ancestor."

"Then what are you waiting for, go up to the Seven Seas and destroy the Yi Clan." Little Flame shouted.

Omi and Little Fire, rose up into the sky.

The passage to the Seven Heavy Seas, deep in the sky, there was a similar teleportation formation, which had to have a key to activate.

And right now, in the Seven Seas, the I Clan's ancestral hall.

A light of life that was placed in the highest one, at some point, quietly went out.

The servant who was guarding the ancestral hall looked at the extinguished light and his entire body was silly.

"Oh my god, this must be blurring of the eyes." That servant rubbed his eyes as hard as he could, but the two lights that came first and second in line were always out.

"It's over, the Y's are going out, I'd better run first." That servant, who didn't even go to ring the death knell and threw down his broom and ran away, was also really heartless. If he rang the death knell in time, he would at least be able to send a message to the I Clan, so that the I

The clan promptly made a countermeasure, either going to move help or escaping in time.

Omi soon arrived at the Seven Seas, and once he entered the Seven Seas, he felt the thick to somewhat sticky aura.

"Wow, this aura is just enough, no wonder there are so many half-immortals in the Sea of Seven Heavens."

"The cultivation of Half Immortals isn't that important in terms of how much aura they need."

"There's nothing wrong with that, but with so much aura, at least there are more people who have cultivated to the ninth stage of the Mahayana stage, and then, there are more who have stepped into the tribulation as well."

"Alright, go find out where the Yi Clan is."

Omi flew in the skies of the Seven Heavy Seas, which was small in size and consisted of a total of four continents, among which, the southernmost continent was divided into five regions according to southeast and northwest.

"If I'm not mistaken, the five regions of the middle continent are the territories of the five major powers of the Seven Heavy Seas, but which one of these five regions is the Yi Clan's?"

Omi said, "We're already here, and we're still afraid that the remnants of the I Clan won't escape. Let's see what the Seven Seas is like first."

The southernmost continent continued north, east, and west, with three separate continents. These three continents were farther apart.

"It seems that there are other forces in the Seven Heavy Seas besides the five major powers." Omi said.

"It's obvious, you see, the five major powers have combined to dominate one continent, it looks like the five major powers are not the strongest in the Seven Seas, there are powers stronger than the five major powers."

"Well, we can go receive our territory now." Omi said.

After saying that, Omi swooped down to the southernmost continent from high in the sky. Although the continent looked very small from high in the sky, it was actually very large after rushing to the ground.

Omi casually landed in a bustling city.

"Excuse me, where is this place?" Omi asked a man at the Distraction Stage.

"Hey, you guys are so strange, how come you don't know where this place is, this is the Nuo Clan, Noling City, ah, aren't you, aren't you guys from our Nuo Clan?" The man looked at Omi and Little Fire in confusion.

Omi said, "It's the idiot who's a Nosferatu."

"Ah." That man was startled, then, his face felt a hint of anger, who are these two people, where did they come from, even if it's not enough to inquire about what place this is, they actually said that the idiot is the one who is from the Nuo Clan, isn't that calling them Nuo Clan's people idiots?

Little Fire asked, "Ah what ah, tell me, how do the Isthmians get there?"

"Who the hell are you guys? You must not be from the Seven Seas, you must have only smuggled yourselves up from the Six Seas. I'm going to report you and catch you, lowly immortal cultivators of the Sixfold Sea are not allowed to enter a sacred place like the Sevenfold Sea, and are only allowed to come here with the permission of the five great families." The man at the Divide Stage yelled. Everyone here seemed to have a high-minded attitude, seeing those under the Six Seas as lowly immortal cultivators.

"Bang." Omi slapped it down.

"Little Fire, go first."

"Good."

Omi and Little Fire instantly disappeared and arrived at a street a few thousand meters away.

Little Fire said, "The Five Great Powers, they have been developing here for millions of years, even tens of millions of years, their family population, I'm afraid it's several hundred million."

"Well, that's for sure, this city we're in right now is a certain small town of the Nuo Clan, one of the family branches, this population is too much."
