

King of kings

1970

It was time for the Fourth Order of Tribulation competition.

Humans participated, an old man named Hu Zheng, this Hu Zheng, was ordered by Omi ten years ago and taught him spells.

Of course, there were also Little White and Purple Pupil, who were in the fourth stage of the Tang Chi Gate's Robbery, but Omi had Little White and Purple Pupil, who represented the Dragon Race, after all, they were dragons.

So, this round was special after all, the humans didn't win first place, but only third place, first place being Xiaobai and second place being the Dragon Clan.

However, the dragon tribe couldn't be happy, because everyone knew that Xiaobai and Purple Pupil, both of them were Omi's people.

The people who participated on the human side of the fifth stage of the Transition, were Yan Xingyi and Xia Xiaoxin.

In the end, Yan Xinyi won first place, Xia Xiaoxin won second place, and the Underworld's won third place.

The participants were Tang Huan and Lv Yuxi.

Tang Huan won the first place, Lu Yuxi won the second place, and the one from the Underworld tribe won the third place.

For the Seventh Level of Tribulation, the participants were Mu Qianji and Little Flame.

However, Little Flame represented the Qilin Clan. Remember the website .kanshu8.net

In this round, there was not much difference in strength between Mu Qianji and Xiao Huo, in the end, Xiao Huo did not hold out any longer and let Mu Qianji, thus, Mu Qianji won first place and Xiao Huo second place. The genius of the dragon race won third place.

Eighth Order of Tribulation, human side, there were no contestants, as there were no ones above the eighth order of Tribulation on the human side, except for Omi.

The ninth step of Tribulation, human side, also had no contestants.

Just like that, the sensational Seven Seas Meeting Martial was over in three days.

The final result made Omi very satisfied.

Omi stood on the ring and said to everyone, "Everyone, the three-day Seven Seas Meeting Martial, at this point, is officially over, and I can say that we have won first place in all the competitions, and although the Transmigration Fourth Order Dragon Race is first, Sebastian and Purple Pupil, who represent the Dragon Race, are both from my Tang Chi Gate. I think everyone is now well aware that we, humans, have crushed you with our strength. To be precise, it is the Tang Ji Gate that has crushed the various races. I think everyone is already very clear about what we, Tang Ji Gate, represent."

All the races were silent.

Omi said, "Next, I will teach my techniques to everyone in the Tang Ji Gate, and in the future, our Tang Ji Gate will definitely be an existence standing at the peak."

At this time, the prospective Immortals of the Water Race were busy asking, "Human King, may I ask if we of the Water Race can join the Tang Extreme Gate and become a part of it?"

Omi smiled, "That's a good question, my answer is that ten years ago, I already extended an invitation to you, but unfortunately, at that time, you refused, so you have missed your chance."

The prospective Immortals of the Water People Clan immediately knelt down and pleaded, "Human King, please also lift up your hand and let the people of my clan join the Tang Ji Gate. We already know deeply how powerful the Tang Ji Gate is, if the Tang Ji Gate only allows humans to exist, then in the future, every human who has practiced your techniques is so powerful, and the number of humans is so large, then our race will be vulnerable to you humans, ah, our clan will be exterminated by you."

Omi said, "You're right, at that time, your races, which were once so high and mighty, will be vulnerable to humans."

"I would also like to ask the human king to promise to let the geniuses of our clan join the Tang Chi Gate." Everyone knelt down.

Omi smiled and said, "You guys go back first, allow me to think about it, and come back in a year."

"Yes." The people of those races, lost, left first.

"Tzichen.

Why don't you let them join the Tang Clan? In fact, they can be allowed to join, so that the Tang Ji Gate can become a holy place of cultivation for everyone." Mu Qianji said.

"Hmph, they can join if they want to? Now that they have felt the crisis, if every single disciple of my Tang Ji Gate cultivates magic, then their races will be incomparably weak. Therefore, I'm going to give them a year's time, which they will definitely spend in torment, so that after a year, they will only feel cherished if they permit to join the Tang Ji Gate."

"Oh, so you didn't have rejection in mind."

"Yes, just deliberately giving them a bit of a hard time. Thousand Extremes, I've now sensed that the thunderstorm is coming." Omi said.

"Ah, the last thunderstorm?"

"Yes. After surviving the last thunderstorm, I'm a parahuman and could leave this world at any time."

"How can it be so fast." Mu Qianji was a little panicked.

"Alas, this really isn't the time for me to leave, so I'd better listen to Xiaobai's advice and leave here immediately after becoming a Quasi-Immortal to a place with no aura, and I'll come back once you're able to face this world on your own."

"Mm." Mu Qianji nodded.

"Then you can only go to the Mortal Realm."

"Yes. There is no aura in the Mortal Realm, and even if I become a parahuman, I won't be able to sense the call to ascend so quickly."

"Alas, it's all because we're still so weak."

"No, it's the humans who are so weak, if the humans had quasi-immortals or even existed in the ninth stage of Tribulation, I wouldn't have to bother so much, I would be able to teach spells to the humans in the ninth stage of Tribulation. However, the humans don't even have the eighth stage of Tribulation now."

Mu Qianji bitterly to, "The only five that were at the eighth stage of Tribulation were all killed by you."

"Why are you talking about these past events. I'm going to the tribulation now, and after the tribulation, I still have a trip to the Six Seas to look for Bimon."

"Ah, what's the point of looking for Bimon."

Omi smiled, "I've recovered my past life memories, Bimon is my servant from my past life ah."

"Also, then you go."

Omi immediately entered the room and closed his eyes for the robbery.

Mu Qianji watched from outside the door, although Omi was very confident in his robbery, Mu Qianji still carried the worry inside that if he failed the robbery, Omi would no longer be able to open his eyes.

Fortunately, a few minutes later, Omi opened his eyes.

Mu Qianji was suddenly relieved.

Omi saw the look on Mu Qianji's face and said wordlessly, "Do you still have to worry if I'm going to be robbed."

"Nonsense." Mu Qianji was furious, she was very nervous in those few minutes just now.

"I, Tang someone, if a mere immortal can still die after a martial robbery, then I'm too rubbish, I was an immortal in my previous life." Omi said.

"Alright, I know you're great, you should go to the Six Seas and find Bimbo."

"Well, I was ashamed of Bimon in my past life, I have to rescue him in this life, he still doesn't know that I've recovered my past life memories, Bimon used to be strange to me, but now, it feels like an old acquaintance." Omi laughed bitterly, then disappeared into the spot.

Omi appeared in the sky above the Six Seas in the next moment.

Omi headed straight for the Sixfold Sea of Death.

Beamon was sealed because his soul was dedicated to Omi in his previous life, so he couldn't return to the Immortal Realm, his strength was almost gone and he was imprisoned here, today Omi would help him free himself.
