

King of kings

1989

Omi looked towards the podium, his gaze meeting Princess Yun Meng's.

When Princess Yun Meng saw Omi looking over, she snorted and seemed to despise him for a while, then walked straight away, looking incomparably proud. Omi had merely defeated a grandmother Hu, it was impossible to reverse her impression of Omi, and even if she did, it wouldn't be enough to talk about any liking for Omi.

Omi looked at Princess Yun Meng who flew away, he knew that even if Omi entered the top three of the genius list at this time, Princess Yun Meng would not choose him as her man.

Fortunately, there was still at least fifty years left for Omi to change his opinion in her mind.

After that, Omi left the Royal Tournament Grounds and went straight home.

The news that Omi had become the sixteenth on the pre-human immortal genius list spread throughout the city in less than half a day, and everyone was deeply incredulous that someone so bad in his previous life was so genius after his reincarnation.

Of course, people who loathed Omi were still disgusted, no matter what achievements Omi had taken.

In order to celebrate Omi becoming the sixteenth, the Zhou residence held a grand banquet, and some people who tended to be in the wrong came to attend.

The royal prince, and no one came to trouble Omi afterwards.

"How's it going, how's the Immortal Machine Spitting Method being learned?" One day, the Nine Dao Demon King suddenly asked.

"It's not bad, I've spent a lot of time vomiting every day, it's just that, it feels like the accumulation of fairy machines is quite slow." One second to remember to read the book

"You're still too slow, if it wasn't for the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, the Immortal Fate wouldn't even be visible." The Nine Dao Demon King said.

"Oh, maybe I'm in a hurry, by the way, I take some geniuses and I found that I can increase my Immortal Fate by a lot in an instant."

"This is of course, everyone who takes immortal grasses can increase their immortal fate, even if you haven't learned the Immortal Machine Spitting Method, the Immortal Machine Spitting Method only allows you to still accumulate immortal machines if you don't have any immortal grasses."

"Senior Demon King, if I have immortal grass and such again, can I grow even faster?"

"That's nonsense, it's just a pity that immortal grasses, immortal pills, and so on aren't so easy to obtain."

“Immortal pills are?”

“Immortal pills are of course made using immortal grass and other materials, after all, immortal grass is grass, but immortal pills are the essence of grass, and in the same year, if they are trained into immortal pills, the effect will be more than twice as strong as immortal grass. It’s just that immortal pills are hard to make, there aren’t many alchemists in the entire Immortal World, and your Earth Immortal World is probably even less.”

Omi was busy asking, “What does it take to learn how to refine an Immortal Pill?”

“You just don’t waste that time and vomit well.”

“Truth be told, I would have been an alchemist when I was in the Spiritual Realm, and I’m pretty basic in this area of pharmacology, and I was also a divine doctor when I was in the Mortal Realm, although I know that immortal pills are completely different, but the principles and such should be similar. As long as I’m allowed to learn it, I can definitely learn it.” Omi was full of confidence.

“You.” The Nine Dao Demon King was a bit surprised, Omi wasn’t just a martial genius ah, it turned out that he had talent in other areas as well.

“Alright, I’ll pass on to you an Immortal Pill Beginner’s Dictionary, I tried to learn it back then, but unfortunately I couldn’t understand it at all, but I still remember the contents of the Dictionary. This Immortal Pill Introductory Dictionary is just the foundation of the entry level, if you can really learn it, it will only allow you to become a first-grade Pill Master, and you have to continue in the future, you must worship a more powerful master.”

“Good.”

sp; After that, the Nine Dao Demon King immediately passed on to Omi the Immortal Pill Primer that he knew of.

Omi immediately began to study it.

Omi discovered that, as expected, refining Immortal Pills and refining Spirit Pills were similar and different.

The only difference was that refining immortal pills required a high level of fire, and one must use more than one true fire in order to succeed. However, it wasn’t difficult to master the One True Fire, so go learn a spell to emit one true fire.

Of course, as the requirements of the Immortal Pill increased, the one true fire must also increase, for example, the two true fires and the three true fires.

Omi was like a treasure.

Why, because, immortal pills were amazing, for example, when using immortal grasses that were millions of years old, the effect could be equal to millions of years old when they were refined.

“I must learn how to refine Immortal Pills, both for the future and the present, it will be very beneficial.”

However, Omi must first learn the True Fire spell.

“Senior Demon King.”

“Senior Demon King?”

No response, it seems, Omi can only call passively.

Omi went to look for Zhou Tie.

“Mi’er, what are you looking for me for.” Zhou Tie smiled, since Omi had defeated Grandmother Hu, Zhou Tie’s status in the court had all improved a lot, so he was in a good mood. If Omi’s ranking could be even higher, it would be even happier.

“Lord Father, I want to ask you one thing, do you have any spell secrets about True Fire?”

“Uh, you want to learn real fire magic?”

“Yes.”

“Mi’er, Earth Immortal Realm, there are many, various kinds of spells, but, there are also high and low spells, true fire spells, honestly, belong to the stronger spells, or, rarer spells, because true fire attacks are single, but they are time consuming to cultivate, usually only people who refine Immortal Pills, will learn true fire spells.”

“Father, don’t say so much, just tell me where there are true fire spells.”

“In our Yunluo Immortal Kingdom, I’m afraid that only the Royal Collection is available, you should know that the Royal Collection is only accessible to royal descendants, and every royal descendant, after cultivating to the Immortal realm, can go and pick the spell that suits them. It’s impossible for us to go in.”

“In that case, wouldn’t that be a bit troublesome.” Omi didn’t have a frown.

Omi said, “Lord Father, do you still have any Immortal Grass on you?”

“Mi’er, I really don’t have any on me.”

“No no, I don’t mean high-grade, like, hundreds of thousands of years old immortal grasses or something.”

“Uh, hundreds of thousands of years old?”

“Yes.”

“There are some, but I only have the ones within three hundred thousand years, and the ones over three hundred thousand years are already gone.”

“Within three hundred thousand years, can I have some?”

“What are you coming for, a fairy grass of this vintage has little to no utility.”

“Don’t worry about that, just give it to me.”

“Good.” Zhou Tie immediately turned over a dozen or so Immortal Grasses that were within 300,000 years.

After Omi took the immortal grass, he immediately left the Zhou residence.
