"Hehehe, Immortal Method, it's worthy of being an Immortal Exotica, it's simply awesome." At the dinner banquet, Tang Huan said happily.

"Outsider device?" Mo Yuyan's eyebrows furrowed.

Omi said, "That's right, just like playing the game, the Immortal Method, just like the game through the strategy, there are always some experts who play the game, they will release some strategies, as long as you play according to the strategy, playing the game will be simple. It's the same with immortal cultivation, the immortal cultivation method invented by previous generations is the summary of their experiences, through the strategies."

Mu Qianji asked, "Omi, now that you've cultivated to the Seventh Stage of Tribulation, how is your strength?"

"It's strong," Don Omi said.

"Uh, how so."

"I hadn't even cultivated to the Seventh Stage of Tribulation before, I got Bimbo's five hundred breaths, now, not only do I have Bimbo's breaths, my realm has improved, and I've also recovered my memories from my previous life. Although I was a dude in my previous life, I was at least the lowest level of an immortal, and at least I knew some of the immortal world's techniques. So, I guess I'm close to invincible in the spirit world."

"Ah, close to invincible?"

"Yes."

"Does that mean in the extreme south continent, or does it include the various races such as the dragons?"

"Nonsense, the Extreme South Continent's invincibility has a damn meaning, including all races of course." Omi rolled his eyes, the Extreme South Continent Omi had already been invincible. The first website m.kanshu8.net

"Wow, so that means we can walk around in the Seven Seas without being restricted to stay in the Extreme South Continent."

"Of course we can, it's been more than two years since one passed, and I don't know how the little white dragon, purple pupil, and little fire are doing now. I think it's time to go see them."

"Hmmm, we'll go too."

"Okay, this time, I'll take you guys with me."

"But what if the dragons don't welcome us?" Xia Xiaoxin asked.

Omi smiled, "We're not welcome? Then hit them where they're welcome, in fact, the dragons shouldn't be unwelcome, and if they're not, they weren't welcome in the first place."

"Also."

"Anyway, my strength isn't low now, as long as I'm not a parahuman, no one should be my opponent anymore, even if I am a parahuman, I may not be able to kill me, what else do I have to fear."

Mu Qianji said, "Omi, don't take anything for granted, your strength is fine, but if so many of us follow you, if we encounter a strong person at the level of the ninth stage of tribulation, are you sure that you can protect each and every one of us? What if the other party has many of them at the ninth stage of tribulation, so averaging so many of us weaklings with you immediately lowers your strength."

"Also, when I said near invincible just now, I meant that I alone, if I take you guys with me and get averaged out by you, it does drop a lot."

"So if we really want to go out, we have to be careful." Mu Qianji said.

Omi nodded his head.

The next day, Omi set off with everyone.

Even Wang Xuewei went with him.

It should be noted here that Wang Xuewei was using her aura by Omi, soaring to the first stage of the Tribulation, and she had also learned Omi's Immortal cultivation method, after all, Omi had also taken her there, so she couldn't be too indebted to others.

"Our first first stop is to head to the Dragon Clan."

A few days later, Omi and the others arrived near the Dragon Clan.

Out of courtesy, Omi didn't barge in directly, but rather informed first.

Soon after, the little white dragon himself came out to greet them.

"Wow, brother Omi, sister Xin, you're all here, I'm so happy." The little white dragon flew out in human form, incomparably happy.

&nbs.

p; Two years in the past, the little white dragon in human form looked much more mature and plump.

"Little White, two years no see, how have you been in the Dragon Clan."

"Brother Omi, I'm having a good time, and you guys, I've missed you guys, unfortunately, my grandfather forced me to cultivate, otherwise I would have come back to see you guys."

"Haha, we're fine too."

"Let's go, let's go to the Dragon Valley first, I'm going to feast you guys tonight."

"Good."

Omi and the others flew into the Valley of the Dragons along with Little White.

However, with so many humans to the Dragon Clan, it suddenly caused many of them to watch, many of them didn't look very happy, but because of Little White's identity, no one said anything.

Dao: "Actually, you guys are just in time."

"Uh, what's wrong." Omi saw that Little White's face didn't seem to be very happy.

"Actually, in a few days, I'm going to hold a marriage recruitment contest."

"What do you mean?"

"I'm now the number one beautiful princess of the Dragon Clan, and my fame has spread to where all the holy beasts of the Seven Seas are. Our Dragon Clan is dwindling by the day, so we want to use my beauty to hold a public marriage recruitment contest."

"Ah, this is to find you a boyfriend, huh? And to face all the holy beasts?"

"Mhmm, after this news was sent out, almost all the holy beasts young talents said that they would come and participate, and I heard that even the Half Immortal Clan had people coming. In the past few days, our Dragon Clan has also been making preparations."

Tang Huan whispered, "Little White is a dragon, could it be, that the dragon race can interbreed with other holy beast races?"

Omi glared at Tang Huan, "Don't be so nasty."

Tang Huan was embarrassed.

: "I don't know about that, I don't know anything about men and women right now, but the elders of my dragon clan have dared to send out messages to other sacred beast races, so I guess it's okay, it doesn't have to be the same race to get married. Even the Half Immortal Race has people who want me, but the Half Immortal Race is exactly the same as the humans in the Extreme South Continent."

Mu Qianji said, "Aren't you happy then?"

"Why should I be happy ah, I'm not happy at all."

Omi said, "Xiao Bai, didn't you say before that you like humans, the Half Immortals are also us humans, and I'm more advanced than us humans, born with a Half Immortal physique, it's not good for you to find a Half Immortal."

"I don't want one."

"Why."

"I just don't want it, I don't want to find a man so soon."

"Then why would your grandfather want you to find a man so soon?" Xia Xiaoxin asked.

Sebastian's eyes were red.

"What's wrong?" Omi was nervous, in Omi's eyes, Xiao Bai was like his sister, if he suffered any grievances here, Omi would be the first to refuse.

"My grandfather, he has already ascended to the Immortal World."..

"Ugh."

"No wonder it's so hard on you, go, take me to your clan leader."

"It's useless."

"It's useless to say."

Omi soon met the clan leader of the Dragon Clan.

"Haha, Fellow Daoist Tang, you're here, could it be that you also heard the information about Sebastian's recruitment contest?" The dragon clan leader chuckled.

Omi asked, "I didn't even think of it if you didn't tell me, I'm at least Xiao Bai's brother, Xiao Bai is going to hold a marriage recruitment contest, so I should be notified at any rate, you've notified every other sacred beast race, why didn't I?"
