

King of kings

1943

Little Fire was ashamed, but Omi was right, it was indeed very nah.

Omi said, "Little Fire, we can leave now and come back in two years for the Unicorn King Competition."

"Mm."

Omi and Little Fire left and returned to the stone house on the outskirts.

As soon as Mu Qianji saw Little Fire's reaction, he asked, "Looks like you guys had a good time last night, if I'm not mistaken, the clan leader must have arranged two beautiful women for you."

Omi laughed, "You really know how to guess."

"Hmph." Mu Qianji snorted.

Omi didn't explain either.

However, "Sister-in-law, Brother Chen he didn't, it's me."

"Ugh."

Little Fire was embarrassed and ran away. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

In the blink of an eye, two years had passed.

These two years, Omi and the others were all cultivating here at ease, not going anywhere, they had the Immortal Cultivation Method, the speed of their cultivation was definitely needless to say.

However, two years was too much time, and they were also at the stage of tribulation, two years was hardly a change.

Omi was still at the eighth stage of Tribulation, but he had taken a big step forward and was one step closer to the ninth stage of Tribulation.

Mu Qianji and the others hadn't broken through either, but it was Little Fire, who had cultivated the Dharma and had broken through to the sixth stage of the Tribulation.

"Brother Chen, the Unicorn King Competition is about to start, and now that I've broken through to the Sixth Stage of Tribulation, I'm even more confident that I'll win first place."

"Cheer up."

Omi and the others immediately accompanied Little Fire to the Kirin Clan headquarters to participate in the competition.

The competition was hot, and almost everyone from the Qilin Clan was here.

The village flower that Little Fire liked, Yang Yang, had also come with her parents and other relatives and was in the crowd.

“Brother Chen, I’ve seen Yang Yang.”

“Seeing her again now, do you still feel it?” Don Omi asked.

Little Fire said sadly, “After all, I once loved so deeply.”

Omi knew from looking at Little Fire that Little Fire hadn’t let go inside, he didn’t expect Little Fire to be an infatuated person, fortunately Omi helped him untie the knot, otherwise, his future cultivation would definitely be affected.

Omi patted, “Don’t think too much about it yet, the moment you win the first place and become the center of attention, I believe that she will return to you.”

“Mmhm.” Little Fire nodded happily, however, there was a bit of a mustard inside.

The Unicorn King Competition started soon, there were many participants, everyone wanted to enter the top ten and gain the title of Unicorn King.

In the crowd, Yang Yang, who came from Hundred Herb Village, suddenly saw Little Fire.

“Hmm, Little Flame? Why is he here? Hmph, what an insubordination, with him, he’s definitely eliminated in the first round.” Yang Yang said with a grunt.

A man standing next to Yang Yang was busy saying, “Who is Little Fire?”

“Ah, he, he’s a man from the same village as me.” Yang Yang was busy explaining, afraid that because of the misunderstanding, she was now with this man beside her. It was the same one who was called Yin Ming, the red man beside Prince Yan Bao.

Yang Yang’s boyfriend laughed, “Yang Yang, do you think that Prince Yan Leopard will still be able to win first place in this Unicorn King Competition?”

“Of course, I have full confidence in Prince Infernal Leopard.” Yang Yang said.

“Prince Infernal Leopard is the strongest of all the princes, the most talented, with the brightest future.”

“Hehe.” Yang Yang was happy inside, she felt glorious at the thought of her boyfriend, who was the red man beside this strongest prince. Inside Yang Yang couldn’t help but think of what happened when Little Fire was chasing her, and couldn’t help but be amused that he would dare to compare himself to Yin Ming.

The match started soon.

Little Fire didn’t at first.

Taking out any strength, he barely made it past the first round.

When Yang Yang saw that Little Fire hadn't even eliminated in the first round, he snorted and seemed uncomfortable inside, saying, "He definitely won't make it through the second round."

The second round began.

Little Fire didn't make much of a splash, and passed the second round smoothly and steadily.

When Yang Yang saw that Little Fire wasn't eliminated in the second round either, she panicked a bit, and she didn't know what to panic about.

"This bastard, how is it possible, there's no way he could have made it past the second round with his strength. Hmph, I will never believe that he can still pass the third round." Yang Yang said with great certainty inside.

The third round had begun.

Little Fire still passed with ease, and it looked like he still had some energy left.

"Ah." Yang Yang was really panicking inside at the moment.

"He actually passed the third round and entered the top thirty, no, I don't believe he's that strong." Yang Yang couldn't help but look at her boyfriend beside her, her boyfriend had once also participated and eliminated in the first round. Little Fire, on the other hand, had even made it to the top thirty, and honestly, Little Fire had surpassed his boyfriend with that.

Yang Yang was very irritated inside.

"Everyone, the Unicorn King Competition, it will soon be the fourth round, and when the fourth round comes over, the top ten will be seen, I expect you all to work hard."

There was a stir and shouts.

Whether or not one could enter the top ten and obtain the title of King of the Gryphons would depend on the fourth round.

At this moment, Little Fire was also a little nervous, finally reaching the most crucial time, the top ten will all be awarded the title of King of the Qilin, in the Qilin Clan, it will be incomparably glorious.

The fourth round, soon began again.

The competition had reached its most tense and intense moment.

Let's not talk about the process of the competition, after some intense sparring, the results were out.

Little Fire had successfully made it through the fourth round and became the top ten of this session.

"Ah." Yang Yang, who was in the crowd, was completely dumbfounded, the person who had been deceived and discarded by her had become one of the top ten in the Unicorn King Competition.

At this moment, Yang Yang didn't know what to feel inside, and couldn't describe it with words.

The boyfriend beside Yang Yang was cheering for the top ten and was looking at the top ten in the ring with adoring eyes.

Yang Yang turned her head to see the worship of the top ten in her boyfriend's eyes, and felt frustrated that the person she had chosen, now, was only worshipping Little Fire.

I don't know why, Yang Yang suddenly felt a burst of dislike for her boyfriend inside, obviously the day before, she still liked it so much, and also felt that he was a very honored red person beside the Prince of Yan Bao. However, at this moment, it didn't even feel glorious at all.

Yang Yang knew that it must be because Xiao Huo had entered the top ten and become one of the Qilin Kings, and the achievements that Xiao Huo had achieved spiked her boyfriend didn't know how many streets had gone.

At this moment, Omi was in the distance, looking at the crowd, Yang Yang's any expression, did not escape Omi's eyes.

The corner of Omi's mouth popped, "I'll see how you regret it, how dare you dislike my brother, huh."

In the ring, Little Fire and the other nine people, receiving the attention of the entire arena, the whole arena cheered for them. Of course, among the ten people in the ring, the loudest cheerer was Prince Yan Leopard.

Prince Yan Leopard had been first place for several consecutive years, and was the pride and worship of almost all the Qilin Clan.

This year, everyone believed that Prince Yan Leopard would undoubtedly continue to be the champion for another year.

The head of the Qilin Clan flew out at this time, and the next competition would be judged by him personally, out of respect for the Qilin King.

The head of the clan shouted: "Congratulations, ten of you, you have won the title of King of the Qilin, I will now officially confer the title of King of the Qilin on you. After the conferral, the competition will continue, because, we still want to know who will be awarded the title of 'Strongest Unicorn King'."

The crowd cheered once again.
