The leader of the dragon clan looked at Sebastian and Violet Pupil, then smiled, "This gentleman is afraid that he evolved from a jiao snake into a dragon."

"Ah." Purple Pupil was a bit surprised, that was all that could be seen.

Omi busily said, "Greetings to the Dragon Clan Chief, I am from the Extreme South Continent, the Master of Tang Ji Gate, I hope that the Clan Chief will forgive me for rashly coming here today."

That dragon clan chief said, "The humans of the Extreme South Continent, even the most powerful ones, don't dare to set foot on other continents, yet you dare to come to us."

"Ah, they don't dare?" Omi didn't seem to know that the few of them who had pseudo-immortal weapons didn't dare to come to other continents?

"Those so-called overlords of the human race, if they didn't have a few pseudo-immortal weapons, where would they be able to survive here, besides, that barren land of the Extreme South Continent is a place of disdain for the various holy beasts of our Seven Seas, otherwise, those human races wouldn't be able to exist here."

"Sacred beasts?"

"You're an interesting human, but you don't know anything."

"Truth be told, I've just come from the Six Heavy Sea and just gained a foothold in the Seven Heavy Sea."

"No wonder, in those places where the aura of the Six Heavy Sea is thin, someone was able to rise up and gain a place in the Seven Heavy Sea, it seems that you have a good talent. I'm a person who still appreciates geniuses, whether they're humans or dragons. Come in."

"Thank you, Senior." First URL m.kanshu8.net

Omi and the others were busy walking into the main hall.

Little Fire noticed that there was some fine sweat on Omi's forehead.

"Brother Chen, why are you sweating?" Little Fire was a little surprised, it was reasonable to say that Omi was also at the fifth stage of Tribulation, and had defeated someone as strong as Fu Emotionless.

Omi transmitted, "Little Fire, this Dragon Clan's Clan Leader is too powerful, he just deliberately put pressure on me, I couldn't even carry it, I even secretly enabled the Black Water Pearl to resist, but still, I couldn't carry it."

"Ah, no way, so powerful."

Little Fire was also greatly shocked.

Omi and the others sat down in the golden palace, and the clan leader immediately ordered several female dragons to come up for drinks.

"You're welcome."The patriarch said with a wave of his hand.

"Thank you."Omi sniffed it, not sure what kind of drink it was, but it tasted okay.

Omi said, "Clan Leader, in the entire Spiritual World, are there any other places besides this place where there are dragons?"

"How is that possible."

"Well, this sister of mine, her name is Sebastian, he was a chance encounter when I was in the One Heavy Sea, she was very young and just born, I wanted to ask, since this is the only place in the world where there are dragons, she should be from here as well, do you know if you Dragonballs lost any of your children some years ago?"Omi said.

The dragon clan leader looked at Sebastian, and didn't know what kind of eyes, it was very faint, even Omi couldn't understand it.

The dragon clan chief said, "I will have someone inquire about it, my dragon clan's population of 180,000 people, although it is very rare compared to humans, but at the moment to know who has lost a child, we can't know."

"Oh, I'll have the clan leader do that."

The Dragon Clan Chief looked at Little Fire and smiled, "You're from the Kirin Clan, aren't you."

"Exactly."

"However, your bloodline is not pure, you were not born a unicorn, you should be like this dragon clan, you used to be a jiao snake, and you, who used to be a fire demon beast, must have evolved into a unicorn."

"Yes."Little Fire nodded, this dragon clan leader had a sharp eye, and that was known.

bsp;Omi asked, "Patriarch, may I ask, do you know if there is a Qilin clan in this Seven Seas?"

"Oh, it's no bullshit."

"Ah."Omi and Little Flame were both shocked.

"So, the Seven Seas also has Little Fire's kind, great, Little Fire, you can finally find a girlfriend."

"Ahem."Little Fire was very embarrassed.

Omi smiled heedlessly, he was actually more excited than Little Fire.

The dragon clan leader, however, didn't find it funny, but looked at Little Fire, and from time to time, he took a second glance at Little White, and as for Purple Pupil, he didn't even take a second look.

Purple Pupil felt a little hurt inside, although he used to be a Jiao dragon, but, not down to his appearance, he was always proud of himself for being able to evolve into a dragon, but the dragon clan didn't quite accept his feelings.

Omi was busy asking, "Clan leader, which part of the Qilin Clan?"

The dragon chief said, "I advise you not to go."

"Why?"

"The Qilin clan, who are incredibly arrogant, despise humans the most, so why are you running away?"

"Uh."

Little Fire was busy saying, "How can that be, I think humans are fine."

The patriarch said, "All the races living in the Seven Seas, except for the humans in the Extreme South Continent, are all holy beasts and spirit people. It's not that I despise humans, but those humans are really too despicable. They're like cockroaches, their reproduction ability is so strong that it's ridiculous, look at the Extreme South Continent, and now they're being given, forget it, by that group of cockroaches."

Omi's forehead broke out in cold sweat, saying that to his face was too disgraceful to humans.

And comparing humans to cockroaches, cockroaches were known for their reproductive ability, humans hated cockroaches very much, could it be that these races, the dragons, the humans in their eyes, were just like the cockroaches in the eyes of humans?

As for the human's ability to reproduce, Omi admitted that it was indeed very powerful, and in just tens of thousands of years, it could be bred from a few, to a single litter. No wonder these holy beasts of the dragon race, treated humans so badly.

"You don't accept it when I say that?"

"Uh, oh, Chief, I just don't understand why you have such a preconceived notion of humans."

"I'm only talking about the lower level humans here, I don't mean the higher level humans."

"By the way, you just said that all the people living in the Seven Seas are holy beasts and spirits, is this?"

"That's right, the Seven Seas is a place with many races, completely different from the place beneath the Six Seas, which is a bunch of stinking gutters. Our Seven Heavy Seas, other than those low-level humans from the Extreme South Continent, the rest of us are all holy beasts, for example, our dragon, unicorn, and phoenix clans. Aside from our holy beast race, there's also the strongest race, the Celestial Race, also known as the Spirit People."

"What are they?"

"They're advanced humans, they were born with a half-immortal physique, and every single one of them can ascend to the Immortal Realm and become a true immortal."

"Oh."

"You'd better never set foot in the Half Immortal Clan's territory, or else you'll die a horrible death."The dragon clan leader warned.

"Uh, yeah, that serious."

"The Half Immortal Clan, they are most disgusting to you lowly humans.After coming to our Dragon Clan today, don't go anywhere else but back to your Extreme South Continent.Don't you know that the rest of your Extreme South Continent never dares to take a half step into any other place?"
