

King of kings

Three years had arrived in a flash.

It had taken Omi three years to finally accumulate the Immortal Machine to 100, which meant that Omi was halfway to the halfway point on the path of the Pre-Human Immortal Realm, and halfway to cultivation.

“Pre-Human Immortal, finally halfway through the cultivation.” Omi clenched his fists, feeling much stronger, before Omi was only just starting out, he was able to defeat Lou Lou Hu who had cultivated to halfway, but now, Omi had also cultivated to halfway, Omi had the confidence to dress those geniuses who were in the pre-human immortal stage and had cultivated to the late stage.

“This time, the genius list will be reshuffled, I must become the number one in the pre-human immortal stage.” Omi’s gaze was filled with determination.

Omi had to defeat the 16 people on the Pre-Human Immortal Ranking List who had cultivated to the late stage if he wanted to become the first place in the Pre-Human Immortal Ranking List.

Omi came to the next room, the next room, Belinda Ma, was cultivating, for three years, she cultivated the Silence Technique taught by Omi, she should be somewhat successful.

In these three years, Omi and Belinda Ma didn’t leave the room for half a step, and no one from the house’s servants came to disturb them, for the immortal world, three years is like three days.

Omi didn’t bother Belinda Ma, although three years had passed, there were still a few months before the genius list was reshuffled.

“I should go see Little Fire and the others as well.”

Omi turned around and left the Zhou residence.

Omi arrived at the small separate courtyard where Little Fire Mu Qianji and the others lived. One Second Remember to Read the Book “Little Fire, Thousand Splendor, Huanhuan, Rainy Creek, and Shisun.” Omi stood in the courtyard and shouted out one by one.

Soon, everyone walked out of the room, they all had a layer of dust on them, it was obvious that they hadn’t moved a bit in years.

“Brother Chen, you’re here.” Little Fire One called.

Omi sized up everyone, all of them had made a cut, Little Fire and Mu Qianji, all of them had reached parahuman.

Tang Huan, Lu Yuxi, Yan Xingyi, Xia Xiaoxin, all four of them had reached the ninth stage of Tribulation and were not far from being quasi-immortals.

Mo Yuyan, Purple Pupil, Xiaobai, and Wang Xuwei, also all reached the eighth stage of Tribulation.

“Not bad, everyone has made rapid progress these past few years. Tonight, let’s go to the restaurant for a big meal.”

“Good.”

That night, Omi brought all of them to a luxurious inn and gave them a ruthless rubdown.

After eating, Omi didn’t go back to the Zhou residence, but came to the small separate courtyard, after all, and Mu Qianji and the others hadn’t been together for several years, after that Omi lived in the small separate courtyard for half a month, this half month Omi didn’t cultivate, and everyone didn’t do anything, like a holiday.

After half a month, Mu Qianji and his group continued their closed-door cultivation, while Omi finally returned to the Zhou residence.

“Where did you go?” When Omi returned to the Zhou Residence, Belinda Ma had finished her cultivation and was in her room a hundred times bored. Omi hadn’t returned for half a month, she was a bit impatient with waiting, and she wasn’t familiar with the Zhou residence, so she waited in her room every day.

“Aren’t you in cultivation.”

“I ended my cultivation, I waited for you for almost half a month, this half month, where did you go to get away again.”

“Yes, I did get away for half a month, and to tell you the truth, there are a lot of women who like me, and there are a lot of women who are prettier than you.”

“None of my business.”

“Alright, I don’t want to fight with you, how are you practicing now, in another month, the genius list will be reshuffled

.”

“I, for one, don’t understand a few things,” Belinda Ma said softly.

In fact, the reason why Belinda Ma had been waiting for Omi to return for the past half month was to ask Omi about those few things she didn’t understand.

“Come with me.” Omi said.

“Find a wider place and I’ll practice against you.”

"Ah." Belinda Ma was delighted, inside her heart she just wanted Omi to practice against her and teach her to solve those parts she didn't understand by the way, but she was afraid that Omi wouldn't agree, after all, it wasn't who she was, why should she be so attentive to her, but she didn't expect that Omi would take the initiative to practice against her.

The two of them came to the courtyard.

Omi said, "You attacked me."

Belinda Ma was not polite and immediately attacked Omi.

A few minutes later, Omi commented, "Too bad."

Belinda Ma snorted in displeasure, "Where did I practice too badly?"

"If you go to the Genius Ranking Shuffle in this state, then I'm really worried about whether you can enter the top 100. The effect of the move you just performed, the Ten Thousand Things Without Spring Avatar, is sickly and spiritless, not to mention offensive."

"Is it not like this if you cast it, I don't believe it." Belinda Ma said unconvinced.

"Then open your eyes wide and see clearly." After saying that, Tang Zidun performed the same one of the Silence Technique once himself, All Things Springless.

"Buzz." Omi just lightly punched out a punch, the air emitted a dull to chilling sound, and a cluster of flowers not far away from Omi suddenly changed from fresh branches and green leaves, to a cluster of flower bones.

"Ah." Belinda Ma's body shook, seeing Omi perform the same move, but it was so powerful that it was several times more powerful than hers, as if they were practicing completely different levels of spells.

Belinda Ma's eyes looked at Omi incredulously, Omi seemed to have shown her, what is the same as a spell, before Belinda Ma thought that there was only a difference between the higher and lower levels of spells, but she didn't expect that the same spell and different people would have such a big difference.

Omi said, "See clearly? What is the effect of this spell that you have cast? What's the difference between it and mine?"

"Me." Belinda Ma stammered for a moment, Omi's face was now serious, suddenly like an elder, Belinda Ma forgot all about that rapist image of Omi for a moment.

Omi said, "Now I'm going to teach you a little bit, so remember carefully, from the level of understanding of the spell, your understanding of the spell is problematic."

"Oh."

"Watch carefully."

"Uh, yes." Belinda Ma was speechless, but she was fierce, but Belinda Ma seemed to have no complaints about being fierce at the moment.

Omi was not stingy, nor was he too hard on her, guiding her bit by bit, her mistakes, her incorrect places, and correcting her again and again.

In this way, Omi taught her the Five Forms of Silence Technique, practiced it with her and guided her, spending ten days.

After ten days, Belinda Ma's application of the Silence Technique had completely reached the level that Omi intended.

"Well, not bad, it's reached my requirements." Omi nodded his head with a slight smile as he looked at the one time that Belinda Ma had just cast the All Things Springless spell.

Belinda Ma was relieved to see that Omi was finally satisfied, and she involuntarily pursed her lips, these ten days, being approved to death by Omi, she didn't know how much she had been fierce.
